“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PREPETITION SCREENING.] (a) Prior to filing a petition for commitment of a proposed patient, an interested person shall apply to the designated agency in the county of the proposed patient's residence or presence for conduct of a preliminary investigation, ~~except when the proposed patient has been acquitted of a crime under section 611.026 and the county attorney is required to file a petition for commitment pursuant to subdivision 2.~~ In any case coming within this exception, the county attorney shall apply to the designated county agency in the county in which the acquittal took place for a preliminary investigation unless substantially the same information relevant to the proposed patient's current mental condition as could be obtained by a preliminary investigation is part of the court record in the criminal proceeding or is contained in the report of a mental examination conducted in connection with the criminal proceeding. The designated agency shall appoint a screening team to conduct an investigation which shall include:

(i) a personal interview with the proposed patient and other individuals who appear to have knowledge of the condition of the proposed patient. If the proposed patient is not interviewed, reasons must be documented;

(ii) identification and investigation of specific alleged conduct which is the basis for application; and

(iii) identification, exploration, and listing of the reasons for rejecting or recommending alternatives to involuntary placement.

(b) In conducting the investigation required by this subdivision, the screening team shall have access to all relevant medical records of proposed patients currently in treatment facilities. Data collected pursuant to this clause shall be considered private data on individuals.

(c) When the prepetition screening team recommends commitment, a written report shall be sent to the county attorney for the county in which the petition is to be filed.

(d) The prepetition screening team shall refuse to support a petition if the investigation does not disclose evidence sufficient to support commitment. Notice of the prepetition screening team's decision shall be provided to the prospective petitioner.

(e) If the interested person wishes to proceed with a petition contrary to the recommendation of the prepetition screening team, application may be made directly to the county attorney, who may determine whether or not to proceed with the petition. (f) *When the proposed patient has been acquitted of a crime under section 611.026, the county attorney shall file a petition for commitment pursuant to subdivision 2. In any case coming within this exception, the county attorney shall apply to the designated county agency in the county in which the acquittal took place for a preliminary investigation unless substantially the same information relevant to the proposed patient's current mental condition as could be obtained by a preliminary investigation is part of the court record in the criminal proceeding or is contained in the report of a mental examination conducted in connection with the criminal proceeding. (g) The prepetition screening report must be distributed to the proposed patient, patient's counsel, the county attorney, any person authorized by the patient, and any other person as the court directs.

Subd. 2. [THE PETITION.] Any interested person may file a petition for commitment in the ~~probate~~ district court of the county of the proposed patient's residence or presence. The county attorney has the sole discretion to present and pursue a petition for civil commitment. Following an acquittal of a person of a criminal charge under section 611.026, the petition shall be filed by the county attorney of the county in which the acquittal took place and the petition shall be filed with the court in which the acquittal took place, and that court shall be the committing court for purposes of this chapter. The petition shall set forth the name and address of the proposed patient, the name and address of the patient's nearest relatives, and the reasons for the petition. The petition must contain factual descriptions of the proposed patient's recent behavior, including a description of the behavior, where it occurred, and over what period of time it occurred. Each factual allegation must be supported by observations of witnesses named in the petition. Petitions shall be stated in behavioral terms and shall not contain judgmental or conclusory statements. The petition shall be accompanied by a written statement by an examiner stating that the examiner has examined the proposed patient within the 15 days preceding the filing of the petition and is of the opinion that the proposed patient is suffering a designated disability and should be committed to a treatment facility. The statement shall include the reasons for the opinion. If a petitioner has been unable to secure a statement from an examiner, the petition shall include documentation that a reasonable effort has been made to secure the supporting statement.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Ms. Berglin from the Committee on Health Care, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1369: A bill for an act relating to acupuncture; requiring the commissioner of health to conduct a study and recommend a regulatory program; appropriating money.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [148.631] [PURPOSE.]

Acupuncture practice is recognized as a clearly defined system of health care with its own specialized body of knowledge. The knowledge and skills of the acupuncture practitioner directly affect the quality and safety of treatment received by the practitioner's client. It is therefore in the public interest to ensure that acupuncture practitioners meet the generally accepted standards of competence in the profession. The purpose of sections 148.632 to 148.638 is to limit the practice of acupuncture to those persons who meet standards of competence.

Sec. 2. [148.632] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 148.631 to 148.638.

Subd. 2. [ACUPUNCTURE PRACTICE.] "Acupuncture practice" means a system of health care using Oriental medical theory and its unique methods of diagnosis and treatment. Its treatment techniques include the insertion of acupuncture needles through the skin, and the use of other biophysical methods of acupuncture point stimulation, including, but not limited to, the use of moxibustion, Oriental massage techniques, electrical stimulation, laser stimulation, herbal therapies, dietary guidelines, breathing techniques, and exercise on the basis of Oriental medical principles. The object of the system is to maintain or restore health, improve physiological function, and relieve pain.

Subd. 3. [ACUPUNCTURE NEEDLE.] "Acupuncture needle" means a needle designed exclusively for acupuncture purposes. It has a solid core, with a tapered point, and is approximately 28-36 gauge in thickness.

Subd. 4. [ACUPUNCTURE POINTS.] "Acupuncture points" means specific anatomically described locations as defined by the National Commission for the Certification of Acupuncturists (NCCA) recognized acupuncture reference texts. The locations are particularly effective in influencing the body's function and health when stimulated according to Oriental theory and practice.

Subd. 5. [ACUPUNCTURE PRACTITIONER.] "Acupuncture practitioner" means a person certified to practice acupuncture as set forth under section 148.633.

Subd. 6. [ADVISORY COUNCIL.] "Advisory council" means the advisory council for acupuncture, established in section 148.634.

Subd. 7. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of health.

Subd. 8. [DIPLOMAT IN ACUPUNCTURE.] "Diplomat in acupuncture" means a person is certified by the NCCA as having met the standards of competence established by the NCCA, subscribes to the NCCA code of ethics, and has a current and active NCCA certification.

Current and active NCCA certification indicates successful completion of continued professional development and specified eligibility and academic requirements.

Subd. 9. [ELECTRICAL STIMULATION.] "Electrical stimulation" means a method of stimulating acupuncture points by the use of very low amperage electrical current. Electrical stimulation may be used by attachment of a device to an acupuncture needle or may be used transcutaneously without penetrating the skin.

Subd. 10. [MOXIBUSTION.] "Moxibustion" means the use of artemisia vulgaris alone or in combination with other herbs as a warming agent to affect acupuncture points.

Subd. 11. [ORIENTAL MEDICINE.] "Oriental medicine" means the system of healing arts that perceives the circulation and balance of energy in the body as being fundamental to the well-being of the individual. It implements the theory through specialized methods of analyzing the energy status of the body and treating the body with acupuncture and other related modalities for the purpose of strengthening the body, improving energy balance, maintaining or restoring health, improving physiological function, and reducing pain.

Sec. 3. [148.633] [CERTIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION REQUIRED.] Except as provided under subdivision 2, it is unlawful for any person to engage in the practice of acupuncture after September 1, 1995, without a valid certification. Each certified acupuncture practitioner shall conspicuously display the certification in the place of practice.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) The following persons may practice acupuncture within the scope of their practice without certification:

- (1) physicians licensed under chapter 147;*

(b) A person who is (1) studying in a formal course of study or tutorial intern program approved by the advisory council and the acupuncture practice is limited to studying and providing an intern program supervised by a certified acupuncturist; or (2) a visiting acupuncture expert practicing acupuncture within an instructional setting for the sole purpose of teaching at a school registered with the Minnesota higher education coordinating board, may practice without a certificate for a period of one year, with two one-year extensions permitted.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] An applicant must:

(1) be at least 21 years of age;

(3) provide documentation of successful completion of an approved clean needle technique course; and

(4) meet any other requirements established by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATION EXPIRATION.] Certifications issued under this section shall expire:

(b) [PENALTY FEE.] An application submitted after the renewal deadline date must be accompanied by a penalty fee as established under section 148.637, subdivision 3.

(c) [CERTIFICATION RENEWAL NOTICE.] Certification renewal shall be on an annual basis or as determined by the commissioner. At least 30 days before the certification renewal date, the commissioner shall send out a renewal notice to the last known address of the certificant. The notice shall include a renewal application and a notice of fees required for renewal. If the certificant does not receive the renewal notice, the certificant is still required to make the deadline for renewal to qualify for continuous certification status.

(d) [RENEWAL DEADLINE.] The renewal application and fee must be postmarked on or before July 31 on the year of renewal or as determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [CERTIFICATE BY RECIPROCITY.] The commissioner shall issue an acupuncture certification to a person who holds a current license or certificate as an acupuncturist from another jurisdiction if the commissioner determines that the standards for certification or licensure in the other jurisdiction meet or exceed the requirements for certification in Minnesota.

Subd. 7. [INACTIVE STATUS.] (a) A certification may be placed in inactive status upon application to the commissioner and upon payment of an inactive status fee.

(b) An inactive certification may be reactivated by the certification holder upon application to the commissioner. The application must include:

- (1) evidence of current active NCCA certification;*
- (2) evidence of the certificate holder's payment of an inactive status fee; and*
- (3) an annual renewal fee.*

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATION.] (a) An applicant for certification must:

(1) submit a completed application for certification on forms provided by the commissioner. The application must include the applicant's name, business address and phone number, home address and phone number, and a notarized copy of a current NCCA certification. The commissioner may ask the applicant to provide additional information necessary to clarify information submitted in the application;

(2) sign a statement that the information in the application is true and correct to the best of the applicant's knowledge and belief;

(3) submit with the application all fees required; and

(4) sign a waiver authorizing the commissioner to obtain access to the applicant's records in this state or any state in which the applicant has engaged in the practice of acupuncture.

(b) The commissioner may investigate information provided by an applicant to determine whether the information is accurate and complete. The commissioner shall notify an applicant of action taken on the application and of the reasons for denying certification if certification is denied.

Subd. 9. [USE OF TITLE.] Only a person certified under this section shall use the title "acupuncturist" or the initials "C.A." and be allowed to advertise and represent themselves as such.

Sec. 4. [148.634] [ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] An advisory council for acupuncture is created within the department of health. The advisory council shall consist of five members appointed by the commissioner. Each member shall serve a term of three years. Three members shall be certified acupuncture practitioners as defined under section 148.632; one member shall be a licensed physician or osteopath who also practices acupuncture; and one member shall be a member of the public who has received acupuncture from a diplomat of acupuncture.

Subd. 2. [INITIAL ADVISORY COUNCIL APPOINTED.] (a) The four members of the advisory council required by subdivision 1 to be acupuncture practitioners, who are appointed to the initial advisory council, need not be certified under section 148.633 but must satisfy the qualifications for certification provided in section 148.633, subdivision 3, and must have been engaged in acupuncture practice a minimum of three years.

(b) One member of the initial advisory council appointed shall have an initial term of one year, two members an initial term of two years, and two members an initial term of three years.

(b) An acupuncture practitioner must use sterilized equipment that meets the standards of the national Centers for Disease Control.

(c) An acupuncture practitioner shall comply with all applicable state and municipal requirements regarding public health.

(d) Data maintained on an acupuncture patient by an acupuncture practitioner is subject to section 144.336.

Subd. 2. [GROUNDS FOR SANCTIONS OR DENIAL OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner may discipline an acupuncture practitioner or deny an application for certification under procedures in subdivision 3 upon evidence of conduct prohibited by one or more of the following:

(1) violates any provision of sections 148.632 to 148.638 or other statutes or rules that relate to the practice of acupuncture;

(2) intentionally furnishes false, misleading, or incompetent information to the commissioner, the advisory council, or to the public;

The commissioner may suspend, revoke, or impose probationary conditions on the certification of an acupuncture practitioner whom the commissioner determines has violated the standards of subdivision 1 or 2 or the rules promulgated by the commissioner. The commissioner shall establish a procedure for reinstating a certificate after a period of suspension. "Section 1. [256.0281] [RESTRUCTURING OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.]

The commissioners of human services and jobs and training shall develop a plan for first-time application for aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) and family general assistance (FGA) in order to assure that, during the first six months of eligibility, first-time applicants for AFDC and FGA will receive the following in lieu of standard AFDC or FGA:

- (1) immediate and enhanced job search and placement activities;
- (2) if an unsubsidized job is not located within the first 60 days, or at an earlier date recommended by the commissioners, then subsidized employment in the private or public sector or a placement in a community service job that pays wages up to the value of AFDC or FGA is required;
- (3) priority help in establishing child support enforcement;

- (4) child care assistance for job search activities and employment;
- (5) eligibility for medical care; and
- (6) vendor payments for need items included in the AFDC consolidated standard of assistance under the state plan.

The commissioners shall consider to what extent exceptions should be made for:

(1) a person who is suffering from a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(2) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the professionally certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household;

(3) a person who has been placed in, and is residing in, a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, or in an approved chemical dependency domiciliary facility, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the county agency through its director or designated representative;

(4) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in section 256D.05, subdivision 3;

(5) a person not described in clause (1) or (3) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician, licensed psychologist, or other qualified professional, as mentally retarded or mentally ill, and that condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(6) a person who has an application pending for, or is appealing termination of benefits from, the Social Security Disability program or the program of Supplemental Security Income for the aged, blind, and disabled, provided the person has a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(7) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because advanced age significantly affects the person's ability to seek or engage in substantial work; and

(8) a woman in the last trimester of pregnancy who does not qualify for AFDC. A woman who is in the last trimester of pregnancy who is currently receiving AFDC may be granted emergency general assistance to meet emergency needs.

The commissioners shall present to the 1995 legislature a statewide phased-in implementation plan, starting in counties designated by the commissioners which includes employability assessment criteria, feasibility of colocation of services, and a description of the modifications that the commissioners recommend. The plan must identify needed federal waivers, evaluation criteria, state plan amendments, and other approvals under the AFDC and job opportunities and basic skills (JOBS) program. The commissioner's plan must include implementation of the project by October 1, 1995, or after the necessary waivers are approved, whichever is later. The commissioners shall also provide to the legislature by February 1, 1997, a report which includes a comparison of the immediate job search project and the project implemented under this section.

Sec. 2. [256.0282] [RESTRUCTURING OF PROJECT STRIDE.]

The commissioners of human services and jobs and training shall develop recommendations to restructure the program entitled "success through reaching individual development and employment" (STRIDE), under sections 256.73 to 256.739, to effectively and efficiently employ AFDC recipients. The commissioners shall identify modifications necessary to implement the following principles:

- (1) employment is the expected program outcome;*
- (2) training and education will be used primarily to enhance job skills of employed participants;*
- (3) adequate support services shall remain available until the recipient achieves employment that provides wages that enable the recipient to be self-sufficient;*
- (4) aggressive development of job markets;*
- (5) extended post-placement follow-up to retain current employment or move to better jobs;*
- (6) concurrent services which combine education and employment;*
- (7) within the limits of available funding, certain categories of AFDC recipients shall be required to participate in project STRIDE services after two years; and*
- (8) failure to participate will result in termination of assistance for noncompliant participants under the Family Support Act of 1988.*

The commissioners shall present to the 1995 legislature a plan which includes specific categories for mandatory participants and a description of the modifications that the commissioners recommend within existing appropriations. The proposal must identify needed federal waivers, state plan amendments, and other approvals under the AFDC and JOBS programs.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.031, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AUTHORIZATION FOR THE DEMONSTRATION.] (a) The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the commissioners of education, finance, jobs and training, health, and planning, and the director of the higher education coordinating board, is authorized to proceed with the planning and designing of the Minnesota family investment plan and to implement the plan to test policies, methods, and cost impact on an experimental basis by using field trials. The commissioner, under the authority in section 256.01, subdivision 2, shall implement the plan according to sections 256.031 to 256.0361 and Public Law Numbers 101-202 and 101-239, section 8015, as amended. If major and unpredicted costs to the program occur, the commissioner may take corrective action consistent with Public Law Numbers 101-202 and 101-239, which may include termination of the program. Before taking such corrective action, the commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the senate family services committee, the house health and human services committee, the health care and family services division of the senate family services and health care committees and the human services division of the house health and human services committee, or, if the legislature is not in session, consult with the legislative advisory commission.

(b) The field trials shall be conducted as permitted under federal law, for as many years as necessary, and in different geographical settings, to provide reliable instruction about the desirability of expanding the program statewide.

(c) The commissioner shall select the counties which shall serve as field trial or comparison sites based on criteria which ensure reliable evaluation of the program.

(d) The commissioner is authorized to determine the number of families and characteristics of subgroups to be included in the evaluation.

(i) A family that applies for or is currently receiving financial assistance from aid to families with dependent children; family general assistance or work readiness; or food stamps may be tested for eligibility for aid to families with dependent children or family general assistance and may be assigned by the commissioner to a test or a comparison group for the purposes of evaluating the family investment plan. A family found not eligible for aid to families with dependent children or family general assistance will be tested for eligibility for the food stamp program. If found eligible for the food stamp program, the commissioner may randomly assign the family to a test group, comparison group, or neither group. Families assigned to a test group receive benefits and services through the family investment plan. Families assigned to a comparison group receive benefits and services through existing programs. A family may not select the group to which it is assigned. Once assigned to a group, an eligible family must remain in that group for the duration of the project.

(ii) To evaluate the effectiveness of the family investment plan, the commissioner may designate a subgroup of families from the test group who shall be exempt from section 256.035, subdivision 1, and shall not receive case management services under section 256.035, subdivision 6a. Families are eligible for services under section 256.736 to the same extent as families receiving AFDC.

(e) After field trials have begun, the commissioner may extend field trials of the Minnesota family investment plan to Ramsey county with county board consent. This extension of the field trials may be executed only if permitted under federal law, and is subject to federal approval. Ramsey county shall coordinate efforts with the community when developing the service delivery plan under section 256.0361, subdivision 1."

Subd. 4. [PILOT PROJECTS.] By April 15, 1992, manufacturers whose rechargeable batteries or products powered by rechargeable batteries are sold in this state shall implement pilot projects for the collection and proper management of all rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by nonremovable rechargeable batteries. Manufacturers may act as a group or through a representative organization. The pilot projects must run for a minimum of 18 months and be designed to collect sufficient statewide data for the design and implementation of permanent collection and management programs that may be reasonably expected to collect at least 90 percent of waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state.

By December 1, 1991, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall submit plans for the projects to the legislative commission. ~~At least every six months during the pilot projects the manufacturers shall submit progress reports to the commission. The commission shall review the plans and progress reports.~~

By November 1, 1993, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall report to the legislative commission the final results of the projects and plans for implementation of permanent programs. The commission shall review the final results and plans.

By October 1, 1994, and by October 1, 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall submit to the commission additional reports that detail progress made toward implementing permanent management programs. The October 1, 1995, report must include a description of the programs implemented under subdivision 5. The progress reports must include the estimated number of rechargeable batteries sold by each manufacturer and the number of batteries each manufacturer collected during the previous year. A representative organization may report numbers in aggregate for all the members of the organization.

In every odd-numbered year after 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall provide information to the commission that specifies at least the estimated number of rechargeable batteries sold in the state by each manufacturer and the number of batteries each collected during the previous two years. A representative organization may report the numbers in aggregate for all the members of the organization.

The master plan shall be revised and resubmitted at such times as the council's policy plan may require. The master plan shall describe county solid waste activities, functions, and facilities; the existing system of solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal within the county; proposed mechanisms for complying with the recycling requirements of section 115A.551, and the household hazardous waste management requirements of section 115A.96, subdivision 6; existing and proposed county and municipal ordinances and license and permit requirements relating to solid waste facilities and solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal; existing or proposed municipal, county, or private solid waste facilities and collection services within the county together with schedules of existing rates and charges to users and statements as to the extent to which such facilities and services will or may be used to implement the policy plan; and any solid waste facility which the county owns or plans to acquire, construct, or improve together with statements as to the planned method, estimated cost and time of acquisition, proposed procedures for operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual cost of operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual gross revenues which will be received from the operation of each facility; and a proposal for the use of each facility after it is no longer needed or usable as a waste facility. The master plan shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry, and may rely upon private ownership, operation, and financing of solid waste facilities to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the master plan shall contain criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.803, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [COUNTY ABATEMENT PLAN.] Each county shall revise its master plan to include a land disposal abatement element to implement the council's land disposal abatement plan adopted under section 473.149, subdivision 2d, and shall submit the revised plan to the council for review under subdivision 2 within nine months after the adoption of the council's metropolitan abatement plan. The county plan must implement the local abatement objectives for the county and cities within the county as stated in the council's plan and may rely upon private ownership, operation, and financing of solid waste facilities to achieve the objectives of the council's land disposal abatement plan. The county abatement plan must include specific and quantifiable county objectives, based on the council's objectives, for abating to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste and of specific components of the solid waste stream generated in the county, stated in annual increments through the date specified in section 473.848 and in two five-year increments thereafter. The plan must include measurable performance standards for local abatement of solid waste through resource recovery and waste reduction and separation programs and activities for the county as a whole and for statutory or home rule charter cities of the first, second, and third class, respectively, in the county, stated in annual increments through the date specified in section 473.848 and in two five-year increments thereafter. The performance standards must implement the metropolitan and county abatement objectives. The plan must include standards and procedures to be used by the county in determining annually under subdivision 3 whether a city within the county has implemented the plan and has satisfied the performance standards for local abatement. The master plan revision required by this subdivision must be prepared in consultation with the advisory committee established pursuant to subdivision 4.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE COLLECTION AND TRANSPORTATION.] Each metropolitan county may adopt ordinances governing the collection of solid waste. A county may adopt, but may not be required to adopt, an ordinance that requires the separation from mixed municipal waste, by generators before collection, of materials that can readily be separated for use or reuse as substitutes for raw materials or for transformation into a usable soil amendment. Each local unit of government within the metropolitan area shall adopt an ordinance governing the collection of solid waste within its boundaries. If the county within which it is located has adopted a collection ordinance, the local unit shall adopt either the county ordinance by reference or a more strict ordinance. If the county within which it is located has adopted a separation ordinance, the ordinance applies in all local units within the county that have failed to meet the local abatement performance standards, as stated in the most recent annual county report. Ordinances of counties and local government units may establish reasonable conditions respecting but shall not prevent the transportation of solid waste by a licensed collector through and between counties and local units, except as required for the enforcement of any designation of a facility by a county under chapter 115A, or to enforce the prohibition against the disposal of unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste under sections 473.848 and 473.849. A licensed collector or a metropolitan county or local government unit may request review by the council of an ordinance adopted under this subdivision. The council shall approve or disapprove the ordinance within 60 days of the submission of a request for review. The ordinance shall remain in effect unless it is disapproved. Ordinances of counties and local units of government shall provide for the enforcement of any designation of facilities by the counties under chapter 115A. Ordinances of counties and local governments may require that haulers deliver unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste to processing facilities and may prohibit haulers from delivering unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste to land disposal facilities for final disposal. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the authority of the local government unit to regulate and license collectors of solid waste or to require review or approval by the council for ordinances regulating collection.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE FACILITIES.] Each metropolitan county shall by ordinance establish and from time to time revise rules, regulations, and standards for solid waste facilities within the county, relating to location, sanitary operation, periodic inspection and monitoring, maintenance, termination and abandonment, and other pertinent matters. The county ordinance may require facilities accepting mixed municipal solid waste for disposal to install scales. The county ordinance may prohibit land disposal facilities from accepting unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste for final disposal. The county ordinance shall require permits or licenses for solid waste facilities and shall require that such facilities be registered with a county office.

Sec. 32. [473.812] [RECORDS; INSPECTION.]

For the enforcement of section 473.811, a metropolitan county that does not have a designation ordinance in effect has the authority and responsibilities for records inspection provided in section 115A.882."

(1) disposal of industrial waste;

(2) disposal of ash from combustion of solid waste, or solid waste mixed with other combustible material; and

(3) transfer of solid waste to a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03.

Subd. 2. [COUNTY CERTIFICATION; COUNCIL APPROVAL.] (a) By April 1 of each year, each county shall submit an annual certification report to the council detailing:

(1) the quantity of waste generated in the county that was not processed prior to transfer to a disposal facility during the year preceding the report;

(2) the reasons the waste was not processed;

(3) a strategy for development of techniques to ensure processing of waste including a specific timeline for implementation of those techniques; and

(4) any progress made by the county in reducing the amount of unprocessed waste.

The report shall be included in the county report required by section 473.803, subdivision 3.

(b) The council shall approve a county's certification report if it determines that the county is reducing and will continue to reduce the amount of unprocessed waste, based on the report and the county's progress in development and implementation of techniques to reduce the amount of unprocessed waste transferred to disposal facilities. When reviewing a county's report, the council shall take into consideration the county's efforts to encourage the private ownership, operation, and financing of solid waste facilities. If the council does not approve a county's report, it shall negotiate with the county to develop and implement specific techniques to reduce unprocessed waste. If the council does not approve two or more consecutive reports from any one county, the council shall develop specific reduction techniques that are designed for the particular needs of the county. The county shall implement those techniques by specific dates to be determined by the council.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.848, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DEFINITION.] For the purpose of this section, waste is "unprocessed" if it has not, after collection and before disposal, undergone at least one process, as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 25, excluding ~~storage, exchange, and transfer of the waste separation of materials for recycling or resource recovery through composting or converting waste to energy or refuse-derived fuel so that the weight of the waste remaining that must be disposed of in a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility is not more than 35 percent of the weight before processing, on an annual average.~~"

“Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.14, is amended to read:

518.14 [COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS AND; ATTORNEY FEES; COLLECTION COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, in a proceeding under this chapter, the court shall award attorney fees, costs, and disbursements in an amount necessary to enable a party to carry on or contest the proceeding, provided it finds:

(1) that the fees are necessary for the good-faith assertion of the party's rights in the proceeding and will not contribute unnecessarily to the length and expense of the proceeding;

(2) that the party from whom fees, costs, and disbursements are sought has the means to pay them; and

(3) that the party to whom fees, costs, and disbursements are awarded does not have the means to pay them.

Nothing in this section precludes the court from awarding, in its discretion, additional fees, costs, and disbursements against a party who unreasonably contributes to the length or expense of the proceeding. Fees, costs, and disbursements provided for in this section may be awarded at any point in the proceeding, including a modification proceeding under sections 518.18 and 518.64. The court may adjudge costs and disbursements against either party.

The court may authorize the collection of money awarded by execution, or out of property sequestered, or in any other manner within the power of the court. An award of attorney's fees made by the court during the pendency of the proceeding or in the final judgment survives the proceeding and if not paid by the party directed to pay the same may be enforced as above provided or by a separate civil action brought in the attorney's own name. If the proceeding is dismissed or abandoned prior to determination and award of attorney's fees, the court may nevertheless award attorney's fees upon the attorney's motion. The award shall also survive the proceeding and may be enforced in the same manner as last above provided.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT.] (a) A child support obligee is entitled to recover from the obligor reasonable attorney fees and other collection costs incurred to enforce a child support judgment, as provided in this subdivision. Attorney fees and collection costs obtained under this subdivision are considered child support and entitled to the applicable remedies for collection and enforcement of child support. The obligee shall serve notice of the obligee's intent to recover attorney fees and collections costs by mail on the obligor at the obligor's last known address. The notice must include an itemization of the attorney fees and collection costs being sought by the obligee and inform the obligor that the fees and costs will become an additional judgment for child support unless the obligor requests a hearing on the reasonableness of the fees and costs within 20 days of service of the notice.

(b) If the obligor requests a hearing, the only issue to be determined by the court is whether the attorney fees or collection costs were reasonably incurred by the obligee for the enforcement of a child support judgment against the obligor. The fees and costs may be based on an hourly rate, or on a percentage of the child support arrearages not to exceed 30 percent. The court may modify the amount of attorney fees and costs as appropriate and shall enter judgment accordingly.

(c) If the obligor fails to request a hearing within 20 days of service of the notice under paragraph (a), the amount of the attorney fees or collection costs requested by the obligee in the notice automatically becomes an additional judgment for child support.

(d) The commissioner of human services shall prepare and make available to the court and the parties forms for use in providing for notice and requesting a hearing under this subdivision. The rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 do not apply to the forms."

Subd. 8. [MANDATORY EMPLOYER AND OBLIGOR NOTICE REPORTING PROGRAM.] When an individual is hired for employment, the employer shall request that the individual disclose whether or not the individual has court-ordered child support obligations that are required by law to be withheld from income and the terms of the court order, if any. The individual shall disclose this information at the time of hiring. When an individual discloses that the individual owes child support that is required to be withheld, the employer shall begin withholding according to the terms of the order and under this section. When a withholding order is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated or the periodic payment terminates, the obligor and the obligor's employer or the payor of funds shall notify the public agency responsible for child support enforcement of the termination within ten days of the termination date. The notice shall include the obligor's home address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or payor of funds, if known. Information disclosed under this section shall not be divulged except to the extent necessary for the administration of the child support enforcement program or when otherwise authorized by law. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), all employers doing business in the state of Minnesota shall report to the Minnesota office of child support enforcement:

(1) the hiring of any person who resides or works in this state to whom the employer anticipates paying earnings; and

(2) the rehiring or return to work of any employee who was laid off, furloughed, separated, granted a leave without pay, or terminated from employment.

(b) Employers are not required to report the hiring of any person who:

(4) is less than 18 years of age.

(c) Employers may report by mailing a copy of the employee's W-4 form, transmitting magnetic tape in a compatible format, or by other means authorized by the office of child support enforcement which will result in timely reporting.

(d) Employers shall submit reports required under this subdivision within ten days of the hiring, rehiring, or return to work of the employee. The report shall contain:

(1) the employee's name, address, social security number, and date of birth; and

(2) the employer's name, address, and employment security reference number or unified business identifier number.

(e) An employer who fails to report as required under this section shall be given a written warning for the first violation and shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to $500 per month for each subsequent violation after the warning has been given. All violations within a single month shall be considered a single violation for purposes of assessing the penalty. The penalty may be imposed and collected by the office of child support enforcement.

(f) The office of child support enforcement shall retain the information for a particular employee only if a public agency is responsible for establishing, enforcing, or collecting a support obligation or arrearage of the employee. If the employee does not owe an obligation or arrearage, no record shall be created regarding the employee and the information contained in the notice shall be promptly destroyed.

(g) Employers required to report under this section may charge $1 per new employee to cover the cost of reporting.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] (a) The terms of an order respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party or the child or children that are the subject of these proceedings; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40; (4) a change in the cost of living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair; (5) extraordinary medical expenses of the child not provided for under section 518.171; or (6) the addition or ~~elimination~~ of work-related or education-related child care expenses of the obligee or a substantial increase or decrease in existing work-related or education-related child care expenses.

It is presumed that there has been a substantial change in circumstances under clause (1), (2), or (4) and the terms of a current support order shall be rebuttably presumed to be unreasonable and unfair if the application of the child support guidelines in section 518.551, subdivision 5, to the current circumstances of the parties results in a calculated court order that is at least 20 percent and at least $50 per month higher or lower than the current support order.

(b) On a motion for modification of maintenance, including a motion for the extension of the duration of a maintenance award, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court:

(1) shall apply section 518.551, subdivision 5, and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any; and

(2) shall not consider compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(i) the excess employment began after entry of the existing support order;

(ii) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(iii) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time employment, or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fractions of an hour;

(iv) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation;

(v) in the case of an obligor, current child support payments are at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(vi) in the case of an obligor who is in arrears in child support payments to the obligee, any net income from excess employment must be used to pay the arrearages until the arrearages are paid in full.

(c) A modification of support or maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the petitioning party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party and on the public authority if public assistance is being furnished or the county attorney is the attorney of record. However, modification may be applied to an earlier period if the court makes express findings that the party seeking modification was precluded from serving a motion by reason of a significant physical or mental disability, a material misrepresentation of another party, or fraud upon the court and that the party seeking modification, when no longer precluded, promptly served a motion.

(d) Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state, including motions under section 518.145, subdivision 2. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties, or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

(e) The court need not hold an evidentiary hearing on a motion for modification of maintenance or support.

(f) Section 518.14 shall govern the award of attorney fees for motions brought under this subdivision.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.68, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

IMPORTANT NOTICE

1. PAYMENTS TO PUBLIC AGENCY

Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 518.551, subdivision 1, payments ordered for maintenance and support must be paid to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement as long as the person entitled to receive the payments is receiving or has applied for public assistance or has applied for support and maintenance collection services. MAIL PAYMENTS TO:

2. DEPRIVING ANOTHER OF CUSTODIAL OR PARENTAL RIGHTS—A FELONY

A person may be charged with a felony who conceals a minor child or takes, obtains, retains, or fails to return a minor child from or to the child's parent (or person with custodial or visitation rights), pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 609.26. A copy of that section is available from any district court clerk.

3. RULES OF SUPPORT, MAINTENANCE, VISITATION

(a) Payment of support or spousal maintenance is to be as ordered, and the giving of gifts or making purchases of food, clothing, and the like will not fulfill the obligation.

(b) Payment of support must be made as it becomes due, and failure to secure or denial of rights of visitation is NOT an excuse for nonpayment, but the aggrieved party must seek relief through a proper motion filed with the court.

(c) The payment of support or spousal maintenance takes priority over payment of debts and other obligations.

(d) A party who remarries after dissolution and accepts additional obligations of support does so with the full knowledge of the party's prior obligation under this proceeding.

(e) Child support or maintenance is based on annual income, and it is the responsibility of a person with seasonal employment to budget income so that payments are made throughout the year as ordered.

4. PARENTAL RIGHTS FROM MINNESOTA STATUTES, SECTION 518.17, SUBDIVISION 3

Unless otherwise provided by the Court:

(a) Each party has the right of access to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, and other important records and information about the minor children. Each party has the right of access to information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children. Presentation of a copy of this order to the custodian of a record or other information about the minor children constitutes sufficient authorization for the release of the record or information to the requesting party.

(b) Each party shall keep the other informed as to the name and address of the school of attendance of the minor children. Each party has the right to be informed by school officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school and parent teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference for each party.

(c) In case of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, each party shall notify the other party of the accident or illness, and the name of the health care provider and the place of treatment.

(d) Each party has the right of reasonable access and telephone contact with the minor children.

5. WAGE AND INCOME DEDUCTION OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE

Child support and/or spousal maintenance may be withheld from income, with or without notice to the person obligated to pay, when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, sections 518.611 and 518.613, have been met. A copy of those sections is available from any district court clerk.

6. CHANGE OF ADDRESS OR RESIDENCE

Unless otherwise ordered, the person responsible to make support or maintenance payments shall notify the person entitled to receive the payment and the public authority responsible for collection, if applicable, of a change of address or residence within 60 days of the address or residence change.

7. COST OF LIVING INCREASE OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE

Child support and/or spousal maintenance may be adjusted every two years based upon a change in the cost of living (using Department of Labor Consumer Price Index, unless otherwise specified in this order) when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518.641, are met. Cost of living increases are compounded. A copy of Minnesota Statutes, section 518.641, and forms necessary to request or contest a cost of living increase are available from any district court clerk.

8. JUDGMENTS FOR UNPAID SUPPORT

If a person fails to make a child support payment, the payment owed becomes a judgment against the person responsible to make the payment by operation of law on or after the date the payment is due, and the person entitled to receive the payment or the public agency may obtain entry and docketing of the judgment WITHOUT NOTICE to the person responsible to make the payment under Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091.

A judgment for unpaid spousal maintenance may be entered when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091, are met. A copy of that section is available from any district court clerk.

The person responsible to pay support and the person's employer or union are ordered to provide medical and dental insurance and pay for uncovered expenses under the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518.171, unless otherwise provided in this order or the statute. A copy of this statute is available from any district court clerk.

11. ATTORNEY FEES AND COLLECTION COSTS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT

The affidavit of default must state the full name, occupation, place of residence, and last known post office address of the obligor, the name and post office address of the obligee, the date or dates payment was due and not received and judgment was obtained by operation of law, and the total amount of the judgments; and

Sec. 10. [MINNESOTA CHILD SUPPORT ASSURANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION TO DESIGN DEMONSTRATION.] The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the commissioners of education, finance, jobs and training, health, and planning, the director of the higher education coordinating board, and the attorney general, is authorized to proceed with planning and designing the Minnesota child support assurance program. The child support assurance program shall provide that each child in the state is guaranteed a minimum level of support from a noncustodial parent and shall further provide that the state will provide that level of support to the child in instances where it is not provided by the child's noncustodial parent. The program plan shall specifically provide that any benefits received by a family under the Minnesota child support assurance program will reduce benefits paid to the family through the aid to families with dependent children program on a dollar-for-dollar basis. The program plan shall also provide that the receipt of child support assurance benefits does not negatively affect any existing eligibility for child care assistance under existing programs.

Subd. 2. [GOALS OF THE MINNESOTA CHILD SUPPORT ASSURANCE PROGRAM.] The commissioner shall design the program to meet the following goals:

(1) to support parents in their efforts to provide financial support for their children;

(2) to encourage parents to meet their legal obligations of support;

(3) to prevent long-term dependence on public assistance; and

(4) to allow the state to compare the cost-effectiveness and the efficacy of child support assurance to the Minnesota family investment program in attempting to restructure the existing system of public assistance.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM DATA.] As part of planning and designing the Minnesota child support assurance program, the commissioner shall study and make recommendations on:

(1) the amount of the guaranteed child support assurance benefit;

(2) the anticipated reduction in the aid to families with dependent children caseload which should result from the implementation of a child support assurance program;

(3) the anticipated cost of the program on a demonstration basis; and

(4) the selection of counties to serve as field trial or comparison sites based on criteria which will ensure reliable evaluation of the program. This selection shall be made so that an adverse impact on the Minnesota family investment program is avoided.

The commissioner shall report the findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 15, 1995.

Subd. 4. [FEDERAL WAIVERS.] The commissioner shall seek authority from the United States Congress to implement the Minnesota child support assurance project on a demonstration basis. The commissioner shall seek waivers of all applicable federal requirements of United States Code, title 7, section 2011 et seq., and title 42, sections 601 et seq. and 1396 et seq., as needed to implement the Minnesota child support assurance program in a manner consistent with the goals of the program. The commissioner shall seek terms from the federal government that are consistent with the goals of the Minnesota child support assurance program. The commissioner shall also seek terms from the federal government that will maximize federal financial participation so that the extra costs to the state of implementing the program are minimized, to the extent that those terms are consistent with the goals of the Minnesota child support assurance program.

Sec. 11. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, sections 518.171, subdivision 2a; and 518.561, are repealed.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICATION.]

Sections 2 and 7 to 9 are effective August 1, 1994, and apply to attorney fees and collection costs incurred on and after that date, regardless of when the arrearages accrued.

Section 3 is effective retroactive to July 1, 1993."

Re-number the sections in sequence.

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 5, after "amending" insert "Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 518.611, subdivision 8; 548.091, subdivision 2a;"

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

A hearing may also be held pursuant to section 253B.08, 253B.09, 253B.12, or 253B.18. The hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication must be held within 14 days from the date of the filing of the petition. The court may extend the time for hearing up to an additional 15 days for good cause shown.

In any case coming within this exception, the county attorney shall apply to the designated county agency in the county in which the acquittal took place for a preliminary investigation unless substantially the same information relevant to the proposed patient's current mental condition as could be obtained by a preliminary investigation is part of the court record in the criminal proceeding or is contained in the report of a mental examination conducted in connection with the criminal proceeding. The designated agency shall appoint a screening team to conduct an investigation which shall include:

(i) a personal interview with the proposed patient and other individuals who appear to have knowledge of the condition of the proposed patient. If the proposed patient is not interviewed, reasons must be documented;

(ii) identification and investigation of specific alleged conduct which is the basis for application; ~~and~~

(iii) identification, exploration, and listing of the reasons for rejecting or recommending alternatives to involuntary placement; and

(iv) if involuntary placement is recommended, a determination of whether the proposed patient is competent to consent to any administration of neuroleptic medication, and if not, whether the proposed patient would object to or refuse administration of neuroleptic medication.

(b) In conducting the investigation required by this subdivision, the screening team shall have access to all relevant medical records of proposed patients currently in treatment facilities. Data collected pursuant to this clause shall be considered private data on individuals.

(c) When the prepetition screening team recommends commitment, a written report shall be sent to the county attorney for the county in which the petition is to be filed.

(d) The prepetition screening team shall refuse to support a petition if the investigation does not disclose evidence sufficient to support commitment. Notice of the prepetition screening team's decision shall be provided to the prospective petitioner.

(e) If the interested person wishes to proceed with a petition contrary to the recommendation of the prepetition screening team, application may be made directly to the county attorney, who may determine whether or not to proceed with the petition. Notice of the county attorney's determination shall be provided to the interested party.

(f) If a court petitions for commitment pursuant to the rules of criminal procedure or a county attorney petitions pursuant to acquittal of a criminal charge under section 611.026, the prepetition investigation, if required by this section, shall be completed within seven days after the filing of the petition.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] (a) The court shall find the facts specifically, separately state its conclusions of law, and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment. Where commitment is ordered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically state the proposed patient's conduct which is a basis for determining that each of the requisites for commitment is met.

(b) If commitment is ordered, the findings shall also include a listing of less restrictive alternatives considered and rejected by the court and the reasons for rejecting each alternative.

(c) If the prepetition screening team has determined that a patient is not competent to consent to the administration of neuroleptic medication but would not object to or refuse the administration of neuroleptic medication, the court may, at the time of commitment, appoint a guardian ad litem for purposes of section 253B.03, subdivision 6c, paragraph (c), clause (3).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT.] Prior to the termination of the initial commitment order or final discharge of the patient, the head of the facility shall file a written report with the committing court with a copy to the patient and patient's counsel, setting forth in detailed narrative form at least the following:

- (1) the diagnosis of the patient with the supporting data;
- (2) the anticipated discharge date;
- (3) an individualized treatment plan;
- (4) a detailed description of the discharge planning process with suggested after care plan;
- (5) whether the patient is in need of further care and treatment with evidence to support the response;
- (6) whether any further care and treatment must be provided in a treatment facility with evidence to support the response;
- (7) whether in the opinion of the head of the facility the patient must continue to be committed to a treatment facility; and
- (8) whether in the opinion of the head of the facility the patient satisfies the statutory requirement for continued commitment, with documentation to support the opinion; and
- (9) whether the administration of neuroleptic medication is clinically indicated, whether the patient is able to give informed consent to that medication, and the basis for these opinions.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable. ~~A patient committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to sections 253B.08, 253B.09, 253B.12, and 253B.18.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 525.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The court may appoint a guardian of the person if it determines that all the powers and duties listed in this subdivision are needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person. The court may appoint a conservator of the person if it determines that a conservator is needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person through the exercise of some, but not all, of the powers and duties listed in this subdivision. The duties and powers of a guardian or those which the court may grant to a conservator of the person include, but are not limited to:

- (1) The power to have custody of the ward or conservatee and the power to establish a place of abode within or without the state, except as otherwise provided in this clause. The ward or conservatee or any person interested in the ward's or conservatee's welfare may petition the court to prevent or to initiate a change in abode. A ward or conservatee may not be admitted to a regional treatment center by the guardian or conservator except (1) after a hearing pursuant to chapter 253B; (2) for outpatient services; or (3) for the purpose of receiving temporary care for a specific period of time not to exceed 90 days in any calendar year.

(2) The duty to provide for the ward's or conservatee's care, comfort and maintenance needs, including food, clothing, shelter, health care, social and recreational requirements, and, whenever appropriate, training, education, and habilitation or rehabilitation. The guardian or conservator has no duty to pay for these requirements out of personal funds. Whenever possible and appropriate, the guardian or conservator should meet these requirements through governmental benefits or services to which the ward or conservatee is entitled, rather than from the ward's or conservatee's estate. Failure to satisfy the needs and requirements of this clause shall be grounds for removal of a private guardian or conservator, but the guardian or conservator shall have no personal or monetary liability.

(3) The duty to take reasonable care of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects, and, if other property requires protection, the power to seek appointment of a guardian or conservator of the estate. The guardian or conservator must give notice in the manner required and to those persons specified in section 525.55 prior to the disposition of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles, or other personal effects. The notice must inform the person of the right to object to the disposition of the property within ten days and to petition the court for a review of the guardian's or conservator's proposed actions. Notice of the objection must be served by mail or personal service on the guardian or conservator and the ward or conservatee unless the ward or conservatee be the objector. The guardian or conservator served with notice of an objection to the disposition of the property may not dispose of the property unless the court approves the disposition after a hearing.

(4)(a) The power to give any necessary consent to enable the ward or conservatee to receive necessary medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment or service, ~~except that~~ including neuroleptic medication. No guardian or conservator may give consent for psychosurgery, electroshock, sterilization, or experimental treatment of any kind unless the procedure is first approved by order of the court as provided in this clause. The guardian or conservator shall not consent to any medical care for the ward or conservatee which violates the known conscientious, religious, or moral belief of the ward or conservatee.

(b) A guardian or conservator who believes a procedure described in clause (4)(a) requiring prior court approval to be necessary for the proper care of the ward or conservatee shall petition the court for an order and, in the case of a public guardianship or conservatorship under chapter 252A, obtain the written recommendation of the commissioner of human services. The court shall fix the time and place for the hearing and shall give notice to the ward or conservatee and to the other persons specified in section 525.55, subdivision 1. The notice shall comply with the requirements of, and be served in the manner provided in section 525.55, subdivision 2. The court shall appoint an attorney to represent the ward or conservatee who is not represented by counsel. In every case the court shall determine if the procedure is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. In making its determination, the court shall consider a written medical report which specifically considers the medical risks of the procedure, whether alternative, less restrictive methods of treatment could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee, and any recommendation of the commissioner of human services for a public ward or conservatee. The standard of proof is that of clear and convincing evidence.

(c) In the case of a petition for sterilization of a mentally retarded ward or conservatee, the court shall appoint a licensed physician, a psychologist who is qualified in the diagnosis and treatment of mental retardation, and a social worker who is familiar with the ward's or conservatee's social history and adjustment or the case manager for the ward or conservatee to examine or evaluate the ward or conservatee and to provide written reports to the court. The reports shall indicate why sterilization is being proposed, whether sterilization is necessary and is the least intrusive method for alleviating the problem presented, and whether it is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. The medical report shall specifically consider the medical risks of sterilization, the consequences of not performing the sterilization, and whether alternative methods of contraception could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee.

(d) Any conservatee whose right to consent to a sterilization has not been restricted under this section or section 252A.101, may be sterilized only if the conservatee consents in writing or there is a sworn acknowledgment by an interested person of a nonwritten consent by the conservatee. The consent must certify that the conservatee has received a full explanation from a physician or registered nurse of the nature and irreversible consequences of the sterilization operation.

(e) A guardian or conservator or the public guardian's designee who acts within the scope of authority conferred by letters of guardianship under section 252A.101, subdivision 7, and according to the standards established in this chapter or in chapter 252A shall not be civilly or criminally liable for the provision of any necessary medical care, including but not limited to, the administration of psychotropic medication or the implementation of aversive and deprivation procedures to which the guardian or conservator or the public guardian's designee has consented.

(5) The power to approve or withhold approval of any contract, except for necessities, which the ward or conservatee may make or wish to make.

(6) The duty and power to exercise supervisory authority over the ward or conservatee in a manner which limits civil rights and restricts personal freedom only to the extent necessary to provide needed care and services."

Delete the title and insert:

The principal of this account must be invested by the state board of investment and may not be spent. The income from this account must be transferred as directed by the account manager to the veterans' cemetery maintenance account.

(b) The commissioner of finance shall notify the commissioners of revenue and veterans affairs when the balance in this account reaches $2,000,000.

Subd. 8. [ELIGIBILITY FOR BURIAL.] The following persons are eligible for burial in the state veterans' cemetery:

(1) a veteran who has been discharged, under other than dishonorable conditions, from the armed forces of the United States;

(2) a person who has completed qualified service for retirement from, or died in the line of duty for, the Minnesota national guard or any Minnesota reserve component of the United States military forces; and

(3) the spouse or dependent child of a person in clause (1) or (2).

Subd. 9. [BURIAL FEES.] The commissioner of veterans affairs shall establish a fee schedule, which may be adjusted from time to time, for the interment of eligible family members. The fees shall cover as nearly as practicable the actual costs of interment, excluding the value of the plot. The department may accept the social security burial allowance, if any, of the eligible family members in an amount not to exceed the actual cost of the interment. The commissioner may waive the fee in the case of an indigent eligible person.

No plot or interment fees may be charged for the burial of eligible veterans, members of the national guard, or military reservists, except that funds available from the social security or veterans' burial allowances, if any, must be paid to the commissioner in an amount not to exceed the actual cost of the interment, excluding the value of the plot.

Prior to the interment of an eligible person, the commissioner shall request the cooperation of the eligible person's next of kin in applying to the appropriate federal agencies for payment to the cemetery of any allowable interment allowance.

Subd. 10. [ALLOCATION OF PLOTS.] A person, or survivor of a person, eligible for interment in the state veterans' cemetery may apply for a burial plot for the eligible person by submitting a request to the commissioner of veterans affairs on a form supplied by the department. The department shall allot plots on a first-come, first-served basis. To the extent that it is practical, plots must be allocated in a manner permitting the burial of eligible family members above, below, or adjacent to the eligible veteran, member of the national guard, or military reservist.

in the Higher Education Act Amendments of 1976, United States Code, title 20, section 1681;

(8) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling, and the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1 and 4, and the tax imposed on unrelated business income by section 290.05, subdivision 3;

(2) any activity intended to influence an election or a governmental decision-making process;

(3) the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, except as provided in clause (6), unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding that (i) the real property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); (ii) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; (iii) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building, a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance; or (iv) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization that was acquired from the organization by eminent domain or sold by the organization to a purchaser that the organization reasonably believed would otherwise have acquired the building by eminent domain, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost that exceeds the compensation received by the organization for the building being replaced;

(4) an expenditure by an organization which is a contribution to a parent organization, foundation, or affiliate of the contributing organization, if the parent organization, foundation, or affiliate has provided to the contributing organization within one year of the contribution any money, grants, property, or other thing of value;

(7) a contribution to a statutory or home rule charter city, county, or town by a licensed organization with the knowledge that the governmental unit intends to use the contribution for a pension or retirement fund.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 349.212, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] (a) There is hereby imposed a tax on all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, at the rate of ten percent on the gross receipts as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 21, less prizes actually paid. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or a tax authorized under section 349.212, subdivision 5.

(b) The tax imposed under this subdivision is payable by the organization or party conducting, directly or indirectly, the gambling.

(c) An organization owing tax under this subdivision may reduce the amount of tax owed in a reporting period by an amount equal to a contribution made in that period to the veterans' cemetery trust account authorized under section 197.236. The tax may not be reduced by any amount for which a reduction has already been granted under subdivision 4, paragraph (e). In any calendar year an organization may not reduce its tax owed under this paragraph by an amount that when added to any tax reduction granted to the organization under subdivision 4, paragraph (e), is equal to more than 25 percent of the organization's total tax in that calendar year under this subdivision and subdivision 4. An organization may not make any reduction under this paragraph in any month after the month in which the principal balance in the veterans' cemetery trust account has first reached $2,000,000, as determined by the notification from the commissioner of finance under section 197.236, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor. The rate of the tax is two percent of the ideal gross of the pull-tab or tipboard deal. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the customer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the customer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

The tax imposed by this subdivision is imposed on all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards, except the following:

(1) sales to the governing body of an Indian tribal organization for use on an Indian reservation;

(2) sales to distributors licensed under this chapter;

(3) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province; and

(4) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12.

(c) Pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section 349.166, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), are exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision. A distributor must require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to such an organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

(d) A distributor having a liability of $120,000 or more during a fiscal year ending June 30 must remit all liabilities in the subsequent calendar year by means of a funds transfer as defined in section 336.4A-104, paragraph (a). The funds transfer payment date, as defined in section 336.4A-401, must be on or before the date the tax is due. If the date the tax is due is not a funds transfer business day, as defined in section 336.4A-105, paragraph (a), clause (4), the payment date must be on or before the funds transfer business day next following the date the tax is due.

(e) An organization purchasing pull-tabs or tipboards on which the tax has been imposed under this subdivision may reduce the amount of the tax on the pull-tabs or tipboards by an amount equal to an amount contributed by the organization to the veterans' cemetery trust account authorized under section 197.236. In any calendar year an organization may not receive a tax reduction under this paragraph in an amount that when added to any tax reduction granted to the organization under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), is equal to more than 25 percent of the organization's total tax in that calendar year under this subdivision and subdivision 1. A distributor may require proof of the expenditure before granting the tax reduction. A distributor owing tax under this subdivision who has granted a reduction to an organization under this paragraph may reduce the amount of the tax the distributor owes by the amount of the tax reduction the distributor grants. The commissioner may require a distributor who claims a tax reduction under this paragraph to submit evidence to the commissioner that the distributor has granted the tax reduction to an organization. No tax reduction may be granted to an organization under this paragraph for any expenditure by the organization for which a tax reduction has already been made under subdivision 1, paragraph (c). A distributor may not grant a tax reduction under this paragraph, or reduce the amount of tax the distributor owes under this paragraph, in any month after the month in which the principal balance in the veterans' cemetery trust account has first reached $2,000,000, as determined by the notification from the commissioner of finance under section 197.236, subdivision 7, paragraph (b). The commissioner of revenue shall notify each licensed distributor upon receiving the notification from the commissioner of finance.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 349.213, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL REGULATION.] (a) A statutory or home rule city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulation of lawful gambling within its jurisdiction, including the prohibition of lawful gambling, and may require a permit for the conduct of gambling exempt from licensing under section 349.166. The fee for a permit issued under this subdivision may not exceed $100. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require a license or permit to conduct gambling by organizations or sales by distributors licensed by the board. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require an organization to make specific expenditures of more than ten percent from its net profits derived from lawful gambling. For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or 349.212; provided, however, that an ordinance requirement that such organizations must contribute ten percent of their net profits derived from lawful gambling to a fund administered and regulated by the responsible local unit of government without cost to such fund, for disbursement by the responsible local unit of government of the receipts for lawful purposes, is not considered an expenditure to the city or county nor a tax under section 349.212, and is valid and lawful.

(b) A statutory or home rule city or county may by ordinance require that a licensed organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction expend all or a portion of its expenditures for lawful purposes, other than contributions to the veterans' cemetery trust account authorized under section 197.236, subdivision 7, on lawful purposes conducted or located within the city's or county's trade area. Such an ordinance must define the city's or county's trade area and must specify the percentage of lawful purpose expenditures which must be expended within the trade area. A trade area defined by a city under this subdivision must include each city contiguous to the defining city.

(c) A more stringent regulation or prohibition of lawful gambling adopted by a political subdivision under this subdivision must apply equally to all forms of lawful gambling within the jurisdiction of the political subdivision, except a political subdivision may prohibit the use of paddlewheels.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATION.]

$750,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department of veterans affairs to be placed in the veterans' cemetery maintenance account of the special revenue fund of the state treasury for use in the development, operation, and maintenance of the state veterans' cemetery established in section 1, and to pay the expenses and per diem of its advisory council. This amount is available until expended.

$. is appropriated from the general fund to the department of veterans affairs to be placed in the veterans' cemetery trust account of the special revenue fund of the state treasury where it shall remain permanently as principal for use as specified in section 1, subdivision 7.

Sec. 7. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 197.235, is repealed.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective July 1, 1994."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations and Reform. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

272.12 [CONVEYANCES, TAXES PAID BEFORE RECORDING:]

When:

(a) a deed or other instrument conveying land, or

(b) a plat of any town site or addition thereto, or

(c) a survey required pursuant to section 508.47,

(d) a condominium plat subject to chapter 515 or 515A or a declaration that contains such a plat, or

(e) a common interest community plat subject to chapter 515B or a declaration that contains such a plat, is presented to the county auditor for transfer, the auditor shall ascertain from the records if there be taxes delinquent upon the land described therein, or if it has been sold for taxes. An assignment of a sheriff's or referee's certificate of sale, when the certificate of sale describes real estate, and certificates of redemption from mortgage or lien foreclosure sales, when the certificate of redemption encompasses real estate and is issued to a junior creditor, are considered instruments conveying land for the purposes of this section and section 272.121. If there are taxes delinquent, the auditor shall certify to the same; and upon payment of such taxes, or in case no taxes are delinquent, shall transfer the land upon the books of the auditor's office, and note upon the instrument, over official signature, the words, "no delinquent taxes and transfer entered," or, if the land described has been sold or assigned to an actual purchaser for taxes, the words "paid by sale of land described within;" and, unless such statement is made upon such instrument, the county recorder or the registrar of titles shall refuse to receive or record the same; provided, that sheriff's or referees' certificates of sale on execution or foreclosure of a lien or mortgage, certificates of redemption from mortgage or lien foreclosure sales issued to the redeeming mortgagor or lienee, deeds of distribution made by a personal representative in probate proceedings, decrees and judgments, receivers receipts, patents, and copies of town or statutory city plats, in case the original plat filed in the office of the county recorder has been lost or destroyed, and the instruments releasing, removing and discharging reversionary and forfeiture provisions affecting title to land and instruments releasing, removing or discharging easement rights in land or building or other restrictions, may be recorded without such certificate; and, provided that instruments conveying land and, as appurtenant thereto an easement over adjacent tract or tracts of land, may be recorded without such certificate as to the land covered by such easement; and provided further, that any instrument granting an easement made in favor of any public utility or pipe line for conveying gas, liquids or solids in suspension, in the nature of a right of way over, along, across or under a tract of land may be recorded without such certificate as to the land covered by such easement. Any instrument amending or restating the declarations, bylaws, plats, or other enabling documents governing homeowners associations of condominiums, townhouses, common interest ownership communities, and other planned unit developments may be recorded without the auditor's certificate.

A deed of distribution made by a personal representative in a probate proceeding, a decree, or a judgment that conveys land shall be presented to the county auditor, who shall transfer the land upon the books of the auditor's office and note upon the instrument, over official signature, the words, "transfer entered", and the instrument may then be recorded. A decree or judgment that affects title to land but does not convey land may be recorded without presentation to the auditor.

A violation of this section by the county recorder or the registrar of titles shall be a gross misdemeanor, and, in addition to the punishment therefor, the recorder or registrar shall be liable to the grantee of any instrument so recorded for the amount of any damages sustained.

When, as a condition to permitting the recording of deed or other instrument affecting the title to real estate previously forfeited to the state under the provisions of sections 281.16 to 281.27, county officials, after such real estate has been purchased or repurchased, have required the payment of taxes erroneously assumed to have accrued against such real estate after forfeiture and before the date of purchase or repurchase, the sum required to be so paid shall be refunded to the persons entitled thereto out of moneys in the funds in which the sum so paid was placed. Delinquent taxes are those taxes deemed delinquent under section 279.02."

"Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] (a) A person who meets the homestead requirements under subdivision 1 must file a homestead application with the county assessor to initially obtain homestead classification.

(b) On or before January 2, 1993, each county assessor shall mail a homestead application to the owner of each parcel of property within the county which was classified as homestead for the 1992 assessment year. The format and contents of a uniform homestead application shall be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees on the contents of the homestead application form. The application must clearly inform the taxpayer that this application must be signed by all owners who occupy the property or by the qualifying relative and returned to the county assessor in order for the property to continue receiving homestead treatment. The envelope containing the homestead application shall clearly identify its contents and alert the taxpayer of its necessary immediate response.

(c) Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor the social security number of each occupant who is listed as an owner of the property on the homestead application, and the name and address of each owner who does not occupy the property. If the social security number is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead. The social security numbers of the property owners are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

(d) If residential real estate is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner and qualifies for a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), in order for the property to receive homestead status, a homestead application must be filed with the assessor. The social security number of each relative occupying the property and the social security number of each owner who is related to an occupant of the property shall be required on the homestead application filed under this subdivision. If a different relative of the owner subsequently occupies the property, the owner of the property must notify the assessor within 30 days of the change in occupancy. The social security number of a relative occupying the property is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

(e) The homestead application shall also notify the property owners that the application filed under this section will not be mailed annually and that if the property is granted homestead status for the 1993 assessment, or any assessment year thereafter, that same property shall remain classified as homestead until the property is sold or transferred to another person, or the owners or the relatives no longer use the property as their homestead. Upon the sale or transfer of the homestead property, a certificate of value must be timely filed with the county auditor as provided under section 272.115. Failure to notify the assessor within 30 days that the property has been sold, transferred, or that the owner or the relative is no longer occupying the property as a homestead, shall result in the penalty provided under this subdivision and the property will lose its current homestead status.

(f) If the homestead application is not returned within 30 days, the county will send a second application to the present owners of record. The notice of proposed property taxes prepared under section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall reflect the property's classification. Beginning with assessment year 1993 for all properties, if a homestead application has not been filed with the county by December 15, the assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year, provided that the owner may be entitled to receive the homestead classification by proper application under section 375.192.

(g) At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security number of each property owner, or relative of a property owner, applying for homestead classification under this subdivision. The commissioner shall use the information provided on the lists as appropriate under the law, including for the detection of improper claims by owners, or relatives of owners, under chapter 290A.

(h) If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the taconite homestead credit under section 273.135, and the supplemental homestead credit under section 273.1391.

The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes. In the case of a manufactured home, the amount shall be certified to the current year's tax list for collection.

(i) Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

(j) If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

(k) In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 31.495, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATIONS.] For the purposes of ~~this section~~ sections 31.495 and 31.496, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them:

(a) “Distressed food” means any food, the label of which has been lost, defaced, or obliterated, or food which has been subjected to possible damage due to accident, fire, flood, adverse weather, or to any other similar cause; or food which is suspected of having been rendered unsafe or unsuitable for food use.

(b) “Reconditionable or salvageable food” is distressed food which it is possible to reclaim for food, feed, or seed use as determined by examination by the commissioner or the commissioner’s representatives.

(c) “Reconditioned or salvaged food” is reconditionable or salvageable food which has been reconditioned or salvaged under supervision of the commissioner so as to comply with the standards established under this section.

(d) “Reconditioning” or “salvaging” is the act of cleaning, culling, sorting, scouring, labeling, relabeling, or in any way treating “distressed food” so that it may be deemed to be “reconditioned” or “salvaged food” and therefore is acceptable for sale or use as human food, animal feed, or seed as provided therefor by the commissioner.

(e) “Salvage food processor” is a person who holds a license under section 28A.04 to operate as a salvage food processor and who receives supervision of the salvaging operations from the commissioner.

(f) “Labeling” means any legend or descriptive matter or design appearing upon an article of food or its container, and includes circulars, pamphlets and the like, which are packed and go with the article to the purchaser, and placards which may be allowed to be used to describe the food.

(g) "Salvage food distributor" means a person who engages in the business of selling, distributing, or otherwise trafficking at wholesale or retail in any distressed or salvaged food.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 31.495, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LICENSING; PERMIT.] (a) It is unlawful for any person either to claim to be a salvage food processor, or to engage in the activities of reconditioning or salvaging distressed food, or both, without a license issued under section 28A.04 authorizing that person to operate as a salvage food processor, which license may not be issued absent compliance with all the provisions of this section and all rules promulgated under this section.

(b) Before issuing a license, the commissioner shall determine that the applicant's salvage establishment meets at least the minimum requirements adopted by rule for such an establishment which shall include but not be limited to adequacy of buildings, location, water supply, waste disposal, equipment, hand washing and toilet facilities, and sanitation practices, as the same relate to the protection of the public health and welfare.

(c) The license fee for a salvage food processor shall cover a maximum of six inspections per year. Costs of additional inspections or reinspections will be charged to the salvage food processor at the rate of $500 per inspection, plus laboratory costs.

(d) It is unlawful for any person either to claim to be a salvaged food distributor or to engage in the activities of selling, distributing, or otherwise trafficking in any distressed or salvaged food, or both, without a license issued under section 28A.04 authorizing that person to operate as a salvage food distributor, which license may not be issued absent compliance with all the provisions of this section and all rules adopted under this section. In addition to the licensing requirements set forth in this subdivision, a salvage food distributor must obtain a salvage food handler's permit. Application for a permit shall be made on forms provided by the commissioner. The commissioner may charge a fee not to exceed $10 for a salvage food handler's permit.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 31.495, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [LABELING REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Any container of food with the label or mandatory information missing that cannot be identified and relabeled correctly must not be sold. When original labels are missing or illegible, relabeling or overlabeling is required.

(b) All salvaged food shall be identified to indicate that the food has been salvaged by clearly marking the term "salvaged food" on all invoices, bills of lading, shipping invoices, receipts, and inventory records. All establishments selling salvaged food must notify the consumer by conspicuous signs or placards stating "This establishment offers for sale food products which have been reconditioned." The foods that have been salvaged must be identified by being labeled "salvaged." All salvaged food in containers must be provided with labels that comply with the requirements contained in chapters 29, 30, 31, 31A, 32, 33, and 34. If original labels are removed from containers that are to be resold or redistributed, the replacement labels must show as the distributor the name and address of the salvage food processor and the date of reconditioning for sale or distribution.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 31.495, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENTS.] A written record or receipt of distressed, salvageable, and salvaged food must be kept by the salvage food processor and distributor for inspection by the commissioner during business hours. The records must include the name of the product, the name and address of the manufacturer or distributor, the source of the distressed food, the date received, the type of damage, and the salvage process conducted. These records must be kept on the premises of the salvage food processor and distributor for a period of one year following the completion of transactions involving the food.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 31.495, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTIONS.] This section does not apply to: (a) any food manufacturer, distributor, retailer, or processor who in the normal course of the business of manufacturing, processing, retailing, or distributing of food engages in the activities of reconditioning and salvaging distressed food manufactured, distributed or processed by or for that person and not purchased by that person solely for the purpose of reconditioning, salvaging, and sale; or (b) Any person who reassembles or disposes of undamaged food which is from lots in which food or packaging materials or containers are damaged in the normal course of commerce or while in that person's possession and which is not purchased by that person solely for the purpose of reconditioning, salvaging, and sale, or any common carrier or agent of the common carrier who disposes of or otherwise transfers undamaged or distressed food to a person exempt under this section or to a salvage food processor who holds a valid license under this section; or (c) Any person who stores, handles or processes grain or oil seeds in the normal course of business except when such person purchases for the purpose of reconditioning, salvaging, and sale as human food grain or oil seeds contaminated by bird, rodent or animal excreta or by chemicals poisonous, injurious or detrimental to human life or health.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.125, is amended to read:

260.125 [REFERENCE FOR PROSECUTION CERTIFICATION TO DISTRICT COURT.]

Subdivision 1. When a child is alleged to have violated a state or local law or ordinance committed, after becoming 14 years of age, an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, the juvenile court may enter an order referring certifying the alleged violation proceeding to the appropriate prosecuting authority district court for action under the criminal laws in force governing the commission of and punishment for violations of statutes or local laws or ordinances. The prosecuting authority to whom the matter is referred shall within the time specified in the order of reference, which time shall not exceed 90 days, file with the court making the order of reference notice of intent to prosecute or not to prosecute. If the prosecuting authority files notice of intent not to prosecute or fails to act within the time specified, the court shall proceed as if no order of reference had been made. If such prosecuting authority files with the court notice of intent to prosecute the jurisdiction of the juvenile court in the matter is terminated.

Subd. 2. [ORDER OF REFERENCE CERTIFICATION; REQUIREMENTS.] Except as provided in subdivision 3a or 3b, the juvenile court may order a reference certification to district court only if:

(a) (1) a petition has been filed in accordance with the provisions of section 260.131;

(b) (2) a motion for certification has been filed by the prosecuting authority;

(3) notice has been given in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.135 and 260.141;

(c) (4) a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions of section 260.155 within 30 days of the filing of the reference certification motion, unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or the child as to why the hearing should not be held within this period in which case the hearing shall be held within 90 days of the filing of the motion; and

(d) (5) the court finds that

(4) there is probable cause, as defined by the rules of criminal procedure promulgated pursuant to section 480.059, to believe the child committed the offense alleged by delinquency petition; and

(e) (2) (6) the court finds either:

(i) that the presumption of certification created by subdivision 2a applies and the child has not rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence demonstrating that retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court serves public safety; or

(ii) that the presumption of certification does not apply and the prosecuting authority has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the child is not suitable to treatment or that the retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court does not serve public safety is not served under the provisions of laws relating to juvenile courts. If the court finds that the prosecutor has not demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that retaining the proceeding in juvenile court does not serve public safety, the court shall retain the proceeding in juvenile court.

Subd. 2a. [PRESUMPTION OF CERTIFICATION.] It is presumed that a proceeding involving an offense committed by a child will be certified to district court if:

- (1) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the offense; and
- (2) the delinquency petition alleges that the child committed murder in the first degree or an offense that would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes.

If the court determines that probable cause exists to believe the child committed the alleged offense, the burden is on the child to rebut this presumption by demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court serves public safety. If the court finds that the child has not rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall certify the child to district court.

Subd. 2b. [PUBLIC SAFETY.] In determining whether the public safety is served by certifying a child to district court, the court shall consider the following factors:

- (1) the seriousness of the alleged offense in terms of community protection, including the existence of any aggravating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines, the use of a firearm, and the impact on any victim;
- (2) the culpability of the child in committing the alleged offense, including the level of the child's participation in planning and carrying out the offense and the existence of any mitigating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines;
- (3) the child's prior record of delinquency;
- (4) the child's programming history, including the child's past willingness to participate meaningfully in available programming; and
- (5) the dispositional options available for the child.

Subd. 3. [PRIMA FACIE CASE.] A prima facie case that the public safety is not served or that the child is not suitable for treatment shall have been established if the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the alleged offense and:

- (1) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person and (a) in committing the offense, the child acted with particular cruelty or disregard for the life or safety of another; or (b) the offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning by the juvenile; or (c) the juvenile, at the time of the offense, used, whether by brandishing, displaying, threatening with, or otherwise employing, a firearm; or
- (2) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the first degree; or
- (3) is alleged by delinquency petition (a) to have committed the delinquent act of escape from confinement to a state juvenile correctional facility or a local juvenile correctional facility and (b) to have committed an offense as part of, or subsequent to, escape from custody that would be a felony listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9, if committed by an adult; or
- (4) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense within the preceding 24 months which would be a felony if committed by an adult and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the second or third degree, manslaughter in the first degree, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or assault in the first degree; or

(5) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed manslaughter in the second degree, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the second degree, arson in the first degree, aggravated robbery, or assault in the second degree; or

(6) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months, one or both of which would be the felony of burglary of a dwelling if committed by an adult, and the child is alleged by the delinquency petition to have committed another burglary of a dwelling. For purposes of this subdivision, "dwelling" means a building which is, in whole or in part, usually occupied by one or more persons living there at night; or

(7) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed three offenses, none in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed any felony other than those described in clause (2), (4), or (5); or

(8) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person, other than a violation of section 609.713, in furtherance of criminal activity by an organized gang; or

(9) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a felony-level violation of chapter 152 involving the unlawful sale or possession of a schedule I or II controlled substance, while in a park zone or a school zone as defined in section 152.01, subdivisions 12a and 14a. This clause does not apply to a juvenile alleged to have unlawfully possessed a controlled substance in a private residence located within the school zone or park zone; or

(10) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a); and has been previously found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a).

For the purposes of this subdivision, "aggravated felony against the person" means a violation of any of the following provisions: section 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; subdivision 1 or 2; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.245; 609.25; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; subdivision 1, clause (e) or (f); 609.345; subdivision 1, clause (e) or (f); 609.561; 609.582; subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c); or 609.713.

For the purposes of this subdivision, an "organized gang" means an association of five or more persons, with an established hierarchy, formed to encourage members of the association to perpetrate crimes or to provide support to members of the association who do commit crimes.

Subd. 3a. [~~PRIOR REFERENCE CERTIFICATION; EXCEPTION.~~] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 2, ~~and 3 2a, and 2b~~, the court shall order a ~~reference certification~~ in any felony case ~~where~~ if the prosecutor shows that the child has been previously ~~referred for prosecution~~ prosecuted on a felony charge by an order of ~~reference certification~~ issued pursuant to either a hearing held under subdivision 2 or pursuant to the waiver of the right to such a hearing, other than a prior ~~reference certification~~ in the same case.

This subdivision only applies if the child is convicted of the offense or offenses for which the child was prosecuted pursuant to the order of ~~reference certification~~ or of a ~~lesser included~~ lesser-included offense which is a felony.

This subdivision does not apply to juvenile offenders who are subject to criminal court jurisdiction under section 609.055.

Subd. 3b. [~~ADULT CHARGED WITH JUVENILE OFFENSE.~~] The juvenile court has jurisdiction to hold a certification hearing on motion of the prosecuting authority to certify the matter to district court if:

(1) an adult is alleged to have committed an offense before the adult's 18th birthday; and

(2) a petition is filed under section 260.131 before expiration of the time for filing under section 628.26.

The court may not certify the matter to district court under this subdivision if the adult demonstrates that the delay was purposefully caused by the state in order to gain an unfair advantage.

Subd. 4. [~~EFFECT OF ORDER.~~] When the juvenile court enters an order ~~referring certifying~~ an alleged violation to a ~~prosecuting authority district court~~, the prosecuting authority shall proceed with the case as if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court had never attached.

Subd. 5. [~~WRITTEN FINDINGS; OPTIONS.~~] The court shall decide whether to order certification to district court within 15 days after the certification hearing was completed; unless additional time is needed, in which case the court may extend the period up to another 15 days. If the juvenile court orders a ~~reference for prosecution certification~~, and the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the order shall contain in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why ~~the child is not suitable to treatment or the public safety is not served under~~ by retaining the provisions of laws relating to proceeding in the juvenile courts court. If the juvenile court, after a hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision 2, decides not to order a ~~reference for prosecution certification to district court~~, the decision shall contain, in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why a ~~reference for prosecution certification~~ is not ordered. If the juvenile court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a applies, the court shall designate the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution and include in its decision written findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why the retention of the proceeding in juvenile court serves public safety, with specific reference to the factors listed in subdivision 2b. If the court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the court may designate the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution.

Subd. 6. [FIRST-DEGREE MURDER.] When a motion for certification has been filed in a case in which the petition alleges that the child committed murder in the first degree, the prosecuting authority shall present the case to the grand jury for consideration of indictment under chapter 628 within 14 days after the petition was filed.

Sec. 11. [260.126] [SERIOUS YOUTHFUL OFFENDER PROSECUTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] A proceeding involving a child alleged to have committed a felony offense is a serious youthful offender prosecution if:

(1) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, a certification hearing was held, and the court designated the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution;

(2) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the prosecutor has designated in the delinquency petition that the child will be prosecuted as a serious youthful offender, and the offense:

(1) is first-degree murder;

(2) would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes; or

(3) is a violation of the provisions of any of the following:

(i) section 609.222, second-degree assault;

(ii) 609.223, subdivision 1, third-degree assault;

(iii) 609.235, use of drugs to injure or facilitate crime;

(iv) 609.24, simple robbery;

(v) 609.343, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a), (b), and (g), second-degree criminal sexual conduct, underage complainant;

(vi) 609.344, subdivision 1, paragraph (b) or (f), third-degree criminal sexual conduct, underage complainant;

(vii) 609.345, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), (d), or (g), fourth-degree criminal sexual conduct, force or coercion, helpless victim, victim between 16 and 18; and

(viii) 609.498, subdivision 1, first-degree witness tampering; or

(3) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the prosecutor requested that the proceeding be designated a serious youthful offender prosecution, a hearing was held on the issue of designation, and the court designated the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution.

Subd. 2. [PROCEEDINGS.] A child who is the subject of a serious youthful offender prosecution has the right to a trial by jury and to the effective assistance of counsel, as described in section 260.155, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [HEARING ON PROSECUTOR'S REQUEST.] When a prosecutor requests that a proceeding be designated a serious youthful offender prosecution, the court shall hold a hearing under section 260.155 to consider the request. The hearing must be held within 30 days of the filing of the request for designation, unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or the child as to why the hearing should not be held within this period in which case the hearing shall be held within 90 days of the filing of the request. If the prosecutor shows by clear and convincing evidence that designating the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution serves public safety, the court shall grant the request for designation. In determining whether public safety is served, the court shall consider the factors specified in section 260.125, subdivision 2b. The court shall decide whether to designate the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution within 15 days after the designation hearing is completed, unless additional time is needed, in which case the court may extend the period up to another 15 days.

Subd. 4. [DISPOSITION.] (a) If a serious youthful offender prosecution results in a guilty plea or finding of guilt, the court shall:

(1) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under section 260.185; and

(2) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which shall be stayed on the condition that the offender not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense.

(b) If a child prosecuted as a serious youthful offender after designation by the prosecutor in the delinquency petition is convicted of an offense after trial that is neither first-degree murder nor an offense that would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes, the court shall adjudicate the child delinquent and order a disposition under section 260.185. If the serious youthful offender proceeding results in a guilty plea for an offense not described in subdivision 1, clause (2), the court may impose an adult sentence under this subdivision if the juvenile consents. If the juvenile does not consent, the court may impose an adult sentence under this subdivision if the state shows public safety would not be served by retaining the juvenile in the juvenile system using the criteria described in section 260.125, subdivision 2b.

Subd. 5. [EXECUTION OF ADULT SENTENCE.] When it appears that a person convicted as a serious youthful offender has violated the conditions of the stayed sentence, or is alleged to have committed a new offense, the court may, without notice, revoke the stay and probation and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody. The court shall notify the offender in writing of the reasons alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of execution of the adult sentence. If the offender challenges the reasons, the court shall hold a summary hearing on the issue at which the offender is entitled to be heard and represented by counsel. After the hearing, if the court finds that reasons exist to revoke the stay of execution of sentence, the court shall treat the offender as an adult and order any of the adult sanctions authorized by section 609.14, subdivision 3.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.131, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [DELINQUENCY PETITION; SERIOUS YOUTHFUL OFFENDER.] When a prosecutor files a delinquency petition alleging that a child committed a felony offense after reaching the age of 16 years, the prosecutor shall indicate in the petition whether the prosecutor designates the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution. When a prosecutor files a delinquency petition alleging that a child aged 14 to 17 years committed a felony offense, the prosecutor may request that the court designate the proceeding a serious youthful offender prosecution.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.145, is amended to read:

260.145 [FAILURE TO OBEY SUMMONS OR SUBPOENA; CONTEMPT, ARREST.]

If any person personally served with summons or subpoena fails, without reasonable cause, to appear or bring the ~~minor child~~, or if any custodial parent or guardian fails, without reasonable cause, to accompany the child to a hearing as required under section 260.155, subdivision 4b, the person may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue a warrant for the person's arrest, or both. In any case when it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual, or that the welfare of the ~~minor child~~ requires that the ~~minor child~~ be brought forthwith into the custody of the court, the court may issue a warrant for the ~~minor child~~.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.152, is amended to read:

260.152 [MENTAL HEALTH SCREENING OF JUVENILES IN DETENTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of corrections, shall establish pilot projects in counties to reduce the recidivism rates of juvenile offenders, by identifying and treating underlying mental health problems that contribute to delinquent behavior and can be addressed through nonresidential services. At least one of the pilot projects must be in the seven-county metropolitan area and at least one must be in greater Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM COMPONENTS.] (a) The commissioner of human services shall, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, provide grants to the counties for the pilot projects. The projects shall build upon the existing service capabilities in the community and must include:

(1) screening for mental health problems of all juveniles admitted before adjudication to a secure detention facility as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 16, and any juvenile alleged to be delinquent as that term is defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, who is admitted to a shelter care facility, as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 17; children who are alleged or found to be delinquent and all children who are reported as being or found to be in need of protection or services.

(2) (b) The projects must include referral for mental health assessment of all juveniles for whom the screening indicates a need. This assessment is to be provided by the appropriate mental health professional. If the juvenile is of a minority race or minority ethnic heritage, the mental health professional must be skilled in and knowledgeable about the juvenile's racial and ethnic heritage, or must consult with a special mental health consultant who has such knowledge so that the assessment is relevant, culturally specific, and sensitive to the juvenile's cultural needs; and.

(3) (c) Upon completion of the assessment, the project must provide or ensure access to ~~or provision of~~ nonresidential mental health services identified as needed in the assessment.

Subd. 3. [SCREENING TOOL.] The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall jointly develop a model screening tool to screen juveniles ~~held in juvenile detention~~ to determine if a mental health assessment is needed. This tool must contain specific questions to identify potential mental health problems. In implementing a pilot project, a county must either use this model tool or another screening tool approved by the commissioner of human services which meets the requirements of this section.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] To receive funds, the county program proposal shall be a joint proposal with all affected local agencies, resulting in part from consultation with the local coordinating council established under section 245.4873, subdivision 3, and the local mental health advisory council established under section 245.4875, subdivision 5, and shall contain the following:

"Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.141, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) Service of summons or notice required by section 260.135 or 260.191, subdivision 3b, shall be made upon the following persons in the same manner in which personal service of summons in civil actions is made:

(1) in all delinquency matters, upon the person having custody or control of the child and upon the child; and

(2) in all other matters, upon the person having custody or control of the child, and upon the child if more than 12 years of age.

Personal service shall be effected at least 24 hours before the time of the hearing; however, it shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if service is made at any time, before the day fixed in the summons or notice for the hearing, except that the court, if so requested, shall not proceed with the hearing earlier than the second day after the service. If personal service cannot well be made within the state, a copy of the summons or notice may be served on the person to whom it is directed by delivering a copy thereof to such person personally outside the state. Such service if made personally outside the state shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction; providing however it be made at least five days before the date fixed for hearing in such summons or notice.

(b) If the court is satisfied that personal service of the summons or notice cannot well be made, it shall make an order providing for the service of summons or notice by certified mail addressed to the last known addresses of such persons, and by one weeks published notice as provided in section 645.11. A copy of the notice shall be sent by certified mail at least five days before the time of the hearing or 14 days if mailed to addresses outside the state.

(c) Notification to the county welfare board required by section 260.135, subdivision 3, shall be in such manner as the court may direct.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.191, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [REVIEW OF COURT ORDERED PLACEMENTS; PERMANENT PLACEMENT DETERMINATION.] (a) If the court places a child in a residential facility, as defined in section 257.071, subdivision 1, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine the permanent status of the child not later than 12 months after the child was placed out of the home of the parent. Not later than 30 ten days prior to this hearing, the responsible social service agency shall file pleadings to establish the basis for the permanent placement determination. Notice of the hearing and copies of the pleadings must be provided pursuant to sections 260.135 and section 260.141. If a termination of parental rights petition is filed before the date required for the permanency planning determination, no hearing need be conducted under this section. The court shall determine whether the child is to be returned home or, if not, what permanent placement is consistent with the child's best interests. The "best interests of the child" means all relevant factors to be considered and evaluated.

If the child is not returned to the home, the dispositions available for permanent placement determination are:

(1) permanent legal and physical custody to a relative, pursuant to the standards and procedures applicable under chapter 257 or 518. The social service agency may petition on behalf of the proposed custodian;

(2) termination of parental rights and adoption, or permanent; the social service agency shall file a petition for termination of parental rights under section 260.231 and all the requirements of sections 260.221 to 260.245 remain applicable; or

(3) long-term foster care; transfer of legal custody and adoption are preferred permanency options for a child who cannot return home. The court may order a child into permanent long-term foster care only if it finds that neither an award of legal and physical custody to a relative, nor termination of parental rights; nor adoption is in the child's best interests. Further, the court may only order long-term foster care for the child under this section if it finds the following:

(i) the child has reached age 12 and is not adoptable; or

(ii) the child is a sibling of a child who has reached age 12 determined not adoptable and the siblings have a significant positive relationship and are ordered into the same long-term foster care home.

(b) The court may extend the time period for determination of permanent placement to 18 months after the child was placed in a residential facility if:

(1) there is a substantial probability that the child will be returned home within the next six months;

(2) the agency has not made reasonable, or, in the case of an Indian child, active efforts, to correct the conditions that form the basis of the out-of-home placement; or

(3) extraordinary circumstances exist precluding a permanent placement determination, in which case the court shall make written findings documenting the extraordinary circumstances and order ~~one subsequent review after six months continuing periodic reviews~~ to determine permanent placement. A court finding that extraordinary circumstances exist precluding a permanent placement determination must be supported by detailed factual findings regarding those circumstances.

~~(c) If the court determines that an adoptive placement is in the best interests of the child, the social service agency shall file a petition for termination of parental rights under section 260.231. Nothing in this subdivision waives the requirements of sections 260.221 to 260.245 with respect to termination of parental rights.~~

~~(d) (c)~~ In ordering a permanent placement of a child, the court must be governed by the best interests of the child, including a review of the relationship between the child and relatives and the child and other important persons with whom the child has resided or had significant contact.

~~(e) (d)~~ Once a permanent placement determination has been made and permanent placement has been established, further reviews are only necessary if otherwise required by federal law, an adoption has not yet been finalized, or there is a disruption of the permanent or long-term placement. ~~These~~ If required, reviews must take place no less frequently than every six months.

~~(f) (e)~~ An order under this subdivision must include the following detailed findings:

(1) how the child's best interests are served by the order;

(2) the nature and extent of the responsible social service agency's reasonable efforts, or, in the case of an Indian child, active efforts, to reunify the child with the parent or parents;

(3) the parent's or parents' efforts and ability to use services to correct the conditions which led to the out-of-home placement;

(4) whether the conditions which led to the out-of-home placement have been corrected so that the child can return home; and

(5) if the child cannot be returned home, whether there is a substantial probability of the child being able to return home in the next six months.

~~If the court orders the child placed in permanent foster care, the court shall make findings that neither an award of legal and physical custody to a relative, termination of parental rights, nor adoption is in the child's best interests.~~

(f) An order for permanent legal and physical custody of a child may be modified under sections 518.18 and 518.185. The social service agency is a party to the proceeding and must receive notice. An order for long-term foster care is reviewable upon motion and a showing by the parent of a substantial change in the parent's circumstances such that the parent could provide appropriate care for the child and that removal of the child from the child's permanent placement and the return to the parent's care would be in the best interest of the child.

A court finding that extraordinary circumstances exist precluding a permanent placement determination must be supported by detailed factual findings regarding those circumstances."

under the terms of the indebtedness, but shall not include persons or entities described in clauses (1) to (9).

Sec. 2. [332.30] [MORTGAGE PAYMENT SERVICERS; BOND REQUIREMENTS.]

Before beginning business in this state, a mortgage payment servicer, as defined in section 332.13, subdivision 2, clause (10), shall submit to the commissioner of commerce either:

- (1) a surety bond in which the mortgage payment servicer is the obligor; or*
- (2) if the commissioner agrees to accept it, a deposit:*
 - (i) in cash in an amount equivalent to the bond sum; or*

(ii) of securities of the type that may legally be purchased by savings banks or trust funds with an aggregate market value equal to the bond sum. The cash or securities must be deposited with the state treasurer.

If a bond is submitted, it must name as surety an insurance company authorized to transact fidelity and surety business in the state. The bond must run to the state of Minnesota for the use of the state and of any person who may have a claim against the obligor arising out of the obligor's activities as a mortgage payment servicer. The bond must be conditioned that the obligor will not commit any fraudulent act and will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of mortgage payment services agreements with Minnesota residents. The amount of the bond shall vary with the amount of Minnesota client funds held by the obligor. The amount shall be determined on the basis of the highest deposit balance during the last 12 months of business in Minnesota, or, if the obligor has not done business in the state for 12 months, on the basis of those months in which business was conducted. For new businesses, the bond shall be $100,000. The amount of bond required shall be equal to the amount of average client funds held. If at any time the average amount of funds held in any two consecutive months is 150 percent or more of the bond amount, the obligor shall immediately increase the bond amount by 100 percent. If a mortgage payment servicer has failed to account to a mortgagor or distribute funds to the mortgagee as required by a mortgage payment services agreement, the mortgagor or the mortgagor's legal representative or receiver or the commissioner shall have, in addition to any other legal remedies, a right of action in the name of the debtor on the bond or the security given pursuant to this section.

Sec. 3. [332.301] [BOND; BACKGROUND CHECK.]

The commissioner may accept an initial surety bond in an amount less than $100,000 based on the business plan of the mortgage payment servicer, provided the commissioner obtains a third-party background check at the expense of the mortgage payment servicer and from a source to be determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may require a third-party background check in connection with any mortgage payment servicer at the expense of the mortgage payment servicer, but no more often than annually.

Sec. 4. [332.302] [CONTRACTS; NOTICE TO MORTGAGOR.]

A contract entered into between a mortgage payment servicer and a mortgagor shall be in writing and include all applicable terms and conditions including, but not limited to, all fees, costs, and charges. A conforming copy must be provided to the mortgagor before any fees in connection with the mortgage payment services are received by the mortgage payment servicer. A contract shall provide that the arrangement between the mortgage payment servicer and lender or lenders requires:

(1) that if the original terms of the mortgage, mortgage note, or escrow agreement are in default because of nonpayment by the mortgage payment servicer, the lender or lenders mail or otherwise deliver to the mortgagor a written notice within 30 days of the default; and

(2) that a written summary of payments received by the mortgage payment servicer by date and amount, payments made to the lender or lenders on behalf of the mortgagor by date and amount and unremitted balance held by the mortgage payment servicer be provided to the mortgagor at least annually or more frequently on a date or dates mutually agreed upon between the mortgage payment servicer and mortgagor.

Sec. 5. [332.303] [REPORT; DATA COLLECTION.]

The commissioner shall report by March 1, 1995, to the senate commerce and consumer protection committee and to the house of representatives committee on commerce and economic development, the status of the development of the mortgage payment services business. The commissioner shall make recommendations on the effectiveness of the safeguards in this act based on his experience and questionnaires and statistical data to be required from every mortgage payment servicer in a form determined by the commissioner to be filed with the commissioner by January 31 of each year, beginning January 31, 1995.

The program does not affect a board's authority to discipline violations of a board's practice act.

Sec. 3. [214.32] [PROGRAM MANAGEMENT, SERVICES, PARTICIPANT COSTS, ELIGIBILITY, COMPLETIONS, VOLUNTARY TERMINATION AND DISCHARGE.]

Subdivision 1. [MANAGEMENT.] (a) A health professionals services program committee is established, consisting of one person appointed by each participating board, with each participating board having one vote. The committee shall designate one board to provide administrative management of the program, set the program budget and the pro rata share of program expenses to be borne by each participating board, provide guidance on the general operation of the program, including hiring of program personnel, and ensure that the program's direction is in accord with its authority.

(b) The designated board, upon recommendation of the health professionals services program committee, shall hire the program manager and employees and pay expenses of the program from funds appropriated for that purpose. The designated board may apply for grants to pay program expenses and may enter into contracts on behalf of the program to carry out the purposes of the program. The participating boards shall enter into written agreements with the designated board.

(c) An advisory committee is established to advise the program committee consisting of:

(1) one member appointed by each of the following: the Minnesota Academy of Physician Assistants, the Minnesota Dental Association, the Minnesota Chiropractic Association, the Minnesota Licensed Practical Nurse Association, the Minnesota Medical Association, the Minnesota Nurses Association, and the Minnesota Podiatric Medicine Association;

(2) one member appointed by each of the professional associations of the other professions regulated by a participating board not specified in clause (1); and

(3) two public members, as defined by section 214.02.

Members of the advisory committee shall be appointed for two years and members may be reappointed.

Subd. 2. [SERVICES.] (a) The program shall provide the following services to program participants:

(2) development of individualized program participation agreements between participants and the program to meet the needs of participants and protect the public. An agreement may include, but need not be limited to, recommendations from the continuing care plan, practice monitoring, health monitoring, practice restrictions, random drug screening, support group participation, filing of reports necessary to document compliance, and terms for successful completion of the regulated person's program; and

(3) monitoring of compliance by participants with individualized program participation agreements or board orders.

(b) The program may develop services related to sections 2 to 8 for employers and colleagues of regulated persons from participating boards.

Subd. 3. [PARTICIPANT COSTS.] Each program participant shall be responsible for paying for the costs of physical, psychosocial, or other related evaluation, treatment, laboratory monitoring, and random drug screens.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY.] Admission to the health professionals services program is available to a person regulated by a participating board who is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety by reason of illness, use of alcohol, drugs, chemicals, or any other materials, or as a result of any mental, physical, or psychological condition. Admission in the health professionals services program shall be denied to persons:

(1) who have diverted controlled substances for other than self-administration;

(2) who have been terminated from this or any other state professional services program for noncompliance in the program;

(6) whose continued practice would create a serious risk of harm to the public.

Subd. 5. [COMPLETION; VOLUNTARY TERMINATION; DISCHARGE.] A regulated person completes the program when the terms of the program participation agreement are fulfilled. A regulated person may voluntarily terminate participation in the health professionals service program at any time by reporting to the person's board. The program manager may choose to discharge a regulated person from the program and make a referral to the person's board at any time for reasons including but not limited to: the degree of cooperation and compliance by the regulated person, the inability to secure information or the medical records of the regulated person, or indication of other possible violations of the regulated person's practice act. The regulated person shall be notified in writing by the program manager of any change in the person's program status. A regulated person who has been terminated or discharged from the program may be referred back to the program for monitoring.

Sec. 4. [214.33] [REPORTING.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMISSION TO REPORT.] A person who has personal knowledge that a regulated person has the inability to practice with reasonable skill and safety by reason of illness, use of alcohol, drugs, chemicals, or any other materials, or as a result of any mental, physical, or psychological condition may report that knowledge to the program or to the board. A report to the program under this subdivision fulfills the reporting requirement contained in a regulated person's practice act.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM MANAGER.] The program manager shall report to the appropriate participating board a regulated person who does not meet program admission criteria, violates the terms of the program participation agreement, or leaves the program except upon fulfilling the terms for successful completion of the program as set forth in the participation agreement. The program manager shall report to the appropriate participating board a regulated person who is alleged to have committed violations of the person's practice act that are outside the authority of the health professionals services program as described in sections 2 to 8. The program manager shall inform any reporting person of the disposition of the person's report to the program.

Subd. 4. [BOARD.] A board may refer any regulated person to the program consistent with section 3, subdivision 4, if the board believes the regulated person will benefit and the public will be protected.

Sec. 5. [214.34] [IMMUNITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTING IMMUNITY.] Any individual, agency, institution, facility, business, or organization is immune from civil liability or criminal prosecution for submitting a report in good faith to the program under this section or for cooperating with an investigation of a report or with staff of the program. Reports are confidential and are privileged communication.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM IMMUNITY.] Members of the participating boards and persons employed by the boards and program, program consultants, and members of advisory bodies for the program are immune from civil liability and criminal prosecution for any actions, transactions, or reports in the execution of, or relating to, their duties under sections 2 to 7.

Data and agreements shall not be forwarded to the board unless the program reports a participant to a board as described in section 4, subdivision 3.

Sec. 7. [214.36] [BOARD PARTICIPATION.]

Participating boards may, by mutual agreement, implement the program upon enactment. Thereafter, health-related licensing boards desiring to enter into or discontinue an agreement to participate in the health professionals services program shall provide a written resolution indicating the board's intent to the designated board by January 1 preceding the start of a biennium.

Sec. 8. [214.37] [RULEMAKING.]

By July 1, 1996, the participating boards shall adopt joint rules relating to the provisions of sections 2 to 7 in consultation with the advisory committee and other appropriate individuals. The required rule writing does not prevent the implementation of sections 2 to 9 upon enactment.

Sec. 9. [APPROPRIATION.]

$198,000 is appropriated from the special revenue fund to the board of medical practice for the purposes of sections 2 to 8. The pro rata share of program expenses to be borne by each participating board shall be determined by the participating boards through an interagency agreement and funds equal to the appropriation shall be deposited into the special revenue fund.

renter and homeowner property tax refund return shall include instructions that the individual filing the return may designate $5 on the return only if the individual has not designated $5 on the income tax return.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 10A.31, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (b) In addition to the amounts in paragraph (a), $1,500,000 for each general election is appropriated from the general fund for transfer to the general account of the state elections campaign fund.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the money in the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

- (1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;
- (2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;
- (3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;
- (4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23-1/3 percent for the office of state senator, and 46-2/3 percent for the office of state representative;
- (5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative.

In each calendar year the money in each party account shall be allocated as follows:

- (1) 14 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;
- (2) 2.4 percent for the office of attorney general;
- (3) 1.2 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;
- (4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23-1/3 percent for the office of state senator, and 46-2/3 percent for the office of state representative;
- (5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;
- (6) ten percent for the state committee of a political party; money allocated to each state committee under this clause must be deposited in a separate account and must be spent for only those items enumerated in section 10A.275; money allocated to a state committee under this clause must be paid to the committee by the state treasurer as notified by the state ethical practices board as it is received in the account on a monthly basis, with payment on the 15th day of the calendar month following the month in which the returns were processed by the department of revenue, provided that these distributions would be equal to 90 percent of the amount of money indicated in the department of revenue's weekly unedited reports of income tax returns and property tax refund returns processed in the month, as notified by the department of revenue to the state ethical practices board. The amounts paid to each state committee are subject to biennial adjustment and settlement at the time of each certification required of the commissioner of revenue under subdivisions 7 and 10. If the total amount of payments received by a state committee for the period reflected on a certification by the department of revenue is different from the amount that should have been received during the period according to the certification, each subsequent monthly payment must be increased or decreased to the fullest extent possible until the amount of the overpayment is recovered or the underpayment is distributed.

To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, money from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account ~~not distributed to~~ refused by candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) in the following year. ~~Money from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.~~

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 10A.31, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Within two weeks after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the general election, the board shall distribute the available funds in the general account, as certified by the commissioner of revenue on November 1 and according to allocations set forth in subdivision 5, in equal amounts to all candidates for each statewide office who received at least five percent of the votes cast in the general election for that office, and to all candidates for legislative office who received at least ten percent of the votes cast in the general election for the specific office for which they were candidates, provided that the public subsidy under this subdivision may not be paid in an amount that would cause the sum of the public subsidy paid from the party account plus the public subsidy paid from the general account and the public subsidy paid to match independent expenditures to exceed 50 percent of the expenditure limit for the candidate, or 50 percent of the expenditure limit that would have applied to the candidate if the candidate had not been freed from expenditure limits under section 10A.25, subdivision 10. If a candidate is entitled to receive an opponent's share of the general account public subsidy under section 10A.25, subdivision 10, the opponent's share must be excluded in calculating the 50 percent limit. Money from the general account not paid to a candidate because of the 50 percent limit must be distributed equally among all other qualifying candidates for the same office until all have reached the 50 percent limit or the balance in the general account is exhausted. ~~The board shall not use the information contained in the report of the principal campaign committee of any candidate due ten days before the general election for the purpose of reducing the amount due that candidate from the general account.~~ If a candidate has not yet filed a campaign finance report required by section 10A.20, subdivision 2, or the candidate owes money to the board, the board shall not pay a public subsidy to the candidate until the report has been filed or the debt has been paid, whichever applies.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 10A.31, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. For the purposes of this section, a write-in candidate is a candidate only upon complying with the provisions of ~~section 10A.32, subdivision 3~~ sections 10A.322 and 10A.323.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 10A.31, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [UNOPPOSED CANDIDATE NOT ELIGIBLE.] A candidate who is unopposed in both the primary election and the general election is not eligible to receive a public subsidy from the state election campaign fund. The subsidy from the party account the candidate would otherwise have been eligible to receive must be paid to the state committee of the candidate's political party to be deposited in a special account under section 10A.31, subdivision 5, clause (6), and used for only those items permitted under section 10A.275.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 10A.315, is amended to read:

10A.315 [SPECIAL ELECTION SUBSIDY.]

(a) Each eligible candidate for a legislative office in a special election must be paid a public subsidy equal to the sum of:

(1) the party account money at the last general election for the candidate's party for the office the candidate is seeking; and

(2) the general account money paid to candidates for the same office at the last general election.

(b) If the filing period for the special election coincides with the filing period for the general election, the candidate must meet the matching requirements of section 10A.323 and the special election subsidy must be distributed in the same manner as money is distributed to legislative candidates in a general election.

(c) If the filing period for the special election does not coincide with the filing period for the general election, the procedures in this paragraph apply. A candidate who wishes to receive this public subsidy must submit a signed agreement under section 10A.322 to the board not later than the day after the candidate files the affidavit of candidacy or nominating petition for the office. The candidate must meet one-quarter of the matching requirements of section 10A.323. The special election subsidy must be distributed in the same manner as money in the party and general accounts is distributed to legislative candidates in a general election.

(d) The amount necessary to make the payments required by this subdivision is appropriated from the general fund to the ~~state treasurer~~ ethical practices board.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 10A.322, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENT BY CANDIDATE.] (a) As a condition of receiving a public subsidy, a candidate shall sign and file with the board a written agreement in which the candidate agrees that the candidate will comply with sections 10A.25 and 10A.324.

(b) Before the first day of filing for office, the board shall forward agreement forms to all filing officers. The board shall also provide agreement forms to candidates on request at any time. The candidate may sign an agreement and submit it to the filing officer on the day of filing an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, in which case the filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. Alternatively, the candidate may submit the agreement directly to the board at any time before September 1 preceding the candidate's general election. An agreement may not be filed after that date. An agreement once filed may not be rescinded.

(c) The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue.

(d) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, when a vacancy occurs that will be filled by means of a special election and the filing period does not coincide with the filing period for the general election, a candidate may sign and submit a spending limit agreement at any time before the deadline for submission of a signed agreement under section 10A.315.

(e) A candidate who fills a vacancy in nomination that occurs after the deadline in paragraph (b) may file a spending limit agreement no later than the day after the candidate fills the vacancy.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 10A.322, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. For the purpose of this subdivision, "contribution" includes an expenditure to promote or defeat the election or nomination of a candidate to a political office that is made with the authorization or expressed or implied consent of, or in cooperation or in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate or committee established to support or oppose a candidate.

Subd. 23. [REFUND OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.] (a) A taxpayer may claim a refund equal to the amount of the taxpayer's contributions made in the calendar year to candidates and to any political party. The maximum refund for an individual must not exceed $50 and, for a married couple filing jointly, must not exceed $100. A refund of a contribution is allowed only if the taxpayer files a form required by the commissioner and attaches to the form a copy of an official refund receipt form issued by the candidate or party and signed by the candidate, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee, or the party chair or treasurer, after the contribution was received. The receipt forms must be numbered, and the data on the receipt that are not public must be made available to the ethical practices board upon its request. A claim must be filed with the commissioner not sooner than January 1 of the calendar year in which the contribution is made and no later than April 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the contribution is made. (2) is seeking an office for which voluntary spending limits are specified in section 10A.25 or 10A.43; and

(3) has designated a principal campaign committee.

This subdivision does not limit the campaign expenditure of a candidate who does not sign an agreement but accepts a contribution for which the contributor improperly claims a refund.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "political party" means a major political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, or a minor political party qualifying for inclusion on the income tax or property tax refund form under section 10A.31, subdivision 3a.

A "major or minor party" includes the aggregate of the party organization within each house of the legislature, the state party organization, and the party organization within congressional districts, counties, legislative districts, municipalities, and precincts.

"Candidate" means a congressional candidate as defined in section 10A.41, subdivision 4, or a candidate as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 5, except a candidate for judicial office.

"Contribution" means a gift of money.

(d) The commissioner shall make copies of the form available to the public and candidates upon request.

(e) The following data collected or maintained by the commissioner under this subdivision are private: the identities of individuals claiming a refund, the identities of candidates to whom those individuals have made contributions, and the amount of each contribution.

(f) The commissioner shall report to the ethical practices board by August 1 of each year a summary showing the total number and aggregate amount of political contribution refunds made on behalf of each candidate and each political party. These data are public.

(g) The amount necessary to pay claims for the refund provided in this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 55. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS RATIFIED.]

Payments made by the state treasurer in 1990 under Minnesota Statutes, section 10A.31, subdivision 6, are ratified, notwithstanding any errors of the commissioner of revenue in certifying the amounts due.

Sec. 56. [REPEALER.]

Sec. 57. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

If H.F. No. 1863 is enacted, the revisor of statutes shall code section 6 of H.F. No. 1863 in chapter 10A, not in chapter 471.

“Sec. 28. [144.1492] [STATE RURAL HEALTH NETWORK REFORM INITIATIVE.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE AND MATCHING FUNDS.] The commissioner of health shall apply for federal grant funding under the state rural health network reform initiative, a health care financing administration program to provide grant funds to states to encourage innovations in rural health financing and delivery systems. The commissioner may use state funds appropriated to the department of health for the provision of technical assistance for community integrated service network development as matching funds for the federal grant.

Subd. 2. [USE OF FEDERAL FUNDS.] If the department of health receives federal funding under the state rural health network reform initiative, the department shall use these funds to implement a program to provide technical assistance and grants to rural communities to establish health care networks and to develop and test a rural health network reform model.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS AND CRITERIA FOR AWARDING OF GRANTS TO RURAL COMMUNITIES.] (a) Funding which the department receives to award grants to rural communities to establish health care networks shall be awarded through a request for proposals process. Planning grant funds may be used for community facilitation and initial network development activities including incorporation as a nonprofit organization or cooperative, assessment of network models, and determination of the best fit for the community. Implementation grant funds can be used to enable incorporated nonprofit organizations and cooperatives to purchase technical services needed for further network development such as legal, actuarial, financial, marketing, and administrative services.

(b) In order to be eligible to apply for a planning or implementation grant under the federally funded health care network reform program, an organization must be located in a rural area of Minnesota excluding the seven-county Twin Cities metropolitan area and the census-defined urbanized areas of Duluth, Rochester, St. Cloud, and Moorhead. The proposed network organization must also meet or plan to meet the criteria for a community integrated service network.

(c) In determining which organizations will receive grants, the commissioner may consider the following factors:

(1) the applicant's description of their plans for health care network development, their need for technical assistance, and other technical assistance resources available to the applicant. The applicant must clearly describe the service area to be served by the network, how the grant funds will be used, what will be accomplished, and the expected results. The applicant should describe achievable objectives, a timetable, and roles and capabilities of responsible individuals and organizations;

(2) the extent of community support for the applicant and the health care network. The applicant should demonstrate support from private and public health care providers in the service area, local community and government leaders, and the regional coordinating board for the area. Evidence of such support may include a commitment of financial support, in-kind services, or cash, for development of the network;

(3) the size and demographic characteristics of the population in the service area for the proposed network and the distance of the service area from the nearest metropolitan area; and

(4) the technical assistance resources available to the applicant from nonstate sources and the financial ability of the applicant to purchase technical assistance services with nonstate funds."

A health carrier electing to cease doing business in the individual market shall notify the commissioner 180 days prior to the effective date of the cessation. The cessation of business does not include the failure of a health carrier to offer or issue new business in the individual market or continue an existing product line, provided that a health carrier does not terminate, cancel, or fail to renew its current individual business or other product lines. Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY TASK FORCE.]

The public utilities commission shall appoint a scientific advisory task force for the purpose of conducting a research project that would identify the potential for, and examine the actual effects of current in the earth, originating from the utility distribution systems, on dairy cow production and health. The task force shall be advisory to the commission and consist solely of representatives selected by the commission from the scientific community as described in section 2. The task force may not include representatives from the utilities or other parties with a financial interest in the outcome of the research.

The public utilities commission may only contract with independent researchers to conduct research recommended by the scientific advisory task force. “Independent” is defined as researchers who have not been employed or contracted by, or received funding from, either public or municipal utilities, or cooperative electric associations for purposes of research or investigation of stray voltage.

Sec. 2. [TASK FORCE; MEMBERSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITIES.]

(a) The commission shall appoint a representative from the scientific community to serve as executive director of the task force. The executive director shall provide administrative oversight and direction to the task force in fulfilling its responsibilities under this act. The executive director shall consult with, and make recommendations to, the commission regarding its appointment of task force members.

(b) The task force shall consist of at least five members. The task force shall include members with education and scientific specialties that include, but are not limited to: physics, electrical engineering, animal physiology, veterinary medicine, physiological psychology, soil science specializing in the electrical nature of soil, and epidemiology.

(c) The task force created under this act shall:

(1) review existing information from other sources, including other states and dairy producers or farm organizations, on the use of the earth for carrying current and its effects on animal health and production and on human health;

(2) study the use of the earth for carrying current and its effects on animal health and production;

(3) determine the qualifications of researchers and make recommendations to the public utilities commission on their selection;

(4) explore the availability of nonstate and nonutility funds for new research under clause (2);

(5) recommend, set scope of, and oversee the conduct of new research under clause (2);

(6) submit study results for proper scientific peer review; selection; and

(7) make findings or recommendations regarding potential actions to mitigate or eliminate any effects found from current in the earth on dairy cow production or health.

Sec. 3. [SCHEDULE; REPORTING.]

(a) Before June 30, 1995, the task force shall:

(1) complete the review of existing information under section 2, paragraph (c), clause (1); and

(2) complete items required under section 2, paragraph (c), clauses (3) and (4).

(b) By January 1, 1995, the task force shall recommend to the legislature the design, scope, and estimated cost of the study of the earth for carrying current under section 2, paragraph (c), clause (2).

(c) Before June 30, 1996, the task force shall complete the study required under section 2, paragraph (c), clause (2), upon approval of the legislature based on recommendations presented under paragraph (b).

Sec. 4. [SURVEY OF FACILITIES.]

The public utilities commission shall determine, by survey or questionnaire, or other appropriate methods, the age and condition of electric distribution facilities in the state. The task force shall determine the extent to which these facilities use the earth as a conductor of electric current, whether intentionally or unintentionally, and shall study the risks to dairy animal health and welfare associated with the practice of bonding distribution system conductors to the earth in connection with a study conducted under section 2. The commission may, in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 13, order the production of any records, maps, plans, or any other documents, testimony, or recollections, relating to stray voltage, ground current, or similar phenomenon, of any owner or operator of any distribution facility or any employee of any owner or operator or any other person with knowledge related to the issue of using the earth to conduct electric current.

Sec. 5. [DATA PREPARATION.]

A dairy producer or group of producers receiving funding for data preparation under section 7, shall complete the preparation of its data for review by the task force under section 2, paragraph (c), clause (1), and submit applicable reports and recommendations to the task force within 90 days of receiving financial assistance.

Such information presented for review shall be considered public.

Sec. 6. [STRAY VOLTAGE ASSESSMENT TEAM.]

A stray voltage assessment team shall be formed to deal rapidly with emergency situations possibly associated with the effects of stray voltage. The public utilities commission shall configure an interdisciplinary team to be paid for under contracts for service. The team must be responsive to the individual needs of farmers and address stray voltage problems including assessment of distribution lines. The team may also assist the farmer in farm management. A stray voltage team must include at least one farmer experienced in stray voltage problems.

Sec. 7. [ASSESSMENT.]

To provide funding for the commission's activities under this act, the public utilities commission shall assess a total of up to $750,000 under Minnesota Statutes, section 216B.62, against entities that transmit electric current in the state that are public utilities, cooperative electric associations, or municipal utilities. The assessment must be deposited in the general fund. This is intended to be over and above the amounts already authorized under Minnesota Statutes, section 216B.62, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Laws 1969, chapter 224, section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [Duluth, city of; hospitals.] All rights, powers, and duties of the city of Duluth concerning property and estate donated to or otherwise acquired by the city for the establishment and maintenance of hospitals has for many years been and shall continue to be exercised and discharged by the city through the instrumentality of a board of ~~seven~~ 15 persons called directors of trusts. This purpose has been fulfilled by the establishment of the ~~Miller Memorial~~ Miller-Dwan Hospital which is now owned and operated by the city through the instrumentality of the directors of trusts, in accordance with orders of the district court construing the terms of said donation. To renovate, remodel, and enlarge the existing building and facilities of this hospital, to develop a building program based on present and future community needs for the purpose of re-establishing and thereafter maintaining it as a general hospital, to construct additions, including facilities to be jointly occupied with the ~~St. Louis county health department~~ and other public agencies, and to establish connections with adjoining private rehabilitation facilities serving the public on a nonprofit basis, the directors of trusts are authorized to acquire in the name of the city of Duluth all real and personal property necessary and incidental to such a building program and to the operation, administration, management, and control of the expanded hospital facilities, to enter into all contracts on behalf of the city necessary and incidental to the building program, and to finance the cost thereof, in excess of funds on hand and funds provided by governmental or private grants, by the issuance, with the approval of the Duluth economic development authority, of revenue bonds of the city, and to pledge for the payment and security of such bonds and the interest thereon all or any defined portion of the net revenues of all hospital facilities now and hereafter owned by the city, in excess of the normal, reasonable, and current costs of the operation, administration, and maintenance thereof. The bonds may be issued and sold at such times, upon such notice, if any, in such form and denominations, bearing interest at such rate or rates, maturing on such dates, either without option of prior payment or subject to prepayment upon such notice and at such times and prices, payable at such bank or banks, within or without the state, with such provisions for registration, conversion, and exchange and for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the sale and delivery of definitive bonds, and in accordance with such terms and covenants as the directors of trusts shall establish by resolution, and not subject to the conditions or limitations set forth in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, or any other law; provided that in the event the full faith and credit of the city is pledged to the payment of any series of such bonds, the issuance thereof as proposed in a resolution of the directors of trusts shall be authorized by ~~an ordinance~~ a resolution duly adopted by the city council in accordance with the provisions of the city charter, and the bonds shall not be sold or delivered until and unless ~~such ordinance~~ the resolution has become effective, and shall be sold and secured in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475.

All real estate owned by the city of Duluth for hospital purposes in the name and style of "Miller Memorial Hospital, doing business as Miller-Dwan Medical Center by and through its Directors of Trusts pursuant to Laws 1969, chapter 224" or otherwise, may be sold, conveyed, transferred, or otherwise disposed of by the directors of trusts only after a duly noticed public hearing held before the Duluth city council, and approval of the council evidenced by an ordinance adopted at a meeting held at least seven days after such public hearing. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the transfer of an interest in such real estate that is incidental to the issuance of revenue bonds approved by the Duluth economic development authority under this section.

Sec. 2. Laws 1969, chapter 224, section 2, is amended to read:

If an increase in membership should be made, the new members shall be appointed for terms deemed appropriate by such district judges, but not exceeding six years. These judges, by like ~~concurrent action,~~ shall appoint members to fill out the ~~unexpired term of any member who for any reason ceases to be a member before the expiration of his term.~~ terms of six years. However, beginning with the first vacancy on the board of directors of trusts occurring after the effective date of this act, the Duluth city council shall appoint one of its members to fill the vacancy and shall appoint the successive successors to that initial appointment. Members of the council who are appointed by the council to the board of directors of trusts shall be approved by the judges and serve for a term of six years or until their tenure on the council ends, whichever occurs sooner. Vacancies on the board in positions appointed by the judges occurring before the end of a term must be filled by the judges for the unexpired term in the same manner as used in making full-term appointments. The judges of this district court shall meet and take action upon any of the matters in this section specified, upon call of the senior judge of the district or upon the petition of the mayor or any resident taxpayer of the city. However, the directors of trusts may take any action authorized in this act without prior order of the court.

Sec. 3. Laws 1969, chapter 224, section 3, is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The directors of trusts shall have power to make rules and bylaws for the proper conduct of their business; to appoint and remove from time to time such agents and employees as in their judgment may be required for the proper discharge of their duties; to determine the duties and compensation of all such agents and employees, who may but are not required to be members of the public employees retirement association; to employ legal counsel; to make such contracts and agreements as in their judgment may from time to time be required in the acquisition, betterment, operation, administration, maintenance, control, and management of city hospital facilities, ~~in conformity with the provisions of the city charter and of ordinances enacted by the council relating to the procedure to be followed by the directors of trusts in the award of contracts and the making of purchases, except that the directors of trusts shall designate a person other than the city purchasing agent to act for such purchasing agent in awarding contracts and making purchases; and to do, perform, and discharge all and singular whatever acts and duties are or from time to time may become proper or necessary to be done by the city in discharge of its duties in connection with any use or trust affecting hospital properties. The directors of trusts shall file with the city clerk on or before February 15 of each year a report for the preceding calendar year showing all~~ receipts and disbursements with the sources and purposes thereof, together with a statement of assets under their control and property acquired or disposed of during the year, and such other general information as to the management and control of the trust property as in their judgment is proper. Their official books and records shall be audited at least annually by the state public examiner auditor or by a certified public accountant, as determined by the directors of trusts, notwithstanding the provisions of any law requiring audit of hospital books and records by the state public examiner. If the directors of trusts determine that the hospital books and records shall be audited by a certified public accountant, the directors shall notify the state public examiner that an audit by his office will not be necessary. The report of each such audit shall be filed promptly with the public examiner and the city council. The directors of trusts shall file with the city clerk copies of all financial reports which it is required by law or rule to submit to the state of Minnesota, within seven days of the submission of the report to the state agency receiving the report. The directors of trusts shall also annually file with the city clerk copies of all audit reports of its financial affairs prepared by the state auditor or by a certified public accountant, within 30 days of the completion of the audit report.

The board of directors of trusts is a "public body" for purposes of the open meeting law, Minnesota Statutes, section 471.705. Notwithstanding section 471.705, the board of directors of trusts may meet in closed session to discuss and take action on specific matters involving contracts or marketing activity in cases when the board of directors of trusts are in competition with health care providers that offer similar goods or services, and when the board reasonably believes that the disclosure of information pertaining to those matters would cause harm to the competitive position of the board of directors of trusts. The board of directors of trusts may by a majority vote in a public meeting decide to hold a closed meeting pursuant to the previous sentence. The time of commencement and place of the closed meeting must be announced at the public meeting. A written roll of members present at the closed meeting must be made available to the public after the closed meeting. The proceedings of a closed meeting must be tape recorded at the expense of the board of directors of trusts and preserved by it for two years. The data on the tape are considered nonpublic data pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 13.02, subdivision 9.

S.F. No. 2267: A bill for an act relating to real estate; authorizing title insurance companies governed by chapter 68A, or their appointed agents to discharge, release, or satisfy mortgages; amending Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 507.40.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [507.401] [TITLE INSURANCE COMPANIES; CERTIFICATES OF RELEASE OF MORTGAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(b) "Mortgage" means a mortgage or mortgage lien on an interest in real property in this state given to secure a loan in the original principal amount of $500,000 or less.

(c) "Mortgagee" means:

(1) the grantee of a mortgage; or

(2) if a mortgage has been assigned of record, the last person to whom the mortgage has been assigned of record.

(d) "Mortgage servicer" means the last person to whom a mortgagor or the mortgagor's successor in interest has been instructed by a mortgagee to send payments on a loan secured by a mortgage. A person transmitting a payoff statement is the mortgage servicer for the mortgage described in the payment statement.

(e) "Mortgagor" means the grantor of a mortgage.

(f) "Payoff statement" means a statement of the amount of:

(1) the unpaid balance of a loan secured by a mortgage, including principal, interest, and any other charges properly due under or secured by the mortgage; and

(2) interest on a per day basis for the unpaid balance.

(g) "Record" means to record with the county recorder or file with the registrar of titles.

(h) "Title insurance company" means a corporation or other business entity authorized and licensed to transact the business of insuring titles to interests in real property in this state under chapter 68A.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATE OF RELEASE.] An officer or duly appointed agent of a title insurance company may, on behalf of a mortgagor or a person who acquired from the mortgagor title to all or a part of the property described in a mortgage, execute a certificate of release that complies with the requirements of this section and record the certificate of release in the real property records of each county in which the mortgage is recorded if: (i) a satisfaction or release of the mortgage has not been executed and recorded within 60 days after the date payment in full of the loan secured by the mortgage was sent in accordance with a payoff statement furnished by the mortgagee or the mortgage servicer, and (ii) the title insurance company, its officer, or agent has sent to the last known address of the mortgagee or the mortgage servicer, at least 30 days prior to executing the certificate of release, written notice of its intention to execute and record a certificate of release in accordance with this section after the expiration of the 60-day period.

Subd. 3. [CONTENTS.] A certificate of release executed under this section must contain substantially all of the following:

(1) the name of the mortgagor, the name of the original mortgagee, and, if applicable, the mortgage servicer, the date of the mortgage, the date of recording, and volume and page or document number in the real property records where the mortgage is recorded, together with similar information for the last recorded assignment of the mortgage;

(2) a statement that the mortgage was in the original principal amount of $500,000 or less;

(3) a statement that the person executing the certificate of release is an officer or a duly appointed agent of a title insurance company authorized and licensed to transact the business of insuring titles to interests in real property in this state under chapter 68A;

(4) a statement that the certificate of release is made on behalf of the mortgagor or a person who acquired title from the mortgagor to all or a part of the property described in the mortgage;

(5) a statement that the mortgagee or mortgage servicer provided a payoff statement which was used to make payment in full of the unpaid balance of the loan secured by the mortgage;

(6) a statement that payment in full of the unpaid balance of the loan secured by the mortgage was made in accordance with the written or verbal payoff statement, and received by the mortgagee or mortgage servicer, as evidenced by one or more of the following in the records of the title insurance company or its agent:

(i) a bank check, certified check, escrow account check from the title company or title insurance agent, or attorney trust account check that has been negotiated by the mortgagee or mortgage servicer; or

(ii) other documentary evidence of payment to the mortgagee or mortgage servicer;

(7) a statement that more than 60 days have elapsed since the date payment in full was sent;

(8) a statement that after the expiration of the 60-day period referred to in subdivision 2, the title insurance company, its officer, or agent sent to the last known address of the mortgagee or mortgage servicer, at least 30 days prior to executing the certificate of release, notice in writing of its intention to execute and record a certificate of release in accordance with this section, with an unexecuted copy of the proposed certificate of release attached to the written notice; and

(9) a statement that the title insurance company, its officer, or agent has not received notification in writing of any reason why the certificate of release should not be executed and recorded after the expiration of the 30-day notice period referred to in subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [EXECUTION.] (a) A certificate of release authorized by subdivision 2 must be executed and acknowledged as required by law in the case of a deed and may be executed by a duly appointed agent of a title insurance company, but such delegation to an agent by a title insurance company shall not relieve the title insurance company of any liability for damages caused by its agent for the wrongful or erroneous execution of a certificate of release.

(b) The appointment of agent must be executed and acknowledged as required by law in the case of a deed and must state:

(1) the title insurance company as the grantor;

(2) the identity of the person, partnership, or corporation authorized to act as agent to execute and record certificates of release provided for in this section on behalf of the title insurance company;

(3) that the agent has the full authority to execute and record certificates of release provided for in this section on behalf of the title insurance company;

(4) the term of appointment of the agent; and

(5) that the agent has consented to and accepts the terms of the appointment.

(c) A single appointment of agent may be recorded in each county in each recording or filing office. A separate appointment of agent shall not be necessary for each certificate of release. For registered land the appointment of agent shall be shown as a memorial on each certificate of title on which a mortgage to be released by a certificate of release under this section is a memorial. The appointment of agent may be rerecorded where necessary to establish authority of the agent, but such authority shall continue until a revocation of appointment is recorded in the office of the county recorder, or registrar of titles, where the appointment of agent was recorded.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT.] For purposes of releasing the mortgage, a certificate of release containing the information and statements provided for in subdivision 3 and executed as provided in this section is prima facie evidence of the facts contained in it, is entitled to be recorded with the county recorder or registrar of titles, and operates as a release of the mortgage described in the certificate of release. The county recorder and the registrar of titles shall rely upon it to release the mortgage. Recording of a wrongful or erroneous certificate of release by a title insurance company or its agent shall not relieve the mortgagor, or the mortgagor's successors or assigns, from any personal liability on the loan or other obligations secured by the mortgage. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a title insurance company wrongfully or erroneously recording a certificate of release under this section shall be liable to the mortgagee for actual damage sustained due to the recordings of the certificate of release.

Subd. 6. [RECORDING.] If a mortgage is recorded in more than one county and a certificate of release is recorded in one of them, a certified copy of the certificate of release may be recorded in another county with the same effect as the original. In all cases, the certificate of release shall be entered and indexed as satisfactions of mortgage are entered and indexed.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION.] This section applies only to a mortgage in the original principal amount of $500,000 or less.

Sec. 2. [EXPIRATION.]

Section 1 expires July 31, 1996, but real property released from a mortgage by a certificate of release recorded on or before July 31, 1996 continues to be released after July 31, 1996."

(b) Processors must report quantities of milk processed under paragraph (a) on forms provided by the commissioner. Processor fees must be paid monthly. The commissioner may require the production of records as necessary to determine compliance with this subdivision.

Labeling of dairy products under this section which are offered for sale within this state may also include an indication that the milk used is "farmer certified rBGH-free." Products offered for wholesale or retail sale within this state need not contain any further label information relative to the use of rBGH in milk production. A manufacturer or processor of dairy products for interstate or international sale may apply to the commissioner for additional label compliance approval if that product label contains any reference to rBGH.

(b) The label described in paragraph (a) may appear on the principal display panel, as defined in section 31.01, subdivision 22, of a packaged product, be conspicuously attached to the container of a bulk product, or appear in any advertisement, as defined in section 31.01, subdivision 26, for a product, including radio advertisements or displays or placards posted in retail stores.

(c) Products offered for wholesale or retail sale in this state which contain milk, cream, or any product or by-product of milk or cream, may display a label indicating that the product is produced from cows not treated with rBGH, if the label conforms with labeling requirements of another state for such products.

(d) All labeling or advertising statements relating to rBST must be factually supported. False or misleading statements are prohibited.

Subd. 3. [AFFIDAVIT; RECORDS.] (a) A dairy plant purchasing milk or cream to be used in products labeled pursuant to subdivision 2 shall require an affidavit approved by the commissioner from producers supplying such milk. This affidavit must be signed by the producer or authorized representative and state that all cows used in the producer's dairy operations have not and will not be treated with rBGH, without advanced written notice of at least 30 days to the dairy plant.

(b) Dairy plants shall keep original affidavits on file for a period of not less than two years after receiving written notice from the producer of anticipated rBGH use, as provided in paragraph (a). These affidavits and corresponding records must be made available for inspection by the commissioner. Dairy plants supplying milk or cream to a processor or manufacturer of a product to be labeled pursuant to subdivision 2, for use in that product, shall supply a certification to that processor or manufacturer stating that producers of the supplied milk or cream have executed and delivered affidavits pursuant to paragraph (a).

Subd. 4. [SEPARATION OF NONTREATED COWS AND MILK.] All milk or cream from non-rBGH-treated cows used in manufacturing or processing of products labeled pursuant to subdivision 2, or milk or cream supplied by a producer under an affidavit pursuant to subdivision 3, must be kept fully separate from any other milk or cream through all stages of storage, transportation, and processing until the milk or resulting dairy products are in final packaged form in a properly labeled container. Records of the separation must be kept by the dairy plant and product processor or manufacturer at all stages and made available to the commissioner for inspection.

151.25 [REGISTRATION OF MANUFACTURERS; FEE; PROHIBITIONS.]

The board shall require and provide for the annual registration of every person engaged in manufacturing drugs, medicines, chemicals, or poisons for medicinal purposes, now or hereafter doing business with accounts in this state. WHEREAS, the Special Committee on Ethical Conduct has made the following findings:

1. Sam G. Solon was first elected to the Minnesota House of Representatives in 1970 and was first elected to the Minnesota Senate in 1972.

2. Senator Solon has served well and faithfully the residents of Duluth and Northeast Minnesota since that time.

3. Senator Solon's office has for 20 years been the center of operations for residents of Duluth who are here lobbying the legislature.

4. Senator Solon has allowed the visitors in his office to use the Senate's telephone system to make calls to Duluth.

5. Senator Solon provided the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to his long-time friend and roommate Charles Westin, so that Mr. Westin could call Senator Solon in Duluth when Mr. Westin was in St. Paul.

6. Mr. Westin used the Senate's long-distance telephone access code not only to make calls to Senator Solon but also to make calls from his business office in St. Paul to the offices of the Northeast Minnesota Economic Development Association (NEMDA) in Duluth and to make personal calls from his residence in St. Paul to his family in Duluth, at a combined cost to the Senate of approximately $320.

7. Mr. Westin provided the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to Mr. Don Johnson, a St. Paul resident who was engaged in setting up a business importing products from South Africa and the Virgin Islands.

8. Mr. Westin also escorted Mr. Johnson to Senator Solon's office and told Senator Solon's secretary that Mr. Johnson was authorized to use the Senate telephone system to make calls to South Africa as part of an economic development project.

9. Mr. Johnson, without Senator Solon's actual knowledge or approval, did use the Senate's telephones to make business calls to South Africa and used both the Senate's telephones and the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to make business calls to the Virgin Islands at Senate expense of approximately $1,600.

10. Senator Solon also provided the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to Mr. Ronald Limoseth, his volunteer aide and confidante for more than 20 years, so that Mr. Limoseth could call him at Senate expense to report on legislative matters he was handling for Senator Solon.

11. Mr. Limoseth used the Senate's access code to call Senator Solon not only from Duluth and Northeast Minnesota but also from his winter residence in Pompano Beach, Florida.

12. Mr. Limoseth, without Senator Solon's actual knowledge or approval, gave the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to his wife, Mrs. Constance Limoseth, who used it to make numerous personal calls from their winter home in Pompano Beach, Florida, to her relatives in Maine and California.

13. The calls placed by the Limoseths from Pompano Beach were paid for by the Senate in the approximate amount of $630.

14. Senator Solon also provided the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to Mr. Tom Bergh, Executive Director of the Northeast Minnesota Economic Development Association (NEMDA), a nonprofit organization involved in promoting economic development in Northeast Minnesota, to be used to call Senator Solon at the capitol on legislative business.

15. Calls made by Mr. Bergh were paid for by the Senate in the approximate amount of $450.

16. Senator Solon also provided the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to his son, Chris Solon. Chris Solon did not use the access code.

17. For many years the state telephone directory has contained a warning that "State telephones shall not be used for personal long distance calls."

18. For many years the Senate Administrative Services Directory has contained a warning that "Long distance calls on state telephones are for business only. State telephones are not to be used for personal long distance calls."

19. The calls made by Mr. Westin from St. Paul to his family in Duluth were clearly personal and in no way related to Senate business.

20. The calls made by Mrs. Limoseth from Florida to her relatives in Maine and California were clearly personal and in no way related to Senate business.

21. The calls made by Mr. Johnson to South Africa and the Virgin Islands were for his personal business and in no way related to the business of the Senate.

22. The personal calls made by Charles Westin, Constance Limoseth, and Don Johnson violated the Senate's administrative policy prohibiting the use of Senate telephones for personal long-distance calls.

23. Although the business engaged in by Charles Westin and Tom Bergh to promote economic development in Northeast Minnesota was a proper business, it was not Senate business.

24. The cost of calls made by Charles Westin and Tom Bergh to conduct the business of the Northeast Minnesota Economic Development Association should not have been billed to the Senate.

25. The public disclosure, on and after April 12, 1993, of the uses made of the Senate's long-distance telephone service by Charles Westin, Don Johnson, Ronald Limoseth, Constance Limoseth, and Tom Bergh has brought upon the Senate dishonor and disrepute.

26. A member of the Senate is responsible not only for the member's own conduct but also for the conduct of others to whom the member entrusts the use of Senate property.

27. Senator Solon has accepted full responsibility for the cost of calls made by those to whom he entrusted the Senate long-distance telephone system and long-distance access code. By his personal checks dated April 13, 1993, and May 4, 1993, Senator Solon has made full restitution to the Senate of amounts paid by the Senate for the long-distance calls of Charles Westin, Don Johnson, Ronald Limoseth, Constance Limoseth, and Tom Bergh.

28. On May 12, 1993, Senator Solon publicly apologized to the Senate for the embarrassment, notoriety, and public ridicule that his indiscretion in giving out the Senate's long-distance telephone access number had inflicted upon the Senate.

29. Senator Solon cooperated fully with the investigation of his conduct carried out by the Attorney General, the Ramsey County Attorney, and the Olmsted County Attorney.

30. The Olmsted County Attorney found that there was not evidence to charge Senator Solon with the commission of a crime.

31. None of the calls in question were made by Senator Solon himself or for his personal gain.

32. Following the completion of the criminal investigation, Senator Solon voluntarily submitted himself to the disciplinary authority of the Special Committee on Ethical Conduct.

33. Senator Solon has ceased to allow visitors to his office to use the Senate's long-distance telephone system.

34. Senator Solon has not given his new Senate long-distance telephone access number to anyone, and has pledged not to do so in the future.

35. Senator Solon has ceased to live with Charles Westin.

36. Senator Solon has admitted to the Special Committee on Ethical Conduct that his conduct was inappropriate.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate of the State of Minnesota:

1. That the conduct of Senator Sam G. Solon in providing the Senate's long-distance telephone access code to others was inappropriate.

2. That the conduct of Senator Sam G. Solon in allowing others to use his Senate office and telephone to make calls on their own personal and private business was inappropriate.

3. That Senator Sam G. Solon be required to make restitution and apologize to the Senate, which he has done.

4. That Senator Sam G. Solon be, and hereby is, reprimanded.

Subd. 4a. [CLAIMS BY MIXED MUNICIPAL SOLID WASTE DIS-

POSAL FACILITIES.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), liability under this section for claims by owners or operators of mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities that accept waste on or after April 9, 1994, and are not eligible facilities under section 115B.381, subdivision 5, is limited to liability for response costs exceeding the amount of available financial assurance funds required under section 116.07, subdivision 4h.

(b) This subdivision does not affect liability under this section for claims based on the illegal disposal of waste at a facility.

CLEANUP OF CLOSED LANDFILLS

Sec. 2. [115B.381] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] In addition to the definitions in this section, the definitions in sections 115A.03 and 115B.02 apply to sections 115B.382 to 115B.44.

Subd. 2. [ACCEPTED FACILITY.] "Accepted facility" means a facility that has been accepted under section 4, subdivision 3 or 4, or has been acquired under section 4, subdivision 5, paragraph (b), clause (4).

Subd. 3. [CLOSURE.] "Closure" means actions to prevent or minimize the threat to public health and the environment posed by a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility that has stopped accepting waste, including removing contaminated equipment; applying final cover, grading and seeding final cover; installing wells, borings, and other monitoring devices; constructing groundwater and surface water diversion structures; and installing gas control systems and site security measures, as necessary. Final cover may include processed materials meeting the requirements in Code of Federal Regulations, title 40, section 503.32, paragraph (a).

Subd. 4. [DECOMPOSITION GASES.] "Decomposition gases" means gases produced by chemical or microbial activity during the decomposition of solid waste.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE FACILITY.] "Eligible facility" means a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility that:

- (1) has been issued a permit by the agency; and
- (2) stopped accepting waste before April 9, 1994.

Subd. 6. [EXCLUDED FACILITY.] "Excluded facility" means an eligible facility that has been accepted by the commissioner as an excluded facility under section 115B.384.

Subd. 7. [POSTCLOSURE; POSTCLOSURE CARE.] "Postclosure" or "postclosure care" means actions taken for the care, maintenance, and monitoring of a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility following site closure.

Subd. 8. [RESPONSE ACTION.] "Response action" means environmental studies, engineering, and site construction activities related to preventing, minimizing, or eliminating releases to the environment from an eligible facility.

Sec. 3. [115B.382] [LIMITATION ON LIABILITY AT ALL ELIGIBLE FACILITIES.]

(a) Except as provided in section 115B.386, there is no liability under section 115B.04 or 115B.05 for a person who is a responsible person under section 115B.03, subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c), with respect to a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from any eligible facility.

(b) The commissioner shall publish a list of all eligible facilities by September 1, 1994.

Sec. 4. [115B.383] [REQUIREMENTS FOR ELIGIBLE FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) An owner or operator of an eligible facility shall:

(1) by March 1, 1995, enter into a binding agreement with the commissioner to do the following prior to acceptance of the facility under this section:

(i) transfer to the state legal title to the property described in subdivision 2;

(ii) transfer any financial assurance funds required under section 116.07, subdivision 4h, that remain in the financial assurance accounts for the facility after facility closure and any postclosure care and contingency action undertaken under clause (4) to the commissioner of revenue to be credited to the landfill cleanup account established in section 115B.42, or, if financial assurance is provided through a letter of credit, pay to the commissioner of revenue the amount that would have accumulated had financial assurance been provided through a trust fund, less amounts paid or required to be paid for closure, postclosure, and contingency action under clauses (2) and (4);

(2) complete required closure activities at the facility in accordance with the terms of the facility's permit, any applicable closure orders or enforcement agreements with the agency, and the solid waste rules in effect at the time the facility stopped accepting waste;

(3) by March 1, 1995, send the commissioner a copy of all applicable comprehensive general liability insurance policies, certificates, or other evidence of insurance coverage held during the life of the facility; take any actions necessary to preserve the owner or operator's rights to payment or defense under the policies; cooperate with the commissioner in asserting claims; and assign all rights under the policies to the commissioner; and

(4) until notification of acceptance is received under subdivision 3 or 4, continue to comply with all applicable postclosure care and contingency action requirements.

(b) At eligible facilities where response actions are being undertaken by a group of responsible persons, the actions in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (4), may be completed by the responsible persons.

(c) The commissioner shall maintain separate accounting for each eligible facility regarding:

(1) the amount of financial assurance funds transferred under paragraph (a), clause (1), item (ii); and

(2) costs of response actions taken at the facility.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY TO BE TRANSFERRED TO STATE.] The property that must be transferred under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (i), is the entire property described in the most recent solid waste permit for the eligible facility, along with any easements, licenses, or other property interests owned by the owner or operator that are necessary for response actions at the facility, except:

(1) an operating waste disposal facility on the property that is permitted by the agency or for which application for a permit was made by March 1, 1994, if the fill boundary of the facility is at least 200 feet from the fill boundary of the eligible facility;

(2) land and buildings associated with facilities on the property, other than operating waste disposal facilities, that the commissioner determines are reasonably necessary for continued operation of the facilities and are not located within the fill boundary of the eligible facility;

(3) any other land the commissioner determines will not be necessary for the long-term care of the eligible facility and any anticipated response actions at the facility; and

(4) land that the owner or operator before January 1, 1994, agreed to transfer to a local unit of government and that was not used for placement of waste. Transfer of this land must be made contemporaneously with the transfer under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (i).

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION AND EARLY ACCEPTANCE.] (a) By January 1, 1995, the commissioner shall:

(1) certify as accepted those eligible facilities that:

(i) the commissioner determines have met the requirements of subdivision 1 as of March 1, 1995; and

(ii) have transferred the property described in subdivision 2 and the financial assurance funds described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (ii); and

(2) notify the owners or operators of eligible facilities that are not certified under clause (1) that the owner or operator must complete all requirements under subdivision 1 by August 1, 1995, or execute a binding agreement with the commissioner by August 1, 1995, that provides for completion of those requirements.

(b) In cases where an owner or operator of an eligible facility applied for exclusion by March 1, 1995, and is subsequently notified by the commissioner that the facility did not qualify for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator that within 60 days the owner or operator must complete the requirements of subdivision 1 or execute a binding agreement with the commissioner that provides for completion of those requirements.

Subd. 4. [ACCEPTANCE OF OTHER FACILITIES.] For facilities not accepted under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (1), within 60 days following the applicable date under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), or paragraph (b), for completion of the requirements in subdivision 1, the commissioner shall evaluate the status of the facility and shall accept a facility that has satisfied the conditions of subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [DEFAULT.] (a) Any of the following conditions constitutes grounds for the commissioner to declare an owner or operator in default:

(1) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has not entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner as required under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), the owner's or operator's failure to complete the requirements in subdivision 1 by August 1, 1995;

(2) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has not entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner as required under subdivision 3, paragraph (b), the owner or operator's failure to complete the requirements in subdivision 1 within 60 days of being notified under that paragraph; or

(3) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), or paragraph (b), the owner's or operator's failure to complete any of the terms of the binding agreement by the negotiated completion date.

(b) If an owner or operator is declared to be in default under paragraph (a), the commissioner shall:

(1) deny future permits or licenses, including renewal of existing permits or licenses, to operate a solid waste business;

(2) complete closure, postclosure, and any other necessary actions described in subdivision 8 at the facility and seek recovery of the costs under section 115B.17, subdivision 6;

(3) file liens under subdivision 6; and

(4) acquire, by eminent domain under chapter 117, the property described in the most recent permit issued by the agency for the facility, and subtract from any amount awarded the owner the commissioner's costs of closure, postclosure care, and response actions at the facility.

Subd. 6. [LIENS.] (a) The following constitute liens in favor of the state upon any real property, other than homestead property, owned by the owner or operator that is located in the state:

(1) all expenses, including expenses related to seeking cost recovery, incurred by the commissioner under subdivision 5, paragraph (b), clause (2); and

(2) all expenses incurred by responsible persons other than the owner or operator that are subject to reimbursement under section 115B.44.

(b) For the purpose of determining the amount of a lien under paragraph (a), clause (1), the commissioner shall calculate postclosure care expenses and response action costs that will be incurred in the future and discount that amount to present value.

(c) A lien under paragraph (a), clause (1), attaches when expenses are first incurred by the commissioner. A lien under paragraph (a), clause (2), attaches when the facility is declared to be in default under subdivision 5.

(d) A lien under this subdivision continues until it is satisfied or becomes unenforceable as for an environmental lien under section 514.672. Notice, filing, and release of a lien under this subdivision are governed by sections 514.671 to 514.676, except where those requirements are specific to cleanup action expenses only. Relative priority of a lien under this subdivision is governed by section 514.672, except that a lien attached to property that was included in a permit for a solid waste disposal facility takes precedence over all other liens regardless of when these liens were or are perfected. Amounts received to satisfy all or part of a lien under this subdivision must be deposited in the landfill cleanup account.

Subd. 7. [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE AND LIABILITY.] (a) Except as provided in section 115B.386, sections 115B.04 and 115B.05 do not apply to environmental response or liability for environmental response at an eligible facility that is accepted under this section.

(b) The state shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless a responsible person from liability for response costs under the Federal Superfund Act at an accepted facility.

Subd. 8. [RESPONSE TO RELEASES.] The commissioner shall conduct or contract for postclosure care at accepted facilities and take any removal or remedial action, including emergency action, related to a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant, or decomposition gas from an accepted facility that the commissioner finds necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. The commissioner may undertake detailed studies to determine the necessary response actions at individual facilities. To avoid duplication and increase administrative efficiency, the commissioner shall develop general work plans that can replace those provisions of the detailed studies that apply to facilities with similar characteristics. Before making a final determination of appropriate response actions for a facility, the commissioner shall hold at least one public informational meeting near the facility and provide for receiving and responding to comments related to the determination. The commissioner shall design, implement, and provide oversight of response actions consistent with a final determination made under this subdivision.

Subd. 9. [PRIORITY LIST.] For the purpose of preventing or responding to releases of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or decomposition gases at eligible facilities, the commissioner shall establish a priority list for eligible facilities. The list must be based on the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facility, the potential for direct human contact, and the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems. The list must be established by January 1, 1995, and must be updated to reflect inclusion of additional eligible facilities and changing conditions at the facilities that affect priority for response actions.

Subd. 10. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Upon request by the commissioner, a person whom the commissioner has reason to believe has or may obtain information related to the ownership or operation of an eligible facility, or to the generation, composition, transportation, treatment, or disposal of waste in an eligible facility, shall furnish to the commissioner any information that is relevant to a release or threatened release at an eligible facility.

Subd. 11. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The commissioner, on presentation of credentials, and at reasonable business hours, may:

(1) examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda, or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the agency under subdivision 10; and

(2) enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking action authorized by this section, including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 10, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking response action.

Subd. 12. [ACQUISITION AND DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.] The commissioner may acquire and dispose of other property, including easements and other forms of access to property, under section 115B.17, subdivisions 15 and 16, that the commissioner finds necessary for response actions related to an eligible facility.

Subd. 13. [INSURANCE.] The commissioner may conduct investigations to identify responsible persons at accepted facilities. At the commissioner's request, a responsible person identified under this subdivision shall provide the commissioner with a copy of all applicable comprehensive general liability insurance policies, certificates, or other evidence of insurance coverage held while the person engaged in actions making the person a potential responsible person; take any actions necessary to preserve the person's rights to payment or defense under the policies; cooperate with the commissioner in asserting claims; and assign all rights under the policies to the commissioner.

Subd. 14. [PURSUIT OF ASSIGNED INSURANCE CLAIMS.] The attorney general shall vigorously pursue all available insurance claims under rights assigned under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (3), and subdivision 13 and may contract for legal services for this purpose. All money recovered under this subdivision must be credited to the landfill cleanup account.

Sec. 5. [115B.384] [EXCLUDED FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION PROCEDURE.] Applications from eligible facilities requesting exclusion must be received by the commissioner by February 1, 1995. The owner or operator of an eligible facility that is subject to an enforcement order under section 106 of the Federal Superfund Act, as amended, may not apply for exclusion under this section. In addition to other information required by the commissioner, an application must include a disclosure of all financial assurance accounts established for the facility. Applications for exclusion shall meet the following criteria:

(1) be timely and complete;

(2) show that the operator or owner is complying with an approved financial assurance plan for the facility that is adequate to provide for closure, postclosure care, and contingency action and is complying with the agency's rules adopted under section 116.07, subdivision 4h; and

(3) demonstrate that the facility is closed or is in compliance with a closure schedule approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [EVALUATION OF EXCLUSION STATUS.] Within 60 days after the commissioner has received an application for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator if the facility has been accepted as an excluded facility. If the commissioner finds that the facility does not satisfy the requirements for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator of that fact.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTION ON USE OF PROPERTY AT EXCLUDED FACILITIES.] (a) A person may not use any property described in the most recent agency permit issued for an excluded facility in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(1) is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(2) is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

(b) Before any transfer of ownership of property described in paragraph (a), the owner must obtain approval from the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve a transfer if the owner can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that persons and property will not be exposed to undue risk from releases of hazardous substances or pollutants or contaminants.

(c) After obtaining approval from the commissioner, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing a legal description of the property that discloses to any potential transferee:

(1) that the land has been used as a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility;

(2) the identity, quantity, location, condition, and circumstances of the disposal and any release of hazardous substances or pollutants or contaminants from the facility to the full extent known or reasonably ascertainable; and

(3) that the use of the property or some portion of it may be restricted as provided in paragraph (a).

(d) An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under paragraph (c), clauses (1) to (3), with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded. If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the waste from the facility together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record an affidavit indicating the removal. Failure to record an affidavit as provided in this paragraph does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

(e) The county recorder shall record all affidavits presented in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d). The affidavits must be recorded in a manner that will ensure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [CLOSURE.] If the commissioner determines that the owner or operator of an excluded facility did not complete the terms of an approved closure plan by the date in the plan, the commissioner shall complete closure at the facility and seek cost recovery under section 115B.17, subdivision 6.

Sec. 6. [115B.385] [ENFORCEMENT.]

Sections 115B.383, subdivisions 10 and 11, and 115B.384, subdivision 3, are enforceable under sections 115.071 and 116.072.

Sec. 7. [115B.386] [ILLEGAL ACTIONS AT ELIGIBLE FACILITIES.]

The commissioner may recover under section 115B.17, subdivision 6, that portion of the costs of a response action at any eligible facility attributable to a person who otherwise would be responsible for the release or threatened release under section 115B.03, and whose actions related to the release or threatened release were in violation of federal or state hazardous waste management laws in effect at the time of those actions. The commissioner's determination of the portion of the costs of a response action attributable to a person under this section, based on the volume and toxicity of waste in the facility associated with the person and other factors reasonably related to the contribution of the person to a release or threatened release, is prima facie evidence that those costs are attributable to the person.

Sec. 8. [115B.387] [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

The commissioner shall establish an advisory committee whose duty is to recommend procedures for implementing the landfill cleanup program. The committee may not have more than 13 members. The membership must provide statewide representation of a cross section of interests, including land disposal facility owners and operators, local governments, businesses, environmental groups, and the general citizenry.

Sec. 9. [115B.388] [MANAGEMENT AND DISPOSAL OF ACQUIRED PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. ARTICLE 2

LANDFILL CLEANUP FUNDING

Section 1. [115B.45] [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT FOR INSURERS.]

In full satisfaction of any rights assigned to the state under section

115B.383, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (3), or subdivision 13, an insurer may tender to the commissioner before January 1, 1998, the voluntary buy-out amount calculated under section 115B.47. In consideration of the amount tendered to the commissioner, an insurer shall receive from the state the release and indemnification provided by section 115B.46. Any amounts received by the commissioner must be credited to the landfill cleanup account.

Sec. 2. [115B.46] [RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION.]

In consideration for receiving the voluntary buy-out amount calculated under section 115B.47, the state shall release, acquit, and forever discharge the insurer from all liability the insurer has, had, or may have, including but not limited to all claims and policy obligations of any kind or nature under its policies of insurance imposed under the Federal Superfund Act or this chapter at the accepted facility. The state further agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the insurer from all other claims, demands, actions, and causes of action, and from all damages, injuries, losses, contributions, indemnities, compensation, costs, attorneys fees, and other expenses of any kind, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, whether in law or in equity, whether asserted or unasserted, whether sounding in tort or in contract, arising out of the liabilities under the Federal Superfund Act or section 115B.05 at an accepted facility.

Sec. 3. [115B.47] [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT AMOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION.] The voluntary buy-out amount for an insurer must be calculated in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT SHARE.] An insurer's unadjusted voluntary buy-out share is equal to that insurer's combined Minnesota written premium for the commercial multiperil line of insurance for calendar years 1970 through 1985, the liability other than auto line for calendar years 1970 and 1971, and the miscellaneous liability line for calendar years 1972 through 1985, as defined by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' annual statement instructions during the applicable periods, divided by the aggregate written premium for all insurers for these lines during these same time periods. The commissioner of commerce shall calculate the unadjusted shares for individual insurers from data published by A.M. Best for the applicable periods. The commissioner shall advise each insurer with an unadjusted share calculated pursuant to this subdivision of the amount of their unadjusted share. The commissioner shall also request from the insurers data to support an adjustment under subdivision 3 and any credits under subdivision 5. The commissioner shall so advise insurers by May 1, 1996.

Subd. 3. [ADJUSTMENTS.] An insurer may adjust its share by providing the commissioner of commerce with evidence that the insurer's Minnesota written premium liability other than auto written premium for calendar years 1970 and 1971 and miscellaneous liability for calendar years 1972 through 1985 included professional or medical malpractice insurance written premiums. The evidence may be provided by written documents or electronically imaged and reproduced documents, contemporaneous with the period of the adjustment, reflecting the insurer's professional or medical malpractice insurance written premium for these periods. The evidence may include an affidavit from an officer of the insurer testifying to the veracity of the data. An insurer's share must be adjusted by the amount of the insurer's professional or medical malpractice insurance Minnesota written premium for calendar years 1970 through 1985 subtracted from the insurer's aggregate liability other than auto and miscellaneous liability written premium for calendar years 1970 through 1985. The commissioner of commerce shall reduce the aggregate liability other than auto and miscellaneous liability written premium for all insurers by the amount of total adjustments for all insurers under this subdivision prior to the final calculation of each insurer's share. The commissioner shall recalculate each insurer's share using the method provided in subdivision 1 subject to the adjustment provided by this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY CALCULATION.] The calculation of an insurer's preliminary voluntary buy-out amount must be equal to the multiplication of an insurer's adjusted share by the difference between $300,000,000 and any amounts received by the state from a federal insurance trust fund.

Subd. 5. [CREDITS.] An insurer may receive a credit of 25 percent for each of the calendar years 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973 that the insurer can demonstrate that sudden and accidental qualified pollution exclusions were endorsed to or included in its comprehensive general liability insurance policies issued during these years. An insurer may demonstrate that the exclusions were endorsed to the policies by providing the commissioner of commerce with an affidavit from an officer or former officer testifying as to the business practice of the insurer during the year or years in question. An insurer may obtain a 25 percent credit for each of the years 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973 that the exclusions were endorsed to or included in these policies.

Subd. 6. [FINAL CALCULATION.] An insurer's voluntary buy-out amount is equal to the amount calculated under subdivision 4 for the insurer, less the amount of credits for the insurer under subdivision 5. The commissioner of commerce shall notify each insurer of its buy-out amount calculated under this section by September 30, 1996.

Subd. 7. [NONPUBLIC DATA.] All information obtained by the commissioner of commerce from insurers under this section is nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9.

Subd. 8. [HEARING.] An insurer who disagrees with the calculation of its voluntary buy-out amount may request that the commissioner of commerce reconsider an insurer requesting reconsideration shall supply the commissioner with information that supports the insurer's position within 30 days of receipt of the notification under subdivision 6. The commissioner shall reconsider the insurer's calculation based upon the information supplied within 30 days of receipt of the information. An insurer may appeal the decision of the commissioner as a contested case under chapter 14.

Subd. 9. [MINIMUM AMOUNT.] An insurer's voluntary buy-out amount may not be less than $100,000.

Subd. 10. [RULES.] The commissioner of commerce may adopt rules to implement this section.

Existing once-through systems are required to convert to water efficient alternatives within the design life of existing equipment. ~~The commissioner shall, by August 1, 1990, submit to the legislative water commission for review the approach by which the commissioner will achieve appropriate conversion of the systems after considering the age of the system, the condition of the system, recent investments in the system, and feasibility and costs of alternatives available to replace usage of a once-through system.~~

(c) Paragraph (b) does not apply where groundwater appropriated for use in a once-through system is subsequently discharged into a wetland or public waters wetland owned or leased by a nonprofit corporation if:

- (1) the membership of the corporation includes a local government unit;
- (2) the deed or lease requires that the area containing the wetland or public waters wetland be maintained as a nature preserve;
- (3) public access is allowed consistent with the area's status as a nature preserve; and
- (4) by January 1, 2003, the permittee incurs costs of developing the nature preserve and associated facilities that, when discounted to 1992 dollars, exceed twice the projected cost, as determined by the commissioner, of the conversion required in paragraph (b), discounted to 1992 dollars.

The costs incurred under clause (4) may include preparation of plans and designs; site preparation; construction of wildlife habitat structures; planting of trees and other vegetation; installation of signs and markers; design and construction of trails, docks, and access structures; and design and construction of interpretative facilities. Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 103H.201, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] (a) If groundwater quality monitoring results show that there is a degradation of groundwater, the commissioner of health may promulgate health risk limits under subdivision 2 for substances degrading the groundwater.

(b) Health risk limits shall be determined by two methods depending on their toxicological end point.

(c) For systemic toxicants that are not carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived using United States Environmental Protection Agency risk assessment methods using a reference dose, a drinking water equivalent, ~~an uncertainty factor, and a factor for relative source contamination, which in general will measure an estimate of daily exposure to the human population, including sensitive subgroups, that is unlikely to result in deleterious effects during long-term exposure contribution factor.~~

(d) For toxicants that are known or probable carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived from a quantitative estimate of the chemical's carcinogenic potency published by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's ~~carcinogen assessment group~~ Agency and determined by the commissioner to have undergone thorough scientific review.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 103H.201, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Before a recommended allowable limit is adopted as an adopted health risk limit under this subdivision, the commissioner shall:

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 103I.205, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION REQUIRED.] (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e), a person may not construct a well until a notification of the proposed well on a form prescribed by the commissioner is filed with the commissioner with the filing fee in section 103I.208. If after filing the well notification an attempt to construct a well is unsuccessful, a new notification is not required unless the information relating to the successful well has substantially changed.

(b) The property owner, the property owner's agent, or the well contractor where a well is to be located must file the well notification with the commissioner.

(c) The well notification under this subdivision preempts local permits and notifications, and counties or home rule charter or statutory cities may not require a permit or notification for wells unless the commissioner has delegated the permitting or notification authority under section 103I.111.

(d) A person who is an individual that constructs a drive point well on property owned or leased by the individual for farming or agricultural purposes or as the individual's place of abode must notify the commissioner of the installation and location of the well. The person must complete the notification form prescribed by the commissioner and mail it to the commissioner by ten days after the well is completed. A fee may not be charged for the notification. A person who sells drive point wells at retail must provide buyers with notification forms and informational materials including requirements regarding wells, their location, construction, and disclosure. The commissioner must provide the notification forms and informational materials to the sellers.

(e) A person may not construct a monitoring well or dewatering well until a permit is issued by the commissioner for the construction. If after obtaining a permit an attempt to construct a well is unsuccessful, a new permit is not required as long as the initial permit is modified to indicate the location of the successful well.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 103I.208, is amended to read:

103I.208 [WELL NOTIFICATION FILING FEES AND PERMIT FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [WELL NOTIFICATION FEE.] The well notification fee to be paid by a property owner is:

(1) for a new well drilled that produces less than 50 gallons a minute based on the actual capacity of the pump installed, ~~$50~~ $100; and

(2) for a new well that produces 50 gallons a minute or more based on the actual capacity of the pump installed, $100; and

(3) for construction of a dewatering well, $100 for each well except a dewatering project comprising five or more wells shall be assessed a single fee of $500 for the wells recorded on the notification.

Subd. 2. [PERMIT FEE.] The permit fee to be paid by a property owner is:

(1) for a well that is not in use under a maintenance permit, ~~$50~~ $100 annually;

(2) for construction of a monitoring well, ~~$50~~ $100;

(3) for a monitoring well that is unsealed under a maintenance permit, ~~$50~~ $100 annually;

(4) for monitoring wells used as a leak detection device at a single motor fuel retail outlet or petroleum bulk storage site excluding tank farms, the construction permit fee is ~~$50~~ $100 per site regardless of the number of wells constructed on the site, and the annual fee for a maintenance permit for unsealed monitoring wells is ~~$50~~ $100 per site regardless of the number of monitoring wells located on site;

(5) for a groundwater thermal exchange device, in addition to the notification fee for wells, ~~$50~~ $100;

(6) for a vertical heat exchanger, ~~$50~~ $100;

(7) for construction of the dewatering well, $50 for each well except a dewatering project comprising more than ten wells shall be issued a single permit for the wells recorded on the permit for $500; and

(8) (7) for a dewatering well that is unsealed under a maintenance permit, ~~$25~~ $100 annually for each well, except a dewatering project comprising more than ten five wells shall be issued a single permit for ~~$250~~ $500 annually for wells recorded on the permit.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 103I.235, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE OF WELLS TO BUYER.] (a) Before signing an agreement to sell or transfer real property, the seller must disclose in writing to the buyer information about the status and location of all known wells on the property, by delivering to the buyer either a statement by the seller that the seller does not know of any wells on the property, or a disclosure statement indicating the legal description and county, and a map drawn from available information showing the location of each well to the extent practicable. In the disclosure statement, the seller must indicate, for each well, whether the well is in use, not in use, or sealed.

(b) At the time of closing of the sale, the disclosure statement information, name and mailing address of the buyer, and the quartile, section, township, and range in which each well is located must be provided on a well disclosure certificate signed by the seller or a person authorized to act on behalf of the seller.

(c) A well disclosure certificate need not be provided if the seller does not know of any wells on the property and the deed or other instrument of conveyance contains the statement: "The Seller certifies that the Seller does not know of any wells on the described real property."

(d) If a deed is given pursuant to a contract for deed, the well disclosure certificate required by this subdivision shall be signed by the buyer or a person authorized to act on behalf of the buyer. If the buyer knows of no wells on the property, a well disclosure certificate is not required if the following statement appears on the deed followed by the signature of the grantee or, if there is more than one grantee, the signature of at least one of the grantees: "The Grantee certifies that the Grantee does not know of any wells on the described real property." The statement and signature of the grantee may be on the front or back of the deed or on an attached sheet and an acknowledgment of the statement by the grantee is not required for the deed to be recordable.

(e) This subdivision does not apply to the sale, exchange, or transfer of real property:

(1) that consists solely of a sale or transfer of severed mineral interests; or

(2) that consists of an individual condominium unit as described in chapters 515 and 515A.

(f) For an area owned in common under chapter 515 or 515A the association or other responsible person must report to the commissioner by July 1, 1992, the location and status of all wells in the common area. The association or other responsible person must notify the commissioner within 30 days of any change in the reported status of wells.

(g) For real property sold by the state under section 92.67, the lessee at the time of the sale is responsible for compliance with this subdivision.

(h) If the seller fails to provide a required well disclosure certificate, the buyer, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the buyer, may sign a well disclosure certificate based on the information provided on the disclosure statement required by this section or based on other available information.

(i) A county recorder or registrar of titles may not record a deed or other instrument of conveyance dated after October 31, 1990, for which a certificate of value is required under section 272.115, or any deed or other instrument of conveyance dated after October 31, 1990, from a governmental body exempt from the payment of state deed tax, unless the deed or other instrument of conveyance contains the statement made in accordance with paragraph (c) or (d) or is accompanied by the well disclosure certificate containing all the information required by paragraph (b) or (d). The county recorder or registrar of titles must not accept a certificate unless it contains all the required information. The county recorder or registrar of titles shall note on each deed or other instrument of conveyance accompanied by a well disclosure certificate that the well disclosure certificate was received. The notation must include the statement "No wells on property" if the disclosure certificate states there are no wells on the property. The well disclosure certificate shall not be filed or recorded in the records maintained by the county recorder or registrar of titles. After noting "No wells on property" on the deed or other instrument of conveyance, the county recorder or registrar of titles shall destroy or return to the buyer the well disclosure certificate. The county recorder or registrar of titles shall collect from the buyer or the person seeking to record a deed or other instrument of conveyance, a fee of ~~$10~~ $20 for receipt of a completed well disclosure certificate. By the tenth day of each month, the county recorder or registrar of titles shall transmit the well disclosure certificates to the commissioner of health. By the tenth day after the end of each calendar quarter, the county recorder or registrar of titles shall transmit to the commissioner of health ~~$7.50~~ $17.50 of the fee for each well disclosure certificate received during the quarter. The commissioner shall maintain the well disclosure certificate for at least six years. The commissioner may store the certificate as an electronic image. A copy of that image shall be as valid as the original.

(j) No new well disclosure certificate is required under this subdivision if the buyer or seller, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the buyer or seller, certifies on the deed or other instrument of conveyance that the status and number of wells on the property have not changed since the last previously filed well disclosure certificate. The following statement, if followed by the signature of the person making the statement, is sufficient to comply with the certification requirement of this paragraph: "I am familiar with the property described in this instrument and I certify that the status and number of wells on the described real property have not changed since the last previously filed well disclosure certificate." The certification and signature may be on the front or back of the deed or on an attached sheet and an acknowledgment of the statement is not required for the deed or other instrument of conveyance to be recordable.

(k) The commissioner in consultation with county recorders shall prescribe the form for a well disclosure certificate and provide well disclosure certificate forms to county recorders and registrars of titles and other interested persons.

(l) Failure to comply with a requirement of this subdivision does not impair:

(1) the validity of a deed or other instrument of conveyance as between the parties to the deed or instrument or as to any other person who otherwise would be bound by the deed or instrument; or

(2) the record, as notice, of any deed or other instrument of conveyance accepted for filing or recording contrary to the provisions of this subdivision.

“Section 1. [518.551] [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS FOR CHILD AND MEDICAL SUPPORT ORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) An administrative process is established to obtain, modify, and enforce child and medical support orders and maintenance.

(b) Effective July 1, 1994, all counties shall participate in the administrative process established in this section in accordance with a statewide implementation plan to be set forth by the commissioner of human services. The implementation plan shall include provisions for training the counties by region no later than July 1995.

Subd. 2. [UNCONTESTED ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING.] (a) All actions commenced by the public authority under this section shall be brought within the uncontested administrative proceeding. A party may petition the chief administrative law judge, the chief district court judge, or the chief family court referee to proceed immediately to a contested hearing upon good cause shown. A party may also request in writing that the public authority begin an uncontested administrative proceeding.

(b) The public authority shall give the parties written notice requesting the submission of information necessary for the public authority to prepare a proposed child support order. The written notice shall be sent by first-class mail to the parties' last known addresses. The written notice shall describe the information requested, state the purpose of the request, state the date by which the information must be postmarked or received (which shall be at least 30 days from the date of the mailing of the written notice), state that if the information is not postmarked or received by that date, the public authority will prepare a proposed order on the basis of the information available, and identify the type of information which will be considered.

(c) Following the submission of information or following the date when the information was due, the public authority shall, on the basis of all information available, complete and sign a proposed child support order and notice. In preparing the proposed child support order, the public authority will establish child support in the highest amount permitted under section 518.551, subdivision 5. The proposed order shall include written findings in accordance with section 518.551, subdivision 5, clauses (i) and (j). The notice shall state that the proposed child support order will be entered as a final and binding default order unless one of the parties requests a conference under subdivision 3 within 14 days following the date of service of the proposed child support order. The method for requesting the conference shall be stated in the notice. The notice and proposed child support order shall be served either personally or by certified mail. The public authority shall prepare and retain an affidavit of service. For the purposes of the contested hearing, and notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, the service of the proposed order pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to have commenced a civil action and the judge, including an administrative law judge or a referee, shall have jurisdiction over the contested hearing.

(d) If a conference under subdivision 3 is not requested by a party within 14 days after the date of service of the proposed child support order, the public authority may enter the proposed order as the default order. The default order becomes effective 30 days after the date of service of the notice in paragraph (c). The public authority may also prepare and serve a new notice and proposed child support order if new information is subsequently obtained. The order is effective upon the signature by the court and is retroactive to the date of signature by the public authority.

(f) If a party requests an administrative review, and the public authority denies the request, the public authority shall issue a summary order which denies the request for relief, states the reasons for the denial, and notifies the person of the right to commence an action for relief. If the party commences an action within 30 days from the public authority's denial and the party's action results in a modification of a child support order, the modification may be retroactive to the date the written request was received by the public authority.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] (a) If a party requests a conference within 14 days of the date of service of the proposed order, the public authority shall schedule a conference, and shall serve written notice of the date, time, and place of the conference on the parties.

The notice shall state the purpose of the conference, and that the proposed child support order will be entered as a final and binding default order if the requesting party fails to appear at the conference. The notice shall be served on the parties by first-class mail at their last known addresses, and the method of service shall be documented in the public authority file.

(c) A party alleging domestic abuse by the other party shall not be required to participate in a conference. In such a case, the public authority shall meet separately with the parties in order to determine whether an agreement can be reached.

(d) If the party requesting the conference does not appear and fails to provide a reasonable excuse, the public authority may enter a default child support order through the uncontested administrative process.

(e) If the parties appear at the conference, the public authority may seek agreement of the parties to the entry of a consent child support order which establishes child support in accordance with applicable law. The public authority shall advise the parties that if a consent order is not entered, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing before an administrative law judge, or a district court judge or referee, and that the public authority will seek the establishment of child support at the hearing in accordance with the highest amount permitted under section 518.551, subdivision 5. The public authority shall schedule the matter before an administrative law judge, district court judge, or referee.

(f) If an agreement is reached by the parties at the conference, a consent child support order shall be prepared by the public authority, and shall be signed by the parties. All consent and default orders shall be signed by the public authority and shall be submitted to an administrative law judge or the district court for countersignature. The consent order shall be served on the parties either personally or by first-class mail, and shall be filed in district court, along with an affidavit of service.

Subd. 4. [CONTESTED ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING.] (a) The commissioner of human services is authorized to designate counties that are not in compliance with federal child support guidelines to use contested administrative proceedings. The contested administrative hearing process may also be initiated upon request of a county board. The administrative hearing process shall be implemented in counties designated by the commissioner.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall prevent a party, upon timely notice to the public authority, from bringing a motion for the establishment, modification, or enforcement of child support or maintenance orders in district court if additional issues involving domestic abuse, establishment or modification of custody or visitation, or property issues, or other issues outside the jurisdiction of the administrative process, are part of the motion or action, or if a motion or action brought by another party containing one or more of these issues is pending in district court. The matter may be decided in district court if the public authority is a party or provides services to a party if a motion for child support is pending in court.

(c) Contested proceedings commenced by the public authority or in which the public authority is a party, shall be heard by an administrative hearing officer in the following cases:

(f) For the purpose of this process, all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred on judges of the district court to obtain and enforce child and medical support and maintenance obligations, subject to the limitation set forth herein, are conferred on the administrative law judge conducting the proceedings, including the power to issue subpoenas for the production of documents, to issue orders to show cause, and to issue bench warrants for failure to appear.

(g) Before implementing the process in a county, the chief administrative law judge, the commissioner of human services, the director of the county human services agency, the county attorney, the county court administrator, and the county sheriff shall jointly establish procedures, and the county shall provide hearing facilities for implementing this process in the county. A contested administrative hearing shall be conducted in a courtroom, if one is available, or a conference or meeting room with at least two exits and of sufficient size to permit adequate physical separation of the parties. Security personnel shall either be present during the administrative hearings, or be available to respond to a request for emergency assistance.

(h) The contested administrative hearings shall be conducted under the rules of the office of administrative hearings, Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.7100 to 1400.7500, 1400.7700, and 1400.7800, as adopted by the chief administrative law judge. Other aspects of the case, including, but not limited to, pleadings, discovery, and motions, shall be conducted under the rules of family court, the rules of civil procedure, and chapter 518.

(i) Pursuant to a contested administrative hearing, the administrative law judge shall make findings of fact, conclusions, and a final decision and issue an order. Orders issued by an administrative law judge are enforceable by the contempt powers of the district courts.

After the commencement of the administrative process, the public authority and the administrative law judge shall each have the authority to issue subpoenas for the production of documents.

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC AUTHORITY LEGAL ADVISOR.] At all stages of the administrative process prior to the contested hearing, the county attorney, or other attorney under contract, shall act as the legal advisor for the public authority, but shall not play an active role in the review of information and the preparation of default and consent orders.

Subd. 7. Subd. 4. [SUSPENSIONS.] (a) The commission may, on any of the grounds listed in paragraph (b) and on the basis of the testimony received at the public hearings, suspend any rule complained of by the affirmative vote of at least six members provided the provisions of section 3.844 have been met. If any rule is suspended, the commission shall as soon as possible place before the legislature, at the next year's session, a bill to repeal the suspended rule. If the bill is not enacted in that year's session, the rule is effective upon adjournment of the session unless the agency has repealed it. If the bill is enacted, the rule is repealed.

(b) A rule suspension under paragraph (a) must be based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (1) an absence of statutory authority;
- (2) an emergency relating to public health, safety, or welfare;
- (3) a failure to comply with legislative intent;
- (4) a conflict with state law;
- (5) a change in circumstances since enactment of the earliest law upon which the rule is based;
- (6) arbitrariness and capriciousness, or imposition of an undue hardship.

(c) This section authorizes the commission to suspend a rule only when the vote to suspend is taken, and the effective date of the suspension occurs, at a time when the legislature could not enact a bill to repeal the rule.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 3.842, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

[OBJECTIONS TO RULES.] (a) If the legislative commission to review administrative rules objects to all or some portion of a rule, including a proposed rule submitted under section 14.15, subdivision 4, or 14.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), the commission may file that objection in the office of the secretary of state. The filed objection must contain a concise statement of the commission's reasons for its action. An objection to a proposed rule submitted under section 14.15, subdivision 4, or 14.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), may not be filed before the rule is adopted.

(b) The secretary of state shall affix to each objection a certification of the date and time of its filing and as soon after the objection is filed as practicable shall transmit a certified copy of it to the agency issuing the rule in question, the revisor of statutes, and the administrative rules counsel. The secretary of state shall also maintain a permanent register open to public inspection of all objections by the commission.

(c) The legislative commission to review administrative rules shall publish and index an objection filed under this section in the next issue of the State Register. The revisor of statutes shall indicate its existence adjacent to the rule in question when that rule is published in Minnesota Rules.

(d) Within 14 days after the filing of an objection by the commission to a rule, the issuing agency shall respond in writing to the commission. After receipt of the response, the commission may withdraw or modify its objection.

(e) After the filing of an objection by the commission that is not subsequently withdrawn, the burden is upon the agency in any proceeding for judicial review or for enforcement of the rule to establish that the whole or portion of the rule objected to is valid.

(f) The failure of the commission to object to a rule is not an implied legislative authorization of its validity.

(g) Pursuant to sections 14.44 and 14.45, the commission may petition for a declaratory judgment to determine the validity of any rule objected to by the commission.

This action must be started within two years after an objection is filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(h) The commission may intervene in litigation arising from agency action. For purposes of this paragraph, agency action means the whole or part of a rule, or the failure to issue a rule.

(2) the differences are a logical outgrowth of the contents of the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing and the comments submitted in response to the notice; and

(c) In determining whether the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing provided fair warning that the outcome of that rulemaking proceeding could be the rule in question the following factors must be considered:

(1) the extent to which persons who will be affected by the rule should have understood that the rulemaking proceeding on which it is based could affect their interests;

(2) the extent to which the subject matter of the rule or issues determined by the rule are different from the subject matter or issues contained in the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing; and

(3) the extent to which the effects of the rule differ from the effects of the proposed rule contained in the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing.

(b) Each agency shall, as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, adopt rules to supersede those principles of law or policy lawfully declared by the agency as the basis for its decisions in particular cases it intends to rely on as precedents in future cases.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.08, is amended to read:

Within five days after receipt of the rule, excluding weekends and holidays, the revisor shall either return the rule with a certificate of approval of the form of the rule to the attorney general administrative law judge or notify the attorney general administrative law judge and the agency that the form of the rule will not be approved.*

If the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge disapproves a rule, the agency may modify it and the agency shall submit two copies of the modified rule to the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge who shall send a copy to the revisor for approval as to form as described in this paragraph.

(b) One copy of a rule adopted after a public hearing shall be submitted by the agency to the revisor for approval of the form of the rule. Within five working days after receipt of the rule, the revisor shall either return the rule with a certificate of approval to the agency or notify the agency that the form of the rule will not be approved.

Receipts from the assessment must be deposited in the ~~state treasury and credited to the general fund~~ administrative hearings account created in section 14.54.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.09, is amended to read:

Sec. 14. [14.101] [ADVICE ON POSSIBLE RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED NOTICE.] In addition to seeking information by other methods designed to reach persons or classes of persons who might be affected by the proposal, an agency, before publication of a notice of intent to adopt or a notice of hearing, shall solicit comments from the public on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking proposal under active consideration within the agency by causing notice to be published in the State Register. The notice must include a description of the subject matter of the proposal, the types of groups and individuals likely to be affected, and indicate where, when, and how persons may comment on the proposal and whether and how drafts of any proposal may be obtained from the agency.

Subd. 2. [ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] Each agency may also appoint committees to comment, before publication of a notice of intent to adopt or a notice of hearing, on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking under active consideration within the agency. The membership of those committees must be published at least annually in the State Register.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF GOOD FAITH COMPLIANCE.] If an agency has made a good faith effort to comply with this section, a rule may not be invalidated on the grounds that the contents of this notice are insufficient or inaccurate.

Sec. 15. [14.125] [TIME LIMIT ON AUTHORITY TO ADOPT, AMEND, OR REPEAL RULES.]

An agency shall publish a notice of intent to adopt rules or a notice of hearing within 18 months of the effective date of the law authorizing or requiring rules to be adopted, amended, or repealed. If the notice is not published within the time limit imposed by this section, the authority for the rules expires. The agency shall not use other law in existence at the time of the expiration of rulemaking authority under this section as authority to adopt, amend, or repeal these rules.

An agency that adopts or amends rules within the time limit specified in this section may subsequently amend or repeal the rules without additional legislative authorization.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.131, is amended to read:

14.131 [STATEMENT OF NEED AND REASONABLENESS.]

Before the agency orders the publication of a rulemaking notice required by section 14.14, subdivision 1a, the agency must prepare, review, and make available for public review a statement of the need for and reasonableness of the rule and a fiscal note if required by section 3.982. The statement of need and reasonableness must be prepared under rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge and must include the following:

(1) a description of the classes of persons who probably will be affected by the proposed rule, including classes that will bear the costs of the proposed rule and classes that will benefit from the proposed rule;

(2) the probable costs to the agency and to any other agency of the implementation and enforcement of the proposed rule and any anticipated effect on state revenues;

(3) a determination of whether there are less costly methods or less intrusive methods for achieving the purpose of the proposed rule; and

(4) a description of any alternative methods for achieving the purpose of the proposed rule that were seriously considered by the agency and the reasons why they were rejected in favor of the proposed rule.

For rules setting, adjusting, or establishing, regulatory, licensure, or other charges for goods and services, the statement of need and reasonableness must include the comments and recommendations of the commissioner of finance and must address any fiscal and policy concerns raised during the review process, as required by section 16A.1285.

The statement must also describe the agency's efforts to provide additional notification to persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the proposed rule or must explain why these efforts were not made.

The agency shall send a copy of the statement of need and reasonableness to the legislative commission to review administrative rules when it becomes available for public review.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.14, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [NOTICE OF RULE HEARING.] (a) Each agency shall maintain a list of all persons who have registered with the agency for the purpose of receiving notice of rule ~~hearings~~ proceedings. The agency may inquire as to whether those persons on the list wish to maintain their names thereon and may remove names for which there is a negative reply or no reply within 60 days. The agency shall, at least 30 days prior to the date set for the hearing, give notice of its intention to adopt rules by United States mail to all persons on its list; and by publication in the State Register. The mailed notice shall include either a copy of the proposed rule or a description of the nature and effect of the proposed rule and an announcement that a free copy of the proposed rule is available on request from the agency. Each agency may, at its own discretion, also contact persons not on its list ~~and may give~~ who may be affected by the rule being proposed. In addition, each agency shall make reasonable efforts to notify persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the rule being proposed by giving notice of its intention in newsletters, newspapers or other publications, or through other means of communication. Subject to paragraph (b), the notice in the State Register must include the proposed rule or an amended rule in the form required by the revisor under section 14.07, together with a citation to the most specific statutory authority for the proposed rule, a statement of the place, date, and time of the public hearing, a statement that persons may register with the agency for the purpose of receiving notice of rule proceedings and notice that a rule has been adopted, and other information as required by law or rule. When an entire rule is proposed to be repealed, the agency need only publish that fact, giving the citation to the rule to be repealed in the notice.

(b) The administrative rules counsel may authorize an agency to omit from the published notice the text of a proposed rule, the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient if:

(1) knowledge of the rule is likely to be important to only a small class of persons;

(2) the published notice states that a free copy of the entire rule is available upon request to the agency; and

(3) the published notice states in detail the specific subject matter of the omitted rule.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.15, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINDING OF SUBSTANTIAL CHANGE DIFFERENCE.] If the report contains a finding that a rule has been modified in a way which makes it substantially different, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from that which was originally proposed, or that the agency has not met the requirements of sections 14.131 to 14.18, it shall be submitted to the chief administrative law judge for approval. If the chief administrative law judge approves the finding of the administrative law judge, the chief administrative law judge shall advise the agency and the revisor of statutes of actions which will correct the defects. The agency shall not adopt the rule until the chief administrative law judge determines that the defects have been corrected or, if applicable, that the agency has satisfied the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [NEED OR REASONABLENESS NOT ESTABLISHED.] If the chief administrative law judge determines that the need for or reasonableness of the rule has not been established pursuant to section 14.14, subdivision 2, and if the agency does not elect to follow the suggested actions of the chief administrative law judge to correct that defect, then the agency shall submit the proposed rule to the legislative commission to review administrative rules for the commission's advice and comment. The agency shall not adopt the rule until it has received and considered the advice of the commission. However, the agency is not required to ~~delay adoption longer~~ wait for the commission's advice for more than 30 60 days after the commission has received the agency's submission. ~~Advice of the commission shall not be binding on the agency.~~

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW OF MODIFICATIONS.] If the report of the administrative law judge finds no defects, the agency may proceed to adopt the rule. After receipt of the administrative law judge's report, if the agency makes any modifications to the rule other than those recommended by the administrative law judge, it must return the rule to the chief administrative law judge for a review on the issue of ~~substantial change~~ whether the rule as modified is substantially different, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from the rule as originally proposed. If the chief administrative law judge determines that the modified rule is substantially different from that which was originally proposed, the chief administrative law judge shall advise the agency of actions which will correct the defects. The agency shall not adopt the modified rule until the chief administrative law judge determines that the defects have been corrected or, if applicable, that the agency has satisfied the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule.

The agency shall give notice to all persons who requested to be informed that the rule has been adopted and filed with the secretary of state. This notice shall be given on the same day that the rule is filed.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) A rule is effective after it has been subjected to all requirements described in sections 14.131 to 14.20 and five working days after the notice of adoption is published in the State Register unless a later date is required by law or specified in the rule. If the rule adopted is the same as the proposed rule, publication may be made by publishing notice in the State Register that the rule has been adopted as proposed and by citing the prior publication. Subject to paragraph (b), if the rule adopted differs from the proposed rule, the portions of the adopted rule which differ from the proposed rule shall be included in the notice of adoption together with a citation to the prior State Register publication of the remainder of the proposed rule. The nature of the modifications must be clear to a reasonable person when the notice of adoption is considered together with the State Register publication of the proposed rule, except that modifications may also be made which comply with the form requirements of section 14.07, subdivision 7.

(b) The administrative rules counsel may authorize an agency to omit from the notice of adoption the portions of the adopted rule that differ from the proposed rule if the requirements of section 14.14, subdivision 1a, paragraph (b), are satisfied.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.19, is amended to read:

14.19 [DEADLINE TO COMPLETE RULEMAKING.]

The agency shall, within 180 days after issuance of the administrative law judge's report, submit its notice of adoption, amendment, ~~suspension~~, or repeal to the State Register for publication. If the agency has not submitted its notice to the State Register within 180 days, the rule is automatically withdrawn. The agency shall not adopt the withdrawn rules without again following the procedures of sections 14.05 to 14.36. It shall report to the legislative commission to review administrative rules, other appropriate committees of the legislature, and the governor its failure to adopt rules and the reasons for that failure. The 180-day time limit of this section does not include any days used for review by the chief administrative law judge, ~~the attorney general~~, or the legislative commission to review administrative rules if the review is required by law.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 14.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:
