Sec. 3. [245A.092] [INTERPRETIVE GUIDELINES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of human services may make, adopt, and publish interpretive guidelines. An "interpretive guideline" is a policy statement that has been published pursuant to subdivision 5 and that provides interpretation, details, or supplementary information concerning the application of law or rules. An interpretive guideline is published for the information and guidance of consumers, providers of service, county social service agencies, the department of human services, and others concerned.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT.] An interpretive guideline does not have the force and effect of law and has no precedential effect, but may be relied on by consumers, providers of service, and others concerned until revoked or modified. An interpretive guideline may be expressly revoked or modified by the commissioner, by the issuance of an interpretive guideline, but may not be revoked or modified retroactively to the detriment of the consumers, providers of services, county social service agencies, the department of human services, and others concerned. A change in the law or an interpretation of the law, whether in the form of a statute, court decision, administrative rule, or interpretive guideline, which occurs after an interpretive guideline is issued, results in revocation or modification of the guideline to the extent that the changed law affects the guideline.

Subd. 3. [RETROACTIVITY.] An interpretive guideline is interpretive of existing law and is retroactive to the effective date of the applicable law provision unless otherwise stated in the guideline.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE.] The issuance of an interpretive guideline is at the discretion of the commissioner of human services. The commissioner shall establish procedures governing the issuance of interpretive guidelines.

Subd. 5. [PUBLICATION.] The commissioner shall publish interpretive guidelines in the State Register and in any other manner that makes them accessible to the general public. The commissioner may charge a reasonable fee for the publications. Interpretive guidelines are effective upon publication in the State Register.

Sec. 4. [REVISION OF RULES GOVERNING RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS.]

Prior to September 1, 1992, the commissioner shall begin the process of revising Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0215 to 9525.0355, in accordance with the procedures set out in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14.

Sec. 5. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE.]

The commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 31, 1993, on progress with respect to the following: (1) development of a single rule containing policy directives and common goals and outcomes for all licensed programs for persons with mental retardation or related conditions; (2) increasing efficiency in completion of vulnerable adult and maltreatment of minor investigations, in licensed programs, in consultation with the commissioner of health; and (3) development of a technical assistance project to assist providers in avoiding negative license actions."

Delete the title and insert:

S.F. No. 2555: A bill for an act relating to education: establishing a higher education savings plan; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 136A.121, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 290.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 136A.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN AMOUNTS FROM ELIGIBILITY CALCULATIONS.] In determining student eligibility for a state grant, the value of allocation units in the higher education savings incentive fund established in section 2 shall be excluded from determination of family assets, and the amount received upon redemption shall be excluded from income. Principal and interest on United States savings bonds used to finance higher education shall also be excluded up to the amount excluded from federal income taxation.

Sec. 2. [290.137] [HIGHER EDUCATION SAVINGS PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The governor and legislature believe higher education is becoming more important to survival and success in an increasingly competitive and complex job market. Future jobs will require more education beyond the high school level. Given this, the earlier parents start saving for their children's education, the better prepared they will be to provide for their children's future. Providing information and opportunities to increase family saving for higher education is in the public interest.

Subd. 2. [OPTION FOR TAKING INCOME TAX AND PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS IN THE FORM OF UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS.] Every individual who is eligible for either a refund of payments made for the Minnesota individual income tax or a property tax refund may elect to take all or a portion of the refund in the form of United States savings bonds. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to engage in transactions necessary to provide the refund of bonds authorized by this subdivision. The commissioner of revenue, in consultation with the higher education coordinating board, shall include in the instructions for filing income taxes and property tax refund claims information about the present and future costs of higher education, the importance of beginning early to save for these expenses, alternative strategies for saving, and a description of current federal law relating to the taxation of earnings on United States savings bonds used for financing higher education.

Subd. 3. [HIGHER EDUCATION SAVINGS INCENTIVE FUND.] There shall be created in the state treasury a higher education savings incentive fund.

Deposits to the fund may come from gifts from corporations, individuals, or foundations designated for the fund.

Assets of the fund shall be managed by the state board of investment. Assets of the fund shall be used only for providing savings incentive grants to taxpayers taking refunds in the form of United States savings bonds through the option established in subdivision 2, and to taxpayers providing evidence, at the time of tax payment or refund application, that they purchased United States savings bonds during the tax year for which the tax form or refund form applies.

The executive director of the higher education coordinating board shall manage the allocation of investment earnings of the fund, and manage disbursements from the fund. The executive director shall annually award allocation units to eligible purchasers of United States savings bonds based on the following principles or constraints:

(1) one allocation unit shall be awarded for every $1 of face value of bonds purchased or taken as a refund, but no more than 4,000 allocation units per child may be awarded to an eligible purchaser in any cohort year;

(2) eligible purchasers of United States savings bonds within a given year shall comprise a cohort identifiable by the year;

(3) the saving incentive fund assets associated with any year's cohort shall be the smaller of:

(i) the accumulated assets not associated with any prior year's cohort; or

(ii) the number of allocation units for the cohort; and

(4) to be eligible for allocation units, the modified adjusted federal gross income of a filer purchasing United States savings bonds cannot exceed the modified adjusted gross income for which full exclusion of savings bond interest from federal taxation applies for the filer's filing status group.

Final allocation units applicable to returns due by April 15 will be announced as soon as possible after April 15.

The state board of investment may invest the assets of the fund in those securities it deems appropriate.

An individual who has been awarded allocation units for a yearly cohort may redeem the units for a savings incentive grant only upon submission of proof that United States savings bonds were cashed in for purposes of meeting the costs of higher education, and that the holder of the bonds was eligible for a full or partial exclusion of savings bond interest from federal taxation. The individual's savings incentive grant shall be calculated as the smaller of:

(i) the product of the total investment earnings for the cohort times the ratio of the individual's allocation units for the cohort to the total allocation units for the cohort; or

(ii) the amount of interest earned on the United States savings bonds for which the individual was awarded allocation units. Allocation units not redeemed within 25 years of award shall be cancelled.

An individual must certify that amounts received from the savings incentive fund will be used for post-secondary educational purposes.

The state pledges and agrees with all contributors to the higher education savings incentive fund to use the funds contributed solely for providing incentives to individuals for saving for the future costs of higher education.

The higher education coordinating board may adopt rules necessary to implement this subdivision.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

(a) Section 1 is effective July 1, 1994, for grants awarded for the 1994-1995 academic year.

(b) Section 2, subdivisions 1 and 2, are effective on the day following final enactment. Provisions relating to income tax forms or property tax refund forms will be effective for the forms used to file for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1992.

(c) Section 2, subdivision 3, is effective no earlier than July 1, 1993, for share awards allocated after July 1, 1994, if the following conditions are met:

(1) the federal Internal Revenue Service has formally issued opinions, rulings, or determinations that:

(i) individual, corporate, or foundation contributions to the higher education savings incentive fund will be exempt from federal taxation under current rules relating to contributions to charitable organizations;

(ii) the board of investment will not be obligated to pay taxes on any income earned on contributions to the higher education savings incentive fund;

(iii) shares allocated to individuals under the conditions established in section 2, subdivision 3, will be exempt from taxation prior to the time the shares are cashed in; and

(iv) address the taxability of income derived by individuals at the time they cash in the shares that have been allocated to them; and

(2) the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy has determined that:

(i) the annual costs of administering individual accounts and managing assets in the higher education savings incentive fund will not exceed one percent of the value of estimated assets; and

(ii) there is a high probability that annual contributions to the fund will be at least $5,000,000.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

“Sec. 13. [115A.5501] [REDUCTION OF PACKAGING IN WASTE.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEWIDE WASTE PACKAGING REDUCTION GOAL.] It is the goal of the state that there be a minimum 25 percent statewide per capita reduction in the amount of discarded packaging delivered to solid waste composting, incineration, refuse derived fuel and disposal facilities by July 1, 1995, based on a reasonable estimate of the amount of packaging that was delivered to solid waste composting, incineration, and disposal facilities in fiscal year 1992.

Subd. 2. [MEASUREMENT; PROCEDURES.] To measure the overall percentage of packaging in the statewide solid waste stream, the commissioner and the chair of the metropolitan council, in consultation with the director, shall each conduct an annual four-season solid waste composition study in the nonmetropolitan and metropolitan areas respectively or shall develop an alternative statistically reliable method to measure the percentage of packaging in the waste stream.

Beginning in 1992, the chair of the council shall submit the results from the metropolitan area to the commissioner by August 15 of each year. The commissioner shall average the nonmetropolitan and metropolitan results and submit the statewide percentage, along with a statistically reliable margin of error, to the director by August 31 of each year. The director shall report the information to the legislative commission on waste management by November 15 of each year.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY COOPERATION AND REPORTS.] The owner or operator of a solid waste composting, incineration, refuse derived fuel or disposal facility shall allow access upon reasonable notice to authorized office, agency, or metropolitan council staff for the purpose of conducting waste composition studies or otherwise assessing the amount of total packaging in the waste delivered to the facility under this section.

Beginning in 1992, by August 1 of each year the owner or operator of a facility governed by this subdivision shall submit a report to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, information specifying the total amount of solid waste received by the facility between July 1 of the previous year and June 30 of the year the report is made. The commissioner shall calculate the total amount of solid waste delivered to solid waste facilities from the reports received from the facility owners or operators and shall report the aggregate amount to the director by August 31 of each year. The commissioner shall assess a nonforgivable administrative penalty under section 116.072 of $500 plus any forgivable amount necessary to enforce this subdivision on any owner or operator who fails to submit a report required by this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The director shall apply the statewide percentage determined under subdivision 2 to the aggregate amount of solid waste determined under subdivision 3 to determine the amount of packaging in the waste stream. By November 15, 1995, the director shall submit to the legislative commission on waste management an analysis of the extent to which the waste packaging reduction goal in subdivision 1 has been met. In determining whether the goal has been met, the margin of error must be applied in favor of meeting the goal."

(b) "Agency" means the pollution control agency.

(c) "Minor modification" means a physical or operational change that does not increase the rated energy production capacity of a solid fuel fired boiler and which does not involve capital costs in excess of 20 percent of a new solid fuel fired boiler having the same rated capacity.

~~(c)~~ (d) "Refuse derived fuel" means a product resulting from the processing of mixed municipal solid waste in a manner that reduces the quantity of noncombustible material present in the waste, reduces the size of waste components through shredding or other mechanical means, and produces a fuel suitable for combustion in existing or new solid fuel fired boilers.

~~(d)~~ (e) "Solid fuel fired boiler" means a device that is designed to combust solid fuel, including but not limited to: wood, coal, biomass, or lignite to produce steam or heat water.

Subd. 2. [USE OF REFUSE DERIVED FUEL.] (a) Existing or new solid fuel fired boilers may utilize refuse derived fuel in an amount up to 30 percent by weight of the fuel feed stream under the following conditions:

(1) utilization of refuse derived fuel involves no modification or only minor modification to the solid fuel fired boiler;

(2) utilization of refuse derived fuel does not cause a violation of emissions limitations or ambient air quality standards applicable to the solid fuel fired boiler;

(3) the solid fuel fired boiler has a valid permit to operate; ~~and~~

(4) the refuse derived fuel:

(i) is produced by a facility for which a permit was issued by the agency before June 1, 1991; or

(ii) is produced by an agency-permitted facility designed as part of a regional waste management system, and the refuse derived fuel producer has contracted with an end user to combust the fuel; and

(5) the owner or operator of the solid fuel fired boiler gives prior written notice to the commissioner of the agency of the amount of refuse derived fuel expected to be used and the date on which the use is expected to begin.

(b) A facility that produces refuse derived fuel that is sold for use in a solid fuel fired boiler may accept waste for processing only from counties that provide for the removal of household hazardous waste from the waste.

(c) The agency may not require, as a condition of using refuse derived fuel under this section, any additional monitoring or testing of a solid fuel fired boiler's air emissions beyond the monitoring or testing required by statute or by the terms of the solid fuel fired boiler's permit issued by the agency, if any.

(b) Utilization review organizations must not routinely request copies of medical records for all patients reviewed. In performing prospective and concurrent review, copies of the pertinent portion of the medical record should be required only when a difficulty develops in certifying the medical necessity or appropriateness of the admission or extension of stay.

(c) Utilization review organizations may request copies of medical records retrospectively for a number of purposes, including auditing the services provided, quality assurance review, ensuring compliance with the terms of either the health benefit plan or the provider contract, and compliance with utilization review activities. Except for reviewing medical records associated with an appeal or with an investigation or audit of data discrepancies, health care providers must be reimbursed for the reasonable costs of duplicating records requested by the utilization review organization for retrospective review unless otherwise provided under the terms of the provider contract.

Subd. 3. [DATA ELEMENTS.] Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 16, for purposes of certification a utilization review organization must limit its data requirements to the following elements:

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.] A utilization review organization may request information in addition to that described in subdivision 3 when there is significant lack of agreement between the utilization review organization and the health care provider regarding the appropriateness of certification during the review or appeal process. For purposes of this subdivision, "significant lack of agreement" means that the utilization review organization has:

- (1) tentatively determined through its professional staff that a service cannot be certified;
- (2) referred the case to a physician for review; and
- (3) talked to or attempted to talk to the attending physician for further information.

Nothing in sections 1 to 16 prohibits a utilization review organization from requiring submission of data necessary to comply with the quality assurance and utilization review requirements of chapter 62D or other appropriate data or outcome analyses.

Subd. 5. [SHARING OF INFORMATION.] To the extent allowed under sections 72A.49 to 72A.505, a utilization review organization shall share all available clinical and demographic information on individual patients internally to avoid duplicate requests for information from enrollees or providers.

Sec. 5. [62M.05] [PROCEDURES FOR REVIEW DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [WRITTEN PROCEDURES.] A utilization review organization must have written procedures to ensure that reviews are conducted in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and section 72A.20, subdivision 4a.

Subd. 2. [CONCURRENT REVIEW.] A utilization review organization may review ongoing inpatient stays based on the severity or complexity of the patient's condition or on necessary treatment or discharge planning activities. Such review must not be consistently conducted on a daily basis.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF DETERMINATIONS.] A utilization review organization must have written procedures for providing notification of its determinations on all certifications in accordance with the following:

(a) When an initial determination is made to certify, notification must be provided promptly by telephone to the provider.

(b) When a determination is made not to certify a hospital or surgical facility admission or extension of a hospital stay, or other service requiring review determination, within one working day after making the decision the attending physician and hospital must be notified by telephone and a written notification must be sent to the hospital, attending physician, and enrollee or patient. The written notification must include the principal reason or reasons for the determination and the process for initiating an appeal of the determination. Reasons for a determination not to certify may include, among other things, the lack of adequate information to certify after a reasonable attempt has been made to contact the attending physician.

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO PROVIDE NECESSARY INFORMATION.] A utilization review organization must have written procedures to address the failure of a health care provider, patient, or representative of either to provide the necessary information for review. If the patient or provider will not release the necessary information to the utilization review organization, the utilization review organization may deny certification in accordance with its own policy or the policy described in the health benefit plan.

Sec. 6. [62M.06] [APPEALS OF DETERMINATIONS NOT TO CERTIFY.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES FOR APPEAL.] A utilization review organization must have written procedures for appeals of determinations not to certify an admission, procedure, service, or extension of stay. The right to appeal must be available to the enrollee or designee and to the attending physician. The right of appeal must be communicated to the enrollee or designee or to the attending physician, whomever initiated the original certification request, at the time that the original determination is communicated.

Subd. 2. [EXPEDITED APPEAL.] When an initial determination not to certify a health care service is made prior to or during an ongoing service requiring review, and the attending physician believes that the determination warrants immediate appeal, the utilization review organization must ensure that the attending physician, enrollee, or designee has an opportunity to appeal the determination over the telephone on an expedited basis. In such an appeal, the utilization review organization must ensure reasonable access to its consulting physician. Expedited appeals that are not resolved may be resubmitted through the standard appeal process.

Subd. 3. [STANDARD APPEAL.] The utilization review organization must establish procedures for appeals to be made either in writing or by telephone.

(a) Each utilization review organization shall notify in writing the enrollee or patient, attending physician, and claims administrator of its determination on the appeal as soon as practical, but in no case later than 45 days after receiving the required documentation on the appeal.

(b) The documentation required by the utilization review organization may include copies of part or all of the medical record and a written statement from the health care provider.

(c) Prior to upholding the original decision not to certify for clinical reasons, the utilization review organization shall conduct a review of the documentation by a physician who did not make the original determination not to certify.

(d) The process established by a utilization review organization may include defining a period within which an appeal must be filed to be considered. The time period must be communicated to the patient, enrollee, or attending physician when the initial determination is made.

(e) An attending physician who has been unsuccessful in an attempt to reverse a determination not to certify shall, consistent with section 72A.285, be provided the following:

- (1) a complete summary of the review findings;*
- (2) qualifications of the reviewers, including any license, certification, or specialty designation; and*
- (3) the relationship between the enrollee's diagnosis and the review criteria used as the basis for the decision, including the specific rationale for the reviewer's decision.*

(f) In cases where an appeal to reverse a determination not to certify for clinical reasons is unsuccessful, the utilization review organization must ensure that a physician in the same or a similar general specialty as typically manages the medical condition, procedure, or treatment under discussion is reasonably available to review the case.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION TO CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR.] If the utilization review organization and the claims administrator are separate entities, the utilization review organization must forward, electronically or in writing, a notification of certification or determination not to certify to the appropriate claims administrator for the health benefit plan.

Sec. 7. [62M.07] [PRIOR AUTHORIZATION OF SERVICES.]

Utilization review organizations conducting prior authorization of services must have written standards that meet at a minimum the following requirements:

(1) written procedures and criteria used to determine whether care is appropriate, reasonable, or medically necessary;

(2) a system for providing prompt notification of its determinations to enrollees and providers and for notifying the provider, enrollee, or enrollee's designee of appeal procedures under clause (4);

(3) compliance with section 72A.20, subdivision 4a, regarding time frames for approving and disapproving prior authorization requests;

(4) written procedures for appeals of denials of prior authorization which specify the responsibilities of the enrollee and provider, and which meet the requirements of section 72A.285, regarding release of summary review findings; and

(5) procedures to ensure confidentiality of patient-specific information, consistent with applicable law.

Sec. 8. [62M.08] [CONFIDENTIALITY.]

Subdivision 1. [WRITTEN PROCEDURES TO ENSURE CONFIDENTIALITY.] A utilization review organization must have written procedures for ensuring that patient-specific information obtained during the process of utilization review will be:

(1) kept confidential in accordance with applicable federal and state laws;

(2) used solely for the purposes of utilization review, quality assurance, discharge planning, and case management; and

(3) shared only with those organizations or persons that have the authority to receive such information.

Subd. 2. [SUMMARY DATA.] Summary data is not subject to this section if it does not provide sufficient information to allow identification of individual patients.

Sec. 9. [62M.09] [STAFF AND PROGRAM QUALIFICATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [STAFF CRITERIA.] A utilization review organization shall have utilization review staff who are properly trained, qualified, and supervised.

Subd. 2. [LICENSURE REQUIREMENT.] Nurses, physicians, and other licensed health professionals conducting reviews of medical services, and other clinical reviewers conducting specialized reviews in their area of specialty must be currently licensed or certified by an approved state licensing agency in the United States.

Subd. 3. [PHYSICIAN REVIEWER INVOLVEMENT.] A physician must review all cases in which the utilization review organization has concluded that a determination not to certify for clinical reasons is appropriate. The physician should be reasonably available by telephone to discuss the determination with the attending physician.

Subd. 4. [DENTIST PLAN REVIEWS.] A dentist must review all cases in which the utilization review organization has concluded that a determination not to certify a dental service or procedure for clinical reasons is appropriate and an appeal has been made by the attending dentist, enrollee, or designee.

Subd. 5. [WRITTEN CLINICAL CRITERIA.] A utilization review organization's decisions must be supported by written clinical criteria and review procedures. Clinical criteria and review procedures must be established with appropriate involvement from physicians. A utilization review organization must use written clinical criteria, as required, for determining the appropriateness of the certification request. The utilization review organization must have a procedure for ensuring the periodic evaluation and updating of the written criteria.

Subd. 6. [PHYSICIAN CONSULTANTS.] A utilization review organization must use physician consultants in the appeal process described in section 6, subdivision 3. The physician consultants should include, as needed and available, specialists who are board-certified, or board-eligible and working towards certification, in a specialty board approved by the American Board of Medical Specialists or the American Board of Osteopathy.

Subd. 7. [TRAINING FOR PROGRAM STAFF.] A utilization review organization must have a formalized program of orientation and ongoing training of utilization review staff.

Subd. 8. [QUALITY ASSESSMENT PROGRAM.] A utilization review organization must have written documentation of an active quality assessment program.

Sec. 10. [62M.10] [ACCESSIBILITY AND ON-SITE REVIEW PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [TOLL-FREE NUMBER.] A utilization review organization must provide access to its review staff by a toll-free or collect call telephone line during normal business hours. A utilization review organization must also have an established procedure to receive timely callbacks from providers and must establish written procedures for receiving after-hour calls, either in person or by recording.

Subd. 2. [REVIEWS DURING NORMAL BUSINESS HOURS.] A utilization review organization must conduct its telephone reviews, on-site reviews, and hospital communications during hospitals' and physicians' reasonable and normal business hours, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

Subd. 3. [IDENTIFICATION OF ON-SITE REVIEW STAFF.] Each utilization review organization's staff must identify themselves by name and by the name of their organization and, for on-site reviews, must carry picture identification and the utilization review organization's company identification card. On-site reviews should, whenever possible, be scheduled at least one business day in advance with the appropriate hospital contact. If requested by a hospital or inpatient facility, utilization review organizations must ensure that their on-site review staff register with the appropriate contact person, if available, prior to requesting any clinical information or assistance from hospital staff. The on-site review staff must wear appropriate hospital supplied identification tags while on the premises.

Subd. 4. [ON-SITE REVIEWS.] Utilization review organizations must agree, if requested, that the medical records remain available in designated areas during the on-site review and that reasonable hospital administrative procedures must be followed by on-site review staff so as to not disrupt hospital operations or patient care. Such procedures, however, must not limit the ability of the utilization review organizations to efficiently conduct the necessary review on behalf of the patient's health benefit plan.

Subd. 5. [ORAL REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION.] Utilization review organizations shall orally inform, upon request, designated hospital personnel or the attending physician of the utilization review requirements of the specific health benefit plan and the general type of criteria used by the review agent. Utilization review organizations should also orally inform, upon request, hospitals, physicians, and other health care professionals of the operational procedures in order to facilitate the review process.

Subd. 6. [MUTUAL AGREEMENT.] Nothing in this section limits the ability of a utilization review organization and a provider to mutually agree in writing on how review should be conducted.

Sec. 11. [62M.11] [COMPLAINTS TO COMMERCE OR HEALTH.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 1 to 16, an enrollee may file a complaint regarding a determination not to certify directly to the commissioner responsible for regulating the utilization review organization.

Sec. 12. [62M.12] [PROHIBITION OF INAPPROPRIATE INCENTIVES.]

No individual who is performing utilization review may receive any financial incentive based on the number of denials of certifications made by such individual, provided that utilization review organizations may establish medically appropriate performance standards. This prohibition does not apply to financial incentives established between health plans and their providers.

Sec. 13. [62M.13] [SEVERABILITY.]

If any provisions of sections 1 to 16 are held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable for any reason and in any respect, the holding does not affect the validity of the remainder of sections 1 to 16.

Sec. 14. [62M.14] [EFFECT OF COMPLIANCE.]

Evidence of a utilization review organization's compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of sections 1 to 16 shall not be determinative in an action alleging that services denied were medically necessary and covered under the terms of the enrollee's health benefit plan.

Sec. 15. [62M.15] [APPLICABILITY OF OTHER CHAPTER REQUIREMENTS.]

The requirements of this chapter regarding the conduct of utilization review are in addition to any specific requirements contained in chapter 62A, 62C, 62D, or 72A.

Sec. 16. [62M.16] [RULEMAKING.]

If it is determined that rules are reasonable and necessary to accomplish the purpose of sections 1 to 16, the rules must be adopted through a joint rulemaking process by both the department of commerce and the department of health.

Subdivision 1. [COURT ORDER; HEARING ON SUSPENSION.] (a)

For purposes of this section, "licensing board" means a licensing board or other state agency that issues an occupational license.

(b) If a licensing board receives an order from a court under section 518.551, subdivision 12, dealing with suspension of a license of a person found by the court to be in arrears in child support payments, the board shall, within 30 days of receipt of the court order, provide notice to the licensee and hold a hearing. If the board finds that the person is licensed by the board and evidence of full payment of arrearages found to be due by the court is not presented at the hearing, the board shall suspend the license unless it determines that probation is appropriate under subdivision 2. The only issues to be determined by the board are whether the person named in the court order is a licensee, whether the arrearages have been paid, and whether suspension or probation is appropriate. The board may not consider evidence with respect to the appropriateness of the court order or the ability of the person to comply with the order. The board may not lift the suspension until the licensee files with the board proof showing that the licensee is current in child support payments.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.67, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Willful failure to obey the judgment or order of the court is a ~~civil~~ contempt of the court. All remedies for the enforcement of judgments apply including those available under chapters 518 and 518C and sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 and 256.871 to 256.878.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.003, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY.] Unless otherwise agreed by the parties:

(a) "Legal custody" means the right to determine the child's upbringing, including education, health care, and religious training.

(b) "Joint legal custody" means that both parents have equal rights and responsibilities, including the right to participate in major decisions determining the child's upbringing, including education, health care, and religious training.

(c) "Physical custody and residence" means the routine daily care and control and the residence of the child.

(d) "Joint physical custody" means that the routine daily care and control and the residence of the child is structured between the parties. For purposes of calculations under section 518.551, subdivision 5, joint physical custody means that a child resides not more than 60 percent of the time with either party.

(e) "Split physical custody" means that each party separately provides the routine daily care, control, and residence of one or more of the parties' children.

(f) Wherever used in this chapter, the term "custodial parent" or "custodian" means the person who has the physical custody of the child at any particular time.

(g) "Custody determination" means a court decision and court orders and instructions providing for the custody of a child, including visitation rights, but does not include a decision relating to child support or any other monetary obligation of any person.

~~(g)~~ (h) "Custody proceeding" includes proceedings in which a custody determination is one of several issues, such as an action for dissolution, divorce, or separation, and includes proceedings involving children who are in need of protection or services, domestic abuse, and paternity.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.14, is amended to read:

518.14 [COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS AND ATTORNEY FEES.]

In a proceeding under this chapter, the court shall award attorney fees, costs, and disbursements in an amount necessary to enable a party to carry on or contest the proceeding, provided it finds:

(1) that the fees are necessary for the good-faith assertion of the party's rights in the proceeding and will not contribute unnecessarily to the length and expense of the proceeding;

(2) that the party from whom fees, costs, and disbursements are sought has the means to pay them; and

(3) that the party to whom fees, costs, and disbursements are awarded does not have the means to pay them.

Nothing in this section precludes the court from awarding, in its discretion, additional fees, costs, and disbursements against a party who unreasonably contributes to the length or expense of the proceeding. Fees, costs, and disbursements provided for in this section may be awarded at any point in the proceeding, including a modification proceeding under sections 518.18 and 518.64. The court may adjudge costs and disbursements against either party. The court may authorize the collection of money awarded by execution, or out of property sequestered, or in any other manner within the power of the court. An award of attorney's fees made by the court during the pendency of the proceeding or in the final judgment survives the proceeding and if not paid by the party directed to pay the same may be enforced as above provided or by a separate civil action brought in the attorney's own name. If the proceeding is dismissed or abandoned prior to determination and award of attorney's fees, the court may nevertheless award attorney's fees upon the attorney's motion. The award shall also survive the proceeding and may be enforced in the same manner as last above provided.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] The order is binding on the employer or union and the health and dental insurance plan when service under subdivision 3 has been made. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union and its health and dental insurance plan shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled or the least costly plan otherwise available to the obligor that is comparable to a number two qualified plan. An employer or union that fails to comply with the order is liable for any health or dental expenses incurred by a parent for the child that would have been covered, had the plan been in effect, and any other premium costs incurred because the employer failed to comply with the order. An employer or union that fails to comply with the order is subject to contempt of court. Failure of the obligor to execute any documents necessary to enroll the dependent in the group health and dental insurance plan will not affect the obligation of the employer or union and group health and dental insurance plan to enroll the dependent in a plan for which other eligibility requirements are met. Information and authorization provided by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement, or by the custodial parent or guardian, is valid for the purposes of meeting enrollment requirements of the health plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subdivision 5 shall not be terminated except as authorized in subdivision 5.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.171, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [INSURER REIMBURSEMENT; CORRESPONDENCE AND NOTICE.] (a) The signature of the custodial parent of the insured dependent is a valid authorization to the insurer for purposes of processing an insurance reimbursement payment to the provider of the medical services. If a parent makes a payment for medical services for which reimbursement is required, the insurer shall pay the reimbursement directly to the parent who made the payment.

(b) The insurer shall send copies of all correspondence regarding the insurance coverage to both parents. When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated, or the insurance coverage is terminated, the insurer shall notify the obligee within ten days of the termination date with notice of conversion privileges.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In all proceedings for dissolution or legal separation, subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding and continuing thereafter during the minority of the child, the court shall, upon the request of either parent, grant such rights of visitation on behalf of ~~the~~ each child and noncustodial parent as will enable the child and the noncustodial parent to maintain a child to parent relationship that will be in the best interests of the child. In particular, the court shall consider the need of each child to spend time alone with each parent. If the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation is likely to endanger ~~the~~ any child's physical or emotional health or impair ~~the~~ any child's emotional development, the court shall restrict visitation by the noncustodial parent with that child as to time, place, duration, or supervision and may deny visitation entirely, as the circumstances warrant. The court shall consider the age of ~~the~~ each child and ~~the~~ each child's relationship with the noncustodial parent prior to the commencement of the proceeding. A parent's failure to pay support because of the parent's inability to do so shall not be sufficient cause for denial of visitation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.24, is amended to read:
518.24 [SECURITY; SEQUESTRATION; CONTEMPT.]

In all cases when maintenance or support payments are ordered, the court may require sufficient security to be given for the payment of them according to the terms of the order. Upon neglect or refusal to give security, or upon failure to pay the maintenance or support, the court may sequester the obligor's personal estate and the rents and profits of real estate of the obligor, and appoint a receiver of them. The court may cause the personal estate and the rents and profits of the real estate to be applied according to the terms of the order. The obligor is presumed to have an income from a source sufficient to pay the maintenance or support order. A child support order constitutes a finding by the court that the obligor has the ability to pay the award. If the obligor disobeys the order, it is prima facie evidence of contempt.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.54, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUPPORT MONEY; CHILD SUPPORT.] "Support money" or "child support" means:

(1) an award in a dissolution, legal separation, ~~or annulment, or parentage~~ proceeding for the care, support and education of any child of the marriage or of the parties to the ~~annulment~~ proceeding; or

(2) a contribution by parents ordered under section 256.87.

"Support money" or "child support" includes interest on arrearages under section 548.091, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.551, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE; PAYMENT TO PUBLIC AGENCY.] (a) This section applies to all proceedings involving an award of child support.

(b) The court shall direct that all payments ordered for maintenance and support be made to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement so long as the obligee is receiving or has applied for public assistance, or has applied for child support and maintenance collection services. Public authorities responsible for child support enforcement may act on behalf of other public authorities responsible for child support enforcement. This includes the authority to represent the legal interests of or execute documents on behalf of the other public authority in connection with the establishment, enforcement, and collection of child support, maintenance, or medical support, and collection on judgments. Amounts received by the public agency responsible for child support enforcement greater than the amount granted to the obligee shall be remitted to the obligee.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court ~~may~~ shall order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, ~~without regard to marital misconduct~~ considering the best interests of the child.

The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions of paragraph (h). In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom.

The court may also order the obligor to pay child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions, or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

(b) The court shall derive a specific dollar amount for child support by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Net Income Per Month of Obligor	Number of Children
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7 or more
$400 - $550 and Below	Order based on the ability of the obligor to provide support at these income levels, or at higher levels, if the obligor has the earning ability.
$401 - 500	14%	17%	20%	22%	24%	26%	28%
$501 - 550	15%	18%	21%	24%	26%	28%	30%
$551 - 600	16%	19%	22%	25%	28%	30%	32%
$601 - 650	17%	21%	24%	27%	29%	32%	34%
$651 - 700	18%	22%	25%	28%	31%	34%	36%
$701 - 750	19%	23%	27%	30%	33%	36%	38%
$751 - 800	20%	24%	28%	31%	35%	38%	40%

$951 - 1000	24%	29%	34%	38%	41%	45%	48%
$1001 - 4000	25%	30%	35%	39%	43%	47%	50%

5,000, or the amount currently in effect under paragraph (k).

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income of ~~$4,001 or more~~ in excess of the income limit currently in effect shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of ~~$4,000~~, equal to the limit. The court may apply the guideline percentages to any portion of net monthly income in excess of the income limit, but the rebuttable presumption in paragraph (i) does not apply to this additional amount. The court may order that a portion of net monthly income in excess of the applicable income limit be used to establish a trust fund for the costs of post-secondary education for the child. Payments from any trust fund must be made directly to the educational institution that the child is attending. The trust must provide that if the proceeds are not used by the time the child reaches the age of 28, the trust reverts back to the obligor.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less

- *(i) Federal Income Tax
- *(ii) State Income Tax
- (iii) Social Security Deductions

- (iv) ~~Reasonable~~
 Pension Deductions
Not to Exceed Five Percent of Gross Income

*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended

- (v) ~~Union Dues~~
 (vi) Cost of Dependent Health Insurance Coverage
That the Obligor is Required to Provide
 (vii) Cost of Individual or Group Health/
 Hospitalization Coverage or an Amount for Actual Medical Expenses
 (viii) (v) A Child Support or Maintenance Order that is Currently Being Paid.

“Net income” does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor’s spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor’s living expenses; or

(2) compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:

(i) support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(ii) the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(A) the excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;

(B) the excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

(C) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(D) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and

(E) the party’s compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.

In sole custody cases, the court shall review work-related child care expenses of the custodial parent and shall increase the amount of the child support award by an additional amount deemed reasonable and necessary for child care costs, considering the financial circumstances and needs of the parties. The court shall make written findings concerning its determination. If a party who has joint physical custody of a child has work-related child care expenses, the court shall allocate the net cost of work-related child care to each parent in proportion to each parent's share of the total combined incomes of the parents. The value of the federal and state income tax credit for child care must be subtracted from actual costs to calculate a figure for net child care costs. The court may allow the noncustodial parent to care for the child while the custodial parent is working if this arrangement is reasonable and in the best interests of the child. In all cases, the court shall determine that child care costs allocated to a parent are reasonable and necessary.

If the parties have joint physical or split physical custody of a child, the court shall compute the guideline amount owed by each party based on the percentage of time that the other party has physical custody and then adjust the guideline amount to take into account the duplicative costs inherent in maintaining two full households for the child.

~~(b)~~ (c) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of paragraph ~~(a)~~ (b), clause (2)(ii);

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

~~(4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children;~~

~~(5)~~ (4) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it; ~~and~~

~~(6)~~ (5) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph ~~(e)~~ (d); and

(6) existing or anticipated extraordinary medical expenses of the child not apportioned between the parties.

~~(e)~~ (d) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

~~(f)~~ (e) Any schedule prepared under paragraph ~~(e)~~ (d), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

~~(e)~~ (f) Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

~~(f)~~ ~~Where~~ (g) If payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

~~(g)~~ (h) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

~~(h)~~ (i) The guidelines in this subdivision are a rebuttable presumption and shall be used in all cases when establishing or modifying child support. If the court does not deviate from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings concerning the amount of the obligor's income used as the basis for the guidelines calculation and any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the determination of child support. If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings giving the reasons for the deviation and shall specifically address the criteria in paragraph ~~(b)~~ (c) and how the deviation serves the best interest of the child. The provisions of this paragraph apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court shall review stipulations presented to it for conformity to the guidelines and the court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties shall provide the documentation of earnings required under subdivision 5b.

(j) If the child support payments are assigned to the public agency under section 256.74, the court may not deviate downward from the child support guidelines unless the court specifically finds that the failure to deviate downward would impose an extreme hardship on the obligor.

(k) The dollar amount of the income limit for application of the guidelines must be adjusted on July 1 of every even-numbered year to reflect cost-of-living changes. The supreme court shall select the index for the adjustment from the indices listed in section 518.641. The state court administrator shall make the changes in the dollar amount required by this paragraph available to courts and the public on or before April 30 of the year in which the amount is to change.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.551, subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [DETERMINATION OF INCOME.] (a) The parties shall timely serve and file documentation of earnings and income. When there is a prehearing conference, the court must receive the documentation of income at least ten days prior to the prehearing conference. Documentation of earnings and income also includes, but is not limited to, pay stubs for the most recent three months, employer statements, or statement of receipts and expenses if self-employed. Documentation of earnings and income also includes copies of each parent's most recent federal tax returns, including W-2 forms, 1099 forms, unemployment compensation statements, workers' compensation statements, and all other documents evidencing income as received that provide verification of income over a longer period.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), at any time after an action seeking child support has been commenced or when a child support order is in effect, a party or the public authority may require the other party to give them their most recent federal tax returns. The party shall provide a copy of the tax returns within 30 days of receipt of the request. Failure of a party, without leave of the court, to provide the tax return as required under this paragraph is contempt of court.

(c) If a parent under the jurisdiction of the court does not appear at a court hearing after proper notice of the time and place of the hearing, the court shall set income for that parent based on credible evidence before the court or in accordance with paragraph ~~(e)~~ (d). Credible evidence may include documentation of current or recent income, testimony of the other parent concerning recent earnings and income levels, and the parent's wage reports filed with the Minnesota department of jobs and training under section 268.121.

~~(e)~~ (d) If the court finds that a parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, child support shall be calculated based on a determination of imputed income. A parent is not considered voluntarily unemployed or underemployed upon a showing by the parent that the unemployment or underemployment: (1) is temporary and will ultimately lead to an increase in income; or (2) represents a bona fide career change that outweighs the adverse effect of that parent's diminished income on the child. Imputed income means the estimated earning ability of a parent based on the parent's prior earnings history, education, and job skills, and on availability of jobs within the community for an individual with the parent's qualifications. If the court is unable to determine or estimate the earning ability of a parent, the court may calculate child support based on full-time employment of 40 hours per week at the federal minimum wage or the Minnesota minimum wage, whichever is higher. If a parent is a recipient of public assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or chapter 256D, or is physically or mentally incapacitated, it shall be presumed that the parent is not voluntarily unemployed or underemployed.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.551, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5d. [EDUCATION TRUST FUND.] If the child support order provides the child with a reasonable standard of living, the parties may agree to designate a sum of money as a trust fund for the costs of post-secondary education. The court shall advise parties that this option is available and that they may wish to consult an attorney concerning the creation of a trust. The state court administrator, in consultation with attorneys experienced in trust law, shall prepare a model trust instrument which the court administrator shall provide to parties who have minor children.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.551, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS FOR CHILD AND MEDICAL SUPPORT ORDERS.] An administrative process is established to obtain, modify, and enforce child and medical support orders and maintenance.

The commissioner of human services may designate counties to participate in the administrative process established by this section. All proceedings for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and adjudicating uncontested parentage proceedings, required to be conducted in counties designated by the commissioner of human services in which the county human services agency is a party or represents a party to the action must be conducted by an administrative law judge from the office of administrative hearings, except for the following proceedings:

- (1) adjudication of contested parentage;
- (2) motions to set aside a paternity adjudication or declaration of parentage;
- (3) evidentiary hearing on contempt motions: ~~and~~
- (4) motions to sentence or to revoke the stay of a jail sentence in contempt proceedings: and

(5) motions described in this clause. If a motion to obtain, modify, or enforce child support is filed in the district court, it must be decided by the district court. If a petition for marriage dissolution, legal separation, annulment, or determination of parentage is pending in the district court and the parties have minor children, issues relating to obtaining, modifying, and enforcing child support that arise during the pendency of the proceeding must be decided by the district court. If during the pendency of a motion or proceeding described in this clause, the county human services agency becomes a party to, or commences representation of a party in, a matter involving the support of a child whose support is also at issue in the motion or proceeding pending before the district court, the county human services agency may intervene in the district court. However, the county human services agency shall not commence proceedings concerning the support of that child before an administrative law judge, until after the district court has decided the motion or entered judgment in the proceeding pending before it.

An administrative law judge may hear a stipulation reached on a contempt motion, but any stipulation that involves a finding of contempt and a jail sentence, whether stayed or imposed, shall require the review and signature of a district judge.

For the purpose of this process, all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred on judges of the district court to obtain and enforce child and medical support obligations, subject to the limitation set forth herein, are conferred on the administrative law judge conducting the proceedings, including the power to issue orders to show cause and to issue bench warrants for failure to appear.

Before implementing the process in a county, the chief administrative law judge, the commissioner of human services, the director of the county human services agency, the county attorney, and the county court administrator shall jointly establish procedures and the county shall provide hearing facilities for implementing this process in a county.

Nonattorney employees of the public agency responsible for child support in the counties designated by the commissioner, acting at the direction of the county attorney, may prepare, sign, serve, and file complaints and motions for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and related documents, appear at prehearing conferences, and participate in proceedings before an administrative law judge. This activity shall not be considered to be the unauthorized practice of law.

The hearings shall be conducted under the rules of the office of administrative hearings, Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.7100 to 1400.7500, 1400.7700, and 1400.7800, as adopted by the chief administrative law judge. All other aspects of the case, including, but not limited to, pleadings, discovery, and motions, shall be conducted under the rules of family court, the rules of civil procedure, and chapter 518. The administrative law judge shall make findings of fact, conclusions, and a final decision and issue an order. Orders issued by an administrative law judge are enforceable by the contempt powers of the county and district courts.

The decision and order of the administrative law judge is appealable to the court of appeals in the same manner as a decision of the district court.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.551, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [~~OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE SUSPENSION.~~] Upon petition of an obligee or public agency responsible for child support enforcement, if the court finds that the obligor is in arrears in court-ordered child support payments, the court may provide for suspension of licenses as provided in this subdivision. If the court finds that the obligor is or may be licensed by a licensing board listed in section 214.01 and the obligor is in arrears in court-ordered child support payments or by any other state agency that issues an occupational license, the court may direct the licensing board or other licensing agency to conduct a hearing under section 214.101 concerning suspension of the obligor's license. If the obligor is a licensed attorney, the court may report the matter to the lawyers professional responsibility board for appropriate action in accordance with the rules of professional conduct.

The remedy under this subdivision is in addition to any other enforcement remedy available to the court.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.57, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Upon a decree of dissolution, legal separation, or annulment, the court shall make a further order which is just and proper concerning the maintenance of the minor children as provided by section 518.551, and for the maintenance of any child of the parties as defined in section 518.54, as support money; ~~and. The court may make the same any child support order a lien or charge upon the property of the parties to the proceeding, or either of them obligor,~~ either at the time of the entry of the judgment or by subsequent order upon proper application.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.57, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [OTHER CUSTODIANS.] If a child resides with a person other than a parent and the court approves of the custody arrangement, the court may order child support payments to be made to the custodian regardless of whether the person has legal custody.

Sec. 18. [518.585] [NOTICE OF INTEREST ON LATE CHILD SUPPORT.]

Any judgment or decree of dissolution or legal separation containing a requirement of child support and any determination of parentage, order under chapter 518C, order under section 256.87, or order under section 260.251 must include a notice to the parties that section 548.091, subdivision 1a, provides for interest to begin accruing on a payment or installment of child support whenever the unpaid amount due is greater than the current support due.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.611, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the order is binding on the employer, trustee, payor of the funds, or financial institution when service under subdivision 2 has been made. Withholding must begin no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of the notice. In the case of a financial institution, preauthorized transfers must occur in accordance with a court-ordered payment schedule. An employer, payor of funds, or financial institution in this state is required to withhold income according to court orders for withholding issued by other states or territories. The payor shall withhold from the income payable to the obligor the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2 and section 518.613 and shall remit, within ten days of the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income, the amounts withheld to the public authority. The payor shall identify on the remittance information the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income. The obligor is deemed to have paid the amount withheld as of the date the obligor received the remainder of the income. The financial institution shall execute preauthorized transfers from the deposit accounts of the obligor in the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2 as directed by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement.

(b) Employers may combine all amounts withheld from one pay period into one payment to each public authority, but shall separately identify each obligor making payment. Amounts received by the public authority which are in excess of public assistance expended for the party or for a child shall be remitted to the party.

(c) An employer shall not discharge, or refuse to hire, or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary withholding authorized by this section. The employer or other payor of funds shall be liable to the obligee for any amounts required to be withheld. A financial institution is liable to the obligee if funds in any of the obligor's deposit accounts identified in the court order equal the amount stated in the preauthorization agreement but are not transferred by the financial institution in accordance with the agreement. An employer or other payor of funds or a financial institution that fails to withhold or transfer funds in accordance with this section is also liable to the obligee for interest on the funds at the rate applicable to judgments under section 549.09, computed from the date the funds were required to be withheld or transferred. An employer or other payor of funds or a financial institution is liable for reasonable attorney fees of the obligee or public authority incurred in enforcing the liability under this paragraph. An employer or other payor of funds or a financial institution that has failed to comply with the requirements of this section is subject to contempt of court.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MODIFICATION; CONTEMPT.] After an order for maintenance or support money, temporary or permanent, or for the appointment of trustees to receive property awarded as maintenance or support money, the court may from time to time, on motion of either of the parties, a copy of which is served on the public authority responsible for child support enforcement if payments are made through it, or on motion of the public authority responsible for support enforcement, modify the order respecting the amount of maintenance or support money, and the payment of it, and also respecting the appropriation and payment of the principal and income of property held in trust, and may make an order respecting these matters which it might have made in the original proceeding, except as herein otherwise provided. A party or the public authority also may bring a motion for contempt of court if the obligor is in arrears in support or maintenance payments or if a party has wrongfully interfered with visitation rights.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 2. is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] (a) The terms of an order respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party or the child or children that are the subject of these proceedings; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; ~~or~~ (4) a change in the cost of living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair; or (5) extraordinary medical expenses of the child. In determining whether a child's needs have increased, the court may consider anticipated expenses for post-secondary education.

The terms of a current support order shall be rebuttably presumed to be unreasonable and unfair if the application of the child support guidelines in section 518.551, subdivision 5, to the current circumstances of the parties results in a calculated court order that is at least 20 percent and at least $50 per month higher or lower than the current support order.

(b) On a motion for modification of maintenance, including a motion for the extension of the duration of a maintenance award, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court:

(1) shall apply section 518.551, subdivision 5, and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any; and

(2) shall not consider compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(i) the excess employment began after entry of the existing support order;

(ii) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(iii) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time employment, or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fractions of an hour;

(iv) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation;

(v) in the case of an obligor, current child support payments are at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(vi) in the case of an obligor who is in arrears in child support payments to the obligee, any net income from excess employment must be used to pay the arrearages until the arrearages are paid in full.

(c) A modification of support or maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the petitioning party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party and on the public authority if public assistance is being furnished or the county attorney is the attorney of record. However, modification may be applied to an earlier period if the court makes express findings that the party seeking modification was precluded from serving a motion by reason of a significant physical or mental disability, a material misrepresentation of another party, or fraud upon the court and that the party seeking modification, when no longer precluded, promptly served a motion.

(d) Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state, including motions under section 518.145, subdivision 2. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

(e) The court need not hold an evidentiary hearing on a motion for modification of maintenance or support.

(f) Section 518.14 shall govern the award of attorney fees for motions brought under this subdivision.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FORM.] The department of human services shall prepare and make available to courts, obligors and persons to whom child support is owed a form to be submitted by the obligor or the person to whom child support is owed in support of a motion for a modification of an order for support or maintenance or for contempt of court. The rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to the preparation of the form.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 548.091, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CHILD SUPPORT JUDGMENT BY OPERATION OF LAW.] Any payment or installment of support required by a judgment or decree of dissolution or legal separation, determination of parentage, an order under chapter 518C, an order under section 256.87, or an order under section 260.251, that is not paid or withheld from the obligor's income as required under section 518.611 or 518.613, is a judgment by operation of law on and after the date it is due and is entitled to full faith and credit in this state and any other state. Interest accrues from the date the ~~judgment on the payment or installment is entered and docketed under subdivision 3a.~~ unpaid amount due is greater than the current support due at the annual rate provided in section 549.09, subdivision 1. A payment or installment of support that becomes a judgment by operation of law between the date on which a party served notice of a motion for modification under section 518.64, subdivision 2, and the date of the court's order on modification may be modified under that subdivision.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 588.20, is amended to read:

Sec. 27. [INCOME WITHHOLDING; SINGLE CHECK SYSTEM.]

The commissioner of human services, in consultation with county child support enforcement agencies, shall study and make recommendations on the feasibility of establishing a single check system under which employers who are implementing income withholding may make one combined payment for payments due to public authorities to one public authority or to the commissioner of human services. The commissioner shall estimate the cost of the single check system and the level of fees that would be necessary to make the system self-supporting. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1994.

Sec. 28. [JOINT AND SPLIT CUSTODY CHILD SUPPORT.]

The commissioner of human services' advisory committee for child support enforcement shall study and make recommendations on guidelines or formulas for the computation of child support in cases involving joint physical or split custody. The party requesting a trial by jury shall pay $30.

The fees above stated shall be the full trial fee chargeable to said parties irrespective of whether trial be to the court alone, to the court and jury, or disposed of without trial, and shall include the entry of judgment in the action, but does not include copies or certified copies of any papers so filed or proceedings under chapter 103E, except the provisions therein as to appeals.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.551, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SERVICE FEE.] When the public agency responsible for child support enforcement provides child support collection services either to a public assistance recipient or to a party who does not receive public assistance, the public agency may upon written notice to the obligor charge a monthly collection fee equivalent to the full monthly cost to the county of providing collection services, in addition to the amount of the child support which was ordered by the court. The fee shall be deposited in the county general fund. The service fee assessed is limited to ten percent of the monthly court ordered child support and shall not be assessed to obligors who are current in payment of the monthly court ordered child support. *The public agency may impose a late fee penalty at an annual rate of six percent of the unpaid support due, commencing 30 days after the end of the month when the support was due. nonpublic assistance status. The fee may be deducted from the next child support payment for the obligee collected by the public agency if the obligee is unable to pay the fee at the time of the application. Fees assessed by state and federal tax agencies for collection of overdue support owed to or on behalf of a person not receiving public assistance must be imposed on the person for whom these services are provided.

However, the limitations of this subdivision on the assessment of fees shall not apply to the extent inconsistent with the requirements of federal law for receiving funds for the programs under Title IV-A and Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 601 to 613 and United States Code, title 42, sections 651 to 662.

The commissioner of human services may designate counties to participate in the administrative process established by this section. Other counties may elect to participate in the process. All proceedings for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and adjudicating uncontested parentage proceedings, required to be conducted in counties ~~designated by the commissioner of human services that participate in the process~~ in which the county human services agency is a party or represents a party to the action must be conducted by an administrative law judge from the office of administrative hearings, except for the following proceedings:

- (1) adjudication of contested parentage;
- (2) motions to set aside a paternity adjudication or declaration of parentage;
- (3) evidentiary hearing on contempt motions; and
- (4) motions to sentence or to revoke the stay of a jail sentence in contempt proceedings.

(b) An administrative law judge may hear a stipulation reached on a contempt motion, but any stipulation that involves a finding of contempt and a jail sentence, whether stayed or imposed, shall require the review and signature of a district judge.

(c) For the purpose of this process, all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred on judges of the district court to obtain and enforce child and medical support obligations, subject to the limitation set forth herein, are conferred on the administrative law judge conducting the proceedings, including the power to issue orders to show cause and to issue bench warrants for failure to appear.

(d) Before implementing the process in a county, the chief administrative law judge, the commissioner of human services, the director of the county human services agency, the county attorney, and the county court administrator shall jointly establish procedures and the county shall provide hearing facilities for implementing this process in a county.

(e) Nonattorney employees of the public agency responsible for child support in the counties designated by the commissioner, acting at the direction of the county attorney, may prepare, sign, serve, and file complaints and motions for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and related documents, appear at prehearing conferences, and participate in proceedings before an administrative law judge. This activity shall not be considered to be the unauthorized practice of law.

(f) The hearings shall be conducted under the rules of the office of administrative hearings, Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.7100 to 1400.7500, 1400.7700, and 1400.7800, as adopted by the chief administrative law judge. All other aspects of the case, including, but not limited to, pleadings, discovery, and motions, shall be conducted under the rules of family court, the rules of civil procedure, and chapter 518. The administrative law judge shall make findings of fact, conclusions, and a final decision and issue an order. Orders issued by an administrative law judge are enforceable by the contempt powers of the county and district courts.

(g) The decision and order of the administrative law judge is appealable to the court of appeals in the same manner as a decision of the district court.

(h) The commissioner shall distribute money appropriated for this purpose to counties to cover the costs of the administrative process, including costs of administrative law judges. If available appropriations are insufficient to cover the costs, the commissioner shall prorate the amount appropriated among the counties.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.551, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. Sec. 7. [CHILD SUPPORT COMPUTER SYSTEM.]

The commissioner of human services, in consultation with county child support enforcement agencies, shall take appropriate action to ensure that the statewide computer system for the collection and enforcement of child support is operating effectively and efficiently as soon as possible. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1993, concerning the present status of the computer system, any problems in the functioning of the system statewide, and plans for correcting outstanding problems in the system by January 1, 1994.

Sec. 8. [SAVINGS DESIGNATED FOR COUNTY ADMINISTRATION.]

The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of finance shall estimate the savings to the state that will result from prohibiting downward deviations from the child support guidelines in AFDC cases. Before the end of fiscal year 1993, the amount of the estimated savings for fiscal year 1993 must be transferred from the appropriation for AFDC to the appropriation for county child support enforcement incentive grants in Laws 1991, chapter 292, article 1, section 2, subdivision 4, to be allocated to counties in the same manner as the original appropriation for fiscal year 1993. For purposes of the governor's 1994-1995 biennial budget recommendations, the amount transferred during fiscal year 1993 and any additional savings projected for the biennium as a result of prohibiting downward deviations in AFDC cases must be added to the direct legislative appropriations and considered part of the base level funding for county child support enforcement incentives.

Sec. 9. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for fiscal year 1993, to provide grants to counties for the costs of the administrative process for child and medical support orders established under Minnesota Statutes, section 518.551, subdivision 10.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The late fee penalty under section 4 is effective January 1, 1994.

CUSTODY AND VISITATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.022, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAMILY COURT PROCEEDINGS.] In all proceedings for dissolution, custody, legal separation, annulment, or parentage subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding or at any time after completion of the proceeding, and continuing thereafter during the minority of the child, the court may, upon the request of the parent or grandparent of a party, grant reasonable visitation rights to the unmarried minor child, after dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment, or determination of parentage during minority if it finds that visitation rights would be in the best interests of the child and would not interfere with the parent child relationship. The court shall consider the amount of personal contact between the parents or grandparents of the party and the child prior to the application.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.022, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [ESTABLISHMENT OF INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT AND CHILD RELATIONSHIP.] The court may not deny visitation rights under this section based on allegations that the visitation rights would interfere with the relationship between the custodial parent and the child unless the truth of the allegations is established by a preponderance of the evidence after a hearing.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.025, is amended to read:

257.025 [CUSTODY DISPUTES.]

(a) In any proceeding where two or more parties seek custody of a child the court shall consider and evaluate all relevant factors in determining the best interests of the child, including the following factors:

- (3) the child's primary caretaker;

(4) the intimacy of the relationship between each party and the child;

(5) the interaction and interrelationship of the child with a party or parties, siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

(6) the child's adjustment to home, school, and community;

(7) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;

(8) the permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;

(9) the mental and physical health of all individuals involved;

(10) the capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection, and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in the child's culture, religion, or creed, if any;

(11) the child's cultural background; and

(12) the effect on the child of the actions of an abuser, if related to domestic abuse as defined in section 518B.01, that has occurred between the parents or the parties.

The court may not use one factor to the exclusion of all others. The court must make detailed findings on each of the factors and explain how the factors led to its conclusions and to the determination of the best interests of the child.

(b) The fact that the parents of the child are not or were never married to each other shall not be determinative of the custody of the child.

(c) The court shall not consider a disability, as defined in section 363.01, of a proposed custodian or the child or conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect the custodian's relationship to the child.

(d) The court shall consider evidence of a violation of section 609.507 in determining the best interests of the child.

(e) A person may seek custody of a child by filing a petition or motion pursuant to section 518.156.

(f) Section 518.619 applies to this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.156, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(b) by a person other than a parent, where a decree of dissolution or legal separation has been entered or where none is sought by filing a petition or motion seeking custody or visitation of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where the child is found or where an earlier order for custody of the child has been entered. A person seeking visitation pursuant to this paragraph must qualify under one of the provisions of section 257.022.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD.] (a) "The best interests of the child" means all relevant factors to be considered and evaluated by the court including:

- (1) the wishes of the child's parent or parents as to custody;
- (2) the reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference;
- (3) the child's primary caretaker;
- (4) the intimacy of the relationship between each parent and the child;
- (5) the interaction and interrelationship of the child with a parent or parents, siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
- (6) the child's adjustment to home, school, and community;
- (7) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;
- (8) the permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;
- (9) the mental and physical health of all individuals involved;
- (10) the capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection, and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in the child's culture and religion or creed, if any;
- (11) the child's cultural background; and
- (12) the effect on the child of the actions of an abuser, if related to domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, that has occurred between the parents.

The court may not use one factor to the exclusion of all others. The primary caretaker factor may not be used as a presumption in determining the best interests of the child. The court must make detailed findings on each of the factors and explain how the factors led to its conclusions and to the determination of the best interests of the child.

(b) The court shall not consider a disability, as defined in section 363.01, of a proposed custodian or the child or conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect the custodian's relationship to the child.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The custodial parent shall not move the residence of the child to another state except upon order of the court or with the consent of the noncustodial parent, when the noncustodial parent has been given visitation rights by the decree. If the purpose of the move is to interfere with visitation rights given to the noncustodial parent by the decree, or if the custodial parent fails to show that the reasons for the proposed move are compelling and that the move is in the best interests of the child, the court shall not permit the child's residence to be moved to another state.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.175, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMPENSATORY VISITATION; DAMAGES.] (a) If the court finds that the noncustodial parent has been wrongfully deprived of the duly established right to visitation, the court shall order the custodial parent to permit additional visits to compensate for the visitation of which the non-custodial parent was deprived and may award damages or costs under paragraph (b) or (c). Additional visits must be:

- (1) of the same type and duration as the wrongfully denied visit;*
- (2) taken within one year after the wrongfully denied visit; and*
- (3) at a time acceptable to the noncustodial parent.*

(b) If a parent is wrongfully deprived of visitation rights or if a parent is damaged because the other parent fails to exercise scheduled visitation rights, the court may award damages to the parent based on actual expenses incurred by the parent in connection with the visitation.

(c) The court may award costs and attorney fees to a parent in an action under this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.175, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [GRANDPARENT VISITATION.] In all proceedings for dissolution or legal separation, subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding or at any time after completion of the proceeding, and continuing during the minority of the child, the court may make an order granting visitation rights to grandparents under section 257.022, subdivision 2.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518.18, is amended to read:

518.18 [MODIFICATION OF ORDER.]

(a) Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, no motion to modify a custody order may be made earlier than one year after the date of the entry of a decree of dissolution or legal separation containing a provision dealing with custody, except in accordance with paragraph (c).

(b) If a motion for modification has been heard, whether or not it was granted, unless agreed to in writing by the parties no subsequent motion may be filed within two years after disposition of the prior motion on its merits, except in accordance with paragraph (c).

(c) The time limitations prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not prohibit a motion to modify a custody order if the court finds that there is persistent and willful denial or interference with visitation, ~~or~~ if the court has reason to believe that the child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development, or if the court finds that a party with joint physical custody of the child has failed to provide physical custody in accordance with the custody order.

(d) If the court has jurisdiction to determine child custody matters, the court shall not modify a prior custody order unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior order or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior order, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the parties and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards the court shall retain the custody arrangement established by the prior order unless:

- (i) both parties agree to the modification;
- (ii) the child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the other party; ~~or~~
- (iii) the child's present environment endangers the child's physical or emotional health or impairs the child's emotional development and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child; or
- (iv) a party with joint physical custody of the child has failed to provide physical custody in accordance with the custody order.

In addition, a court may modify a custody order under section 631.52.

(e) In deciding whether to modify a prior joint custody order, the court shall apply the standards set forth in paragraph (d) unless: (1) the parties agree in writing to the application of a different standard, or (2) the party seeking the modification is asking the court for permission to move the residence of the child to another state.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICATION.]

(a) Sections 1 and 8 are effective the day following final enactment and apply to proceedings commenced or completed before, on, or after the effective date.

(b) Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment and applies to proceedings pending on or commenced on or after that date.

(c) Section 4 is effective August 1, 1992, for visitation, petitions or motions pending or filed on or after that date."

The commissioner of education may make payments on dates other than those listed in subdivision 3, but only for portions of payments from any preceding payment dates which could not be processed by the electronic funds transfer method due to documented extenuating circumstances.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124.195, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [APPEAL.] The commissioner may revise the payment dates and percentages in subdivision 3 for a district if it is determined that there is an emergency or there are serious cash flow problems in the district that cannot be resolved by issuing warrants or other forms of indebtedness or if the commissioner determines that excessive short-term borrowing costs will be incurred by a district, because of the increase in the levy recognition percentage from 37 percent to 50 percent according to sections 1 and 2, and the district can document substantial harm to instructional programs due to these costs. In determining the amount of taxes due and payable in the calendar year, any amounts paid by the state to replace such taxes, whether paid in that calendar year or not, shall be included.

Sec. 8. [124A.029] [REFERENDUM AND DESEGREGATION REVENUE CONVERSION.]

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE CONVERSION.] Except as provided under subdivision 4, the referendum authority under section 124A.03 and the levy authority under section 275.125, subdivisions 6e and 6i, of a school district must be converted by the department according to this section.

Subd. 2. [ADJUSTMENT RATIO.] For assessment years 1991, 1992, and 1993, the commissioner of revenue must determine for each school district a ratio equal to:

(1) the net tax capacity for taxable property in the district determined by applying the property tax class rates for assessment year 1990 to the market values of taxable property for each assessment year, divided by

(2) the net tax capacity of the district for the assessment year.

Subd. 3. [RATE ADJUSTMENT.] The department shall adjust a school district's referendum authority for a referendum approved before July 1, 1991, excluding authority based on a dollar amount, and the levy authority under section 275.125, subdivisions 6e and 6i, by multiplying the sum of the rates authorized by a district under section 124A.03 and the rates in section 275.125, subdivisions 6e and 6i, by the ratio determined under subdivision 2 for the assessment year for which the revenue is attributable. The adjusted rates for assessment year 1993 shall apply to later years for which the revenue is authorized.

Subd. 4. [PER PUPIL REVENUE OPTION.] A district may, by school board resolution, request that the department convert the levy authority under section 275.125, subdivisions 6e and 6i, or its current referendum revenue, excluding authority based on a dollar amount, authorized before July 1, 1991, to an allowance per pupil. The district must adopt a resolution and submit a copy of the resolution to the department by July 1, 1992. The department shall convert a district's revenue for fiscal year 1994 and later years as follows: the revenue allowance equals the amount determined by dividing the district's maximum revenue under section 124A.03 or 275.125, subdivisions 6e and 6i, for fiscal year 1993 by the district's 1992-1993 actual pupil units. A district's maximum revenue for all later years for which the revenue is authorized equals the revenue allowance times the district's actual pupil units for that year. However, if a district's referendum revenue is limited to a dollar amount, the maximum revenue under section 124A.03 must not exceed that dollar amount. If the referendum authority of a district is converted according to this subdivision, the authority expires July 1, 1997.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124A.03, subdivision 1h, is amended to read:

Subd. 1h. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION AID.] (a) A district's referendum equalization aid equals the difference between its referendum equalization revenue and levy. However, for fiscal year 1993, the aid shall be one-fourth of the difference; for fiscal year 1994, the aid shall be one-half of the difference; and for fiscal year 1995, the aid shall be three-fourths of the difference.

~~(b) For fiscal year 1993, a district's referendum equalization aid is equal to one-third of the amount calculated in clause (a).~~

~~(c) For fiscal year 1994, a district's referendum equalization aid is equal to two-thirds of the amount calculated in clause (a).~~

~~(d) If a district's actual levy for referendum equalization revenue is less than its maximum levy limit, aid shall be proportionately reduced.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM REVENUE.] (a) The revenue authorized by section 124A.22, subdivision 1, may be increased in the amount approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be conducted during the calendar year before the increased levy authority, if approved, first becomes payable. Only one election to approve an increase may be held in a calendar year. Unless the referendum is conducted by mail under paragraph (g), the referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased revenue per actual pupil unit, the estimated ~~net tax capacity~~ referendum tax rate as a percentage of market value in the first year it is to be levied, and that the revenue shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot may state that existing levy authority is expiring. In this case, the ballot may also compare the proposed levy authority to the existing expiring levy authority, and express the proposed increase as the amount, if any, over the expiring authority. The ballot shall designate the specific number of years, not to exceed five, for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the revenue proposed by (petition to) the board of School District No. be approved?"

If approved, an amount equal to the approved revenue per actual pupil unit times the actual pupil units for the school year beginning in the year after the levy is certified shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(b) The school board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the referendum to each taxpayer at the address listed on the school district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed revenue increase. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of tax increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial district.

The notice for a referendum may state that an existing referendum levy is expiring and project the anticipated amount of increase over the existing referendum levy, if any, in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

The notice must include the following statement: "Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(c) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased revenue amount authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A referendum to revoke or reduce the levy amount must be based upon the dollar amount, local tax rate, or amount per actual pupil unit, that was stated to be the basis for the initial authorization. Revenue approved by the voters of the district pursuant to paragraph (a) must be received at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one revocation or reduction referendum may be held to revoke or reduce referendum revenue for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(d) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) or (c) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the registered voters of the school district on the day the petition is filed with the school board. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held on the date specified in paragraph (a).

(e) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

(f) At least 15 days prior to the day of the referendum, the district shall submit a copy of the notice required under paragraph (b) to the commissioner of education. Within 15 days after the results of the referendum have been certified by the school board, or in the case of a recount, the certification of the results of the recount by the canvassing board, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

(g) Any referendum under this section held on a day other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November must be conducted by mail in accordance with section 204B.46. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) to the contrary, in the case of a referendum conducted by mail under this paragraph, the notice required by paragraph (b) shall be prepared and delivered by first class mail at least 20 days before the referendum.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124A.03, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SCHOOL REFERENDUM LEVY; MARKET VALUE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, a school referendum levy approved after November 1, 1992, for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, shall be levied against the market value of all taxable property. Any referendum levy amount subject to the requirements of this subdivision shall be certified separately to the county auditor under section 275.07.

~~The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy as a percentage of market value; the amount that will be raised by that new school referendum tax rate in the first year it is to be levied; and that the new school referendum tax rate shall be used to finance school operations.~~

~~If approved, the amount provided by the new school referendum tax rate applied to the market value for the year preceding the year the levy is certified, shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.~~

All other provisions of subdivision 2 that do not conflict with this subdivision shall apply to referendum levies under this subdivision.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.29, as amended by Laws 1991, chapter 265, article 1, section 25, is amended to read:

124A.29 [RESERVED REVENUE FOR STAFF DEVELOPMENT.]

TRANSPORTATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.39, subdivision 8d, is amended to read:

Subd. 8d. School districts may provide bus transportation along regular school bus routes when space is available for participants in learning readiness or early childhood family education programs if these services do not result in an increase in the district's expenditures for transportation. The costs allocated to these services, as determined by generally accepted accounting principles, shall be considered part of the authorized cost for regular transportation for the purposes of section 124.225.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.78, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [REQUEST FOR TRANSPORTATION BY NONRESIDENT DISTRICTS.] (a) In lieu of the transportation required by subdivision 1a, upon the request of the parent or guardian of a school child attending a nonpublic school in a district other than the district in which the child resides, the school board of the district in which the school is located shall provide transportation within the district for a nonresident child who resides at least the same distance from a nonpublic school actually attended in the district as public school pupils are transported in the transporting district, whether or not there is a nonpublic school in the child's resident district, if the transportation is to a school maintaining grades or departments not maintained in the district of residence or if the attendance of the child at school can more safely, economically, or conveniently be provided for by such means. The request shall be in writing and submitted to the district in which the nonpublic school is located and the district of residence. The school board may limit the transportation to regular routes and attendance areas established by the board for the purposes of transportation. The state shall pay aid to the nonresident district under section 124.225 for transportation provided according to this paragraph.

(b) A school board may provide transportation for a nonresident school child attending a nonpublic school in the district, whether or not there is a nonpublic school within the child's resident district, if the transportation is to a school maintaining grades or departments not maintained in the resident district or if the attendance of the child at school can more safely, economically, or conveniently be provided for by such means. A school board may transport a school child within the resident district only with the approval of the resident district. A parent or guardian may appeal the refusal of the resident district to the commissioner of education according to section 123.39, subdivision 6. The state shall not pay aid under section 124.225 to the nonresident district for transportation provided outside the nonresident district according to this paragraph.

(c) This subdivision does not apply to a school district located in a city of the first class or located entirely within the seven-county metropolitan area.

ARTICLE 3

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [METHOD OF SPECIAL INSTRUCTION.] (a) Special instruction and services for handicapped children must be based on the assessment and individual education plan. The instruction and services may be provided by one or more of the following methods:

~~(a)~~ (1) connection with attending regular elementary and secondary school classes;

~~(b)~~ (2) establishment of special classes;

~~(c)~~ (3) at the home or bedside of the child;

~~(d)~~ (4) in other districts;

~~(e)~~ (5) instruction and services by special education cooperative centers established under this section, or in another member district of the cooperative center to which the resident district of the handicapped child belongs;

~~(f)~~ (6) in a state residential school or a school department of a state institution approved by the commissioner;

~~(g)~~ (7) in other states;

~~(h)~~ (8) by contracting with public, private or voluntary agencies;

~~(i)~~ (9) for children under age five and their families, programs and services established through collaborative efforts with other agencies;

~~(j)~~ (10) for children under age five and their families, programs in which handicapped children are served with nonhandicapped children; and

~~(k)~~ (11) any other method approved by the commissioner.

(b) Preference shall be given to providing special instruction and services to children under age three and their families in the residence of the child with the parent or primary caregiver, or both, present.

(c) The primary responsibility for the education of a handicapped child shall remain with the district of the child's residence regardless of which method of providing special instruction and services is used. The district of residence must inform the parents of the child about the methods of instruction that are available.

(d) Paragraphs (e) to (i) may be cited as the "blind persons' literacy rights and education act."

(e) The following definitions apply to paragraphs (f) to (i).

"Blind student" means an individual who is eligible for special educational services and who:

(1) has a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses or has a limited field of vision such that the widest diameter subtends an angular distance of no greater than 20 degrees; or

(2) has a medically indicated expectation of visual deterioration.

"Braille" means the system of reading and writing through touch commonly known as standard English Braille.

"Individualized education plan" means a written statement developed for a student eligible for special education and services pursuant to this section and section 602(a)(20) of part A of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 United States Code, section 1401(a).

(f) In developing an individualized education plan for each blind student the presumption must be that proficiency in Braille reading and writing is essential for the student to achieve satisfactory educational progress. The assessment required for each student must include a Braille skills inventory, including a statement of strengths and deficits. Braille instruction and use are not required by this paragraph if, in the course of developing the student's individualized education program, team members concur that the student's visual impairment does not affect reading and writing performance commensurate with ability. This paragraph does not require the exclusive use of Braille if other special education services are appropriate to the student's educational needs. The provision of other appropriate services does not preclude Braille use or instruction. Instruction in Braille reading and writing shall be available for each blind student for whom the multidisciplinary team has determined that reading and writing is appropriate.

(g) Instruction in Braille reading and writing must be sufficient to enable each blind student to communicate effectively and efficiently with the same level of proficiency expected of the student's peers of comparable ability and grade level.

(h) The student's individualized education plan must specify:

(1) the results obtained from the assessment required under paragraph (f);

(2) how Braille will be implemented as the primary mode for learning through integration with other classroom activities;

(3) the date on which Braille instruction will begin;

(4) the length of the period of instruction and the frequency and duration of each instructional session;

(5) the level of competency in Braille reading and writing to be achieved by the end of the period and the objective assessment measures to be used; and

(6) if a decision has been made under paragraph (f) that Braille instruction or use is not required for the student:

(i) a statement that the decision was reached after a review of pertinent literature describing the educational benefits of Braille instruction and use; and

(ii) a specification of the evidence used to determine that the student's ability to read and write effectively without Braille is not impaired.

(i) Instruction in Braille reading and writing is a service for the purpose of special education and services under section 120.17.

(j) Paragraphs (e) to (i) shall not be construed to supersede any rights of a parent or guardian of a child with a disability under federal or state law.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [SCHOOL DISTRICT OBLIGATIONS.] Every district shall ensure that:

(1) all ~~handicapped children~~ students with disabilities are provided the special instruction and services which are appropriate to their needs. The student's needs and the special education instruction and services to be provided shall be agreed upon through the development of an individual education plan. The plan shall address the student's need to develop skills to live and work as independently as possible within the community. By grade 9 or age 14, the plan shall address the student's needs for transition from secondary services to post-secondary education and training, employment, ~~and~~ community participation, recreation, and leisure and home living. The plan must include a statement of the needed transition services, including a statement of the interagency responsibilities or linkages or both before secondary services are concluded;

(2) handicapped children under age five and their families are provided special instruction and services appropriate to the child's level of functioning and needs;

(3) handicapped children and their parents or guardians are guaranteed procedural safeguards and the right to participate in decisions involving identification, assessment and educational placement of handicapped children;

(4) to the maximum extent appropriate, handicapped children, including those in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with children who are not handicapped, and that special classes, separate schooling, or other removal of handicapped children from the regular educational environment occurs only when and to the extent that the nature or severity of the handicap is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary services cannot be achieved satisfactorily;

(5) in accordance with recognized professional standards, testing and evaluation materials, and procedures utilized for the purposes of classification and placement of handicapped children are selected and administered so as not to be racially or culturally discriminatory; and

(6) the rights of the child are protected when the parents or guardians are not known or not available, or the child is a ward of the state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment, and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program, or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause (e) at the district's initiative;

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a). The conciliation process shall not be used to deny or delay a parent or guardian's right to a due process hearing. If the parent or guardian refuses efforts by the district to conciliate the dispute with the school district, the requirement of an opportunity for conciliation shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(d) The commissioner shall establish a mediation process to assist parents, school districts, or other parties to resolve disputes arising out of the identification, assessment, or educational placement of handicapped children. The mediation process must be offered as an informal alternative to the due process hearing provided under clause (e), but must not be used to deny or postpone the opportunity of a parent or guardian to obtain a due process hearing.

(e) Parents, guardians, and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted by and in the school district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules, if the parent or guardian continues to object to:

(1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;

(3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;

(4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or

(5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with the person's objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

(f) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause (e) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause (g).

The local decision shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;
- (3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;
- (4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and
- (5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

(g) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses (e) and (f) may be appealed to the hearing review officer within 30 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall issue a final independent decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within ~~60~~ 30 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) include findings and conclusions; and
- (3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

(h) The decision of the hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

(i) The commissioner of education shall select an individual who has the qualifications enumerated in this paragraph to serve as the hearing review officer:

- (1) the individual must be knowledgeable and impartial;
 - (2) the individual must not have a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing;
 - (3) the individual must not have been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing;
 - (4) the individual must not have been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing;
 - (5) the individual must not have a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies;
 - (6) the individual must not have substantial involvement in the development of a state or local policy or procedures that are challenged in the appeal; and
 - (7) the individual is not a current employee or board member of a Minnesota public school district, education district, intermediate unit or regional education agency, the state department of education, the state board of education, or a parent advocacy organization or group.
- (j) In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality or competence of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

(k) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in the child's current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

(l) The child's school district of residence, a resident district, and providing district shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 120.17, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FOR THE HANDICAPPED.] Responsibility for special instruction and services for a visually disabled or hearing impaired child attending the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The legal residence of the child shall be the school district in which the child's parent or guardian resides.

(b) When it is determined pursuant to section 128A.05, subdivision 1 or 2, that the child is entitled to attend either school, the state board shall provide the appropriate educational program for the child. The state board shall make a tuition charge to the child's district of residence for the cost of providing the program. The amount of tuition charged shall not exceed the basic revenue of the district for that child, for the amount of time the child is in the program. For purposes of this subdivision, "basic revenue" has the meaning given it in section 124A.22, subdivision 2. The district of the child's residence shall pay the tuition and may claim general education aid for the child. The district of the child's residence shall not receive aid pursuant to section 124.32, subdivision 5, for tuition paid pursuant to this subdivision. Tuition received by the state board, except for tuition received under clause (c), shall be deposited in the state treasury as provided in clause (g).

(c) In addition to the tuition charge allowed in clause (b), the academies may charge the child's district of residence for the academy's unreimbursed cost of providing an instructional aide assigned to that child, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan. Tuition received under this clause must be used by the academies to provide the required service.

(d) When it is determined that the child can benefit from public school enrollment but that the child should also remain in attendance at the applicable school, the school district where the institution is located shall provide an appropriate educational program for the child and shall make a tuition charge to the state board for the actual cost of providing the program, less any amount of aid received pursuant to section 124.32. The state board shall pay the tuition and other program costs including the unreimbursed transportation costs. Aids for handicapped children shall be paid to the district providing the special instruction and services. Special transportation shall be provided by the district providing the educational program and the state shall reimburse such district within the limits provided by law.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and (d), the state board may agree to make a tuition charge for less than the amount specified in clause (b) for pupils attending the applicable school who are residents of the district where the institution is located and who do not board at the institution, if that district agrees to make a tuition charge to the state board for less than the amount specified in clause (d) for providing appropriate educational programs to pupils attending the applicable school.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and (d), the state board may agree to supply staff from the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind to participate in the programs provided by the district where the institutions are located when the programs are provided to students in attendance at the state schools.

(g) On May 1 of each year, the state board shall count the actual number of Minnesota resident elementary students and the actual number of Minnesota resident secondary students enrolled and receiving education services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind. The state board shall deposit in the state treasury an amount equal to all tuition received less:

(1) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of elementary students to the total number of students on May 1, times the general education formula allowance; plus

(2) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of secondary students on May 1 to the total number of students on May 1, times 1.3, times the general education formula allowance.

(h) The sum provided by the calculation in clause (g), subclauses (1) and (2), must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general operation account of the academy for the deaf and the academy for the blind.

(i) There is annually appropriated to the department of education for the Faribault academies the tuition amounts received and credited to the general operation account of the academies under this section. A balance in an appropriation under this paragraph does not cancel but is available in successive fiscal years.

[SUMMER INSTITUTES FOR TEACHERS.] A secondary teacher assigned by a school district to teach an advanced placement course may participate in summer training institutes offered by the college board. The state shall pay a portion of tuition, room, and board for attending a one-week summer institute for teachers. The commissioner of education shall determine application procedures and deadlines, and select teachers to participate in the state program. The procedures determined by the commissioner shall, to the extent possible, ensure that advanced placement courses become available in all parts of the state and that a variety of course offerings are available in school districts. This subdivision does not prevent teacher participation in summer institutes offered by the college board when tuition is paid by a source other than the state.

Subd. 2. [SUPPORT PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall provide support programs during the school year for teachers who attended summer institutes the previous summer and teachers who have experience in teaching advanced placement courses. The support programs shall be designed to provide teachers with opportunities to share instructional ideas with summer institute instructors and the other teachers. Subd. 3. [SUBSIDY FOR EXAMINATION FEES.] The state may pay all or part of the fee for advanced placement examinations for pupils in public and nonpublic schools whose circumstances make state payment advisable. The state board of education shall adopt a schedule for fee subsidies that may allow payment of the entire fee for low-income families, as defined by the state board. The state board may also determine the circumstances under which the fee is subsidized, in whole or in part. The state board shall determine procedures for state payments of fees.

Subd. 4. [INFORMATION.] The commissioner shall submit the following information to the education committees of the legislature each year by January 1:

[RETURNS.] Each entity subject to the tax imposed under this section must file a return with the commissioner of revenue, in the form prescribed by the commissioner, reporting its gross earnings derived from operations within the state during the preceding calendar year, and make payment of the tax with it. The return and payment of the tax due must be submitted by March 1 each year.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTION.] Entities that are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991, are exempt from the tax imposed under this section.

A transfer may not be made from the capital expenditure facilities or equipment accounts that results in a deficit account balance in either account or a deficit in the combined account balance for facilities and equipment as of June 30, 1992, or as of June 30, 1993. No levies and no state aids shall be reduced as a result of a transfer. Each district transferring money ~~according to this section~~ from the capital expenditure facilities or equipment accounts shall report to the commissioner of education a ~~report of~~ on each transfer. A district may not transfer money from the debt redemption fund to the capital expenditure fund or to the transportation fund without prior approval from the commissioner of education. The commissioner shall approve a transfer from the debt redemption fund only if the district retired its bonded indebtedness during fiscal year 1992 or 1993 or the district's 1991 payable 1992 or 1992 payable 1993 debt service levy was reduced to zero according to Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivision 3. The department shall evaluate the inclusion of revenue provided under Minnesota Statutes, sections 124.311, 124.32, 124.332, 124.573, and 124.574, in the allowance. The department shall report to the education committees of the legislature on the progress of the study on February 1 of each year.

Subd. 3. [ANOTHER INDEX.] The department shall evaluate and develop a special need index for each school district. The department may consider the number of children in the district that are eligible for aid to families with dependent children or for free and reduced lunches and any other indicators determined to significantly affect the ability of a child to achieve adopted outcomes.

The complement of the department of education is increased by .5 for fiscal year 1993 for coordinating the advanced placement program.

[GENERAL SUPERVISION OVER EDUCATIONAL AGENCIES.] The state board of education shall adopt goals for and exercise general supervision over public schools and public educational agencies in the state, classify and standardize public elementary and secondary schools, and prepare for them outlines and suggested courses of study. The board shall develop a plan to attain the adopted goals. At the board's request, the commissioner may assign department of education staff to assist the board, at the central office or at regional centers, in attaining its goals. The commissioner shall explain to the board in writing any reason for refusing or delaying a request for staff assistance. The board shall establish rules relating to examinations, reports, acceptances of schools, courses of study, and other proceedings in connection with elementary and secondary schools applying for special state aid. The state board may recognize educational accrediting agencies for the sole purposes of sections 120.101, 120.102, and 120.103.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 121.935, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [FINANCIAL SERVICES.] Regional management information centers may provide financial management information services to cities, counties, towns, or other governmental units at mutually negotiated prices.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.58, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PURPOSE OF ECSU.] The primary purposes of designation as an ECSU shall be to perform educational planning on a regional basis and to assist in meeting specific educational needs of children in participating school districts which could be better provided by an ECSU than by the districts themselves. The ECSU shall provide those educational programs and services which are determined, pursuant to subdivision 8, to be priority needs of the particular region and shall assist in meeting special needs which arise from fundamental constraints upon individual school districts. Each ECSU shall also serve as a regional center for the department of education. An ECSU must make space available to the department for this purpose. Employees of the department and of the ECSUs shall remain employees of their appointing authority retaining all their employment rights, except that employees of the department may be loaned to and relocated at an ECSU and an employee of an ECSU may be loaned to and relocated at the department, either at the central office or at any regional center.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.58, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [SERVICES.] Educational cooperative service units may provide administrative, purchasing, and data processing services to cities, counties, towns, or other governmental units at mutually negotiated prices.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124.19, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INSTRUCTIONAL TIME.] Every district shall maintain school in session or provide instruction in other districts for at least the number of days required in subdivision 1b, not including summer school, or the equivalent in a district operating a flexible school year program. A district that holds school for the required minimum number of days and is otherwise qualified is entitled to state aid as provided by law. If school is not held for the required minimum number of days, state aid shall be reduced by the ratio that the difference between the required number of days and the number of days school is held bears to the required number of days, multiplied by 60 percent of the basic revenue, as defined in section 124A.22, subdivision 2, of the district for that year. However, districts maintaining school for fewer than the required minimum number of days do not lose state aid (1) if the circumstances causing loss of school days below the required minimum number of days are beyond the control of the board, (2) if proper evidence is submitted, and (3) if a good faith attempt made to make up time lost due to these circumstances. The loss of school days resulting from a lawful employee strike shall not be considered a circumstance beyond the control of the board. Days devoted to meetings authorized or called by the commissioner may not be included as part of the required minimum number of days of school. For grades 1 to 12, days devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development opportunities as part of the required minimum number of days must not exceed the difference between the number of days required in subdivision 1b and the number of instructional days required in subdivision 1b. For kindergarten, days devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development opportunities as part of the required minimum number of days must not exceed twice the number of days for grades 1 to 12. Days devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development days are not subject to state board of education rules requiring a minimum number of instructional hours per day.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.19, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) It is the intention of the legislature to encourage efficient and effective use of staff and facilities by school districts. School districts are encouraged to consider both cost and energy saving measures.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 or 4, any district operating a program pursuant to sections 120.59 to 120.67 or 124C.27 to 124C.31, or operating a commissioner-designated area learning center program under section 124C.49, or that otherwise receives the approval of the commissioner to operate its instructional program to avoid an aid reduction in any year, may adjust the annual school schedule ~~for that program~~ throughout the calendar year so long as the number of instructional hours in the year is not less than the number of instructional hours per day specified in the rules of the state board multiplied by the minimum number of instructional days required by subdivision 1. The commissioner may not approve a request if a result of approval is to increase expenditures for transportation according to section 124.225 or 275.125, subdivision 5, 5a, 5b, 5c, 5e, 5f, 5g, or 5h, for that fiscal year or any future fiscal year.

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL FOOD SERVICE FUND.] (a) The expenses described in this subdivision must be recorded as provided in this subdivision.

(b) In each school district, the expenses for a school food service program for pupils must be attributed to a school food service fund. Under a food service program, the school food service may prepare or serve milk, meals, or snacks in connection with school or community service activities.

(c) Revenues and expenditures for food service activities must be recorded in the food service fund. The costs of processing applications, accounting for meals, preparing and serving food, providing kitchen custodial services, and other expenses involving the preparing of meals or the kitchen section of the lunchroom may be charged to the food service fund or to the general fund of the district. The costs of lunchroom supervision, lunchroom custodial services, lunchroom utilities, and other administrative costs of the food service program, including the costs attributable to the superintendent and the financial manager must be charged to the general fund.

(d) Capital expenditures for the purchase of food service equipment must be made from the capital fund and not the food service fund, unless two conditions apply:

(1) the unreserved balance in the food service fund at the end of the last fiscal year is greater than the cost of the equipment to be purchased; and

(2) the department of education has approved the purchase of the equipment.

(e) If the two conditions set out in paragraph (d) apply, the equipment may be purchased from the food service fund.

(c) "Union" means the Minnesota education association and the Minnesota federation of teachers. Both organizations shall be treated as a single organization only for the purposes of this section.

(d) "Representative" means a person selected by the union to meet and negotiate with the employer on behalf of the teachers, only according to this section.

(e) "Compensation" means salary and fringe benefits except retirement contributions or benefits other than employer payment of, or contributions to, premiums for group insurance coverage of retired employees or severance pay.

Subd. 2. [COMPENSATION INCREASE.] The commissioner of employee relations or the commissioner's representative shall negotiate with a representative of the union increases in compensation for teachers. The increase shall constitute an upper limit on compensation for an employer of teachers when it subsequently negotiates a collective bargaining agreement under this chapter. The increase shall be, or shall be capable of being converted to, a total dollar amount applicable to the local bargaining unit. The increase shall not be determinative of the salary schedule or other compensation. The increase may vary by region or common characteristics of the employers.

Subd. 3. [FACTORS.] (a) In all negotiations, the primary factors in determining the increase shall be the increase in general education revenue, as set forth in section 124A.22, and the effect of the increase on class sizes, curricula, and educational programs and services available to the children.

(b) The following factors shall be taken into consideration:

(1) recent increases in teacher compensation for each unit;

(2) the financial condition of an employer;

(3) significant changes in categorical revenue to the extent that the general fund of the employer would be adversely affected;

(4) whether the enrollment is increasing, decreasing, or remaining stable;

(5) the current salary schedule and the number of teachers at the steps and lanes;

(6) compensation increases for public employees at the state and local level; and

(7) other financial factors determined by teachers and employers to be significant.

(c) The commissioner of education shall cooperate with the commissioner of employee relations in conducting negotiations by making available any personnel and other resources necessary to enable the commissioner of employee relations to conduct effective negotiations.

Subd. 4. [AGREEMENT.] The union may determine the procedures for ratifying the agreement, subject to approval by the commissioner of the bureau of mediation services. The commissioner of employee relations shall enter into an agreement with the representative of the union on or before October 1 of an odd-numbered year. The teachers covered by the agreement shall have the right to strike according to section 179A.18.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL NEGOTIATIONS.] The exclusive representative of the teachers and the school board or other public employer, as applicable, shall meet and negotiate terms and conditions of employment according to this chapter. The increase in compensation may not exceed the increase contained in the agreement entered into according to subdivision 4. The exclusive representative of the teachers and the school board or other public employer may enter into a collective bargaining agreement allocating that increase or providing for a smaller increase.

Subd. 6. [FINAL APPROVAL.] The agreement negotiated between the commissioner of employee relations and the representative of the union shall be submitted to the legislature to be accepted or rejected in accordance with this section and section 3.855.

If a proposed agreement is rejected or is not approved by the legislature prior to its adjournment in an even-numbered year, the legislative commission on employee relations is authorized to give interim approval to a proposed agreement. The proposed agreement shall be implemented upon its approval by the commission, and teachers covered by the proposed agreement shall not have the right to strike while the interim approval is in effect. The commission shall submit the agreement to the legislature for ratification at a special legislature called to consider it or at its next regular legislative session. Compensation increases provided for in the agreement which were paid pursuant to the interim approval by the commission shall not be affected, but the compensation increases shall cease to be paid or provided effective upon the rejection of the agreement or upon adjournment by the legislature without acting upon the agreement.

State aid shall not be reduced according to section 124A.22, subdivision 2a, as a result of failure of the legislative commission on employee relations to give interim approval, rejection by the legislature, or adjournment by the legislature without acting upon the agreement.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] Between November 15 and December 20, the governing bodies of the city and county shall each hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year, and the governing body of the school district shall hold a public hearing to review its current budget and adopt its property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

At the hearing, the taxing authority, other than a school district, may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy, and the school district may amend the proposed property tax levy and must adopt a final property tax levy.

The property tax levy certified under section 275.07 by a city, county, or school district must not exceed the proposed levy determined under subdivision 1, except by an amount up to the sum of the following amounts:

(1) the amount of a school district levy whose voters approved a referendum to increase taxes under section 124.82, subdivision 3, 124A.03, subdivision 2, ~~or~~ 124B.03, subdivision 2, or 275.125, subdivision 14a, after the proposed levy was certified;

(2) the amount of a city or county levy approved by the voters under section 275.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(3) the amount of a levy to pay principal and interest on bonds issued or approved by the voters under section 475.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(4) the amount of a levy to pay costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the proposed levy was certified, if that amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a;

(5) the amount of a levy to pay tort judgments against a taxing authority that become final after the proposed levy was certified, if the amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a;

(6) the amount of an increase in levy limits certified to the taxing authority by the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of education after the proposed levy was certified; and

(7) if not included in the certified levy, any additional amount levied pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding a proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body, other than the governing body of a school district, shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

If the hearing is not completed on its scheduled date, the taxing authority must announce, prior to adjournment of the hearing, the date, time, and place for the continuation of the hearing. The continued hearing must be held at least five business days but no more than 14 business days after the original hearing.

The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. if scheduled on a day other than Saturday. No hearing may be held on a Sunday. The county auditor shall provide for the coordination of hearing dates for all taxing authorities within the county.

By August 1, the county auditor shall notify the clerk of each school district within the county of the dates that the county board has designated for its hearing and any continuation under subdivision 3. By August 15, each school board shall certify to the county auditors of the counties in which the school district is located the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. If a school board does not certify the dates by August 15, the auditor will assign the hearing date. The dates elected or assigned must not conflict with the county hearing dates. By August 20, the county auditor shall notify the clerks of the cities within the county of the dates on which the county and school districts have elected to hold their hearings. At the time a city certifies its proposed levy under subdivision 1 it shall certify the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. The city must not select dates that conflict with those elected by or assigned to the counties and school districts in which the city is located.

The hearing dates so elected or assigned must be designated on the notices required under subdivision 3.

This subdivision does not apply to towns and special taxing districts.

(e) ~~By the August 4~~ Before a district certifies the first levy pursuant to this subdivision, at least three weeks published notice of the proposed levy shall be given in the legal newspaper with the largest circulation in the district. The notice shall state the purpose and duration of the proposed levy and the amount of the proposed levy in dollars and in terms of the local tax rate. Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] (a) 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (d) must be allocated to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) 5.5 cents per taxable ton must be distributed to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in subdivision 2.

(c)(i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under paragraph (e), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts in which the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit for school districts receiving aid under this clause as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district that receives a distribution under sections 298.018; 298.23 to 298.28, exclusive of any amount received under this clause; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values that is less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution shall receive a distribution equal to the difference; the amount necessary to make this payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(d) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by paragraph (c) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in paragraph (c) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988, the increase over the amount established for 1987 shall be determined as if there had been an increase in the tax rate under section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), according to the increase in the implicit price deflator. On July 15, 1989, 1990, and 1991, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). In 1992 and 1993, the amount distributed per ton shall be the same as that determined for distribution in 1991. In 1994, the amount distributed per ton shall be equal to the amount per ton distributed in 1991 increased in the same proportion as the increase between the fourth quarter of 1988 and the fourth quarter of 1992 in the implicit price deflator as defined in section 298.24, subdivision 1. On July 15, 1995, and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $175 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the sum of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 1g, in the previous year, plus the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 1i, in the previous year, plus the referendum aid according to section 124A.03, subdivision 1h, for the current year, to the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by paragraph (d) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $175 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (d) shall not be applied to reduce general education aid which the district receives pursuant to section 124A.23 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in subdivision 11.

Each district receiving money according to this paragraph shall reserve $25 times the number of pupil units in the district. It may use the money only for early childhood programs or for outcome-based learning programs that enhance the academic quality of the district's curriculum. The outcome-based learning programs must be approved by the commissioner of education.

(e) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

CHAPTER 297E

TAX ON SOFT DRINKS

Sec. 12. [297E.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] For purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meaning given.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [SOFT DRINKS.] "Soft drinks" means carbonated beverages, beverages commonly referred to as soft drinks containing less than 15 percent fruit juice, or bottled water other than noncarbonated and noneffervescent bottled water sold in individual containers of one-half gallon or less in size.

Subd. 4. [RETAILER.] "Retailer" means a person who sells soft drinks at retail to ultimate consumers. Retailer includes a person who buys soft drinks for redistribution to one or more retail establishments the person owns or with which the person maintains a franchise agreement.

Subd. 5. [WHOLESALE.] "Wholesaler" means any person who sells or otherwise furnishes for resale purposes, from a stock maintained inside or outside the state, soft drinks to one or more retailers within the state. Wholesaler includes a manufacturer of soft drinks who sells soft drinks directly to retailers.

Sec. 13. [297E.02] [TAX IMPOSED.]

(a) There is imposed a tax on the first sale of soft drinks by a wholesaler to a retailer in the state or on importation into the state. The tax is imposed at the rate of five percent of the wholesale price. The liability for the tax is incurred when the soft drinks are delivered by the wholesaler to the retailer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the retailer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the wholesaler's place of business, regardless of the wholesaler's method of accounting or of the terms of the sale.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall not impose or collect the tax in paragraph (a) unless the commissioner of education makes payments to school districts required by sections 124.2615, 124.2717, and 124C.62 according to the appropriations in this article.

Sec. 14. [297E.03] [RETURNS.]

The tax imposed by this chapter is due and payable on or before the 20th day of the month following the month in which the liability for the tax is incurred. Each wholesaler shall file a return monthly with the commissioner stating the total volume of soft drinks the wholesaler has sold that is subject to the tax during the previous month. The commissioner may authorize returns to be filed by means of magnetic media or electronic data transfer.

Sec. 15. [297E.04] [TAX PERMIT.]

Every wholesaler must file with the commissioner an application, on a form the commissioner prescribes, for a soft drink tax identification number and soft drink tax permit. A permit is not assignable and is valid only for the wholesaler in whose name it is issued.

Sec. 16. [297E.05] [RECORDS.]

A wholesaler must keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of all soft drinks held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from outside the state, and all sales of soft drinks. Books, records, and other papers and documents must be kept for a period of at least three years after the date of the documents, or the date of entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized agents may enter a wholesaler's place of business and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section, to determine whether the provisions of this chapter are being fully complied with. If the commissioner or any of the commissioner's agents are denied free access to, or are hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of, a wholesaler's place of business, the commissioner may revoke the wholesaler's permit.

Sec. 17. [297E.06] [SUSPENSION REVOCATION.]

The commissioner, after giving notice, may for reasonable cause revoke or suspend a permit issued to a wholesaler under section 15. The notice must be sent to the distributor at least 15 days before the effective date of the proposed suspension or revocation. The notice must give the reason for the proposed action and must direct the wholesaler to show cause why the proposed action should not be taken. The notice may be served personally or by mail. A suspension or revocation is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69.

Sec. 18. [297E.07] [REFUNDS.]

The commissioner shall allow a refund of tax paid under this chapter of (1) tax paid on soft drinks that are returned to a wholesaler by a retailer, if the soft drinks are subsequently returned by the wholesaler to the manufacturer, and (2) tax paid in excess of the amount owed. The amounts necessary to make the refunds are appropriated to the commissioner from the fund established in section 22.

Sec. 19. [297E.08] [COLLECTION; CIVIL PENALTIES.]

The provisions of chapter 289A relating to the commissioner's authority to audit, assess, and collect the tax imposed by chapter 297A apply to the tax, penalty, and interest imposed by this chapter. The commissioner shall impose civil penalties for violation of this section as provided in section 289A.60, and the additional tax and penalties are subject to interest at the rate provided in section 270.75.

Sec. 20. [297E.09] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules for the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

Sec. 21. [297E.10] [PERSONAL DEBT.]

The tax imposed by this chapter, penalties, and interest thereon, is a personal debt of the person required to file a return from the time the liability for the tax arises, without regard to when the time for payment of the liability occurs. The debt is, in the case of the executor or administrator of the estate or a decedent and in the case of a fiduciary, that of the person in the person's official or fiduciary capacity only unless the person has voluntarily distributed the assets held in that capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay the tax, interest, and penalties, in which event the person is personally liable for any deficiency.

Sec. 22. [297E.11] [DEPOSIT OF FUNDS.]

All revenues received under this chapter must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the early learning and violence prevention account in the special revenue fund.

Sec. 23. [297E.12] [VIOLATIONS.]

It is a gross misdemeanor for any person to:

(1) possess, with intent to evade the tax, soft drinks on which the tax imposed by this chapter has not been paid;

(2) make a false statement on any return or other document filed with the commissioner under this chapter; or

(3) falsify or fail to keep a record required to be kept under this chapter.

Sec. 24. Laws 1991, chapter 265, article 11, section 23, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] (a) The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund, unless otherwise indicated, to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

(b) The amounts that may be spent for each program are specified in the following subdivisions.

(c) The approved complement is:

	1992	1993

(d) The commissioner of education, with the approval of the commissioner of finance, may transfer unencumbered balances among the programs during the biennium. Transfers must be reported immediately to the education finance division of the education committee of the house of representatives and the education funding division of the education committee of the senate. During the biennium, the commissioner may transfer money among the various objects of expenditure categories and activities within each program, unless restricted by executive order.

(e) The commissioner of education may transfer complement among funds if necessary and must provide a listing of the transfers to the commissioner of finance at the end of each fiscal year. Material changes must be approved by the commissioner of finance and reported to the house education finance division and the senate education funding division.

(f) The expenditures of federal grants and aids as shown in the biennial budget document are approved and shall be spent as indicated.

(g) The commissioner shall continue to enforce Minnesota Statutes, section 126.21, and other civil rights laws as they apply to programs supervised by the commissioner. This function must not be performed by the same person who, with funding under a federal grant, is providing technical assistance to school districts in implementing nondiscrimination laws.

(h) It is the policy of the legislature to maximize the delivery of educational services to students. If a reduction in the number of employees of the department of education is necessary, the commissioner must make the reduction to personnel based on the following:

(1) Compute a ratio for each category of management, supervisory, line, and support personnel equal to:

(i) the salaries paid to personnel in each category, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, divided by

(ii) the total salaries paid to employees in the department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991.

(2) Reduce the personnel budget in each category of personnel by an amount equal to the total budget reduction determined by the department for personnel reduction, times the ratio computed in clause (1).

(3) The total budget reduction is the difference between the general fund appropriation for the department and the amount recommended by the governor.

Sec. 25. [LEARNER OUTCOMES.]

The department of education shall establish measurable outcomes to demonstrate knowledge of violence prevention, anti-sexual harassment behaviors, nonviolent conflict resolution, and identification of and ability to contact personal safety support services.

Sec. 26. [1992 COMMUNITY VIOLENCE PREVENTION REVENUE.]

A school district may levy in 1992 for taxes payable in 1993 for community violence prevention revenue for fiscal years 1993 and 1994 even if it does not have an approved plan. To levy for taxes payable in 1993, the district shall notify the department of education of its intention to develop a plan for approval by the office of the attorney general and the department of education. If a district does not subsequently have an approved plan, the department of education shall reduce the district's community education levy or general education levy, if the district does not levy for community education, by the amount the district levied according to this section.

Sec. 27. [SURVEY AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON VIOLENCE PREVENTION EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [SURVEY.] The department of education may conduct a survey of each school district about the violence prevention programs and nonviolent conflict resolution programs provided by the district to help students learn how to resolve conflicts within their families and communities in nonviolent, effective ways.

Subd. 2. [SURVEY CONTENT.] The department shall develop the form and content of the survey. The survey must at least identify:

(1) a description of the programs and curricula;

(2) current in-service programs for district staff;

(3) any problems the district may have experienced in implementing or attempting to implement programs;

(4) community and state resources available to assist districts in providing programs; and

(5) coordination of district programs with other districts, ECSUs, local community services, agencies, or organizations that assist in violence intervention or prevention.

Sec. 28. [DEPARTMENT COMPLEMENT.]

The complement of the department of education is increased by one for the purposes of violence prevention programs in this article.

ARTICLE 12

NONCONTROVERSIAL AND TECHNICAL CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 120.17, subdivision 7a. is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FOR THE HANDICAPPED.] Responsibility for special instruction and services for a visually disabled or hearing impaired child attending the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The legal residence of the child shall be the school district in which the child's parent or guardian resides.

(b) When it is determined pursuant to section 128A.05, subdivision 1 or 2, that the child is entitled to attend either school, the state board shall provide the appropriate educational program for the child. The state board shall make a tuition charge to the child's district of residence for the cost of providing the program. The amount of tuition charged shall not exceed the basic revenue of the district for that child, for the amount of time the child is in the program. For purposes of this subdivision, "basic revenue" has the meaning given it in section 124A.22, subdivision 2. The district of the child's residence shall pay the tuition and may claim general education aid for the child. The district of the child's residence shall not receive aid pursuant to section 124.32, subdivision 5, for tuition paid pursuant to this subdivision. Tuition received by the state board, except for tuition received under clause (c), shall be deposited in the state treasury as provided in clause (g).

(c) In addition to the tuition charge allowed in clause (b), the academies may charge the child's district of residence for the academy's unreimbursed cost of providing an instructional aide assigned to that child, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan. Tuition received under this clause must be used by the academies to provide the required service.

(d) When it is determined that the child can benefit from public school enrollment but that the child should also remain in attendance at the applicable school, the school district where the institution is located shall provide an appropriate educational program for the child and shall make a tuition charge to the state board for the actual cost of providing the program, less any amount of aid received pursuant to section 124.32. The state board shall pay the tuition and other program costs including the unreimbursed transportation costs. Aids for handicapped children shall be paid to the district providing the special instruction and services. Special transportation shall be provided by the district providing the educational program and the state shall reimburse such district within the limits provided by law.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and (d), the state board may agree to make a tuition charge for less than the amount specified in clause (b) for pupils attending the applicable school who are residents of the district where the institution is located and who do not board at the institution, if that district agrees to make a tuition charge to the state board for less than the amount specified in clause (d) for providing appropriate educational programs to pupils attending the applicable school.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and (d), the state board may agree to supply staff from the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind to participate in the programs provided by the district where the institutions are located when the programs are provided to students in attendance at the state schools.

(g) On May 1 of each year, the state board shall count the actual number of Minnesota resident kindergarten and elementary students and the actual number of Minnesota resident secondary students enrolled and receiving education services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind. The state board shall deposit in the state treasury an amount equal to all tuition received less:

(1) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of kindergarten and elementary students to the total number of students on May 1, times the general education formula allowance; plus

(2) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of secondary students on May 1 to the total number of students on May 1, times 1.3, times the general education formula allowance.

(h) The sum provided by the calculation in clause (g), subclauses (1) and (2), must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general operation account of the academy for the deaf and the academy for the blind.

(i) There is annually appropriated to the department of education for the Faribault academies the tuition amounts received and credited to the general operation account of the academies under this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 121.935, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [LIMITATION ON ALL AGREEMENTS.] (a) No district shall be required by an agreement or otherwise to participate in or provide financial support for a regional center for a time period in excess of one fiscal year. Any agreement, part of an agreement, or other type of requirement to the contrary is void.

(b) This subdivision shall not affect the continued liability of a district for its share of bonded indebtedness or other debt incurred by the center before July 1, 1993. The district is liable only until the obligation or debt is discharged and only according to the payment schedule in effect on June 30, 1993, except that the payment schedule may be altered for the purpose of restructuring debt or refunding bonds outstanding on July 1, 1993, if the annual payments of the district are not increased and if the total obligation of the district for its share of outstanding bonds or other debt is not increased.

(c) To cease participating in or providing financial support for any of the services or activities provided by the center or to withdraw from the center, the school board shall adopt a resolution and notify the center of its decision on or before February 1 of any year. The cessation or withdrawal shall be effective June 30 of the same year or, at the option of the school board, June 30 of the following fiscal year.

(d) Before issuing bonds or incurring other debt, the board of a center shall adopt a resolution proposing to issue bonds or incur other debt and the proposed financial effect of the bonds or other debt upon each participating district. The resolution shall be adopted within a time sufficient to allow the school board to adopt a resolution within the time permitted by this paragraph and to comply with the statutory deadlines set forth in sections 122.895, 125.12, and 125.17. The board of the center shall notify each participating school board of the contents of the resolution. Within 120 days of receiving the resolution of the board of the center, the school board of the participating district shall adopt a resolution stating:

- (1) its concurrence with issuing bonds or incurring other debt;*
- (2) its intention to cease participating in or providing financial support for the service or activity related to the bonds or other debt; or*
- (3) its intention to withdraw from the regional center.*

However, districts maintaining school for fewer than the required minimum number of days do not lose state aid (1) if the circumstances causing loss of school days below the required minimum number of days are beyond the control of the board, (2) if proper evidence is submitted, and (3) if a good faith attempt made to make up time lost due to these circumstances. The loss of school days resulting from a lawful employee strike shall not be considered a circumstance beyond the control of the board. Days devoted to meetings authorized or called by the commissioner may not be included as part of the required minimum number of days of school. For grades 1 to 12, days devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, or other staff development opportunities as part of the required minimum number of days must not exceed the difference between the number of days required in subdivision 1b and the number of instructional days required in subdivision 1b. Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124.2727, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ALTERNATIVE LEVY AUTHORITY.] (a) An intermediate school district may levy, as a single taxing district, according to this paragraph, an amount that may not exceed the greater of:

(1) five-sixths of the levy certified for taxes payable in 1989; or

(2) the lesser of (i) $50 times the actual pupil units in each participating district for the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable, or (ii) 1.43 percent of the adjusted net tax capacity. The levy shall be certified according to section 275.07. Upon such certification, the county auditors shall levy and collect the levies and remit the proceeds of the levy to the intermediate school district. The levies shall not be included in computing the limitation upon the levy of any of the participating districts.

(b) ~~Five-sixths~~ Five-elevenths of the proceeds of the levy shall be used for special education. Six-elevenths of the proceeds of the levy shall be used for secondary vocational education.

(c) To levy according to paragraph (a), a majority of the full membership of the school board of each member of the intermediate school district shall adopt a resolution in August of any year stating its decision not to levy according to this section and authorizing the intermediate district to levy according to paragraph (a). Any member district may adopt a resolution by the following February 1 or February 1 of any subsequent year to levy as a school district the amount authorized by this section. The resolution may or may not also contain the school board's decision to withdraw from the intermediate school district or to cease participating in or providing financial support for any of the services or activities of the intermediate school district. Upon withdrawal from or cessation of participation in or support for the services or activities of the intermediate district, the board of the intermediate district shall pay to the district $50 times the number of actual pupil units in the school district, or a prorated amount if the member district ceases participation in or providing financial support for any activities or services of the intermediate district.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM REVENUE.] (a) The revenue authorized by section 124A.22, subdivision 1, may be increased in the amount approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. Unless the referendum is conducted by mail under paragraph (g), the referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased revenue per actual pupil unit, the estimated net tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the revenue shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot may state that existing referendum levy authority is expiring. In this case, the ballot may also compare the proposed levy authority to the existing expiring referendum levy authority, and express the proposed increase as the amount, if any, over the expiring referendum levy authority. The ballot shall designate the specific number of years, not to exceed five, for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the revenue proposed by (petition to) the board of School District No. be approved?"

If approved, an amount equal to the approved revenue per actual pupil unit times the actual pupil units for the school year beginning in the year after the levy is certified shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(b) The school board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the referendum to each taxpayer at the address listed on the school district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed revenue increase. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of tax increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

The notice for a referendum may state that an existing referendum levy is expiring and project the anticipated amount of increase over the existing referendum levy, if any, in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

The notice must include the following statement: "Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(c) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased revenue amount authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A referendum to revoke or reduce the levy amount must be based upon the dollar amount, local tax rate, or amount per actual pupil unit, that was stated to be the basis for the initial authorization. Revenue approved by the voters of the district pursuant to paragraph (a) must be received at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one revocation or reduction referendum may be held to revoke or reduce referendum revenue for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(d) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) or (c) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the registered voters of the school district on the day the petition is filed with the school board. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held on the date specified in paragraph (a).

(e) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

(f) At least 15 days prior to the day of the referendum, the district shall submit a copy of the notice required under paragraph (b) to the commissioner of education. Within 15 days after the results of the referendum have been certified by the school board, or in the case of a recount, the certification of the results of the recount by the canvassing board, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

(g) Any referendum under this section held on a day other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November must be conducted by mail in accordance with section 204B.46. Notwithstanding paragraph (b) to the contrary, in the case of a referendum conducted by mail under this paragraph, the notice required by paragraph (b) shall be prepared and delivered by first class mail at least 20 days before the referendum.

If the estimated receipts of the trust fund exceed the estimated payments by $1,000,000 or more, the appropriation from the trust fund to each intergovernmental aid program is increased proportionately. The aid paid to each local government under the program is increased proportionately unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.112, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The present general system of ad valorem property taxation in the state of Minnesota does not provide an equitable basis for the taxation of certain private ~~outdoor~~ recreational, open space and park land property and has resulted in excessive taxes on some of these lands. Memberships that permit play during restricted times may be allowed only if the restricted times apply to all adults using the membership. A golf club may not offer a membership or golfing privileges to a spouse of a member that provides greater or less access to the golf course than is provided to that person's spouse under the same or a separate membership in that club, except that the terms of a membership may provide that one spouse may have no right to use the golf course at any time while the other spouse may have either limited or unlimited access to the golf course.

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] (a) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for the purposes of a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is a residential homestead.

For purposes of this paragraph, "relative" means a parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, spouse, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. Property that was classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time of its acquisition does not qualify as a homestead under this paragraph for the first two assessment years beginning after the date of acquisition; this delay also applies to property that, in the absence of this paragraph, would have been classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time when the residence was constructed. The owner of the property may not claim a property tax refund under chapter 290A for a homestead occupied by a relative.~~

~~(e) In the case of property owned and formerly occupied by two or more persons in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, when those persons are related to each other as parents and children or as stepparents and stepchildren, and when one or more of the owners ceases to occupy the property, the assessor shall continue to allow a full homestead classification as long as at least one of the owners continues to occupy the property for purposes of a homestead. claims reclassification of the property as a leasehold cooperative, the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located must make a finding that the reclassification will not substantially impair the ability of the municipality or any agency of the municipality to meet its debt service obligations on any bonds or other debt outstanding at the time of the request for reclassification.

Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

The first $72,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net class rate of one percent of its market value and a gross class rate of 2.17 percent of its market value. For taxes payable in 1992, the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $72,000 but does not exceed $115,000 has a class rate of two percent of its market value; and the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $115,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent of its market value. For taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $72,000 has a class rate of two percent.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(4) any person who is permanently and totally disabled and whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net class rate of .45 percent of its market value and a gross class rate of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net class rate using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than ~~225~~ 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner, which includes a dwelling occupied as a homestead by a shareholder of a corporation that owns the resort or a partner in a partnership that owns the resort, even if the title to the homestead is held by the corporation or partnership. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property, excluding the portion used exclusively as a homestead, is used ~~or available for use~~ for residential occupancy and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 1c property has a class rate of ~~.8 percent of the first $32,000 of market value and one percent of market value in excess of $32,000 for taxes payable in 1992, and one percent of total market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter~~ with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore.

Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and 3.4 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter.

Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to a term of 15 years.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents unless the owner of the property elects to have the property assessed under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. If the owner of the property elects to have the market value determined on the basis of the actual restricted rents, as provided in Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55, the property will be assessed at the rate provided for class 4a or class 4b property, as appropriate. Those cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located will be designated class 1c or 4c as otherwise provided. The remainder of the cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located will be designated as class 3a. The first $100,000 of the market value of the remainder of the cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located shall have a class rate of three percent. The owner of property desiring designation as class 1c or 4c property must provide guest registers or other records demonstrating that the units for which class 1c or 4c designation is sought were not occupied for more than 250 days in the second year preceding the assessment if so requested. the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity:

(7) post-secondary student housing of not more than one acre of land that is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A and is used exclusively by a student cooperative, sorority, or fraternity for on-campus housing or housing located within two miles of the border of a college campus; and

To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the county assessor to determine qualification under this clause. Property qualifying under this clause in 1992, 1993, or 1994 continues to receive a two percent class rate until the five-year lease has expired provided that the property continues to be used for the purposes as described in this clause. Qualifying buildings and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located, leased for a period of up to five years by the occupant under a lease-purchase program administered by the Minnesota housing finance agency or a housing and redevelopment authority authorized under sections 469.001 to 469.047, provided the occupant's income is no greater than 80 percent of the county or area median income, adjusted for family size and the building consists of two or less dwelling units. (b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made under sections 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

(c) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

On or before December 1, 1990, and December 1 of each of the following three years, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims for taxes payable in 1991, 1993, or 1994 exceed the following amounts for the taxes payable year designated, the commissioner shall increase the dollar amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund so that the estimated total refund claims do not exceed the appropriation limit.

Taxes payable in:	Appropriation limit
1991	$13,000,000
1993	$ 6,000,000 $4,500,000
1994	$ 5,500,000 $4,000,000

The determinations of the revised thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.

Sec. 17, Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 375.192, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Upon written application by the owner of the property, the county board may grant the reduction or abatement of estimated market valuation or taxes and of any costs, penalties, or interest on them as the board deems just and equitable and order the refund in whole or part of any taxes, costs, penalties, or interest which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. The county board may also grant the abatement of penalties for taxes paid within 30 days of the due date, regardless of the classification of the property. The application must include the social security number of the applicant. The social security number is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12. The application must be approved by the county assessor, or, if the property is located in a city of the first or second class having a city assessor, by the city assessor, and by the county auditor before consideration by the county board. If the application is for abatement of penalty or interest, the application must be approved by the county treasurer and county auditor. No reduction, abatement, or refund of any special assessments made or levied by any municipality for local improvements shall be made unless it is also approved by the board of review or similar taxing authority of the municipality. Before taking action on any reduction or abatement where the reduction of taxes, costs, penalties, and interest exceed $10,000, the county board shall give 20 days' notice to the school board and the municipality in which the property is located. The notice must describe the property involved, the actual amount of the reduction being sought, and the reason for the reduction. If the school board or the municipality object to the granting of the reduction or abatement, the county board must refer the abatement or reduction to the commissioner of revenue with its recommendation. The commissioner shall consider the abatement or reduction under section 270.07, subdivision 1.

An appeal may not be taken to the tax court from any order of the county board made in the exercise of the discretionary authority granted in this section.

The county auditor shall notify the commissioner of revenue of all abatements resulting from the erroneous classification of real property, for tax purposes, as nonhomestead property. For the abatements relating to the current year's tax processed through June 30, the auditor shall notify the commissioner on or before July 31 of that same year of all abatement applications granted. For the abatements relating to the current year's tax processed after June 30 through the balance of the year, the auditor shall notify the commissioner on or before the following January 31 of all applications granted. The county auditor shall submit a form containing the social security number of the applicant and such other information the commissioner prescribes.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 381.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~[EXPENSE, TAX LEVY.] For the purpose of defraying the expense incurred, or to be incurred in the preservation and restoration of monuments under this section:~~ The county board of any county may levy a tax upon all the taxable property in the county for the purpose of defraying the expense incurred, or to be incurred for:

- (1) the preservation and restoration of monuments under this section;
- (2) the preservation or establishment of control monuments for mapping activities;
- (3) the modernization of county land records through the use of parcel-based land management systems; or
- (4) the establishment of geographic (GIS), land (LIS), management (MIS) information systems.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The metropolitan mosquito control commission shall prepare an annual budget. The budget may provide for expenditures in an amount not exceeding the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. The commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the district as defined in section 473.702 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716. The tax shall not exceed the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. A participating county may agree to levy an additional tax to be used by the commission for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716 but the sum of the county's and commission's taxes may not exceed the county's proportionate share of the property tax levy limitation determined under this subdivision based on the ratio of its total net tax capacity to the total net tax capacity of the entire district as adjusted by section 270.12, subdivision 3. The auditor of each county in the district shall add the amount of the levy made by the district to other taxes of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected, the county treasurer shall make settlement of the tax with the district in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions. No county shall levy any tax for mosquito, disease vectoring tick, and black gnat (Simuliidae) control except under sections 473.701 to 473.716. The levy shall be in addition to other taxes authorized by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan mosquito control commission shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

~~(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of six-tenths on one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;~~

~~(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district; and~~

~~(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous assessment year.~~

For the purpose of determining the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425) .00455 of tax capacity for property taxes payable in 1993 and subsequent years.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.714, is amended to read:

473.714 [COMPENSATION OF COMMISSIONERS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPENSATION.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, each commissioner, including the officers of the commission shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties. The chair shall be paid a per diem for attending meetings, monthly, executive, and special, and each commissioner shall be paid a per diem for attending meetings, monthly, executive, and special, which per diem shall be established by the commission; ~~such expense reimbursement and per diem notwithstanding any other funds which such commissioners may receive from any other public body.~~ A commissioner who receives a per diem from the commissioner's county shall not be paid a per diem for the same day by the commission for attending meetings of the commission. The annual budget of the commission shall provide as a separate account anticipated expenditures for per diem, travel and associated expenses for the chair and members, and compensation or reimbursement shall be made to the chair or members only when budgeted.

Subd. 2. [CERTAIN COMMISSIONERS.] A commissioner whose annual public salary is $25,000 or more shall only be reimbursed for expenses related to travel.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 488A.20, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISPOSITION OF FINES, FEES AND OTHER MONEYS; ACCOUNTS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided herein and except as otherwise provided by law, the administrator shall pay to the Ramsey county treasurer all fines and penalties collected by the administrator, all fees collected for administrator's services, all sums forfeited to the court as hereinafter provided, and all other moneys received by the administrator.

(b) The administrator of court shall for each fine or penalty, provide the county treasurer with the name of the municipality or other subdivision of government where the offense was committed and the total amount of the fines or penalties collected for each such municipality or other subdivision of government.

(c) The state of Minnesota and any governmental subdivision within the jurisdictional area of the municipal court herein established may present cases for hearing before said municipal court. In the event the court takes jurisdiction of a prosecution for the violation of a statute or ordinance by the state or a governmental subdivision other than a city or town in Ramsey county, all fines, penalties and forfeitures collected shall be paid over to the county treasurer except where a different disposition is provided by law, and the following fees shall be taxed to the state or governmental subdivision other than a city or town within Ramsey county which would be entitled to payment of the fines, forfeitures or penalties in any case, and shall be paid to the administrator of the court for disposing of the matter. The administrator shall deduct the fees from any fine collected for the state of Minnesota or a governmental subdivision other than a city or town within Ramsey County and transmit the balance in accordance with the law, and the deduction of the total of the fees each month from the total of all the fines collected is hereby expressly made an appropriation of funds for payment of the fees:

(1) In all cases where the defendant is brought into court and pleads guilty and is sentenced, or the matter is otherwise disposed of without a trial $5

(2) In arraignments where the defendant waives a preliminary examination $10

(3) In all other cases where the defendant stands trial or has a preliminary examination by the court $15

(4) The court shall have the authority to waive the collection of fees in any particular case.

(d) At the beginning of the first day of any month, the amount in the hands of the administrator which is owing to any municipality or county shall not exceed $5,000.

(e) On or before the last day of each month, the county treasurer shall pay over to the treasurer of the city of St. Paul two-thirds and to the treasurer of each other municipality or subdivision of government in Ramsey county one-half of all fines or penalties collected during the previous month from those imposed for offenses committed within ~~such~~ the treasurer's municipality or subdivision of government in violation of a statute, an ordinance, charter provision, rule or regulation of a city. All other fines and forfeitures and all fees and costs collected by the county municipal court shall be paid to the treasurer of Ramsey county who shall dispense the same as provided by law.

(f) Amounts represented by checks issued by the administrator or received by the administrator which have not cleared by the end of the month may be shown on the monthly account as having been paid or received, subject to adjustment on later monthly accounts.

(g) The administrator may receive negotiable instruments in payment of fines, penalties, fees, or other obligations as conditional payments, and is not held accountable therefor but if collection in cash is made and then only to the extent of the net collection after deduction of the necessary expense of collection.

Sec. 22. [ADJUSTMENTS TO LEVY LIMITS.]

If the repeal of Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.58, is delayed or is reenacted by a law enacted in the 1992 legislative session, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the payable 1993 levy limitations for the city of St. Paul and Ramsey county. The commissioner shall decrease St. Paul's levy limitation by an amount equal to the estimated increase in revenue which the city will be receiving in calendar year 1993 based upon the change in the distribution of fines or penalties under Minnesota Statutes, section 488A.20, subdivision 4. The commissioner shall increase Ramsey county's levy limitation by an amount equal to the estimated loss in revenue to Ramsey county in calendar year 1993 resulting from the change in distribution of fines or penalties under section 488A.20, subdivision 4. For purposes of the levy limit adjustments made under this section, collections estimated in Ramsey county's 1992 adopted budget will be used to determine the revenue loss to the county and the revenue gain to the city. This adjustment will be a permanent levy limit base adjustment for taxes payable in 1994 and subsequent years. The amounts shall be certified to the commissioner of revenue by the Ramsey county court administrator on or before June 1, 1992.

Sec. 23. [REPAYMENT.]

The city of St. Paul shall repay to Ramsey county an amount equal to the difference between the payments it receives under section 21 from July 1, 1992, to December 31, 1992. That amount, plus interest, must be paid over 12 equal monthly installments beginning January 31, 1993. Interest will be accrued at the average rate of return for Ramsey county's portfolio of general investments as determined by the manager of the revenue division of the Ramsey county department of taxation and records administration, using the county's normal method of calculating investment earnings on monthly balances.

Sec. 24. [HOMESTEAD MAINTAINED AFTER SEPARATION OR DIVORCE.]

The principal residence of a qualified individual as defined in this subdivision must be classified as a homestead. As used in this subdivision, a qualified individual is a person who:

(1) has occupied a property as the person's principal residence for a period of 20 years or longer while married to the owner of the property who claimed it as a homestead;

(2) has not claimed any other residence as a homestead during the period of occupancy of the property described in clause (1); and

(3) provides evidence to the assessor of intent and actions taken to acquire ownership of the property.

Sec. 25. [WATERSHED DISTRICT LEVIES.]

(a) The Nine Mile Creek watershed district, the Riley-Purgatory Bluff Creek watershed district, the Minnehaha Creek watershed district, the Coon Creek watershed district, and the Lower Minnesota River watershed district may levy in 1992 and thereafter a tax not to exceed $200,000 on property within the district for the administrative fund. The administrative fund shall be used for the purposes contained in Minnesota Statutes, section 103D.905, subdivision 3. The board of managers shall make the levy for the administrative fund in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 103D.915.

(b) The Wild Rice watershed district may levy, for taxes payable in 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997, an ad valorem tax not to exceed $200,000 on property within the district for the administrative fund. The additional $75,000 above the amount authorized in Minnesota Statutes, section 103D.905, subdivision 3, must be used for costs incurred in connection with cost-sharing projects with the United States Army Corps of Engineers. The board of managers shall make the levy for the administrative fund in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 103D.915.

Sec. 26. [CITY OF OTSEGO; EXCESS LEVY PENALTY ABATEMENT.]

The excess levy amount of $63,707, levied in 1990, for taxes payable in 1991, by the city of Otsego, Wright county, is exempt from the penalties imposed under Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.51, subdivision 4, and 275.55.

This section is effective the day after approval by the Otsego city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Sec. 27. [KANABEC COUNTY; HISTORICAL SOCIETY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY AUTHORIZED.] Kanabec county may levy up to $50,000 each year on property in the county and use the proceeds of the levy for the county historical society. This amount is a special levy and is not subject to any general levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes.

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM.] If the governing body of Kanabec county intends to exercise the authority provided by this section, it shall conduct a referendum on the issue. The question of levying the tax must be submitted to the voters. The tax may not be levied unless a majority of votes cast on the question of imposing the levy are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a general election. If the referendum passes, the authority of the county board to levy this tax shall expire at the end of the fourth tax year following the referendum, and the question of whether to reauthorize the levy shall be resubmitted to the voters every fourth year.

Sec. 28. [TAX INCREMENT; FISCAL DISPARITIES.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), the governing body of the city of Richfield may change its election of a method for computing tax increment for the tax increment financing district certified on December 5, 1985, and known as the Interstate, Lyndale, Nicollet District. The governing body may change its election from the computation in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), to the computation in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), or the alternative method described in section 29.

Sec. 29. [ALTERNATIVE CALCULATION METHOD.]

Pursuant to the election authorized in section 28, the governing body of the city of Richfield may elect the following method of computation:

(1) The original net tax capacity must be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473F. The current net tax capacity must exclude any fiscal disparity commercial-industrial net tax capacity increase between the original year and the current year multiplied by a ratio that is less than the fiscal disparity ratio determined pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 6. The ratio, which must be a percentage of the fiscal disparity ratio, must be determined by the governing body and must remain in effect during the term of the district. Where the original net tax capacity is equal to or greater than the current net tax capacity, there is no captured net tax capacity and no tax increment determination.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured net tax capacity of the authority from the net tax capacity of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district tax capacity rates. The tax capacity rates so determined must be extended against the retained captured net tax capacity of the authority as well as the net tax capacity of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the lesser of (i) the local taxing district tax capacity rates or (ii) the original tax capacity rate to the retained captured net tax capacity of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

Sec. 30. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION.] Notwithstanding the time requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), for taxes levied in 1991, payable in 1992, the governing body of Hennepin county may grant a property tax exemption for property that (1) meets the requirements of exempt property under Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), except for the August 1 date; (2) was an athletic facility classified as class 3 commercial and industrial property on January 2, 1991; and (3) was acquired during 1991 by a church.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] Subdivision 1 is effective the day following compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of Hennepin county.

Sec. 31. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

If the repeal of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5a, is delayed or the subdivision is reenacted by a law enacted in 1992, in the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall codify the special levy under section 27 in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5a.

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 47.209, is repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 15, is repealed.

Sec. 33. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9, 11 to 14, 18, 25, and 32, paragraph (b), are effective for taxes levied in 1992, payable in 1993, and thereafter provided that the exemption for photovoltaic devices in section 4, clause (23), is effective only for taxes payable in 1993 through 1997.

Section 32, paragraph (a), is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

PROPOSED AND FINAL TAX NOTICES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify the aids provided in subdivisions 2, 2b, 3, and 5 before ~~December~~ September 1, ~~1989, and October 1~~ thereafter of the year preceding the distribution year to the county auditor of the affected local government. The aids provided in subdivisions 2, 2b, 3, and 5 must be paid to local governments other than school districts at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions, except that the first one-half payment of disparity reduction aid provided in subdivision 3 must be paid on or before August 31. The disparity reduction credit provided in subdivision 4 must be paid to taxing jurisdictions other than school districts at the time provided in section 473H.10, subdivision 3. Aids and credit reimbursements to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Except for education districts and secondary cooperatives that receive revenue according to section 124.2721 or 124.575, payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any law or charter to the contrary, on or before ~~September 15~~, each taxing authority, other than a school district, shall adopt a proposed budget and each taxing authority shall certify to the county auditor the proposed or, in the case of a town, the final property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year. If the board of estimate and taxation or any similar board that establishes maximum tax levies for taxing jurisdictions within a first class city certifies the maximum property tax levies for funds under its jurisdiction by ~~charter to the county auditor by September 15~~, the city shall be deemed to have certified its levies for those taxing jurisdictions. For purposes of this section, "taxing authority" includes all home rule and statutory cities, towns, counties, school districts, and special taxing districts. The commissioner of revenue shall determine what constitutes a special taxing district for purposes of this section. Intermediate school districts that levy a tax under chapter 136D, joint powers boards established under sections 124.491 to 124.495, and common school districts No. 323, Franconia, and No. 815, Prinsburg, are special taxing districts for purposes of this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.065, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [OVERLAPPING JURISDICTIONS.] In the case of a taxing authority lying in two or more counties, the home county auditor shall certify the proposed levy and the proposed local tax rate to the other county auditor by September 20 ~~for taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, and the proposed local tax rate by September 5 for taxes levied in 1991, and thereafter, for counties containing a city of the first class.~~ The home county auditor must estimate the levy or rate in preparing the notices required in subdivision 3, if the other county has not certified the appropriate information. If requested by the home county auditor, the other county auditor must furnish an estimate to the home county auditor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) The county auditor shall prepare and the county treasurer shall deliver ~~on or before~~ after November 10 ~~and on or before November 24~~ each year, by first class mail to each taxpayer at the address listed on the county's current year's assessment roll, a notice of proposed property taxes and, in the case of a town, final property taxes.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice.

(c) The notice must inform taxpayers that it contains the amount of property taxes each taxing authority other than a town proposes to collect for taxes payable the following year ~~as required in paragraph (d) or (e)~~ and, for a town, the amount of its final levy. It must clearly state that each taxing authority, other than a town or special taxing district, will hold a public meeting to receive public testimony on the proposed budget and proposed or final property tax levy, or, in case of a school district, on the current budget and proposed property tax levy. It must clearly state the time and place of each taxing authority's meeting and an address where comments will be received by mail.

~~(d) Except as provided in paragraph (e), for taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, the notice must state by county, city or town, and school district:~~

~~(1) the total proposed or, for a town, final property tax levy for taxes payable the following year after reduction for state aid;~~

~~(2) the percentage increase or decrease from the actual property tax levy for taxes payable in the current year; and~~

~~(3) for counties, cities, and towns, the increase or decrease in population from the second previous calendar year to the immediately prior calendar year, and for school districts, the increase or decrease in the number of pupils in average daily membership from the current school year to the immediately following school year as determined by the commissioner of education. The data used to determine the increase or decrease in population under this clause must be the data used for purposes of the population adjustment to the levy~~ limit base of the county, city, or town under section 275.51, subdivision 6.

For notices which are not parcel-specific, the notice must also state a total percentage increase or decrease in the proposed levy, relative to the actual property tax levy for taxes payable in the current year for the county, city or town, and school district. The county auditor shall compute the total percentage increase or decrease as an average percentage change weighted in proportion to each taxing jurisdiction's proportion of the total levy.

For purposes of this paragraph, "proposed property taxes after reduction for state aid" means the taxing authority's levy certified under section 275.07, subdivision 1.

(e) In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, or taxing authority lying wholly within a county or counties containing a city of the first class, for taxes levied in 1991, and thereafter, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter, The notice must state for each parcel:

(1) the market value of the property as defined under section 272.03, subdivision 8, for property taxes payable in the following year and for taxes payable the current year. The notice must clearly inform taxpayers of the years to which the market values apply and that the values are final values;

(2) by county, city or town, school district, the sum of the special taxing districts, and as a total of the taxing authorities, including special taxing districts, the proposed or, for a town, final net tax on the property for taxes payable the following year and the actual tax for taxes payable the current year. In the case of a parcel where tax increment or the fiscal disparities areawide tax applies, the proposed tax levy on the captured value or the proposed tax levy on the tax capacity subject to the areawide tax must each be stated separately and not included in the sum of the special taxing districts; and

(3) the increase or decrease in the amounts in clause (2) from taxes payable in the current year to proposed or, for a town, final taxes payable the following year, expressed as a dollar amount and as a percentage.

~~(f)~~ (e) The notice must clearly state that the proposed or final taxes do not include the following:

(1) special assessments;

(2) levies approved by the voters after the date the proposed taxes are certified, including bond referenda, school district levy referenda, and levy limit increase referenda;

(3) amounts necessary to pay cleanup or other costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the date the proposed taxes are certified;

(4) amounts necessary to pay tort judgments against the taxing authority that become final after the date the proposed taxes are certified; and

(5) any additional amount levied in lieu of a local sales and use tax, unless this amount is included in the proposed or final taxes.

~~(g)~~ (f) Except as provided in subdivision 7, failure of the county auditor to prepare or the county treasurer to deliver the notice as required in this section does not invalidate the proposed or final tax levy or the taxes payable pursuant to the tax levy.

~~(h)~~ (g) In the case of class 4 residential property used as a residence for lease or rental periods of 30 days or more, the taxpayer must either:

(1) mail or deliver a copy of the notice of proposed property taxes to each tenant, renter, or lessee; or

(2) post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises of the property.

The notice must be mailed or posted by the taxpayer by November 13 27 or within three days of receipt of the notice, whichever is later. A taxpayer may notify the county treasurer of the address of the taxpayer, agent, caretaker, or manager of the premises to which the notice must be mailed in order to fulfill the requirements of this paragraph.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.065, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COSTS.] If the reasonable cost of the county auditor's services and the cost of preparing and mailing the notice required in this section exceed the amount distributed to the county by the commissioner of revenue to administer this section, the taxing authority must reimburse the county for the excess cost. The excess cost must be apportioned between taxing jurisdictions as follows:

- (1) one-third is allocated to the county;
- (2) one-third is allocated to cities and towns within the county; and
- (3) one-third is allocated to school districts within the county.

The amounts in clause (2) must be further apportioned among the cities and towns in the proportion that the ~~population~~ number of parcels in the city and town bears to the population number of parcels in all the cities and towns within the county. The amount in clause (3) must be further apportioned among the school districts in the proportion that the number of ~~pupils~~ parcels in the school district bears to the number of pupils parcels in all school districts within the county.

The present value of future income shall be determined by the commissioner of revenue in accordance with professionally recognized mineral valuation practice and procedure. Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

If the owner of the property elects to have the market value determined on the basis of the actual restricted rents, as provided in Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55, the property will be assessed at the rate provided for class 4a or class 4b property, as appropriate. As used in this clause, "transitional housing" has the meaning given in section 268.38, subdivision 1, except that the two-year restriction does not apply. If the property is purchased from the federal government by the nonprofit corporation for the purpose of continuing to provide transitional housing after the expiration of the lease, the property shall continue to be eligible for this classification. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the county assessor to determine qualification under this clause. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section

273.134, 57 percent of the tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The maximum reduction of the tax is $225.40 on property described in clause (a) and $200.10 on property described in clause (b), for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 times the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means one minus the ratio of the net class rate to the gross class rate applicable to the first ~~$68,000~~ $72,000 of the market value of residential homesteads, "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of a property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the payable 1988 tax on a property with an identical market value to that of the property receiving the credit in the current year after the application of the credits payable under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section, divided by the market value of the property.

Sec. 7, Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.1391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the tax on qualified property located in the school district that does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134, provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10. The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the tax, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The maximum reduction of the tax is $200.10 for taxes payable in 1985. This maximum amount shall increase by $15 multiplied by the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means one minus the ratio of the net class rate to the gross class rate applicable to the first ~~$68,000~~ $72,000 of the market value of residential homesteads, and "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of a property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the payable 1988 tax on a property with an identical market value to that of the property receiving the credit in the current year after application of the credits payable under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section, divided by the market value of the property.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

(1) the captured net tax capacity of a new or the expanded part of an existing economic development or soils condition tax increment financing district, other than a qualified manufacturing district, for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990;

(2) the captured net tax capacity of a qualified manufacturing district, multiplied by the following percentage based on the number of years that have elapsed since the ~~district was first certified (measured from January 2 immediately preceding certification~~ assessment year of the original net tax capacity). In no case may the final amounts be less than zero or greater than the total captured net tax capacity of the district:

(3) the captured net tax capacity of a new or the expanded part of an existing tax increment financing district, other than an economic development or soils condition district, for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990, multiplied by the following percentage based on the number of years that have elapsed since the district was first certified (measured from January 2 immediately preceding certification assessment year of the original net tax capacity). In no case may the final amounts be less than zero or greater than the total captured net tax capacity of the district.

Number of years	Renewal and Renovation Districts	All other Districts

19	100	87.5
21 or more	100	100

In the case of a hazardous substance subdistrict, the number of years must be measured from the date of certification of the subdistrict for purposes of the additional captured net tax capacity resulting from the reduction in the subdistrict's or site's original net tax capacity.

(b) The terms defined in section 469.174 have the meanings given in that section.

(c) "Qualified manufacturing district" means an economic development district that qualifies under section 469.176, subdivision 4c, paragraph (a), without regard to clauses (2) and (4), for which certification was requested after June 30, 1991, located in a home rule charter or statutory city that (1) has a population under 10,000 according to the last federal census and (2) is wholly located outside of a metropolitan statistical area as determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget.

Subd. 2. [REPORTING.] The county auditor shall calculate the qualifying captured net tax capacity amount for each municipal part of each school district in the county and report the amounts to the commissioner of revenue at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [CALCULATION OF EDUCATION AIDS.] For each school district containing qualifying captured net tax capacity, the commissioner of education shall compute a hypothetical state aid amount that would be paid to the school district if the qualifying captured net tax capacity were divided by the sales ratio and included in the school district's adjusted tax capacity for purposes of calculating equalized levies as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, and associated state aids. The commissioner of education shall notify the commissioner of revenue of the difference between the actual aid paid and the hypothetical aid amounts calculated for each school district, broken down by the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district containing the qualifying captured net tax capacity. The resulting amount is the reduction in state tax increment financing aid.

Subd. 4. [EQUALIZATION FACTOR.] The amount of the reduction in state tax increment financing aid equals the amount determined under subdivision 3 less

(1) 75 percent of the excess, if any, of the amount determined under subdivision 3, over

(2) .05 times the municipality's net tax capacity, divided by the sales ratio.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT AIDS; HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL AID CALCULATIONS.] (a) The reduction in state tax increment financing aid for a municipality must be deducted first from the local government aids to be paid to the municipality. If the deduction exceeds the amount of the local government aid, the rest must be deducted from the homestead and agricultural credit aid to be paid to the municipality.

(b) The amount of qualifying captured net tax capacity must be included in adjusted net tax capacity for purposes of computing the local government aid of the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district.

Subdivision 1. [TAXATION WITHIN TRANSIT TAXING DISTRICT.] For the purposes of sections 473.404 to 473.449 and the metropolitan transit system, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the regional transit board shall levy each year upon all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district, defined in subdivision 2, a transit tax consisting of:

(a) an amount which shall be used for payment of the expenses of operating transit and paratransit service and to provide for payment of obligations issued by the commission under section 473.436, subdivision 6;

(b) an additional amount, if any, the board determines to be necessary to provide for the full and timely payment of its certificates of indebtedness and other obligations outstanding on July 1, 1985, to which property taxes under this section have been pledged; and

(c) an additional amount necessary to provide full and timely payment of certificates of indebtedness, bonds, including refunding bonds or other obligations issued or to be issued under section 473.39 by the council for purposes of acquisition and betterment of property and other improvements of a capital nature and to which the council or board has specifically pledged tax levies under this clause.

The property tax levied by the regional transit board for general purposes under clause (a) must not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(1) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of two mills multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(2) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (1) multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district; and

(3) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive full-peak service and limited off-peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of ~~0.01209~~ 0.510 percent of ~~market value~~ net tax capacity on the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive limited peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of ~~0.01813~~ 0.765 percent of ~~market value~~ net tax capacity on the property. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy and may make changes in the certification as necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. The commissioner shall pay to the regional transit board the amounts certified by the county auditors on the dates provided in section 273.1398. There is annually appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of revenue the amounts necessary to make these payments.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "full-peak and limited off-peak service" means peak period regular route service, plus weekday midday regular route service at intervals longer than 60 minutes on the route with the greatest frequency; and "limited peak period service" means peak period regular route service only.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate class rates. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times the total local tax rate for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average local tax rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the ~~gross~~ net tax in clause (c) is less than the ~~gross~~ net tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payment shall be made by the state on December 15 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

(b) For town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies other than those (i) writing life insurance, or (ii) whose total assets on December 31, 1989, exceeded $1,600,000,000, the installments must be based on an amount equal to the following percentages of the premiums described in paragraph (c):

(1) for premiums paid after December 31, 1988, and before January 1, 1992, one percent; and

(2) for premiums paid after December 31, 1991, one-half of one percent.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 289A.26, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

289A.26 [PAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX ~~BY CORPORATIONS.~~]

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM LIABILITY.] A corporation, partnership, or trust subject to taxation under chapter 290 (excluding section 290.92) or an entity subject to taxation under section 290.05, subdivision 3, must make payment of estimated tax for the taxable year if its tax liability so computed can reasonably be expected to exceed $500, or in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner for an affiliated group of corporations electing to file one return as permitted under section 289A.08, subdivision 3.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SHORT TAXABLE YEAR.] (a) ~~A corporation~~ An entity with a short taxable year of less than 12 months, but at least four months, must pay estimated tax in equal installments on or before the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth, and final month of the short taxable year, to the extent applicable based on the number of months in the short taxable year.

(b) ~~A corporation~~ An entity is not required to make estimated tax payments for a short taxable year unless its tax liability before the first day of the last month of the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $500.

(c) No payment is required for a short taxable year of less than four months.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] If there is an underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, partnership, or trust, there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate in section 270.75 on the amount of the underpayment, determined under subdivision 5, for the period of the underpayment determined under subdivision 6. This subdivision does not apply in the first taxable year that a corporation is subject to the tax imposed under section 290.02.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 289A.26, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment runs from the date the installment was required to be paid to the earlier of the following dates:

(1) the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year for corporations, the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year for partnerships or trusts, and the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable year for entities subject to tax under section 290.05, subdivision 3; or

(2) with respect to any part of the underpayment, the date on which that part is paid. For purposes of this clause, a payment of estimated tax shall be credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which those installments are required to be paid.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(1) ~~90~~ (i) for tax years beginning in calendar year 1992, 93 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed, 90 percent of the tax for that year; or

(ii) for tax years beginning after December 31, 1992, 95 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed 95 percent of the tax for that year; or

(2) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the ~~corporation~~ entity for the preceding taxable year provided the return was for a full 12-month period, showed a liability, and was filed by the ~~corporation~~ entity.

(c) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (b), clause (2), does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (b), clause (2), must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(d) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

(e) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(1) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over

(2) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (1).

(4) The "applicable percentage" used in clause (1) is:

For the following required installments:

The applicable percentage is:

	for tax years beginning in 1992	for tax years beginning after December 31, 1992
1st	22.5 23.25	23.75
2nd	45 46.5	47.5
3rd	67.5 69.75	71.25
4th	90 93	95

(f)(1) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(2) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the "base period percentage" for a period of months is the average percent that the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph only applies if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(3) In the case of a required installment determined under this paragraph, if the ~~corporation~~ entity determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [FAILURE TO FILE AN ESTIMATE.] In the case of a ~~corporation~~ an entity that fails to file an estimated tax for a taxable year when one is required, the period of the underpayment runs from the four installment dates in subdivision 2 or 3, whichever applies, to the earlier of the periods in subdivision 6, clauses (1) and (2).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 289A.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT: NOTICE AND DEMAND TO TAXPAYER.] (a) When a return has been filed and the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the return is different than the tax determined by the examination, the commissioner shall send an order of assessment to the taxpayer. When no return has been filed, the commissioner may make a return for the taxpayer under section 289A.35 or may send an order of assessment under this subdivision. The order must explain the basis for the assessment and must explain the taxpayer's appeal rights. An order of assessment is final when made but may be reconsidered by the commissioner under section 289A.65.

(b) ~~An~~ The penalty under section 289A.60, subdivision 1, is not imposed if the amount of unpaid tax shown on the order must be is paid to the commissioner: (1) within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner; or (2) if an administrative appeal is filed under section 289A.65 or a tax court appeal is filed under chapter 271, within 60 days following the final determination of the appeal.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 290.01, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NET INCOME.] The term "net income" means the federal taxable income, as defined in section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through the date named in this subdivision, incorporating

No credit may be carried to a taxable year in which alternative minimum tax was paid.

(d) An acquiring corporation may carry over this credit from a transferor or distributor corporation in a corporate acquisition. The provisions of section 381 of the Internal Revenue Code apply in determining the amount of the carryover, if any.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 290A.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] (a) "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by this chapter and who was a resident of this state as provided in chapter 290 during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed.

(b) In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim.

(c) "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under title XVI of the Social Security Act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to title XIX of the Social Security Act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3, paragraphs (1) and (2), reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3, paragraphs (1) and (2), plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), if the claimant was a resident of the nursing home, intermediate care facility or long-term residential facility for only a portion of the calendar year covered by the claim, the claimant may compute rent constituting property taxes by disregarding the rent constituting property taxes from the nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility and use only that amount of rent constituting property taxes or property taxes payable relating to that portion of the year when the claimant was not in the facility. The claimant's household income is the income for the entire calendar year covered by the claim.

(e) In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part-year Minnesota resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part-year Minnesota resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

(f) If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be each renter's household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

290A.19 [OWNER OR MANAGING AGENT TO FURNISH RENT CERTIFICATE.]

(a) The owner or managing agent of any property for which rent is paid for occupancy as a homestead must furnish a certificate of rent constituting property tax to a person who is a renter on December 31, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. If the renter moves before December 31, the owner or managing agent may give the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to the forwarding address if an address has been provided by the renter. The certificate must be made available to the renter before February 1 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. The owner or managing agent must retain a duplicate of each certificate or an equivalent record showing the same information for a period of three years. The duplicate or other record must be made available to the commissioner upon request.

(b) The certificate of rent constituting property taxes must include the address of the property, including the county, and the property tax parcel identification number and any additional information that the commissioner determines is appropriate.

(c) If the owner or managing agent fails to provide the renter with a certificate of rent constituting property taxes, the commissioner shall allocate the net tax on the building to the unit on a square footage basis or other appropriate basis as the commissioner determines. The renter shall supply the commissioner with a statement from the county treasurer that gives the amount of property tax on the parcel, the address and property tax parcel identification number of the property, and the number of units in the building.

(d) ~~By June 30, for taxes payable in 1990 and May 30 for taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter January 31 of the year following the year in which the rent was collected,~~ each owner or managing agent shall report to the commissioner on a form prescribed by the commissioner the net tax pertaining to the rental residential part of the property, the total scheduled rent, and the fraction computed under section 290A.03, subdivision 11. A copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in that year must be attached.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 297A.15, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Upon application by the purchaser, on forms prescribed by the commissioner, a refund equal to the reduction in the tax due as a result of the application of the exemption under section 297A.25, subdivision 42, or 297A.257 shall be paid to the purchaser. In the case of building materials qualifying under section 297A.257 where the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the owner for the sales tax paid by all the contractors, subcontractors, and builders for the project. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The application shall include information necessary for the commissioner initially to verify that the purchases qualified as capital equipment under section 297A.25, subdivision 42, or capital equipment or construction materials and supplies under section 297A.257. No more than two applications for refunds may be filed under this subdivision in a calendar year. Unless otherwise specifically provided by this subdivision, the provisions of section 289A.40 apply to the refunds payable under this subdivision. There is annually appropriated to the commissioner of revenue the amount required to make the refunds.

The amount to be refunded shall bear interest at the rate in section 270.76 from the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 297A.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REFUND; APPROPRIATION.] The tax on the gross receipts from the sale of items exempt under section 297A.25, subdivision 43, must be imposed and collected as if the sale were taxable and the ~~rate~~ rates under ~~section~~ sections 297A.02, subdivision 1, and 297A.021 applied.

Upon application by the owner of the homestead property on forms prescribed by the commissioner, a refund equal to the tax paid on the gross receipts of the building materials and equipment must be paid to the homeowner. In the case of building materials in which the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the homeowner for the sales tax paid by the contractor. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The contractor must furnish to the homeowner a statement of the cost of building materials and the sales taxes paid on the materials. The amount required to make the refunds is annually appropriated to the commissioner. Interest must be paid on the refund at the rate in section 270.76 from 60 days after the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

ARTICLE 8

Section 1. [290.069] [DESIGNATED COUNTIES JOB CREATION CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION OF COUNTIES.] The commissioner of trade and economic development shall certify counties as designated counties. A county is a designated county if:

(1) the county has had a decline in population of ten percent or more from 1980 to 1990, as determined by the 1990 federal decennial census;

(2) the county has adopted a county-wide economic development plan;

(3) the county has been designated a star county by the department of trade and economic development; and

(4) each statutory and home rule charter city in the county has established an economic development authority under sections 469.090 to 469.108.

Subd. 2. [CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION.] A business with operations located in a designated county may take a credit against the tax due under chapter 290 for its first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1992, and before January 1, 1994. For purposes of this section, "business" means a business entity organized for profit, including a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation, and "eligible employees" are determined as the number of persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the business within the designated county on a full-time basis on the last day of the taxable year, not to exceed the number of persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the business on a full-time basis within the designated county on the date 90 days before the last day of the taxable year. A credit is provided only for the number of eligible employees that exceeds the number of such persons so employed on the last day of the preceding taxable year. A person is not an eligible employee if the commissioner of trade and economic development determines that the position held by that employee in the business was transferred from an enterprise conducted by substantially the same business enterprise at another site in the state. The credit is equal to $2,000 multiplied by the number of eligible employees. The credit is not refundable.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] Tax credits provided under this section may not exceed $100,000. If by April 15, 1994, the commissioner of revenue determines that the estimated total amount of credits claimed under this section exceeds $100,000, the commissioner shall reduce the credit granted for each eligible employee proportionately.

Sec. 2. [298.227] [TACONITE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.]

An amount equal to 10.4 cents per taxable ton distributed pursuant to each taconite producer's taxable production under section 298.28, subdivision 9a, for production years 1992 and 1993 shall be held by the iron range resources and rehabilitation board in a separate taconite economic development fund for each taconite producer. Money from the fund for each producer shall be released only on the written authorization of a joint committee consisting of an equal number of representatives of the salaried employees and the nonsalaried production and maintenance employees of that producer. The district 33 director of the United States Steelworkers of America, on advice of each local employee president, shall select the employee members. In nonorganized operations, the employee committee shall be elected by the nonsalaried production and maintenance employees. Each producer's joint committee may authorize release of the funds held pursuant to this section only for acquisition of equipment and facilities for the producer or for research and development in Minnesota on new mining, or taconite, iron, or steel production technology. Funds may be released only upon a majority vote of the representatives of the committee. Any portion of the fund which is not released by a joint committee within two years of its deposit in the fund shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund created in section 298.292 for placement in their respective special accounts. Two-thirds of the unreleased funds shall be distributed to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund. This section shall be effective for taxes payable in 1993 and 1994.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 298.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For concentrate produced in ~~1990~~ 1992 and 1993 there is hereby imposed upon taconite and iron sulphides, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of ~~$1.975~~ $2.054 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced therefrom.

(b) For concentrates produced in ~~1994~~ 1994 and subsequent years, the tax rate shall be equal to the preceding year's tax rate plus an amount equal to the preceding year's tax rate multiplied by the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator from the fourth quarter of the second preceding year to the fourth quarter of the preceding year. "Implicit price deflator" for the gross national product means the implicit price deflator prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States Department of Commerce.

(c) The tax shall be imposed on the average of the production for the current year and the previous two years. The rate of the tax imposed will be the current year's tax rate. This clause shall not apply in the case of the closing of a taconite facility if the property taxes on the facility would be higher if this clause and section 298.25 were not applicable.

(d) If the tax or any part of the tax imposed by this subdivision is held to be unconstitutional, a tax of ~~$1.975~~ $2.054 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced shall be imposed.

(e) Consistent with the intent of this subdivision to impose a tax based upon the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate, the commissioner of revenue may indirectly determine the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate included in fluxed pellets by subtracting the weight of the limestone, dolomite, or olivine derivatives or other basic flux additives included in the pellets from the weight of the pellets. For purposes of this paragraph, "fluxed pellets" are pellets produced in a process in which limestone, dolomite, olivine, or other basic flux additives are combined with merchantable iron ore concentrate. No subtraction from the weight of the pellets shall be allowed for binders, mineral and chemical additives other than basic flux additives, or moisture.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 298.28, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [TACONITE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.] 10.4 cents per ton for distributions in 1993 and 1994 shall be paid to the taconite economic development fund. No distribution shall be made under this subdivision in any year in which total industry production falls below 30 million tons.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 383.06, is amended to read:

383.06 [PAYMENT OF WARRANTS; ACCOUNTS; HOW KEPT; CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS TO RETIRE OUTSTANDING WARRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF WARRANTS.] The county treasurer shall pay warrants only from the fund from which they are legally payable. Payments under any special contract shall be kept separate under the name of such contract, and under the general title of the fund from which such payment may be legally made. The treasurer need not keep a specific appropriations account separately, but shall keep a general appropriations account.

Subd. 2. [TAX ANTICIPATION CERTIFICATES.] The county board may, by resolution, issue and sell as many certificates of indebtedness as may be needed in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied for any fund named in the tax levy for the purpose of raising money for such fund, but the certificates outstanding for any such separate funds shall not at any time exceed 50 percent of the amount of taxes previously levied for such fund remaining uncollected; ~~and~~. No certificate shall be issued to become due and payable later than ~~December 31 of the year succeeding the year in which the tax levy was made~~ 15 months after the deadline for the certification of the property tax levy under section 275.07, subdivision 1, and the certificates shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest. ~~No such certificates shall be issued prior to the beginning of the fiscal year for which the taxes so anticipated were intended; except that when taxes shall have been levied for the purpose of paying a deficit in any such fund carried over from any previous year or years~~ The certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of collection of the taxes levied for such deficit may be issued at any time after ~~such the levy shall have~~ has been finally made and certified to the county auditor. Each certificate shall state upon its face for which fund the proceeds thereof shall be used, the total amount of certificates so issued, and the whole amount embraced in the levy for that particular purpose. They shall be numbered consecutively, be in denominations of $100 or a multiple thereof, may have interest coupons attached, shall be otherwise of such form and terms, and may be made payable at such place, as will best aid in their negotiation, and the proceeds of the tax assessed and collected on account of the fund and the full faith and credit of the county shall be irrevocably pledged for the redemption and payment of the certificates so issued. Such certificates shall be payable primarily from the moneys derived from the levy for the years against which such certificates were issued, but shall constitute unlimited general obligations of the county. Money derived from the sale of such certificates shall be credited to the fund or funds the taxes for which are so anticipated.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 401.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ESTABLISHMENT AND REORGANIZATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE.] Any county or group of counties which have qualified for participation in the community corrections subsidy program provided by this chapter may, ~~after consultation with the judges of the district court, county court, municipal court, probate court and juvenile court having jurisdiction in the county or group of counties~~ establish, organize, and reorganize an administrative structure and provide for the budgeting, staffing and operation of court services and probation, ~~construction or improvement to juvenile detention and juvenile correctional facilities and adult detention and correctional facilities~~, and other activities required to conform to the purposes of this chapter. No contrary general or special statute divests any county or group of counties of the authority granted by this subdivision. ~~This subdivision does not apply to Ramsey County or Hennepin County or to the counties in the Arrowhead region. In Hennepin County and Ramsey County the county board and the judges of the district court, county court, municipal court, probate court and juvenile court shall prepare and implement a joint plan for reorganization of correctional services in the county providing for the administrative structure and providing for the budgeting, staffing and operation of court services and probation, juvenile detention and juvenile correctional facilities, and other activities required to conform to the purposes of this chapter. The joint plan shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner of corrections and submitted to the legislature on or before January 15, 1983.~~

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 401.05, is amended to read:

401.05 [FISCAL POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION TO USE AND ACCEPT FUNDS.] Any county or group of counties electing to come within the provisions of sections 401.01 to 401.16, may, through their governing bodies, use unexpended funds, accept gifts, grants and subsidies from any lawful source, and apply for and accept federal funds.

Subd. 2. [CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS; BONDS; LEASES.] (a) Any county or group of counties which acquires facilities pursuant to section 401.04 or constructs the facilities may finance the acquisition or construction and the equipping and subsequent improvement of the facilities in whole or in part by:

(1) the issuance of general obligation bonds of the county or group of counties in the manner provided in chapter 475; or

(2) the issuance of revenue bonds, secured by a lease agreement as provided in subdivision 3 and sections 469.152 to 469.165, by a city situated in any of the counties or a county housing and redevelopment authority established pursuant to chapter 469 or special law.

Proceedings for the issuance of general obligation bonds shall be instituted by the board of county commissioners of the county or boards of the group of counties.

(b) If counties have combined as authorized in section 401.02, the joint powers board created under section 471.59 shall, with the approval of the county board of each county which is a party:

(1) fix the total amount necessary for the construction or acquisition and the equipping and subsequent improvement of the facilities; and

(2) apportion to each county its share of this amount or of the annual debt service or lease rentals required to pay this amount with interest, as provided in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [LEASING.] (a) A county or joint powers board of a group of counties which acquires or constructs and equips or improves facilities under this chapter may, with the approval of the board of county commissioners of each county, enter into a lease agreement with a city situated within any of the counties, or a county housing and redevelopment authority established under chapter 469 or any special law. Under the lease agreement, the city or county housing and redevelopment authority shall:

(1) construct or acquire and equip or improve a facility in accordance with plans prepared by or at the request of a county or joint powers board of the group of counties and approved by the commissioner of corrections; and

(2) finance the facility by the issuance of revenue bonds.

(b) The county or joint powers board of a group of counties may lease the facility site, improvements, and equipment for a term upon rental sufficient to produce revenue for the prompt payment of the revenue bonds and all interest accruing on them. Upon completion of payment, the lessee shall acquire title. The real and personal property acquired for the facility constitutes a project and the lease agreement constitutes a revenue agreement as provided in sections 469.152 to 469.165. All proceedings by the city or county housing and redevelopment authority and the county or joint powers board shall be as provided in sections 469.152 to 469.165, with the following adjustments:

(1) no tax shall be imposed upon the property;

(2) the approval of the project by the commissioner of trade and economic development shall not be required;

(3) the department of corrections shall be furnished and shall record information concerning each project as it may prescribe, in lieu of reports required on other projects to the commissioner of trade and economic development or energy and economic development authority;

(4) the rentals required to be paid under the lease agreement shall not exceed in any year one-tenth of one percent of the market value of property within the county or group of counties as last equalized before the execution of the lease agreement;

(5) the county or group of counties shall provide for payment of all rentals due during the term of the lease agreement in the manner required in subdivision 4;

(6) no mortgage on the facilities shall be granted for the security of the bonds, but compliance with clause (5) may be enforced as a nondiscretionary duty of the county or group of counties; and

(7) the county or the joint powers board of the group of counties may sublease any part of the facilities for purposes consistent with their maintenance and operation.

Subd. 4. [TAX LEVIES; APPORTIONMENT OF COSTS.] The county or each county of the group of counties shall annually levy a tax in an amount necessary to defray its proportion of the net costs of maintenance and operation of the facilities, and shall levy a tax to pay the cost of construction or acquisition, equipping, and any subsequent improvement to the facilities or the retirement of any bonds or required lease payments for these purposes. Each county may levy these taxes without limitation on the rate or amount. This levy shall not cause the amount of other taxes levied or to be levied by the county, which are subject to any limitation, to be reduced in any amount. A joint powers board of the group of counties shall apportion the costs of maintenance and operation, construction or acquisition, equipping, and subsequent improvement of the facilities to each of the counties according to a formula in the agreement entered into by the counties.

Subd. 5. The governing body shall consider the need for a county authority to function (1) on the governing body's own motion or (2) upon the filing of a petition signed by 25 qualified voters of the county asserting that there is need for a county authority to function in the county and requesting that the governing body so declare. The governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a county authority to function in the county

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 469.034, is amended to read:
469.034 [BOND ISSUE FOR CORPORATE PURPOSES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY AND REVENUE OBLIGATIONS.] An authority may issue bonds for any of its corporate purposes. The bonds may be the type the authority determines, including bonds on which the principal and interest are payable exclusively from the income and revenues of the project financed with the proceeds of the bonds, or exclusively from the income and revenues of certain designated projects, whether or not they are financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the bonds. The bonds may be additionally secured by (1) a pledge of any grant or contributions from the federal government or other source, or (2) a pledge of any income or revenues of the authority from the project for which the proceeds of the bonds are to be used, or (3) a mortgage of any project or other property of the authority.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL OBLIGATION REVENUE BONDS.] (a) An authority may pledge the general obligation of the general jurisdiction governmental unit as additional security for bonds payable from income or revenues of the project or the authority. The authority must find that the pledged revenues will equal or exceed 110 percent of the principal and interest due on the bonds for each year. The proceeds of the bonds must be used for a qualified housing development project or projects. The obligations must be issued and sold in the manner and following the procedures provided by chapter 475 and the authority shall be the municipality, except the obligations are not subject to approval by the electors.

(b) The principal amount of the issue must be approved by the governing body of the general jurisdiction governmental unit whose general obligation is pledged. Public hearings must be held on issuance of the obligations by both the authority and the general jurisdiction governmental unit. The hearings must be held at least 15 days, but not more than 120 days, before the sale of the obligations.

(c) The maximum amount of general obligation bonds that may be issued and outstanding under this section equals the greater of (1) one-half of one percent of the taxable market value of the general jurisdiction governmental unit whose general obligation which includes a tax on property is pledged or (2) $3,000,000. In the case of county or multicounty general obligation bonds, the outstanding general obligation bonds of all cities in the county or counties issued under this subdivision must be added in calculating the limit under clause (1).

(d) "General jurisdiction governmental unit" means the city in which the housing development project is located. In the case of a county or multicounty authority, the county or counties may act as the general jurisdiction governmental unit. In the case of a multicounty authority, the pledge of the general obligation is a pledge of a tax on the taxable property in each of the counties.

“Qualified housing development project” means a housing development project providing housing for persons and families with incomes not greater than 80 percent of the median family income as estimated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for the nonmetropolitan county or standard metropolitan statistical area in which the project is located, as the case may be, or for elderly persons. Other persons and families with incomes in excess of such limit may be admitted to a project if the authority finds that (1) due to changes in population or other unforeseen circumstances occurring after the initial finding of adequate revenues made upon issuance of the bonds, the project is experiencing unanticipated vacancies resulting in insufficient revenues and (2) a tax levy or payment from general assets of the general jurisdiction governmental unit will be necessary to pay debt service on the bonds if such other persons and families are not admitted to the project.

Subd. 3. [REVENUE FROM OTHER PROJECTS.] No proceeds of bonds issued for or revenue authorized for or derived from any redevelopment project or area shall be used to pay the bonds or costs of, or make contributions or loans to, any public housing project. The proceeds of bonds issued for or revenues authorized for or derived from any one public housing project shall not be used to pay the bonds or costs of, or make contributions or loans to any other public housing project until the bonds and costs of the public housing project for which those bonds were issued or from which those revenues were derived or for which they were authorized shall be fully paid.

Subd. 4. [BOND TERMS.] Neither the commissioners of an authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. Except as provided in subdivision 2, the bonds of an authority shall not be a debt of the city, the state, or any political subdivision, and neither the city nor the state or any political subdivision shall be liable on them, nor shall the bonds be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of the authority; the bonds shall state this on their face. The bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction, except as provided in subdivision 2. Bonds of an authority are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and to be public instrumentalities.

Subd. 5. [TAX EXEMPTION.] The provisions of sections 469.001 to 469.047 exempting from taxation authorities, their properties and income, shall be considered additional security for the repayment of bonds and shall constitute, by virtue of sections 469.001 to 469.047 and without the same being restated in the bonds, a contract between the (1) bondholders and each of them, including all transferees of the bonds, and (2) the respective authorities issuing the bonds and the state. An authority may by covenant confer upon the holder of the bonds the rights and remedies it deems necessary or advisable, including the right in the event of default to have a receiver appointed to take possession of and operate the project. When the obligations issued by an authority to assist in financing the development of a project have been retired and federal contributions have been discontinued, the exemptions from taxes and special assessments for that project shall terminate.

A revolving fund is established to support implementation of this pilot including start-up costs. Money initially collected by the system shall be deposited in the fund until start-up costs of the pilot are recovered and thereafter up to 25 percent of the money collected may be deposited in the fund. (c) "Motor vehicle" and "vehicle" have the meaning given "motor vehicle" in section 169.121, subdivision 11. The terms do not include a vehicle which is stolen or taken in violation of the law.

(d) "Owner" means the registered owner of the motor vehicle according to records of the department of public safety and includes a lessee of a motor vehicle if the lease agreement has a term of 180 days or more.

(e) "Prior impaired driving conviction" has the meaning given it in section 169.121, subdivision 3.

(f) "Prior license revocation" has the meaning given it in section 169.121, subdivision 3.

(g) "Prosecuting authority" means the attorney in the jurisdiction in which the designated offense occurred who is responsible for prosecuting violations of a designated offense.

Subd. 2. [SEIZURE.] A motor vehicle subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized by the appropriate agency upon process issued by any court having jurisdiction over the vehicle. Property may be seized without process if:

(1) the seizure is incident to a lawful arrest or a lawful search;

(2) the vehicle subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding under this section; or

(3) the appropriate agency has probable cause to believe that the delay occasioned by the necessity to obtain process would result in the removal or destruction of the vehicle. If property is seized without process under clause (3), the prosecuting authority must institute a forfeiture action under this section as soon as is reasonably possible.

Subd. 3. [RIGHT TO POSSESSION VESTS IMMEDIATELY; CUSTODY OF SEIZED VEHICLE.] All right, title, and interest in a vehicle subject to forfeiture under this section vests in the appropriate agency upon commission of the designated offense giving rise to the forfeiture. Any vehicle seized under this section is not subject to replevin, but is deemed to be in the custody of the appropriate agency subject to the orders and decrees of the court having jurisdiction over the forfeiture proceedings. When a vehicle is so seized, the appropriate agency may:

(1) place the vehicle under seal;

(2) remove the vehicle to a place designated by it;

(3) place a disabling device on the vehicle; and

(4) take other steps reasonable and necessary to secure the vehicle and prevent waste.

Subd. 4. [BOND BY OWNER FOR POSSESSION.] If the owner of a vehicle that has been seized under this section seeks possession of the vehicle before the forfeiture action is determined, the owner may, subject to the approval of the appropriate agency, give security or post bond payable to the appropriate agency in an amount equal to the retail value of the seized vehicle. On posting the security or bond, the seized vehicle may be returned to the owner only if a disabling device is attached to the vehicle. The forfeiture action shall proceed against the security as if it were the seized vehicle.

Subd. 5. [EVIDENCE.] Certified copies of motor vehicle records concerning prior license revocations are admissible as substantive evidence where necessary to prove the commission of a designated offense.

Subd. 6. [MOTOR VEHICLES SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE.] A motor vehicle is subject to forfeiture under this section if it was used in the commission of a designated offense.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS ON FORFEITURE OF MOTOR VEHICLES.] (a) A vehicle is subject to forfeiture under this section only if the driver is convicted of the designated offense upon which the forfeiture is based.

(b) A vehicle encumbered by a bona fide security interest, or subject to a lease that has a term of 180 days or more, is subject to the interest of the secured party or lessor unless the party or lessor had knowledge of or consented to the act upon which the forfeiture is based.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), the secured party's or lessor's interest in a vehicle is not subject to forfeiture based solely on the secured party's or lessor's knowledge of the act or omission upon which the forfeiture is based if the secured party or lessor took reasonable steps to terminate use of the vehicle by the offender.

(d) A motor vehicle is subject to forfeiture under this section only if its owner knew or should have known of the unlawful use or intended use.

Subd. 8. [FORFEITURE PROCEDURE.] (a) A motor vehicle used to commit a designated offense is subject to forfeiture under this subdivision.

(b) A separate complaint shall be filed against the vehicle, describing it, and specifying that it was used in the commission of a designated offense and specifying the time and place of its unlawful use. If the person charged with a designated offense is not convicted of the offense, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the vehicle and order the property returned to the person legally entitled to it. If the lawful ownership of the vehicle used in the commission of a designated offense can be determined and it is found the owner was not privy to commission of a designated offense, the vehicle shall be returned immediately.

Subd. 9. [DISPOSITION OF FORFEITED VEHICLES.] (a) If the court finds under subdivision 8 that the vehicle is subject to forfeiture, it shall order the appropriate agency to:

(1) sell the vehicle and distribute the proceeds under paragraph (b); or

(2) keep the vehicle for official use.

(b) The proceeds from the sale of forfeited vehicles, after payment of seizure, storage, forfeiture, and sale expenses, and satisfaction of valid liens against the property, must be forwarded to the treasury of the political subdivision that employs the appropriate agency responsible for the forfeiture. If the appropriate agency is an agency of state government, the net proceeds must be forwarded to the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 169.123, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [IMPLIED CONSENT; CONDITIONS; ELECTION OF TEST.]

(a) Any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of a motor vehicle within this state or upon the ice of any boundary water of this state consents, subject to the provisions of this section and section 169.121, to a chemical test of that person's blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance. The test shall be administered at the direction of a peace officer. The test may be required of a person when an officer has probable cause to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of section 169.121 and one of the following conditions exist:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or an ordinance in conformity with it;

(2) the person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6; or

(4) the screening test was administered and ~~recorded~~ indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

The test may also be required of a person when an officer has probable cause to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a commercial motor vehicle with the presence of any alcohol.

(b) At the time a test is requested, the person shall be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires the person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance or, if the motor vehicle was a commercial motor vehicle, that Minnesota law requires the person to take a test to determine the presence of alcohol;

(2) that if testing is refused, the person's right to drive will be revoked for a minimum period of one year or, if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of one year or until the person reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater and, if the vehicle was a commercial motor vehicle, that the person will be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a minimum period of one year;

(3) that if a test is taken and the results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the person's right to drive will be revoked for a minimum period of 90 days or, if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of six months or until the person reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater, and, if the vehicle was a commercial motor vehicle, that if the test results indicate the presence of any alcohol, the person will be prohibited from operating a commercial motor vehicle for 24 hours from issuance of an out-of-service order, and if the results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more, the person will be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a minimum period of one year;

~~(4) that whether refusal to take a test is taken or refused, the person may be subject to criminal prosecution for an alcohol or controlled substance related driving offense;~~

~~(5) that if testing is refused and the person's right to drive has been revoked once within the past five years or two or more times within the past ten years for an alcohol or controlled substance related driving offense, the person may be subject to criminal prosecution because the person refused testing a crime;~~

~~(6) (3) if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated the criminal vehicular homicide and injury laws, that a test will be taken with or without the person's consent; and~~

~~(4) that after submitting to testing, the person has the right to consult with an attorney and to have additional tests made by someone of the person's own choosing; and~~

~~(7) that if the person refuses to take a test, the refusal may be offered into evidence against the person at trial, but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test.~~

(c) The peace officer who requires a test pursuant to this subdivision may direct whether the test shall be of blood, breath, or urine. Action may be taken against a person who refuses to take a blood test only if an alternative test was offered and action may be taken against a person who refuses to take a urine test only if an alternative test was offered.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.123, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFUSAL; REVOCATION OF LICENSE.] If a person refuses to permit a test, none shall be given, but the peace officer shall report the refusal to the commissioner of public safety and the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred. However, if a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated section 609.21, a test may be required and obtained despite the person's refusal. A refusal to submit to an alcohol concentration test does not constitute a violation of section 609.50, unless the refusal was accompanied by force or violence or the threat of force or violence. If a person submits to a test and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, or if a person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a commercial motor vehicle and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more, the results of the test shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred.

Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person refused to submit to a test, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege, for a period of one year even if a test was obtained pursuant to this section after the person refused to submit to testing. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a commercial motor vehicle with the presence of any alcohol and that the person refused to submit to a test, the commissioner shall disqualify the person from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a period of one year under section 171.165 and shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege for a period of one year. If the person refusing to submit to testing is under the age of 18 years, the commissioner shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege, for a period of one year or until the person reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person submitted to a test and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege, for: (1) a period of 90 days; or (2) if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of six months or until the person reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater; or (3) if the person's driver's license or driving privileges have been revoked within the past five years under this section or section 169.121, for a period of 180 days. On certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a commercial motor vehicle with any presence of alcohol and that the person submitted to a test and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more, the commissioner of public safety shall disqualify the person from operating a commercial motor vehicle under section 171.165.

If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the commissioner of public safety shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period after the date of the alleged violation as provided herein for revocation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

The recommendation shall include a means of committing these individuals to treatment, including the potential for confinement as a sanction for leaving or failing treatment, using alcohol or drugs, or reoffending.

Subd. 3. [SPECIFIC DETERMINATIONS.] In developing the recommendation required by subdivision 2, the commission shall make specific determinations concerning the following:

(1) whether the offenders should be confined through a civil commitment process, through the criminal justice system, or through a system that combines features of the civil and criminal systems:

(2) what types of treatment programs hold the most promise for changing the behavior of those with entrenched chemical dependency problems;

(3) what types of correctional programs, including intensive supervision, hold the most promise for changing the behavior of those with entrenched chemical dependency problems;

(4) the best way to allocate the costs of treatment and confinement among the offender, local governments, and the state;

(5) if a criminal justice system approach is selected, whether imposing a felony penalty or a gross misdemeanor penalty on offenders with the DWI history described above would be more effective in giving a high priority to the repeat DWI cases within prosecutors' offices, and whether probation officers who supervise gross misdemeanants would be better suited to supervise repeat DWI offenders than would probation officers who supervise felons;

(6) if a civil commitment approach is selected, whether changes are needed in the civil commitment laws and recommendations for making those changes;

(7) what secure treatment facilities are available, including private, state, and locally owned facilities;

(8) the feasibility of using innovative treatment approaches, such as the use of pharmacologic agents, including deterrent chemicals, in the control of those who are unsuccessful in treatment programs;

(9) the need for culturally appropriate chemical dependency treatment programs; and

(10) the characteristics and treatment and incarceration history of the typical fourth-time DWI offender.

Courts may consider prior convictions and license revocations in sentencing repeat offenders and forfeiting vehicles under this article.

ARTICLE 2

OPERATING A SNOWMOBILE OR ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLE WHILE INTOXICATED

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 84.91, is amended to read:

84.91 [OPERATION OF SNOWMOBILES AND ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLES BY PERSONS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTS PROHIBITED.] (a) No person shall operate or be in physical control of any snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle anywhere in this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state ~~while under the influence of:~~

(1) ~~when the person is under the influence of alcohol; as provided in section 469.121, subdivision 1, clauses (a) and (d);~~

(2) ~~when the person is under the influence of a controlled substance, as defined in section 152.01, subdivision 4; or~~

(3) ~~when the person is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (1) and (2), and (6);~~

(4) ~~when the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more;~~

(5) ~~when the person's alcohol concentration as measured within two hours of the time of operating is 0.10 or more; or~~

(6) ~~when the person is knowingly under the influence of any chemical compound or combination of chemical compounds that is listed as a hazardous substance in rules adopted under section 182.655 and that affects the nervous system, brain, or muscles of the person so as to substantially impair the person's ability to operate the snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle.~~

(b) No owner or other person having charge or control of any snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle shall authorize or permit any individual the person knows or has reason to believe is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance or other substance, as provided under paragraph (a), to operate the snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle anywhere in this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state.

(c) No owner or other person having charge or control of any snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle shall knowingly authorize or permit any person, who by reason of any physical or mental disability is incapable of operating the vehicle, to operate the snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle anywhere in this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state.

Subd. 2. [ARREST.] Conservation officers of the department of natural resources, sheriffs, sheriff's deputies, and other peace officers may arrest a person for a violation under subdivision 1 without a warrant upon probable cause; ~~if, without regard to whether the violation was committed in the officer's presence. If the violation did not occur in the officer's presence, the officer may arrest the person if the person was involved in a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle accident resulting in death, personal injury, or property damage.~~

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make arrests has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is operating, controlling, or acting upon departure from a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle, or has operated or been in control of the vehicle, that the operator may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the officer may require the operator to provide a breath sample for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of the preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made under this section and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 84.911, but may not be used in any court action except: (1) to prove that a test was properly required of an operator under section 84.911; or (2) in a civil action arising out of the operation or use of a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle. Following the preliminary screening test, additional tests may be required of the operator as provided under section 84.911. An operator who refuses a breath sample is subject to the provisions of section 84.911 unless, in compliance with that section, the operator submits to a blood, breath, or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] In a prosecution for a violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), or an ordinance in conformity with it, the admission of evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine, is governed by section 86B.331, subdivision 4.

Subd. 5. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1, or an ordinance in conformity with it, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) A person who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1 within five years of a prior impaired operating conviction ~~under that subdivision~~ or civil liability under section 84.911, subdivision 2, or an ordinance in conformity with it, or within ten years of the first of two or more prior impaired operating convictions ~~under that subdivision~~ or civil liability under section 84.911, subdivision 2, or an ordinance in conformity with it, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

For purposes of this section, a prior impaired operating conviction is a prior conviction under this section; section 86B.331, subdivision 1, paragraph (a); 169.121; 169.129; 360.0752; 609.21, subdivision 1, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 2, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 2a, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 3, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 4, clauses (2) to (4); or an ordinance from this state, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with any of them. A prior impaired operating conviction includes a prior juvenile adjudication that would have been a prior impaired operating conviction if committed by an adult.

(c) The attorney in the jurisdiction where the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecuting misdemeanor violations of this section is also responsible for prosecuting gross misdemeanor violations of this section. When an attorney responsible for prosecuting gross misdemeanors under this section requests criminal history information relating to prior impaired operating convictions from a court, the court must furnish the information without charge.

(b) (d) A person who operates a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle during the period the person is prohibited from operating the vehicle under subdivision 6 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 5a. [NOTICE OF ENHANCED PENALTIES.] When a court sentences a person for a misdemeanor violation of this section, it shall inform the defendant of the statutory provisions that provide for enhancement of criminal penalties for repeat violators. The failure of a court to provide this information to a defendant does not affect the future applicability of these enhanced penalties to that defendant.

Subd. 6. [OPERATING PRIVILEGES SUSPENDED.] Upon conviction

under this section, or an ordinance in conformity with it, and in addition to any penalty imposed under subdivision 5, the person is prohibited for one year from operating a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle, whichever was involved in the violation.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The court shall promptly forward to the commissioner copies of all convictions and criminal and civil penalties imposed under subdivision 5 and section 84.911, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall notify the convicted person of the period during which the person is prohibited from operating a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle under subdivision 6 or section 84.911, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall also periodically circulate to appropriate law enforcement agencies a list of all persons who are prohibited from operating a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle under subdivision 6 or section 84.911, subdivision 2.

Subd. 8. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] The state or political subdivision that employs an officer who is authorized under subdivision 2 to make an arrest for violations of subdivision 1 is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle being operated by or in the physical control of the person arrested if the officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 84.911, is amended to read:
84.911 [CHEMICAL TESTING.]

Subdivision 1. [MANDATORY CHEMICAL TESTING.] A person who operates or is in physical control of a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle anywhere in this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state is required, subject to the provisions of this section, to take or submit to a test of the person's blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence and amount of alcohol or a controlled substance. The test shall be administered at the direction of an officer authorized to make arrests under section 84.91, subdivision 2. Taking or submitting to the test is mandatory when requested by an officer who has probable cause to believe the person was operating or in physical control of a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle in violation of section 84.91, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), and one of the following conditions exists:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violating section 84.91, subdivision 1, paragraph (a);

(2) the person has been involved while operating a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle in an accident resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the preliminary screening test provided for in section 84.91, subdivision 3; or

(4) the screening test was administered and ~~recorded~~ indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

Subd. 2. [PENALTIES; REFUSAL; REVOCATION OF SNOWMOBILE OR ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLE OPERATING PRIVILEGE.] (a) If a person refuses to take a test required under subdivision 1, none must be given, but the officer authorized to make arrests under section 84.91, subdivision 2, shall report the refusal to the commissioner of natural resources and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred that gave rise to the test demand and refusal. However, if a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated section 609.21, a test may be required and obtained despite the person's refusal.

On certification by the officer that probable cause existed to believe the person had been operating or in physical control of a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and that the person refused to submit to testing, the commissioner shall impose a civil penalty of $500 and shall prohibit the person from operating a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle, whichever was involved in the violation, for a period of one year even if a test was obtained pursuant to this section after the person refused to submit to testing.

On behalf of the commissioner, an officer requiring a test or directing the administration of a test shall serve on a person who refused to permit a test immediate notice of intention to prohibit the operation of a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle, and to impose the civil penalty set forth in this subdivision. If the officer fails to serve a notice of intent to suspend operating privileges, the commissioner may notify the person by mail, and the notice is deemed received three days after mailing. The notice must advise the person of the right to obtain administrative and judicial review as provided in this section. The prohibition imposed by the commissioner takes effect ten days after receipt of the notice. The civil penalty is imposed on receipt of the notice and must be paid within 30 days of imposition.

(b) A person who operates a snowmobile or all-terrain vehicle during the period the person is prohibited from operating the vehicle as provided under paragraph (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.] At the time a test is requested, the person must be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires a person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

(2) that ~~if the person refuses to take the test, the~~ a person is subject to a civil penalty of $500 ~~for refusing to take the test and, in addition, is prohibited from operating a one-year period from operating a snowmobile or an all-terrain vehicle, as provided under subdivision 2;~~

(3) that ~~if testing is refused it will not affect the person's motor vehicle driver's license;~~

(4) that ~~if the test is taken and the results indicate that the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and in addition to any other penalties the court may impose, the person's operating privileges will be suspended as provided under section 84.91, subdivision 6;~~

(5) that, ~~after submitting to testing, the person has the right to have additional tests made by someone of the person's own choosing; and~~

(6) that ~~a refusal to take a test will be offered into evidence against the person at trial if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated the criminal vehicular homicide and injury laws, that a test will be taken with or without the person's consent; and~~

(4) that ~~the person has the right to consult with an attorney, but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test or the person will be deemed to have refused the test.~~

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENT OF URINE TEST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, if there is probable cause to believe there is impairment by a controlled substance that is not subject to testing by a breath test, a blood or urine test may be required even after a breath test has been administered.

Subd. 5. [CHEMICAL TESTS.] Chemical tests administered under this section are governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 8, 9, and 10.

Subd. 6. [JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW; ENFORCEMENT.] Judicial and administrative review of sanctions imposed under this section is governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 3, 4, and 5. Payment and enforcement of the civil penalty imposed under this section is governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 11 and 12.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective August 1, 1992, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 3

BOATING WHILE INTOXICATED

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.331, is amended to read:

86B.331 [OPERATION WHILE USING ALCOHOL OR DRUGS OR WITH A PHYSICAL OR MENTAL DISABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTS PROHIBITED.] (a) A person may not operate or be in physical control of a motorboat in operation on the waters of this state ~~while under the influence of:~~

(1) when the person is under the influence of alcohol; as provided in section ~~169.121~~, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) and (d);

(2) when the person is under the influence of a controlled or other substance, as ~~provided~~ defined in section ~~169.121~~ 152.01, subdivision 4 4; or

(3) when the person is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (1) ~~and~~, (2), and (6);

(4) when the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more;

(5) when the person's alcohol concentration as measured within two hours of the time of operating is 0.10 or more; or

(6) when the person is knowingly under the influence of any chemical compound or combination of chemical compounds that is listed as a hazardous substance in rules adopted under section 182.655 and that affects the nervous system, brain, or muscles of the person so as to substantially impair the person's ability to operate the motorboat.

(b) An owner or other person having charge or control of a motorboat may not authorize or allow an individual the person knows or has reason to believe is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance, as provided under paragraph (a), to operate the motorboat in operation on the waters of this state.

(c) An owner or other person having charge or control of a motorboat may not knowingly authorize or allow a person, who by reason of a physical or mental disability is incapable of operating the motorboat, to operate the motorboat in operation on the waters of this state.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, a motorboat "in operation" does not include a motorboat that is anchored, beached, or securely fastened to a dock or other permanent mooring.

Subd. 2. [ARREST.] Conservation officers of the department of natural resources, sheriffs, sheriff's deputies, and other peace officers may arrest a person for a violation under subdivision 1 without a warrant upon probable cause if, without regard to whether the violation was committed in the officer's presence. If the violation did not occur in the officer's presence, the officer may arrest the person if the person was involved in a motorboat accident resulting in death, personal injury, or property damage.

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] (a) If an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make arrests has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is operating, controlling, or acting upon departure from a motorboat, or has operated or been in control of a motorboat, that the operator may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the officer may require the operator to provide a breath sample for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose.

(b) The results of the preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made under this section and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 86B.335, but may not be used in a court action except: (1) to prove that a test was properly required of an operator pursuant to section 86B.335; or (2) in a civil action arising out of the operation or use of the motorboat.

(c) Following the preliminary screening test, additional tests may be required of the operator as provided under section 86B.335.

(d) An operator who refuses a breath sample is subject to the provisions of section 86B.335 unless, in compliance with that section, the operator submits to a blood, breath, or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] (a) Upon the trial of a prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by a person arrested for operating or being in physical control of a motorboat in violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), or an ordinance in conformity with it, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(1) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol; and

(2) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Evidence of the refusal to take a preliminary screening test required under subdivision 3 or a chemical test required under section 86B.335 is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section or an ordinance in conformity with it.

(d) This subdivision does not limit the introduction of other competent evidence bearing upon the question of whether or not the person violated this section, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation and results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample. A sample is adequate if the instrument analyzes the sample and does not indicate the sample is deficient.

(e) If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (5), that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of operating or physical control of a motorboat and before the administration of the evidentiary test to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to exceed 0.10. Provided, that this evidence may not be admitted unless notice is given to the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the matter.

Subd. 5. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates a prohibition contained in subdivision 1, or an ordinance in conformity with it, is guilty of a misdemeanor; ~~except that.~~

(b) A person who violates a prohibition contained in subdivision 1 within five years of a prior impaired operating conviction ~~under that subdivision~~ or civil liability under section 86B.335, subdivision 2, or an ordinance in conformity with it, or within ten years of the first of two or more prior impaired operating convictions ~~under that subdivision~~ or civil liability under section 86B.335, subdivision 2, or an ordinance in conformity with it, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

For purposes of this section, a prior impaired operating conviction is a prior conviction under this section; section 84.91, subdivision 1, paragraph (a); 169.121; 169.129; 360.0752; 609.21, subdivision 1, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 2, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 2a, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 3, clauses (2) to (4); 609.21, subdivision 4, clauses (2) to (4); or an ordinance from this state, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with any of them. A prior impaired operating conviction includes a prior juvenile adjudication that would have been a prior impaired operating conviction if committed by an adult.

(c) The attorney in the jurisdiction where the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of this section is also responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of this section. When an attorney responsible for prosecuting gross misdemeanors under this section requests criminal history information relating to prior impaired operating convictions from a court, the court must furnish the information without charge.

~~(b)~~ (d) A person who operates a motorboat on the waters of this state during the period the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat or after the person's ~~motorboat~~ watercraft operator's permit has been revoked, as provided under subdivision 6, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 5a. [NOTICE OF ENHANCED PENALTIES.] When a court sentences a person for a misdemeanor violation of this section, it shall inform the defendant of the statutory provisions that provide for enhancement of criminal penalties for repeat violators. The failure of a court to provide this information to a defendant does not affect the future applicability of these enhanced penalties to that defendant.

Subd. 6. [SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF OPERATING PRIVILEGES.] (a) Upon conviction under this section, or an ordinance in conformity with it, and in addition to any penalty imposed under subdivision 5, the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat on the waters of this state for a period of 90 days between May 1 and October 31, extending over two consecutive years if necessary.

(b) A person with a ~~motorboat~~ watercraft operator's permit 13 years of age or older but less than 18 years of age and who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1 shall have the permit revoked by the commissioner as required by section 86B.811, subdivision 2, in addition to any other penalty imposed by the court.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The court shall promptly forward copies of all convictions and criminal and civil penalties imposed under subdivision 5 and section 86B.335, subdivision 2, to the commissioner. The commissioner shall notify the convicted person of the person when the person is prohibited from operating a motorboat as provided under subdivision 6 or section 86B.335, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall also periodically circulate to appropriate law enforcement agencies a list of all persons who are prohibited from operating any motorboat or have had their ~~motorboat~~ watercraft operator's permits revoked pursuant to subdivision 6 or section 86B.335, subdivision 2.

Subd. 8. [GOVERNMENT IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY FOR BOAT CARE.] The state or political subdivision that is the employer of an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make an arrest for violations of subdivision 1 is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the motorboat being operated by or in the physical control of the person arrested if the officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.335, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CHEMICAL TESTING.] A person who operates or is in physical control of a motorboat in operation on the waters of this state is required, subject to the provisions of this section, to take or submit to a test of the person's blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence and amount of alcohol or a controlled substance. A motorboat "in operation" does not include a motorboat that is anchored, beached, or securely fastened to a dock or other permanent mooring. The test shall be administered at the direction of an officer authorized to make arrests under section 86B.331, subdivision 2. Taking or submitting to the test is mandatory when requested by an officer who has probable cause to believe the person was operating or in physical control of a motorboat in violation of section 86B.331, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), and one of the following conditions exist:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violating section 86B.331, subdivision 1, paragraph (a);

(2) the person has been involved in a motorboat accident resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the preliminary screening test provided for in section 86B.331, subdivision 3; or

(4) the screening test was administered and ~~recorded~~ indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.335, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFUSAL TO TAKE TEST.] (a) If a person refuses to take a test required under subdivision 1, a test is not to be given, but the officer authorized to make arrests under section 86B.331, subdivision 2, shall report the refusal to the commissioner of natural resources and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction where the incident occurred that gave rise to the test demand and refusal. However, if a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated section 609.21, a test may be required and obtained despite the person's refusal.

(b) On certification by the officer that probable cause existed to believe the person had been operating or in physical control of a motorboat while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and that the person refused to submit to testing, the commissioner shall impose a civil penalty of $500 and shall prohibit the person from operating any motorboat on the waters of this state for a period of one year even if a test was obtained pursuant to this section after the person refused to submit to testing. If the person refusing to submit to testing is under the age of 18 years at the time of the refusal, the person's watercraft operator's permit shall be revoked by the commissioner as set forth in this subdivision and a new permit after the revocation must be issued only after the person successfully completes a watercraft safety course.

(c) On behalf of the commissioner, an officer requiring a test or directing the administration of a test shall serve on a person who refused to permit a test immediate notice of intention to impose the civil penalty set forth in this subdivision, to prohibit the operation of motorboats, and to revoke a watercraft operator's permit. The officer shall take a watercraft operator's permit held by the person, and shall send the permit to the commissioner along with the certification provided for in this subdivision. If the officer fails to serve a notice of intent to revoke, the commissioner may notify the person by mail and the notice is deemed received three days after mailing. The notice must advise the person of the right to obtain administrative and judicial review as provided in this section. The prohibition and revocation, if any, shall take effect ten days after receipt of the notice. The civil penalty is imposed on receipt of the notice and shall be paid within 30 days of imposition.

(d) A person who operates a motorboat on the waters of this state during the period the person is prohibited from operating a motorboat as provided under paragraph (b) or (c) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.335, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [JUDICIAL REVIEW.] (a) Within 30 days following receipt of a notice and order imposing sanctions under this section, a person may petition the court for review. The petition must be filed with the district court administrator ~~of the county, municipal, or unified trial court~~ in the county where the incident occurred which gave rise to the test demand and refusal, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner and the prosecuting authority for misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred. A responsive pleading is not required of the commissioner of natural resources, and court fees may not be charged for the appearance of the representative of the commissioner in the matter.

(b) The petition must be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner as respondent. The petition must state specifically the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order imposing sanctions.

(c) The filing of the petition does not stay the revocation or prohibition against operation of a motorboat. However, the filing of a petition stays imposition of the civil penalty. The judicial review shall be conducted according to the rules of civil procedure.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.335, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] (a) A hearing under this section must be before a ~~municipal, county, or unified~~ district court judge in the county where the incident occurred which gave rise to the test demand and refusal. The hearing must be to the court and may be conducted at the same time as hearings upon pretrial motions in the criminal prosecution under section 86B.331. The hearing must be recorded. The commissioner must be represented by the prosecuting authority for misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred which gave rise to the test demand and refusal.

(b) The hearing must be held at the earliest practicable date and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review. The reviewing court may order a temporary stay of the balance of the prohibition or revocation if the hearing has not been conducted within 60 days after filing of the petition, upon the application of the petitioner and upon terms the court deems proper.

(c) The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issues of:

(1) whether the officer had probable cause to believe that the person was operating or in physical control of a motorboat in violation of section 86B.331;

(2) whether one of the conditions in subdivision 1 existed;

(3) whether the person was informed as prescribed in subdivision 6; and

(4) whether the person refused to submit to testing.

(d) It is an affirmative defense for the petitioner to prove that, at the time of the refusal, the petitioner's refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

(e) The court shall order that the prohibition or revocation be either sustained or rescinded and shall either sustain or rescind the civil penalty. The court shall forward a copy of the order to the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 86B.335, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.] At the time a test is requested, the person must be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires a person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

(2) that a person is subject to a civil penalty of $500 for refusing to take the test and, in addition, the person is may be prohibited from operating any motorboat; ~~as provided under subdivision 2; for refusing to take the test;~~

(3) ~~that if testing is refused it will not affect the person's motor vehicle~~

driver's license:

~~(4) that if the test is taken and the results indicate that the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and, in addition to any other penalties the court may impose, the person's operating privileges will be suspended as provided under section 86B.331, subdivision 6, paragraph (a);~~

~~(5) that, after submitting to testing, the person has the right to have additional tests made by someone of the person's own choosing; and~~

~~(6) that a refusal to take a test will be offered into evidence against the person at trial if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated the criminal vehicular homicide and injury laws, that a test will be taken with or without the person's consent; and~~

~~(4) that the person has the right to consult with an attorney, but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test or the person will be deemed to have refused the test.~~

Sections 1 to 6 are effective June 1, 1992, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

The test shall be administered at the direction of a peace officer. The test may be required of a person when an officer has probable cause to believe the person was operating or attempting to operate an aircraft in violation of section 360.0752 and one of the following conditions exists:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 360.0752;

(2) the person has been involved in an aircraft accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the screening test provided for by section 360.0752;

(4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more; or

(5) the officer had probable cause to believe that the person was operating or attempting to operate an aircraft with any amount of alcohol present in the person's body.

(b) At the time a test is requested, the person shall be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires the person to take a test to determine the presence of alcohol or to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

~~(2) that if testing is refused, the person will be disqualified from operating an aircraft for a minimum period of one year;~~

~~(3) that if a test is taken and the results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more or that the person is under the influence of a controlled substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and the person may be prohibited from operating an aircraft in this state for up to one year;~~

~~(4) that after submitting to testing, the person has the right to consult with an attorney and to have additional tests made by someone of the person's own choosing; and~~

~~(4) if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated the criminal vehicular homicide and injury laws, that a test will be taken with or without the person's consent; and~~

~~(5) that the person has the right to consult with an attorney, but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test.~~

(c) The peace officer who requires a test pursuant to this subdivision may direct whether the test shall be of blood, breath, or urine. Subd. 7. [REFUSAL TO PERMIT TEST; CEASE AND DESIST ORDER.] If a person under arrest refuses to permit chemical testing, none shall be given, but the commissioner of transportation, upon the receipt of a certificate of the peace officer that the officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the arrested person had been operating or attempting to operate an aircraft in violation of section 360.0752 and that the person had refused to permit the test, shall issue a cease and desist order prohibiting the operation of an aircraft for a period of one year. However, if a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated section 609.21, a test may be required and obtained despite the person's refusal. When a test is obtained pursuant to this section after the person refused to submit to testing, the commissioner of transportation shall issue a cease and desist order under this section based on the person's refusal.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 360.0753, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [HEARING.] The hearing shall be before a district court in the county where the arrest occurred, unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing shall be recorded and proceed as in a criminal matter, without the right of trial by jury, and its scope shall cover the issues of whether the peace officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was operating or attempting to operate an aircraft in violation of section 360.0752; whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest; whether the person refused to permit the test, and if the person refused whether the person had reasonable grounds for refusing to permit the test; and whether at the time of request for the test the peace officer informed the person that the right to fly ~~might~~ will be denied if the person refused to permit the test and of the right to have additional tests made by someone of the person's own choosing. The court shall order either that the denial be rescinded or sustained and refer the order to the commissioner of transportation for further action.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

(4) when the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more;

(5) when the person's alcohol concentration as measured within two hours of the time of taking is 0.10 or more; or

(6) when the person is knowingly under the influence of any chemical compound or combination of chemical compounds that is listed as a hazardous substance in rules adopted under section 182.655 and that affects the nervous system, brain, or muscles of the person so as to substantially impair the person's ability to operate a firearm or bow and arrow.

(b) An owner or other person having charge or control of a firearm or bow and arrow may not authorize or permit an individual the person knows or has reason to believe is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, as provided under paragraph (a), to possess the firearm or bow and arrow in this state or on a boundary water of this state.

Subd. 2. [ARREST.] A peace officer may arrest a person for a violation under subdivision 1 without a warrant upon probable cause, without regard to whether the violation was committed in the officer's presence.

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make arrests has reason to believe that the person may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the officer may require the person to provide a breath sample for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of the preliminary screening test must be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made under this section and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 3, but may not be used in any court action except: (1) to prove that a test was properly required of a person under section 3, or (2) in a civil action arising out of the operation of a firearm or bow and arrow. Following the preliminary screening test, additional tests may be required of the person as provided under section 3. A person who refuses a breath sample is subject to the provisions of section 3 unless, in compliance with that section, the person submits to a blood, breath, or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] In a prosecution for a violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), or an ordinance in conformity with it, the admission of evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine is governed by section 86B.331, subdivision 4.

Subd. 5. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates a prohibition in subdivision 1, or an ordinance in conformity with it, is subject to the penalties provided in section 97A.331.

(b) A person who hunts during the period the person is prohibited from hunting under subdivision 6 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 6. [HUNTING PRIVILEGES SUSPENDED.] Upon conviction, and in addition to any penalty imposed under subdivision 5, the person is subject to the limitations on hunting provided in section 97A.421.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The court shall promptly forward to the commissioner copies of all convictions and criminal and civil penalties imposed under subdivision 5 and section 3, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall notify the convicted person of the period during which the person is prohibited from hunting under subdivision 6 and section 97A.421. The commissioner shall also periodically circulate to appropriate law enforcement agencies a list of all persons who are prohibited from hunting under subdivision 6 and section 97A.421.

Subd. 8. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] The state or political subdivision that employs an officer who is authorized under subdivision 2 to make an arrest for violations of subdivision 1 is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the hunting equipment in the physical control of the person arrested if the officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

Sec. 3. [97B.066] [CHEMICAL TESTING.]

Subdivision 1. [MANDATORY CHEMICAL TESTING.] A person who takes wild animals with a bow or firearm in this state or on a boundary water of this state is required, subject to the provisions of this section, to take or submit to a test of the person's blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence and amount of alcohol or a controlled substance. The test shall be administered at the direction of an officer authorized to make arrests under section 97B.065, subdivision 2. Taking or submitting to the test is mandatory when requested by an officer who has probable cause to believe the person was hunting in violation of section 97B.065, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), and one of the following conditions exists:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violating section 97B.065, subdivision 1, paragraph (a);

(2) the person has been involved while hunting in an accident resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the preliminary screening test provided for in section 97B.065, subdivision 3; or

(4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

Subd. 2. [PENALTIES; REFUSAL; REVOCATION OF HUNTING PRIVILEGE.] (a) If a person refuses to take a test required under subdivision 1, none must be given but the officer authorized to make arrests under section 97B.065, subdivision 2, shall report the refusal to the commissioner of natural resources and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred that gave rise to the test demand and refusal.

On certification by the officer that probable cause existed to believe the person had been hunting while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and that the person refused to submit to testing, the commissioner shall impose a civil penalty of $500 and shall prohibit the person from hunting for one year.

On behalf of the commissioner, an officer requiring a test or directing the administration of a test shall serve on a person who refused to permit a test immediate notice of intention to prohibit the person from hunting, and to impose the civil penalty set forth in this subdivision. If the officer fails to serve a notice of intent to suspend hunting privileges, the commissioner may notify the person by certified mail to the address on the license of the person. The notice must advise the person of the right to obtain administrative and judicial review as provided in this section. The prohibition imposed by the commissioner takes effect ten days after receipt of the notice. The civil penalty is imposed 30 days after receipt of the notice or upon return of the certified mail to the commissioner, and must be paid within 30 days of imposition.

(b) A person who hunts during the period the person is prohibited from hunting as provided under paragraph (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.] At the time a test is requested, the person must be informed that:

(1) Minnesota law requires a person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

(2) if the person refuses to take the test, the person is subject to a civil penalty of $500 and is prohibited for a one-year period from hunting, as provided under subdivision 2;

(3) that the person has the right to consult with an attorney, but that this right is limited to the extent it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test or the person will be deemed to have refused the test.

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENT OF URINE TEST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, if there is probable cause to believe there is impairment by a controlled substance that is not subject to testing by a breath test, a blood or urine test may be required even after a breath test has been administered.

Subd. 5. [CHEMICAL TESTS.] Chemical tests administered under this section are governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 8, 9, and 10.

Subd. 6. [JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW; ENFORCEMENT.] Judicial and administrative review of sanctions imposed under this section is governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 3, 4, and 5. Payment and enforcement of the civil penalty imposed under this section is governed by section 86B.335, subdivisions 11 and 12.

(1) Any ground on which the commissioner may apply for an order of liquidation under section 60B.20, whenever the commissioner believes that the insurer may be successfully rehabilitated without substantial increase in the risk of loss to creditors of the insurer, its policyholders or to the public;

(2) That the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that there has been theft from the insurer, wrongful sequestration or diversion of the insurer's assets, forgery or fraud affecting the insurer or other illegal conduct in, by or with respect to the insurer, which endanger assets in an amount threatening insolvency of the insurer;

(3) That substantial and unexplained discrepancies exist between the insurer's records and the most recent annual report or other official company reports:

(4) That the insurer, after written demand by the commissioner, has failed to remove any person who in fact has executive authority in the insurer, whether an officer, manager, general agent, employee, or other person, if the person has been found by the commissioner after notice and hearing to be dishonest or untrustworthy in a way affecting the insurer's business such as is the basis for action under section 60A.051:

If the insurer is unable to submit the property, books, accounts, documents, or other records of a person having executive authority in the insurer, it shall be excused from doing so if it promptly and effectively terminates the relationship of the person to the insurer:

(8) That without first obtaining the written consent of the commissioner, or if required by law, the written consent of the attorney general, the insurer has transferred, or attempted to transfer, substantially its entire property or business, or has entered into any transaction the effect of which is to merge, consolidate, or reinsure substantially its entire property or business of any other person:

(9) That the insurer or its property has been or is the subject of an application for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator or sequestrator or similar fiduciary of the insurer or its property otherwise than as authorized under sections 60B.01 to 60B.61, and that such appointment has been made or is imminent, and that such appointment might divest the courts of this state of jurisdiction or prejudice orderly delinquency proceedings under sections 60B.01 to 60B.61:

(10) That within the previous year the insurer has willfully violated its charter or articles of incorporation or its bylaws or any applicable insurance law or regulation of any state, or of the federal government, or any valid order of the commissioner under section 60B.11 in any manner or as to any matter which threatens substantial injury to the insurer, its creditors, its policyholders or the public, or having become aware within the previous year of an unintentional or willful violation has failed to take all reasonable steps to remedy the situation resulting from the violation and to prevent the same violations in the future:

(11) That the directors of the insurer are deadlocked in the management of the insurer's affairs and that the members or shareholders are unable to break the deadlock and that irreparable injury to the insurer, its creditors, its policyholders, or the public is threatened by reason thereof:

(12) That the insurer has failed to pay for 60 days after due date any obligation to this state or any political subdivision thereof or any judgment entered in this state, except that such nonpayment shall not be a ground until 60 days after any good faith effort by the insurer to contest the obligation or judgment has been terminated, whether it is before the commissioner or in the courts:

(13) That the insurer has failed to file its annual report or other report within the time allowed by law, and after written demand by the commissioner has failed to give an adequate explanation immediately:

(14) That two-thirds of the board of directors, or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, or a majority of members or policyholders of an insurer subject to control by its members or policyholders, consent to rehabilitation under sections 60B.01 to 60B.61:

(15) That the insurer is engaging in a systematic practice of reaching settlements with and obtaining releases from policyholders or third party claimants and then unreasonably delaying payment of or failing to pay the agreed upon settlements:

(18) In the context of a health maintenance organization, "insurer" when used in clauses (1) to (17) means "health maintenance organization." In addition to the grounds in clauses (1) to (17), any one of the following constitutes grounds for rehabilitation of a health maintenance organization:

(b) grounds exist under section 62D.042, subdivision 7:

(c) the health maintenance organization's liabilities exceed the current value of its assets, exclusive of intangibles and, where the guaranteeing organization's financial condition no longer meets the requirements of sections 62D.041 and 62D.042, exclusive of any deposits, letters of credit, or guarantees provided by any guaranteeing organization under chapter 62D:

(d) in addition to grounds under clause (16), within the last year the health maintenance organization has failed, and the commissioner of health expects such failure to continue in the future, to make comprehensive medical care adequately available and accessible to its enrollees and the health maintenance organization has not successfully implemented a plan of corrective action pursuant to section 62D.121, subdivision 7; and

(e) in addition to grounds under clause (16), within the last year the directors or officers of the health maintenance organization willfully violated the requirements of section 317A.251, or having become aware within the previous year of an unintentional or willful violation of section 317A.251, have failed to take all reasonable steps to remedy the situation resulting from the violation and to prevent the same violation in the future:

(19) An affiliate of the insurer has been placed in conservatorship, rehabilitation, liquidation, or other court supervision such that the insurer's financial condition may be jeopardized.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 60D.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTROL.] The term "control," including the terms "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with," means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with ~~or~~, corporate office held by, or court appointment of, the person. Control is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, ten percent or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing made in the manner provided by section 60D.19, subdivision 11, that control does not exist in fact. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support such determination, that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 60D.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL BY COMMISSIONER; HEARINGS.] (a) The commissioner shall approve any merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subdivision 1 unless, after a public hearing, the commissioner finds that:

(1) After the change of control, the domestic insurer referred to in subdivision 1 would not be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license to write the line or lines of insurance for which it is presently licensed, unless the domestic insurer is in rehabilitation or other court-ordered supervision and the acquiring party commits to a plan that would enable the domestic insurer to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license within a reasonable amount of time;

(2) The effect of the merger or other acquisition of control would be substantially to lessen competition in insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein in applying the competitive standard in this subdivision:

(i) the informational requirements of section 60D.18, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), and the standards of section 60D.18, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), shall apply;

(ii) the merger or other acquisition shall not be disapproved if the commissioner finds that any of the situations meeting the criteria provided by section 60D.18, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), exist; and

(iii) the commissioner may condition the approval of the merger or other acquisition on the removal of the basis of disapproval within a specified period of time;

(3) The financial condition of any acquiring party is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the insurer, or prejudice the interest of its policyholders;

(4) The plans or proposals that the acquiring party has to liquidate the insurer, sell its assets, or consolidate or merge it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management, are unfair and unreasonable to policyholders of the insurer and not in the public interest;

(5) The competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurer are such that it would not be in the interest of policyholders of the insurer and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control; or

(6) The acquisition is likely to be hazardous or prejudicial to the insurance buying public.

(b) The public hearing referred to in paragraph (a) must be held 30 days after the statement required by subdivision 1 is filed, and at least 20 days notice of it shall be given by the commissioner to the person filing the statement. Not less than seven days notice of the public hearing shall be given by the person filing the statement to the insurer and to other persons designated by the commissioner. The commissioner shall make a determination within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing. At the hearing, the person filing the statement, the insurer, any person to whom notice of hearing was sent, and any other person whose interest may be affected by it may present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer oral and written arguments and may conduct discovery proceedings in the same manner as is presently allowed in the district courts of this state. All discovery proceedings must be concluded not later than three days before the start of the public hearing.

(c) The commissioner may retain at the acquiring person's expense any attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff as may be reasonably necessary to assist the commissioner in reviewing the proposed acquisition of control.

Any revisions in the table of rate for the individual policy shall apply to the ~~former spouse's insured's~~ original age at entry and shall apply equally to all similar policies issued by the insurer.

A policy providing reduced benefits at a reduced premium rate may be accepted by the insured in lieu of the optional coverage otherwise required by this subdivision.

Subd. 8. [CANCELLATION FOR NONPAYMENT OF PREMIUM.] No individual long-term care policy shall be canceled for nonpayment of premium unless the insurer, at least 30 days before the effective date of the cancellation, has given notice to the insured and to those persons designated pursuant to section 62A.48, subdivision 1, at the address provided by the insured for purposes of receiving notice of cancellation. This subdivision does not apply to a long-term care policy upon which premiums are paid at a monthly interval.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 62A.54, is amended to read:

62A.54 [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.]

Unless otherwise provided for in ~~Laws 1986, chapter 397, sections 2 to 8 62A.46 to 62A.56,~~ the solicitation or sale of long-term care policies is subject to the requirements and penalties applicable to the sale of Medicare supplement insurance policies as set forth in sections 62A.31 to 62A.44.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 62E.02, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. "Self-insurer" means an employer or an employee welfare benefit fund or plan which directly or indirectly provides a plan of health coverage to its employees and administers the plan of health coverage itself or through an insurer, trust or agent except to the extent of accident and health insurance premium, subscriber contract charges or health maintenance organization contract charges. "Self-insurer" includes joint self-insurance plans regulated under chapter 62H. "Self-insurer" does not include an employer engaged in the business of providing health care services to the public which provides health care services directly to its employees at no charge to them.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 62E.02, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. "Contributing member" means those companies ~~operating pursuant to~~ regulated under chapter 62A and offering, selling, issuing, or renewing policies or contracts of accident and health insurance ~~or~~ health maintenance organizations ~~and regulated under chapter 62D,~~ nonprofit health service plan corporations ~~and incorporated~~ regulated under chapter 62C ~~or~~ fraternal benefit societies ~~operating~~ societies regulated under chapter 64B, and joint self-insurance plans regulated under chapter 62H. Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 62E.11, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. Each contributing member that terminates individual health coverage ~~regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, 62D, or 64B~~ for reasons other than (a) nonpayment of premium; (b) failure to make copayments; (c) enrollee moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and does not provide or arrange for replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 62D.121; shall pay a special assessment to the state plan based upon the number of terminated individuals who join the comprehensive health insurance plan as authorized under section 62E.14, subdivisions 1, paragraph (d), and 6. Such a contributing member shall pay the association an amount equal to the average cost of an enrollee in the state plan in the year in which the member terminated enrollees multiplied by the total number of terminated enrollees who enroll in the state plan.

The average cost of an enrollee in the state comprehensive health insurance plan shall be determined by dividing the state plan's total annual losses by the total number of enrollees from that year. This cost will be assessed to the contributing member who has terminated health coverage before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

In the event that the contributing member is terminating health coverage because of a loss of health care providers, the commissioner may review whether or not the special assessment established under this subdivision will have an adverse impact on the contributing member or its enrollees or insureds, including but not limited to causing the contributing member to fall below statutory net worth requirements. If the commissioner determines that the special assessment would have an adverse impact on the contributing member or its enrollees or insureds, the commissioner may adjust the amount of the special assessment, or establish alternative payment arrangements to the state plan. For health maintenance organizations regulated under chapter 62D, the commissioner of health shall make the determination regarding any adjustment in the special assessment and shall transmit that determination to the commissioner of commerce.

(b) A Minnesota resident who was covered by a conversion policy or contract of health coverage may enroll in the comprehensive health plan with a waiver of the preexisting condition limitation in subdivision 3 and a waiver of the evidence of rejection in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), if that person applies for coverage within 90 days after termination of the conversion policy or contract coverage regardless of: (1) the reasons for the termination; or (2) the party terminating coverage.

ARTICLE 3

INSURANCE AGENTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.02, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INSURANCE AGENT OR INSURANCE AGENCY.] An "insurance agent" or "insurance agency" is a person acting under express authority from, and an appointment pursuant to section ~~60A.17~~ 60K.02 by, an insurer and on its behalf to solicit insurance, or to appoint other agents to solicit insurance, or to write and countersign policies of insurance, or to collect premiums therefor within this state, or to exercise any or all these powers when so authorized by the insurer. The term "person" includes a natural person, a partnership, a corporation, or other entity, including an insurance agency.

Sec. 2. [60A.052] [DENIAL, REVOCATION, SUSPENSION OF CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The commissioner may by order take any or all of the following actions: (1) deny, suspend, or revoke a certificate of authority; (2) censure the insurance company; or (3) impose a civil penalty as provided for in section 45.027, subdivision 6. In order to take this action the commissioner must find that the order is in the public interest, and the insurance company:

(1) has a board of directors or principal management that is incompetent, untrustworthy, or so lacking in insurance company managerial experience as to make its operation hazardous to policyholders, its stockholders, or to the insurance buying public;

(2) is controlled directly or indirectly through ownership, management, reinsurance transactions, or other business relations by any person or persons whose business operations are or have been marked by manipulation of any assets, reinsurance, or accounts as to create a hazard to the company's policyholders, stockholders, or the insurance buying public;

(3) is in an unsound or unsafe condition;

(4) has the actual liabilities that exceed the actual funds of the company;

(5) has filed an application for a license which is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, contained any misrepresentation or was false, misleading, or fraudulent;

(6) has pled guilty, with or without explicitly admitting guilt, pled nolo contendere, or been convicted of a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, including, but not limited to, assault or similar conduct;

(7) is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the insurance business;

(8) has violated or failed to comply with any order of the insurance regulator of any other state or jurisdiction;

(9) has had a certificate of authority denied, suspended, or revoked, has been censured or reprimanded, has been the subject of any other discipline imposed by, or has paid or has been required to pay a monetary penalty or fine to, another state; or

(10) agents, officers, or directors refuse to submit to examination or perform any related legal obligation, or have violated or failed to comply with, any of the provisions of the insurance laws including chapter 45 or chapters 60A to 72A or any rule or order under those chapters.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF AUTHORITY OR CENSURE.] If the commissioner determines that one of the conditions listed in subdivision 1 exists, the commissioner may issue an order requiring the insurance company to show cause why any or all of the following should not occur: (1) revocation or suspension of any or all certificates of authority granted to the foreign or domestic insurance company or its agent; (2) censuring of the insurance company; or (3) the imposition of a civil penalty. The order shall be calculated to give reasonable notice of the time and place for hearing thereon, and shall state the reasons for the entry of the order. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. After the hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order disposing of the matter as the facts require. If the insurance company fails to appear at a hearing after having been duly notified of it, the company shall be considered in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the company upon consideration of the order to show cause, the allegations of which may be considered to be true.

Subd. 3. [APPLICANTS.] Whenever it appears to the commissioner that an application for a certificate of authority should be denied pursuant to subdivision 1, the commissioner shall promptly give a written notice to the applicant of the denial. The notice must state the grounds for the denial and give reasonable notice of the rights of the applicant to request a hearing. A hearing must be held not later than 30 days after the request for hearing is received by the commissioner unless the applicant and the department of commerce agree that the hearing may be held at a later date. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the notice, the denial will become final. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. After the hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order disposing of the matter as the facts require. If the applicant fails to appear at a hearing after having been duly notified of it, the applicant shall be considered in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the applicant upon consideration of the notice denying the application, the allegations of which may be considered to be true.

Subd. 4. [ACTIONS AGAINST LAPSED CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY.] If a certificate of authority lapses, is surrendered, withdrawn, terminated, or otherwise becomes ineffective, the commissioner may institute a proceeding under this subdivision within two years after the certificate of authority was last effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which the certificate of authority was in effect, or impose a civil penalty as provided for in section 45.027, subdivision 6.

Sec. 3. [60K.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the definitions in section 60A.01 are applicable to this chapter.

Sec. 4. [60K.02] [INSURANCE AGENTS; SOLICITORS LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] No person shall act or assume to act as an insurance agent in the solicitation or procurement of applications for insurance, nor in the sale of insurance or policies of insurance, nor in any manner aid as an insurance agent in the negotiation of insurance by or with an insurer, including resident agents or reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges and fraternal benefit societies, until that person obtains from the commissioner a license for that purpose. The license must specifically set forth the name of the person authorized to act as an agent and the class or classes of insurance for which that person is authorized to solicit or countersign policies. An insurance agent may qualify for a license in the following classes: (1) life and health; and (2) property and casualty.

No insurer shall appoint or reappoint a natural person, partnership, or corporation to act as an insurance agent on its behalf until that natural person, partnership, or corporation obtains a license as an insurance agent.

Subd. 2. [PARTNERSHIPS AND CORPORATIONS.] A license issued to a partnership or corporation must be solely in the name of the entity to which it is issued; provided that each partner, director, officer, stockholder, or employee of the licensed entity who is personally engaged in the solicitation or negotiation of a policy of insurance on behalf of the licensed entity shall be personally licensed as an insurance agent.

Upon request by the commissioner, each partnership and corporation licensed as an insurance agent shall provide the commissioner with a list of the names of each partner, director, officer, stockholder, and employee who is required to hold a valid insurance agent's license.

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION.] (a) Any agent who is qualified for life or accident and health as of June 1, 1981, is qualified for a life and health license under Laws 1981, chapter 307, and is appointed by an insurer which has submitted a written requisition for a license for that agent as of June 1, 1981.

(b) Any agent who is qualified for one or more lines of insurance, excluding life or accident and health and farm property liability as of June 1, 1981, is qualified for a property and casualty license under Laws 1981, chapter 307, and is appointed by any insurer which has submitted a written requisition for a license for that agent as of June 1, 1981.

Subd. 4. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] A person who acts or assumes to act as an insurance agent without a valid license issued by the commissioner is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. [60K.03] [LICENSE APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] An application for a license to act as an insurance agent shall be made to the commissioner by the person who seeks to be licensed. The application for license shall be accompanied by a written appointment from an admitted insurer authorizing the applicant to act as its agent under one or both classes of license. The insurer must also submit its check payable to the state treasurer for the amount of the appointment fee prescribed by section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (9), at the time the agent becomes licensed. The application and appointment must be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

If the applicant is a natural person, no license shall be issued until that natural person has become qualified.

If the applicant is a partnership or corporation, no license shall be issued until at least one natural person who is a partner, director, officer, stockholder, or employee shall be licensed as an insurance agent.

Subd. 2. [RESIDENT AGENT.] The commissioner shall issue a resident insurance agent's license to a qualified resident of this state as follows:

(a) A person may qualify as a resident of this state if that person resides in this state or the principal place of business of that person is maintained in this state. Application for a license claiming residency in this state for licensing purposes constitutes an election of residency in this state. A license issued upon an application claiming residency in this state is void if the licensee, while holding a resident license in this state, also holds, or makes application for, a resident license in, or thereafter claims to be a resident of, any other state or jurisdiction or if the licensee ceases to be a resident of this state; provided, however, if the applicant is a resident of a community or trade area, the border of which is contiguous with the state line of this state, the applicant may qualify for a resident license in this state and at the same time hold a resident license from the contiguous state.

(b) The commissioner shall subject each applicant who is a natural person to a written examination as to the applicant's competence to act as an insurance agent. The examination must be held at a reasonable time and place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The examination shall be approved for use by the commissioner and shall test the applicant's knowledge of the lines of insurance, policies, and transactions to be handled under the class of license applied for, of the duties and responsibilities of the licensee, and pertinent insurance laws of this state.

(d) The examination shall be given only after the applicant has completed a program of classroom studies in a school, which shall not include a school sponsored by, offered by, or affiliated with an insurance company or its agents; except that this limitation does not preclude a bona fide professional association of agents, not acting on behalf of an insurer, from offering courses. The course of study shall consist of 30 hours of classroom study devoted to the basic fundamentals of insurance for those seeking a Minnesota license for the first time, 15 hours devoted to specific life and health topics for those seeking a life and health license, and 15 hours devoted to specific property and casualty topics for those seeking a property and casualty license. The program of studies or study course shall have been approved by the commissioner in order to qualify under this clause. If the applicant has been previously licensed for the particular line of insurance in the state of Minnesota, the requirement of a program of studies or a study course shall be waived. A certification of compliance by the organization offering the course shall accompany the applicant's license application. This program of studies in a school or a study course shall not apply to farm property perils and farm liability applicants, or to agents writing such other lines of insurance as the commissioner may exempt from examination by order.

(e) The applicant must pass the examination with a grade determined by the commissioner to indicate satisfactory knowledge and understanding of the class or classes of insurance for which the applicant seeks qualification. The commissioner shall inform the applicant as to whether or not the applicant has passed.

(f) An applicant who has failed to pass an examination may take subsequent examinations. Examination fees for subsequent examinations shall not be waived.

(g) Any applicant for a license covering the same class or classes of insurance for which the applicant was licensed under a similar license in this state, other than a temporary license, within the three years preceding the date of the application shall be exempt from the requirement of a written examination, unless the previous license was revoked or suspended by the commissioner. An applicant whose license is not renewed under section 60K.12 is exempt from the requirement of a written examination.

Subd. 3. [NONRESIDENT AGENT.] The commissioner shall issue a nonresident insurance agent's license to a qualified person who is a resident of another state or country as follows:

(a) A person may qualify for a license under this section as a nonresident only if that person holds a license in another state, province of Canada, or other foreign country which, in the opinion of the commissioner, qualifies that person for the same activity as that for which a license is sought.

(b) The commissioner shall not issue a license to a nonresident applicant until that person files with the commissioner a designation of the commissioner and the commissioner's successors in office as the applicant's true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in an action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of an interested person arising out of the applicant's insurance business in this state. This designation constitutes an agreement that this service of process is of the same legal force and validity as personal service of process in this state upon that applicant.

Service of process upon a licensee in an action or proceeding begun in a court of competent jurisdiction of this state may be made in compliance with section 45.028, subdivision 2.

(c) A nonresident license terminates automatically when the resident license for that class of license in the state, province, or foreign country in which the licensee is a resident is terminated for any reason.

Subd. 4. [TERM.] All licenses issued pursuant to this section remain in force until voluntarily terminated by the licensee, not renewed as prescribed in section 60K.06, or until suspended or revoked by the commissioner. A voluntary termination occurs when the license is surrendered to the commissioner with the request that it be terminated or when the licensee dies, or when the licensee is dissolved or its existence is terminated. In the case of a nonresident license, a voluntary termination also occurs upon the happening of the event described in subdivision 3, paragraph (c).

Every licensed agent shall notify the commissioner within 30 days of a change of name, address, or information contained in the application.

Subd. 5. [SUBSEQUENT APPOINTMENTS.] A person who holds a valid agent's license from this state may solicit applications for insurance on behalf of an admitted insurer with which the licensee does not have a valid appointment on file with the commissioner; provided that the licensee has permission from the insurer to solicit insurance on its behalf and, provided further, that the insurer upon receipt of the application for insurance submits a written notice of appointment to the commissioner accompanied by its check payable to the state treasurer in the amount of the appointment fee prescribed by section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (9). The notice of appointment must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [AMENDMENT OF LICENSE.] An application to the commissioner to amend a license to reflect a change of name, or to include an additional class of license, or for any other reason, shall be on forms provided by the commissioner and shall be accompanied by the applicant's surrendered license and a check payable to the state treasurer for the amount of fee specified in section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

An applicant who surrenders an insurance license pursuant to this subdivision retains licensed status until an amended license is received.

Subd. 7. [EXCEPTIONS.] The following are exempt from the general licensing requirements prescribed by this section:

(1) agents of township mutuals who are exempted pursuant to section 60K.04;

(2) fraternal benefit society representatives exempted pursuant to section 60K.05;

(3) any regular salaried officer or employee of a licensed insurer, without license or other qualification, may act on behalf of that licensed insurer in the negotiation of insurance for that insurer, provided that a licensed agent must participate in the sale of the insurance;

(4) employers and their officers or employees, and the trustees or employees of any trust plan, to the extent that the employers, officers, employees, or trustees are engaged in the administration or operation of any program of employee benefits for the employees of the employers or employees of their subsidiaries or affiliates involving the use of insurance issued by a licensed insurance company; provided that the activities of the officers, employees and trustees are incidental to clerical or administrative duties and their compensation does not vary with the volume of insurance or applications for insurance;

(5) employees of a creditor who enroll debtors for life or accident and health insurance; provided the employees receive no commission or fee for it;

(6) clerical or administrative employees of an insurance agent who take insurance applications or receive premiums in the office of their employer, if the activities are incidental to clerical or administrative duties and the employee's compensation does not vary with the volume of the applications or premiums; and

(7) rental vehicle companies and their employees in connection with the offer of rental vehicle personal accident insurance under section 72A.125.

Sec. 6. [60K.04] [TOWNSHIP MUTUAL AGENTS.]

No agent for a township mutual shall be required to take an examination to become eligible for an agent's license in farm property perils and farm liability if it is certified by one or more township mutual companies that the agent has been acting in the capacity of an agent at least since January 1, 1971, and no new examination shall be required for eligibility for a license in farm property perils and farm liability for a licensed agent in farm windstorm and hail insurance who was licensed prior to January 1, 1971.

Sec. 7. [60K.05] [FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETY REPRESENTATIVES.]

Representatives of fraternal benefit societies who solicit and negotiate insurance contracts shall be deemed to be insurance agents and subject to the licensing requirements as set forth in section 60K.03 subdivision 1; provided, that no insurance agent's license shall be required of:

(1) any officer, employee, or secretary of a fraternal benefit society or of any subordinate lodge or branch who devotes substantially all of that person's time to activities other than the solicitation or negotiation of insurance contracts and who receives no commission or other compensation directly dependent upon the number or amount of contracts solicited or negotiated; or

(2) any agent or representative of a fraternal benefit society who devotes, or intends to devote, less than 50 percent of that person's time to the solicitation and procurement of insurance contracts for that society. Any person who in the preceding calendar year has solicited and procured life insurance in excess of $50,000 face amount, or, in the case of any other kinds of insurance which the society may write, on the persons of more than 25 individuals, and who has received or will receive a commission or other compensation in the total amount of $1,000 or more, shall be presumed to be devoting, or intending to devote, 50 percent of that person's time to the solicitation or procurement of insurance contracts for that society.

Sec. 8. [60K.06] [RENEWAL FEE.]

(a) Each agent licensed pursuant to section 60K.03 shall annually pay in accordance with the procedure adopted by the commissioner a renewal fee as prescribed by section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (10).

(b) Every agent, corporation, and partnership license expires on October 31 of the year for which period a license is issued.

(c) Persons whose applications have been properly and timely filed who have not received notice of denial of renewal are approved for renewal and may continue to transact business whether or not the renewed license has been received on or before November 1. Applications for renewal of a license are timely filed if received by the commissioner on or before October 15 of the year due, on forms duly executed and accompanied by appropriate fees. An application mailed is considered timely filed if addressed to the commissioner, with proper postage, and postmarked by October 15.

(d) The commissioner may issue licenses for agents, corporations, or partnerships for a three-year period. If three-year licenses are issued, the fee is three times the annual license fee.

Sec. 9. [60K.07] [TEMPORARY LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION.] The commissioner may grant a temporary insurance agent's license to a person who has successfully completed the examination, if any, required by the commissioner. The temporary license may be granted as of the date upon which the applicant receives written notice from the commissioner that the person has passed any required examination. A temporary license will permit the applicant to act as an insurance agent for the original appointing insurer for the class of business specified therein until the earlier of (1) receipt by the applicant of the resident license, or (2) the expiration of 90 days from the date on which the temporary license was granted.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIVE TEMPORARY LICENSE.] The commissioner may issue a temporary license to a person to act as an insurance agent for a period not to exceed 90 days, which may be extended as determined by the commissioner, without requiring an examination if the commissioner considers a temporary license necessary for the servicing of an insurance business in the following cases:

(1) to an agent licensed as a resident agent in another state where the commissioner determines that the foreign license is substantially the equivalent of that being applied for from the state of Minnesota and where the agent has been transferred into this state with the intention of becoming a resident, working as an insurance agent, and obtaining a resident license from the state of Minnesota;

(2) to the surviving spouse or next of kin, or to the administrator or executor, or to an employee of a deceased licensed insurance agent, or to the spouse, next of kin, an employee, or legal guardian of a disabled licensed insurance agent;

(3) to the designee of a licensed insurance agent entering upon active service in the armed forces of the United States; or

(4) in any other circumstance where the commissioner considers that the public interest will best be served by the issuance of a temporary license.

Sec. 10. [60K.08] [BROKERAGE BUSINESS.]

Every insurance agent duly licensed to transact business in this state shall have the right to procure the insurance of risks, or parts of risks, in the class or classes of insurance for which the agent is licensed in other insurers duly authorized to transact business in this state, but the insurance shall only be consummated through a duly appointed resident agent of the insurer taking the risk. If the law of another state requires a nonresident agent who is a resident agent of Minnesota to pay a portion of the premium to or share commissions with a licensed resident agent of that state, then the licensed resident agent of Minnesota when consummating and countersigning for a licensed nonresident agent of that state shall receive five percent of the total premium or 25 percent of the commission, whichever is less.

Sec. 11. [60K.09] [UNFIT PERSON NOT TO BE EMPLOYED BY INSURER.]

No insurer, its officers, agents, or managers shall knowingly make application to the commissioner for appointment of a person as its agent where that person is known to the insurer, its officers, agents, or managers making the application, to be unfit or disqualified as an insurance agent, and immediately upon the discovery by the insurer, its officers, agents, or managers having supervision of the agent, of the unfitness or disqualification, the insurer, or the officers agents, or managers shall forthwith inform the commissioner in writing of their decision to terminate their appointment of this agent; nor shall any insurer retain in its employ any agent known by it to be disqualified or unfit to be licensed as an insurance agent.

Sec. 12. [60K.10] [TERM OF APPOINTMENTS.]

All appointments of agents by insurers pursuant to this section shall remain in force until terminated voluntarily by the appointing insurer or the license of the agent has for any reason been terminated during the appointment. The original appointing insurer, as well as any subsequent appointing insurer, may terminate the appointment of an agent at any time by giving written notice thereof to the commissioner and by sending a copy thereof to the last known address of the agent. The effective date of the termination shall be the date of receipt of the notice by the commissioner unless another date is specified by the insurer in the notice. Within 30 days after the insurer gives notice of termination to the commissioner, the insurer shall furnish the agent with a current statement of the agent's commission account.

Accompanying the notice of a termination given to the commissioner by the insurer shall be a statement of the specific reasons constituting the cause of termination. Any document, record, or statement relating to the agent which is disclosed or furnished to the commissioner contemporaneously with, or subsequent to, the notice of termination shall be deemed confidential by the commissioner and a privileged communication. The document, record, or statement furnished to the commissioner shall not be admissible in whole or in part for any purpose in any action or proceeding against (1) the insurer or any of its officers, employees, or representatives submitting or providing the document, record, or statement, or (2) any person, firm, or corporation furnishing in good faith to the insurer the information upon which the reasons for termination are based.

Sec. 13. [60K.11] [DENIAL, REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND CENSURE OF LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The commissioner may by order take any or all of the following actions:

- (1) deny, suspend, or revoke an insurance agent or agency license;*
- (2) censure the licensee; or*
- (3) impose a civil penalty as provided for in section 45.027, subdivision 6.*

In order to take this action the commissioner must find that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant, licensee, or in the case of an insurance agency, partner, director, shareholder, officer, or agent of that insurance agency:

(i) does not intend to or is not in good faith carrying on the business of an insurance agent;

(ii) has filed an application for a license which is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, contains any misrepresentation, or is false, misleading, or fraudulent;

(iii) has engaged in an act or practice, whether or not such act or practice involves the business of insurance, which demonstrates that the applicant or licensee is untrustworthy, financially irresponsible, or otherwise incompetent or unqualified to act as an insurance agent or agency;

(iv) has pled guilty, with or without explicitly admitting guilt, pled nolo contendere, or been convicted of a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, including but not limited to, assault or similar conduct;

(v) has violated or failed to comply with any of the provisions of the insurance laws including chapter 45 or chapters 60A to 72A or any rule or order under those chapters;

(vi) is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the insurance business;

(vii) has violated or failed to comply with any order of the insurance regulator of any other state or jurisdiction;

(xii) has forged another's name to any document whether or not the document relates to an application for insurance or a policy of insurance.

Subd. 2. [LICENSEES.] If the commissioner determines that one of the conditions listed in subdivision 1 exists, the commissioner may issue an order requiring a licensee to show cause why any or all of the following should not occur: (1) the license revocation or suspension; (2) censuring of the licensee; or (3) the imposition of a civil penalty. The order shall be calculated to give reasonable notice of the time and place for hearing on the matter, and shall state the reasons for the entry of the order. The commissioner may by order summarily suspend a license pending final determination of any order to show cause. If a license is suspended pending final determination of an order to show cause, a hearing on the merits shall be held within 30 days of the issuance of the order of suspension. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. After the hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order disposing of the matter as the facts require. If the licensee fails to appear at a hearing after having been duly notified of it, the licensee shall be considered in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the licensee upon consideration of the order to show cause, the allegations of which may be considered to be true.

Subd. 3. [APPLICANTS.] Whenever it appears to the commissioner that a license application should be denied pursuant to subdivision 1, the commissioner shall promptly give a written notice to the applicant of the denial. The notice must state the grounds for the denial and give reasonable notice of the rights of the applicant to request a hearing. A hearing must be held not later than 30 days after the request for the hearing is received by the commissioner unless the applicant and the department of commerce agree that the hearing may be held at a later date. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the notice, the denial will become final. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. After the hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order making such disposition as the facts require. If the applicant fails to appear at a hearing after having been duly notified of it, the person shall be considered in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the applicant upon consideration of the notice denying application, the allegations of which may be considered to be true. All fees accompanying the application and appointment are considered earned and are not refundable.

Subd. 4. [ACTIONS AGAINST LAPSED LICENSE.] If a license lapses, is surrendered, withdrawn, terminated, or otherwise becomes ineffective, the commissioner may institute a proceeding under this subdivision within two years after the license was last effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which the license was in effect, or impose a civil penalty as provided for in section 45.027, subdivision 6.

Subd. 5. [NOTIFICATION OF ACTION TAKEN BY OTHER STATE.] An insurance agent shall notify the commissioner within 30 days of any fine imposed on that agent by another state or of a suspension or revocation of license by the commissioner of commerce of this state or the commissioner of insurance of any other state.

Subd. 6. [CONDITIONS FOR RELICENSURE.] A revocation of a license shall prohibit the licensee from making a new application for a license for at least two years from the effective date of the revocation. Further, the commissioner shall, as a condition of reapplication, require the applicant to obtain a performance bond issued by an insurer authorized to transact business in this state in the amount of $20,000 or a greater amount the commissioner considers appropriate for the protection of citizens of this state in the event the commissioner grants the application. The bond shall be filed with the commissioner, with the state of Minnesota as obligee, conditioned for the prompt payment to any aggrieved person entitled to payment of any amounts received by the licensee or to protect any aggrieved person from loss resulting from fraudulent, deceptive, dishonest, or other prohibited practices arising out of any transaction when the licensee was licensed or performed acts for which a license is required under this chapter. The bond shall remain operative for as long as that licensee is licensed. The bond required by this subdivision must provide coverage for all matters arising during the period of licensure.

Sec. 14. [60K.12] [TAX CLEARANCE CERTIFICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT FOR ISSUANCE OR RENEWAL OF LICENSE.] In addition to the provisions of section 60K.11, the commissioner may not issue or renew a license if the commissioner of revenue notifies the commissioner and the licensee or applicant for a license that the licensee or applicant owes the state delinquent taxes in the amount of $500 or more. The commissioner may issue or renew the license only if: (1) the commissioner of revenue issues a tax clearance certificate; and (2) the commissioner of revenue or the licensee or applicant forwards a copy of the clearance certificate to the commissioner. The commissioner of revenue may issue a clearance certificate only if the licensee or applicant does not owe the state any uncontested delinquent taxes.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Taxes" are all taxes payable to the commissioner of revenue, including penalties and interest due on those taxes; and

Subd. 3. [CONTESTED CASE HEARING.] In lieu of the notice and hearing requirements of section 60K.11, when a licensee or applicant is required to obtain a clearance certificate under this section, a contested case hearing must be held if the licensee or applicant requests a hearing in writing to the commissioner of revenue within 30 days of the date of the notice provided in subdivision 1. The hearing must be held within 45 days of the date the commissioner of revenue refers the case to the office of administrative hearings. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the licensee or applicant must be served with 20 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of the hearing and the allegations against the licensee or applicant. The notice may be served personally or by mail.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION REQUIRED.] The commissioner shall require all licensees or applicants to provide their social security number and Minnesota business identification number on all license applications. Upon request of the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner must provide to the commissioner of revenue a list of all licensees and applicants, including the name and address, social security number, and business identification number. The commissioner of revenue may request a list of the licensees and applicants no more than once each calendar year.

Sec. 15. [60K.13] [SURRENDER, LOSS, OR DESTRUCTION OF LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall promptly notify the licensee and all appointing insurers, where applicable, of any suspension, revocation, or termination of the licensee's agent's license by the commissioner. Upon receipt of the notice of suspension or revocation of a license, the licensee shall immediately deliver it to the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [RETURN OF LICENSE.] An agent whose resident or nonresident license is terminated, as provided in section 60K.11, shall deliver the terminated license to the commissioner by personal delivery or by mail within 30 days after the date of termination.

Subd. 3. [DUPLICATE LICENSE.] The commissioner may issue a duplicate license for any lost, stolen, or destroyed license issued pursuant to this section upon an affidavit of the licensee concerning the facts of the loss, theft, or destruction, and the payment of a fee of $3 by money order or cashier's check payable to the state treasurer.

Sec. 16. [60K.14] [PROHIBITED ACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL SOLICITATION OF INSURANCE SALES.] (a) [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Agent" means a person, copartnership, or corporation required to be licensed pursuant to section 60K.02; and

(2) "Personal solicitation" means any contact by an agent, or any person acting on behalf of an agent, made for the purpose of selling or attempting to sell insurance, when either the agent or a person acting for the agent contacts the buyer by telephone or in person, except: (i) an attempted sale in which the buyer personally knows the identity of the agent, the name of the general agency, if any, which the agent represents, and the fact that the agent is an insurance agent; (ii) an attempted sale in which the prospective purchaser of insurance initiated the contact; or (iii) a personal contact which takes place at the agent's place of business.

(b) [DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENT.] Before a personal solicitation, the agent or person acting for an agent shall, at the time of initial personal contact or communication with the potential buyer, clearly and expressly disclose:

(1) the name of the person making the contact or communication;

(2) the name of the agent, general agency, or insurer that person represents; and

(3) the fact that the agent, agency, or insurer is in the business of selling insurance.

(c) [FALSE REPRESENTATION OF GOVERNMENT AFFILIATION.] No agent or person acting for an agent shall make any communication to a potential buyer that indicates or gives the impression that the agent is acting on behalf of a government agency.

Subd. 2. [FEES FOR SERVICES.] No person shall charge a fee for any services rendered in connection with the solicitation, negotiation, or servicing of any insurance contract unless:

(1) before rendering the services, a written statement is provided disclosing:

(i) the services for which fees are charged;

(ii) the amount of the fees;

(iii) that the fees are charged in addition to premiums; and

(iv) that premiums include a commission; and

(2) all fees charged are reasonable in relation to the services rendered.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONS OR COMPENSATION.] No commission or other compensation shall be paid or allowed by any person, firm, or corporation to any other person, firm, or corporation acting, or assuming to act, as an insurance agent without a license therefor. A duly licensed agent may pay commissions or assign or direct that commissions be paid to a partnership of which the agent is a member, employee, or agent, or to a corporation of which the agent is an officer, employee, or agent. This subdivision does not prevent the payment or receipt of renewal or other deferred commissions to or by any person solely because the person has ceased to hold a license to act as an insurance agent.

Subd. 4. [SUITABILITY OF INSURANCE.] In recommending the purchase of any life, endowment, long-term care, annuity, life-endowment, or Medicare supplement insurance to a customer, an agent must have reasonable grounds for believing that the recommendation is suitable for the customer and must make reasonable inquiries to determine suitability. The suitability of a recommended purchase of insurance will be determined by reference to the totality of the particular customer's circumstances, including, but not limited to, the customer's income, the customer's need for insurance, and the values, benefits, and costs of the customer's existing insurance program, if any, when compared to the values, benefits, and costs of the recommended policy or policies.

Subd. 5. [PREMIUMS.] All premiums or other money received by an agent from an insured or applicant for insurance must be forthwith deposited directly in a business checking, savings, or other similar account maintained by the agent or agency, unless the money is forwarded directly to the designated insurer.

Subd. 6. [PRIVACY OF CLIENT.] Except as otherwise provided by law, no insurance agent may disclose nor cause to be disclosed to any other person the identity of a person insured through the agent without the consent of the insured.

Sec. 17. [60K.15] [INSURER'S AGENT.]

Sec. 18. [60K.16] [LIABILITY FOR PLACING INSURANCE IN UNAUTHORIZED COMPANY.]

Any person, regardless of whether that person is required to be licensed as an insurance agent, who participates in any manner in the sale of any insurance policy or certificate, or any other contract providing benefits, for or on behalf of any company which is required to be, but which is not authorized to engage in the business of insurance in this state, other than pursuant to sections 60A.195 to 60A.209, shall be personally liable for all premiums, whether earned or unearned, paid by the insured, and the premiums may be recovered by the insured. In addition, that person shall be personally liable for any loss the insured has sustained or may sustain if the loss is one resulting from a risk or hazard covered in the issued policy, certificate, or contract or which would have been covered if the policy, certificate, or contract had been issued to the purchaser of the insurance.

Sec. 19. [60K.17] [AGENTS: VARIABLE CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person shall sell or offer for sale a contract on a variable basis unless prior to making any solicitation or sale the person has obtained from the commissioner a license therefor. The license shall only be granted, upon the written requisition of an insurer, to a qualified person who holds a current license authorizing the person to solicit and sell life insurance and annuity contracts in this state. To become qualified, a person shall complete a written application on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall take and pass an examination prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) Any regularly salaried officer or employee of a licensed insurer may, without license or other qualification, act on behalf of that licensed insurer in the negotiation of a contract on a variable basis, provided that a licensed agent must participate in the sale of any contract.

(b) Any person who holds a valid license to solicit and sell life insurance and annuity contracts may solicit and sell contracts on a variable basis without acquiring a license under this subdivision if the contract is based on an account which is excluded from the definition of investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, United States Code, title 15, section 80a-3(11).

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner may by rule waive or modify any of the requirements in this section or prescribe additional requirements considered necessary for the proper sale and solicitation of contracts on a variable basis.

Sec. 20. [60K.18] [ALTERING EXISTING POLICIES: WRITTEN BINDERS REQUIRED.]

An insurance agent having express authority to bind coverage, who orally agrees on behalf of an insurer to provide insurance coverage, or to alter an existing insurance agreement, shall execute and deliver a written memorandum or binder containing the terms of the oral agreement to the insured within three business days from the time the oral agreement is entered.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 62C.17, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Upon the filing of a complaint by the commissioner of commerce in a court of competent jurisdiction against any person violating any provisions of this section, the county attorney of the county in which the violation occurred shall prosecute the person. Upon the conviction of any agent of any violation of the provisions of ~~section 60A.17~~ sections 60K.01 to 60K.18, the commissioner shall suspend the authority of the agent to transact any insurance business within the state for a period of not less than three months. Any insurer employing an agent and failing to procure an appointment, as required by ~~section 60A.17~~ sections 60K.01 to 60K.18, or allowing the agent to transact business for it within the state before an appointment has been procured, shall pay the commissioner, for the use of the state, a penalty of $25 for each offense. Each sale of an insurance policy by an agent who is not appointed by an insurance company shall constitute a separate offense, but no insurer shall be required to pay more than $300 in penalties as a result of the activities of a single unappointed agent. In the event of failure to pay a penalty within ten days after notice from the commissioner, the authority of the insurer to do business in this state shall be revoked by the commissioner until the penalty is paid. No insurer whose authority is revoked shall be readmitted until it shall have complied with all the terms and conditions imposed for admission in the first instance. - (2) an agreement that the auto rental company assumes all responsibility for the authorized actions of all unlicensed employees who sell the insurance product on its behalf in conjunction with the rental of its vehicles;

- (3) an agreement that the auto rental company with respect to itself and its employees will be subject to this chapter regarding the marketing of the insurance products and the conduct of those persons involved in the sale of insurance products in the same manner as if it were a licensed agent.

An auto rental company failing to file the documents in clauses (1) to (3) is guilty of an individual violation as to the unlicensed sale of insurance for each sale that occurs after August 1, 1987, until they make the required filings. Each individual sale after August 1, 1987, and prior to the filing required by this section is subject to, in addition to any other penalties allowable by law, up to a $200 per violation fine. Further, the sale of the insurance product by an auto rental company or any employee or agent of the company after August 1, 1987, without having complied with this section shall be deemed to be in acceptance of the provisions of this section.

Insurance sold pursuant to this subdivision must be limited in availability to rental vehicle customers though coverage may extend to the customer, other drivers, and passengers using or riding in the rented vehicles; and limited in duration to a period equal to and concurrent with that of the vehicle rental.

Persons purchasing rental vehicle personal accident insurance may be provided a certificate summarizing the policy provisions in lieu of a copy of the policy if a copy of the policy is available for inspection at the place of sale and a free copy of the policy may be obtained from the auto rental company's home office.

The commissioner may, after a hearing, revoke an auto rental company's right to operate under this section if the company has repeatedly violated the insurance laws of this state and the revocation is in the public interest.

Subd. 3. [CHARGES.] In addition to the charges authorized in subdivision 1, a licensee may contract for and receive in connection with an

The additional charge for credit ~~life~~ insurance ~~or credit disability insurance~~ must be calculated in each billing cycle by applying the current monthly premium rate for the insurance to the unpaid balances in the borrower's account.

(2) The amount, terms, and conditions of any credit insurance against loss or damage to property must be reasonable in relation to the character and value of the property insured.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 56.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, sell or offer for sale any insurance in connection with any loan made under this chapter except as and to the extent authorized by this section. The sale of credit ~~life and credit accident and health~~ insurance is subject to the provisions of chapter 62B, except that the term of the insurance may exceed 60 months if the term of the loan exceeds 60 months. Life, accident, and health insurance, or any of them, may be written upon or in connection with any loan but must not be required as additional security for the indebtedness. If the debtor chooses to procure credit ~~life~~ insurance ~~or credit accident and health~~ insurance as security for the indebtedness, the debtor shall have the option of furnishing this security through existing policies of insurance that the debtor owns or controls, or of furnishing the coverage through any insurer authorized to transact business in this state. A statement in substantially the following form must be made orally and provided in writing in bold face type of a minimum size of 12 points to the borrower before the transaction is completed for each credit ~~life and accident and health~~ insurance coverage sold:

CREDIT ~~LIFE~~ INSURANCE AND CREDIT ~~DISABILITY~~
INSURANCE ~~ARE~~ /S NOT REQUIRED TO OBTAIN CREDIT.
YOU MAY BUY ANY INSURANCE FROM ANYONE YOU CHOOSE OR YOU MAY USE EXISTING INSURANCE.

The licensee shall disclose whether or not the benefits commence as of the first day of disability and shall further disclose the number of days that an insured obligor must be disabled, as defined in the policy, before benefits, whether retroactive or nonretroactive, commence. In case there are multiple obligors under a transaction subject to this chapter, no policy or certificate of insurance providing credit accident and health benefits or credit unemployment benefits may be procured by or through a licensee upon more than one of the obligors. In case there are multiple obligors under a transaction subject to this chapter, no policy or certificate of insurance providing credit life insurance may be procured by or through a licensee upon more than two of the obligors in which case they shall be insured jointly. The premium or identifiable charge for the insurance must not exceed that filed by the insurer with the department of commerce. The charge, computed at the time the loan is made for a period not to exceed the full term of the loan contract on an amount not to exceed the total amount required to pay principal and charges, may be deducted from the proceeds or may be included as part of the principal of any loan. If a borrower procures insurance by or through a licensee, the statement required by section 56.14 must disclose the cost to the borrower and the type of insurance, and the licensee shall cause to be delivered to the borrower a copy of the policy, certificate, or other evidence thereof, within a reasonable time. No licensee shall decline new or existing insurance which meets the standards set out in this section nor prevent any obligor from obtaining this insurance coverage from other sources. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any gain or advantage to the licensee or to any employee, affiliate, or associate of the licensee from this insurance or the sale or provision thereof is not an additional or further charge in connection with the loan; nor are any of the provisions pertaining to insurance contained in this section prohibited by any other provision of this chapter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.17, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] (a) [PROCEDURE.] An application for a license to act as an insurance agent shall be made to the commissioner by the person who seeks to be licensed. The application for license shall be accompanied by a written appointment from an admitted insurer authorizing the applicant to act as its agent under one or both classes of license. The insurer must also submit its check payable to the state treasurer for the amount of the appointment fee prescribed by section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (9) at the time the agent becomes licensed. The application and appointment shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

If the applicant is a natural person, no license shall be issued until that natural person has become qualified.

If the applicant is a partnership or corporation, no license shall be issued until at least one natural person who is a partner, director, officer, stockholder, or employee shall be licensed as an insurance agent.

(b) [RESIDENT AGENT.] The commissioner shall issue a resident insurance agent's license to a qualified resident of this state as follows:

(1) a person may qualify as a resident of this state if that person resides in this state or the principal place of business of that person is maintained in this state. Application for a license claiming residency in this state for licensing purposes, shall constitute an election of residency in this state. Any license issued upon an application claiming residency in this state shall be void if the licensee, while holding a resident license in this state, also holds, or makes application for, a resident license in, or thereafter claims to be a resident of, any other state or jurisdiction or if the licensee ceases to be a resident of this state; provided, however, if the applicant is a resident of a community or trade area, the border of which is contiguous with the state line of this state, the applicant may qualify for a resident license in this state and at the same time hold a resident license from the contiguous state;

(2) the commissioner shall subject each applicant who is a natural person to a written examination as to the applicant's competence to act as an insurance agent. The examination shall be held at a reasonable time and place designated by the commissioner:

(3) the examination shall be approved for use by the commissioner and shall test the applicant's knowledge of the lines of insurance, policies, and transactions to be handled under the class of license applied for, of the duties and responsibilities of the licensee, and pertinent insurance laws of this state:

(4) the examination shall be given only after the applicant has completed a program of classroom studies in a school, which shall not include a school sponsored by, offered by, or affiliated with an insurance company or its agents; except that this limitation does not preclude a bona fide professional association of agents, not acting on behalf of an insurer, from offering courses. The course of study shall consist of 30 hours of classroom study devoted to the basic fundamentals of insurance for those seeking a Minnesota license for the first time, 15 hours devoted to specific life and health topics for those seeking a life and health license, and 15 hours devoted to specific property and casualty topics for those seeking a property and casualty license. The program of studies or study course shall have been approved by the commissioner in order to qualify under this clause. If the applicant has been previously licensed for the particular line of insurance in the state of Minnesota, the requirement of a program of studies or a study course shall be waived. A certification of compliance by the organization offering the course shall accompany the applicant's license application. This program of studies in a school or a study course shall not apply to farm property perils and farm liability applicants, or to agents writing such other lines of insurance as the commissioner may exempt from examination by order:

(5) the applicant must pass the examination with a grade determined by the commissioner to indicate satisfactory knowledge and understanding of the class or classes of insurance for which the applicant seeks qualification. The commissioner shall inform the applicant as to whether or not the applicant has passed:

(6) an applicant who has failed to pass an examination may take subsequent examinations. Examination fees for subsequent examinations shall not be waived; and

(7) any applicant for a license covering the same class or classes of insurance for which the applicant was licensed under a similar license in this state, other than a temporary license, within the three years preceding the date of the application shall be exempt from the requirement of a written examination, unless the previous license was revoked or suspended by the commissioner. An applicant whose license is not renewed under subdivision 20 is exempt from the requirement of a written examination.

(c) [NONRESIDENT AGENT.] The commissioner shall issue a nonresident insurance agent's license to a qualified person who is a resident of another state or country as follows:

(1) A person may qualify for a license under this section as a nonresident only if that person holds a license in another state, province of Canada, or other foreign country which, in the opinion of the commissioner, qualifies that person for the same activity as that for which a license is sought:

(2) The commissioner shall not issue a license to any nonresident applicant until that person files with the commissioner a designation of the commissioner and the commissioner's successors in office as the applicant's true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of any interested person arising out of the applicant's insurance business in this state. This designation shall constitute an agreement that this service of process is of the same legal force and validity as personal service of process in this state upon that applicant.

Service of process upon any licensee in any action or proceeding commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction of this state may be made by serving the commissioner with appropriate copies of the process along with payment of the fee pursuant to section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (4). The commissioner shall forward a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the licensee at the last known address of record or principal place of business of the licensee; and

(3) A nonresident license shall terminate automatically when the resident license for that class of license in the state, province, or foreign country in which the licensee is a resident is terminated for any reason.

(d) [DENIAL.] (1) If the commissioner finds that an applicant for a resident or nonresident license has not fully met the requirements for licensing, the commissioner shall refuse to issue the license and shall promptly give written notice to both the applicant and the appointing insurer of the denial, stating the grounds for the denial. All fees which accompanied the application and appointment shall be deemed earned and shall not be refundable.

(2) The commissioner may also deny issuance of a license for any cause that would subject the license of a licensee to suspension or revocation. If a license is denied pursuant to this clause, the provisions of subdivision 6c, paragraph (c), apply.

(3) The applicant may make a written demand upon the commissioner for a hearing within 30 days of the denial of a license to determine whether the reasons stated for the denial were lawful. The hearing shall be held pursuant to chapter 14.

(e) [TERM.] All licenses issued pursuant to this section shall remain in force until voluntarily terminated by the licensee, not renewed as prescribed in subdivision 1d, or until suspended or revoked by the commissioner. A voluntary termination shall occur when the license is surrendered to the commissioner with the request that it be terminated or when the licensee dies, or when the licensee is dissolved or its existence is terminated. In the case of a nonresident license, a voluntary termination shall also occur upon the happening of the event described in paragraph (c), clause (3).

Every licensed agent shall notify the commissioner within 30 days of any change of name, address, or information contained in the application.

(f) [SUBSEQUENT APPOINTMENTS.] A person who holds a valid agent's license from this state may solicit applications for insurance on behalf of an admitted insurer with which the licensee does not have a valid appointment on file with the commissioner; provided, that the licensee has permission from the insurer to solicit insurance on its behalf and, provided further, that the insurer upon receipt of the application for insurance submits a written notice of appointment to the commissioner accompanied by its check payable to the state treasurer in the amount of the appointment fee prescribed by section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (9). The notice of appointment shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(g) [AMENDMENT OF LICENSE.] An application to the commissioner to amend a license to reflect a change of name, or to include an additional class of license, or for any other reason, shall be on forms provided by the commissioner and shall be accompanied by the applicant's surrendered license and a check payable to the state treasurer for the amount of fee specified in section 60A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

An applicant who surrenders an insurance license pursuant to this clause retains licensed status until an amended license is received.

(h) [EXCEPTIONS.] The following are exempt from the general licensing requirements prescribed by this section:

(1) agents of township mutuals who are exempted pursuant to subdivision 1b;

(2) fraternal beneficiary association representatives exempted pursuant to subdivision 1c;

(3) any regular salaried officer or employee of a licensed insurer, without license or other qualification, may act on behalf of that licensed insurer in the negotiation of insurance for that insurer; provided that a licensed agent must participate in the sale of any such insurance;

(4) employers and their officers or employees, and the trustees or employees of any trust plan, to the extent that the employers, officers, employees, or trustees are engaged in the administration or operation of any program of employee benefits for the employees of the employers or employees of their subsidiaries or affiliates involving the use of insurance issued by a licensed insurance company; provided, that the activities of the officers, employees and trustees are incidental to clerical or administrative duties and their compensation does not vary with the volume of insurance or applications therefor;

(5) employees of a creditor who enroll debtors for ~~life or accident and health~~ credit insurance subject to chapter 62B; provided the employees receive no commission or fee therefor;

(6) clerical or administrative employees of an insurance agent who take insurance applications or receive premiums in the office of their employer, if the activities are incidental to clerical or administrative duties and the employee's compensation does not vary with the volume of the applications or premiums; and

(7) rental vehicle companies and their employees in connection with the offer of rental vehicle personal accident insurance under section 72A.125.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 13.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO DATA.] Upon request to a responsible authority or designee, a person shall be permitted to inspect and copy public government data at reasonable times and places, and, upon request, shall be informed of the data's meaning. If a person requests access for the purpose of inspection, the responsible authority may not assess a charge or require the requesting person to pay a fee to inspect data. If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in an adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the agency shall place the child with a family that also meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no family is available that is described in clause (a) or (b) may the agency give preference to a family described in clause (c) that meets the parent's religious preference.

After the plan has been agreed upon by the parties involved, the foster parents shall be fully informed of the provisions of the case plan.

When an agency accepts a child for placement, the agency shall determine whether the child has had a physical examination by or under the direction of a licensed physician within the 12 months immediately preceding the date when the child came into the agency's care. If there is documentation that the child has had such an examination within the last 12 months, the agency is responsible for seeing that the child has another physical examination within one year of the documented examination and annually in subsequent years. Subd. 2. [CONTINUING EDUCATION COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint a continuing education committee of five persons, including a chair, which shall advise on the administration of continuing education requirements in section 5, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERSHIP.] A member of the department that carries out functions under this section may not be an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the counseling services industry.

Sec. 4. [148B.77] [REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] The commissioner shall license the individuals qualified under sections 1 to 12 to practice chemical dependency counseling.

Subd. 2. [FEE.] Each applicant shall pay a nonrefundable fee set by the commissioner. Fees paid shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 3. [LICENSURE REQUIREMENTS FOR CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY COUNSELOR; EVIDENCE.] (a) To be licensed as a chemical dependency counselor, an applicant must meet the requirements in clauses (1) to (3).

(1) Except as provided in subdivision 4, the applicant must have received an associate degree including 270 clock hours of chemical dependency education and 880 clock hours of chemical dependency practicum.

(2) The applicant must have completed a written and oral case presentation that demonstrates competence in the 12 core functions.

(3) The applicant must have satisfactorily passed a written examination as established by the commissioner.

(b) To be licensed as a chemical dependency counselor, an applicant must furnish evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the applicant has met the requirements of paragraph (a).

Subd. 4. Subd. 5. [EDUCATION AND TRAINING REQUIREMENTS.] Educational programs designed to meet the requirements of this section, as well as continuing education programs under section 6, must include programs designed to enable applicants and licensees to offer chemical dependency counseling that meets the specific needs of diverse racial, sexual, and cultural groups and that recognizes and addresses the link between violence and chemical dependency.

Sec. 5. [148B.78] [LICENSE RENEWAL REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RENEWAL.] Persons shall renew licenses at the time and in the manner established by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUING EDUCATION.] At the time of renewal, each person shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the commissioner that the person has completed annually at least the equivalent of 40 clock hours of continuing professional postdegree education every two years, in programs approved by the commissioner, and that the person continues to be qualified to practice under sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 6. [148B.79] [SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS; TRANSITION PERIOD.]

Effective two years after the effective date of sections 1 to 12, no person may hold a license unless the person has passed the testing requirements required of new applicants.

For two years from the effective date of sections 1 to 12, the commissioner shall license an applicant who does not meet the requirements in section 4 if the applicant meets one of the following qualifications:

(c) has five years or 10,000 hours of chemical dependency counselor experience as defined by the 12 core functions, 270 clock hours of chemical dependency training, and has successfully completed a written or oral test or is credentialed as a certified chemical dependency practitioner (CCDP) by the Institute for Chemical Dependency Professionals of Minnesota, Inc.; or

(d) has seven years or 14,000 hours of supervised chemical dependency counselor experience as defined by the 12 core functions, and 270 clock hours of chemical dependency training with 60 hours of this training occurring within the past five years.

Sec. 7. [148B.80] [RECIPROCITY.]

The commissioner shall license an individual who holds a current license or other credential from another jurisdiction if the commissioner finds that the requirements for that credential are substantially similar to the requirements in sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 8. [148B.81] [NONTRANSFERABILITY.]

A chemical dependency counselor license is not transferable.

Sec. 9. [148B.82] [DENIAL, SUSPENSION, OR REVOCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The commissioner may refuse to license or may suspend, revoke, or restrict the license of an individual if the commissioner determines that a person:

(1) is incompetent to engage in chemical dependency counseling practice or is found to be engaged in chemical dependency counseling practice in a manner harmful or dangerous to a client or the public;

(2) has violated the rules of the commissioner or the statutes the commissioner is empowered to enforce;

(3) has obtained or attempted to obtain a license renewal by bribery or fraudulent misrepresentation;

(4) has knowingly made a false statement on the form required for licensure or renewal; or

(5) has failed to obtain continuing education credits required by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [RESTORING A LICENSE.] For reasons it finds sufficient, the commissioner may grant a license previously refused, restore a license that has been revoked, or reduce a period of suspension or restriction.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL REVIEW.] Suspension, revocation, or restriction shall be reviewed by the commissioner at least annually at the request of the person against whom the disciplinary action was taken.

Subd. 4. [APPEALS.] An individual whose application for a license has been denied, or an individual whose license has been suspended, revoked, or restricted, may appeal the decision of the commissioner and is entitled to a contested case hearing under chapter 14.

Sec. 10. [148B.83] [PROHIBITION AGAINST UNLICENSED USE OF TITLES: PENALTY.]

After the commissioner adopts rules, no individual shall hold herself or himself out to be a "chemical dependency counselor" or employ that or any of the other terms stated in section 1, subdivision 3, unless that individual is licensed. Hospital chemical dependency counselors who are not licensed under sections 1 to 12 may use the title "hospital chemical dependency counselor" while acting within the scope of their employment. City, county, and state agency chemical dependency counselors who are not licensed under sections 1 to 12 may use the title "city agency chemical dependency counselor" or "county agency chemical dependency counselor" or "state agency chemical dependency counselor" while acting within the scope of their employment.

Sec. 11. [148B.84] [EXCEPTIONS TO LICENSING REQUIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [OTHER PROFESSIONALS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 10 shall prevent members of other professions or occupations from performing functions for which they are qualified or licensed. This exception includes, but is not limited to, licensed physicians, registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, licensed psychologists, members of the clergy, attorneys, probation officers, marriage and family therapists, social workers, professional counselors, school counselors, and registered occupational therapists or certified occupational therapist assistants. These persons must not, however, use a title incorporating the words "chemical dependency counselor" or "licensed chemical dependency counselor" or otherwise hold themselves out to the public by any title or description stating or implying that they are licensed to engage in the practice of chemical dependency counseling.

Subd. 2. [STUDENTS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 10 shall prevent students enrolled in an accredited school of chemical dependency counseling from engaging in the practice of chemical dependency counseling under qualified supervision in an accredited school of chemical dependency counseling.

Subd. 3. [CITY, COUNTY, AND STATE AGENCY CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY COUNSELORS.] The licensing of city, county, and state agency chemical dependency counselors shall be voluntary. City, county, and state agencies employing chemical dependency counselors shall not be required to employ licensed chemical dependency counselors, nor shall they require their chemical dependency counselors to be licensed.

Subd. 4. [FEDERALLY RECOGNIZED TRIBES AND PRIVATE NON-PROFIT AGENCIES WITH A MINORITY FOCUS.] The licensure of chemical dependency counselors who are employed by federally recognized tribes, or by private, nonprofit agencies whose primary service focus addresses ethnic minority populations, and who are themselves members of ethnic minority populations within the agencies, shall be voluntary.

Subd. 5. [CITIES OF 5,000 OR LESS.] The licensure of chemical dependency counselors in cities with a population of 5,000 people or less is voluntary.

Subd. 6. [HOSPITAL CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY COUNSELORS.] The licensing of hospital chemical dependency counselors shall be voluntary.

Hospitals employing chemical dependency counselors shall not be required to employ licensed chemical dependency counselors, nor shall they require their chemical dependency counselors to be licensed.

Sec. 12. [148B.85] [PENALTY.]

A person who violates a provision of sections 1 to 11 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 595.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES.] Every person of sufficient understanding, including a party, may testify in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, in court or before any person who has authority to receive evidence, except as provided in this subdivision:

(a) A husband cannot be examined for or against his wife without her consent, nor a wife for or against her husband without his consent, nor can either, during the marriage or afterwards, without the consent of the other, be examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage. This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other or against a child of either or against a child under the care of either spouse, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which one is charged with homicide or an attempt to commit homicide and the date of the marriage of the defendant is subsequent to the date of the offense, nor to an action or proceeding for nonsupport, neglect, dependency, or termination of parental rights.

(b) An attorney cannot, without the consent of the attorney's client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to the attorney or the attorney's advice given thereon in the course of professional duty; nor can any employee of the attorney be examined as to the communication or advice, without the client's consent.

(c) A member of the clergy or other minister of any religion shall not, without the consent of the party making the confession, be allowed to disclose a confession made to the member of the clergy or other minister in a professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which the member of the clergy or other minister belongs; nor shall a member of the clergy or other minister of any religion be examined as to any communication made to the member of the clergy or other minister by any person seeking religious or spiritual advice, aid, or comfort or advice given thereon in the course of the member of the clergy's or other minister's professional character, without the consent of the person.

(d) A licensed physician or surgeon, dentist, or chiropractor shall not, without the consent of the patient, be allowed to disclose any information or any opinion based thereon which the professional acquired in attending the patient in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable the professional to act in that capacity; after the decease of the patient, in an action to recover insurance benefits, where the insurance has been in existence two years or more, the beneficiaries shall be deemed to be the personal representatives of the deceased person for the purpose of waiving this privilege, and no oral or written waiver of the privilege shall have any binding force or effect except when made upon the trial or examination where the evidence is offered or received.

(e) A public officer shall not be allowed to disclose communications made to the officer in official confidence when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

(f) Persons of unsound mind and persons intoxicated at the time of their production for examination are not competent witnesses if they lack capacity to remember or to relate truthfully facts respecting which they are examined.

(g) A registered nurse, psychologist or consulting psychologist shall not, without the consent of the professional's client, be allowed to disclose any information or opinion based thereon which the professional has acquired in attending the client in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable the professional to act in that capacity.

(h) An interpreter for a person handicapped in communication shall not, without the consent of the person, be allowed to disclose any communication if the communication would, if the interpreter were not present, be privileged. For purposes of this section, a "person handicapped in communication" means a person who, because of a hearing, speech or other communication disorder, or because of the inability to speak or comprehend the English language, is unable to understand the proceedings in which the person is required to participate. The presence of an interpreter as an aid to communication does not destroy an otherwise existing privilege.

(i) Licensed chemical dependency counselors shall not disclose information or an opinion based on the information which they acquire from persons consulting them in their professional capacities, and which was necessary to enable them to act in that capacity, except that they may do so:

(1) when informed consent has been obtained in writing, except in those circumstances in which not to do so would violate the law or would result in clear and imminent danger to the client or others;

(2) when the communications reveal the contemplation or ongoing commission of a crime; or

(3) when the consulting person waives the privilege by bringing suit or filing charges against the professional whom that person consulted.

(j) A parent or the parent's minor child may not be examined as to any communication made in confidence by the minor to the minor's parent. A communication is confidential if made out of the presence of persons not members of the child's immediate family living in the same household. This exception may be waived by express consent to disclosure by a parent entitled to claim the privilege or by the child who made the communication or by failure of the child or parent to object when the contents of a communication are demanded. This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one spouse against the other or by a parent or child against the other, nor to a proceeding to commit either the child or parent to whom the communication was made or to place the person or property or either under the control of another because of an alleged mental or physical condition, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which the parent is charged with a crime committed against the person or property of the communicating child, the parent's spouse, or a child of either the parent or the parent's spouse, or in which a child is charged with a crime or act of delinquency committed against the person or property of a parent or a child of a parent, nor to an action or proceeding for termination of parental rights, nor any other action or proceeding on a petition alleging child abuse, child neglect, abandonment or nonsupport by a parent.

(j) (k) Sexual assault counselors may not be compelled to testify about any opinion or information received from or about the victim without the consent of the victim. However, a counselor may be compelled to identify or disclose information in investigations or proceedings related to neglect or termination of parental rights if the court determines good cause exists. In determining whether to compel disclosure, the court shall weigh the public interest and need for disclosure against the effect on the victim, the treatment relationship, and the treatment services if disclosure occurs. Nothing in this clause exempts sexual assault counselors from compliance with the provisions of sections 626.556 and 626.557.

“Sexual assault counselor” for the purpose of this section means a person who has undergone at least 40 hours of crisis counseling training and works under the direction of a supervisor in a crisis center, whose primary purpose is to render advice, counseling, or assistance to victims of sexual assault.

(k) (l) A person cannot be examined as to any communication or document, including worknotes, made or used in the course of or because of mediation pursuant to an agreement to mediate. This does not apply to the parties in the dispute in an application to a court by a party to have a mediated settlement agreement set aside or reformed. A communication or document otherwise not privileged does not become privileged because of this paragraph. This paragraph is not intended to limit the privilege accorded to communication during mediation by the common law.

(l) (m) A child under ten years of age is a competent witness unless the court finds that the child lacks the capacity to remember or to relate truthfully facts respecting which the child is examined. A child describing any act or event may use language appropriate for a child of that age.

16B.121 [PURCHASE OF RECYCLED, REPAIRABLE, AND DURABLE MATERIALS.]

The commissioner shall take the recycled content and recyclability of commodities to be purchased into consideration in bid specifications. ~~The commissioner shall apply weighting factors to the recycled content and recyclability criteria in order to give a preferential treatment to those criteria. State agencies shall purchase recycled materials when specifications allow the practical use of the recycled materials and the price does not exceed the price of nonrecycled materials by more than ten percent. If possible, state agencies should purchase materials recycled from waste generated in this state. When feasible and when the price of recycled materials does not exceed the price of nonrecycled materials by more than ten percent, the commissioner, and state agencies when purchasing under delegated authority, shall purchase recycled materials. In order to maximize the quantity and quality of recycled materials purchased, the commissioner, and state agencies when purchasing under delegated authority, may also use other appropriate procedures to acquire recycled materials at the most economical cost to the state.~~

When purchasing commodities and services, the commissioner, and state agencies when purchasing under delegated authority, shall apply and promote the preferred waste management practices listed in section 115A.02, with special emphasis on reduction of the quantity and toxicity of materials in waste. The commissioner, and state agencies when purchasing under delegated authority, in developing bid specifications, shall consider the extent to which a commodity or product is durable, reusable, or recyclable and marketable through the state resource recovery program.

Sec. 4. [16B.176] [ADVERTISING SPACE PROVIDED BY RECIPIENTS OF STATE GRANTS.]

A nonprofit organization, governmental entity, or business that receives an appropriation, grant, or aid from the state shall provide programs of state agencies and political subdivisions free advertising or publicity space in one or more of the organization's publications exceeding eight pages. This requirement does not apply to publications distributed only to employees or shareholders of the organization, or to other publications where this publicity or advertising would be inappropriate. The organization providing the space may decide how much to provide. The free advertising or publicity must be provided during the state fiscal year that the grant, aid, or appropriation is received.

Sec. 5. [16B.177] [RECIPIENTS OF SERVICES: ADVERTISING.]

The commissioner shall notify state agencies and political subdivisions of services available under section 4. The commissioner shall maintain a file of advertising or publicity that state agencies and political subdivisions would like to place or develop under section 4. The commissioner shall coordinate requests for space with organizations offering space. State agencies and political subdivisions that receive a legislative appropriation for marketing, publicity, or advertising may not receive space under this section.

Subdivision 1. [JOB-RELATED DISABILITY.] A covered correctional employee less than 55 years old who becomes disabled and physically unfit to perform the duties of the position as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty that makes the employee physically or mentally unable to perform the duties, is entitled to a disability benefit based on covered correctional service only. The benefit amount must equal ~~50~~ 54 percent of the average salary defined in section 352.93, plus an additional ~~2.1~~ 2.7 percent for each year of covered correctional service in excess of 20 years, prorated for completed months.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 352B.02, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [MEMBER CONTRIBUTIONS.] Each member shall pay a sum equal to ~~8.5~~ percent of the member's salary, which shall constitute the member contribution to the fund.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 352B.02, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] (a) In addition to member contributions, department heads shall pay a sum equal to ~~4.88~~ percent of the salary upon which deductions were made, which shall constitute the employer contribution to the fund. Department contributions must be paid out of money appropriated to departments for this purpose.

(b) By January 1 of each year, the board of directors shall report to the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, the chair of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives, and the chair of the committee on finance of the senate on the amount raised by the employer and employee contribution rates in effect and whether the total amount is less than, the same as, or more than the actuarial requirement determined under section 356.215.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 352B.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NORMAL RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] The annuity must be paid in monthly installments. The annuity shall be equal to the amount determined by multiplying the average monthly salary of the member by ~~2-1/2~~ 2.7 percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 352B.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INJURIES, PAYMENT AMOUNTS.] Any member less than 55 years old, who becomes disabled and physically or mentally unfit to perform duties as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty, shall receive disability benefits while disabled. The benefits must be paid in monthly installments equal to the member's average monthly salary multiplied by ~~50~~ 54 percent, plus an additional ~~2-1/2~~ 2.7 percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service in excess of 20 years, if any.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 353.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTION.] The employee contribution shall be an amount (a) for a "basic member" equal to ~~8-2/3~~ 8.52 percent of total salary; and (b) for a "coordinated member" equal to ~~4-2/3~~ 4.52 percent of total salary. These contributions shall be made by deduction from salary in the manner provided in subdivision 4. Where any portion of a member's salary is paid from other than public funds, such member's employee contribution shall be based on the total salary received from all sources.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 353.29, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMULA.] (a) This paragraph, in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, and 1c, applies to any member who first became a public employee or a member of a pension fund listed in section 356.30, subdivision 3, before July 1, 1989, unless paragraph (b), in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivision 5, produces a higher annuity amount, in which case paragraph (b) will apply. The average salary as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by ~~two~~ 2.7 percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and thereafter by ~~2-5~~ 2.6 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for the "basic member," and ~~one~~ 1.7 percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and thereafter by ~~1-5~~ 1.6 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for the "coordinated member," shall determine the amount of the "normal" retirement annuity.

(b) This paragraph applies to a member who has become at least 55 years old and first became a public employee after June 30, 1989, and to any other member whose annuity amount, when calculated under this paragraph and in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivision 5, is higher than it is when calculated under paragraph (a), in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, and 1c. The average salary, as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by ~~2.5~~ 2.6 percent for each year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for a basic member and ~~4.5~~ 4.6 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for a coordinated member, shall determine the amount of the normal retirement annuity.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 353.651, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMULA.] The average salary as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by ~~2.4~~ 2.7 percent per year of allowable service shall determine the amount of the normal retirement annuity. If the member has earned allowable service for performing services other than those of a police officer or firefighter, the annuity representing such service shall be computed in accordance with sections 353.29 and 353.30.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 353.656, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN LINE OF DUTY; COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS.] Any member of the police and fire fund less than 55 years of age, who becomes disabled and physically unfit to perform duties as a police officer or firefighter subsequent to June 30, 1973, as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty, which has or is expected to render the member physically or mentally unable to perform duties as a police officer or firefighter for a period of at least one year, shall receive disability benefits during the period of such disability. The benefits must be in an amount equal to ~~50~~ 54 percent of the "average salary" pursuant to subdivision 3 plus an additional ~~2.4~~ 2.7 percent of said average salary for each year of service in excess of 20 years. Should disability under this subdivision occur before the member has at least five years of allowable service credit in the police and fire fund, the disability benefit must be computed on the "average salary" from which deductions were made for contribution to the police and fire fund.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 353C.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ANNUITY AMOUNT.] The average salary as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by ~~two~~ 2.2 percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and ~~2.5~~ 2.7 percent for each additional year of allowable service, and pro rata for completed months less than a full year, determines the amount of the normal annuity. If a person has earned allowable service in the public employees retirement association or the public employees police and fire fund prior to participation under this chapter, the annuity representing such service must be computed in accordance with the formula under sections 353.29 and 353.30 or 353.651, whichever applies.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The employee contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~4.4~~ percent of the salary of every coordinated member and ~~8.4~~ percent of the salary of every basic member. This contribution shall be made by deduction from salary. Where any portion of a member's salary is paid from other than public funds, such member's employee contribution shall be based on the entire salary received.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354.42, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The employer contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~4~~^{4 1/2} percent of the salary of each coordinated member and ~~8~~^{8 1/2} percent of the salary of each basic member. This contribution shall be made in the manner provided in section 354.43.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354.44, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMPUTATION OF FORMULA PROGRAM RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] (1) The formula retirement annuity hereunder shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the formulas stated in clause (2) or (4) on the basis of each member's average salary for the period of the member's formula service credit.

For all years of formula service credit, "average salary," for the purpose of determining the member's retirement annuity, means the higher of: (i) the average salary upon which contributions were made and upon which payments were made to increase the salary limitation provided in Minnesota Statutes 1971, section 354.511, for the highest five successive years of formula service credit provided, however, that such "average salary" shall not include any more than the equivalent of 60 monthly salary payments, or (ii) if the member was a full-time teacher during the period used to compute the average salary under clause (i), 73 percent of the average of the annual salaries paid to members who are elementary and secondary teachers with an identical period of formula service credit in the public schools throughout the state during the most recent five-year period for which figures are available as determined from reports submitted to the board by the employing district. Average salary must be based upon all years of formula service credit if this service credit is less than five years.

(2) This clause, in conjunction with clause (3), applies to a person who first became a member of the fund or a member of a pension fund listed in section 356.30, subdivision 3, before July 1, 1989, unless clause (4), in conjunction with clause (5), produces a higher annuity amount, in which case clause (4) applies. The average salary as defined in clause (1), multiplied by the following percentages per year of formula service credit shall determine the amount of the annuity to which the member qualifying therefor is entitled:

	Coordinated Member	Basic Member
Each year of service during first ten	1.0 1.7 percent per year	2.0 2.1 percent per year
Each year of service thereafter	1.5 1.6 percent per year	2.5 2.6 percent per year

(3)(i) This clause applies only to a person who first became a member of the fund or a member of a pension fund listed in section 356.30, subdivision 3, before July 1, 1989, and whose annuity is higher when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with this clause than when calculated under clause (4), in conjunction with clause (5).

(ii) Where any member retires prior to normal retirement age under a formula annuity, the member shall be paid a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in clause (2) reduced by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the member is under normal retirement age at the time of retirement except that for any member who has 30 or more years of allowable service credit, the reduction shall be applied only for each month that the member is under age 62.

(iii) Any member whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years is entitled, upon application, to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in clause (2), without any reduction by reason of early retirement.

(4) This clause applies to a member who has become at least 55 years old and first became a member of the fund after June 30, 1989, and to any other member who has become at least 55 years old and whose annuity amount when calculated under this clause and in conjunction with clause (5), is higher than it is when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with clause (3). The average salary, as defined in clause (1) multiplied by 2.5 2.6 percent for each year of service for a basic member and by 1.5 1.6 percent for each year of service for a coordinated member shall determine the amount of the retirement annuity to which the member is entitled.

(5) This clause applies to a person who has become at least 55 years old and first becomes a member of the fund after June 30, 1989, and to any other member who has become at least 55 years old and whose annuity is higher when calculated under clause (4) in conjunction with this clause than when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with clause (3). An employee who retires under the formula annuity before the normal retirement age shall be paid the normal annuity provided in clause (4) reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity and the annuity amount were augmented at an annual rate of three percent compounded annually from the day the annuity begins to accrue until the normal retirement age.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354A.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The contribution required to be paid by each member of a teachers retirement fund association shall not be less than the percentage of total salary specified below for the applicable association and program:

Association and Program	Percentage of Total Salary
Duluth teachers retirement association
old law and new law coordinated programs	4.5 percent
Minneapolis teachers retirement association
basic program	8.5 percent
coordinated program	4.5 percent
St. Paul teachers retirement association
basic program	8 percent
coordinated program	4.5 percent

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354A.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, levies for teachers retirement fund associations in cities of the first class, including levies for any employer social security taxes for teachers covered by the Duluth teachers retirement fund association or the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association or the St. Paul teachers retirement fund association, are disallowed.

The employing units shall make the following employer contributions to teachers retirement fund associations:

(a) For any coordinated member of a teachers retirement fund association in a city of the first class, the employing unit shall pay the employer social security taxes in accordance with section 355.46, subdivision 3, clause (b):

(b) For any coordinated member of one of the following teachers retirement fund associations in a city of the first class, the employing unit shall make a contribution to the respective retirement fund association in an amount equal to the designated percentage of the salary of the coordinated member as provided below:

Duluth teachers retirement fund association	5.79 percent
Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association	4.50 percent
St. Paul teachers retirement fund association	4.50 percent

(c) For any basic member of one of the following teachers retirement fund associations in a city of the first class, the employing unit shall make a contribution to the respective retirement fund in an amount equal to the designated percentage of the salary of the basic member as provided below:

Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association	13.35 percent
St. Paul teachers retirement fund association	12.63 percent

The employer contributions shall be remitted directly to each teachers retirement fund association each month.

Payments for school district or technical college employees who are paid from normal operating funds, shall be made from the appropriate fund of the district or technical college.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 354A.31, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMPUTATION OF THE NORMAL COORDINATED RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] (a) The normal coordinated retirement annuity shall be an amount equal to a retiring coordinated member's average salary multiplied by the retirement annuity formula percentage. Average salary for purposes of this section shall mean an amount equal to the average salary upon which contributions were made for the highest five successive years of service credit, but which shall not in any event include any more than the equivalent of 60 monthly salary payments. Average salary must be based upon all years of service credit if this service credit is less than five years.

(b) This paragraph, in conjunction with subdivision 6, applies to a person who first became a member or a member in a pension fund listed in section 356.30, subdivision 3, before July 1, 1989, unless paragraph (c), in conjunction with subdivision 7, produces a higher annuity amount, in which case paragraph (c) will apply. The retirement annuity formula percentage for purposes of this paragraph is ~~one~~ 1.1 percent per year for each year of coordinated service for the first ten years and ~~4.5~~ 1.6 percent for each year of coordinated service thereafter.

(c) This paragraph applies to a person who has become at least 55 years old and who first becomes a member after June 30, 1989, and to any other member who has become at least 55 years old and whose annuity amount, when calculated under this paragraph and in conjunction with subdivision 7 is higher than it is when calculated under paragraph (b), in conjunction with the provisions of subdivision 6. The retirement annuity formula percentage for purposes of this paragraph is ~~4.5~~ 1.6 percent for each year of coordinated service.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 356.215, subdivision 4d, is amended to read:

Subd. 4d. [INTEREST AND SALARY ASSUMPTIONS.] (a) For funds governed by chapters 352, 352B, 353, 353C, and 354, the actuarial valuation must use a preretirement interest assumption of 8.5 percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and a future salary increase assumption of ~~6.5~~ six percent.

(b) For funds governed by chapter 354A, the actuarial valuation must use preretirement and postretirement assumptions of 8.5 percent and a future salary increase assumption of ~~6.5~~ six percent, but the actuarial valuation must reflect the payment of postretirement adjustments to retirees, based on the methods specified in the bylaws of the fund as approved by the legislature. For a fund governed by chapter 422A, the actuarial valuation shall use a preretirement interest assumption of six percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and an assumption that in each future year the salary on which a retirement or other benefit is based is 1.04 multiplied by the salary for the preceding year.

(c) For all other funds not specified in paragraph (a), (b), or (d), the actuarial valuation must use a preretirement interest assumption of five percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and a future salary increase assumption of 3.5 percent.

(d) For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352C, and 490, the actuarial valuation must use a preretirement interest assumption of 8.5 percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and a future salary increase assumption of ~~6.5~~ six percent in each future year in which the salary amount payable is not determinable from section 3.099, 15A.081, subdivision 6, or 15A.083, subdivision 1, whichever applies, or from applicable compensation council recommendations under section 15A.082.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 356.215, subdivision 4g, is amended to read:

Subd. 4g. [AMORTIZATION CONTRIBUTIONS.] (a) In addition to the exhibit indicating the level normal cost, the actuarial valuation must contain an exhibit indicating the additional annual contribution sufficient to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability. For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352, 352B, 352C, 353, 353C, 354, 354A, and 490, the additional contribution must be calculated on a level percentage of covered payroll basis by the established date for full funding in effect when the valuation is prepared. The level percent additional contribution must be calculated assuming annual payroll growth of ~~6.5~~ six percent. For all other funds, the additional annual contribution must be calculated on a level annual dollar amount basis.

(b) For any fund other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, 1989, if there has not been a change in the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, which change or changes by themselves without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund, the established date for full funding for the first actuarial valuation made after June 1, 1989, and each successive actuarial valuation is the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, 2020.

(c) For any fund or plan other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, 1989, if there has been a change in any or all of the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, and the change or changes, by themselves and without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease, produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability in the fund, the established date for full funding must be determined using the following procedure:

(i) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund must be determined in accordance with the plan provisions governing annuities and retirement benefits and the actuarial assumptions in effect before an applicable change;

(ii) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, needed to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined under item (i) by the established date for full funding in effect before the change must be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect before the change;

(iii) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund must be determined in accordance with any new plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and any new actuarial assumptions and the remaining plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and actuarial assumptions in effect before the change;

(iv) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, needed to amortize the difference between the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated under item (i) and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated under item (iii) over a period of 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the applicable change is effective must be calculated using the applicable interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change;

(v) the level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution

under item (iv) must be added to the level annual dollar amortization contribution or level percentage calculated under item (ii);

(vi) the period in which the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined in item (iii) is amortized by the total level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution computed under item (v) must be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change, rounded to the nearest integral number of years, but not to exceed 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and not to be less than the period of years beginning in the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ending by the date for full funding in effect before the change; and

(vii) the period determined under item (vi) must be added to the date as of which the actuarial valuation was prepared and the date obtained is the new established date for full funding.

(d) For the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, the established date for full funding is June 30, 2020.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 356.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY; COMPUTATION OF ANNUITY.] (1) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of the laws governing the funds enumerated in subdivision 3, a person who has met the qualifications of clause (2) may elect to receive a retirement annuity from each fund in which the person has at least six months allowable service, based on the allowable service in each fund, subject to the provisions of clause (3).

(2) A person may receive upon retirement, in lieu of any augmentation of deferred annuities provided by laws governing the funds enumerated in subdivision 3, a retirement annuity from each fund in which the person has at least six months allowable service if

(a) the person has allowable service totaling an amount that allows the person to receive an annuity in any two or more of the enumerated funds;

(b) the person has at least six months of allowable service with the last such fund earned during the last period of employment; and

(c) the person has not begun to receive an annuity from any enumerated fund or the person has made application for benefits from all funds within a six-month period.

(3) The retirement annuity from each fund shall be based upon the allowable service in each fund, except that:

(a) The laws governing annuities shall be the law in effect on the date of final termination from the last public service under a covered fund.

(b) The "average salary" on which the annuity from each covered fund in which the employee has credit in a formula plan shall be based on the employee's highest five successive years of covered salary during the entire service in covered funds.

(c) The formula percentages to be used by each fund shall be those percentages prescribed by each fund's formula as continued for the respective years of allowable service from one fund to the next, recognizing all previous allowable service with the other covered funds.

(d) Allowable service in all the funds shall be combined in determining eligibility for and the application of each fund's provisions in respect to actuarial reduction in the benefit amount for retirement prior to normal retirement.

(e) The benefit amount payable for any allowable service under a non-formula plan of a covered fund shall not be affected but such service and covered salary shall be used in the above calculation.

(f) This section shall not apply to any person whose final termination from the last public service under a covered fund is prior to May 1, 1975.

(g) For the purpose of computing benefits under this section the formula percentages used by any covered fund shall in no event exceed ~~2-1/2~~ 2.7 percent per year of service for any year of service or fraction thereof.

(h) Any period of time for which a person has credit in more than one of the covered funds shall be used only once for the purpose of determining total allowable service.

(i) If the period of duplicated service credit is more than six months, or the person has credit for more than six months with each of the funds, each fund shall apply its formula to a prorated service credit for the period of duplicated service based on a fraction of the salary on which deductions were paid to that fund for the period divided by the total salary on which deductions were paid to all funds for the period.

(j) If the period of duplicated service credit is less than six months, or when added to other service credit with that fund is less than six months, the service credit shall be ignored and a refund of contributions made to the person in accord with that fund's refund provisions.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 422A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. There shall be deducted and withheld from the basic salary, pay or compensation of each employee in the contributing class, prior to January 1, 1980 an amount equal to 7-1/4 percent, after December 31, 1979 but prior to January 1, 1981 an amount equal to 8-1/4 percent and after December 31, 1980 an amount equal to ~~9-1/4~~ percent of such salary, pay or compensation, except as hereinafter provided. The retirement board may increase the percentage rate of contribution to the retirement fund of any employee or employees for the purpose of establishing and maintaining on an actuarial basis a plan of insurance, survivors' benefits, or other type of benefit or benefits, the cost of which shall be paid out of such extra percentage so authorized and deducted from the employee's compensation, except as hereinafter provided. Any plan or plans so established and placed in operation may be amended from time to time, or may be abandoned, but if abandoned, any surplus remaining from the operation of a plan shall be the property of the fund, and shall be credited to the reserve for loss in investment account.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 422A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3, each contributing member who, at the time of retirement, fulfills the conditions necessary to enable the member to retire, shall receive what shall be known as a "formula pension and annuity" equal to ~~two~~ 2.1 percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and thereafter ~~2.5~~ 2.6 percent per year of allowable service of the arithmetic average annual salary, wages or compensation of the member from the city for any five calendar years out of the last ten calendar years of service except as provided for in section 422A.16, which may include the year in which the employee retires, as selected by the employee, multiplied by the years of service credited by the retirement fund. The formula pension and annuity shall be computed on the single life plan but subject to the option selections provided for in section 422A.17.

In order to be entitled to the formula pension and annuity herein provided for, the retiring employee at the time of cessation of employment and of actual retirement shall have attained the age of 60 years or have been employed by the city not less than 30 years, or meet the qualifications provided for in section 422A.16, and in addition thereto have contributed to the retirement fund at the percentage rate prescribed by the retirement law applicable when the salary, wages or compensation was paid on all salaries, wages, or compensation received from the city or from an applicable employing unit. The years of service to be applied in the formula pension and annuity shall be found and determined by the retirement board, except that no credit shall be allowed for any year in which a back charge is owing at time of retirement and the earnings from any year in which a back charge is owing shall not be used in determining the average annual salary.

Sec. 28. [FIRST CLASS CITY TEACHER FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY GRANTED TO INCREASE FORMULAS.] In accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 354A.12, subdivision 4, approval is granted for the teachers retirement fund associations in each of the cities of the first class to amend their articles of incorporation or bylaws in the manner specified in this section. The amendments in this section apply only to basic members in the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association and the St. Paul teachers retirement fund association, and to old law coordinated program members in the Duluth teachers retirement fund association.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIBLE INCREASES.] The formula percentages for persons specified in subdivision 1 may be increased as follows:

(1) for the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund, 2.6 instead of 2.5 percent for each year of service;

(2) for the St. Paul teachers retirement fund, 2.1 instead of 2.0 percent for each year of service for persons whose annuity is calculated under Laws 1989, chapter 319, article 13, section 94, paragraph (a), and 2.6 instead of 2.5 percent for persons whose annuity is calculated under authority of Laws 1989, chapter 319, article 13, section 94, paragraphs (b) and (c);

(3) for the Duluth teachers retirement fund old coordinated plan, 1.35 instead of 1.25 percent for each year of service for persons whose annuity is calculated under Laws 1989, chapter 319, article 13, section 94, paragraph (a), and 1.6 instead of 1.5 percent for persons whose annuity is calculated under Laws 1989, chapter 319, article 13, section 94, paragraphs (b) and (c).

Sec. 29. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3, 6, 7, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 22, 24, 25, 27, and 28 are effective May 16, 1993. Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 9, 12, 17, 18, 20, 21, and 26 are effective the first full payroll period beginning after July 1, 1993. Section 19,

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 122.531, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION: REFERENDUM LEVIES REVENUE.] As of the effective date of the voluntary dissolution of a district and its attachment to one or more existing districts pursuant to section 122.22, the authorization for all referendum levies revenues previously approved by the voters of all affected districts for those districts pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, or its predecessor provision, is canceled. However, if all of the territory of any independent district is included in the enlarged district, and if the adjusted net tax capacity of taxable property in that territory comprises 90 percent or more of the adjusted net tax capacity of all taxable property in an enlarged district, ~~the board of the enlarged district may levy the increased amount previously approved by a referendum~~ in the preexisting independent district upon all taxable property in the enlarged district district's referendum revenue shall be determined as follows:

If the referendum revenue previously approved in the preexisting district is authorized as a tax rate, the referendum revenue in the enlarged district is the tax rate times the adjusted net tax capacity of the enlarged district. If referendum revenue previously approved in the preexisting district is authorized as revenue per actual pupil unit, the referendum revenue shall be the revenue per actual pupil unit times the number of actual pupil units in the enlarged district. If referendum revenue in the preexisting district is authorized both as a tax rate and as revenue per actual pupil unit, the referendum revenue in the enlarged district shall be the sum of both plus any referendum revenue in the preexisting district authorized as a dollar amount. Any new referendum levy revenue shall be certified authorized only after approval is granted by the voters of the entire enlarged district in an election pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 122.531, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [CONSOLIDATION; MAXIMUM AUTHORIZED REFERENDUM LEVIES REVENUE.] As of the effective date of a consolidation pursuant to section 122.23, if the plan for consolidation so provides, or if the plan for consolidation makes no provision concerning referendum levies revenues, the authorization for all referendum levies revenues previously approved by the voters of all affected districts for those districts pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, or its predecessor provision shall be recalculated as provided in this subdivision. The referendum levy revenue authorization for the newly created district shall be the local tax rate that would raise an amount equal to the combined dollar amount of the referendum levies revenues authorized by each of the component districts for the year preceding the consolidation, unless the referendum levy revenue authorization of the newly created district is subsequently modified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2. If the referendum levy revenue authorizations for each of the component districts were limited to a specified number of years, the referendum levy revenue authorization for the newly created district shall continue for a period of time equal to the longest period authorized for any component district. If the referendum levy revenue authorization of any component district is not limited to a specified number of years, the referendum levy revenue authorization for the newly created district shall not be limited to a specified number of years.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 122.531, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [ALTERNATIVE METHOD.] As of the effective date of a consolidation pursuant to section 122.23, if the plan for consolidation so provides, the authorization for all referendum levies revenues previously approved by the voters of all affected districts for those districts pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, or its predecessor provision shall be combined as provided in this subdivision. The referendum levy revenue authorization for the newly created district may be any local tax rate allowance per actual pupil unit provided in the plan for consolidation, but may not exceed the local tax rate allowance per actual pupil unit that would raise an amount equal to the combined dollar amount of the referendum levies revenues authorized by each of the component districts for the year preceding the consolidation. If the referendum levy revenue authorizations for each of the component districts were limited to a specified number of years, the referendum ~~levy~~ revenue authorization for the newly created district shall continue for a period of time equal to the longest period authorized for any component district. If the referendum ~~levy~~ revenue authorization of any component district is not limited to a specified number of years, the referendum ~~levy~~ revenue authorization for the newly created district shall not be limited to a specified number of years. The referendum ~~levy~~ revenue authorization for the newly created district may be modified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2."

If the school board proposes to issue bonds under this section, it must publish a resolution describing the proposed bond issue once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper published in the city of Duluth. The bonds may be issued without the submission of the question of their issue to the electors unless, within 30 days after the second publication of the resolution, a petition requesting an election signed by a number of people residing in the school district equal to five percent of the people registered to vote in the last general election in the school district is filed with the recording officer. If such a petition is filed, no bonds shall be issued under this section unless authorized by a majority of the electors voting on the question at the next general or special election called to decide the issue. The bonds must otherwise be issued as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The authority to issue bonds under this section is in addition to any bonding authority authorized by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or other law. The amount of bonding authority authorized under this section must be disregarded in calculating the bonding limit of chapter 124 or any other law other than Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 4, as made applicable to independent school district No. 709 by Laws 1973.

Subd. 3. [DISTRICT OBLIGATIONS.] Bonds issued under authority of this section shall be the general obligations of the school district, for which its full faith and credit and unlimited taxing powers shall be pledged. S.F. No. 2605: A bill for an act relating to the emergency jobs program; modifying program conditions; instructions to revisor; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 268.676, subdivision 1; 268.77, subdivision 1; 268.681, subdivisions 1 and 2; and 268.682, subdivision 3; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 268.6751, subdivision 2.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 256D.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner and who is a resident of the state shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance if the person or family is:

(1) a person who is suffering from a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment:

(2) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the professionally certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household:

(3) a person who has been placed in, and is residing in, a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, or in an approved chemical dependency domiciliary facility, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the county agency through its director or designated representative:

(4) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3:

(5) a person not described in clause (1) or (3) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician, licensed psychologist, or other qualified professional, as mentally retarded or mentally ill, and that condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment:

(6) a person who has an application pending for, or is appealing termination of benefits from, the social security disability program or the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind, and disabled, provided the person has a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment:

(7) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because advanced age significantly affects the person's ability to seek or engage in substantial work:

(8) a person who, following participation in the work readiness program, completion of an individualized employability assessment by the work readiness service provider, and consultation between the county agency and the work readiness service provider, the county agency determines is not employable. For purposes of this item, a person is considered employable if the county agency determines that there exist positions of employment in the local labor market, regardless of the current availability of openings for those positions, that the person is capable of performing. Eligibility under this category must be reassessed at least annually by the county agency and must be based upon the results of a new individualized employability assessment completed by the work readiness service provider. The recipient shall, if otherwise eligible, continue to receive general assistance while the annual individualized employability assessment is completed by the work readiness service provider, rather than receive work readiness payments under section 256D.051. Subsequent eligibility for general assistance is dependent upon the county agency determining, following consultation with the work readiness service provider, that the person is not employable, or the person meeting the requirements of another general assistance category of eligibility:

(9) a person who is determined by the county agency, in accordance with emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner, to be learning disabled, provided that if a rehabilitation plan for the person is developed or approved by the county agency, the person is following the plan:

(10) a child under the age of 18 who is not living with a parent, stepparent, or legal custodian, but only if: the child is legally emancipated or living with an adult with the consent of an agency acting as a legal custodian; the child is at least 16 years of age and the general assistance grant is approved by the director of the county agency or a designated representative as a component of a social services case plan for the child; or the child is living with an adult with the consent of the child's legal custodian and the county agency. For purposes of this clause, "legally emancipated" means a person under the age of 18 years who: (i) has been married; (ii) is on active duty in the uniformed services of the United States; (iii) has been emancipated by a court of competent jurisdiction; or (iv) is otherwise considered emancipated under Minnesota law, and for whom county social services has not determined that a social services case plan is necessary, for reasons other than that the child has failed or refuses to cooperate with the county agency in developing the plan:

(11) a woman in the last trimester of pregnancy who does not qualify for aid to families with dependent children. A woman who is in the last trimester of pregnancy who is currently receiving aid to families with dependent children may be granted emergency general assistance to meet emergency needs:

(12) a person who is eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 268.96, but only if that person is enrolled as a full-time student;

(13) a person who lives more than two hours round-trip traveling time from any potential suitable employment; and

(14) a person who is involved with protective or court-ordered services that prevent the applicant or recipient from working at least four hours per day; and

(15) a family as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 5, which is ineligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If all children in the family are six years of age or older, or if suitable child care is available for children under age six at no cost to the family, all the adult members of the family must register for and cooperate in the work readiness program under section 256D.051. If one or more of the children is under the age of six and suitable child care is not available without cost to the family, all the adult members except one adult member must register for and cooperate with the work readiness program under section 256D.051. The adult member who must participate in the work readiness program is the one having earned the greater of the incomes, excluding in-kind income, during the 24-month period immediately preceding the month of application for assistance. When there are no earnings or when earnings are identical for each adult, the applicant must designate the adult who must participate in work readiness and that designation must not be transferred or changed after program eligibility is determined as long as program eligibility continues without an interruption of 30 days or more. The adult members required to register for and cooperate with the work readiness program are not eligible for financial assistance under section 256D.051, except as provided in section 256D.051, subdivision 6, and shall be included in the general assistance grant. If an adult member fails to cooperate with requirements of section 256D.051, the local agency shall not take that member's needs into account in making the grant determination as provided by the termination provisions of section 256D.051, subdivision 1a, paragraph (b). ~~The time limits of section 256D.051, subdivision 1, do not apply to persons eligible under this clause.~~

(b) Persons or families who are not state residents but who are otherwise eligible for general assistance may receive emergency general assistance to meet emergency needs.

(c) As a condition of eligibility under paragraph (a), clauses (1), (3), (5), (8), and (9), the recipient must complete an interim assistance agreement and must apply for other maintenance benefits as specified in section 256D.06, subdivision 5, and must comply with efforts to determine the recipient's eligibility for those other maintenance benefits.

(d) The burden of providing documentation for a county agency to use to verify eligibility for general assistance or work readiness is upon the applicant or recipient. The county agency shall use documents already in its possession to verify eligibility, and shall help the applicant or recipient obtain other existing verification necessary to determine eligibility which the applicant or recipient does not have and is unable to obtain.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WORK REGISTRATION.] (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, persons who are residents of the state and whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner, but who are not categorically eligible under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, are eligible for the work readiness program for a maximum period of five consecutive calendar months during any 12 consecutive calendar month period, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d), subdivision 3, and section 256D.052, subdivision 4. The person's five-month eligibility period begins on the first day of the calendar month following the date of application for assistance or following the date all eligibility factors are met, whichever is later, and ends on the last day of the fifth consecutive calendar month, whether or not the person has received benefits for all five months. The person is not eligible to receive work readiness benefits during the seven calendar months immediately following the five-month eligibility period; however, the person may voluntarily continue to participate in work readiness services for up to three additional consecutive months immediately following the last month of benefits to complete the provisions of the person's employability development plan. Prior to terminating work readiness assistance the county agency must provide advice on the person's eligibility for general assistance medical care and must assess the person's eligibility for general assistance under section 256D.05 to the extent possible, using information in the case file, and determine the person's eligibility for general assistance. A determination that the person is not eligible for general assistance must be stated in the notice of termination of work readiness benefits.

(b) Persons, families, and married couples who are not state residents but who are otherwise eligible for work readiness assistance may receive emergency assistance to meet emergency needs.

(c) Except for family members who must participate in work readiness services under the provisions of section 256D.05, subdivision 1, clause (14), any person who would be defined for purposes of the food stamp program as being enrolled at least half-time in an institution of higher education is ineligible for the work readiness program.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 256.045 and 256D.10, during the pendency of an appeal, work readiness payments and services shall not continue to a person who appeals the termination of benefits due to exhaustion of the period of eligibility specified in paragraph (a) or (d).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WORK READINESS PAYMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, grants of work readiness shall be determined using the standards of assistance, exclusions, disregards, and procedures which are used in the general assistance program. Work readiness shall be granted in an amount that, when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance.

(b) Except as provided in section 256D.05, subdivision 6, work readiness assistance must be paid on the first day of each month.

At the time the county agency notifies the assistance unit that it is eligible for family general assistance or work readiness assistance and by the first day of each month of services, the county agency must inform all mandatory registrants in the assistance unit that they must comply with all work readiness requirements that month, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the month unless the registrants comply with work readiness requirements specified in the notice. A registrant who fails, without good cause, to comply with requirements during this time period, including attendance at orientation, will lose family general assistance or work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). The registrant shall, however, be sent a notice no later than five days after eligibility ends, which informs the registrant that family general assistance or work readiness eligibility has ended in accordance with this section for failure to comply with work readiness requirements. The notice shall set forth the factual basis for such determination and advise the registrant of the right to reinstate eligibility upon a showing of good cause for the failure to meet the requirements. Subsequent assistance must not be issued unless the person completes an application, is determined eligible, and complies with the work readiness requirements that had not been complied with, or demonstrates that the person had good cause for failing to comply with the requirement. ~~The time during which the person is ineligible under these provisions is counted as part of the person's period of eligibility under subdivision 1.~~

~~(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, paragraph (d), when one member of a married couple has exhausted the five months of work readiness eligibility in a 12-month period and the other member has one or more months of eligibility remaining within the same 12-month period, the standard of assistance applicable to the member who remains eligible is the first adult standard in the aid to families with dependent children program.~~

~~(d) Notwithstanding sections 256.045 and 256D.10, during the pendency of an appeal, work readiness payments and services shall not continue to a person who appeals the termination of benefits under paragraph (b).~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 256D.052, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF WORK READINESS.] The county agency must provide assistance under section 256D.051 to persons who:

(1) participate in a literacy program assigned under subdivision 2. To “participate” means to attend regular classes, complete assignments, and make progress toward literacy goals; or

(2) are not assigned to literacy training because there is no program available or accessible to them.

~~Notwithstanding contrary provisions of section 256D.051, subdivision 1, a person eligible for assistance under this section is eligible for assistance for a maximum period of seven consecutive calendar months during any 12 consecutive calendar month period, subject to section 256D.051, subdivision 1, paragraph (d). Work readiness payments may be terminated for persons who fail to attend the orientation and participate in the assessment and development of the employment development plan.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 268.551, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE APPLICANT.] “Eligible applicant” means a person who:

(1) has been a resident of this state for at least one month;

(2) is unemployed;

(3) is not receiving and is not eligible to receive unemployment compensation; and

(4) (i) is a targeted young person as defined in Laws 1990, chapter 562, article 4, section 12, between the ages of 14 and 21, who, because of a lack of personal resources and skills, needs assistance in setting and realizing education goals and in becoming a contributing member of the community; or

(ii) belongs to a category of individuals that have a national unemployment rate that is determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics to be at least twice that of the state unemployment rate for all individuals.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 268.552, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CREATION OF ADDITIONAL PROGRAM.] The commissioner shall provide wage subsidies to eligible applicants described in section 268.551, subdivision 3, clause (4)(ii), for work with an employer in the manner and amount specified in this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 268.552, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT AND DURATION OF SUBSIDY.] The maximum subsidy is $4 per hour for wages and $1 per hour for fringe benefits for eligible applicants described in section 268.551, subdivision 3, clause (4)(i), and $5 per hour for wages and $1 per hour for fringe benefits for eligible applicants described in section 268.551, subdivision 3, clause (4)(ii). The subsidy for an eligible applicant may be paid for a maximum of 1,040 hours over a period of 26 weeks. Employers are encouraged to use money from other sources to provide increased wages to applicants they employ.”
