liability insurance policy. For purposes of this subdivision, farm laborer does not include any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of a farmer employed by the farmer, or any executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, or any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of such an officer employed by that family farm corporation, or other farmers in the same community or members of their families exchanging work with the employer. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a farm laborer shall not be considered as an independent contractor for the purposes of this chapter; provided that a commercial baler or commercial thresher shall be considered an independent contractor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.041, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

(d) A closely held corporation which had less than 22,880 hours of payroll in the previous calendar year may elect coverage for any executive officer if that executive officer is also an owner of at least 25 percent of the stock of the corporation.

(e) A person, partnership, or corporation that receives the services of a voluntary uncompensated worker who is not required to be covered under this chapter may elect to provide coverage for that worker.

(f) A person, partnership, or corporation hiring an independent contractor, as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner, may elect to provide coverage for that independent contractor. A person, partnership, or corporation may charge the independent contractor a fee for providing the coverage only if the independent contractor (1) elects in writing to be covered, (2) is issued an endorsement setting forth the terms of the coverage, the name of the independent contractors, and the fee and how it is calculated.

The persons, partnerships, and corporations described in this subdivision may also elect coverage for an employee who is a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an owner, partner, or executive officer, who is eligible for coverage under this subdivision. Coverage may be elected for a spouse, parent, or child whether or not coverage is elected for the related owner, partner, or executive director and whether or not the person, partnership, or corporation employs any other person to perform a service for hire. Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this subdivision shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this subdivision shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom Subdivision 1. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes officers of corporations who have legal control, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of wages. An action to recover the moneys shall be instituted unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.215, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

ARTICLE 2

COMPENSATION BENEFITS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DAILY WAGE.] "Daily wage" means the daily wage of the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury but does not include tips and gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of the employer and not accounted for by the employee to the employer. If the amount of the daily wage received or to be received by the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury was irregular or difficult to determine, or if the employment was part time, the daily wage shall be computed by dividing the total amount the employee actually earned in such employment in the last 26 weeks, by the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of such employment, provided further, that in the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours of work are affected by seasonal conditions, the weekly wage shall not be less than five times the daily wage. Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of earnings and computed at their value to the employee. In the case of persons performing services for municipal corporations in the case of emergency, then the normal working day shall be considered and computed as eight hours, and in cases where such services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the daily wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where such services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of daily wage. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of daily wage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of weekly wage. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked~~ employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] "After-tax weekly wage" means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents and without additional allowances. The after-tax weekly wage must be determined as of the date of injury, and changes in dependents after that date may not be considered.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101, subdivision 3. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment ~~for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be ~~then~~ made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101.~~ The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. ~~Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.~~

~~Disability ratings for permanent partial disability shall be based on objective medical evidence.~~ The right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, ~~economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation,~~ medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (c) Temporary partial compensation may not exceed the maximum rate for temporary total compensation and must be reduced to the extent that the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition plus the temporary partial disability payment otherwise payable under this subdivision exceeds 300 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) Compensation for permanent partial disability is as provided in this subdivision. Permanent partial disability must be rated as a percentage of the whole body in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner under section 176.105. The percentage determined pursuant to the rules must be multiplied by the corresponding amount in the following table:

Percent of Disability	Amount
0-25	$ 75,000
26-30	80,000
31-35	85,000
36-40	90,000
41-45	95,000
46-50	100,000
51-55	120,000
56-60	140,000
61-65	160,000
66-70	180,000
71-75	200,000
76-80	240,000
81-85	280,000
86-90	320,000
96-100	400,000

An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. If the employee returns to work, the remaining compensation is payable in a lump sum 30 days after the employee returned to work, provided the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at the job at the end of the period. Permanent partial disability is not payable while temporary total compensation is being paid. Permanent partial disability is payable to permanently totally disabled employees in a lump sum at the time the disability can be ascertained.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.] For permanent total disability, as defined in subdivision 5, the compensation shall be ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury, subject to ~~a maximum weekly compensation equal to~~ the maximum ~~weekly compensation for a temporary total disability~~ and a minimum ~~weekly compensation equal to the minimum weekly compensation~~ rates for a temporary total disability. This compensation shall be paid during the permanent total disability of the injured employee but after a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation has been paid, the amount of the weekly compensation benefits being paid by the employer shall be reduced by the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which give rise to payments under this subdivision. This reduction shall also apply to any old age and survivor insurance benefits. Permanent total disability payments shall cease at retirement. Payments shall be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be. In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, no compensation shall be payable during the period of confinement in the institution, unless there is wholly dependent on the employee for support some person named in section 176.111, subdivision 1, 2 or 3, in which case the compensation provided for in section 176.111, during the period of confinement, shall be paid for the benefit of the dependent person during dependency. The dependency of this person shall be determined as though the employee were deceased.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~TOTAL DISABILITY~~ DEFINITION.] (a) For purposes of subdivision 4, permanent total disability means only:

(1) the total and permanent loss of the sight of both eyes, the loss of both arms at the shoulder, the loss of both legs so close to the hips that no effective artificial members can be used, complete and permanent paralysis, total and permanent loss of mental faculties~~,~~; or

(2) any other injury which totally and permanently incapacitates the employee from working at an occupation which brings the employee an income ~~constitutes total disability~~.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), clause (2), "totally and permanently incapacitated" means that the employee's physical disability, in combination with the employee's age, education and training, and experience, causes the employee to be unable to secure anything more than sporadic employment resulting in an insubstantial income. Local labor market conditions may not be considered in making the total and permanent incapacitation determination.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MINORS.] If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is a minor or is an apprentice of any age and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total ~~or a compensable permanent partial~~ disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which the employee is entitled for the injury, the compensation rate for ~~temporary total, temporary partial,~~ a permanent total disability ~~or economic recovery compensation~~ shall be 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MOVING EXPENSES.] An injured employee who has reached maximum medical improvement and who is unable to find suitable gainful employment consistent with the individual's physical disability, in combination with the individual's age, education and training, and experience, due to local labor market conditions is eligible to receive up to $5,000 for moving expenses, provided:

(1) 90 days have passed after the individual has reached maximum medical improvement;

(2) the individual has actually moved in order to take a new job which constitutes suitable gainful employment; and

(3) the new job is located at a distance greater than 35 miles from the individual's current residence.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RETRAINING; COMPENSATION.] (a) Retraining is limited to 156 weeks. An employee who has been approved for retraining may petition ~~the commissioner~~ for additional compensation not to exceed 25 percent of the compensation otherwise payable. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that this additional compensation is warranted due to unusual or unique circumstances of the employee's retraining plan, the commissioner or compensation judge may award additional compensation in an amount ~~the commissioner determines is appropriate,~~ not to exceed the employee's request. This additional compensation shall cease at any time the commissioner or compensation judge determines the special circumstances are no longer present.

(b) If the employee is not working during a retraining plan that has been specifically approved under this section, temporary total compensation is payable for up to 90 days after the end of the retraining plan; except that, payment during the 90-day period is subject to cessation in accordance with section 176.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), clauses (1) to (5). If the employee is working during the retraining plan but earning less than at the time of injury, temporary partial compensation is payable at the rate of 80 percent of the difference between the employee's after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition, subject to the maximum rate for temporary total compensation. Temporary partial compensation is not subject to either the 156-week or the 350-week limitation provided by section 176.101, subdivision 2, during the retraining plan, but is subject to those limitations before and after the plan.

(c) Retraining may not be approved if the employee has refused suitable gainful employment, as defined by rule.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE; RULES.] (a) The commissioner of labor and industry shall by rule establish a schedule of degrees of disability resulting from different kinds of injuries. Disability ratings under the schedule for permanent partial disability must be based on objective medical evidence. The commissioner, in consultation with the medical services review board, shall periodically review the rules adopted under this paragraph to determine whether any injuries omitted from the schedule should be compensable and amend the rules accordingly.

(b) No permanent partial disability compensation shall be payable except in accordance with the disability ratings established under this subdivision. The schedule may provide that minor impairments receive a zero rating.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT; RULES; LOSS OF MORE THAN ONE BODY PART.] (a) For the purpose of establishing a disability schedule pursuant to clause (b), the legislature declares its intent that the commissioner establish a disability schedule ~~which, assuming the same number and distribution of severity of injuries, the aggregate total of impairment compensation and economic recovery compensation benefits under section 176.101, subdivisions 3a to 3u be approximately equal to the total aggregate amount payable for permanent partial disabilities under section 176.101, subdivision 3, provided, however, that awards for specific injuries under the proposed schedule need not be the same as they were for the same injuries under the schedule pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3. The schedule shall be determined by sound actuarial evaluation and shall be based on the benefit level which exists on January 1, 1983~~.

(b) The commissioner shall by rulemaking adopt procedures setting forth rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability and to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3, and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3, which the commissioner deems appropriate.

The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Prior to adoption of rules the commissioner shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner may consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(1) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(2) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(3) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(4) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(5) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(6) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(7) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall be used only in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

Nothing listed in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall be used to dispute or challenge a disability rating given to a part of the body so long as the whole schedule conforms with the expressed intent of clause (a).

(c) If an employee suffers a permanent functional disability of more than one body part due to a personal injury incurred in a single occurrence, the percent of the whole body which is permanently partially disabled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the percentage for all functional disability combined does not exceed the total for the whole body:

where: A is the greater percentage whole body loss of the first body part; and B is the lesser percentage whole body loss otherwise payable for the second body part. $A + B (1-A)$ is equivalent to $A + B - AB$.

For permanent partial disabilities to three body parts due to a single occurrence or as the result of an occupational disease, the above formula shall be applied, providing that A equals the result obtained from application of the formula to the first two body parts and B equals the percentage for the third body part. For permanent partial disability to four or more body parts incurred as described above, A equals the result obtained from the prior application of the formula, and B equals the percentage for the fourth body part or more in arithmetic progressions.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SPOUSE, NO DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent child, there shall be paid to the spouse weekly workers' compensation benefits at ~~50~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SPOUSE, ONE DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and one dependent child, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and child ~~60~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the child is no longer a dependent as defined in subdivision 1. At that time there shall be paid to the dependent surviving spouse weekly benefits at ~~a~~ the same rate ~~which is 16 2/3 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent,~~ for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SPOUSE, TWO DEPENDENT CHILDREN.] If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and two dependent children, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and children ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the last dependent child is no longer dependent. At that time the dependent surviving spouse shall be paid weekly benefits at ~~a~~ the same rate ~~which is 25 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent,~~ for a period of ten years, adjusted according to section 176.645.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORPHANS.] If the deceased employee leaves a dependent orphan, there shall be paid ~~55~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased, for two or more orphans there shall be paid ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~wages~~ after-tax weekly wage.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [PARENTS.] If the deceased employee ~~leave~~ leaves no surviving spouse or child entitled to any payment under this chapter, but leaves both parents wholly dependent on the deceased, there shall be paid to such parents jointly ~~45~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased. In case of the death of either of the wholly dependent parents the survivor shall receive ~~35~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage thereafter. If the deceased employee ~~leave~~ leaves one parent wholly dependent on the deceased, there shall be paid to such parent ~~35~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased employee. The compensation payments under this section shall not exceed the actual contributions made by the deceased employee to the support of the employee's parents for a reasonable time immediately prior to the injury which caused the death of the deceased employee.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [REMOTE DEPENDENTS.] If the deceased employee leaves no surviving spouse or child or parent entitled to any payment under this chapter, but leaves a grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, mother-in-law, or father-in-law wholly dependent on the employee for support, there shall be paid to such dependent, if but one, ~~30~~ 40 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury of the deceased, or if more than one, ~~35~~ 45 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased, divided among them share and share alike.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ~~$2,500~~ $7,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, its reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner. If the deceased leaves no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [ACTUAL DEPENDENTS, COMPENSATION.] Actual dependents are entitled to take compensation in the order named in subdivision 3 during dependency until ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage of the deceased at the time of injury is exhausted. The total weekly compensation to be paid to full actual dependents of a deceased employee shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to the maximum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [DEATH, BENEFITS; COORDINATION WITH GOVERNMENTAL SURVIVOR BENEFITS.] The following provision shall apply to any dependent entitled to receive weekly compensation benefits under this section as the result of the death of an employee, and who is also receiving or entitled to receive benefits under any government survivor program:

The combined total of weekly government survivor benefits and workers' compensation death benefits provided under this section shall not exceed 100 percent of the after-tax weekly wage being earned by the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing death; provided, however, that no state workers' compensation death benefit shall be paid for any week in which the survivor benefits paid under the federal program, by themselves, exceed 100 percent of such weekly wage provided, however, the workers' compensation benefits payable to a dependent surviving spouse shall not be reduced on account of any governmental survivor benefits payable to decedent's children if the support of the children is not the responsibility of the dependent surviving spouse.

For the purposes of this subdivision "dependent" means dependent surviving spouse together with all dependent children and any other dependents.

For the purposes of this subdivision, mother's or father's insurance benefits received pursuant to United States Code, title 42, section 402(g), are benefits under a government survivor program.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [APPLICABLE LAW.] The right to reimbursement under this section is governed by the law in effect on the date of the subsequent injury.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to October 1, 1983 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, ~~except as provided by clause (b),~~ provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before October 1, 1987, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(c) An employee who has suffered a personal injury after October 1, 1987, and is permanently totally disabled as defined in section 176.101, subdivisions 4 and 5, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving permanent total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under ~~this section~~ subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) and (b), shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually. The supplementary benefit payable under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), shall be the difference between:

(1) the amount the employee receives on or after October 1, 1991, under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of disability benefits being paid under any government disability benefit program, provided those benefits are a result of the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of any federal old age and survivors insurance benefits; and

(2) 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or ~~65~~ 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision to the contrary, if the ~~individual~~ eligible recipient does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provision of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), the calculation of supplementary benefits payable to the individual shall be as provided under this section in Minnesota Statutes ~~1988~~ 1990.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] The payment of supplementary benefits shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer currently paying total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), or currently paying permanent total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), or any other payer of such benefits. When the eligible individual is not currently receiving benefits because the total paid has reached the maximum prescribed by law the employer and insurer shall, nevertheless, pay the supplementary benefits that are prescribed by law. The employer or insurer paying the supplementary benefit shall have the right of full reimbursement from the special compensation fund for the amount of such benefits paid.

Sec. 30. [176.178] [FRAUD.]

Any person who, with intent to defraud, receives workers' compensation benefits to which the person is not entitled by knowingly misrepresenting, misstating, or failing to disclose any material fact is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [~~PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH~~ RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of ~~economic recovery or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

Where the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the mistaken compensation was not received in good faith, the commissioner or compensation judge may order reimbursement of the compensation or order a credit for the compensation against any future monetary benefits from the same injury. The credit may be up to 100 percent of the amount of monetary benefits otherwise payable. For purposes of this section, a payment is not received in good faith if it is obtained through fraud, or if the employee knew or should have known that the compensation was paid under mistake of fact or law, and the employee has not refunded the mistaken compensation.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.221, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ~~ECONOMIC~~ ~~RECOVERY,~~ AND ~~IMPAIRMENT~~ PERMANENT PARTIAL COMPENSATION.] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivisions 9 and 11, ~~economic~~ ~~recovery~~ ~~compensation~~ or ~~impairment~~ permanent partial compensation are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. (b) Rehabilitation is intended to restore the injured employee~~, through physical and vocational rehabilitation,~~ so the employee may return to a job related to the employee's former employment or to a job in another work area which produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without disability. Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of rehabilitation services in the classified service. The panel shall review and make a determination with respect to appeals from orders of the commissioner regarding certification approval of qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors. The hearings are de novo and initiated by the panel under the contested case procedures of chapter 14, and are appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. Complaints against registered qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors shall be made to the commissioner who shall investigate all complaints. If the investigation indicates a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the commissioner may initiate a contested case proceeding under the provisions of chapter 14. In these cases, the rehabilitation review panel shall make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge. The decision of the panel is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421. The panel shall continuously study rehabilitation services and delivery, develop and recommend rehabilitation rules to the commissioner, and assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury. The lost work time in either case may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the job the employee held at the time of the injury rehabilitation consultation shall be provided immediately after receipt of this information.~~

~~For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. If a rehabilitation consultation is requested, the employer shall provide a qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the injured employee objects to the employer's selection, the employee may select a qualified rehabilitation consultant of the employee's own choosing within 30 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall provide the services. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are not appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall notify the employee of this determination within 14 days after the consultation.*

(b) In order to assist the commissioner in determining whether or not to request rehabilitation consultation for an injured employee, an employer shall notify the commissioner whenever the employee's temporary total disability will likely exceed 13 weeks. The notification must be made within 90 days from the date of the injury or when the likelihood of at least a 13-week disability can be determined, whichever is earlier, and must include a current physician's report.

~~(c)~~ (g) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

~~(d)~~ (h) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

(4) the charges are not submitted on the prescribed billing form; or

(5) additional medical records or reports are required under subdivision 7 to substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury.

If payment is denied under clause (3), (4), or (5), the employer or insurer shall reconsider the charges in accordance with this subdivision within 30 calendar days after receiving additional medical data, a prescribed billing form, or documentation of enrollment or certification as a provider.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL BILLS AND RECORDS.] Health care providers shall submit to the insurer an itemized statement of charges on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. Health care providers ~~other than hospitals~~ shall also submit copies of medical records or reports that substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury~~, provided, however, that hospitals must submit any copies of records or reports requested under subdivision 6~~. Health care providers may charge for copies of any records or reports that are in existence and directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter. ~~Charges for copies provided under this subdivision shall be reasonable.~~ The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of reasonable charges by ~~emergency rules~~ rule.

A health care provider shall not collect, attempt to collect, refer a bill for collection, or commence an action for collection against the employee, employer, or any other party until the information required by this section has been furnished.

Sec. 20. [176.1351] [MANAGED CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Any health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services may make written application to the commissioner to become certified to provide managed care to injured workers for injuries and diseases compensable under this chapter. Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the commissioner. A certificate is valid for the period the commissioner prescribes unless revoked or suspended. Application for certification shall be made in the form and manner and shall set forth information regarding the proposed plan for providing services as the commissioner may prescribe. The information shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) a list of the names of all health care providers who will provide services under the managed care plan, together with appropriate evidence of compliance with any licensing or certification requirements for those providers to practice in this state;

(b) a description of the places and manner of providing services under the plan;

(c) a description of the places and manner of providing other related optional services the applicants wish to provide; and

(d) satisfactory evidence of ability to comply with any financial requirements to ensure delivery of service in accordance with the plan which the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall certify a health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services to provide managed care under a plan if the commissioner finds that the plan:

(b) provides appropriate financial incentives to reduce service costs and utilization without sacrificing the quality of service;

(c) provides adequate methods of peer review, utilization review, and dispute resolution to prevent inappropriate or not medically necessary treatment, to exclude from participation in the plan those individuals who violate these treatment standards, and to provide for the resolution of such medical disputes as the commissioner considers appropriate;

(d) provides a program for early return to work for injured workers involving, where appropriate, cooperative efforts by the workers, the employer, and the managed care organizations to promote workplace health and safety consultative and other services;

Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit the worker's right to change health care providers prior to the filing of a workers' compensation claim; and

(g) complies with any other requirement the commissioner determines is necessary to provide quality medical services and health care to injured workers.

Subd. 3. [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND REFUSAL TO CERTIFY.] The commissioner shall refuse to certify or shall revoke or suspend the certification of any health care provider or group of medical service providers to provide managed care if the commissioner finds that the plan for providing medical or health care services fails to meet the requirements of this section, or service under the plan is not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW.] (a) Utilization review, quality assurance, and peer review activities pursuant to this section and authorization of medical services to be provided by other than an attending physician pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to review by the commissioner or the commissioner's designated representatives. Data generated by or received in connection with these activities, including written reports, notes or records of any such activities, or of the commissioner's review shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except as considered necessary by the commissioner in the administration of this section. The commissioner may report professional misconduct to an appropriate licensing board.

(b) No data generated by utilization review, quality assurance, or peer review activities pursuant to this section or the commissioner's review thereof shall be used in any action, suit, or proceeding except to the extent considered necessary by the commissioner in the administration of this chapter.

(c) A person participating in utilization review, quality assurance, or peer review activities pursuant to this section shall not be examined as to any communication made in the course of such activities or the findings thereof, nor shall any person be subject to an action for civil damages for affirmative actions taken or statements made in good faith.

(d) No person who participates in forming managed care plans, collectively negotiating fees, or otherwise solicits or enters into contracts in a good faith effort to provide medical or health care services according to the provisions of this section shall be examined or subject to administrative or civil liability regarding any such participation except pursuant to the commissioner's active supervision of such activities and the managed care organization. Before engaging in such activities, the person shall provide notice of intent to the commissioner on a prescribed form.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner in cooperation with the commissioners of the department of health, department of commerce, and department of human services, shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups.

(b) The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit, in accordance with subdivisions 1a and 1b, the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135~~, based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing~~. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELATIVE VALUE FEE SCHEDULE.] The liability of an employer for services included in the medical fee schedule is limited to the maximum fee allowed by the schedule in effect on the date of the medical service, or the provider's actual fee, whichever is lower. The medical fee schedule effective on October 1, 1990, shall remain in effect until the commissioner adopts a new schedule by permanent rule, but shall remain in effect no later than June 1, 1993. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules regulating fees, except fees limited by subdivision 1b, by implementing a relative value fee schedule to be effective on October 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as possible. The conversion factors for the relative value fee schedule shall reasonably reflect a 15 percent overall reduction from 1991 charges, based on a sample of the most common services billed in the first six months of 1991 that is large enough to be statistically valid.

After permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, the conversion factors must be adjusted annually on October 1, by the percentage change in the statewide average weekly wage as set forth in section 176.645, subdivision 1. The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the adjusted conversion factors. This notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The liability of the employer for treatment, articles, and supplies provided to an employee while an inpatient or outpatient at a hospital or an outpatient at a same-day surgical facility or emergency room shall be limited to 85 percent of the amount charged.

(b) For the services rendered under paragraph (a) by a hospital with 100 or fewer licensed acute care beds, the liability of employers shall be the actual hospital charges.

(c) The liability of the employer for the treatment, articles, and supplies that are not limited by subdivision 1a or paragraph (a) shall be limited to the provider's actual charge, or the charges that prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles, and supplies furnished to an injured person when paid for by the injured person, whichever is lower. On this basis, the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all treatment, services, and supplies, and the liability of the employer is limited to that amount.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] If the employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter unless the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness.

A charge for a health service or medical service is excessive if it:

(1) exceeds the maximum permissible charge pursuant to subdivision 1 or section 176.135, subdivision 1a;

(2) is for a service provided at a level, duration, or frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards;

(3) is for a service that is outside the scope of practice of the particular provider or is not generally recognized within the particular profession of the provider as of therapeutic value for the specific injury or condition treated; or

(4) is otherwise deemed excessive or inappropriate pursuant to rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Where the sole issue in dispute is whether medical fees are excessive, the only parties to the proceeding shall be the health care provider and employer or insurer. The rights of an employee shall not be affected by a determination under this subdivision.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.305, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEARINGS ON PETITIONS.] The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition on each adverse party personally or by first class mail. The original petition shall then be filed with the commissioner together with an appropriate affidavit of service. When any petition has been filed with the workers' compensation division, the commissioner shall, within ten days, refer the matter presented by the petition for a settlement conference under this section, for ~~an administrative~~ a mediation conference under section ~~176.106~~ 176.107, or for hearing to the office.

A member of the rehabilitation review panel, medical services board, or an employee of the department may be required to answer written interrogatories limited to the following questions:

(a) Were all statutory and administrative procedural rules adhered to in reaching the decision?

(b) If the answer to question (a) is no, what deviations took place?

(c) Did the person making the decision consider all the information presented prior to rendering a decision?

(d) Did the person making the decision rely on information outside of the information presented at the conference or hearing in making the decision?

(e) If the answer to question (d) is yes, what other information was relied upon in making the decision?

In addition, for a hearing with a compensation judge and with the consent of the compensation judge, an employee of the department who conducted an administrative conference, hearing, or mediation session, may be requested to answer written interrogatories relating to statements made by a party at the prior proceeding. These interrogatories shall be limited to affirming or denying that specific statements were made by a party.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make the record of the proceedings.

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision. This subdivision does not apply to any administrative conference or other proceeding before the commissioner which may be heard de novo in another proceeding including but not limited to proceedings under section ~~176.106~~ 176.107 or 176.239.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER.]

Except for a commissioner's decision which may be heard de novo in another proceeding including but not limited to a decision from an administrative conference under section ~~176.102,~~ ~~176.103,~~ ~~176.106,~~ 176.239, or a summary decision under section 176.305, any decision or determination of the commissioner affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.82, is amended to read:

176.82 [ACTION FOR CIVIL DAMAGES FOR OBSTRUCTING EMPLOYEE SEEKING BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Any person discharging or threatening to discharge an employee for seeking workers' compensation benefits or in any manner intentionally obstructing an employee seeking workers' compensation benefits is liable in a civil action for damages incurred by the employee including any diminution in workers' compensation benefits caused by a violation of this section including costs and reasonable attorney fees, and for punitive damages not to exceed three times the amount of any compensation benefit to which the employee is entitled. Damages awarded under this section shall not be offset by any workers' compensation benefits to which the employee is entitled.

Subd. 2. [REFUSAL TO REHIRE.] Any employer who without reasonable cause refuses to rehire an employee who is injured in the course of employment, where suitable employment is available within the employee's physical and mental limitations, upon order of the department and in addition to other benefits, has exclusive liability to pay to the employee the wages lost during the period of the refusal, not exceeding six months wages or a maximum of $15,000. In determining the availability of suitable employment, the continuance in business of the employer shall be considered and any written rules promulgated by the employer with respect to seniority or the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement with respect to seniority shall govern.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. If it is determined by the payer that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer, and the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines at a hearing or administrative conference that the level, frequency, or cost was not excessive in which case the insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer shall make the payment deemed reasonable.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the rehabilitation review panel or medical services review board, after hearing, to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under this chapter. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this subdivision may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing certifying body.

~~The rules adopted under this subdivision shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause.~~

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REPORTING.] Rules requiring insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this section and chapter 176.

After the rules for provider enrollment have been promulgated, a provider must be enrolled in accordance with the rules to receive payment for services rendered under section 176.135. An unenrolled provider may not receive payment or attempt to collect from any source, including the employee, any insurer or self-insured employer, the special compensation fund, or any government program. Retroactive enrollment must be permitted pursuant to guidelines established by rule. A list of currently enrolled providers must be given to all self-insured employers and insurers. The list must be made available to others upon request.

The cost of those services is an obligation of the assigned risk plan.

Each insurer or self-insured administrator who performs services pursuant to this subdivision shall be required to report loss experience data to the Minnesota workers' compensation insurers association in accordance with the statistical plan and rules of the organization as approved by the commissioner, and shall keep a record of the premium and losses paid under each workers' compensation policy written in Minnesota in the form required by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.251, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENTS.] ~~The commissioner shall assess~~ All insurers licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), paragraph (b), shall be assessed an amount sufficient to fully fund the obligations of the assigned risk plan, if the ~~commissioner determines that the assets of the assigned risk plan are insufficient to meet its obligations~~ annual report of the board of governors reveals a deficit in the plan. The assessment must be made within 30 days of the date the annual report of the board is filed. The assessment of each insurer shall be in a proportion equal to the proportion which the amount of compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by that insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by all licensed insurers.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of the assigned risk plan is to provide workers' compensation coverage to employers rejected by ~~a~~ two nonaffiliated licensed insurance ~~company~~ companies, pursuant to subdivision 2. One of these two rejections must come from the insurance company that most recently provided workers' compensation coverage to the employer, unless the employer had no previous coverage. Each rejection must be in writing and must be obtained within 60 days before the date of application to the assigned risk plan. In addition, the rejections must also show the name of the insurance company and the representative contacted.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE.] (a) Policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 4, shall contain the usual and customary provisions of workers' compensation insurance policies, and shall be deemed to meet the mandatory workers' compensation insurance requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

(b) Policies issued by the assigned risk plan pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The board of governors may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state to issue that coverage.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules, including ~~emergency~~ temporary rules, as may be necessary to implement section 79.251 and this section.

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] ~~No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market.~~ Premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.56, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [RATE REGULATION.] (a) Whenever an insurer files a change in its existing rate level or rating plan, the commissioner may hold a hearing to determine if the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to chapter 14. The commissioner shall give notice of intent to hold a hearing within 90 days of the filing of the change. It is the responsibility of the insurer to show that the rate level or rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rate level or rating plan is effective unless it is determined as a result of the hearing that the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Upon such a finding, the rate level or rating plan is retroactively rescinded and any premiums collected under it must be refunded. This subdivision does not apply to any changes resulting from assessments for the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, or statutory benefit level changes to sections 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, and 4, 176.111, 176.132, and 176.645 as a result of annual adjustments in the statewide average weekly wage. The disapproval of a rate level or rating plan under this subdivision must be done in the same manner as under section 70A.11, except that the standards of section 79.55 apply.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), if the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner must hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court or enactment of a statute has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner of labor and industry must make a prima facie showing that law change has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the commissioner may hold a hearing if the commissioner determines that the hearing is necessary because of circumstances which result in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner must make a prima facie showing that the circumstances resulted in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

Sec. 12. [79.565] [PARTICIPATION.]

An employer, or person representing a group of employers, that will be directly affected by a change in an insurer's existing rate level or rating plan filed under section 79.56, subdivision 5, and the commissioner of labor and industry, must be allowed to participate in any hearing under that subdivision challenging the change in rate level or rating plan as being excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.58, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14, the commissioner finds that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rating plan is effective until disapproved. It is the responsibility of the data service organization to show that the rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data, except that other data may be utilized as a supplement to Minnesota data when the commissioner determines that an exceptional case requires such data to establish the statistical credibility of an occupational classification.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; ~~and~~

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis;

(i) Separate the incurred but unreported losses of its members;

(j) Separate paid and outstanding losses of its members;

(k) Provide information indicating cases in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;

(l) File information based solely on Minnesota data concerning its members' premium income, indemnity, and medical benefits paid.

Sec. 15. [79.65] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; COVERAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] Data service organizations are subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or an authorized representative of the commissioner may visit the rating association at any reasonable time and examine, audit, or evaluate the rating association's operations, records, and practices. For purposes of this section, "authorized representative of the commissioner" includes employees of the department of commerce or labor and industry or other parties retained by the commissioner. An examination under this section may be done of any member of data service organizations for purposes of workers' compensation insurance regulation.

Subd. 2. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] The commissioner may order and the data service organization shall pay the costs and expenses of any examination, audit, or evaluation conducted pursuant to subdivision 1. If no order is issued, a sum sufficient to pay these costs and expenses is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 16. [79.70] [INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] In connection with the administration of this chapter, the commissioner of commerce may:

(1) make public or private investigations within or without this state as the commissioner considers necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter, or in the prescribing of rules or forms under this chapter;

(2) require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the commissioner determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter being investigated;

(3) hold hearings, upon reasonable notice, in respect to any matter arising out of the administration of this chapter;

(4) conduct investigations and hold hearings for the purpose of compiling information with a view to recommending changes in this chapter to the legislature;

(5) examine the books, accounts, records, and files of every licensee under this chapter and of every person who is engaged in any activity regulated under this chapter; the commissioner or a designated representative shall have free access during normal business hours to the offices and places of business of the person, and to all books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults maintained in the place of business;

(6) publish information which is contained in any order issued by the commissioner; and

(7) require any person subject to this chapter to report all sales or transactions that are regulated under this chapter. The reports must be made within ten days after the commissioner has ordered the report. The report is accessible only to the respondent and other governmental agencies unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [POWER TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE.] For the purpose of any investigation, hearing, or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or a designated representative may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records that the commissioner considers relevant or material to the inquiry.

Subd. 3. [COURT ORDERS.] In case of a refusal to appear or a refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to any person an order directing that person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence relating to the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

Subd. 4. [SCOPE OF PRIVILEGE.] No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or from obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner or in a proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required may tend to incriminate that person or subject that person to a penalty or forfeiture. No person may be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for a transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce documentary or other evidence except that the individual is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

Subd. 5. [LEGAL ACTIONS; INJUNCTIONS; CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted under this chapter, the commissioner has the powers indicated under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The commissioner may bring an action in the name of the state in the district court of the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, or the commissioner may refer the matter to the attorney general or the county attorney of the appropriate county. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate relief must be granted.

(c) The commissioner may issue and serve an order requiring a person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reasons for the entry of the order. A hearing must be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the commissioner. Within 20 days after receiving the administrative law judge's report, the commissioner shall issue a further order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the order, the order will become final and will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. Unless otherwise provided, all hearings must be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. If a person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person is in default, and the proceeding may be determined against that person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be considered to be true. The commissioner may adopt rules of procedure concerning all proceedings conducted under this paragraph.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES.] The commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,000 per violation upon a person who violates this chapter, unless a different penalty is specified under this chapter.

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS AGAINST LICENSEES.] In addition to any other actions authorized by this section, the commissioner may, by order, deny, suspend, or revoke the authority or license of a person subject to this chapter, or censure that person if the commissioner finds that the order is in the public interest or the person has violated this chapter.

Subd. 8. [POWERS ADDITIONAL.] The powers contained in subdivisions 1 to 8 are in addition to all other powers of the commissioner.

Sec. 17. [79.75] [ACCESS TO INSURER.]

The commissioner, or the designated person, shall have free access during normal business hours to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of any company, applicant, association, or person that may be examined pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of ascertaining, appraising, and evaluating the assets, conditions, affairs, operations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of law of the company or person insofar as any of the above pertain to the business of insurance of a person, organization, or corporation transacting, having transacted, or being organized to transact business in this state. Every company or person being examined including officers, directors, and agents, shall provide to the commissioner or the designated person convenient and free access at all reasonable hours at its office to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the company or person. The officers, directors, and agents of the company or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue the coverage.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 221.141, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF CERTAIN CARRIERS.] No motor carrier and no interstate carrier shall operate a vehicle until it has obtained and has in effect the minimum amount of financial responsibility required by this section. Policies of insurance, surety bonds, other types of security, and endorsements must be continuously in effect and must remain in effect until canceled. Before providing transportation, the motor carrier or interstate carrier shall secure and cause to be filed with the commissioner and maintain in full effect, both a certificate of insurance in a form required by the commissioner, evidencing public liability insurance in the amount prescribed, and acceptable evidences of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2, by providing the name of the insurance company, the policy number, and the dates of coverage, or the permit to self-insure. The insurance must cover injuries and damage to persons or property resulting from the operation or use of motor vehicles, regardless of whether each vehicle is specifically described in the policy. This insurance does not apply to injuries or death to the employees of the motor carrier or to property being transported by the carrier. The commissioner shall require cargo insurance for certificated carriers, except those carrying passengers exclusively. The commissioner may require a permit carrier to file cargo insurance when the commissioner deems necessary to protect the users of the service.

Sec. 20. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHALLENGE RATE LEVEL CHANGE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 79.56, subdivision 5, the commissioner shall have an additional 90 days to give notice of intent to hold a hearing pursuant to that section. This section applies only to challenges to an insurer's change in existing rate levels or rating plan filed between the date the 1992 report required under Minnesota Statutes, section 79.60, is approved by the commissioner of commerce and six months thereafter.

Sec. 21. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in articles 1 to 4 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on October 1, 1991, must be reduced by 17 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 17 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 17 percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide a written notice by November 1, 1991, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1991, that reads as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1991 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $ . . . . . which reflects a 17 percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between April 1, 1991, and January 1, 1992.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under this section have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner shall present a report detailing the findings and conclusions to the legislature by March 1, 1992.

Sec. 22. [ADJUSTMENT.]

Within 60 days of final enactment of this legislation, the board shall determine whether any adjustment in the assigned risk rates in effect as of the date of enactment are required by this section.

Sec. 23. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 79.54; 79.57; and 79.58, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 24. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective January 1, 1992; except that section 21, paragraphs (a) and (c), are effective October 1, 1991; and section 21, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment."

To participate in a state contract or otherwise provide goods or services to a state agency, the contractor, vendor, or service provider must offer health coverage to its employees that meets the terms and conditions for employer eligibility in the Minnesotans' health care plan in article 2, section 4. The contractor, vendor, or service provider may obtain health coverage through the Minnesotans' health care plan or an alternative source.

Sec. 2. [62A.301] [UNIFORM POLICY FORMS.]

The commissioner shall adopt rules prescribing uniform policy forms for all policies of accident and health insurance, health maintenance contracts regulated under chapter 62D, health benefit certificates offered through a fraternal beneficiary association regulated under chapter 64B, and group subscriber contracts offered by nonprofit health service plan corporations regulated under chapter 62C, in order to give the insurance purchaser a reasonable opportunity to compare the cost of insuring with various insurers. This section does not apply to policies designed primarily to provide coverage payable on a per diem, fixed indemnity, or nonexpense incurred basis, or policies that provide only accident coverage.

(5) have the authority to clarify and refine the terms of the intermediate benefit set, the supplemental benefit set, the minimum insurance benefit set, and the universal basic benefit set, including the authority to waive copayments, or establish a sliding scale copayment schedule that will result in reduced copayments, for enrollees with federal adjusted gross incomes below 185 percent of the federal poverty guideline;

(6) coordinate the mental health benefits of the health care programs administered by the commissioner with county-based mental health programs provided under the community social services act, and recommend changes to the state plan and community social services act programs that will improve the state plan's mental health benefits and minimize duplication with county-based programs;

(7) provide assistance to the commissioner of human services in order to secure waivers of federal requirements for federally subsidized health care programs as necessary to further the state's health care access goals and improve coordination between governmental health care programs;

(8) coordinate the health care programs administered by the commissioner with other state and local health care programs in order to make the most effective use of the state's market leverage and expertise in contracting and working with health plans and health care providers, and recommend to the legislature any changes needed to: (i) improve the effectiveness of public health care purchasing; and (ii) streamline and consolidate government health care programs;

(9) with the advice of the health care expenditure advisory committee, establish an overall, statewide limit on total public and private health care spending in Minnesota and limits on annual health care spending increases, require compliance of all participants in the health care system with the spending limits, and make recommendations to the governor and the legislature regarding legislation or other actions that are needed to contain health care spending within the limits established by the commissioner. All participants in the health care system are required to take action necessary to ensure that total health care spending and increases in spending remain within the limits established by the commissioner; and

(10) incorporate practice standards developed by the health care analysis unit under article 4, section 1, into the administration of the Minnesotans' health care plan and specifications for contracts with health plans and providers for coverage and services to enrollees.

Subd. 2. [MONITORING OF EMPLOYERS.] The commissioner shall conduct surveys and other activities to monitor changes over time, if any, in employers' behavior in providing subsidized health coverage. Detailed surveys of employer behavior must be conducted at least annually. After each survey is completed, the findings and an analysis of the positive or negative impact, if any, on the costs of the Minnesotans' health care plan resulting from changes in employers' behavior, and recommendations regarding actions necessary to address changes, must be reported to the commissioners of finance and revenue and to the chairs of the senate finance and house of representatives appropriations committees and the senate and house of representatives tax committees. If the commissioner anticipates that there will be increased state costs associated with a significant decrease in employer-subsidized health coverage, the commissioner shall submit draft legislation to raise additional revenues through an employer-paid payroll tax to the chairs of the senate finance and house of representatives appropriations committees and the senate and house of representatives tax committees.

Subd. 3. [CHANGES IN FEDERAL HEALTH CARE PROGRAMS.] *The commissioner, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall identify and pursue changes in federal health care programs that would allow them to be merged or more effectively coordinated with the health care programs administered by the department of commerce. Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The technology and benefits advisory committee is responsible for periodically reviewing, analyzing, and evaluating health care technology, benefits, and coverage and making recommendations to the commissioner and the legislature. The committee's recommendations must be based on the following principles: (1) universal and equitable access to health care procedures and technologies; (2) maintenance of an appropriate balance between expenditures for primary and preventive care, and expenditures for high-cost cases; (3) promotion of high quality and cost-effective health care; and (4) adherence to budget targets. The committee shall solicit comments and recommendations from interested persons during its deliberations. The committee is responsible for reviewing, analyzing, and making recommendations concerning at least the following:

(i) the universal basic benefit set;

(ii) the intermediate benefit set;

(iii) the supplemental benefit set;

(iv) the minimum insurance benefit set;

(v) coverage for new procedures and technologies;

(vi) state mandated benefits applicable to insurers and other health plan companies;

(vii) benefit levels in other state health coverage programs; and

(viii) coverage and health care standards for cases subject to the reinsurance pool in article 2, section 9, which would be binding on the reinsurance pool.

Sec. 7. [62J.07] [HEALTH CARE EXPENDITURES ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] The health care expenditures advisory committee is a permanent committee consisting of 15 members appointed by the governor. Committee members include representatives of health insurers, health maintenance organizations, and other health plan companies; state agencies that administer government health programs; health care providers; labor; business; and consumer groups. The commissioner shall make recommendations to the governor regarding appointments to the committee. The governor shall ensure that appointments result in a balance of interests on the committee. The committee is governed by section 15.059, except that it does not expire.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The health care expenditures advisory committee shall make recommendations to the commissioner for an overall statewide limit on total public and private health care spending in Minnesota and limits on annual health care spending increases.

Subd. 3. [STAFF AND SUPPLIES.] The commissioner shall provide the advisory committee with staff support and supplies.

Sec. 8. [62J.08] [PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITIES.] The commissioner shall begin planning and development for the state plan July 1, 1991. The commissioner shall use an implementation schedule that will lead to enrollment of eligible individuals, families, and employee groups statewide beginning January 1, 1993. Planning and development activities include:

(1) development of outreach, enrollment, and eligibility determination procedures;

(2) commencement of outreach activities;

(3) planning, development, and acquisition of necessary computer systems, including forms, software, and training;

(4) development of health plan contractor specifications and issuance of requests for proposals;

(5) negotiating and executing health plan contracts;

(6) planning, development, and preparation of systems for direct health care delivery management by the state or planning for the use of existing administrative systems in the department of human services, as necessary;

(7) preparations, requests for proposals, contract negotiations, and other activities relating to the reinsurance pool; and

(8) other appropriate planning and development activities.

Subd. 2. [TERMS OF PROGRAM CONSOLIDATION.] In carrying out the merger, transfer, or reconfiguration of existing health care and health coverage programs, as described in this section, the commissioner shall:

(1) ensure that health care benefits will not be diminished for enrollees and clients of current programs;

(2) assist current program enrollees and clients with the procedures necessary to maintain comparable health care benefits;

(3) ensure that financial obligations for public hospitals and other health care providers that serve the enrollees and clients of current programs will not increase as a result of the merger or transfer; and

(4) ensure coordination between the state plan, local public health departments, public hospitals, and other health care providers that serve the enrollees and clients of current programs in the areas of outreach, patient education, case management, and related services.

Subd. 3. [SHORT-TERM PROGRAM MERGERS.] (a) By July 1, 1993, or six months after the state plan begins statewide enrollment, whichever is later, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of human services, shall take action necessary to merge the children's health plan into the state plan.

(b) By July 1, 1994, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of human services, shall take action necessary to merge the general assistance medical care program into the state plan.

Subd. 4. [SHORT-TERM PROGRAM TRANSFERS.] By July 1, 1994, or one year after the state plan begins statewide enrollment, whichever is later, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of human services, shall take action necessary to transfer part of the responsibilities and functions of the following programs to the state plan, to the extent that the state plan provides or will provide duplicate services: the services for children with handicaps program, the maternal and child health program, and the consolidated chemical dependency treatment fund. For chemical dependency coverage under the state plan, the commissioner shall:

(1) adopt the consolidated chemical dependency treatment fund's process for patient evaluation and referral, to the extent possible within the state plan's managed care arrangements; and

(2) coordinate services with the consolidated chemical dependency treatment fund to ensure nonduplication of services and ease of transfer between the programs.

Subd. 5. [MINNESOTA COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH ASSOCIATION.] Effective January 1, 1993, or when the state plan begins statewide enrollment, whichever is later, no additional enrollments are permitted in the Minnesota comprehensive health association; and current enrollees may remain enrolled in the Minnesota comprehensive health association, may enroll in the state plan, or may obtain health care coverage in the private market. By January 1, 1992, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of commerce, shall make recommendations to the legislature on whether this requirement should be changed to allow new enrollees in the Minnesota comprehensive health association after January 1, 1993, or the date of statewide enrollment in the state plan. Enrollees in the state plan may choose the intermediate benefit set or both the intermediate and the supplemental benefit sets. The commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of commerce, shall determine whether or not to include the Minnesota comprehensive health association in longer-term program transfers as stated in subdivision 7, after evaluating the rate of disenrollment from the Minnesota comprehensive health association. If the commissioner recommends merger, transfer, reconfiguration, or other changes to the Minnesota comprehensive health association, the changes must be made consistent with the requirements in subdivision 2.

Subd. 6. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] By July 1, 1995, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioner of human services, shall take action necessary to merge all or part of the medical assistance program into the state plan, to the extent that a merger is permitted by federal waivers and will improve the cost-effectiveness of public health care purchasing and streamline and consolidate government health care programs.

Subd. 7. [LONGER-TERM PROGRAM TRANSFERS.] By July 1, 1995, the commissioner, with assistance from the commissioners of employee relations, corrections, and other affected agencies, shall take action necessary to transfer part of the responsibilities and functions of the following programs to the state plan: state and local government employee health benefits programs, corrections system health programs, the health care component of the Minnesota crime victims reparations board program, and other health care and health coverage programs sponsored by state or local government. The transfers must be limited to responsibilities and functions that the state plan provides or will provide, and to transfers that will improve the cost-effectiveness of public health care purchasing and streamline and consolidate government health care programs. The transfers must not limit the scope of collective bargaining concerning health benefits, or require community rating of employee health benefits.

Subd. 8. [LONGER-TERM PROGRAM RECONFIGURATION.] By July 1, 1995, the commissioner of health, with assistance from the commissioners of labor and industry, commerce, and other affected agencies, shall take action necessary to reconfigure the following programs: the health care component of workers' compensation coverage, and the health care component of motor vehicle and motorcycle coverage. The program reconfigurations must be carried out in a way that significantly improves the cost-effectiveness of public and private health care purchasing and streamlines and consolidates public and private health care programs.

Subd. 9. [LEGISLATION.] The commissioner shall submit proposed legislation to the legislature by January 1, 1994, concerning the transfer of responsibilities and functions of state employee health benefits programs. In preparing this legislation the commissioner shall consult with, and obtain the agreement of, the commissioner of employee relations and the joint labor-management committee on health plans. If the commissioner determines that additional legislation is necessary to fully implement the Minnesotans' health care plan and other activities and requirements established in this chapter, the commissioner shall submit proposed legislation to the legislature by the dates indicated. The proposed legislation must include, but is not limited to, technical changes necessary to:

(1) merge into the state plan the children's health plan, to be submitted by January 1, 1992, and the general assistance medical care program, to be submitted by January 1, 1993;

(2) transfer to the state plan part of the responsibilities and functions of the services for children with handicaps program, the maternal and child health program, and the consolidated chemical dependency treatment fund, to be submitted by January 1, 1993;

(3) enforce the spending limits established under section 5, subdivision 1, clause (9), to be submitted by January 1, 1992;

(4) transfer to the department part of the responsibilities and functions of local government employee health benefits programs, corrections system health programs, the health care component of the Minnesota crime victims reparations board program, and other health care and health coverage programs sponsored by state and local government, to be submitted by January 1, 1994;

(5) reconfigure the health care components of the workers' compensation coverage and motor vehicle coverage, as described in subdivision 8, to be submitted by January 1, 1994; and

(6) transfer to the department all or part of the responsibilities and functions of the medical assistance program, and to support the state's efforts to secure waivers of federal requirements for federally subsidized health care programs, to be submitted by January 1, 1994.

Subd. 10. [ASSISTANCE FROM OTHER AGENCIES.] At the request of the commissioner of health, the commissioners of commerce, state planning, human services, employee relations, labor and industry, corrections, finance, and other affected agencies shall provide assistance in planning, development, and implementation.

Sec. 9. [STUDIES AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH CARE DELIVERY SYSTEM REFORM.] The health care expenditures advisory committee shall study and make recommendations regarding further reforms to the health care delivery system in Minnesota. The advisory committee shall solicit the comments, advice, and participation from communities with an interest in accessible, affordable health care. The commissioner shall submit a report on the recommendations of the advisory committee to the legislature by January 1, 1993.

Subd. 2. [HEALTH PLAN REGULATION.] The commissioner of health and the commissioner of commerce shall develop a plan for the functional division of regulatory authority over health plans. This plan must be presented to the legislature by January 1, 1992. The plan must allow each commissioner to exercise independent authority to the greatest extent possible and must minimize jurisdictional overlaps. The plan must provide the commissioner of commerce with primary authority for regulating the financial integrity and corporate structure of health plans and must provide the commissioner of health with primary authority for regulating health care delivery and health care quality.

Subd. 3. [STANDARD CLAIM FORMS AND UTILIZATION REVIEW PROCEDURES.] The commissioner shall recommend to the legislature a standard claim form for ambulatory care by January 1, 1993, and standards for certain types of utilization review procedures by January 1, 1994. These recommendations must not have the effect of limiting innovation and improvement in health care delivery management, or compromising the purposes for which information is collected.

Sec. 10. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes, sections 62E.51, 62E.52, 62E.53, 62E.531, 62E.54, and 62E.55, relating to the catastrophic health expense protection program, are repealed.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective July 1, 1996, and applies to contracts entered into or renewed, or goods or services provided, after that date. Sections 4 and 7 are effective July 1, 1991. Section 6 is effective January 1, 1992. Section 8 is repealed effective July 1, 1995. Section 9 is repealed effective January 1, 1994.

ARTICLE 2

MINNESOTANS' HEALTH CARE PLAN

Section 1. [62J.09] [CREATION.]

The Minnesotans' health care plan is created to provide health coverage to individuals, families, and employers who do not have access to other affordable health coverage.

Sec. 2. [62J.10] [ELIGIBILITY OF INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES.]

To be eligible to obtain coverage through the state plan, individuals and families must be Minnesota residents and have no other health coverage or must have coverage that primarily supplements, rather than duplicates, the intermediate benefit set. A Minnesota resident individual or family may switch from private health coverage to the state plan provided the transfer does not result in simultaneous coverage under both the state plan and another health care plan. The individual or family must contribute to the cost of health coverage as provided in section 3.

Sec. 3. [62J.11] [INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY PREMIUMS.]

Subdivision 1. [SLIDING SCALE AND ENROLLEE PREMIUMS.] Each individual and family enrolled in the state plan shall pay a premium set in relation to income and family size. The commissioner shall establish a sliding scale to determine the amount of the premium each individual or family must pay to obtain health coverage through the state plan. The sliding scale must use the federal poverty guidelines as the primary unit of measurement, and must be based on an individual's or family's income, as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 3, clauses (1) and (2). The commissioner shall determine income on the basis of a period of time, such as the prior four months, which takes into account an applicant's current financial status. The sliding scale must be designed so that individuals and families with incomes less than 25 percent of the federal poverty level pay 0.75 percent of their income, and those with incomes between 250 percent and 275 percent of the federal poverty level pay 4.5 percent of their income. Individuals and families with incomes over 275 percent of the federal poverty guideline or $40,000, whichever is less, are not eligible for a subsidized premium and must pay 100 percent of the cost of coverage through the state plan. In addition to payments under the sliding scale, enrollees may be required to make greater payments depending on the health plan chosen. The commissioner shall pass on differences in premiums between health plans to enrollees, except that the commissioner may limit differences in charges to enrollees if necessary to prevent enrollment that exceeds the capacity of certain plans.

Subd. 2. [ADJUSTMENTS TO THE INCOME LIMIT AND SLIDING SCALE.] The commissioner shall adjust the sliding scale and the maximum income limit for subsidized coverage to reflect changes in prevailing income levels, health coverage costs, and benefit levels.

Subd. 3. [MUST NOT HAVE ACCESS TO EMPLOYER-SUBSIDIZED COVERAGE.] To be eligible for subsidized coverage, an individual or family must not have access to subsidized health coverage through an employer, unless the amount of employer subsidy toward the cost of coverage is less than an amount determined by the commissioner. Children are eligible for employer-subsidized coverage through either parent, including the noncustodial parent. The commissioner must treat employer contributions to Internal Revenue Code Section 125 plans as qualified employer subsidies toward the cost of health coverage for employees for purposes of this section.

Subd. 4. [NO SUBSIDY AVAILABLE FOR MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT COVERAGE.] An individual eligible for Medicare benefits must pay 100 percent of the cost of obtaining Medicare supplement coverage through the state plan, regardless of income.

Subd. 5. [STATE FUNDS MAY NOT BE USED FOR ABORTION.] State funds must not be used to pay for an abortion, except as allowed under section 256B.0625, subdivision 16.

Subd. 6. [COVERAGE MUST NOT DISPLACE FEDERALLY SUBSIDIZED HEALTH COVERAGE.] Subsidized state plan coverage must not displace subsidized health coverage through a federally supported health program. The commissioner shall establish procedures and requirements to allow coordinated, limited, or supplemental participation in the Minnesotans' health care plan, including limited subsidies, of participants in federally supported health programs to the extent necessary to provide coverage comparable to coverage provided to other state plan enrollees without displacing federal benefits.

Subd. 7. [MUST BE A PERMANENT MINNESOTA RESIDENT.] To be eligible for a subsidy, individuals and families must be permanent residents of Minnesota. A permanent Minnesota resident is a Minnesota resident who considers Minnesota to be the person's principal place of residence and intends to remain in the state permanently or for a long period of time and not as a temporary or short-term resident. An individual or family that moved to Minnesota primarily to obtain medical treatment or health coverage for a preexisting condition is not a permanent resident and is not entitled to subsidized coverage through the state plan.

Subd. 8. [PERIOD UNINSURED.] To be eligible for a subsidy, individuals must have had no health coverage for at least four months prior to application. The commissioner may change this eligibility criterion for subsidized coverage without complying with rulemaking requirements in order to remain within the limits of available appropriations.

Subd. 9. [SUBSIDIZED COVERAGE.] The intermediate benefit set, part A, shall be provided on a subsidized basis through the state plan to qualified individuals and families. The provision of, and terms of eligibility for, subsidized health coverage are subject to the limits of available appropriations.

Subd. 10. [ASSET LIMITATIONS AND TRANSFER PROHIBITIONS.] The commissioner shall adopt by rule asset limitations and transfer prohibitions to be applied in determining an individual's or family's eligibility for a subsidy.

Sec. 4. [62J.12] [ELIGIBILITY OF EMPLOYERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUP COVERAGE.] An employer is eligible to enroll its employees in the state plan as a group in order to offer its employees health coverage under the Minnesotans' health care plan. To be eligible to participate, an employer must pay Minnesota unemployment insurance premiums and have two or more covered employees, including the owner, or, if a sole proprietor, have at least one employee covered by unemployment insurance and include himself or herself in the group for purposes of health coverage. A self-employed person with no employees may not participate as an employer but may participate as an individual or family. The employer must collect employees' share of premiums and remit them to the commissioner along with the employer's contribution. Sliding scale premium subsidies as described in section 3 do not apply to group coverage. The commissioner shall establish conditions for enrollment of employer groups. Conditions may include, but are not limited to, minimum employer contributions toward coverage for employees and their families, minimum standards for employee eligibility, and eligibility waiting periods for new employees. The commissioner may establish special conditions and procedures for employers who are health care providers participating in state health care programs after considering the impact of article 1, section 1, and of different levels of employer contributions toward employee health coverage, on state health care program reimbursement rates and obligations. The commissioner shall make use of administrative systems for group coverage for employers that will identify and enroll enrollees in a manner comparable to individual, nongroup enrollment in order to enhance the portability of coverage to an individual policy or to another employer covered through the state plan, and to minimize administrative costs associated with frequent reissuing of policies.

Subd. 2. [COVERAGE OF PART-TIME AND SEASONAL EMPLOYEES.] The commissioner shall establish conditions, procedures, and a special accounting mechanism to allow employers to defray the cost of coverage for part-time and seasonal employees through the state plan without including these employees in the employer's health benefits program. This is the only circumstance under which an employer subsidy toward the cost of employee health coverage and a state subsidy for health coverage through the state plan may be combined. Employers that have terminated health benefits for part-time or seasonal employees within the three years before application are not eligible to participate in the part-time or seasonal employee enrollment system. Part-time or seasonal employees on whose behalf employer contributions have been submitted must obtain coverage through the state plan as individuals or families rather than as an employee group. The employer contributions must be used to reduce the premium that the employee would otherwise have owed, and will be in addition to any individual premium subsidy to which the employee would otherwise be entitled. The commissioner shall establish definitions and standards for part-time and seasonal employees as necessary to implement this subdivision.

Sec. 5. [62J.13] [PROVISION OF HEALTH CARE SERVICES; MANAGED CARE.]

In areas of the state where managed care health plans operate, the commissioner must deliver health care through contracts with managed care health plans. The commissioner may solicit bids and contract separately for dental care services, which may be provided by the same health plan that provides other services. Health plans may bid and contract to provide only dental care services or to provide only non-dental services. In order to qualify for participation in the state plan, a managed care health plan must meet the specifications in this section.

(a) The health plan must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it is financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees.

(b) The health plan must have sufficient provider network capacity to adequately serve enrollees and prospective enrollees.

(c) The health plan must have established procedures adequate to manage the delivery of health care. The procedures must incorporate clear standards of practice or protocols where they exist. The procedures must also require enrollees to register with a specific primary care clinic which will coordinate referrals, hospitalizations, and other health care delivery. A plan that has not established these procedures may participate in the program if the plan demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that an alternative, comparably effective system of case management has been established. A managed care health plan that has not established procedures satisfactory to the commissioner may participate in the program if the plan agrees to implement satisfactory procedures within three years from the date it is accepted for participation by the commissioner.

(d) The health plan must demonstrate a long-term commitment to improving the quality and efficiency of health care.

(e) The health plan must have established programs to educate enrollees about appropriate use of the health care system. The programs may include self-care education, telephone nurse access, encouragement of healthy lifestyles, and encouragement of conformance to prescribed courses of treatment.

(f) Health plans must notify enrollees by mail when coverage limits under the intermediate benefit set have been reached and explain that payment for future services in excess of the coverage limits are the responsibility of the patient.

(g) The health plan must include appropriate use of nonphysician providers within its overall framework of managed care. Nothing in this section is intended to limit access to chiropractic care under article 3, section 3, subdivision 2, subject to reasonable managed care protocols and criteria for determining appropriate use of chiropractic care.

Sec. 6. [62J.14] [AREAS WITHOUT SATISFACTORY MANAGED CARE HEALTH PLANS.]

In areas of the state where the commissioner determines satisfactory managed care health plans are not available, the commissioner shall make health care available using one or more of the options specified in this section.

(a) The commissioner may recruit or encourage managed care health plans to serve the area.

(b) The commissioner may establish managed care health plans through direct contracts with existing clinics or other health care providers in the area consistent with the specifications and objectives of the state plan.

(c) The commissioner may pay providers on a fee-for-service basis, using the department of human services claims processing system, health care utilization review system, and other managed care procedures. When developing the payment system, the commissioner shall investigate the proposed Medicare resource-based relative value scale as the basis for a new fee schedule and the possibility of collective bargaining with health care providers. Participating providers must be required to operate under the department's managed care standards and procedures. Payment will be based on a fee schedule to be established by the commissioner with payments established at a level to ensure that program costs in the area are lower than under a managed care system. Providers must be required to accept program enrollees as a condition of serving patients covered by any health coverage program financed by state or local government, including public employee health benefit programs. Providers must be prohibited from billing enrollees for any portion of health care charges not reimbursed by the commissioner, except to collect copayments and deductibles or to charge for services that exceed coverage limits, to the extent these are specified in the state plan.

(d) The commissioner may establish health care clinics to provide services using managed care procedures.

Sec. 7. [62J.15] [ENCOURAGEMENT OF PARTICIPATION OF PROVIDERS SERVING LOW-INCOME PERSONS.]

The commissioner shall encourage expansion or development of health plans that include providers currently serving low-income, uninsured state residents, including nonprofit community clinics, public health departments, and public hospitals. The commissioner's managed care specifications must apply to these providers when serving program enrollees.

Sec. 8. [62J.16] [HEALTH PLAN COMPENSATION; RESERVE FUND; PREMIUM DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH PLAN COMPENSATION.] The commissioner shall establish health plan payment arrangements in order to create financial incentives to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of health care delivery. Health plan companies under contract with the state plan may not vary the benefits included in the intermediate benefit set in order to reduce the cost of premiums. Participating health plan companies must assume responsibility for health care delivery and must assume financial risk, subject to the limits established through the reinsurance pool. To prevent uncertainty regarding the mix and cost of enrollees from resulting in higher charges in the state plan during the plan's first three years of operation, the commissioner may share risk above or below the health plan company's expected costs for state plan enrollees, to the extent that such risk sharing would reduce charges in the state plan. The commissioner is responsible for collecting premium payments from individuals, families, and employers, and health plan reimbursement may not be linked to collection of premium payments.

Subd. 2. [RESERVE FUND.] The commissioner shall establish a reserve fund to ensure that state funding will be available to fully satisfy the state's payment and risk-sharing obligations in the event the costs of coverage through the state plan are higher than expected. The reserve fund shall be established as an account within the general fund, and shall not exceed 8.33 percent of estimated total premiums for state plan coverage in the current fiscal year. The reserve fund shall include funds appropriated for this purpose, and any excess of state plan revenues more than expenses. The reserve fund shall remain available from year to year and does not cancel, except for funds in excess of the designated limit at the end of each fiscal year.

Subd. 3. [PREMIUM DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall establish the premium rates charged in the state plan. In establishing premium rates the commissioner shall take into account differences in administrative costs for different classes of enrollment, and the need to maintain rates in the state plan that are competitive with the private market. The premium rates shall include: (1) an amount for health care delivery and health plan administration determined for each health plan company through bids or negotiations; (2) an amount for state plan administrative services provided by the department or other state agencies, not to exceed five percent of total premium; and (3) any additional amount determined to be necessary by the commissioner to ensure that funds will be available to fully satisfy the state's payment and risk-sharing obligations.

Sec. 9. [62J.17] [OUTREACH ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [OUTREACH TO INDIVIDUALS.] The commissioner shall establish outreach activities to inform state residents about public and private sources of health coverage and to assist them in obtaining coverage. Outreach activities must include the following:

(1) health coverage information and counseling services provided throughout the state and through a toll-free telephone number; and

(2) ongoing publicity and advertising activities.

Subd. 2. [OUTREACH TO EMPLOYERS.] The commissioner shall establish outreach activities to inform employers about the Minnesotans' health care plan and other sources of health care coverage and to assist them to obtain or expand coverage for their employees. Outreach activities must be directed at the types of employers determined by the commissioner to be most interested in joining the state plan.

Sec. 10. [62J.18] [ENROLLMENT EDUCATION AND ASSISTANCE.]

The commissioner shall provide enrollment education and assistance to state residents. The assistance may include written materials, workshops, and individual assistance. Educational programs and assistance must be designed to serve persons who are not proficient in English or who have special communication needs. The program must provide information on the following topics in addition to information provided at the discretion of the commissioner:

(1) basic and supplemental coverage offered by the state plan;

(2) features of specific health plans offered by the state plan, including information on obtaining health care within health plans and descriptions of provider networks;

(3) differences between individual and group coverage;

(4) premiums associated with each plan and premium payment procedures and obligations; and

(5) actions enrollees must take if eligibility status changes.

Sec. 11. [62J.19] [APPLICATION FORMS AND PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES.] The commissioner shall accept application forms submitted by mail or in person. Applicants must include payment equal to one month of premium costs with the completed application. Applicants who are employed full-time by an employer who participates in the state plan must apply through the employer. Part-time and seasonal employees of an employer who participates in the state plan may participate on an individual basis as provided in section 4, subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [FORMS.] Application must be made on forms supplied by the commissioner. The commissioner shall design the form in order to collect the minimum amount of information necessary to administer the program. A more detailed form may be designed for use by applicants potentially eligible for federally subsidized health care programs and other state programs.

Subd. 3. [AVAILABILITY OF FORMS.] The commissioner shall make application forms available throughout Minnesota at state government offices; at hospitals, clinics, and other health care provider offices, especially where large numbers of low-income persons are served; with individual income tax forms; with applications for a driver's license, state identification card, or motor vehicle registration; with school and college registration materials; at food shelves; at the offices of insurers, health maintenance organizations, and other health plan companies; at school district offices; at public and private elementary schools; at community health offices; and at women, infants, and children (WIC) program sites.

Sec. 12. [62J.20] [ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION.] The emphasis of eligibility verification procedures must be on achieving enrollment and coverage as soon after application as possible. To this end, confirmation of income and other information provided by the applicant shall be on a random check or special case basis, and shall occur primarily through use of personal data that the state gathers, such as income tax and property tax records, for other purposes. The commissioner may use individuals' social security numbers as identifiers for purposes of administering the plan.

Subd. 2. [APPLICANT INFORMATION.] Applicants shall submit evidence of family income, earned and unearned, for use in determining the amount of the premium and eligibility for a subsidy. Enrollees shall report changes in eligibility status as they occur.

Subd. 3. [FRAUD.] If subsequent to enrollment an enrollee in the state plan is found to have provided fraudulent information, the commissioner may disenroll the enrollee if the enrollee has sufficient, alternate coverage, but must maintain enrollment for those without alternate coverage. In all cases, the commissioner may recover premiums not paid due to fraud.

Subd. 4. [REVERIFICATION.] Eligibility for the state plan must be redetermined annually. The commissioner must use mail and other, simple means of obtaining information from enrollees, then engage in random checkups of the accuracy of information provided.

Sec. 13. [62J.21] [ENROLLMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COVERAGE EFFECTIVE DATE.] Coverage becomes effective on the next first or 15th of a month, whichever comes first, after the commissioner transfers enrollment information to the health plan selected by the applicant. The transfer to the health plan must occur no later than two weeks after the commissioner receives a completed application and payment of one month of premium costs.

Subd. 2. [ENROLLMENT CONFIRMATION.] No more than two weeks shall elapse between the time the commissioner receives a completed application and the applicant is notified of acceptance, rejection, or unusual delay and the reasons why. Refusal to provide a health history will not disqualify an applicant from the state plan. The commissioner shall operate a toll-free telephone service to confirm individual enrollment in the state plan. The service must be available to assist enrollees, health plans, and providers.

Sec. 14. [62J.22] [OPEN ENROLLMENT.]

The commissioner shall establish an annual open enrollment period during which enrollees must be allowed to transfer between health plans. Enrollees may not transfer between plans during other periods unless their place of residence changes and their current plan does not provide coverage in the new location.

Sec. 15. [62J.23] [PREMIUM PAYMENTS; APPLICATION.]

The premium payment procedures established in sections 16 and 17 apply to coverage purchased through the Minnesotans' health care plan by an individual or an employer. State plan coverage shall be canceled for failure to pay premiums.

Sec. 16. [62J.24] [PAYMENTS FROM INDIVIDUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTOMATIC PAYMENTS.] The commissioner shall establish an automatic premium payment system and shall require enrollees not receiving group coverage through an employer to make payments through the automatic system whenever practical. The system may include automatic payment through:

(1) automatic bank account debiting;

(2) automatic income withholding for employees, modeled after the system used for child support enforcement;

(3) automatic collections through the state income tax system, including automatic deductions for employees and estimated payments for self-employed enrollees;

(4) automatic deductions from unemployment compensation benefits; or

(5) other methods developed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [MANUAL PAYMENTS.] The commissioner may allow manual payments directly from enrollees to the commissioner for enrollees:

(1) making their initial premium payment with their application form;

(2) expected to remain on the program for a short period of time; or

(3) for whom automatic payments are impractical.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT PERIODS.] Premiums shall be paid on a monthly basis. The commissioner shall encourage enrollees to make premium payments covering longer periods of time whenever practical.

Sec. 17. [62J.25] [EMPLOYER ENROLLMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ENROLLMENT OF EMPLOYEES.] Employers seeking to participate in the state plan must apply to the commissioner to enroll their employees. A person enrolled under this method ceases to be covered as a member of the employer's group when employment with the employer is discontinued. The commissioner shall establish procedures to convert enrollees from group coverage to individual coverage when they cease employment with an employer who participates in the program unless the enrollee can provide evidence of coverage through a new employer or through some other plan.

Subd. 2. [COLLECTION OF PREMIUMS.] The commissioner shall require employers participating in the state plan to collect the employees' share of premiums and pay the employees' share and the employers' share directly to the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO EMPLOYERS.] The commissioner must provide technical assistance to employers participating in the state plan. Technical assistance must be targeted to employers who do not currently offer employee health benefits or for whom technical assistance services are not readily available. The assistance must be provided at cost and may include assistance on the following:

(1) designing and establishing a health benefit program;

(2) administering state and federal continuation coverage requirements; and

(3) establishing tax-sheltered premium accounts for employees.

The commissioner shall determine the content of the universal basic benefit set, with the advice of the technology and benefits advisory committee. The universal basic benefit set must include:*

(1) the benefits contained in the intermediate benefit set, including but not limited to full coverage for prenatal care, immunizations, and other preventive care as currently mandated for health maintenance organizations; and

(2) all or part of the mandated benefits currently required under chapters 60A, 62A, 62C, 62D, and 62E, as appropriate, based on an analysis of the requirements using the principles stated in article 1, section 6, subdivision 2.

Sec. 13. [62J.41] [AVAILABILITY OF INTERMEDIATE BENEFIT SET.]

The intermediate benefit set is available only to individuals and to small groups containing no more than 29 employees or members. "ARTICLE 1

AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE AND ENGINE

REPAIR FACILITIES: STATE FINANCING

Section 1. [116R.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 16.

Subd. 2. [BONDS.] "Bonds" means the bonds authorized under section 2, subdivision 1, or bonds issued to refund these bonds, except for deficiency bonds.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of finance.

Subd. 4. [DEFICIENCY BONDS.] "Deficiency bonds" means the bonds authorized under section 13, subdivision 3, or bonds issued to refund these bonds.

Sec. 2. [116R.02] [BOND ISSUE; SALE AUTHORIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE AUTHORIZATION.] The commissioner of finance, upon the request of the commissioner of trade and economic development, may issue and sell revenue bonds as provided under sections 1 to 15 in one or more series or issues for the purposes provided in this section in the aggregate principal amount of up to $350,000,000. Proceeds of the bonds and investment income on the proceeds are appropriated in the amounts and for the purposes specified in subdivisions 2, 5, and 6 and section 4.

Subd. 2. [LOAN, LEASE, AND REVENUE AGREEMENTS.] (a) The commissioner may loan the proceeds of the bonds or make other loans or enter into lease agreements or other revenue agreements for the facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6. The commissioner may provide for servicing of the loans and agreements, the times they are payable and the amounts of payments, the amount of the loans and agreements, their security, and other terms, conditions, and provisions necessary or convenient in connection with them and may enter into all necessary contracts and security instruments in connection with them. The commissioner shall seek to obtain the best available security for the loans or agreements. The facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6 may be pledged as collateral for the loans made and bonds issued under sections 1 to 15.

(b) To reduce the risk that state general funds will be needed to pay debt service on the state guaranteed bonds, the commissioner must require that the financing arrangements include a coverage test satisfactory to the commissioner so that the sum of the value of the assets and other security pledged to the payment of bonds is no less than 125 percent of the outstanding state guaranteed bonds. Assets and other security that may be taken into account include (1) net unencumbered value of the project and any collateral or third party guaranty, including a letter of credit, pledged or otherwise furnished by a user of the project or by a benefitted airline company as security for the payment of rent, (2) bond proceeds, including earnings thereon, and (3) prepayments of rent, after making such adjustments the commissioner determines to be appropriate to take into account any outstanding bonds secured by a lien on the project or rent that is prior to the lien thereon that is securing the state guaranteed bonds. The commissioner may adopt the method of valuing the assets and other security as the commissioner determines to be appropriate, including valuation of the project as its original cost less depreciation.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION; DATA PRACTICES.] (a) An applicant may file a written application with the commissioner and the commissioner of trade and economic development for a loan or lease agreement or other revenue agreement for either or both of the aircraft facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6. The commissioner and the commissioner of trade and economic development shall exercise due diligence in the review and approval of each application. In general, an application must provide information similar to that required by an investment banking or other financial institution considering a project for debt financing. The applicant shall submit a report prepared by a nationally recognized consultant familiar with the airline industry and its financing to the commissioner and the commissioner of trade and economic development with the written application. The selection of the consultant must be approved by the commissioner. The report must project the available revenues of the lessees of both of the facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6, or either of them, that are at least sufficient during each year of the term of the proposed applicable bonds to pay when due all financial obligations of the lessee or lessees under the leases. The report must include the factors on which the projection is based.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the following data required under sections 1 to 16 or submitted in connection with the application or any agreement authorized under this act is nonpublic data: business plans, financial statements, customer lists, and market and feasibility studies paid for with nonpublic money. The commissioner or the commissioner of trade and economic development may make the data accessible to any person, agency, or public entity if the commissioner or the commissioner of trade and economic development determines that access is required under state or federal securities law or is necessary for the person, agency, or public entity to perform due diligence in connection with the provision of financial assistance to the facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6.

Subd. 4. [SECURITY.] (a) If so provided in the commissioner's order or any indenture authorizing the applicable series of bonds, up to $125,000,000 principal amount of bonds for the facility described in subdivision 5 and up to $50,000,000 principal amount of bonds for the facility described in subdivision 6 may be secured by either of the following methods:

(1) upon the occurrence of any deficiency in a debt service reserve fund for a series of bonds as provided in section 13, subdivision 3, the commissioner shall issue and sell deficiency bonds in a principal amount not to exceed the lesser of $175,000,000 or the outstanding principal amount of the bonds secured by the debt service reserve fund; or

(2) the bonds may be directly secured by a pledge of the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the state and issued as general obligation revenue bonds of the state in accordance with the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Deficiency bonds and bonds issued under clause (2) must be issued in accordance with and subject to sections 16A.641, 16A.66, 16A.672, and 16A.675, except for subdivision 5 of section 16A.641 and except that the bonds may be sold at public or private sale at a price or prices determined by the commissioner as provided in section 13, subdivision 3.

(b) At the request of the commissioner, St. Louis county shall by resolution of its county board, unconditionally and irrevocably pledge as a general obligation, its full faith, credit, and taxing power to pay or secure payment of principal and interest due on up to $12,600,000 principal amount of revenue bonds for the facility described in subdivision 5 and principal and interest due on up to $15,000,000 principal amount of revenue bonds for the facility described in subdivision 6. The general obligation and pledge of St. Louis county are not subject to and shall not be taken into account for purposes of any debt limitation. A levy of taxes for the St. Louis county general obligation is not subject to and shall not be taken into account for purposes of any levy limitations. The general obligation and the bonds secured by the general obligation may be issued without an election. Except for sections 475.61 and 475.64, chapter 475 does not apply to the general obligation or the bonds secured by the general obligation.

(c) Bonds and deficiency bonds issued under sections 1 to 15 and any indenture entered into in connection with the issuance of the bonds are not subject to section 16B.06.

Subd. 5. [USE OF PROCEEDS; AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE FACILITY.] The proceeds of the bonds issued in a principal amount not to exceed $250,000,000 must be used to finance the costs related to the planning, construction, improvement, or equipping of a heavy maintenance facility for aircraft and facilities subordinate and related to the facility to be located at the Duluth international airport and any costs of issuance, reserves, credit enhancement, or an initial period of interest payments related to the bonds or the facility. The bond proceeds are appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes specified in this subdivision. The facility must be owned by the metropolitan airports commission and leased for the benefit of an airline company for use as a heavy maintenance base. With the approval of the commissioner, the owner of the facility may place a mortgage or security interest lien on the facility or any interest in or part of the facility. The mortgage is exempt from the mortgage registry tax imposed under chapter 287. In the event of a default under the loan, lease agreement, or other revenue agreement, the facility, or any part of the facility, may be leased or sold to another person for any lawful purpose, subject to the approval of the commissioner, provided that the approval of the commissioner is not required if a bond trustee has taken possession of the facility as a result of the default.

The ownership of the facility by the owner must not create any liability of the owner for payment of the debt service on the bonds. The owner may require as a condition of entering the lease of the facility that the lessee or other party pay all costs, expenses, or any other obligations of ownership.

Subd. 6. [USE OF PROCEEDS; AIRCRAFT ENGINE REPAIR FACILITY.] The proceeds of the bonds issued in a principal amount not to exceed $100,000,000 must be used to finance the costs related to the planning, construction, improvement, or equipping of an aircraft engine repair facility and facilities subordinate and related to the facility to be located at the Chisholm-Hibbing municipal airport in the city of Hibbing and any costs of issuance, reserves, credit enhancement, or an initial period of interest payments related to the bonds or the facility. The bond proceeds are appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes specified in this subdivision. The facility must be owned by the owner of the Chisholm-Hibbing municipal airport, but may be leased, with or without a purchase option, to any person for the primary purpose of repairing aircraft engines or components. With the approval of the commissioner, the owner of the facility may place a mortgage or security interest lien on the facility. The mortgage is exempt from the mortgage registry tax imposed under chapter 287. In the event of a default under the loan, lease agreement, or other revenue agreement, the facility may be leased to another person for any lawful purpose or sold, subject to the approval of the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [AGREEMENT OF LESSEE.] Before issuing the bonds for the facilities, approving financial assistance, or entering into loan, lease, or other revenue agreements for the facilities described in subdivisions 5 and 6, the commissioner shall determine that the lessee and, if necessary, other corporations affiliated with by common ownership with the lessee have agreed to requirements satisfactory to the commissioner respecting: (1) aircraft noise abatement, and (2) the retention and location in the state, for at least the term of the lease, of employees, domestic and international operations, and facilities, including headquarters facilities, of the lessee or other affiliated corporation.

Subd. 8. [ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding any other law or rule, no environmental review must be completed prior to the approval of an application and the issuance of a conditional commitment for the loan, or the taking of any other action permitted by sections 1 to 15, including the issuance of bonds, which is considered necessary or desirable by the commissioner to prepare for a final commitment and to make it effective. Environmental review, to the extent required by law, shall be made in conjunction with the issuance by state agencies of environmental permits for the project. Permits may be applied for prior to the issuance of a conditional commitment. Action shall be taken as expeditiously as possible on environmental review and all permits required.

Sec. 3. [116R.03] [GENERAL POWERS.]

For the purpose of exercising the specific powers authorized under sections 1 to 15 and effectuating the other purposes of sections 1 to 15, the commissioner may:

(1) acquire, hold, pledge, assign, or dispose of real or personal property or any interest in property, including a mortgage or security interest in a facility described in section 2, subdivision 5 or 6;

(2) enter into agreements, contracts, or other transactions with any federal or state agency, any person, and any domestic or foreign partnership, corporation, association, or organization, including contracts or agreements for administration and implementation of all or part of sections 1 to 15;

(3) acquire real property, or an interest therein, by purchase or foreclosure, where the acquisition is necessary or appropriate;

(4) enter into agreements with lenders, borrowers, or the issuers of securities for the purpose of regulating the development and management of any facility financed in whole or in part by the proceeds of bonds or loans;

(5) enter into agreements with other appropriate federal, state, or local governmental units; and

(6) contract with, use, or employ any federal, state, regional, or local public or private agency or organization, legal counsel, financial advisors, investment bankers or others, upon terms the commissioner considers necessary or desirable, to assist in the exercise of any of the powers authorized under sections 1 to 15 and to carry out the objectives of sections 1 to 15 and may pay for the services from bond proceeds or otherwise available department money.

Sec. 4. [116R.04] [REVENUE BONDS; PURPOSES, TERMS, APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [BONDS.] The commissioner from time to time may issue negotiable bonds in one or more series or issues in a principal amount which, in the opinion of the commissioner of trade and economic development, is necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving the purposes of sections 1 to 15, including the construction of a heavy maintenance facility for aircraft to be located at the Duluth international airport, the financing of an aircraft engine repair facility in the city of Hibbing, the payment of interest on bonds of the commissioner, the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, and the payment of all other expenditures of the commissioner and the owner of a financed facility incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes and powers of sections 1 to 15. The bonds may be issued as bonds or notes or in any other form authorized by law. Except as provided in section 2, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), and section 4, subdivision 3, sections 16A.31 to 16A.675 do not apply to the bonds authorized under section 2.

Subd. 2. [REFUNDING OF BONDS.] The commissioner from time to time may issue bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premiums thereon, any interest accrued or to accrue to the redemption date, and costs related to the issuance and sale of the bonds. The proceeds of any refunding bonds may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be applied to the purchase or payment at maturity of the bonds to be refunded, to the redemption of such outstanding bonds on any redemption date, or to pay interest on the refunding bonds and may, pending such application, be placed in escrow to be applied to such purchase, payment, retirement, or redemption. Any such escrowed proceeds, pending such use, may be invested and reinvested in obligations that are authorized investments under section 11A.24. The income earned or realized on any such investment may also be applied to the payment of the bonds to be refunded, interest or premiums on the refunded bonds, or to pay interest on the refunding bonds. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied, any balance of such proceeds and any investment income may be returned to the general fund or, if applicable, the state bond fund, for use in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this subdivision must be issued and secured in the manner provided by order of the commissioner, provided that any refunding bonds may be secured in any manner by which the refunded bonds were secured and payable from any source from which the refunded bonds were secured.

Subd. 3. [KIND OF BONDS.] All bonds issued under this section must be issued in the form and manner provided in section 16A.672.

Subd. 4. [COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW.] The commissioner may covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds issued under this section that the state will comply, insofar as possible, with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code now or hereafter enacted that are applicable to the bonds and that establish conditions under which the interest to be paid on the bonds will not be includable in gross income for federal tax purposes.

Subd. 5. [TAXABILITY OF INTEREST.] Interest on the bonds authorized by this section may be issued without regard to whether the interest to be paid on them is includable in gross income for federal tax purposes.

Sec. 5. [116R.05] [BONDS; ORDERS AUTHORIZING, ADDITIONAL TERMS, SALE.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] The bonds must be authorized by an order or orders of the commissioner, bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States, at such place or places within or without the state, and be subject to such terms of redemption or purchase prior to maturity as the order or orders may provide, or as may be provided in any indenture or indentures of trust. If, for any reason, whether existing at the date of issue of any bonds or at the date of making or purchasing any loan or securities from the proceeds or after that date, the interest on any bonds is or becomes subject to federal income taxation, this shall not impair or affect the validity of the provisions made for the security of the bonds. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at a price or prices determined by the commissioner. The underwriting discount, spread, or commission paid or allowed to the underwriters of the bonds, however, must be an amount not in excess of the amount determined by the commissioner to be reasonable in the light of the risk assumed and the expenses of issuance, if any, required to be paid by the underwriters or prevailing market conditions and practices.

Subd. 2. [SOURCES OF PAYMENT.] Except as otherwise provided for bonds issued under section 2, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), the bonds are payable solely from the following sources and only to the extent provided in the order or indenture authorizing or securing the bonds:

(1) revenues of any nature derived from the ownership, lease, operation, sale, foreclosure, or refinancing of a facility described in section 2, subdivision 5 or 6;

(2) repayments of any loans made under sections 1 to 15;

(3) proceeds of any bonds or deficiency bonds;

(4) amounts in any account or accounts authorized by section 11 or 12;

(5) amounts paid by St. Louis county under its obligations referred to in section 2, subdivision 4;

(6) investment income on any of the sources specified in clauses (1) to (7);

(7) amounts payable under any insurance policy, guaranty, letter of credit, or other instrument securing the bonds; and

(8) any other revenues which the commissioner may pledge, but not including state appropriations unless the appropriation is specifically designated for that purpose.

Subd. 3. [NOT A STATE DEBT.] Except as provided in section 2, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), no bond shall constitute a debt of the state within the meaning of any statutory or constitutional limitation or pledge the full faith and credit of the state, and no holder of any bonds may compel any exercise of the taxing power of the state to pay principal, premiums, or interest for the bonds, nor to enforce payment of principal, premiums, or interest against any property of the state, except for property expressly pledged, mortgaged, encumbered, or appropriated for this purpose.

Sec. 6. [116R.06] [BONDS; OPTIONAL ORDER AND CONTRACT PROVISIONS.]

Any order authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds or any indenture may contain provisions, which may be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds, as to the matters referred to in this section.

(a) It may pledge or create a lien on money or property and any money held in trust or otherwise by others to secure the payment of the bonds or of any series or issue of bonds, subject to any agreements with bondholders which exist.

(b) It may provide for the custody, collection, securing, investment, and payment of money.

(c) It may set aside reserves or sinking funds and provide for their regulation and disposition and may create other special funds into which money may be deposited.

(d) It may limit the loans and securities to which the proceeds of sale of bonds may be applied and may pledge repayments thereon to secure the payment of the notes or bonds or of any series or issue of notes or bonds.

(e) It may limit the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds.

(f) It may prescribe the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent to the amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which that consent may be given.

(g) It may vest in a trustee or trustees property, rights, powers, and duties in trust determined by the commissioner, which may include any or all of the rights, powers, and duties of the bondholders, or may limit the rights, powers, and duties of the trustee. It may make contracts with a trustee or trustees authorizing the trustee or trustees to invest in investments that may be invested in by the state board of investment under section 11A.24, and apply, or dispose of and use money in any account.

(h) It may define the acts or omissions to act which constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the commissioner and may provide for the rights and remedies of the holders of bonds in the event of a default, and provide any other matters of like or different character, consistent with the general laws of the state and other provisions of sections 1 to 15, which in any way affect the security or protection of the bonds and the rights of the bondholders.

Sec. 7. [116R.07] [PLEDGES.]

Any pledge made by the commissioner is valid and binding from the time the pledge is made. The money or property pledged and later received by the commissioner is immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery of the property or money or further act, and the lien of any pledge is valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the commissioner, whether or not those parties have notice of the lien or pledge. Neither the order nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

Sec. 8. [116R.08] [BONDS; NONLIABILITY OF INDIVIDUALS.]

The commissioner and the commissioner's staff and any person executing the bonds are not personally liable on the bonds or subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of their issuance.

Sec. 9. [116R.09] [BONDS; PURCHASE AND CANCELLATION.]

The commissioner, subject to agreements with bondholders which may then exist, has power out of any funds available for the purpose to purchase bonds of the commissioner at a price not exceeding (a) if the bonds are then redeemable, the redemption price then applicable plus accrued interest to the next interest payment date thereon, or (b) if the bonds are not redeemable, the redemption price applicable on the first date after the purchase upon which the bonds become subject to redemption plus accrued interest to that date.

Sec. 10. [116R.10] [STATE PLEDGE AGAINST IMPAIRMENT OF CONTRACTS.]

The state pledges and agrees with the holders of any bonds issued under sections 1 to 15, that the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the commissioner to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the bondholders, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds, together with interest on them, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the bondholders, are fully met and discharged. The commissioner may include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of bonds issued under sections 1 to 15.

Sec. 11. [116R.11] [AIRCRAFT FACILITIES FUNDS AND DEBT SERVICE ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [FUNDS.] The commissioner or any trustee appointed by the commissioner under sections 1 to 15 shall establish and maintain an aircraft facilities fund for each of the facilities described in section 2, subdivisions 5 and 6. Except for amounts required by the commissioner to be deposited in a debt service account, proceeds of each issue of bonds authorized under section 2, subdivision 1, must be deposited in a separate account, debt service reserve, or other account designated by the commissioner. Money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner. The commissioner or the owner of each facility described in section 2, subdivisions 5 and 6, may withdraw proceeds of bonds for application to the appropriated purposes in the manner provided by order of the commissioner or in any indenture authorized by order of the commissioner. The commissioner may establish whatever accounts might be necessary to carry out sections 1 to 15.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNTS.] The state treasurer or any trustee appointed by the commissioner under sections 1 to 15 shall maintain permanently on official books and records debt service accounts separate from all other funds and accounts, to record all receipts and disbursements of money for principal and interest payments on each series of bonds. No later than the due date of each principal and interest payment on the bonds, the commissioner shall withdraw from the proceeds of the bonds, or from revenues on hand and available for the purpose, and shall deposit in the debt service accounts the amount, if any, required in the account by the order of the commissioner or any indenture authorized by an order of the commissioner. All amounts in any debt service account are appropriated for the payment of principal, premiums, and interest for the bonds to which the account relates.

Sec. 12. [116R.12] [POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The trustee, if any, designated in any indenture or order securing an issue of bonds may, in the trustee's own name, if so provided in the indenture or order:

(1) enforce all rights of the bondholders, including the right to require the commissioner to collect fees, charges, interest, and payments on leases, loans, or interests therein held by the commissioner and eligible securities purchased by it adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of, those fees, charges, and payments, and to require the commissioner to carry out any other agreements with the holders of the bonds and to perform the duties required under sections 1 to 15;

(2) bring suit upon the bonds;

(3) require the commissioner to account as if it were the trustee of any express trust for the holders of the bonds;

(4) enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or in violation of the rights of holders of the bonds; or

(5) upon a default as defined in any bond, order, or indenture, declare all the bonds due and payable, enforce any remedy available under law, and if all defaults are made good, the trustee may annul the declaration and consequences.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL POWERS.] In addition to the powers in subdivision 1, the trustee has all of the powers necessary or appropriate for the exercise of any functions specifically set forth in this section or incident to the general representation of bondholders in the enforcement and protection of their rights.

Subd. 3. [VENUE.] The venue of any action or proceedings brought by a trustee is in Ramsey county.

Sec. 13. [116R.13] [DEBT SERVICE RESERVE ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner or a trustee appointed by the commissioner may create, maintain, and establish a special account or accounts for the security of one or more or all series of the bonds, which accounts are known as debt service reserve accounts. The commissioner may pay into each debt service reserve account:

(1) any money appropriated by the state only for the purposes of that account;

(2) any proceeds of sale of bonds to the extent provided in the order or indenture authorizing their issuance;

(3) any money directed to be transferred by the commissioner to that debt service reserve account; and

(4) any other money made available to the commissioner for the purpose of that account from any other source.

Subd. 2. [USE OF MONEY.] The money held in or credited to each debt service reserve account, except as provided in this section, must be used solely for the payment of the principal of bonds of the commissioner as the bonds mature or otherwise become due, the purchase of the bonds, the payment of interest on the bonds, the payment of any premium required when the bonds are redeemed before maturity, or any rebate amounts owing to the United States government in accordance with any applicable covenant to comply with federal tax laws; provided, that money in a debt service reserve account may not be withdrawn at any time in an amount which would reduce the amount of the account to less than any amount which the commissioner determines to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of the account, except for the purpose of paying principal, premium, or interest due on bonds secured by the account, for the payment of which other money is not available.

Subd. 3. [GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.] (a) If the amount in any debt service reserve account falls below the minimum required in an order of the commissioner or indenture for the applicable series of bonds and the order or indenture so provides, the commissioner shall issue as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than six months after the occurrence of the deficiency, general obligation bonds in accordance with the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, section 7, and section 2, subdivision 4; section 16A.641, subdivisions 1 to 4 and 6 to 13; sections 16A.66, section 16A.672; and section 16A.675, except as otherwise provided in this section and unless

(b) The underwriting discount, spread, or commission paid or allowed to the underwriters or placement agents of deficiency bonds and bonds described in section 2, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), must be an amount not in excess of the amount determined by the commissioner to be reasonable in light of the risk assumed and the expense of issuance, if any, required to be paid by the underwriters, placement agents, or prevailing market conditions and practices.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION.] If the commissioner creates a debt service reserve account for the security of any series of bonds, the commissioner may not issue any additional bonds which are similarly secured if the amount of any of the debt service reserve accounts at the time of issuance does not equal or exceed the minimum amount, if any, required by the resolution creating that account, unless the commissioner deposits in each account at the time of issuance, from the proceeds of the bonds or otherwise, an amount which, together with the amount then in the account, will not be less than the minimum amount required.

Subd. 5. [EXCESS MONEY.] To the extent consistent with the orders and indentures securing outstanding bonds, the commissioner may, at the close of any fiscal year, transfer to any other account from any debt service reserve account, any excess in that account over the amount considered by the commissioner to be reasonably necessary for the purpose of the account.

Subd. 6. [CONSTRUCTION.] Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the right of the commissioner to create and establish by order or indenture other accounts or security in addition to debt service reserve accounts which are necessary or desirable in connection with any bonds or programs.

Sec. 14. [116R.14] [CONSTRUCTION.]

Sections 1 to 15 are necessary for the welfare of the state of Minnesota and its inhabitants; therefore, they shall be liberally construed to effect their purpose.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.667 is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [ADDITIONAL BONDS.] (a) With the approval of the commissioner of finance and the commissioner of trade and economic development, the commission may issue general obligation revenue bonds for the purposes of:

(1) acquiring by purchase real and personal properties located within the metropolitan area that are related to airline operations to be leased to airline corporations, or to other corporations affiliated by common ownership with airline corporations, for use in connection with their airline operations, including real and personal properties for use as flight training facilities; and

(2) financing or refinancing the costs of real and personal properties owned by the commission to be leased to airline corporations and used in connection with the operations of the airline corporations at airports under the commission's jurisdiction.

(b) In addition to the covenants and agreements otherwise required or negotiated by the commission, the leases and revenue agreements for the properties must contain covenants and agreements by the airline corporation, and if the user is not the airline corporation, also by the airline corporation, satisfactory to the commission providing for:

(1) the payment of rents in amounts and at times adequate to pay the principal and interest as due on the general obligation revenue bonds issued to acquire, finance, or refinance the properties and to pay the commission's costs and expenses of issuing the bonds and acquiring and owning the properties, and otherwise satisfying the requirements of section 469.155, subdivision 5;

(2) the adequate security for payment of rents so that the net unencumbered value of the leased property described in paragraph (a), clause (1), and other collateral pledged to the commission from time to time by the airline corporation, as independently appraised at the time of issuance and periodically to the satisfaction of the commission during the term of the general obligation revenue bonds, is a percentage of the principal amount of the outstanding general obligation revenue bonds under this subdivision as determined by the commission; provided that the percentage determined by the commission must not be less than 125 percent;

(3) the retention and location of employees, operations, domestic and international, and facilities, including headquarters, of the airline corporation in the metropolitan area and the state for periods that may exceed the term of the lease and aircraft noise abatement; and

The portion of the general obligation revenue bonds attributable to the financing or refinancing of the property described in paragraph (a), clause (2), must be in an amount equivalent to a percentage of its then fair market value as determined by the commission; provided that the percentage shall not exceed 85 percent. The principal amount of the general obligation revenue bonds issued under this subdivision, including any debt service reserve account or other reserve account, is limited to $270,000,000 in excess of the amount authorized by subdivision 2; provided that the sum of the original principal amounts of the general

Before the commission may issue the general obligation revenue bonds described in this subdivision, the commission shall have received, in form and substance satisfactory to the commission, reports described in section 3, subdivision 3, relating to the general obligation revenue bonds.

Sec. 3. [473.6671] [REVENUE BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] (a) With the approval of the commissioner of finance and the commissioner of trade and economic development, the commission may issue revenue bonds for the purpose of:

(1) acquiring by purchase real and personal properties located within the metropolitan area that are related to airline operations to be leased to airline corporations, or to other corporations affiliated by common ownership with airline corporations, for use in connection with their airline operations, including real and personal properties for use as flight training facilities; and

(2) financing or refinancing the costs of real and personal properties owned by the commission to be leased to airline corporations and used in connection with the operations of the airline corporations at airports under the commission's jurisdiction.

Prior to the issuance of the revenue bonds, the commission shall enter into a lease with the airline corporations, or with other corporations affiliated by common ownership with airline corporations, for the use of such acquired real and personal properties referenced in clause (1), and shall enter into a revenue agreement with the airline corporation for the use of the properties financed or refinanced referenced in clause (2).

(b) In addition to the covenants and agreements otherwise required or negotiated by the commission, the leases and revenue agreements for the properties must contain covenants and agreements by the airline corporation, and if the user is not the airline corporation, also by the airline corporation, satisfactory to the commission providing for:

(1) the payment of rents in amounts and at times adequate to pay the principal and interest as due on the revenue bonds issued to acquire, finance, or refinance the properties and to pay the commission's costs and expenses of issuing the bonds and acquiring and owning the properties, and otherwise satisfying the requirements of section 469.155, subdivision 5;

(2) the retention and location of employees, operations, domestic and international, and facilities, including headquarters, of the airline corporation in the metropolitan area and the state for periods that may exceed the term of the lease and aircraft noise abatement; and

(3) early repayment, or the establishment of a defeasance account to provide for timely repayment, of the general obligation revenue bonds upon the occurrence of events and upon terms and conditions as are satisfactory to the commission, together with financial requirements and covenants satisfactory to the commission.

(c) The sum of the original principal amounts of the revenue bonds issued under this subdivision, and the general obligation revenue bonds issued under section 473.667, subdivision 11, shall not exceed $390,000,000. Except as provided in this section, the revenue bonds must be issued in the manner and are subject to the requirements of chapter 475; provided that compliance with the requirements of section 475.60 is at the discretion of the commission.

Subd. 2. [SECURITY AND SOURCE OF PAYMENT.] The revenue bonds described in subdivision 1 are payable solely from and secured by the revenues derived by the commission from the leases upon the properties described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), the revenue agreements upon the properties described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (2), and other revenues as the commission may designate and pledge which are derived from the ownership and operation of its airports, air navigation facilities, and other facilities; provided that the pledge and application of all revenues to the payment and security of the revenue bonds are subject and subordinate to the first and prior charge thereon for the payment and security of the commission's general obligation revenue bonds as provided in section 473.667. The revenue bonds shall not be payable from or charged upon any funds or assets of the commission other than the commission revenues expressly pledged to their payment. An owner of the revenue bonds may not compel any exercise of the taxing power of the commission, the state, or any other taxing jurisdiction. Each bond must state in substance the limited nature of the obligations. The revenue bonds may be further secured by an assignment of leases with respect to the properties acquired, financed, or refinanced by the revenue bonds, and (i) with respect to the properties described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), by a mortgage and security agreement upon the properties and by other collateral as is pledged to secure the obligations of the airline corporation or other lessee under the leases on the properties, and (ii) with respect to the properties described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (2), by other collateral as is pledged to secure the obligations of the airline corporation under the revenue agreements. In the resolution or other instrument providing for the issuance of the revenue bonds, the commission may provide for or require the creation of accounts from sources specified by the commission for the payment and security of the revenue bonds, including a debt service reserve account, separate from the accounts maintained for payment of the general obligation revenue bonds. The sources specified by the commission may include a portion of the proceeds of the revenue bonds or payment by the airline corporation. The leases described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), and the revenue agreements described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (2), must provide that if the commission determines to pledge any of its revenues to secure the revenue bonds, including revenues deposited into a debt service reserve account for the revenue bonds, the airline corporation concurrently shall pledge assets to the commission as security for repayment of the pledged revenues so that the net unencumbered values of the pledged assets, as independently appraised at the time of issuance and periodically to the satisfaction of the commission during the term of the revenue bonds, is a percentage of the amount of commission revenues so pledged as determined by the commission; provided that the percentage shall not be less than 125 percent.

Subd. 3. [DUE DILIGENCE CONDITIONS.] Before the commission may issue the revenue bonds described in subdivision 1, the commission must receive, in form and substance satisfactory to the commission:

(1) a report of audit of the commission's financial records for the fiscal year most recently ended or, if this is not yet available, a report for the preceding year, prepared by a nationally recognized firm of certified public accountants, showing that the net revenues received that year, computed as the gross receipts less any refunds of rates, fees, charges, and rentals for airport and air navigation facilities and service, and less the aggregate amount of current expenses, paid or accrued, of operation and maintenance of property and carrying on the commission's business and activities, equaled or exceeded the maximum amount of then outstanding bonds of the commission and interest thereon to become due in any future fiscal year;

(2) a written report prepared by a nationally recognized consultant on airport management and financing, projecting available revenues of the airline corporation at least sufficient during each year of the term of the proposed revenue bonds to pay when due all financial obligations of the airline corporation under the revenue agreements and leases described in subdivision 1 and stating the factors on which the projection is based; and

(3) a written report prepared by a nationally recognized consultant on airport management and financing, projecting available revenues of the commission at least sufficient during each year of the term of the proposed revenue bonds to pay all principal and interest when due on the revenue bonds, and stating the estimates of air traffic, rate increases, inflation, and other factors on which the projection is based.

The commission shall submit the reports required under this subdivision to the commissioner of finance and the commissioner of trade and economic development.

A city which was a village on January 1, 1974 and before that date provided for a system of biennial elections in the odd-numbered year shall continue to hold its elections in that year until changed in accordance with this section. When a city changes its elections from one year to another, and does not provide for the expiration of terms by ordinance, the term of an incumbent expiring at a time when no municipal election is held in the months immediately prior to expiration is extended until the date for taking office following the next scheduled municipal election. If the change results in having three council members to be elected at a succeeding election, the two individuals receiving the highest vote shall serve for terms of four years and the individual receiving the third highest number of votes shall serve for a term of two years. To provide an orderly transition to the odd or even year election plan, the governing body of the city may adopt supplementary ordinances regulating initial elections and officers to be chosen at the elections and shortening or lengthening the terms of incumbents and those elected at the initial election so as to conform as soon as possible to the regular schedule provided in section 412.02, subdivision 1. Whenever the time of the municipal election is changed, the city clerk immediately shall notify in writing the county auditor and secretary of state of the change of date. Thereafter the municipal general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each odd-numbered or even-numbered year until the ordinance is revoked and notification of the change is made.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 205.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF ORDINANCE; REFERENDUM.] An ordinance changing the year of the municipal election is effective 240 days after passage and publication or at a later date fixed in the ordinance. Within 180 days after passage and publication of the ordinance, a petition requesting a referendum on the ordinance may be filed with the city clerk. The petition shall be signed by eligible voters equal in number to ten percent of the total number of votes cast in the city at the last municipal general election. If the requisite petition is filed within the prescribed period, the ordinance shall not become effective until it is approved by a majority of the voters voting on the question at a general or special election held at least 60 days after submission of the petition. If the petition is filed, the governing body may reconsider its action in adopting the ordinance.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 205.16, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [NOTICE TO AUDITOR.] At least ~~30~~ 45 days prior to every municipal election, the municipal clerk shall provide a written notice to the county auditor, including the date of the election and the offices and questions to be voted on at the election.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 205A.04, is amended to read:

When the time of a school district's general election is changed from May to November, the terms of all board members shall be lengthened to expire on January 1; when the time of a school district's general election is changed from November to May, the terms of all board members shall be shortened to expire on July 1. Whenever the time of a school district election is changed, the school district clerk shall immediately notify in writing the county auditor or auditors of the counties in which the school district is located and the secretary of state of the change of date.

Subd. 2. [EXPERIMENTAL ELECTION; AUTHORIZATION.] The school board in independent school district No. 271 may, by resolution, designate the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of either the odd-numbered or the even-numbered year as the date for its general election, and may reduce the existing terms of school board members to provide for staggered four-year terms thereafter. The resolution shall provide that, to the extent mathematically possible, the same number of board members is chosen at each election, exclusive of those chosen to fill vacancies for unexpired terms. Whenever the year of a school district election is changed, the school district clerk shall immediately notify in writing the county auditors of Hennepin and Scott counties and the secretary of state of the change of date. The secretary of state shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1993, on the implementation of this subdivision.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 205A.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO AUDITOR.] At least ~~30~~ 45 days prior to every school district election, the school district clerk shall provide a written notice to the county auditor of each county in which the school district is located. The notice must include the date of the election and the offices and questions to be voted on at the election. For the purposes of meeting the timelines of this section, in a bond election, a notice, including a proposed question, may be provided to the county auditor prior to receipt of a review and comment from the commissioner of education and prior to actual initiation of the election.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 447.32, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

If there is more than one precinct, the boundaries of the election precincts and the locations of the polling places must be defined in the notice of election, either in full or by reference to a description or map on file in the office of the clerk.

Special elections may be called by the hospital board ~~at any time~~ to vote on any matter required by law to be submitted to the voters. A special election may not be conducted either during the 30 days before and the 30 days after the state primary or state general election, or during the 20 days before and the 20 days after the regularly scheduled election of any municipality wholly or partially within the hospital district. Special elections must be held within the election precinct or precincts and at the polling place or places designated by the board. In the case of the first election of officers of a new district, precincts and polling places must be set by the governing body of the most populous city or town included in the district.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION NOTICES.] At least two weeks before the first day to file affidavits of candidacy, the clerk of the district shall publish a notice stating the first and last day on which affidavits of candidacy may be filed, the places for filing the affidavits and the closing time of the last day for filing. The clerk shall post a similar notice in at least one conspicuous place in each city and town in the district at least ten days before the first day to file affidavits of candidacy.

The notice of each election must be posted in at least one public and conspicuous place within each city and town included in the district at least ten days before the election. It must be published in the official newspaper of the district or, if a paper has not been designated, in a legal newspaper having

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 447.32, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

A candidate may withdraw from the election by filing an affidavit of withdrawal with the clerk of the district no later than 12:00 p.m. on the day after the last day to file affidavits of candidacy.*

Voting must be by secret ballot. The clerk shall prepare, at the expense of the district, necessary ballots for the election of officers. Ballots must contain the names of the proposed candidates for each office, the length of the term of each office, and an additional blank space for the insertion of another name by the voter. The ballots must be marked and initialed by at least two judges as official ballots and used exclusively at the election. Any proposition to be voted on may be printed on the ballot provided for the election of officers or on a different ballot. The hospital board may also authorize the use of voting machines subject to chapter 206. Enough election judges may be appointed to receive the votes at each polling place. They may be paid by the district at a rate set by the board. The election judges shall act as clerks of election, count the ballots cast, and submit them to the board for canvass.

After canvassing the election, the board shall issue a certificate of election to the candidate who received the largest number of votes cast for each office. The clerk shall deliver the certificate to the person entitled to it in person or by certified mail. Each person certified shall file an acceptance and oath of office in writing with the clerk within 30 days after the date of delivery or mailing of the certificate. The board may fill any office as provided in subdivision 1 if the person elected fails to qualify within 30 days, but qualification is effective if made before the board acts to fill the vacancy.

Sec. 2. [354B.055] [RULES.]

The state university system and the community college system may adopt rules to administer the provisions of sections 354B.06 to 354B.08. The systems may deposit member contributions in a nontreasury account established under chapter 136, an account or accounts established under section 11A.17, or other appropriate accounts of the state board of investment for investment under procedures established by the state board of investment.

Sec. 3. [354B.06] [SUPPLEMENTAL RETIREMENT PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The supplemental retirement plan for personnel employed by the state university board and the state board for community colleges who are in the unclassified service of the state commencing July 1 following the completion of the second year of their full-time contract is governed by this section. An unclassified employee employed by the state university board or the state board for community colleges in subsidized on-the-job training, work experience, or public service employment as an enrollee under the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act is not included in the supplemental retirement plan provided for in this section after March 30, 1978, unless the unclassified employee has as of the later of March 30, 1978, or the date of employment sufficient service credit in the retirement fund providing primary retirement coverage to meet the minimum vesting requirements for a deferred retirement annuity, or the board agrees in writing to make the employer contribution required by this section on account of that unclassified employee from revenue sources other than funds provided under the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, or the unclassified employee agrees in writing to make the employer contribution required by this section in addition to the member contribution.

Subd. 2. [REDEMPTIONS.] *The chancellor of the state university system and the chancellor of the state community college system shall redeem all shares in the accounts of the Minnesota supplemental investment fund held on behalf of personnel in the supplemental plan who elect an investment option other than the supplemental investment fund, except that shares in the guaranteed return account may not be redeemed until the expiration dates for the guaranteed investment contracts. Sec. 4. [354B.07] [SALARY DEDUCTIONS, MATCHING FUNDS.]

[DEDUCTIONS.] The state university board and the state board for community colleges shall deduct from the salary of each person described in section 354B.06 a sum equal to five percent of the person's annual salary paid between $6,000 and $15,000. The deduction must be made in the same manner as other retirement deductions are made from the salary of the person. The employer shall make a contribution to the plan on behalf of every covered person in an amount equal to the deductions made from the salary of the person. If an agreement is made under section 356.24 for additional employer contributions, an amount equal to the additional employer contribution must be deducted from the person's annual salary above $15,000 as specified in this subdivision. Calculation of this amount must be made using the applicable preretirement interest rate specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and the mortality table adopted for the fund. The calculation must also assume a future salary history that includes annual salary increases at the salary increase rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d. The member must establish in the records of the association proof of the service for which the purchase of prior service is requested. The manner of the proof of service must be in accordance with procedures prescribed by the executive director of the association. The portion of the total cost of the purchase to be paid by the member is specified in subdivision 3. The remaining portion of total cost is to be paid by the employer, as specified in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [MEMBER PAYMENT.] To receive credit for the eligible service between January 1985 and September 1986, the member must pay an amount equal to the employee contribution rate or rates in effect during the period or periods of prior eligible non-credited service, applied to the actual salary rate in effect during the period or periods of prior service, plus six percent interest compounded annually from the date on which the contributions would otherwise have been made to the date on which the payment is made. Payment must be made in one lump sum before July 1, 1992.

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYER PAYMENT; SERVICE CREDIT.] Within 60 days of receipt by the association of the member contribution specified in subdivision 3, the city of Minneapolis shall pay an amount equal to the difference between the amount specified in subdivision 2 and the member payment specified in subdivision 3. This amount must be paid in one lump sum. The period of allowable service may be credited to the account of the person only after the receipt of full payment by the executive director.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 115A.9155, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MANUFACTURER RESPONSIBILITY.] (a) A manufacturer of batteries subject to subdivision 1 shall:

(1) ensure that a system for the proper collection, transportation, and processing of waste batteries exists for purchasers in Minnesota; and

(2) clearly inform each final purchaser of the prohibition on disposal of waste batteries and of the system or systems for proper collection, transportation, and processing of waste batteries available to the purchaser.

(b) To ensure that a system for the proper collection, transportation, and processing of waste batteries exists, a manufacturer shall:

(1) identify collectors, transporters, and processors for the waste batteries and contract or otherwise expressly agree with a person or persons for the proper collection, transportation, and processing of the waste batteries; or

(2) accept waste batteries returned to its manufacturing facility.

(c) At the time of sale of a battery subject to subdivision 1, a manufacturer shall provide in a clear and conspicuous manner a telephone number that the final consumer of the battery can call to obtain information on specific procedures to follow in returning the battery for recycling or proper disposal.

The manufacturer may include the telephone number and notice of return procedures on an invoice or other transaction document held by the purchaser. The manufacturer shall provide the telephone number to the commissioner of the agency.

(d) A manufacturer shall ensure that the cost of proper collection, transportation, and processing of the waste batteries is included in the sales transaction or agreement between the manufacturer and any purchaser.

~~(d)~~ (e) A manufacturer that has complied with this subdivision is not liable under subdivision 1 for improper disposal by a person other than the manufacturer of waste batteries.

Sec. 2. [115A.9157] [RECHARGEABLE BATTERIES AND PRODUCTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purpose of this section "rechargeable battery" means a sealed nickel-cadmium battery, a sealed lead acid battery, or any other rechargeable battery, except a rechargeable battery governed by section 115A.9155 or exempted by the commissioner under subdivision 9.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITION.] Effective August 1, 1991, a person may not place in mixed municipal solid waste a rechargeable battery, a rechargeable battery pack, a product with a nonremovable rechargeable battery, or a product powered by rechargeable batteries or rechargeable battery pack, from which all batteries or battery packs have not been removed.

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT COSTS.] A manufacturer of rechargeable batteries or products powered by rechargeable batteries is responsible for the costs of collecting and managing its waste rechargeable batteries and waste products to ensure that the batteries are not part of the solid waste stream.

Subd. 4. [PILOT PROJECTS.] By April 15, 1992, manufacturers whose rechargeable batteries or products powered by nonremovable rechargeable batteries are sold in this state shall implement pilot projects for the collection and proper management of all rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by nonremovable rechargeable batteries. Manufacturers may act as a group or through a representative organization. The pilot projects must run for a minimum of 18 months and be designed to collect sufficient statewide data for the design and implementation of permanent collection and management programs that may be reasonably expected to collect at least 90 percent of waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state.

By December 1, 1991, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall submit plans for the projects to the legislative commission. At least every six months during the pilot projects the manufacturers shall submit progress reports to the commission. The commission shall review the plans and progress reports.

[COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS.] By April 15, 1994, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall implement permanent programs, based on the results of the pilot projects required in subdivision 3, that may be reasonably expected to collect 90 percent of the waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state. The batteries and products collected must be recycled or otherwise managed or disposed of properly.

Subd. 6. [LIST OF PARTICIPANTS.] A manufacturer or its representative organization shall inform the legislative commission on waste management when they begin participating in the projects and programs and immediately if they withdraw participation. The list of participants shall be available to retailers, distributors, governmental agencies, and other interested persons who provide a self-addressed stamped envelope to the commission.

Subd. 7. [CONTRACTS.] A manufacturer or a representative organization of manufacturers may contract with the state or a political subdivision to provide collection services under this section. The manufacturer or organization shall fully reimburse the state or political subdivision for the value of any contractual services rendered under this subdivision.

Subd. 8. [ANTICOMPETITIVE CONDUCT.] A manufacturer or organization of manufacturers and its officers, members, employees, and agents who participate in projects or programs to collect and properly manage waste rechargeable batteries or products powered by rechargeable batteries are immune from liability under state law relating to antitrust, restraint of trade, unfair trade practices, and other regulation of trade or commerce for activities related to the collection and management of batteries and products required under this section.

Subd. 9. [EXEMPTIONS.] To ensure that new types of batteries do not add additional hazardous or toxic materials to the mixed municipal solid waste stream, the commissioner of the agency may exempt a new type of rechargeable battery from the requirements of this section if it poses no unreasonable hazard when placed in and processed or disposed of as part of a mixed municipal solid waste.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 325E.125, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MERCURY CONTENT.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (c), a manufacturer may not sell, distribute, or offer for sale in this state an alkaline manganese battery that contains more than ~~.30 percent mercury by weight, or after February 1, 1992,~~ 0.025 percent mercury by weight.

This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to ~~a~~ the maximum ~~compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage~~ rate for temporary total compensation.

(b) Except as provided under subdivision 3k, temporary partial compensation may be paid only while the employee is employed, earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury, and the reduced wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition is due to the injury. (c) Temporary partial compensation may not exceed the maximum rate for temporary total compensation and must be reduced to the extent that the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition plus the temporary partial disability payment otherwise payable under this subdivision exceeds 500 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

[LIGHT-DUTY JOB PRIOR TO THE END OF TEMPORARY TOTAL COMPENSATION.] (a) If the employer offers a job prior to the end of the 90-day period referred to in subdivision 3e, paragraph (a) and the job is consistent with an approved plan of rehabilitation or if no rehabilitation plan has been approved and the job is within the employee's physical limitations; or the employer procures a job for the employee with another employer which meets the requirements of this subdivision; or the employee accepts a job with another employer which meets the requirements of this subdivision, the employee's temporary total compensation shall cease. In this case the employee shall receive impairment compensation for the permanent partial disability which is ascertainable at that time. This impairment compensation shall be paid at the same rate that temporary total compensation was last paid. Upon the end of temporary total compensation under subdivision 3e, paragraph (a), the provisions of subdivision 3e or 3p apply, whichever is appropriate, and economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable accordingly except that the compensation shall be offset by impairment compensation received under this subdivision.

(b) If an employee accepts a job under paragraph (a), begins work at that job, and is subsequently unemployed at that job through no fault of the employee, that employee shall receive temporary total compensation, subject to the provisions of subdivision 3e or paragraph (a), as may be applicable. In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant if the employee remains unemployed for 45 calendar days. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner determines that rehabilitation is unnecessary. Further rehabilitation, if considered appropriate, is subject to section 176.102.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RETRAINING; COMPENSATION.] (a) Retraining is limited to 156 weeks. An employee who has been approved for retraining may petition ~~the commissioner~~ for additional compensation not to exceed 25 percent of the compensation otherwise payable. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that this additional compensation is warranted due to unusual or unique circumstances of the employee's retraining plan, the commissioner or compensation judge may award additional compensation in an amount ~~the commissioner determines is appropriate,~~ not to exceed the employee's request. This additional compensation shall cease at any time the commissioner or compensation judge determines the special circumstances are no longer present.

(b) If the employee is not employed during a retraining plan that has been specifically approved under this section, temporary total compensation is payable for up to 90 days after the end of the retraining plan; except that, payment during the 90-day period is subject to cessation in accordance with section 176.101. If the employee is employed during the retraining plan but earning less than at the time of injury, temporary partial compensation is payable at the rate of 66-2/3 percent of the difference between the employee's weekly wage at the time of injury and the weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition, subject to the maximum rate for temporary total compensation. Temporary partial compensation is not subject to the 260-week or 450-week limitations provided by section 176.101, subdivision 2, during the retraining plan, but is subject to those limitations before and after the plan.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ~~$2,500~~ $7,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, its reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner. If the deceased leaves no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on or after October 1, 1977 ~~or thereafter~~ but prior to October 1, 1991, under this section shall exceed six percent a year~~.~~; in those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum, the increase shall be deemed to be six percent. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1991, or thereafter under this section shall exceed four percent a year; in those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum, the increase shall be deemed to be four percent.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.645, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TIME OF FIRST ADJUSTMENT.] For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1981, the initial adjustment made pursuant to subdivision 1 ~~shall be~~ is deferred until the first anniversary of the date of the injury. For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1991, the initial adjustment under subdivision 1 is deferred until the second anniversary of the date of injury.

MEDICAL AND REHABILITATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] (a) This section only applies to vocational rehabilitation of injured employees and their spouses as provided under subdivision 1a. Physical rehabilitation of injured employees is considered treatment subject to section 176.135.

(b) Rehabilitation is intended to restore the injured employee~~, through physical and vocational rehabilitation,~~ so the employee may return to a job related to the employee's former employment or to a job in another work area which produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without disability. Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SURVIVING SPOUSE.] Upon the request of a qualified dependent surviving spouse, rehabilitation services shall be provided through the rehabilitation services section of the workers' compensation division. For the purposes of this subdivision a qualified dependent surviving spouse is a dependent surviving spouse, as determined under section 176.111, who is in need of rehabilitation assistance to become self-supporting. A spouse who is provided rehabilitation services under this subdivision is ~~not~~ entitled to compensation under subdivision 11 only if the commissioner or a compensation judge determines retraining is necessary to ensure that when benefits under section 176.111 cease, the surviving spouse is able to be self-supporting and will not become a recipient of a public assistance program administered by the state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner shall monitor and supervise rehabilitation services, including, but not limited to, making determinations regarding the selection and delivery of rehabilitation services and the criteria used to approve qualified rehabilitation consultants and rehabilitation vendors. The commissioner may also make determinations regarding fees for rehabilitation services and shall by rule, subject to chapter 14, establish a fee schedule or otherwise limit fees charged by qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors. The commissioner may hire qualified personnel to assist in the commissioner's duties under this section and may delegate the duties and performance.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVIEW PANEL.] There is created a rehabilitation review panel composed of the commissioner or a designee, who shall serve as an ex officio member, and ~~two~~ three members ~~each from~~ who shall represent both employers~~,~~ and insurers, ~~rehabilitation, and medicine,~~ one member representing chiropractors, ~~and four~~ one member representing medical doctors, three members representing labor, two members representing rehabilitation vendors, and five members representing qualified rehabilitation consultants. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall serve four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chair. The panel shall review and make a determination with respect to appeals from orders of the commissioner regarding certification approval of qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors. The hearings are de novo and initiated by the panel under the contested case procedures of chapter 14, and are appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.] The panel has authority to discipline qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors and may impose a penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, and may suspend or revoke certification. Complaints against registered qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors shall be made to the commissioner who shall investigate all complaints. If the investigation indicates a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the commissioner may initiate a contested case proceeding under the provisions of chapter 14. In these cases, the rehabilitation review panel shall make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge. The decision of the panel is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421. The panel shall continuously study rehabilitation services and delivery, develop and recommend rehabilitation rules to the commissioner, and assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

~~The commissioner may appoint alternates for one-year terms to serve as a member when a member is unavailable. The number of alternates shall not exceed one labor member, one employer or insurer member, and one member representing medicine, chiropractic, or rehabilitation.~~

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) ~~An employer or insurer shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant or by another person permitted by rule to provide consultation to an injured employee within five days after the employee has 60 days of lost work time due to the personal injury, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury. The lost work time in either case may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the job the employee held at the time of the injury rehabilitation consultation shall be provided immediately after receipt of this information.~~

~~For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.~~ A rehabilitation consultation must be provided by the employer to an injured employee upon request of the employee, the employer, or the commissioner. If a rehabilitation consultation is requested, the employer shall provide a qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the injured employee objects to the employer's selection, the employee may select a qualified rehabilitation consultant of the employee's own choosing within 30 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall provide the services. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are not appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall notify the employee of this determination within seven days after the consultation.

(b) In order to assist the commissioner in determining whether or not to request rehabilitation consultation for an injured employee, an employer shall notify the commissioner whenever the employee's temporary total disability will likely exceed 13 weeks. The notification must be made within 90 days from the date of the injury or when the likelihood of at least a 13-week disability can be determined, whichever is earlier, and must include a current physician's report. The employer or insurer must notify the employee by certified mail of the right to rehabilitation consultation services within 90 days after the injury if the employee has not returned to work. The commissioner shall impose a reasonable fine on an employer or insurer that fails to notify the employee under this section.

(c) The qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~appointed by the employer or insurer~~ shall disclose in writing at the first meeting or written communication with the employee any ownership interest or affiliation between the firm which employs the qualified rehabilitation consultant and the employer, insurer, adjusting or servicing company, including the nature and extent of the affiliation or interest. ~~If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection. The notification shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the qualified rehabilitation consultant chosen by the employee to provide rehabilitation consultation.~~

(d) After the initial provision or selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant as provided under paragraph (a), the employee may choose a different qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~as follows:~~

~~(1)~~ once during the first ~~60~~ 30 days following ~~the first in-person contact between the employee and the original consultant;~~

~~(2) once after the 60-day period referred to in clause (1); and~~

~~(3) subsequent requests~~ receipt by the employee of the rehabilitation plan developed under paragraph (e). Thereafter, the employee may request a different qualified rehabilitation consultant which shall be ~~determined~~ granted or denied by the commissioner or compensation judge according to the best interests of the parties.

(e) The employee and employer shall ~~enter into a program if one is prescribed in~~ develop a rehabilitation plan within 30 days of the rehabilitation consultation if the qualified rehabilitation consultant determines that rehabilitation is appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner within 30 days after the plan has been developed.

~~(b)~~ (f) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation, or the employee does not select a qualified rehabilitation consultant, as ~~required by this section~~ provided in paragraph (a), the commissioner or compensation judge shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to ~~appoint~~ provide, or the employee fails to select, whichever is applicable, a qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~or other persons as permitted by clause (a)~~ within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner or compensation judge shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines the consultation is not required.

~~(c)~~ (g) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

~~(d)~~ (h) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11 to which an employee is entitled. A plan that is not completed within six months or after $5,000 has been paid in rehabilitation benefits shall be specifically monitored by the commissioner. The commissioner shall review the progress of the plan and may take actions including, but not limited to, redirecting, amending, suspending, or terminating the plan. Activity under the plan shall not be discontinued solely because the plan is under review by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PLAN, COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of rehabilitation evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books, travel, and custodial day care; and, in addition, reasonable costs of board and lodging when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence;

(d) Reasonable costs of travel and custodial day care during the job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury. An employee shall not be required to relocate and a refusal to relocate shall not result in a suspension or termination of compensation under this chapter; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Charges for services provided by a rehabilitation consultant or vendor must be submitted on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. No payment for the services may be made until the charges are submitted on the prescribed form.

Subd. 10. [LOCATION OF CONFERENCE.] If personal attendance is required to fully determine issues, all conferences shall be held within 150 miles of the residence of the employee unless the issues do not relate to a dispute with the employee. In the discretion of the workers' compensation division a telephone conference may be ordered.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] (a) The employer shall furnish any medical, psychological, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, foreign language translation services, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. Except in an emergency or unless authorized by a compensation judge or the commissioner, treatment under this section must be provided by a health care provider certified by the commissioner and in accordance with standards under section 176.1351, subdivision 6. An employee may receive compensable medical treatment from a health care provider who is not certified under section 176.1351 if the provider maintains the employee's medical records and has a documented history of treatment with the employee; provided that the health care provider agrees to refer the injured employee to a certified managed care provider for any specialized treatment, including physical therapy, to be furnished by another provider that the employee may require, and provided that the health care provider agrees to comply with all the rules regarding service performed by certified managed care providers adopted by the commissioner. A provider who is not eligible for certification may provide treatment only under the direction of or upon referral from a certified provider and in accordance with section 176.1351, subdivision 6.

No action to recover the cost of copies may be brought until the commissioner adopts a schedule of reasonable charges under subdivision 7. Attorney's fees shall be determined on an hourly basis according to the criteria in section 176.081, subdivision 5. ~~The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.~~

~~(b)~~ (e) Both the commissioner and the compensation judges have authority to make determinations under this section in accordance with sections 176.106 and 176.305.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the bill, the employer or insurer shall pay the charge or any portion of the charge which is not denied, or deny all or a part of the charge ~~on the basis of excessiveness or noncompensability, or specify the additional data needed,~~ with written notification to the employee and the provider~~.~~ explaining the basis for denial. All or part of a charge must be denied if any of the following conditions exist:

If payment is denied under clause (3), (4), or (5), the employer or insurer shall reconsider the charges in accordance with this subdivision within 30 calendar days after receiving additional medical data, a prescribed billing form, or documentation of enrollment or certification as a provider.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL BILLS AND RECORDS.] Health care providers shall submit to the insurer an itemized statement of charges on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. Health care providers ~~other than hospitals~~ shall also submit copies of medical records or reports that substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury~~, provided, however, that hospitals must submit any copies of records or reports requested under subdivision 6~~. Health care providers may charge for copies of any records or reports that are in existence and directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter. ~~Charges for copies provided under this subdivision shall be reasonable.~~ The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of reasonable charges by ~~emergency rules~~ rule.

A health care provider shall not collect, attempt to collect, refer a bill for collection, or commence an action for collection against the employee, employer, or any other party until the information required by this section has been furnished.

Sec. 13. [176.1351] [MANAGED CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] Managed care is medical service rendered or coordinated by a health care provider certified by the commissioner to treat injured employees in accordance with standards, procedures, and fees developed by the commissioner under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall develop a network of managed care providers. All health care providers as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 24, and other business entities are eligible for certification and must make written application to the commissioner to become certified to provide managed care to injured employees for injuries and diseases compensable under this chapter. Notwithstanding any other law regulating access to patient care, providers who are not health care providers as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 24, may provide services for those injuries or diseases only under the direction of or upon referral from a certified provider.

After the rules for provider certification have been adopted and are effective, a provider must be certified in accordance with this section, or, if ineligible for certification, must provide services under the direction of or upon referral from a certified provider in order to receive payment for services rendered under section 176.135. A provider not in compliance with this section may not receive payment or attempt to collect from any source, including the employee, any insurer or self-insured employer, the special compensation fund, or any government program, except that retroactive certification may be permitted pursuant to guidelines established by rule, for up to one year after the service was provided unless otherwise ordered by the commissioner or compensation judge. A list of currently certified providers must be given to all self-insured employers and insurers. The list must be made available to others upon request. Employers shall post in a place easily visible to employees a list of certified health care providers in the area.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee determined by the commissioner to be sufficient to cover the cost of certification. The fee shall be deposited in the special compensation fund. A certificate is valid for the period the commissioner prescribes unless revoked or suspended. The application for certification must be made in the form and manner and set forth information the commissioner may prescribe. The application shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) the name of the health care provider who will provide services, together with appropriate evidence of compliance with any licensing, registration, or certification requirements for the provider to practice in this state;

(b) a description of the place and nature of the medical service to be provided;

(c) a signed acknowledgment form approved by the commissioner that the provider is familiar with and will comply with workers' compensation rules and laws pertaining to the services provided; and

(d) satisfactory evidence of the ability to comply with any requirements in subdivision 4 that the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATION.] Upon receipt of an application that meets the requirements of subdivision 3, the commissioner shall certify the health care provider within 30 days unless the commissioner by rule requires additional conditions for certification, which may include but are not limited to, whether the provider:

(a) proposes to provide services that meet quality, continuity, or other treatment or procedural standards required by the commissioner or this chapter;

(b) proposes to provide services in cooperation with employees, employers, insurers, and rehabilitation providers to promote workplace health and safety and expedite return to work for injured employees;

(c) provides a timely and accurate method of reporting information prescribed by the commissioner about medical and health care services cost and utilization; and

(d) complies with any other requirement the commissioner determines is necessary to provide quality cost-effective medical services and health care to injured employees.

Subd. 5. [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND REFUSAL TO CERTIFY.] If the commissioner refuses to certify a health care provider or determines certification should be revoked or suspended for a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, and the provider disagrees with the commissioner's determination, the provider may appeal to the medical services review board for a hearing with the procedure and right to appeal provided by section 176.103, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). The commissioner may report professional misconduct to an appropriate licensing board.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW.] The commissioner, in consultation with the medical services review board, shall develop utilization review and quality assurance procedures and standards that shall be applied by self-insured employers, insurers, the commissioner, and compensation judges in determining compensability of a medical service under this chapter. These standards and procedures must balance the need for medical cost containment with the need for quality medical care and must be based on accepted medical standards. The commissioner may adopt these standards and procedures by rule.

Subd. 7. [DATA PRIVACY.] Data generated by utilization review or quality assurance activities pursuant to this section including written reports, notes, or records, shall be private and shall not be disclosed or used in any action, suit, or proceeding except in the administration of this chapter.

Subd. 8. [PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.] A person participating in utilization review or quality assurance activities pursuant to this section shall not be examined about any communication made in the course of the activities or the findings, except in the administration of this chapter, nor shall any person be subject to an action for civil damages for affirmative actions taken or statements made in good faith.

Subd. 9. [MEDICAL RECORDS CONFIDENTIALITY.] This section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

Subd. 10. [RULES.] In addition to rules required by subdivision 6, the commissioner may consult with the commissioners of the department of health, department of commerce, and department of human services, and shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section. The commissioners of the departments of health, commerce, and human services shall cooperate and consult with the commissioner upon request of the commissioner. The commissioner may contract with any person or organization to assist in the development of standards, procedures, or rules required or authorized by this section.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups.

(b) The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit, in accordance with subdivisions 1a and 1b, the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135~~, based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing~~. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELATIVE VALUE FEE SCHEDULE.] The liability of an employer for services included in the medical fee schedule is limited to the maximum fee allowed by the schedule in effect on the date of the medical service, or the provider's actual fee, whichever is lower. The medical fee schedule effective on October 1, 1990, shall remain in effect until the commissioner adopts a new schedule by permanent rule, but may remain in effect no later than June 1, 1993. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules regulating fees allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital, and other health care provider treatment or services by implementing a relative value fee schedule to be effective on October 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as possible. The schedule shall not apply to fees regulated by subdivision 1b. The conversion factors for the relative value fee schedule must reasonably reflect a 15 percent overall reduction from 1991 charges, based on a sample of the most common services billed in the first three months of 1991 that is large enough to be statistically valid.

After permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, the conversion factors must be adjusted annually on October 1, by the percentage change in the statewide average weekly wage, as set forth and limited under section 176.645, subdivision 1. The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the adjusted conversion factors. This notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The liability of the employer for treatment, articles, and supplies provided to an employee while an inpatient at a small hospital shall be the hospital's usual and customary charge, unless the charge is determined by the commissioner or a compensation judge to be unreasonably excessive. A "small hospital," for purposes of this paragraph, is a hospital which has 50 or fewer licensed beds, including the licensed beds of all other hospitals owned in common with or otherwise affiliated with it.

(b) The liability of the employer for the treatment, articles, and supplies that are not limited by subdivision 1a or paragraph (a) shall be limited to 80 percent of the provider's usual and customary charge, or 80 percent of the prevailing charges for similar treatment, articles, and supplies furnished to an injured person when paid for by the injured person, whichever is less. On this basis, the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all treatment, services, and supplies, and the liability to the employer is limited to that amount.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] (a) ~~If the employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the~~ A provider, including a hospital, may not collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government ~~amounts in excess of the amount payable~~ any charge or portion of a charge that is excessive under this chapter ~~unless the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness~~.

(b) A charge for a health service or medical service is excessive if it is:

(1) in excess of the maximum permissible charge pursuant to this section or section 176.135;

(2) for a service provided at a level, duration, or frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards;

(3) for a service that is outside the scope of practice of the particular provider or is not generally recognized within the particular profession of the provider as of therapeutic value for the specific injury or condition treated; or

(4) otherwise considered excessive or inappropriate pursuant to rules adopted under this chapter.

(c) Where the sole issue in dispute is whether medical fees are excessive, the only parties to the proceeding shall be the health care provider and employer or insurer. The rights of an employee are not affected by a determination under this subdivision.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department to order an examination at a location further from the employee's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather additional information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.155, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXAMINATION FEES.] The commissioner, after consultation with the medical services review board, shall adopt rules establishing a single fee schedule for examinations under this section.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCESSIVE MEDICAL SERVICES.] In consultation with the medical services review board or the rehabilitation review panel, rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the payer that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer, and the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines at a hearing or administrative conference that the level, frequency, or cost was not excessive in which case the insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer shall make the payment deemed reasonable.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the rehabilitation review panel or medical services review board, after hearing, to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under this chapter. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this subdivision may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

~~The rules adopted under this subdivision shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause.~~

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REPORTING.] Rules requiring insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this chapter.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CERTIFICATION OR ENROLLMENT OF MEDICAL PROVIDERS.] Rules establishing procedures and standards for the certification or enrollment of physicians, chiropractors, osteopaths, podiatrists, and other health care providers, which may include other business entities providing health care services, in order to assure the coordination of treatment, rehabilitation, and other services and requirements of chapter 176 for carrying out the purposes and intent of this chapter.

After the rules for provider enrollment have been promulgated, a provider must be enrolled in accordance with the rules to receive payment for services rendered under section 176.135. An unenrolled provider may not receive payment or attempt to collect from any source, including the employee, any insurer or self-insured employer, the special compensation fund, or any government program. Retroactive enrollment must be permitted pursuant to guidelines established by rule. The rules must provide an exception to the enrollment requirement in the case of the provision of emergency medical treatment. A list of currently enrolled providers must be given to all self-insured employers and insurers. The list must be made available to others upon request.

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 5, is repealed.

Sec. 24. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 and 14 to 23 are effective October 1, 1991. Section 13 is effective July 1, 1992, except that the authority to adopt rules granted by subdivisions 6 and 10 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the assigned risk plan pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The commissioner, on behalf of the assigned risk plan, may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state to issue that coverage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.185, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF COVERAGE, TERMINATION, CANCELLATION.] (a) Within ten days after the issuance of a policy of insurance covering the liability to pay compensation under this chapter written by an insurer licensed to insure such liability in this state, the insurer shall file notice of coverage with the commissioner under rules and on forms prescribed by the commissioner. No policy shall be canceled by the insurer within the policy period nor terminated upon its expiration date until a notice in writing is delivered or mailed to the insured and filed with the commissioner, fixing the date on which it is proposed to cancel it, or declaring that the insurer does not intend to renew the policy upon the expiration date. A cancellation or termination is not effective until 30 days after written notice has been filed with the commissioner in a manner prescribed by the commissioner unless prior to the expiration of the 30-day period the employer obtains other insurance coverage or an order exempting the employer from carrying insurance as provided in section 176.181. Upon receipt of the notice, the commissioner shall notify the insured that the insured must obtain coverage from some other licensed carrier and that, if unable to do so, the insured shall request the commissioner of commerce to require the issuance of a policy as provided in section 79.251, subdivision 4. Upon a cancellation or termination of a policy by the insurer, the employer is entitled to be assigned a policy in accordance with sections 79.251 and 79.252.

(b) Notice of cancellation or termination by the insured shall be served upon the insurer by written statement mailed or delivered to the insurer. Upon receipt of the notice, the insurer shall notify the commissioner of the cancellation or termination and the commissioner shall ask the employer for the reasons for the cancellation or termination and notify the employer of the duty under this chapter to insure the employer's employees.

(c) In addition to the requirements under paragraphs (a) and (b), with respect to any trucker employer in classification 7219, 7230, 7231, ~~or~~ 7360, or 8293 pursuant to the classification plan required to be filed under section 79.61, if the insurer or its agent has delivered or mailed a written certificate of insurance certifying that a policy in the name of a trucker employer under this paragraph is in force, then the insurer or its agent shall also deliver or mail written notice of any midterm cancellation to the trucker employer recipient of the certificate of insurance at the address listed on the certificate. If an insurer or its agent fails to mail or deliver notice of any midterm cancellation of the trucker employer's policy to the trucker employer recipient of the certificate of insurance, then the special compensation fund shall indemnify and hold harmless the recipient from any award of benefits or other damages under this chapter resulting from the failure to give notice.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue such coverage.

Sec. 4. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in this act and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on October 1, 1991, must be reduced by 12 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 12 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 12 percent premium reduction prorated from October 1, 1991, to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide written notice by January 1, 1992, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1991, to read as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1991 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $ . . . . . which reflects a 12 percent mandated premium reduction prorated from October 1, 1991, to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rating plan increases may be filed between April 1, 1991, and January 1, 1993.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under this section have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner shall present a report detailing the findings and conclusions to the commission on workers' compensation and the legislature by March 1, 1992.

Sec. 5. [TRUCK DRIVER CLASSIFICATIONS.]

The commissioner of commerce shall evaluate the current system of classification of truck drivers for workers' compensation rate purposes that separates truck drivers in classes 7219, 7380, and 8293 from the classifications for the vast majority of truck drivers employed in the private carrier industry as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 221.011, subdivision 26. The commissioner shall determine if the classification is fair and equitable to employers of truck drivers in those three classes. If the commissioner determines that those classifications are not fair and equitable to those three classes, the commissioner shall make findings and issue an order correcting the unfairness or inequity.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 3 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 2 is effective August 1, 1991. Section 4, paragraphs (a) and (c), are effective October 1, 1991. Section 4, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment and is retroactive to April 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 4

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals upon appeal shall direct, unless action is taken under subdivision 2, that one or more of the employers or insurers make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability. A temporary order may be issued under this subdivision whether or not the employers or insurers agree to pay under the order.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for the benefits shall be ordered to reimburse any other party for payments which the latter has made, including interest at the rate ~~of 12 percent a year~~ set by section 549.09. The claimant shall also be awarded a reasonable attorney fee, to be paid by the party held liable for the benefits.

An order directing payment of benefits pending a determination of liability may not be used as evidence before a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or court in which the dispute is pending.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner or a compensation judge upon petition shall order, unless action is taken under subdivision 1, the special compensation fund established in section 176.131 to make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

The personal injury for which the commissioner or a compensation judge shall order compensation from the special fund is not limited by section 176.131, subdivision 8.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for benefits shall be ordered to reimburse the special compensation fund for payments made, including interest at the rate ~~of 12 percent a year~~ set by section 549.09.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.191, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If a dispute exists as to whether an employee's injury is compensable under this chapter and the employee is otherwise covered by an insurer pursuant to chapters 62A, 62C and 62D, that insurer shall pay any medical costs incurred by the employee for the injury up to the limits of the applicable coverage and shall make any disability payments otherwise payable by that insurer in the absence of or in addition to workers' compensation liability. If the injury is subsequently determined to be compensable pursuant to this chapter, the workers' compensation insurer shall be ordered to reimburse the insurer that made the payments for all payments made under this subdivision by the insurer, including interest at ~~a rate of 12 percent a year~~ the rate set by section 549.09. If a payment pursuant to this subdivision exceeds the reasonable value as permitted by sections 176.135 and 176.136, the provider shall reimburse the workers' compensation insurer for all the excess as provided by rules promulgated by the commissioner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.191, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the employee's medical expenses for a personal injury are paid pursuant to any program administered by the commissioner of human services, or if the employee or spouse or dependents living with the employee receive subsistence or other payments pursuant to such a program, and it is subsequently determined that the injury is compensable pursuant to this chapter, the workers' compensation insurer shall reimburse the commissioner of human services for the payments made, including interest at ~~a rate of 12 percent a year~~ the rate set by section 549.09.

Amounts paid to an injured employee or spouse or dependents living with the employee pursuant to such a program and attributable to the personal injury shall be deducted from any settlement or award of compensation or benefits under this chapter, including, but not limited to, temporary and permanent disability benefits.

The insurer shall attempt, with due diligence, to ascertain whether payments have been made to an injured employee pursuant to such a program prior to any settlement or issuance of a binding award and shall notify the department of human services, benefit recovery section, when such payments have been made. An employee who has received public assistance payments shall notify the department of human services, benefit recovery section, of its potential intervention claim prior to making or settling a claim for benefits under this chapter. Notice served on local human services agencies is not sufficient to meet the notification requirement in this subdivision.

Sec. 5. [176.1911] [DISPUTES; ARBITRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [BINDING ARBITRATION.] Where a dispute exists between an employee, employer, insurer, the special compensation fund, the reopened case fund, or the workers' compensation reinsurance association, regarding benefits payable under this chapter, the dispute may be submitted with consent of all interested parties to binding arbitration by a neutral arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive with respect to all issues presented except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3. An arbitration award is admissible in any other proceeding under this chapter and is binding on the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

A person with material information of the matters to be arbitrated shall attend the arbitration proceeding if any party to the proceeding deems it necessary. Reasonable expenses of meals, lost wages, and travel of the employee or witnesses in attending shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis. Arbitration costs shall be paid by the parties, except the employee, on a pro rata basis. Any issue in dispute may be submitted to arbitration. Issues not submitted to arbitration may be resolved by other available procedures.

Subd. 2. [INCONSISTENT AWARDS.] If the employee commences an action under this chapter for benefits arising out of the same injury which resulted in the dispute arbitrated under subdivision 1, and if the benefits awarded to the employee under the employee's claim are inconsistent with the arbitration decision, any increase in benefits over those paid pursuant to the arbitration proceeding is paid by the party or parties who ordinarily would have been required to pay the increased benefits but for the arbitration. Any reimbursement from the employee of any decrease in benefits from those paid pursuant to the arbitration is paid to the party or parties who previously had paid the increased benefits. The provisions of this subdivision apply regardless of whether more or fewer employers and insurers or the special fund have been added or omitted as parties to the employee's subsequent action after arbitration.

Subd. 3. [ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION.] If an employee brings an action under the circumstances described in subdivision 2, the parties to the previous arbitration may be represented at the new action by a common or joint attorney.

Subd. 4. [ATTORNEY FEES.] No attorney's fees shall be awarded under either section 176.081, subdivision 8, or 176.191 against any employer or insurer in connection with any arbitration proceeding unless the employee chooses to retain an attorney to represent the employee's interests during arbitration.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.221, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivision 9, or penalties assessed under this chapter not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent a year from the due date to the date the payment is made or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, whichever is greater.

For the purposes of this subdivision, permanent partial disability payment is due 14 days after receipt of the first medical report which contains a disability rating if such payment is otherwise due under this chapter, and charges for treatment under section 176.135 are due 30 calendar days after receiving the bill and necessary medical data.

If the claim of the employee or dependent for compensation is contested in a proceeding before a compensation judge, arbitrator, or the commissioner, the decision of the judge, arbitrator, or commissioner shall provide for the payment of unpaid interest on all compensation awarded, including interest accruing both before and after the filing of the decision.

Sec. 7. [176.325] [CERTIFIED QUESTION.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN CERTIFIED.] The chief administrative law judge may certify a question of workers' compensation law to the workers' compensation court of appeals as important and doubtful under the following circumstances:

(1) all parties to the case have stipulated in writing to the facts;

(2) the issue to be resolved is a question of workers' compensation law that has not been resolved by the workers' compensation court of appeals or the Minnesota supreme court; and

(3) all parties request that the matter be resolved by certification to the workers' compensation court of appeals as an important and doubtful question.

Subd. 2. [SUPREME COURT REVIEW.] Review by the supreme court of any decision of the workers' compensation court of appeals pursuant to this section shall be pursuant to section 176.471.

Subd. 3. [EXPEDITED DECISION.] It is the legislature's intent that the workers' compensation court of appeals and the Minnesota supreme court resolve the certified question as expeditiously as possible, after compliance by the parties with any requirements of the workers' compensation court of appeals or the Minnesota supreme court regarding submission of legal memoranda, oral argument, or other matters, and after the participation of amicus curiae, should the workers' compensation court of appeals or Minnesota supreme court consider such participation advisable.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE.] The chief administrative law judge shall notify all persons who request to be notified of a certification under this section.

Sec. 8. [176.307] [COMPENSATION JUDGES; BLOCK SYSTEM.]

The chief administrative law judge must assign workers' compensation cases to compensation judges using a block system type of assignment that, among other things, ensures that a case will remain with the same judge from commencement to conclusion unless the judge is removed from the case by exercise of a legal right of a party or by incapacity. The block system must be the principal means of assigning cases, but it may be supplemented by other systems of case assignment to ensure that cases are timely decided.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.191, subdivisions 5, 6, 7, and 8, are repealed.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6, 8, and 9 are effective July 1, 1991. Section 7 is effective October 1, 1991.

SELF-INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [AUDIT OF SELF-INSURANCE APPLICATION.] (a) The self-insurer's security fund shall retain a certified public accountant who shall perform services for, and report directly to, the commissioner of commerce. The certified public accountant shall review each application to self-insure, including the applicant's financial data. The certified public accountant shall provide a report to the commissioner of commerce indicating whether the applicant has met the requirements of section 79A.03, subdivisions 2 and 3. Additionally, the certified public accountant shall provide advice and counsel to the commissioner about relevant facts regarding the applicant's financial condition.

(b) If the report of the certified public accountant is used by the commissioner as the basis for the commissioner's determination regarding the applicant's self-insurance status, the certified public accountant shall be made available to the commissioner for any hearings or other proceedings arising from that determination.

(c) The commissioner shall provide the advisory committee with the summary report by the certified public accountant and any financial data in possession of the department of commerce that is otherwise available to the public.

The cost of the review shall be the obligation of the self-insurer's security fund.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [RECOMMENDATIONS TO COMMISSIONER REGARDING REVOCATION.] After each fifth anniversary from the date each individual and group self-insurer becomes certified to self-insure, the committee shall review all relevant financial data filed with the department of commerce that is otherwise available to the public and make a recommendation to the commissioner about whether each self-insurer's certificate should be revoked.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NET WORTH.] Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain a net worth at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention limit selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third the amount of the self-insurer's current annual modified premium. ~~The requirements of this subdivision shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate through a reinsurance program, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, that it can pay expected losses without endangering the financial stability of the company.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FINANCIAL STANDARDS.] A group proposing to self-insure shall have and maintain:

(a) A combined net worth of all of the members of an amount at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third of the current annual modified premium of the members. ~~The requirements of this paragraph shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate that through excess insurance, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, it can pay expected losses.~~

(b) Sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all obligations of its members under chapter 176 or this chapter. In determining whether a group is in sound financial condition, consideration shall be given to the combined net worth of the member companies; the consolidated long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios of the member companies; any excess insurance other than reinsurance with the workers' compensation reinsurance association, purchased by the group from an insurer licensed in Minnesota or from an authorized surplus line carrier; other financial data requested by the commissioner or submitted by the group; and the combined workers' compensation experience of the group for the last four years.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [FILING REPORTS.] (a) Incurred losses, paid and unpaid, specifying indemnity and medical losses by classification, payroll by classification, and current estimated outstanding liability for workers' compensation shall be reported to the commissioner by each self-insurer on a calendar year basis, in a manner and on forms available from the commissioner. Payroll information must be filed by April 1 of the following year, and loss information and total workers' compensation liability must be filed by August 1 of the following year.

(b) Each self-insurer shall, under oath, attest to the accuracy of each report submitted pursuant to paragraph (a). Upon sufficient cause, the commissioner shall require the self-insurer to submit a certified audit of payroll and claim records conducted by an independent auditor approved by the commissioner, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by an actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities. The basis for sufficient cause shall include the following factors: where the losses reported appear significantly different from similar types of businesses; where major changes in the reports exist from year to year, which are not solely attributable to economic factors; or where the commissioner has reason to believe that the losses and payroll in the report do not accurately reflect the losses and payroll of that employer. If any discrepancy is found, the commissioner shall require changes in the self-insurer's or workers' compensation service company record keeping practices.

(c) With the annual loss report due August 1, each self-insurer shall report to the commissioner any workers' compensation claim from the previous year where the full, undiscounted value is estimated to exceed $50,000, in a manner and on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(d) Each individual self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of its fiscal year, annually file with the commissioner its latest 10K report required by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If an individual self-insurer does not prepare a 10K report, it shall file an annual certified financial statement, together with such other financial information as the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the financial statement.

(e) Each group self-insurer shall, within ~~four~~ six months after the end of the fiscal year for that group, annually file a statement showing the combined net worth of its members based upon an accounting review performed by a certified public accountant, together with such other financial information the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the group's summary statement.

(f) In addition to the financial statements required by paragraphs (d) and (e), interim financial statements or 10Q reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission may be required by the commissioner upon an indication that there has been deterioration in the self-insurer's financial condition, including a worsening of current ratio, lessening of net worth, net loss of income, the downgrading of the company's bond rating, or any other significant change that may adversely affect the self-insurer's ability to pay expected losses. Any self-insurer that files an 8K report with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall also file a copy of the report with the commissioner within 30 days of the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society ~~every two years for nongroup~~

~~member private self-insurers, and~~ every year for group member private self-insurers and, for a nongroup member private self-insurer's authority to self-insure, every year for the first five years. After the first five years, the nongroup member's total shall be as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society every two years, and each such actuarial study shall include a projection of future losses during the two-year period until the next scheduled actuarial study, less payments anticipated to be made during that time. Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited security from any obligations under the posting or depositing and any surety bond so released shall be returned to the surety. Any other security shall be returned to the depositor or the person posting the bond.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE EMPLOYERS WHO HAVE CEASED TO BE SELF-INSURED.] Private employers who have ceased to be private self-insurers shall discharge their continuing obligations to secure the payment of compensation which is accrued during the period of self-insurance, for purposes of Laws 1988, chapter 674, sections 1 to 21, by compliance with all of the following obligations of current certificate holders:

(1) Filing reports with the commissioner to carry out the requirements of this chapter;

(2) Depositing and maintaining a security deposit for accrued liability for the payment of any compensation which may become due, pursuant to chapter 176. However, if a private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer purchases an insurance policy from an insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state which provides coverage of all claims for compensation arising out of injuries occurring during the period the employer was self-insured, whether or not reported during that period, the policy will discharge the obligation of the employer to maintain a security deposit for the payment of the claims covered under the policy. The policy may not be issued by an insurer unless it has previously been approved as to form and substance by the commissioner; and

(3) Paying within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund, for a period of seven years from the last day its certificate of self-insurance was in effect. Thereafter, the private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer may either: (a) continue to pay within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund until it has no incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation arising out of injuries during the period of self-insurance; or (b) pay the security fund a cash payment equal to four percent of the net present value of all remaining incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation under sections 176.101 and 176.111 as certified by a member of the casualty actuarial society. Assessments shall be based on the benefits paid by the employer during the ~~last full~~ calendar year ~~of self-insurance on claims incurred during that year~~ immediately preceding the calendar year in which the employer's right to self-insure is terminated or withdrawn.

In addition to proceedings to establish liabilities and penalties otherwise provided, a failure to comply may be the subject of a proceeding before the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's determination may be taken pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14 within 30 days of the commissioner's written determination.

Any current or past member of the self-insurers' security fund is subject to service of process on any claim arising out of chapter 176 or this chapter in the manner provided by section 303.13, subdivision 1, clause (3), or as otherwise provided by law. The issuance of a certificate to self-insure to the private self-insured employer shall be deemed to be the agreement that any process which is served in accordance with this section shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally within this state.

Sec. 8. [79A.071] [CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPOSIT.] All securities shall be deposited with the state treasurer or in a custodial account with a depository institution acceptable to the state treasurer. Surety bonds shall be filed with the commissioner. The commissioner and the state treasurer may sell or collect, in the case of default of the employer or fund, the amount that yields sufficient funds to pay compensation due under the workers' compensation act.

Subd. 2. [ASSIGNMENT.] Securities in physical form deposited with the state treasurer must bear the following assignment, which shall be signed by an officer, partner, or owner: "Assigned to the state of Minnesota for the benefit of injured employees of the self-insured employer under the Minnesota workers' compensation act." Any securities held in a custodial account, whether in physical form, book entry, or other form, need not bear the assignment language. The instrument or contract creating and governing any custodial account must contain the following assignment language: "This account is assigned to the state treasurer by the Company to pay compensation and perform the obligations of employers imposed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. A depositor or other party has no right, title, or interest in the security deposited in the account until released by the state."

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY.] All securities in physical form on deposit with the state treasurer and surety bonds on deposit shall remain in the custody of the state treasurer or the commissioner for a period of time dictated by the applicable statute of limitations provided in the workers' compensation act. All original instruments and contracts creating and governing custodial accounts shall remain with the state treasurer or the commissioner for a period of time dictated by the applicable statute of limitations provided in the workers' compensation act.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE.] No securities in physical form on deposit with the state treasurer or custodial accounts assigned to the state shall be released without an order from the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [EXCHANGING OR REPLACING.] Any securities deposited with the state treasurer or with a custodial account assigned to the state treasurer or surety bonds held by the commissioner may be exchanged or replaced by the depositor with other acceptable securities or surety bonds of like amount so long as the market value of the securities or amount of the surety bond equals or exceeds the amount of deposit required. If securities are replaced by a surety bond, the self-insurer must maintain securities on deposit in an amount sufficient to meet all outstanding workers' compensation liability arising during the period covered by the deposit of the replaced securities, subject to the limitations on maximum security deposits established in Minnesota Rules, part 2780.2600.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Rules, part 2780.0400, subparts 2, 3, 6, 7, and 8, are repealed."

(iii) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund ~~shall~~ must be determined in accordance with any new plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and any new actuarial assumptions and the remaining plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and actuarial assumptions in effect before the change;

(iv) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, ~~which is~~ needed to amortize the difference between the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (i) and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (iii) over a period of 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the applicable change is effective ~~shall~~ must be calculated using the applicable interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change;

(v) the level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (iv) ~~shall~~ must be added to the level annual dollar amortization contribution or level percentage calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (ii);

(vi) the period in which the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined in ~~subclause~~ item (iii) ~~will be~~ is amortized by the total level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution computed ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (v) ~~shall~~ must be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change, rounded to the nearest integral number of years, but ~~which shall~~ not to exceed ~~a period of~~ 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ~~which shall~~ not to be less than the period of years beginning in the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ending by the date for full funding in effect before the change; and

(vii) the period determined ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (vi) ~~shall~~ must be added to the date as of which the actuarial valuation was prepared and the date obtained ~~shall be~~ is the new established date for full funding.

Sec. 2. [354B.055] [RULES.]

The state university system and the community college system may adopt rules to administer the provisions of sections 354B.06 to 354B.08. The systems may deposit member contributions in a nontreasury account established under chapter 136, an account or accounts established under section 11A.17, or other appropriate accounts of the state board of investment for investment under procedures established by the state board of investment.

Sec. 3. [354B.06] [SUPPLEMENTAL RETIREMENT PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The supplemental retirement plan for personnel employed by the state university board and the state board for community colleges who are in the unclassified service of the state commencing July 1 following the completion of the second year of their full-time contract is governed by this section. An unclassified employee employed by the state university board or the state board for community colleges in subsidized on-the-job training, work experience, or public service employment as an enrollee under the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act is not included in the supplemental retirement plan provided for in this section after March 30, 1978, unless the unclassified employee has as of the later of March 30, 1978, or the date of employment sufficient service credit in the retirement fund providing primary retirement coverage to meet the minimum vesting requirements for a deferred retirement annuity, or the board agrees in writing to make the employer contribution required by this section on account of that unclassified employee from revenue sources other than funds provided under the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, or the unclassified employee agrees in writing to make the employer contribution required by this section in addition to the member contribution.

Subd. 2. [REDEMPTIONS.] The chancellor of the state university system and the chancellor of the state community college system shall redeem all shares in the accounts of the Minnesota supplemental investment fund held on behalf of personnel in the supplemental plan who elect an investment option other than the supplemental investment fund, except that shares in the guaranteed return account may not be redeemed until the expiration dates for the guaranteed investment contracts. The chancellors shall transfer the cash realized to the financial institutions selected by the state university board and the community college board under section 354B.05.

Sec. 4. [354B.07] [SALARY DEDUCTIONS, MATCHING FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEDUCTIONS.] The state university board and the state board for community colleges shall deduct from the salary of each person described in section 354B.06 a sum equal to five percent of the person's annual salary paid between $6,000 and $15,000. The deduction must be made in the same manner as other retirement deductions are made from the salary of the person. The employer shall make a contribution to the plan on behalf of every covered person in an amount equal to the deductions made from the salary of the person. If an agreement is made under section 356.24 for additional employer contributions, an amount equal to the additional employer contribution must be deducted from the person's annual salary above $15,000 as specified in this subdivision. Two percent of the amount of the salary deductions and employer contributions may be used by the state university board and the state board for community colleges for payment of necessary and reasonable administrative expenses.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION.] The chancellor of the state university system and the chancellor of the state community college system shall administer the supplemental retirement plan for their employees. The chancellors shall invest contributions made under this section, less amounts used for administrative expenses, as authorized by law. The retirement contributions and death benefits provided by annuity contracts or custodial accounts purchased by the chancellors are owned by the plan and must be paid in accordance with the annuity contracts or custodial accounts.

Sec. 5. [354B.08] [TAX SHELTER PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENTS; ADJUSTMENTS.] For the purpose of, and to permit the participation in a tax shelter under provisions of sections 501(c) and 403(b) and related provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the state university board and the board for community colleges may enter into agreements to reduce or adjust salaries downward for persons defined in section 354B.06, subdivision 1, and to pay as employer an amount equivalent to the salary reduction in the same manner as deductions would have been paid by the person under section 354B.07, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] Subject to the approval of their governing boards, the chancellors of the state university system and community college system may adopt rules and procedures consistent with sections 354B.06 to 354B.08 which permit, if possible, participation in a tax shelter under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 6. [TRANSFER.]

The executive director of the teachers retirement association shall transfer the administrative records of the supplemental retirement plan to the chancellor of the state university system and the chancellor of the state community college system on July 1, 1991.

Sec. 7. [PURCHASE OF PRIOR SERVICE CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Notwithstanding the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, section 353.27, subdivision 12, a member of the public employees retirement association born on August 22, 1956, who was employed by the city of Minneapolis as a construction equipment operator beginning on June 24, 1983, on a temporary or seasonal basis, and who first became eligible for public employees retirement association membership during 1985, but for whom no employee or employer contributions were made until September 1986, may purchase allowable service credit from the public employees retirement association for the period of eligible service between January 1985 and September 1986 upon receipt by the association of the amount specified in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURCHASE PAYMENT AMOUNT.] To purchase credit for prior eligible service under subdivision 1, there must be paid to the public employees retirement association an amount equal to the present value, on the date of payment, of the amount of the additional retirement annuity obtained by purchase of the additional service credit. Calculation of this amount must be made using the applicable preretirement interest rate specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and the mortality table adopted for the fund. The calculation must assume continuous future service in the association until, and retirement at, the age at which the minimum requirements of the retirement association for normal retirement or retirement with an annuity unreduced for retirement at an early age, including Minnesota Statutes, section 356.30, are met with the additional service credit purchased. The calculation must also assume a future salary history that includes annual salary increases at the salary increase rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d. The member must establish in the records of the association proof of the service for which the purchase of prior service is requested. The manner of the proof of service must be in accordance with procedures prescribed by the executive director of the association. The portion of the total cost of the purchase to be paid by the member is specified in subdivision 3. The remaining portion of total cost is to be paid by the employer, as specified in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [MEMBER PAYMENT.] To receive credit for the eligible service between January 1985 and September 1986, the member must pay an amount equal to the employee contribution rate or rates in effect during the period or periods of prior eligible non-credited service, applied to the actual salary rate in effect during the period or periods of prior service, plus six percent interest compounded annually from the date on which the contributions would otherwise have been made to the date on which the payment is made. Payment must be made in one lump sum before July 1, 1992.

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYER PAYMENT; SERVICE CREDIT.] Within 60 days of receipt by the association of the member contribution specified in subdivision 3, the city of Minneapolis shall pay an amount equal to the difference between the amount specified in subdivision 2 and the member payment specified in subdivision 3. This amount must be paid in one lump sum. The period of allowable service may be credited to the account of the person only after the receipt of full payment by the executive director.

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 136.80; 136.81; 136.82; 136.83; 136.84; 136.85; and 136.87, are repealed.

Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this subdivision shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this subdivision shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom coverage has been elected or terminated under this subdivision. An election of coverage under this subdivision shall continue in effect as long as a policy or renewal policy of the same insurer is in effect.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the responsibilities of owners, partnerships, or corporations to provide coverage for their employees, if any, as required under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for in this chapter from the special compensation fund, and the commissioner has a cause of action against the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding ~~50~~ 60 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes officers of corporations who have legal control, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of wages. An action to recover the moneys shall be instituted unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.215, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [EXCLUSIVE REMEDY.] The liability of a general contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor who pays compensation pursuant to subdivision 1, to an injured individual who is not an employee of the general contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor is exclusive and in the place of any other liability to the individual, the individual's personal representative, surviving spouse, parent, any child, dependent, next of kin, or other person entitled to recover damages on account of the individual's injury or death.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective January 1, 1992. Sections 2 to 4 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DAILY WAGE.] "Daily wage" means the daily wage of the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury but does not include tips and gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of the employer and not accounted for by the employee to the employer. If the amount of the daily wage received or to be received by the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury was irregular or difficult to determine, or if the employment was part time, the daily wage shall be computed by dividing the total amount the employee actually earned in such employment in the last 26 weeks, by the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of such employment, provided further, that in the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours of work are affected by seasonal conditions, the weekly wage shall not be less than five times the daily wage. Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of earnings and computed at their value to the employee. In the case of persons performing services for municipal corporations in the case of emergency, then the normal working day shall be considered and computed as eight hours, and in cases where such services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the daily wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where such services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of daily wage. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of daily wage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of weekly wage. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked~~ employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] "After-tax weekly wage" means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents and without additional allowances. The after-tax weekly wage must be determined as of the date of injury, and changes in dependents after that date may not be considered.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101, subdivision 3. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment ~~for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be ~~then~~ made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101.~~ The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. ~~Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, ~~economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation,~~ medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.] (a) For an injury producing temporary total disability, the compensation is ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury.

~~(1) provided that~~ (b) During the year commencing on October 1, ~~1979~~ 1991, and each year thereafter, commencing on October 1, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31, of the preceding year.

~~(2)~~ (c) The minimum weekly compensation ~~benefits for temporary total disability shall be not less than 50~~ payable is 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage or the injured employee's ~~actual~~ after-tax weekly wage, whichever is less. ~~In no case shall a weekly benefit be less than 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.~~

~~Subject to subdivisions 3a to 3u this~~ (d) Temporary total compensation shall be paid during the period of disability~~, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be.~~ and shall cease whenever any one of the following occurs:

(1) the disability ends;

(2) the employee returns to work;

(3) the employee retires by withdrawing from the labor market;

(4) the employee fails to diligently search for appropriate work;

(5) the employee refuses an offer of work that is consistent with a plan of rehabilitation filed with the commissioner which meets the requirements of section 176.102, subdivision 1, or, if no plan has been filed, the employee refuses an offer of work that the employee can do in the employee's physical condition; or

(6) 90 days pass after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, the 90-day period after maximum medical improvement commences on the earlier of:

(1) the date that the employee receives a written medical report indicating that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement; or

(2) the date that the employer or insurer serves the report on the employee and the employee's attorney, if any, and files a copy with the division.

(f) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), it may be recommenced prior to 90 days after maximum medical improvement only as follows:

(1) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), it may be recommenced if the employee again becomes disabled as a result of the work-related injury;

(2) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (2), it may be recommenced if the employee is laid off or terminated for reasons other than misconduct or is medically unable to continue at the job;

(3) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (3), but the employee subsequently returned to work, it may be recommenced in accordance with paragraph (f), clause (2); or recommenced under this paragraph is subject to cessation under paragraph (d).

Recommenced temporary total disability compensation may not be paid beyond 90 days after the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(g) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clauses (5) and (6), it may not be recommenced at a later date except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be ~~66 2/3 percent of the difference between the weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.~~ 80 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.

(b) ~~This~~ Temporary partial compensation shall be paid during the period of disability ~~except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage.~~ when the employee is working, earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury, and the reduction in the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition is due to the injury. Except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), temporary partial compensation may not be paid after the employee has returned to work for 156 weeks, including weeks in which the employee has no wage loss, or after 350 weeks after the date of injury, whichever occurs first.

(c) Temporary partial compensation may not exceed the maximum rate for temporary total compensation and must be reduced to the extent that the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition plus the temporary partial disability payment otherwise payable under this subdivision exceeds 300 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) Compensation for permanent partial disability is as provided in this subdivision. Permanent partial disability must be rated as a percentage of the whole body in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner under section 176.105. The percentage determined pursuant to the rules must be multiplied by the corresponding amount in the following table:

Percent of Disability	Amount
0-25	$ 75,000
26-30	80,000
31-35	85,000
36-40	90,000
41-45	95,000
46-50	100,000

56-60	140,000
61-65	160,000
66-70	180,000
71-75	200,000
76-80	240,000
81-85	280,000
86-90	320,000
96-100	400,000

An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. If the employee returns to work, the remaining compensation is payable in a lump sum 30 days after the employee returned to work, provided the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at the job at the end of the period. Permanent partial disability is not payable while temporary total compensation is being paid. Permanent partial disability is payable to permanently totally disabled employees in a lump sum at the time the disability can be ascertained.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.] For permanent total disability, as defined in subdivision 5, the compensation shall be ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury, subject to a ~~maximum weekly compensation equal to~~ the maximum ~~weekly compensation for a temporary total disability~~ and a minimum ~~weekly compensation equal to the minimum weekly compensation~~ rates for a temporary total disability. This compensation shall be paid during the permanent total disability of the injured employee but after a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation has been paid, the amount of the weekly compensation benefits being paid by the employer shall be reduced by the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which give rise to payments under this subdivision. This reduction shall also apply to any old age and survivor insurance benefits. Permanent total disability payments shall cease at retirement. Payments shall be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be. In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, no compensation shall be payable during the period of confinement in the institution, unless there is wholly dependent on the employee for support some person named in section 176.111, subdivision 1, 2 or 3, in which case the compensation provided for in section 176.111, during the period of confinement, shall be paid for the benefit of the dependent person during dependency. The dependency of this person shall be determined as though the employee were deceased.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~TOTAL DISABILITY~~ DEFINITION.] (a) For purposes of subdivision 4, permanent total disability means only:

(1) the total and permanent loss of the sight of both eyes, the loss of both arms at the shoulder, the loss of both legs so close to the hips that no effective artificial members can be used, complete and permanent paralysis, total and permanent loss of mental faculties~~,~~; or

(2) any other injury which totally and permanently incapacitates the employee from working at an occupation which brings the employee an income ~~constitutes total disability~~.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), clause (2), "totally and permanently incapacitated" means that the employee's physical disability, in combination with the employee's age, education and training, and experience, causes the employee to be unable to secure anything more than sporadic employment resulting in an insubstantial income. Local labor market conditions may not be considered in making the total and permanent incapacitation determination.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MINORS.] If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is a minor or is an apprentice of any age and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total ~~or a compensable permanent partial~~ disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which the employee is entitled for the injury, the compensation rate for ~~temporary total, temporary partial,~~ a permanent total disability ~~or economic recovery compensation~~ shall be 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MOVING EXPENSES.] An injured employee who has reached maximum medical improvement and who is unable to find suitable gainful employment consistent with the individual's physical disability, in combination with the individual's age, education and training, and experience, due to local labor market conditions is eligible to receive up to $5,000 for moving expenses, provided:

(1) 90 days have passed after the individual has reached maximum medical improvement;

(2) the individual has actually moved in order to take a new job which constitutes suitable gainful employment; and

(3) the new job is located at a distance greater than 35 miles from the individual's current residence.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RETRAINING; COMPENSATION.] (a) Retraining is limited to 156 weeks. An employee who has been approved for retraining may petition ~~the commissioner~~ for additional compensation not to exceed 25 percent of the compensation otherwise payable. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that this additional compensation is warranted due to unusual or unique circumstances of the employee's retraining plan, the commissioner or compensation judge may award additional compensation in an amount ~~the commissioner determines is appropriate,~~ not to exceed the employee's request. This additional compensation shall cease at any time the commissioner or compensation judge determines the special circumstances are no longer present.

(b) If the employee is not working during a retraining plan that has been specifically approved under this section, temporary total compensation is payable for up to 90 days after the end of the retraining plan; except that, payment during the 90-day period is subject to cessation in accordance with section 176.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), clauses (1) to (5). If the employee is working during the retraining plan but earning less than at the time of injury, temporary partial compensation is payable at the rate of 80 percent of the difference between the employee's after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition, subject to the maximum rate for temporary total compensation. Temporary partial compensation is not subject to either the 156-week or the 350-week limitation provided by section 176.101, subdivision 2, during the retraining plan, but is subject to those limitations before and after the plan.

(c) Retraining may not be approved if the employee has refused suitable gainful employment, as defined by rule.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE; RULES.] (a) The commissioner of labor and industry shall by rule establish a schedule of degrees of disability resulting from different kinds of injuries. Disability ratings under the schedule for permanent partial disability must be based on objective medical evidence. The commissioner, in consultation with the medical services review board, shall periodically review the rules adopted under this paragraph to determine whether any injuries omitted from the schedule should be compensable and amend the rules accordingly.

(b) No permanent partial disability compensation shall be payable except in accordance with the disability ratings established under this subdivision. The schedule may provide that minor impairments receive a zero rating.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT; RULES; LOSS OF MORE THAN ONE BODY PART.] (a) For the purpose of establishing a disability schedule pursuant to clause (b), the legislature declares its intent that the commissioner establish a disability schedule ~~which, assuming the same number and distribution of severity of injuries, the aggregate total of impairment compensation and economic recovery compensation benefits under section 176.101, subdivisions 3a to 3u be approximately equal to the total aggregate amount payable for permanent partial disabilities under section 176.101, subdivision 3, provided, however, that awards for specific injuries under the proposed schedule need not be the same as they were for the same injuries under the schedule pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3. The schedule shall be determined by sound actuarial evaluation and shall be based on the benefit level which exists on January 1, 1983~~.

(b) The commissioner shall by rulemaking adopt procedures setting forth rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability and to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3, and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3, which the commissioner deems appropriate.

The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Prior to adoption of rules the commissioner shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner may consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(1) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(2) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(3) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(4) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(5) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(6) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(7) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall be used only in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

Nothing listed in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall be used to dispute or challenge a disability rating given to a part of the body so long as the whole schedule conforms with the expressed intent of clause (a).

(c) If an employee suffers a permanent functional disability of more than one body part due to a personal injury incurred in a single occurrence, the percent of the whole body which is permanently partially disabled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the percentage for all functional disability combined does not exceed the total for the whole body:

$$A + B (1 - A)$$

where: A is the greater percentage whole body loss of the first body part; and B is the lesser percentage whole body loss otherwise payable for the second body part. A + B (1-A) is equivalent to A + B - AB.

For permanent partial disabilities to three body parts due to a single occurrence or as the result of an occupational disease, the above formula shall be applied, providing that A equals the result obtained from application of the formula to the first two body parts and B equals the percentage for the third body part. For permanent partial disability to four or more body parts incurred as described above, A equals the result obtained from the prior application of the formula, and B equals the percentage for the fourth body part or more in arithmetic progressions.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SPOUSE, NO DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent child, there shall be paid to the spouse weekly workers' compensation benefits at ~~50~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SPOUSE, ONE DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and one dependent child, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and child ~~60~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the child is no longer a dependent as defined in subdivision 1. At that time there shall be paid to the dependent surviving spouse weekly benefits at ~~a~~ the same rate ~~which is 16 2/3 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent,~~ for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SPOUSE, TWO DEPENDENT CHILDREN.] If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and two dependent children, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and children ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the last dependent child is no longer dependent. At that time the dependent surviving spouse shall be paid weekly benefits at ~~a~~ the same rate ~~which is 25 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent,~~ for a period of ten years, adjusted according to section 176.645.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORPHANS.] If the deceased employee leaves a dependent orphan, there shall be paid ~~55~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased, for two or more orphans there shall be paid ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~wages~~ after-tax weekly wage.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [PARENTS.] If the deceased employee ~~leave~~ leaves no surviving spouse or child entitled to any payment under this chapter, but leaves both parents wholly dependent on the deceased, there shall be paid to such parents jointly ~~45~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased. In case of the death of either of the wholly dependent parents the survivor shall receive ~~35~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage thereafter. Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to October 1, 1983 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, ~~except as provided by clause (b),~~ provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before October 1, 1987, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(c) An employee who has suffered a personal injury after October 1, 1987, and is permanently totally disabled as defined in section 176.101, subdivisions 4 and 5, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving permanent total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under ~~this section~~ subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) and (b), shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually. The supplementary benefit payable under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), shall be the difference between:

(1) the amount the employee receives on or after October 1, 1991, under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of disability benefits being paid under any government disability benefit program, provided those benefits are a result of the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of any federal old age and survivors insurance benefits; and

(2) 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or ~~65~~ 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision to the contrary, if the ~~individual~~ eligible recipient does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provision of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), the calculation of supplementary benefits payable to the individual shall be as provided under this section in Minnesota Statutes ~~1988~~ 1990.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] The payment of supplementary benefits shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer currently paying total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), or currently paying permanent total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), or any other payer of such benefits. When the eligible individual is not currently receiving benefits because the total paid has reached the maximum prescribed by law the employer and insurer shall, nevertheless, pay the supplementary benefits that are prescribed by law. The employer or insurer paying the supplementary benefit shall have the right of full reimbursement from the special compensation fund for the amount of such benefits paid.

Sec. 30. [176.178] [FRAUD.]

Any person who, with intent to defraud, receives workers' compensation benefits to which the person is not entitled by knowingly misrepresenting, misstating, or failing to disclose any material fact is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.179, is amended to read:

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of ~~economic recovery or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

Where the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the mistaken compensation was not received in good faith, the commissioner or compensation judge may order reimbursement of the compensation or order a credit for the compensation against any future monetary benefits from the same injury. The credit may be up to 100 percent of the amount of monetary benefits otherwise payable. For purposes of this section, a payment is not received in good faith if it is obtained through fraud, or if the employee knew or should have known that the compensation was paid under mistake of fact or law, and the employee has not refunded the mistaken compensation.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.221, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, ~~1977~~ 1991, or thereafter under this section shall exceed ~~six~~ four percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be ~~six~~ four percent.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the employee's after-tax weekly wage on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of the individual's weekly benefit amount in the form of:

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.231, the individual shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 353.33, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

The tables or formulas must be based on the applicable federal income tax and social security laws and state income tax laws in effect on the preceding April 1. These tables or formulas are conclusive for the purposes of converting the weekly wage into after-tax weekly wage. The commissioner may contract with the department of revenue or any other person or organization in order to adopt the tables or formulas. The adoption of the tables or formulas is exempt from the administrative rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

The hearings are de novo and initiated by the panel under the contested case procedures of chapter 14, and are appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.] The panel has authority to discipline qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors and may impose a penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, and may suspend or revoke certification. Complaints against registered qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors shall be made to the commissioner who shall investigate all complaints. If the investigation indicates a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the commissioner may initiate a contested case proceeding under the provisions of chapter 14. In these cases, the rehabilitation review panel shall make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge. The decision of the panel is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421. The panel shall continuously study rehabilitation services and delivery, develop and recommend rehabilitation rules to the commissioner, and assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.~~ A rehabilitation consultation must be provided by the employer to an injured employee upon request of the employee, the employer, or the commissioner. If a rehabilitation consultation is requested, the

If the injured employee objects to the employer's selection, the employee may select a qualified rehabilitation consultant of the employee's own choosing within 30 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall provide the services. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are not appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall notify the employee of this determination within 14 days after the consultation.

(b) In order to assist the commissioner in determining whether or not to request rehabilitation consultation for an injured employee, an employer shall notify the commissioner whenever the employee's temporary total disability will likely exceed 13 weeks. The notification must be made within 90 days from the date of the injury or when the likelihood of at least a 13-week disability can be determined, whichever is earlier, and must include a current physician's report.

The consultant shall also disclose to all parties any affiliation, business referral or other arrangement between the consultant or the firm employing the consultant and any other party ~~to~~, attorney, or health care provider involved in the case ~~, including any attorneys, doctors, or chiropractors~~.

~~If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection. The notification shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the qualified rehabilitation consultant chosen by the employee to provide rehabilitation consultation.~~

(d) After the initial provision or selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant as provided under paragraph (a), the employee may ~~choose~~ request a different qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~as follows:~~

~~(1) once during the first 60 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original consultant;~~

~~(2) once after the 60-day period referred to in clause (1); and~~

~~(3) subsequent requests~~ which shall be ~~determined~~ granted or denied by the commissioner or compensation judge according to the best interests of the parties.

(e) The employee and employer shall ~~enter into a program if one is prescribed in~~ develop a rehabilitation plan within 30 days of the rehabilitation consultation if the qualified rehabilitation consultant determines that rehabilitation is appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner within 15 days after the plan has been developed.

~~(b)~~ (f) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation, or the employee does not select a qualified rehabilitation consultant, as ~~required by this section~~ provided in paragraph (a), the commissioner or compensation judge shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to ~~appoint~~ provide, or the employee fails to select, whichever is applicable, a qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~or other persons as permitted by clause (a)~~ within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner or compensation judge shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines the consultation is not required.

~~(c)~~ (g) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

~~(d)~~ (h) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11 to which an employee is entitled. A plan that is not completed within six months or after $3,000 has been paid in rehabilitation benefits must be specifically approved by the commissioner. This approval may not be waived by the parties.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PLAN, COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of rehabilitation evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books, travel, and custodial day care; and, in addition, reasonable costs of board and lodging when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence;

(d) Reasonable costs of travel and custodial day care during the job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury. An employee shall not be required to relocate and a refusal to relocate shall not result in a suspension or termination of compensation under this chapter; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Charges for services provided by a rehabilitation consultant or vendor must be submitted on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. No payment for the services shall be made until the charges are submitted on the prescribed form.

Any dispute for benefits under section 176.102, 176.103, 176.135, or 176.136 may be referred to the mediation services section of the department for consideration. All health care providers, qualified rehabilitation consultants, intervenors or potential intervenors, or any other third parties who have or may have an interest in the resolution of the dispute must be notified of the proceeding and requested to be in attendance. Any agreement by the parties who attend the hearing or appear by telephone conference is binding on any other party who had notice and did not participate in the hearing.

(b) The employer shall furnish reasonably required chiropractic treatment for a maximum of 30 days from the date the employee first seeks the treatment, or 15 chiropractic treatment visits, whichever occurs first. The employer shall furnish reasonably required physical therapy treatment for a maximum of 30 days from the date the employee first seeks the treatment. Chiropractic or physical therapy treatment is compensable thereafter only with the consent of the employer or insurer, or after a specific determination by the commissioner or a compensation judge, pursuant to paragraph (f), that treatment for an additional specified period of time is reasonably required. This paragraph is effective for treatment provided after July 1, 1992.

(c) The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services provided by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.

(d) Exposure to rabies is an injury and an employer shall furnish preventative treatment to employees exposed to rabies.

(e) The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches, or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of the employer's inability or refusal seasonably to ~~do so~~ provide the items required to be provided under this paragraph, the employer is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same, including costs of copies of any medical records or medical reports that are in existence, obtained from health care providers, and that directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter, limited to the charges allowed by subdivision 7~~, and attorney fees incurred by the employee. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability~~.

Subd. 1a. [NONEMERGENCY SURGERY; SECOND SURGICAL OPINION.] The employer is required to furnish surgical treatment pursuant to subdivision 1 when the surgery is reasonably required to cure and relieve the effects of the personal injury or occupational disease. An employee may not be compelled to undergo surgery. If an employee desires a second opinion on the necessity of the surgery, the employer shall pay the costs of obtaining the second opinion. Except in cases of emergency surgery, the employer or insurer may require the employee to obtain a second opinion on the necessity of the surgery, at the expense of the employer, before the employee undergoes surgery. Failure to obtain a second surgical opinion, if required by the employer or insurer, shall not be reason for nonpayment of the charges for the surgery~~. The employer is required to pay the reasonable value of the surgery~~, unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the surgery is not reasonably required.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE MEDICAL ELIGIBILITY.] Notwithstanding section 176.66, an employee who has contracted an occupational disease is eligible to receive compensation under this section even if the employee is not disabled from earning full wages at the work at which the employee was last employed.

Payment of compensation under this section shall be made by the employer and insurer on the date of the employee's last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease. Reimbursement for medical benefits paid under this subdivision or subdivision 1a is allowed from the employer and insurer liable under section 176.66, subdivision 10, only in the case of disablement.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the bill, the employer or insurer shall pay the charge or any portion of the charge which is not denied, or deny all or a part of the charge ~~on the basis of excessiveness or noncompensability, or specify the additional data needed,~~ with written notification to the employee and the provider ~~.~~ *explaining the basis for denial. (5) additional medical records or reports are required under subdivision 7 to substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury.

If payment is denied under clause (3), (4), or (5), the employer or insurer shall reconsider the charges in accordance with this subdivision within 30 calendar days after receiving additional medical data, a prescribed billing form, or documentation of enrollment or certification as a provider.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL BILLS AND RECORDS.] Health care providers shall submit to the insurer an itemized statement of charges on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Any health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services may make written application to the commissioner to become certified to provide managed care to injured workers for injuries and diseases compensable under this chapter. Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the commissioner. A certificate is valid for the period the commissioner prescribes unless revoked or suspended. Application for certification shall be made in the form and manner and shall set forth information regarding the proposed plan for providing services as the commissioner may prescribe. The information shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) a list of the names of all health care providers who will provide services under the managed care plan, together with appropriate evidence of compliance with any licensing or certification requirements for those providers to practice in this state;

(b) a description of the places and manner of providing services under the plan;

(c) a description of the places and manner of providing other related optional services the applicants wish to provide; and

(d) satisfactory evidence of ability to comply with any financial requirements to ensure delivery of service in accordance with the plan which the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall certify a health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services to provide managed care under a plan if the commissioner finds that the plan:

(b) provides appropriate financial incentives to reduce service costs and utilization without sacrificing the quality of service;

(d) provides a program for early return to work for injured workers involving, where appropriate, cooperative efforts by the workers, the employer, and the managed care organizations to promote workplace health and safety consultative and other services;

(e) provides a timely and accurate method of reporting to the commissioner necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization to enable the commissioner to determine the effectiveness of the plan;

(f) authorizes workers to receive compensable medical treatment from a health care provider who is not a member of the managed care organization, but who maintains the worker's medical records and with whom the worker has a documented history of treatment, if that health care provider agrees to refer the worker to the managed care organization for any specialized treatment, including physical therapy, to be furnished by another provider that the worker may require and if that health care provider agrees to comply with all the rules, terms, and conditions regarding services performed by the managed care organization. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit the worker's right to change health care providers prior to the filing of a workers' compensation claim; and

(g) complies with any other requirement the commissioner determines is necessary to provide quality medical services and health care to injured workers.

Subd. 3. [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND REFUSAL TO CERTIFY.] The commissioner shall refuse to certify or shall revoke or suspend the certification of any health care provider or group of medical service providers to provide managed care if the commissioner finds that the plan for providing medical or health care services fails to meet the requirements of this section, or service under the plan is not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW.] (a) Utilization review, quality assurance, and peer review activities pursuant to this section and authorization of medical services to be provided by other than an attending physician pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to review by the commissioner or the commissioner's designated representatives. Data generated by or received in connection with these activities, including written reports, notes or records of any such activities, or of the commissioner's review shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except as considered necessary by the commissioner in the administration of this section. The commissioner may report professional misconduct to an appropriate licensing board.

(b) No data generated by utilization review, quality assurance, or peer review activities pursuant to this section or the commissioner's review thereof shall be used in any action, suit, or proceeding except to the extent considered necessary by the commissioner in the administration of this chapter.

(c) A person participating in utilization review, quality assurance, or peer review activities pursuant to this section shall not be examined as to any communication made in the course of such activities or the findings thereof, nor shall any person be subject to an action for civil damages for affirmative actions taken or statements made in good faith.

(d) No person who participates in forming managed care plans, collectively negotiating fees, or otherwise solicits or enters into contracts in a good faith effort to provide medical or health care services according to the provisions of this section shall be examined or subject to administrative or civil liability regarding any such participation except pursuant to the commissioner's active supervision of such activities and the managed care organization. Before engaging in such activities, the person shall provide notice of intent to the commissioner on a prescribed form.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner in cooperation with the commissioners of the department of health, department of commerce, and department of human services, shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups.

(b) The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit, in accordance with subdivisions 1a and 1b, the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135~~, based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing~~. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELATIVE VALUE FEE SCHEDULE.] The liability of an employer for services included in the medical fee schedule is limited to the maximum fee allowed by the schedule in effect on the date of the medical service, or the provider's actual fee, whichever is lower. The medical fee schedule effective on October 1, 1990, shall remain in effect until the commissioner adopts a new schedule by permanent rule, but shall remain in effect no later than June 1, 1993. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules regulating fees, except fees limited by subdivision 1b, by implementing a relative value fee schedule to be effective on October 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as possible. The conversion factors for the relative value fee schedule shall reasonably reflect a 15 percent overall reduction from 1991 charges, based on a sample of the most common services billed in the first six months of 1991 that is large enough to be statistically valid.

After permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, the conversion factors must be adjusted annually on October 1, by the percentage change in the statewide average weekly wage as set forth in section 176.645, subdivision 1. The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the adjusted conversion factors. This notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The liability of the employer for treatment, articles, and supplies provided to an employee while an inpatient or outpatient at a hospital or an outpatient at a same-day surgical facility or emergency room shall be limited to 85 percent of the amount charged.

(b) For the services rendered under paragraph (a) by a hospital with 100 or fewer licensed acute care beds, the liability of employers shall be the actual hospital charges.

(c) The liability of the employer for the treatment, articles, and supplies that are not limited by subdivision 1a or paragraph (a) shall be limited to the provider's actual charge, or the charges that prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles, and supplies furnished to an injured person when paid for by the injured person, whichever is lower. On this basis, the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all treatment, services, and supplies, and the liability of the employer is limited to that amount.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] If the employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter unless the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness.

A charge for a health service or medical service is excessive if it:

(1) exceeds the maximum permissible charge pursuant to subdivision 1 or section 176.135, subdivision 1a;

(2) is for a service provided at a level, duration, or frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards;

(3) is for a service that is outside the scope of practice of the particular provider or is not generally recognized within the particular profession of the provider as of therapeutic value for the specific injury or condition treated; or

(4) is otherwise deemed excessive or inappropriate pursuant to rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Where the sole issue in dispute is whether medical fees are excessive, the only parties to the proceeding shall be the health care provider and employer or insurer. The rights of an employee shall not be affected by a determination under this subdivision.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.305, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEARINGS ON PETITIONS.] The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition on each adverse party personally or by first class mail. The original petition shall then be filed with the commissioner together with an appropriate affidavit of service. When any petition has been filed with the workers' compensation division, the commissioner shall, within ten days, refer the matter presented by the petition for a settlement conference under this section, for ~~an administrative~~ a mediation conference under section ~~176.106~~ 176.107, or for hearing to the office.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.351, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

conference, or hearing under section ~~176.106~~ 176.107 or 176.239, shall not be subpoenaed to testify regarding the conference, hearing, or concerning a mediation session. A member of the rehabilitation review panel, medical services board, or an employee of the department may be required to answer written interrogatories limited to the following questions:

(a) Were all statutory and administrative procedural rules adhered to in reaching the decision?

(b) If the answer to question (a) is no, what deviations took place?

(c) Did the person making the decision consider all the information presented prior to rendering a decision?

(d) Did the person making the decision rely on information outside of the information presented at the conference or hearing in making the decision?

(e) If the answer to question (d) is yes, what other information was relied upon in making the decision?

In addition, for a hearing with a compensation judge and with the consent of the compensation judge, an employee of the department who conducted an administrative conference, hearing, or mediation session, may be requested to answer written interrogatories relating to statements made by a party at the prior proceeding. These interrogatories shall be limited to affirming or denying that specific statements were made by a party.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make the record of the proceedings.

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision. This subdivision does not apply to any administrative conference or other proceeding before the commissioner which may be heard de novo in another proceeding including but not limited to proceedings under section ~~176.106~~ 176.107 or 176.239.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER.]

A person aggrieved by the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.82, is amended to read:

176.82 [ACTION FOR CIVIL DAMAGES FOR OBSTRUCTING EMPLOYEE SEEKING BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Any person discharging or threatening to discharge an employee for seeking workers' compensation benefits or in any manner intentionally obstructing an employee seeking workers' compensation benefits is liable in a civil action for damages incurred by the employee including any diminution in workers' compensation benefits caused by a violation of this section including costs and reasonable attorney fees, and for punitive damages not to exceed three times the amount of any compensation benefit to which the employee is entitled. Damages awarded under this section shall not be offset by any workers' compensation benefits to which the employee is entitled.

Subd. 2. If it is determined by the payer that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer, and the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines at a hearing or administrative conference that the level, frequency, or cost was not excessive in which case the insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer shall make the payment deemed reasonable.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the rehabilitation review panel or medical services review board, after hearing, to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under this chapter. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this subdivision may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing certifying body.

After the rules for provider enrollment have been promulgated, a provider must be enrolled in accordance with the rules to receive payment for services rendered under section 176.135. An unenrolled provider may not receive payment or attempt to collect from any source, including the employee, any insurer or self-insured employer, the special compensation fund, or any government program. Retroactive enrollment must be permitted pursuant to guidelines established by rule. A list of currently enrolled providers must be given to all self-insured employers and insurers. The list must be made available to others upon request.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.56, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [RATE REGULATION.] (a) Whenever an insurer files a change in its existing rate level or rating plan, the commissioner may hold a hearing to determine if the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to chapter 14. The commissioner shall give notice of intent to hold a hearing within 90 days of the filing of the change. It is the responsibility of the insurer to show that the rate level or rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rate level or rating plan is effective unless it is determined as a result of the hearing that the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Upon such a finding, the rate level or rating plan is retroactively rescinded and any premiums collected under it must be refunded. This subdivision does not apply to any changes resulting from assessments for the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, or statutory benefit level changes to sections 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, and 4, 176.111, 176.132, and 176.645 as a result of annual adjustments in the statewide average weekly wage. The disapproval of a rate level or rating plan under this subdivision must be done in the same manner as under section 70A.11, except that the standards of section 79.55 apply.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), if the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner must hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court or enactment of a statute has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner of labor and industry must make a prima facie showing that law change has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the commissioner may hold a hearing if the commissioner determines that the hearing is necessary because of circumstances which result in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner must make a prima facie showing that the circumstances resulted in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

Sec. 12. [79.565] [PARTICIPATION.]

An employer, or person representing a group of employers, that will be directly affected by a change in an insurer's existing rate level or rating plan filed under section 79.56, subdivision 5, and the commissioner of labor and industry, must be allowed to participate in any hearing under that subdivision challenging the change in rate level or rating plan as being excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.58, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14, the commissioner finds that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rating plan is effective until disapproved. It is the responsibility of the data service organization to show that the rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data, except that other data may be utilized as a supplement to Minnesota data when the commissioner determines that an exceptional case requires such data to establish the statistical credibility of an occupational classification.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; ~~and~~

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis;

(i) Separate the incurred but unreported losses of its members;

(j) Separate paid and outstanding losses of its members;

(k) Provide information indicating cases in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;

If no order is issued, a sum sufficient to pay these costs and expenses is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce.*

Sec. 16. [79.70] [INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] In connection with the administration of this chapter, the commissioner of commerce may:

Subd. 3. [COURT ORDERS.] In case of a refusal to appear or a refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to any person an order directing that person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence relating to the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

Subd. 4. [SCOPE OF PRIVILEGE.] *No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or from obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner or in a proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required may tend to incriminate that person or subject that person to a penalty or forfeiture. Subd. 5. [LEGAL ACTIONS; INJUNCTIONS; CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted under this chapter, the commissioner has the powers indicated under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The commissioner may bring an action in the name of the state in the district court of the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, or the commissioner may refer the matter to the attorney general or the county attorney of the appropriate county. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate relief must be granted.

(c) The commissioner may issue and serve an order requiring a person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reasons for the entry of the order. A hearing must be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the commissioner. Within 20 days after receiving the administrative law judge's report, the commissioner shall issue a further order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the order, the order will become final and will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. Unless otherwise provided, all hearings must be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. If a person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person is in default, and the proceeding may be determined against that person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be considered to be true. The commissioner may adopt rules of procedure concerning all proceedings conducted under this paragraph.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES.] The commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,000 per violation upon a person who violates this chapter, unless a different penalty is specified under this chapter.

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS AGAINST LICENSEES.] In addition to any other actions authorized by this section, the commissioner may, by order, deny, suspend, or revoke the authority or license of a person subject to this chapter, or censure that person if the commissioner finds that the order is in the public interest or the person has violated this chapter.

Subd. 8. [POWERS ADDITIONAL.] The powers contained in subdivisions 1 to 8 are in addition to all other powers of the commissioner.

Sec. 17. [79.75] [ACCESS TO INSURER.]

The commissioner, or the designated person, shall have free access during normal business hours to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of any company, applicant, association, or person that may be examined pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of ascertaining, appraising, and evaluating the assets, conditions, affairs, operations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of law of the company or person insofar as any of the above pertain to the business of insurance of a person, organization, or corporation transacting, having transacted, or being organized to transact business in this state. Every company or person being examined including officers, directors, and agents, shall provide to the commissioner or the designated person convenient and free access at all reasonable hours at its office to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the company or person. The officers, directors, and agents of the company or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue the coverage.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 221.141, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF CERTAIN CARRIERS.] No motor carrier and no interstate carrier shall operate a vehicle until it has obtained and has in effect the minimum amount of financial responsibility required by this section. Policies of insurance, surety bonds, other types of security, and endorsements must be continuously in effect and must remain in effect until canceled. Before providing transportation, the motor carrier or interstate carrier shall secure and cause to be filed with the commissioner and maintain in full effect, both a certificate of insurance in a form required by the commissioner, evidencing public liability insurance in the amount prescribed, and acceptable evidences of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2, by providing the name of the insurance company, the policy number, and the dates of coverage, or the permit to self-insure. The insurance must cover injuries and damage to persons or property resulting from the operation or use of motor vehicles, regardless of whether each vehicle is specifically described in the policy. This insurance does not apply to injuries or death to the employees of the motor carrier or to property being transported by the carrier. The commissioner shall require cargo insurance for certificated carriers, except those carrying passengers exclusively. The commissioner may require a permit carrier to file cargo insurance when the commissioner deems necessary to protect the users of the service.

Sec. 20. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHALLENGE RATE LEVEL CHANGE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 79.56, subdivision 5, the commissioner shall have an additional 90 days to give notice of intent to hold a hearing pursuant to that section. This section applies only to challenges to an insurer's change in existing rate levels or rating plan filed between the date the 1992 report required under Minnesota Statutes, section 79.60, is approved by the commissioner of commerce and six months thereafter.

Sec. 21. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in articles 1 to 4 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on October 1, 1991, must be reduced by 17 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 17 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 17 percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide a written notice by November 1, 1991, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1991, that reads as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1991 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $ . . . . . which reflects a 17 percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between April 1, 1991, and January 1, 1992.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under this section have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner shall present a report detailing the findings and conclusions to the legislature by March 1, 1992.

Within 60 days of final enactment of this legislation, the board shall determine whether any adjustment in the assigned risk rates in effect as of the date of enactment are required by this section.

Sec. 23. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 79.54; 79.57; and 79.58, subdivision 1, are repealed.

This article is effective January 1, 1992; except that section 21, paragraphs (a) and (c), are effective October 1, 1991; and section 21, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment."

Subd. 3a. [FILING FEE.] The filing fees for an order for protection under this section are waived for the petitioner. The court shall also direct payment of the reasonable costs of service of process in the manner provided in section 563.01, whether served by a sheriff, private process server, or by publication. The court may direct a respondent to pay to the court administrator the petitioner's filing fees and reasonable costs of service of process if the court determines that the respondent has the ability to pay the petitioner's fees and costs.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518B.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ORDER FOR PROTECTION.] There shall exist an action known as a petition for an order for protection in cases of domestic abuse.

(a) A petition for relief under this section may be made by any family or household member personally or on behalf of minor family or household members.

(b) A petition for relief shall allege the existence of domestic abuse, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought.

(c) A petition for relief ~~may be made regardless of~~ must state whether ~~or not~~ there is an existing order for protection in effect under this chapter governing both the parties and whether there is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition or other action between the parties under chapter 257, 518, 518A, 518B, or 518C. The clerk of court shall verify the terms of any existing order governing the parties. The court may not delay granting relief because of the existence of a pending action between the parties or the necessity of verifying the terms of an existing order. A subsequent order in a separate action under this chapter may modify only the provision of an existing order that grants relief authorized under subdivision 6, paragraph (a), clause (1). A petition for relief may be granted, regardless of whether there is a pending action between the parties.

(d) The court shall provide simplified forms and clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a petition under this section.

(e) The court shall advise a petitioner under clause (d) of the right to file a motion and affidavit and to sue in forma pauperis pursuant to section 563.01 and shall assist with the writing and filing of the motion and affidavit.

(f) The court shall advise a petitioner under clause (d) of the right to serve the respondent by published notice under subdivision 5, paragraph (b), if the respondent is avoiding personal service by concealment or otherwise, and shall assist with the writing and filing of the affidavit.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518B.01, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RELIEF BY THE COURT.] (a) Upon notice and hearing, the court may provide relief as follows:

(1) restrain the abusing party from committing acts of domestic abuse;

(2) exclude the abusing party from the dwelling which the parties share or from the residence of the petitioner;

(3) award temporary custody or establish temporary visitation with regard to minor children of the parties on a basis which gives primary consideration to the safety of the victim and the children. If the court finds that the safety of the victim or the children will be jeopardized by unsupervised or unrestricted visitation, the court shall condition or restrict visitation as to time, place, duration, or supervision, or deny visitation entirely, as needed to guard the safety of the victim and the children. The court's deliberation under this subdivision shall in no way delay the issuance of an order for protection granting other reliefs provided for in Laws 1985, chapter 195;

(4) on the same basis as is provided in chapter 518, establish temporary support for minor children or a spouse, and order the withholding of support from the income of the person obligated to pay the support according to chapter 518;

(9) order, in its discretion, other relief as it deems necessary for the protection of a family or household member, including orders or directives to the sheriff or constable, as provided by this section.

(b) Any relief granted by the order for protection shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year, except when the court determines a longer fixed period is appropriate.

(c) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (1), may not be vacated or modified in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, except that the court may hear a motion for modification of an order for protection concurrently with a proceeding for dissolution of marriage upon notice of motion and motion. The notice required by court rule shall not be waived. If the proceedings are consolidated and the motion to modify is granted, a separate order for modification of an order for protection shall be issued.

(d) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (2), is not voided by the admittance of the abusing party into the dwelling from which the abusing party is excluded.

(e) If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation is pending between the parties, the court shall provide a copy of the order for protection to the court with jurisdiction over the dissolution or separation proceeding for inclusion in its file.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518B.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [VIOLATION OF AN ORDER FOR PROTECTION.] (a) Whenever an order for protection is granted pursuant to this section, and the respondent or person to be restrained knows of the order, violation of the order for protection is a misdemeanor. A person who violates this paragraph within two years after a previous conviction under this paragraph is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. When a court sentences a person convicted of a gross misdemeanor and does not impose a period of incarceration, the court shall make findings on the record regarding the reasons for not requiring incarceration.

(b) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order granted pursuant to this section restraining the person or excluding the person from the residence or the petitioner's place of employment, even if the violation of the order did not take place in the presence of the peace officer, if the existence of the order can be verified by the officer. A peace officer acting in good faith and exercising due care in making an arrest pursuant to this paragraph is immune from civil liability that might result from the officer's actions.

(c) A violation of an order for protection shall also constitute contempt of court and be subject to the penalties therefor.

(d) If the court finds that the respondent has violated an order for protection and that there is reason to believe that the respondent will commit a further violation of the provisions of the order restraining the respondent from committing acts of domestic abuse or excluding the respondent from the petitioner's residence, the court may require the respondent to acknowledge an obligation to comply with the order on the record. The court may require a bond sufficient to deter the respondent from committing further violations of the order for protection, considering the financial resources of the respondent, and not to exceed $10,000. If the respondent refuses to comply with an order to acknowledge the obligation or post a bond under this paragraph, the court shall commit the respondent to the county jail during the term of the order for protection or until the respondent complies with the order under this paragraph. The warrant must state the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which any bond is required. If an order is issued under this paragraph, the court may order the costs of the contempt action, or any part of them, to be paid by the respondent. An order under this paragraph is appealable.

(e) Upon the filing of an affidavit by the petitioner ~~or~~, any peace officer, or an interested party designated by the court, alleging that the respondent has violated any order for protection granted pursuant to this section, the court may issue an order to the respondent, requiring the respondent to appear and show cause within 14 days why the respondent should not be found in contempt of court and punished therefor. The hearing may be held by the court in any county in which the petitioner or respondent temporarily or permanently resides at the time of the alleged violation. The court also may refer the violation of the order for protection to the appropriate prosecuting authority for possible prosecution under paragraph (a).

(f) If it is alleged that the respondent has violated an order for protection issued under subdivision 6 and the court finds that the order has expired between the time of the alleged violation and the court's hearing on the violation, the court may grant a new order for protection under subdivision 6 based solely on the respondent's alleged violation of the prior order, to be effective until the hearing on the alleged violation of the prior order. If the court finds that the respondent has violated the prior order, the relief granted in the new order for protection shall be extended for a fixed period, not to exceed one year.

(g) The admittance into petitioner's dwelling of an abusing party excluded from the dwelling under an order for protection is not a violation by the petitioner of the order for protection.

A peace officer is not liable under section 609.43, clause (1), for a failure to perform a duty required by clause (b).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (1) If the conviction is for a felony the stay shall be for not more than three years or the maximum period for which the sentence of imprisonment might have been imposed, whichever is longer.

(2) If the conviction is for a gross misdemeanor the stay shall be for not more than two years.

(3) If the conviction is for ~~a~~ any misdemeanor under section 169.121 or for a misdemeanor under section 609.224, subdivision 1, in which the victim of the crime was a family or household member as defined in section 518B.01, the stay shall be for not more than two years. The court shall provide for unsupervised probation for the second year of the stay unless the court finds that the defendant needs supervised probation for all or part of the second year.

(4) If the conviction is for a misdemeanor not specified in clause (3), the stay shall be for not more than one year.

(5) The defendant shall be discharged when the stay expires, unless the stay has been revoked or the defendant has already been discharged."

"Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 629.72, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [JUDICIAL REVIEW; RELEASE; BAIL.] (a) The judge before whom the arrested person is brought shall review the facts surrounding the arrest and detention. The arrested person must be ordered released pending trial or hearing on the person's personal recognizance or on an order to appear or upon the execution of an unsecured bond in a specified amount unless the judge determines that release (1) will be inimical to public safety, (2) will create a threat of bodily harm to the arrested person, the victim of the alleged assault, or another, or (3) will not reasonably assure the appearance of the arrested person at subsequent proceedings.

(b) If the judge determines release is not advisable, the judge may impose any conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for subsequent proceedings, or will protect the victim of the alleged assault, or may fix the amount of money bail without other conditions upon which the arrested person may obtain release. If conditions of release are imposed, the judge shall issue a written order for conditional release. The court administrator shall immediately distribute a copy of the order for conditional release to the agency having custody of the arrested person and shall provide the agency having custody of the arrested person with any available information on the location of the victim in a manner that protects the victim's safety. Either the court or its designee or the agency having custody of the arrested person shall serve upon the defendant a copy of the order. Failure to serve the arrested person with a copy of the order for conditional release does not invalidate the conditions of release.

(c) If the judge imposes as a condition of release a requirement that the person have no contact with the victim of the alleged assault, the judge may also, on its own motion or that of the prosecutor or on request of the victim, issue an ex parte temporary order for protection under section 518B.01, subdivision 7. Notwithstanding section 518B.01, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), the temporary order is effective until the defendant is convicted or acquitted, or the charge is dismissed, provided that upon request the defendant is entitled to a full hearing on the order for protection under section 518B.01. The hearing must be held within seven days of the defendant's request."

(3) refuse to accept a shipment contracted for by the person, unless the refusal is based upon the showing of a state inspection certificate secured with reasonable promptness after the receipt of the shipment showing that the kind and quality of produce, as defined in section 27.069, is other than that purchased or ordered by the person;

(4) fail to account or make a settlement for produce within the required time;

(5) violate or fail to comply with the terms or conditions of a contract entered into by the person for the purchase or sale of produce;

(6) purchase for a person's own account any produce received on consignment, either directly or indirectly, without the consent of the consignor;

(7) issue a false or misleading market quotation, or cancel a quotation during the period advertised by the person;

(8) increase the sales charges on produce shipped to the person by means of "dummy" or fictitious sales;

(9) receive decorative forest products and the products of farms and waters from foreign states or countries for sale or resale, either within or outside of the state, and give the purchaser the impression, through any method of advertising or description, that the produce is of Minnesota origin;

If the processor sets the date for planting, bunching, unusual yields, and a processor's inability or unwillingness to harvest must be considered to be within the processor's control. Under this clause growers must be compensated for passed acreage at the same rate for grade and yield as they would have received had the crop been harvested in a timely manner minus any contractual provision for green manure or feed value. Both parties are excused from payment or performance for crop conditions that are beyond the control of the parties*; or

(13) discriminate between different sections, localities, communities, or cities, or between persons in the same community, by purchasing produce from farmers of the same grade, quality, and kind, at different prices, except that price differentials are allowed if directly related to the costs of transportation, shipping, and handling of the produce and a person is allowed to meet the prices of a competitor in good faith, in the same locality for the same grade, quality, and kind of produce. A showing of different prices by the commissioner is prima facie evidence of discrimination.

(b) A separate violation occurs with respect to each different person involved, each purchase or transaction involved, and each false statement.

The Honorable Robert Vanasek

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 81, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

Subd. 5. Upon written notice to the county mine inspector, a person, firm, or corporation that is actively and exclusively engaged in the business of cold water aquaculture shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivision 3. The exemption shall only apply to those portions of idle or abandoned open pit mines that are actively being used for aquaculture operations and that are owned by the person, firm, or corporation. A landowner exempted assumes all responsibility for inspection and safety measures pertaining to the affected parcels of land and the county mine inspector is relieved of inspection requirements. The notice provided to the county mine inspector pursuant to this subdivision shall be annual and shall be filed with the county mine inspector's office by January 15 of each year. The notice shall describe the affected parcels of land and shall provide a sworn affidavit by the landowner that the subject property will be actively and exclusively used for aquaculture purposes during the calendar year. Failure to comply with the notice requirement of this subdivision makes the idle or abandoned open pit mines subject to the provisions of subdivision 3.

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION OF TAX LIENS.] The county auditor, upon written application of any person, shall make search of the records of the auditor's office, and ascertain the existence of all tax liens and tax sales as to any lands described in the application, and certify the result of such search under the auditor's hand and official seal, giving the description of the land and all tax liens and tax sales shown by such records, and the amount thereof, the year of tax covered by such lien, the date of tax sale, and the name of the purchaser at such tax sale.

For such service the county auditor shall charge a fee ~~not to exceed $5~~ for each lot or tract of land described in the certificate. The amount of the fee will be established by the county board on or before July 1 of each year. Any number of contiguous tracts of land not exceeding one section, assessed as broad acres, or adjoining lots in the same block, in the city, shall be considered as one lot or parcel within the meaning of this section. The

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 272.47, is amended to read:

272.47 [COUNTY TREASURER, CERTIFICATE OF CURRENT TAXES; FEE.]

The amount of the fee will be established by the county board on or before July 1 of each year. The definition of "lot or parcel," for the purposes of this section, shall be the same as set forth in section 272.46.

This section shall not authorize such treasurer to charge any amount for certifying to taxes on a deed to be recorded or for information with reference to the current tax on any subdivision of land in the county, where no certificate thereof is necessary or required. The provisions of this section shall not apply to counties having a population of more than 200,000.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 279.09, is amended to read:

The county auditor shall act in accordance with the notice. Publication charges for the second publication may not exceed the publication charges for the first publication.* The auditor shall deliver such list to the publisher of the newspaper designated, at least 20 days before the date upon which the list shall be published for the first time.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 281.13, is amended to read:

281.13 [NOTICE OF EXPIRATION OF REDEMPTION.]

Every person holding a tax certificate after expiration of three years after the date of the tax sale under which the same was issued, may present such certificate to the county auditor; and thereupon the auditor shall prepare, under the auditor's hand and official seal, a notice, directed to the person or persons in whose name such lands are assessed, specifying the description thereof, the amount for which the same was sold, the amount required to redeem the same, exclusive of the costs to accrue upon such notice, and the time when the redemption period will expire. Sec. 32. [THE HOSPITAL DISTRICT AND ITS POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; STATUS; PREEXISTING OBLIGATION.] The hospital district shall have perpetual succession, may contract and be contracted with, may sue and be sued, may, but shall not be required to, use a corporate seal, may acquire real and personal property as it may require, within or without the district, by purchase, gift, devise, lease, condemnation, or otherwise, and may hold, manage, control, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of such property as its interests require. All of the assets, real and personal, of the preexisting hospital organization owned by the county and the city, doing business as Swift County-Benson Hospital, shall pass to the hospital district in fee title or by lease, and all legally valid and enforceable claims and contract obligations of the preexisting hospital organization shall be assumed by the city of Benson and county of Swift. All taxable property in the district shall continue to be taxable for the payment of any bonded debt previously incurred by the preexisting hospital or by the city of Benson or the county of Swift on behalf of the preexisting hospital. Any properties, real, personal, or mixed, which are acquired, owned, leased, controlled, used, or occupied by the district shall be exempt from general property taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions, but nothing in sections 28 to 41 shall prevent the levy of special assessments for public improvements benefiting the property.

Subd. 2. [BUDGET.] The board of directors shall adopt a budget for each ensuing year and shall provide the budget to the city council and the county board prior to the beginning of the year to which the budget applies. The city council and county board may consider the budget and provide their comments and recommendations to the board of directors.

Subd. 3. [POWERS.] The hospital district shall have all the powers necessary and convenient to provide for the acquisition, betterment, operation, maintenance, and administration for the hospital, including nursing home, other facilities for the residential occupancy of ambulatory elderly citizens who do not require nursing home or general hospital care and related programs, as the board of directors shall determine to be necessary and expedient. The enumeration of specific powers herein does not restrict the power of the board to take any lawful action which, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, it deems necessary or convenient for the furtherance of the purpose for which the district exists, whether or not the power to take the action is implied from any of the powers expressly granted. These powers shall include, but not be limited to, the power to:

(1) employ management, administrative, nursing, and other personnel, legal counsel, engineers, architects, accountants, and other qualified persons, who may be paid for their services by monthly salaries, hourly wages, and pension benefits, or by fees as may be agreed on;

(2) cause reports, plans, studies, and recommendations to be prepared;

(3) when acquiring real and personal property as authorized in subdivision 1, contract for the acquisition by option, contract for deed, conditional sales contract, or otherwise;

(4) construct, equip, and furnish necessary buildings and grounds and maintain the same;

(5) adopt bylaws and rules and regulations to govern the operation and administration of any and all hospital, nursing home, and other facilities under its control, and for the admission of persons thereto;

(6) impose and collect charges for all services and facilities provided and made available by it;

(7) borrow money and issue bonds as prescribed in sections 28 to 41;

(8) procure insurance against liability of the district or its officers and employees, or both, for torts committed within the scope of their official duties, whether governmental or proprietary, or for errors and omissions, and against damage to or destruction of any of its facilities, equipment, or other property;

(9) subject to subdivision 4, sell or lease any of its facilities or equipment as may be expedient;

(10) cause annual audits to be made of its accounts, books, vouchers, and funds by competent public accountants; this provision shall be construed to be mandatory;

(11) require a corporate surety bond from officers and employees of the district, and in the amount the board shall determine, and authorize payment of the premiums therefor; or

(12) provide loans to students as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 447.331.

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL FOR SALE OR LEASE.] Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize the district or its board of directors to at any time sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the management, control, or operation of the hospital, including nursing home or other facilities, except upon approval by a majority vote of the county board and the city council.

Subd. 5. [BYLAWS.] Bylaws shall be adopted to further govern the operation of the hospital district. Bylaws or any amendment or repeal of them, shall first be adopted by the board of directors, but shall not take effect until approved by the county board and the city council. Bylaws may address any subject matter pertinent to the organization and operation of the hospital district consistent with sections 28 to 41 and other applicable laws.

Sec. 33. [PAYMENT OF EXPENSES.]

Expenses of acquisition, betterment, administration, operation, and maintenance of the hospital district shall be paid from the revenue derived therefrom and, to the extent authorized by sections 28 to 41, from the proceeds of debt incurred for the benefit of the district, and to the extent determined from time to time by the county board or the city council, from appropriations made by the county board or the city council. Money appropriated by the board of county commissioners and the city council to acquire or improve facilities of the hospital district may be transferred in the discretion of the board of directors to a sinking fund for bonds issued for that purpose. The hospital board may agree to repay to the county and the city any sums appropriated by the county board or the city council for this purpose, out of the net revenues to be derived from operation of its facilities, and subject to the terms agreed on.

Sec. 34. [TEMPORARY BORROWING AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.] Subject to the approval of the city and the county, the hospital district may borrow money by issuing certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of revenues and federal aids. Total indebtedness for the certificates must not exceed $50,000. The proceeds must be used for expenses of administration, operation, and maintenance of the district's hospital, nursing home, or other facilities. The approval of the city and county shall be effected by an affirmative vote of their respective governing bodies.

Subd. 2. [RESOLUTION.] The district may authorize and borrow and issue the certificates of indebtedness on passage of a resolution specifying the amount and reasons for borrowing. The resolution must be adopted by a vote of at least two-thirds of its board members, excluding board members who may not vote. The board shall fix the amount, date, maturity, form, denomination, and other details of the certificates and the date and place for receipt of bids for their purchase. The board shall direct the secretary to give notice of the date and place fixed.

Subd. 3. [TERMS OF CERTIFICATES.] Certificates must become due and payable no later than two years from the date of issuance. Certificates must be negotiable and payable to the order of the payee and have a definite due date but may be payable on or before the due date. Certificates must be sold for at least par and accrued interest and must bear interest at not more than eight percent a year. Interest must be payable at maturity or earlier as the board determines. The proceeds of current county or city appropriations, revenues derived from the facilities of the district and future federal aids, and any other district funds that become available must be applied to the extent necessary to repay the certificates.

Sec. 35. [HOSPITALS, NURSING HOMES, AND OTHER FACILITIES; FINANCING AND LEASING.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCING.] Subject to the approval of the city and the county, the hospital district may issue revenue bonds by resolution of its governing body to finance the acquisition and betterment of hospital, nursing home, and other facilities. This power is in addition to other powers granted by law and includes, but is not limited to, the payment of interest during construction and for a reasonable period after construction and the establishment of reserves for bond payment and for working capital. The approval of the city and county shall be effected by an affirmative vote of their respective governing bodies. In connection with the acquisition of any existing hospital or nursing home facilities, the city, county, or district may retire outstanding indebtedness incurred to finance the construction of the existing facilities.

Subd. 2. [PLEDGE OF REVENUE.] The hospital district may pledge and appropriate the revenues to be derived from its operation of the facilities to pay the principal and interest on the bonds when due and to create and maintain reserves for that purpose, as a first and prior lien on the revenues or, if so provided in the bond resolution, as a lien on the revenues subordinate to the current payment of a fixed amount or percentage or all of the costs of running the facilities.

Sec. 36. [SECURITY FOR BONDS; PLEDGE OF CREDIT FOR BONDS.]

In the issuance of bonds the revenues or rentals must be pledged and appropriated by resolution for the use and benefit of bondholders generally, or may be pledged by the execution of an indenture or other appropriate instrument to a trustee for the bondholders. The site and facilities, or any part of them, may be mortgaged to the trustee. The governing body may enter into any covenants with the bondholders or trustee that it finds necessary and proper to assure the marketability of the bonds, the completion of the facilities, the segregation of the revenues or rentals and other funds pledged, and the sufficiency of funds for prompt and full payment of bonds and interest. The bonds shall be deemed to be payable wholly from the income of a revenue-producing convenience within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58, unless the appropriate governing body also pledges to their payment the full faith and credit of the county or city. In this event, notice of the intent to issue bonds with a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county or city specifying the maximum amount and the purpose of the bond issue shall be published and if, within ten days of the date of publication, a petition asking for an election on the proposition signed by voters equal to ten percent of the number of voters at the last regular election is filed with the secretary, the bonds may not be issued unless approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question at a legal election.

Sec. 37. [MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.]

Bonds issued under sections 28 to 41 must be issued and sold as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. If the bonds do not pledge the credit of the hospital district as provided in section 36, the governing body may negotiate their sale without advertisement for bids. They shall not be included in the net debt of any municipality or county, and are not subject to interest rate limitations, as defined or referred to in Minnesota Statutes, sections 475.51 and 475.55.

Sec. 38. [LEASE OF FACILITIES TO NONPROFIT OR PUBLIC CORPORATION.]

Subject to section 32, subdivision 4, the hospital district may lease hospital, nursing home, or other facilities to be run by a nonprofit or public corporation as community facilities. The facilities must be open to all residents of the community on equal terms. The district may lease related medical facilities to any person, firm, association, or corporation, at rent and on conditions agreed. The term of the lease must not exceed 30 years. The lessee may be granted an option to renew the lease for an additional term or to purchase the facilities. The terms of renewal or purchase must be provided for in the lease. The hospital district may by resolution of its governing body agree to pay to the lessee annually, and to include in each annual budget for hospital and nursing home purposes, a fixed compensation for services agreed to be performed by the lessee in running the hospital, nursing home, or other facilities as a community facility; for any investment by the lessee of its own funds or funds granted or contributed to it in the construction or equipment of the hospital, nursing home, or other facilities; and for any auxiliary services to be provided or made available by the lessee through other facilities owned or operated by it. Services other than those provided for in the lease agreement may be compensated at rates agreed upon later. The lease agreement must, however, require the lessee to pay a net rental not less than the amount required to pay the principal and interest when due on all revenue bonds issued by the hospital district to acquire, improve, and refinance the leased facilities, and to maintain the agreed revenue bond reserve. The lease agreement must not grant the lessee an option to purchase the facilities at a price less than the amount of the bonds issued and interest accrued on them, except bonds and accrued interest paid from the net rentals before the option is exercised.

To the extent that the facilities are leased under this section for use by persons in private medical or dental or similar practice or other private business, a tax on that use must be imposed just as though the user were the owner of the space. It must be collected as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 272.01, subdivision 2.

Sec. 39. [REFUNDING BONDS.]

The county, city, or hospital district may issue bonds by resolution of its governing body to refund bonds issued for the purposes stated in sections 28 to 41.

Sec. 40. [SWIFT COUNTY.]

The county of Swift may make appropriations in whatever amount it deems appropriate for capital acquisition, capital improvements, maintenance, and operating subsidy for a hospital district created under sections 28 to 41 and any other hospital in the county notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 376.08 and 376.09 or any other limiting statutes or laws otherwise applicable to the county. The county may also guarantee any indebtedness incurred by or on behalf of the hospital and pledge its full faith and credit in support of it.

Sec. 41. [CITY OF BENSON.]

The city of Benson may make appropriations in whatever amount it deems appropriate for the purposes of capital acquisition, capital improvements, maintenance, and operating subsidy for a hospital district created under sections 28 to 41 notwithstanding any limiting statutes or laws otherwise applicable to the city. The city may also guarantee any indebtedness incurred by or on behalf of the hospital and pledge its full faith and credit in support of it.

Sec. 42. [POWERS SUPPLEMENTARY.]

The powers granted by sections 28 to 41 are supplementary to and not in substitution for any other powers possessed by political subdivisions in connection with the acquisition, betterment, administration, operation, and maintenance of hospitals, nursing homes, and related facilities and programs or the creation of hospital districts.

Sec. 43. [KOOCHICHING COUNTY; ENTERPRISE ZONE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 469.167, subdivision 3, the commissioner of trade and economic development shall designate up to 400 acres in Koochiching county as an enterprise zone under sections 469.166 to 469.173. The applicant must submit an application to the commissioner containing at a minimum documentation required by section 469.169, subdivisions 1; 2, clauses (2), (3), (5), (6), and (7); and 5. The area designated must meet requirements of section 469.168, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3.

The application and application review procedures shall not comply with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.168, subdivision 4; 469.169, subdivisions 2, clauses (1) and (4); 3; 4; and 6.

Sec. 44. [PARK AND RECREATION BOARD DISTRICTS.]

Notwithstanding chapter 1, section 3, of the home rule charter of the city of Minneapolis, the Minneapolis park and recreation board may appoint two members to serve on the Minneapolis reapportionment commission to replace the two members of the commission appointed by the majority and minority caucuses of the city council for the purpose of determining the reapportionment of Minneapolis park and recreation districts.

The two members appointed by the park and recreation board shall participate with the other appointed members of the reapportionment commission to determine the reapportionment of park board districts. Park board commission appointees shall not sit in considering the reapportionment of city council ward boundaries. City council appointees shall not sit in considering the reapportionment of park district boundaries. The reapportionment commission may adopt necessary procedures to ensure full participation by park and recreation board appointees in its process.

Sec. 45. [STANDARDS.]

Within the time specified in chapter 1, section 3, and chapter 16, section 1, of the home rule charter of the city of Minneapolis, the reapportionment commission shall set the boundaries of the park districts in accordance with the following standards:

(1) The ideal population for each district shall be determined by dividing the total population of the city by six. In no case shall any district, when readjusted, have a population more than five percent over or under the ideal population.

(2) Each district shall consist of a contiguous territory not more than twice as long as it is wide. The existence of a lake within a district shall not be contrary to this provision. Whenever possible, district boundary lines shall follow the center line of streets, avenues, alleys and boulevards and as nearly as practicable, shall run due east and west or north and south.

(3) To the extent possible, each newly drawn district shall retain the same numerical designation as the previously existing district from which the newly drawn ward received the largest portion of its population.

(4) The districts must not dilute the voting strength of racial or language minority populations. Where a concentration of a racial or language minority makes it possible, the districts must increase the probability that members of the minority will be elected.

(5) The districts should attempt to preserve communities of interest where that can be done in compliance with the preceding standards.

(6) Population shall be determined by use of the official population, as stated by census tracts and blocks in the official United States Census. Whenever it is necessary to modify census data in fixing a district boundary, the reapportionment commission may compute the population of any part by use of other pertinent data or may have a special enumeration made of any block or blocks using the standards of the United States Census. If the population of any block or blocks is so determined, the reapportionment commission may assume that the remainder of the census tract has the remaining population shown by the census. In every such case, the determination of the reapportionment commission as to population shall be conclusive, unless clearly contrary to the census.

Sec. 46. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 17 to 23 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 47. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 383C.33; 383C.331; 383C.332; 383C.333; 383C.334; 383C.335; 383C.336; 383C.337; 383C.338; 383C.34, are repealed.

Sec. 48. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 7 and 8 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 12 is effective the day after the Dakota county board complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3. Section 26 is effective for the city of New Brighton the day after its governing body complies with section 645.021, subdivision 3. Subdivision 1. [FISCAL YEAR 1992.] The training and experience index for fiscal year 1992 shall be constructed in the following manner:

(b) For all teachers in the state, the average salary per full-time-equivalent shall be computed for each cell of the matrix.

The department shall use statistical methods to ensure continuously increasing ratios as cells are higher in training or experience.

(d) The index for each district shall be equal to the weighted average of the ratios assigned to the full-time-equivalent teachers in each district.

Subd. 2. [1993 AND LATER.] The training and experience index for fiscal year 1993 and later fiscal years must be constructed in the following manner:

(a) The department shall construct a matrix that classifies teachers by the extent of training received in accredited institutions of higher education and by the years of experience that districts take into account in determining teacher salaries.

(b) The average salary for each cell of the matrix must be computed as follows using data from the second year of the previous biennium:

(1) For each school district, multiply the salary paid to full-time equivalent teachers with that combination of training and experience according to the district's teacher salary schedule by the number of actual pupil units in that district.

(2) Add the amounts computed in clause (1) for all districts in the state and divide the resulting sum by the total number of actual pupil units in all districts in the state that employ teachers.

(c) For each cell in the matrix, compute the ratio of the average salary in that cell to the average salary for all teachers in the state. (e) "Qualifying high school" means a high school that has an isolation index greater than 23 and that has secondary average daily membership of less than 400.

(f) "Qualifying elementary school" means an elementary school that is located ~~20~~ 19 miles or more from the nearest elementary school or from the nearest elementary school within the district and, in either case, has an elementary average daily membership of an average of 20 or fewer per grade.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.24, is amended to read:

124A.24 [GENERAL EDUCATION LEVY EQUITY.]

If a district's general education levy is determined according to section 124A.23, subdivision 3, an amount must be deducted from state aid authorized in this chapter and chapter 124, receivable for the same school year, and from other state payments receivable for the same school year authorized in chapter 273. The aid in section 124.646 must not be reduced.

The amount of the deduction equals the difference between:

(2) the district's general education revenue, excluding supplemental revenue, for the same school year, according to section 124A.22.

However, ~~for fiscal year 1989, the amount of the deduction shall be one-fourth of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); for fiscal year 1990, the amount of the deduction shall be one-third of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); for fiscal year 1991, the amount of the deduction shall be one-half of the difference between clauses (1) and (2);~~ for fiscal year 1992, the amount of the deduction shall be four-sixths of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); and for fiscal year 1993, the amount of the deduction shall be five-sixths of the difference between clauses (1) and (2).

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.26, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE REDUCTION.] A district's general education revenue for a school year shall be reduced if the estimated net unappropriated operating fund balance as of June 30 in the prior school year exceeds $600 times the fund balance pupil units in the prior year. For purposes of this subdivision only, fund balance pupil units means the number of resident pupil units in average daily membership ~~enrolled in the district~~, including shared time pupils, according to section 124A.02, subdivision 20, plus

(1) pupils attending the district for which general education aid adjustments are made according to section 124A.036, subdivision 5; minus

(2) the sum of the resident pupils attending other districts for which general education aid adjustments are made according to section 124A.036, subdivision 5, ~~and excluding~~ plus pupils for whom payment is made according to section 126.22, subdivision 8, or 126.23. The amount of the reduction shall equal the lesser of:

(1) the amount of the excess, or

(2) $150 times the actual pupil units for the school year.

The final adjustment payments made under section 124.195, subdivision 6, must be adjusted to reflect actual net operating fund balances as of June 30 of the prior school year.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~GENERAL~~ STAFF DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT PROGRAMS.] (a) Of a district's basic revenue under section 124A.22, subdivision 2, an amount equal to ~~$10~~ $15 times the number of actual pupil units shall be reserved and may be used only to provide staff time for peer review under section 125.12 or 125.17 or staff development programs for outcome-based education, according to section 126.70, subdivisions 1 and 2a. Staff development revenue may be used only for staff time for peer review or outcome-based education activities. The school board shall determine ~~which programs~~ the staff development activities to provide, the manner in which they will be provided, and the extent to which other ~~money~~ local funds may be used ~~for the programs~~ to supplement staff development activities that implement outcome-based education.

(b) Of a district's basic revenue under section 124A.22, subdivision 2, an amount equal to $5 times the number of actual pupil units must be reserved and may be used only to provide parental involvement programs that implement section 124C.61.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.30, is amended to read:

124A.30 [STATEWIDE AVERAGE REVENUE.]

By October 1 of each year the commissioner shall estimate the statewide average general education revenue per actual pupil unit and the range in general education revenue among pupils and districts by computing the difference between the fifth and ninety-fifth percentiles of general education revenue. The commissioner must provide that information to all school districts.

If the disparity in general education revenue as measured by the difference between the fifth and ninety-fifth percentiles increases in any year, the commissioner must propose a change in the general education formula that will limit the disparity in general education revenue to no more than the disparity for the previous school year. The commissioner must submit the proposal to the education committees of the legislature by January 15.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 298.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] (a) 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (d) must be allocated to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) 5.5 cents per taxable ton must be distributed to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in subdivision 2.

(c)(i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under paragraph (e), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts in which the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit for school districts receiving aid under this clause as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district that receives a distribution under sections 298.018; 298.23 to 298.28, exclusive of any amount received under this clause; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values that is less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution shall receive a distribution equal to the difference; the amount necessary to make this payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(d) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by paragraph (c) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in paragraph (c) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988, the increase over the amount established for 1987 shall be determined as if there had been an increase in the tax rate under section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), according to the increase in the implicit price deflator. On July 15, 1989, and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $175 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the sum of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision ~~2~~ 1g, in the previous year, plus the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 1i, in the previous year, plus the referendum aid according to section 124A.03, subdivision 1h, for the current year, to the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by paragraph (d) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $175 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (d) shall not be applied to reduce general education aid which the district receives pursuant to section 124A.23 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in subdivision 11.

Each district receiving money according to this paragraph shall reserve $25 times the number of pupil units in the district. It may use the money only for outcome-based learning programs that enhance the academic quality of the district's curriculum. The programs must be approved by the commissioner of education.

(e) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

Sec. 28. [MORATORIUM ON REFERENDUM INCREASES.]

A school district or an education district may not conduct an election in 1991 under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), or 124B.03, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), for property taxes payable in 1992. (d) The commissioner shall prioritize applications and grant authority to hold an election to districts in the following order:

(1) districts that are in statutory operating debt and have an approved plan or have received an extension from the department to file a plan to eliminate the statutory operating debt;

(2) districts that have referendum levy authority expiring in fiscal year 1992 or that have a documented hardship; and

(3) all other districts.

(e) The commissioner must approve, deny, or modify each district's application for referendum levy authority by August 31, 1991.

Sec. 30. [BADGER SCHOOL DISTRICT FUND BALANCE.]

If independent school district No. 676, Badger, receives payment of delinquent property taxes and the payment is more than five percent of the total property taxes paid in the fiscal year in which the payment is received, general education revenue for the district shall not be reduced according to Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.26, subdivision 1, for an excess fund balance for the following two fiscal years.

Sec. 31. [LEVY RECOGNITION DIFFERENCES.]

For each school district that levies under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, the commissioner of education shall calculate the difference between:

(a) the total amount of the levy, under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, that is recognized as revenue for fiscal year 1992 according to section 1; and

(b) the amount of the levy, under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, that would have been recognized as revenue for fiscal year 1992 had the percentage according to section 1 not been increased.

The commissioner shall reduce other aids due the district by the amount of the difference. The total reduction is transferred to the appropriation for general and supplemental education aid in this article.

Sec. 32. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

The resident district is not required to provide or pay for transportation between the pupil's residence and the border of the nonresident district. A parent may be reimbursed by the nonresident district for the costs of transportation from the pupil's residence to the border of the nonresident district if the pupil is from a family whose income is at or below the poverty level, as determined by the federal government. The reimbursement may not exceed the pupil's actual cost of transportation or 15 cents per mile traveled, whichever is less. Reimbursement may not be paid for more than 250 miles per week.

At the time a nonresident district notifies a parent or guardian that an application has been accepted under subdivision 5 or 6, the nonresident district must provide the parent or guardian with the following information regarding the transportation of nonresident pupils under this section:

The state board of education shall establish guidelines for providing state aid to districts to reimburse the parent or guardian for the necessary transportation costs, which shall be based on financial need. The reimbursement may not exceed the pupil's actual cost of transportation or 15 cents per mile traveled, whichever is less. Reimbursement may not be paid for more than 250 miles per week. However, if the nearest post-secondary institution is more than 25 miles from the pupil's resident secondary school, the weekly reimbursement may not exceed the reimbursement rate per mile times the actual distance between the secondary school and the nearest post-secondary institution times ten. The state shall pay aid to the district according to the guidelines established under this subdivision. Chapter 14 does not apply to the guidelines.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.195, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

[TO AND FROM SCHOOL; BETWEEN SCHOOLS.] (a) State transportation aid is authorized for transportation or board of resident elementary pupils who reside one mile or more from the public schools which they could attend; transportation or board of resident secondary pupils who reside two miles or more from the public schools which they could attend; transportation to and from schools the resident pupils attend according to a program approved by the commissioner of education, or between the schools the resident pupils attend for instructional classes; transportation of resident elementary pupils who reside one mile or more from a nonpublic school actually attended; transportation of resident secondary pupils who reside two miles or more from a nonpublic school actually attended; but with respect to transportation of pupils to nonpublic schools actually attended, only to the extent permitted by sections 123.76 to 123.79; transportation of a pupil who is a custodial parent and that pupil's child between the pupil's home and the child care provider and between the provider and the school, if the home and provider are within the attendance area of the school. State transportation aid is not authorized for late transportation home from school for pupils involved in after school activities. State transportation aid is not authorized for summer program transportation except as provided in subdivision 8.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a district may designate a licensed day care facility, respite care facility, the residence of a relative, or the residence of a person chosen by the pupil's parent or guardian as the home of a pupil for part or all of the day, if requested by the pupil's parent or guardian and if that facility or residence is within the attendance area of the school the pupil attends.

(c) State transportation aid is authorized for transportation to and from school of an elementary pupil who moves during the school year within an area designated by the district as a mobility zone, but only for the remainder of the school year. The attendance areas of schools in a mobility zone must be contiguous. To be in a mobility zone, a school must meet both of the following requirements:

~~(i)~~ (1) more than 50 percent of the pupils enrolled in the school are eligible for free or reduced school lunch; and

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] ~~Each district's predicted base cost determined for the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base years according to subdivision 3 shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE for that year.~~

~~(a) If the base cost of the district is within five percent of the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to the base cost.~~

~~(b) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent greater than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 105 percent of the predicted base cost, plus 40 percent of the difference between (i) the base cost, and (ii) 105 percent of the predicted base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be less than 80 percent of base cost.~~

~~(c) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent less than the~~

~~predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 95 percent of the predicted base cost, minus 40 percent of the difference between (i) 95 percent of predicted base cost, and (ii) the base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be more than 120 percent of base cost.~~

~~(d) For the 1988-1989 base year and later years,~~ Each district's predicted base cost determined according to subdivision 3a must be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted predicted base cost for that year. The adjusted predicted base cost equals 50 percent of the district's base cost plus 50 percent of the district's predicted base cost, but the adjusted predicted base cost cannot be less than 80 percent, nor more than ~~110~~ 105 percent, of the base cost.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] ~~The adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 4.1 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1988-1989 school year and by 5.8 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1989-1990 school year.~~ The adjusted predicted base cost determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year must be increased by ~~5.4~~ 4.0 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the ~~1990-1991~~ 1991-1992 school year and by 2.0 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1992-1993 school year, but the regular transportation allowance for a district cannot be less than the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 1, paragraph (t).

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7d, is amended to read:

Subd. 7d. [TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] ~~Beginning in the 1990-1991 school year, the~~ Transportation revenue for each district equals the sum of the district's regular transportation revenue and the district's nonregular transportation revenue.

(a) The regular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 7b times the sum of the number of FTE's transported by the district in the regular ~~and~~, desegregation, and handicapped categories in the current school year.

(b) The nonregular transportation revenue for each district for the 1991-1992 school year equals the lesser of the district's actual costs in the 1991-1992 school year for nonregular transportation services or the product of the district's actual cost in the ~~current~~ 1990-1991 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the 1991-1992 school year to the district's average daily membership for the 1990-1991 school year according to section 124.17, subdivision 2, times 1.03, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation ~~category~~ and handicapped categories in the current school year, plus the excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1991-1992 school year according to subdivision 7e.

(c) For the 1992-1993 and later school years, the nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the lesser of the district's actual cost in the current school year for nonregular transportation services or the product of the district's actual cost in the base year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the current year to the district's average daily membership for the base year according to section 124.17, subdivision 2, times the nonregular transportation inflation factor for the current year, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation and handicapped categories in the current school year, plus the excess nonregular transportation revenue for the current year according to subdivision 7e. The nonregular transportation inflation factor for the 1992-1993 school year is 1.061.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7e. [EXCESS NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] (a) A district's excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1991-1992 school year equals an amount equal to 80 percent of the difference between:

(1) the district's actual cost in the 1991-1992 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), and

(2) the product of the district's actual cost in the 1990-1991 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times 1.15, times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the 1991-1992 school year to the district's average daily membership for the 1990-1991 school year.

(b) A district's excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1992-1993 school year and later school years equals an amount equal to 80 percent of the difference between:

(1) the district's actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), and

(2) the product of the district's actual cost in the base year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times 1.30, times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the current year to the district's average daily membership for the base year.

(c) The state total excess nonregular transportation revenue must not exceed $2,000,000 for the 1991-1992 school year and $2,000,000 for the 1992-1993 school year. If the state total revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b) exceeds the limit set in this paragraph, the excess nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b), times the ratio of the limitation set in this paragraph to the state total revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) ~~For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, a district's transportation aid is equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid under subdivision 8b, its nonregular transportation~~

~~aid under subdivision 8i, and its nonregular transportation levy equalization aid under subdivision 8j, minus its contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k and minus its basic transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5.~~

(1) the difference between the transportation revenue and the sum of:

(i) the maximum basic transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5, plus

(ii) the maximum nonregular transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5c, plus

(iii) the contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k,

(2) times the ratio of the sum of the actual amounts levied under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, to the sum of the permitted maximum levies under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c.

~~(c)~~ (b) If the total appropriation for transportation aid for any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the transportation levy of off-formula districts in the same proportion.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 8k, is amended to read:

Subd. 8k. [CONTRACTED SERVICES AID REDUCTION.] (a) Each year, a district's transportation aid shall be reduced according to the provisions of this subdivision, if the district contracted for some or all of the transportation services provided in the regular category.

(b) ~~For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, the department of education shall compute this subtraction by conducting the multiple regression analysis specified in subdivision 3 and computing the district's aid under two circumstances, once including the coefficient of the factor specified in subdivision 4b, clause (3), and once excluding the coefficient of that factor. The aid subtraction shall equal the difference between the district's aid computed under these two circumstances.~~

~~(c) For 1990-1991 and later school years,~~ The department of education shall determine the subtraction by computing the district's regular transportation revenue, excluding revenue based on the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 1, paragraph (t), under two circumstances, once including the factor specified in subdivision 3a, ~~clause~~ paragraph (c), and once excluding the factor. The aid subtraction equals the difference between the district's revenue computed under the two circumstances.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DEPRECIATION.] Any school district that owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the undesignated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the reserved fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 20 percent of the original cost of each type three bus included in the district's authorized cost under the provisions of subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (4), until the original cost of each type three bus is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid or levy is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the district's transportation revenue under subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BASIC TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] Each year, a school district may levy for school transportation services an amount not to exceed the amount raised by the basic transportation tax rate times the adjusted net tax capacity of the district for the preceding year. ~~The basic transportation tax rate for fiscal year 1991 is 2.04 percent. Beginning in 1990,~~ The commissioner of revenue shall establish the basic transportation tax rate and certify it to the commissioner of education by July 1 of each year for levies payable in the following year. The basic transportation tax rate shall be a rate, rounded up to the nearest hundredth of a percent, that, when applied to the adjusted net tax capacity of taxable property for all districts, raises the amount specified in this subdivision. The basic transportation tax rate for transportation shall be the rate that raises ~~$66,700,000~~ $64,300,000 for fiscal year 1993 and $68,000,000 for fiscal year ~~1992~~ 1994 and subsequent fiscal years. The basic transportation tax rate certified by the commissioner of revenue must not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted net tax capacity after the tax rate has been certified.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] ~~(a) In the 1989 and 1990 fiscal years, if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 in a district attributable to the fiscal year exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, the district's levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. In the second year following each fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, and the amount of any subtraction made from special state aids pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 2, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.~~

~~(b) For 1991 and later fiscal years,~~ In a district if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 attributable to that fiscal year is more than the difference between (1) the district's transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d, and (2) the sum of the district's maximum nonregular levy under subdivision 5c and the district's contracted services aid reduction under section 124.225, subdivision 8k, and the amount of any reduction due to insufficient appropriation under section 124.225, subdivision 8a, the district's transportation levy in the second year following each fiscal year must be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, is amended to read:

Subd. 5c. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may also make a levy for unreimbursed nonregular transportation costs pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall be the result of the following computation:

(a) multiply

(1) the amount of the district's nonregular transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d, that is more than the product of ~~$30~~ $60 times the district's ~~actual pupil units~~ average daily membership, by

(2) ~~60~~ 50 percent;

(b) subtract the result in clause (a) from the district's total nonregular transportation revenue;

(c) multiply the result in clause (b) by the lesser of one or the ratio of (i) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted net tax capacity of the district for the year before the year the levy is certified by the ~~actual pupil units~~ average daily membership in the district for the school year to which the levy is attributable, to (ii) ~~$7,258~~ $8,000.

Sec. 18. [LEVY ADJUSTMENT.]

The department of education shall adjust the 1991 levy for each school district by the amount of the change in the district's nonregular transportation levy for fiscal year 1992 according to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, resulting from the changes to nonregular transportation revenue and levy under sections 5, 10, 11, and 17. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 121.904, the entire amount of this levy must be recognized as revenue for fiscal year 1992.

Sec. 19. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] For transportation aid according to Minnesota Statutes, section 124.225:

$1,500,000 in fiscal year 1992 and $1,000,000 in fiscal year 1993 are for desegregation costs not funded in the regular or nonregular transportation formulas. The department shall allocate these amounts in proportion to the unfunded desegregation costs. Any excess of the 1992 amount is not available for transfer under Minnesota Statutes, section 124.14, subdivision 7 and is available for unfunded desegregation costs in 1993.

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION AID FOR POST-SECONDARY ENROLLMENT OPTIONS.] For transportation of pupils attending post-secondary institutions according to Minnesota Statutes, section 123.3514:

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER AUTHORITY.] If the appropriation in subdivision 3 or 4 for either year exceeds the amount needed to pay the state's obligation for that year under that subdivision, the excess amount may be used to make payments for that year under the other subdivision.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER AUTHORITY: FISCAL YEAR 1990 APPROPRIATION.] If the appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 2, section 8, subdivision 3 or 4 for fiscal year 1990, exceeds the amount needed to pay the state's obligation under that subdivision, the excess amount may be used to make payments under the other subdivision.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment, and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program, or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause ~~(d)~~ (e) at the district's initiative;

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a). The conciliation process shall not be used to deny or delay a parent or guardian's right to a due process hearing. If the parent or guardian refuses efforts by the district to conciliate the dispute with the school district, the requirement of an opportunity for conciliation shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(d) The commissioner shall establish a mediation process to assist parents, school districts, or other parties to resolve disputes arising out of the identification, assessment, or educational placement of handicapped children. The mediation process must be offered as an informal alternative to the due process hearing provided under clause (e), but must not be used to deny or postpone the opportunity of a parent or guardian to obtain a due process hearing.

(e) Parents, guardians, and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted by and in the school district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules, if the parent or guardian continues to object to:

(1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;

(3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;

(4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or

(5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with the person's objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

~~(e)~~ (f) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause ~~(d)~~ (e) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause ~~(f)~~ (g).

The local decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;

(3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;

(4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and

(5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

~~(f)~~ (g) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses ~~(d)~~ (e) and ~~(e)~~ (f) may be appealed to the hearing review officer within 30 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall issue a final independent decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within ~~30~~ 60 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) include findings and conclusions; and

(3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

~~(g)~~ (h) The decision of the hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

~~(h)~~ (i) The commissioner of education~~, having delegated general supervision of special education to the appropriate staff,~~ shall ~~be~~ select an individual who has the qualifications enumerated in this paragraph to serve as the hearing review officer ~~except for appeals in which~~:

(1) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must be knowledgeable and impartial;

(2) the individual must not have a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing;

~~(2)~~ (3) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing;

~~(3)~~ (4) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing;

~~(4)~~ (5) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies;

~~(5)~~ (6) the ~~appeal challenges~~ individual must not have substantial involvement in the development of a state or local policy ~~which was developed with substantial involvement of the commissioner;~~ or procedures that are challenged in the appeal;

~~(6) the appeal challenges the actions of a department employee or official.~~

~~For any appeal to which the above exceptions apply, the state board of education shall name an impartial and competent hearing review officer~~ and

(7) the individual is not a current employee or board member of a Minnesota public school district, education district, intermediate unit or regional education agency, the state department of education, the state board of education, or a parent advocacy organization or group.

(j) In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality or competence of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

~~(i)~~ (k) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in the child's current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

~~(j)~~ (l) The child's school district of residence, a resident district, and providing district shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals under this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FOR THE HANDICAPPED.] Responsibility for special instruction and services for a visually disabled or hearing impaired child attending the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The legal residence of the child shall be the school district in which the child's parent or guardian resides.

(b) When it is determined pursuant to section 128A.05, subdivision 1 or 2 that the child is entitled to attend either school, the state board shall provide the appropriate educational program for the child. The state board shall make a tuition charge to the child's district of residence for the cost of providing the program. The amount of tuition charged shall not exceed the basic revenue of the district for that child, for the amount of time the child is in the program. For purposes of this subdivision, "basic revenue" has the meaning given it in section 124A.22, subdivision 2. The district of the child's residence shall pay the tuition and may claim general education aid for the child. The district of the child's residence shall not receive aid pursuant to section 124.32, subdivision 5, for tuition paid pursuant to this subdivision. ~~All~~ Tuition received by the state board, except for tuition received under clause (c), shall be deposited in the state treasury as provided in clause (g).

(c) In addition to the tuition charge allowed in clause (b), the academies may charge the child's district of residence for the academy's unreimbursed cost of providing an instructional aide assigned to that child, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan. Tuition received under this clause must be used by the academies to provide the required service.

~~(c)~~ (d) When it is determined that the child can benefit from public school enrollment but that the child should also remain in attendance at the applicable school, the school district where the institution is located shall provide an appropriate educational program for the child and shall make a tuition charge to the state board for the actual cost of providing the program, less any amount of aid received pursuant to section 124.32. The state board shall pay the tuition and other program costs including the unreimbursed transportation costs. Aids for handicapped children shall be paid to the district providing the special instruction and services. Special transportation shall be provided by the district providing the educational program and the state shall reimburse such district within the limits provided by law.

~~(d)~~ (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and ~~(c)~~ (d), the state board may agree to make a tuition charge for less than the amount specified in clause (b) for pupils attending the applicable school who are residents of the district where the institution is located and who do not board at the institution, if that district agrees to make a tuition charge to the state board for less than the amount specified in clause ~~(c)~~ (d) for providing appropriate educational programs to pupils attending the applicable school.

~~(e)~~ (f) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and ~~(c)~~ (d), the state board may agree to supply staff from the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind to participate in the programs provided by the district where the institutions are located when the programs are provided to students in attendance at the state schools.

(g) On May 1 of each year, the state board shall count the actual number of Minnesota resident elementary students and the actual number of Minnesota resident secondary students enrolled and receiving education services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind. The state board shall deposit in the state treasury an amount equal to all tuition received less:

(1) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of elementary students to the total number of students on May 1, times the general education formula allowance; plus

(2) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of secondary students on May 1 to the total number of students on May 1, times 1.3, times the general education formula allowance.

(h) The sum provided by the calculation in clause (g), subclauses (1) and (2), must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general operation account of the academy for the deaf and the academy for the blind.

(i) There is annually appropriated to the department of education for the Faribault academies the tuition amounts received and credited to the general operation account of the academies under this section.

Sec. 3. [120.173] [ALTERNATIVE DELIVERY OF SPECIALIZED INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER APPROVAL.] The commissioner of education may approve applications from school districts to provide prevention services as an alternative to special education and other compensatory programs during three school years. A district with an approved program may provide instruction and services in a regular education classroom to eligible pupils. Pupils eligible to participate in the program are low-performing pupils who, based on documented experience, the professional judgment of a classroom teacher, or a team of licensed professionals, would eventually qualify for special education instruction or related services under section 120.17 if the intervention services authorized by this section were unavailable. Pupils may be provided services during extended school days and throughout the entire year.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION CONTENTS.] The application must set forth:

(1) instructional services available to eligible pupils under section 124.311, subdivision 3, and handicapped pupils under section 120.03;

(2) criteria to select pupils for the program and the assessment procedures to determine eligibility;

(3) involvement in the program of parents of pupils in the program, parent advocates, and community special education advocates;

(4) accounting procedures to document that federal special education money is used to supplement or increase the level of special education instruction and related services provided with state and local revenue, but in no case to supplant the state and local revenue, and that districts are expending at least the amount for special education instruction and related services required by federal law;

(5) the role of regular and special education teachers in planning and implementing the program; and

(6) other information requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The application shall also set forth the review and evaluation procedures to be used by the district addressing at least the following:

(1) the number of handicapped and nonhandicapped pupils served;

(2) the impact of the program on the academic progress and social adjustment of the pupils;

(3) the level of satisfaction teachers, parents, and pupils have with the program;

(4) the effect of the program on the number of referrals for special education, federal chapter 1, and other programs;

(5) the amount of time spent by teachers on procedural activities;

(6) the increased amount of time the pupil is in a regular education classroom; and

(7) cost implications.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW FOR EXCESS EXPENDITURES.] The commissioner shall review each application to determine whether the personnel, equipment, supplies, residential aid, and summer school are necessary to meet the district's obligation to provide special instruction and services to handicapped children according to section 120.17. The commissioner shall not approve revenue for any expenditures determined to be unnecessary.

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL REPORT.] Each year the district must submit to the commissioner a report containing the information described in subdivision 3 and section 124.311, subdivision 7.

Subd. 6. [PUPIL RIGHTS.] A pupil participating in the program must be individually evaluated according to the pupil's actual abilities and needs. A pupil who is eligible for services under section 120.17 is entitled to procedural protections provided under Public Law Number 94-142 in any matter that affects the identification, evaluation, placement, or change in placement of a pupil. The district must ensure the protection of a pupil's civil rights, provide equal educational opportunities, and prohibit discrimination. Failure to comply with this subdivision will at least cause a district to become ineligible to participate in the program. Notwithstanding rules of the state board of education, a pupil's rights under this section cannot be waived by the state board.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.181, is amended to read:

120.181 [TEMPORARY PLACEMENTS FOR CARE AND TREATMENT OF NONHANDICAPPED PUPILS.]

The responsibility for providing instruction and transportation for a nonhandicapped pupil who has a short-term or temporary physical or emotional illness or disability, as determined by the standards of the state board, and who is temporarily placed for care and treatment for that illness or disability, shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The school district of residence of the pupil shall be the district in which the pupil's parent or guardian resides or the district designated by the commissioner of education if neither parent nor guardian is living within the state.

(b) Prior to the placement of a pupil for care and treatment, the district of residence shall be notified and provided an opportunity to participate in the placement decision. When an immediate emergency placement is necessary and time does not permit resident district participation in the placement decision, the district in which the pupil is temporarily placed, if different from the district of residence, shall notify the district of residence of the emergency placement within 15 days of the placement.

(c) When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed for care and treatment in a day program and the pupil continues to live within the district of residence during the care and treatment, the district of residence shall provide instruction and necessary transportation for the pupil. The district may provide the instruction at a school within the district of residence, at the pupil's residence, or in the case of a placement outside of the resident district, in the district in which the day treatment program is located by paying tuition to that district.

(d) When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed in a residential program for care and treatment, the district in which the pupil is placed shall provide instruction for the pupil and necessary transportation within that district while the pupil is receiving instruction, and in the case of a placement outside of the district of residence, the nonresident district shall bill the district of residence for the actual cost of providing the instruction for the regular school year and for summer school, excluding transportation costs. When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed in a residential program outside the district of residence, the administrator of the court placing the pupil shall send timely written notice of the placement to the district of residence.

(e) The district of residence shall receive general education aid for the pupil and pay tuition and other instructional costs, excluding transportation costs, to the district providing the instruction. Transportation costs shall be paid by the district providing the transportation and the state shall pay transportation aid to that district. For purposes of computing state transportation aid, pupils governed by this subdivision shall be included in the handicapped transportation category.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.273, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [TEACHERS SALARIES.] Each year the state shall pay a school district a portion of the salary~~, calculated from the date of hire,~~ of one full-time equivalent teacher for each 45 pupils of limited English proficiency enrolled in the district. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the state shall pay a portion of the salary~~, calculated from the date of hire,~~ of one-half of a full-time equivalent teacher to a district with 22 or fewer pupils of limited English proficiency enrolled. The portion for a full-time teacher shall be the lesser of ~~61~~ 55.2 percent of the salary or ~~$17,000~~ $15,320. The portion for a part-time or limited-time teacher shall be the lesser of ~~61~~ 55.2 percent of the salary or the product of ~~$17,000~~ $15,320 times the ratio of the person's actual employment to full-time employment.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.311, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBLE SERVICES.] Assurance of mastery revenue must be used to provide direct instructional services to an eligible pupil, or group of eligible pupils, under the following conditions:

(a) Instruction may be provided at one or more grade levels from kindergarten through grade 8. If an assessment of pupils' needs within a district demonstrates that the eligible pupils in grades kindergarten through 8 are being appropriately served, a district may serve eligible pupils in grades 9 through 12.

(b) Instruction must be provided in the usual and customary classroom of the eligible pupil.

(c) Instruction must be provided under the supervision of the eligible pupil's regular classroom teacher. Instruction may be provided by the eligible pupil's classroom teacher, by another teacher, by a team of teachers, or by an education assistant or aide. A special education teacher may provide instruction, but instruction that is provided under this section is not eligible for aid under section 124.32.

(d) The instruction that is provided must differ from the initial instruction the pupil received in the regular classroom setting. The instruction may differ by presenting different curriculum than was initially presented in the regular classroom, or by presenting the same curriculum:

(1) at a different rate or in a different sequence than it was initially presented;

(2) using different teaching methods or techniques than were used initially; or

(3) using different instructional materials than were used initially.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.32, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [TEACHERS SALARIES.] (a) Each year the state shall pay to a district a portion of the salary of each essential person employed in the district's program for handicapped children during the regular school year, whether the person is employed by one or more districts. The state shall also pay to the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind a part of the salary of each instructional aide assigned to a child attending the academy, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan.

(b) For the 1991-1992 school year, the portion for a full-time person shall be an amount not to exceed the lesser of ~~60~~ 56.4 percent of the salary or ~~$16,727~~ $15,700. The portion for a part-time or limited-time person shall be an amount not to exceed the lesser of ~~60~~ 56.4 percent of the salary or the product of ~~$16,727~~ $15,700 times the ratio of the person's actual employment to full-time employment.

The portion for a part-time or limited-time person is an amount not to exceed the lesser of 55.2 percent of the salary or the product of $15,320 times the ratio of the person's actual employment to full-time employment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.32, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SUMMER SCHOOL.] The state shall pay aid for summer school programs for handicapped children on the basis of subdivisions 1b, 1d, and 5 for the ~~preceding~~ current school year. The state shall also pay to the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind a part of the salary of each instructional aide assigned to a child attending the academy, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan. By March 15 of each year, districts shall submit separate applications for program and budget approval for summer school programs. The review of these applications shall be as provided in subdivision 7. By May 1 of each year, the commissioner shall approve, disapprove or modify the applications and notify the districts of the action and of the estimated amount of aid for the summer school programs.

Sec. 9. [124.321] [SPECIAL EDUCATION LEVY EQUALIZATION REVENUE.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY EQUALIZATION REVENUE.] Special education levy equalization revenue for a school district, excluding an intermediate school district, equals the sum of the following amounts:

(1) 66 percent of the salaries paid to essential personnel in that district minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to that district for salaries of these essential personnel under section 124.32, subdivisions 1b and 10, for the year to which the levy is attributable, plus

(2) 66 percent of the salaries paid to essential personnel in that district minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to that district for salaries of those essential personnel under section 124.574, subdivision 2b, for the year to which the levy is attributable, plus

(3) 61 percent of the salaries paid to limited English proficiency program teachers in that district minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to that district for salaries of these teachers under section 124.273, subdivision 1b, for the year to which the levy is attributable, plus

(4) the alternative delivery levy revenue determined according to section 10, subdivision 4, plus

(5) the amount allocated to the district by special education cooperatives or intermediate districts in which it participates according to subdivision 2.

A district that receives alternative delivery levy revenue according to section 10, subdivision 4, shall not receive levy equalization revenue under clause (1) or subdivision 2, clause (1), for the same fiscal year.

Subd. 2. [REVENUE ALLOCATION FROM COOPERATIVES AND INTERMEDIATE DISTRICTS.] (a) For purposes of this section, a special education cooperative or an intermediate district shall allocate to participating school districts the sum of the following amounts:

(1) 66 percent of the salaries paid to essential personnel in that cooperative or intermediate district minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to that cooperative or intermediate district for salaries of these essential personnel under section 124.32, subdivisions 1b and 10, for the year to which the levy is attributable, plus

(2) 66 percent of the salaries paid to essential personnel in that district minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to that district for salaries of those essential personnel under section 124.574, subdivision 2b, for the year to which the levy is attributable, plus

(b) A special education cooperative or an intermediate district that allocates amounts to participating school districts under this subdivision must report the amounts allocated to the department of education.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind each year shall allocate an amount equal to 66 percent of salaries paid to instructional aides in either academy minus the amount of state aid and any federal aid, if applicable, paid to either academy for salaries of these instructional aides under sections 124.32, subdivisions 1b and 10, for the year to each school district that assigns a child with an individual education plan requiring an instructional aide to attend either academy. The school districts that assign a child who requires an instructional aide may make a levy in the amount of the costs allocated to them by either academy.

(d) When the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind allocates unreimbursed portions of salaries of instructional aides among school districts that assign a child who requires an instructional aide, for purposes of the districts making a levy under this subdivision, the academy shall provide information to the department of education on the amount of unreimbursed costs of salaries it allocated to the school districts that assign a child who requires an instructional aide.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL EDUCATION LEVY.] To receive special education levy revenue, a district may levy an amount equal to the district's special education levy equalization revenue as defined in subdivision 1 multiplied by the lesser of one, or the ratio of:

(1) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted net tax capacity of the district for the year preceding the year the levy is certified by the actual pupil units in the district for the school year to which the levy is attributable, to

(2) $3,540.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL EDUCATION LEVY EQUALIZATION AID.] A district's special education levy equalization aid is the difference between its special education levy equalization revenue and its special education levy. If a district does not levy the entire amount permitted, special education levy equalization aid must be reduced in proportion to the actual amount levied.

Subd. 5. [PRORATION.] In the event that the special education levy equalization aid for any year is prorated, a district having its aid prorated may levy an additional amount equal to the amount not paid by the state due to proration.

Sec. 10. [124.322] [ALTERNATIVE DELIVERY REVENUE.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] A district is eligible for alternative delivery revenue if the commissioner of education has approved the application of the district according to section 3.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF ALTERNATIVE DELIVERY REVENUE.] For the first fiscal year after approval of an application, a district shall receive the sum of the revenue it received for the preceding fiscal year for its special education program under sections 124.32, subdivisions 1b, 2, 5, and 10, and Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 8c, or section 9, subdivisions 1 and 2, as applicable, multiplied by 1.03. For each of the next two fiscal years, the district shall receive the amount it received for the previous fiscal year multiplied by 1.03.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE DELIVERY AID.] *For the first fiscal year after approval of an application, a district shall receive the sum of the aid it received for the preceding fiscal year under section 124.32, subdivisions 1b, 2, 5, and 10, multiplied by 1.03. The aid for the first year of revenue shall not be prorated. For each of the next two fiscal years, the district shall receive the amount of aid it received for the previous fiscal year multiplied by 1.03. The percentage is to be determined with reference to the number of registered voters in the school district on the last day before the petition is filed with the school board. The petition must call for a referendum on the question of whether to issue the bonds for the projects under this section. The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this section.

The bonds may be issued in a principal amount, that when combined with interest thereon, will be paid off with 50 percent of current and anticipated revenue for capital facilities under this section or a successor section for the current year plus projected revenue not greater than the current year for the next ten years. Once finally authorized, the district must set aside 50 percent of the current year's revenue for capital facilities under this section or a successor section each year in a separate account until all principal and interest on the bonds is paid. The district must annually transfer this amount from its capital fund to the debt redemption fund. The bonds must be paid off within ten years of issuance. The bonds must be issued in compliance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except as otherwise provided in this section.

The aggregate principal amount of any bonds issued under this section in calendar year 1992 must not exceed $12,700,000 and in calendar years 1993 to 1996 must not exceed $9,000,000 each year. Issuance of the bonds is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58 or 475.59. As with other bonds issued by independent school district No. 625, the first sentence of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 5, does not apply to issuance of the bonds. The bonds must otherwise be issued as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The authority to issue bonds under this section is in addition to any bonding authority authorized by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or other law. The amount of bonding authority authorized under this section must be disregarded in calculating the bonding or net debt limits of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or any other law other than Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 4.*

Subd. 2. [TAX LEVY FOR DEBT SERVICE.] To pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under subdivision 1, independent school district No. 625 must levy a tax annually in an amount required under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3. The notice must be mailed at least 15 days but not more than 30 days before the meeting. Notice of the meeting must also be posted in the administrative office of the school district and must be published twice during the 14 days before the meeting in the official newspaper of the city in which the school district is located.

(b) The notice must contain the following information:

The commissioner may reduce the excess that a district owes the state if a district's capital loan is outstanding and if the commissioner determines that any of the following conditions apply:

(1) a district is likely to incur a substantial property tax delinquency that will adversely affect the district's ability to make its scheduled bond payments;

(2) a district's agreement with its bondholders or its taxpayers could be impaired; or

(3) the district's tax capacity per pupil is less than one-tenth of the equalizing factor as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.02, subdivision 8.

EDUCATION ORGANIZATION AND COOPERATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SEVERANCE PAY.] A district shall pay severance pay to a teacher who is~~:~~

~~(1)~~ placed on unrequested leave of absence by the district ~~because the teacher's position is discontinued~~ as a result of an agreement under this section~~; and~~

(2) has a continuing contract with the district according to section 125.12, subdivision 4.

The amount of severance pay shall be equal to the teacher's salary for the school year during which the teacher was placed on unrequested leave of absence minus the gross amount the teacher was paid during the 12 months following the teacher's termination of salary, by an entity whose teachers by statute or rule must possess a valid Minnesota teaching license, and minus the amount a teacher receives as severance or other similar pay according to a contract with the district or district policy. These entities include, but are not limited to, the school district that placed the teacher on unrequested leave of absence, another school district in Minnesota, an education district, an intermediate school district, an ECSU, a board formed under section 471.59, a technical college, a state residential academy, the Minnesota center for arts education, a vocational center, or a special education cooperative. A teacher may decline any offer of employment as a teacher without loss of rights to severance pay.

To determine the amount of severance pay that is due for the first six months following termination of the teacher's salary, the district may require the teacher to provide documented evidence of the teacher's employers and gross earnings during that period. The district shall pay the teacher the amount of severance pay it determines to be due from the proceeds of the levy for this purpose. To determine the amount of severance pay that is due for the second six months of the 12 months following the termination of the teacher's salary, the district may require the teacher to provide documented evidence of the teacher's employers and gross earnings during that period. The district shall pay the teacher the amount of severance pay it determines to be due from the proceeds of the levy for this purpose.

A teacher who receives severance pay under this subdivision waives all further reinstatement rights under section 125.12, subdivision 6a or 6b. If the teacher receives severance pay, the teacher shall not receive credit for any years of service in the district paying severance pay prior to the year in which the teacher becomes eligible to receive severance pay.

The severance pay ~~shall be equivalent to the teacher's salary for one year and~~ is subject to section 465.72. The district may levy annually according to section 275.125, subdivision 4, for the severance pay.

Payment of the amount appropriated shall be to school districts. Each school district shall receive a payment equal to:*

The school district is liable only until the obligation or debt is discharged and only according to the payment schedule in effect on the effective date of this section, except that the payment schedule may be altered for the purpose of restructuring debt or refunding bonds outstanding on the effective date of this section if the annual payments of the school district are not increased and if the total obligation of the school district for its share of outstanding bonds or other debt is not increased.

(c) To cease participating in or providing financial support for any of the services or activities relating to the agreement or to terminate participation in the agreement, the school board shall adopt a resolution and notify other parties to the agreement of its decision on or before February 1 of any year. (d) Before issuing bonds or incurring other debt, the governing body responsible for implementing the agreement shall adopt a resolution proposing to issue bonds or incur other debt and the proposed financial effect of the bonds or other debt upon each participating district. The resolution shall be adopted within a time sufficient to allow the school board to adopt a resolution within the time permitted by this paragraph and to comply with the statutory deadlines set forth in article 9, section 33, and sections 125.12 and 125.17. (1) its concurrence with issuing bonds or incurring other debt;

(2) its intention to cease participating in or providing financial support for the service or activity related to the bonds or other debt; or

(3) its intention to terminate participation in the agreement.

A school board adopting a resolution according to clause (1) is liable for its share of bonded indebtedness or other debt as proposed by the governing body implementing the agreement. A school board adopting a resolution according to clause (2) is not liable for the bonded indebtedness or other debt, as proposed by the governing body, related to the services or activities in which the district ceases participating or providing financial support. A school board adopting a resolution according to clause (3) is not liable for the bonded indebtedness or other debt proposed by the governing body implementing the agreement.

(e) After the effective date of this section, a district is liable according to paragraph (d) for its share of bonded indebtedness or other debt incurred by the governing body implementing the agreement to the extent that the bonds or other debt are directly related to the services or activities in which the district participates or for which the district provides financial support. The district has continued liability only until the obligation or debt is discharged and only according to the payment schedule in effect at the time the governing body implementing the agreement provides notice to the school board, except that the payment schedule may be altered for the purpose of refunding the outstanding bonds or restructuring other debt if the annual payments of the district are not increased and if the total obligation of the district for the outstanding bonds or other debt is not increased.

Subd. 4a. [REORGANIZATION OPERATING DEBT LEVIES.] *(a) A district that is cooperating or has combined according to sections 122.241 to 122.248 may levy to eliminate reorganization operating debt as defined in section 3, clause (1). The amount of the debt must be certified over a period of five years. The amount of debt must be certified over a period not to exceed five years and may be spread either only on the property in the newly created or enlarged district which was taxable in the preexisting district that incurred the debt or on all of the taxable property in the newly created or enlarged district.

Sec. 17. [122.5311] [OBLIGATIONS UPON DISTRICT REORGANIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CAPITAL LOAN OBLIGATIONS.] If a district has a capital loan outstanding at the time of reorganization according to section 122.22, 122.23, or sections 122.241 to 122.248, and if the plan for reorganization provides for payment of all or a portion of the capital loan obligation by the newly created or enlarged district or makes no provision for payment, all of the taxable property in the newly created or enlarged district is taxable for the payment to the extent stated in the plan. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, if all of the taxable property in the newly created or enlarged district is taxable for the payment of the capital loan and until the capital loan is retired or cancelled, the maximum effort debt service levy shall be recalculated annually by the department of education to be equal to the required debt service levy plus an additional amount. The additional amount shall be the greater of:

(i) zero, or

(ii) the maximum effort debt service levy of the preexisting district minus the required debt service levy of the preexisting district that received the capital loan.

For the purpose of the recalculation, additional bond issues after the date of the reorganization shall not impact the maximum effort debt service levy or the required debt service levy.

Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, the plan for reorganization may specify that the obligation for a capital loan remains solely with the preexisting district that incurred the obligation. This subdivision does not relieve any property from any tax liability for payment of any capital loan obligation.

Subd. 2. [ENERGY LOAN OBLIGATIONS.] If a district has an energy loan outstanding at the time of reorganization according to section 122.22, 122.23, or sections 122.241 to 122.248, and if the plan for reorganization provides for payment of all or a portion of the energy loan obligation by the newly created or enlarged district or makes no provision for payment, all of the taxable property in the newly created or enlarged district is taxable for the payment.

Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, the plan for reorganization may specify that the obligation for an energy loan remains solely with the preexisting district that incurred the obligation. This subdivision does not relieve any property from any tax liability for payment of any energy loan obligation.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 122.535, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SEVERANCE PAY.] A district shall pay severance pay to a teacher who is:

~~(1)~~ placed on unrequested leave of absence by the district ~~because the teacher's position is discontinued~~ as a result of the agreement; ~~and~~

~~(2) not employed by another district for the school year following the teacher's placement on unrequested leave of absence~~. A teacher is eligible under this subdivision if the teacher:

(1) is a teacher, as defined in section 125.12, subdivision 1, but not a superintendent;

(2) has a continuing contract with the district according to section 125.12, subdivision 4.

The amount of severance pay shall be equal to the teacher's salary for the school year during which the teacher was placed on unrequested leave of absence minus the gross amount the teacher was paid during the 12 months following the teacher's termination of salary, by an entity whose teachers by statute or rule must possess a valid Minnesota teaching license, and minus the amount a teacher receives as severance or other similar pay according to a contract with the district or district policy. These entities include, but are not limited to, the school district that placed the teacher on unrequested leave of absence, another school district in Minnesota, an education district, an intermediate school district, an ECSU, a board formed under section 471.59, a technical college, a state residential academy, the Minnesota center for arts education, a vocational center, or a special education cooperative. These entities do not include a school district in another state, a Minnesota public post-secondary institution, or a state agency. Only amounts earned by the teacher as a substitute teacher or in a position requiring a valid Minnesota teaching license shall be subtracted. A teacher may decline any offer of employment as a teacher without loss of rights to severance pay.

To determine the amount of severance pay that is due for the first six months following termination of the teacher's salary, the district may require the teacher to provide documented evidence of the teacher's employers and gross earnings during that period. The district shall pay the teacher the amount of severance pay it determines to be due from the proceeds of the levy for this purpose. To determine the amount of severance pay that is due for the second six months of the 12 months following the termination of the teacher's salary, the district may require the teacher to provide documented evidence of the teacher's employers and gross earnings during that period. The district shall pay the teacher the amount of severance pay it determines to be due from the proceeds of the levy for this purpose.

A teacher who receives severance pay under this subdivision waives all further reinstatement rights under section 125.12, subdivision 6a or 6b. If the teacher receives severance pay, the teacher shall not receive credit for any years of service in the district paying severance pay prior to the year in which the teacher becomes eligible to receive severance pay.

The severance pay ~~shall be equivalent to the teacher's salary for one year and~~ is subject to section 465.72. The district may levy annually according to section 275.125, subdivision 4, for the severance pay.

However, districts maintaining school for fewer than the required minimum number of days do not lose state aid (1) if the circumstances causing loss of school days below the required minimum number of days are beyond the control of the board, (2) if proper evidence is submitted, and (3) if a good faith attempt made to make up time lost due to these circumstances. The loss of school days resulting from a lawful employee strike shall not be considered a circumstance beyond the control of the board. Days devoted to meetings authorized or called by the commissioner may not be included as part of the required minimum number of days of school. For grades 1 to 12, ~~not more than five~~ days ~~may be~~ devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development opportunities as part of the required minimum number of days must not exceed the difference between the number of days required in subdivision 1b and the number of instructional days required in subdivision 1b. For kindergarten, ~~not more than ten~~ days ~~may be~~ devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development opportunities as part of the required minimum number of days must not exceed twice the number of days for grades 1 to 12.

General education revenue for a pupil in an approved alternative program without an independent study component must be prorated for a pupil participating for less than a full school year, or its equivalent.

General education revenue for a pupil in an approved alternative program that has an independent study component must be paid for each hour of teacher contact time and each hour of independent study time completed toward a credit necessary for graduation. Average daily membership for a pupil shall equal the number of hours of teacher contact time and independent study time divided by ~~1,020 hours~~ the product of the number of instructional days required for that year and six, but not more than one, except as otherwise provided in section 121.585.

For an alternative program having an independent study component, the commissioner shall require a description of the courses in the program, the kinds of independent study involved, the expected learning outcomes of the courses, and the means of measuring student performance against the expected outcomes.
