Minnesota's level of care criteria for admission of any person to a nursing home licensed under chapter 144A, or a boarding care home licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, is modified as follows:

(1) the resident reimbursement classifications and terminology established by rule under sections 256B.41 to 256B.48 are the basis for applying the level of care criteria changes;

(2) an applicant to a nursing home or boarding care home who is dependent in two or fewer case mix activities of daily living, and who is independent in orientation and self-preservation, is classified as a high function class A person and is not eligible for admission to Minnesota nursing facilities;

(3) applicants in clause (2) are eligible for a service allowance under section 256B.0913, subdivision 15, and are not eligible for services under sections 256B.0913, subdivisions 1 to 14, and 256B.0915;

(5) the commissioner of health, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall adopt emergency rules for admission exceptions criteria and an appeals process which takes into account extraordinary circumstances, including but not limited to the absence or inaccessibility of suitable alternatives, contravening family circumstances, and protective service issues;

(6) the local screening teams under section 256B.0911 shall make preliminary determinations concerning the existence of extraordinary circumstances and may authorize an admission for a short-term stay at a nursing home or boarding care home in accordance with a treatment and discharge plan for up to 90 days; and function class A persons as defined in section 144.0721, subdivision 3, clause (2). Clients choosing the service allowance option are not eligible for other alternative care services or options and are exempt from the requirements listed in subdivision 12. Funding available under the service allowance option is exempt from the standards defined in subdivision 5, paragraphs (c) and (f). While individual monthly grants under the service allowance option are permitted to be either greater or less than the amount of $225 per month based on individual need, the average monthly cost per individual expended by the state must not exceed $225."

"Sec. 45. [ESTABLISHMENT OF TASK FORCES.]

The commissioner of human services shall establish two task forces reporting to the commissioner of human services in collaboration with the commissioner of health. The task forces shall consider the effects of any revisions, amendments, or other changes to the rules, procedures, and financing of the long-term care system on the nonelderly disabled population that is currently served in long-term care facilities and through home- and community-based alternatives to institutional care. The task forces established under this section must complete their work by June 30, 1997.

(a) The long-term care reform task force will:

(1) review the rules, procedures, and financing systems for nursing facilities, long-term care service agencies, and health professionals; and

(2) recommend revisions to any process standards which do not affect desired outcome standards and suggest improved outcome measurements for quality of care.

The task force will include representatives of affected state agencies, long-term care consumers, advocates, and providers and will be jointly staffed by the departments of health and human services. Current statutes which specifically focus on consumer rights and on abuse and neglect prevention and intervention, such as the patient and resident bill of rights and the vulnerable adults act, are excluded from this review.

The task force will collect specific regulatory and reimbursement system change ideas from consumers, providers, and affected state agency staff. It will study and propose immediate legislative changes for fiscal years 1995 and 1996. This task force will also prepare a longer range plan for reform of long-term care services through revisions to rules and laws. The task force will include in its review:

(1) monitor studies of the federal survey process and proposed changes. The task force will propose alternative cost-effective approaches and the appropriate federal waivers that will be sought;

(2) the results to date of the department of health's regulatory reform effort, which has as a goal the repeal of nonessential parts of the nonreimbursement-related state rules for nursing home operation; and

(3) comparisons of the results of reimbursement and care-related rules with their intended effects in order to determine those areas where more cost-effective methods should be pursued.

Suggested strategies to be evaluated by the task force are included in the recommendations proposed by the long-term care commission report to the governor dated March 1994.

This task force shall also design a demonstration project to develop new models of nursing facility care. Researchers and ombudsmen will help design and develop the implementation process for the demonstration project. Evaluation of the demonstration project will be accomplished in collaboration with educational institutions. If necessary, a federal demonstration project waiver under United States Code, title 42, section 1315(a), will be sought to waive certain rules and regulations.

This demonstration will allow facilities to develop new models of care that will serve the residents of Minnesota's nursing homes in an improved and more cost-effective manner and will reexamine and restructure reimbursement rules and health department rules to fit successful new models. Most of the present system of rules and regulations will be open to reevaluation, including the present reimbursement and case mix rules, federal certification regulations, and state licensing rules, but excluding current statutes which specifically focus on consumer rights and on abuse and neglect prevention and intervention, such as the patient and resident bill of rights and the vulnerable adults act.

The demonstration design will ensure that residents of these facilities will continue to receive appropriate care in a dignified manner and that their rights will be fully protected. Residents and their advocates will help create other mechanisms to protect and provide for the safety of the residents.

(b) An administrative reform task force will be formed to develop a consolidation strategy for state and local agencies involved in the delivery of long-term care services. The task force will develop strategies to improve coordination of services for consumers, offer more consistent and effective direction to providers, and significantly reduce government expenditure in the administration of long-term care programs. This task force must consult with the regulatory reform task force to maximize coordination. The task force will be composed of consumers, affected state agencies, providers, counties, and area agencies on aging."

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE SPECIAL FUND.] Prior to August 1 of each year, the officers of the relief association shall determine the financial requirements of the special fund of the relief association in accordance with the requirements of this subdivision. The financial requirements of the relief association shall be based on the most recent actuarial valuation of the special fund prepared in accordance with subdivision 2. If the relief association has an unfunded actuarial accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation, the financial requirements shall be determined by adding the figures calculated pursuant to clauses (a), (b), and (c). If the relief association does not have an unfunded actuarial accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation, the financial requirements shall be an amount equal to the figure calculated pursuant to clauses (a) and (b), reduced by an amount equal to one-tenth of the amount of any assets in excess of the actuarial accrued liability of the relief association. The determination of whether or not the relief association has an unfunded actuarial accrued liability shall be based on the current market value of assets for which a market value is readily ascertainable and the cost or book value, whichever is applicable, for assets for which no market value is readily ascertainable.

(a) The normal level cost requirement for the following year, expressed as a dollar amount, shall be the figure for the normal level cost of the relief association as reported in the actuarial valuation.

(b) The amount of anticipated future administrative expenses of the special fund shall be calculated by multiplying the dollar amount of the administrative expenses of the special fund for the most recent year by the factor of 1.035.

(c) The amortization contribution requirement to retire the current unfunded actuarial accrued liability by the established date for full funding shall be the figure for the amortization contribution as reported in the actuarial valuation. If there has not been a change in the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the special fund, a change in the bylaws of the relief association governing the service pensions, retirement benefits, or both payable from the special fund or a change in the actuarial cost method used to value all or a portion of the special fund which change or changes, which by themselves without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease, produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the special fund since December 31, 1970, the established date for full funding shall be December 31, 1990. If there has been a change in the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the special fund, a change in the bylaws of the relief association governing the service pensions, retirement benefits, or both payable from the special fund or a change in the actuarial cost method used to value all or a portion of the special fund and the change or changes, by themselves and without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease, produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the special fund since December 31, 1970, but prior to January 1, 1979, the established date for full funding shall be December 31, 1998, and if there has been a change since December 31, 1978, the established date for full funding shall be determined using the following procedure:

(i) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the special fund shall be determined in accordance with the provisions governing service pensions, retirement benefits, and actuarial assumptions in effect before an applicable change;

(ii) the level annual dollar contribution needed to amortize this unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount by the date for full funding in effect prior to the change shall be calculated using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, in effect before any applicable change;

(iii) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the special fund shall be determined in accordance with any new provisions governing service pensions, retirement benefits, and actuarial assumptions and the remaining provisions governing service pensions, retirement benefits, and actuarial assumptions in effect before an applicable change;

(iv) the level annual dollar contribution needed to amortize the difference between the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated pursuant to subclause (i) and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated pursuant to subclause (iii) over a period of 20 years starting December 31 of the year in which the change is effective shall be calculated using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, in effect after any applicable change;

(v) the annual amortization contribution calculated pursuant to subclause

(iv) shall be added to the annual amortization contribution calculated pursuant to subclause (ii);

(vi) the period in which the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined in subclause (iii) will be amortized by the total annual amortization contribution computed pursuant to subclause (v) shall be calculated using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, in effect after any applicable change, rounded to the nearest integral number of years, but which shall not exceed a period of 20 years from the end of the year in which the determination of the date for full funding using this procedure is made and which shall not be less than the period of years beginning in the year in which the determination of the date for full funding using this procedure is made and ending by the date for full funding in effect before the change.

(vii) the period determined pursuant to subclause (vi) shall be added to the date as of which the actuarial valuation was prepared and the resulting date shall be the new date for full funding.

Subdivision 1. [JUDICIAL REVIEW; RELEASE; SURRENDER OF FIREARMS.] (a) When a person is arrested for a crime against the person, the judge before whom the arrested person is taken shall review the facts surrounding the arrest and detention. The arrested person must be ordered released pending trial or hearing on the person's personal recognizance or on an order to appear or upon the execution of an unsecured bond in a specified amount unless the judge determines that release (1) will be inimical to public safety, (2) will create a threat of bodily harm to the arrested person, the victim of the alleged crime, or another, or (3) will not reasonably assure the appearance of the arrested person at subsequent proceedings.

(b) If the judge determines release under paragraph (a) is not advisable, the judge may impose any conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for subsequent proceedings, or will protect the victim of the alleged crime, or may fix the amount of money bail without other conditions upon which the arrested person may obtain release. The judge may order as a condition of release that the person surrender to the local law enforcement agency all firearms owned or possessed by the person, and may not live in a residence where others possess firearms. Any firearm surrendered under this subdivision shall be inventoried and retained, with due care to preserve the quality and function of the firearm, by the local law enforcement agency, and must be returned to the person upon the person's acquittal, when charges are dismissed, or if no charges are filed. If the person is convicted, the firearm must be returned when the court orders the return or when the person is discharged from probation and restored to civil rights. If the person is convicted of a designated offense as defined in section 609.531, the firearm is subject to forfeiture as provided under that section.

(c) If conditions of release are imposed, the judge shall issue a written order for conditional release. The court administrator shall immediately distribute a copy of the order for conditional release to the agency having custody of the arrested person and shall provide the agency having custody of the arrested person with any available information on the location of the victim in a manner that protects the victim's safety. Either the court or its designee or the agency having custody of the arrested person shall serve upon the defendant a copy of the order. Failure to serve the arrested person with a copy of the order for conditional release does not invalidate the conditions of release.

Subd. 2. [NO CONTACT ORDER.] If the judge imposes as a condition of release a requirement that the person have no contact with the victim of the alleged crime, the judge may also, on its own motion or that of the prosecutor or on request of the victim, issue an ex parte temporary restraining order under section 609.748, subdivision 4, or an ex parte temporary order for protection under section 518B.01, subdivision 7. Notwithstanding section 518B.01, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), or 609.748, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), the temporary order is effective until the defendant is convicted or acquitted, or the charge is dismissed, provided that upon request the defendant is entitled to a full hearing on the restraining order under section 609.748, subdivision 5, or on the order for protection under section 518B.01. The hearing must be held within seven days of the defendant's request."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS - CONTINUED

Without objection, remaining on the Order of Business of Motions and Resolutions, the Senate reverted to the Orders of Business of Executive and Official Communications, Messages From the House, Reports of Committees, Second Reading of Senate Bills and Second Reading of House Bills.

EXECUTIVE AND OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received.

The Honorable Allan H. Spear
President of the Senate

Dear President Spear:

I have vetoed and I am returning Chapter 381, Senate File 844/House File

2228. The bill as passed represents an unwarranted widening of the generally accepted understanding regarding leave status for employees who are designated by the exclusive representative of their bargaining unit as having responsibilities with that unit which qualify for leave.

The bill further imposes an undue burden on public employers of all types and levels in Minnesota, without any known analysis of economic or other operational impact. Granting leaves for purposes other than provided by current law is deliberately and wisely left to the discretion of the governing boards of these jurisdictions.

If there is a general problem with the definitions in current law, it is not widely known. There has been no discernible public discussion or debate about such a problem, nor have any proponents of this amendment sought the counsel of my office over this matter. If, on the other hand, this bill seeks redress of the frustration of a limited number of persons, perhaps even a single individual, that is an example of legislative micromanagement that disappoints the general public.

On the other hand, if the language of an amendment were carefully restricted to a specific structural circumstance and limited as to the number of eligible persons in a given bargaining unit, I would be open to reconsideration.

Warmest regards,
Arne H. Carlson, Governor

Mr. Luther moved that S.F. No. 844 and the veto message thereon be laid on the table. The motion prevailed.

April 21, 1994

The Honorable Allan H. Spear
President of the Senate

Dear President Spear:

I have vetoed and I am returning Chapter 481, Senate File 1694/House File 2088.

The bill as originally presented and heard received substantial support as a measure to clarify and improve procedures for the administration of neuroleptic medications to mentally ill persons. However, an author's amendment passed on the floor of the House on a voice vote, significantly changes the impact of the bill and makes it unacceptable policy.

The intent of the bill was to grant to guardians and conservators the authority to consent to the administration of these medications. The last-minute amendment imposes the requirement of a court hearing for this consent to be valid. This change was not subjected to any hearings, testimony, or fiscal analysis.

It seems clear that its effect at least would create enormous legal costs for the state and for counties, as well as for private wards and conservatees. There are at least 11,000 persons on Medical Assistance residing in nursing homes or intermediate care facilities for whom this sort of medication is typically prescribed.

If it is feasible to approve a bill with the basic provisions and avoid the last-minute language requiring the court hearing, I will certainly sign the bill into law.

Warmest regards,
Arne H. Carlson, Governor

Mr. Betzold moved that S.F. No. 1694 and the veto message thereon be laid on the table. The motion prevailed.

ARTICLE 3

POST-SECONDARY FUNDING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 135A.01, is amended to read:

135A.01 [FUNDING POLICY.]

It is the policy of the legislature ~~that direct state appropriations, exclusive of tuition,~~ to provide stable funding, including recognition of the effects of inflation, for the instructional services at public post-secondary institutions reflect a portion of the estimated cost of providing the instructional and that the state and students share the cost of those services. The legislature intends to provide at least 67 percent of the instructional services costs for each post-secondary system. It is also the policy of the legislature that the budgetary process serves to support high quality public post-secondary education.

Sec. 2. [135A.031] [APPROPRIATIONS FOR INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF APPROPRIATION.] The direct appropriation to each board for instructional services shall equal 67 percent of the estimated total cost of instruction for the University of Minnesota, the state universities, and the community colleges, and, for technical colleges, at least 67 percent of the estimated total cost of instruction.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENROLLMENTS.] The state share of the estimated expenditures for instruction shall vary for some categories of students, as designated in this subdivision.

(a) The state must provide at least 67 percent of the estimated expenditures for:

(1) students who resided in the state for at least one calendar year prior to applying for admission or dependent students whose parent or legal guardian resides in Minnesota at the time the student applies;

(2) Minnesota residents who can demonstrate that they were temporarily absent from the state without establishing residency elsewhere;

(3) residents of other states or provinces who are attending a Minnesota institution under a tuition reciprocity agreement; and

(4) students who have been in Minnesota as migrant farmworkers, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 20, section 633.104, over a period of at least two years immediately before admission or readmission to a Minnesota public post-secondary institution, or students who are dependents of such migrant farmworkers.

(b) The state must provide 32 percent of the estimated expenditures for:

(1) students who are concurrently enrolled in a public secondary school and for whom the institution is receiving any compensation under the post-secondary enrollment options act; and

(2) students enrolled under the student exchange program of the Midwest Compact.

(c) The state may not provide any of the estimated expenditures for undergraduate students who do not meet the residency criteria under paragraph (a).

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES BASE.] The instructional services base for each public post-secondary system is the sum of: (1) the state share; and (2) the legislatively estimated tuition for the second year of the most recent biennium; and (3) adjustments for inflation, enrollment changes as calculated in subdivision 4, and performance as calculated in subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [ADJUSTMENT FOR ENROLLMENTS.] (a) Each public post-secondary system's instructional services base shall be adjusted for estimated changes in enrollments. For each two percent change in estimated full-year equivalent enrollment, an adjustment shall be made to 65 percent of the instructional services base. The remaining 35 percent of the instructional services base is not subject to the adjustment in this subdivision.

(b) For all purposes where student enrollment is used for budgeting purposes, student enrollment shall be measured in full-year equivalents and shall include only enrollments in courses that award credit or otherwise satisfy any of the requirements of an academic or vocational program.

(c) The enrollment adjustment shall be made for each year of the subsequent biennium. The base enrollment year is the 1995 fiscal year enrollment. The base enrollment shall be updated for each two percent change in estimated full year equivalent enrollment. If the actual enrollment differs from the estimated enrollment, an adjustment shall be made in the next biennium.

Subd. 5. [ADJUSTMENT FOR PERFORMANCE.] Each public post-secondary system's instructional services base shall be adjusted, up to one percent, if the system meets the performance standards established by the system's governing board as part of the biennial budget document.

Subd. 6. [ADJUSTMENT FOR CHANGE ITEMS.] The instructional services base may be adjusted for change items as determined by the governor and the legislature after adjustments for inflation, enrollments, and performance.

Subd. 7. [REPORTS.] Instructional expenditure and enrollment data for each instructional category shall be submitted in the biennial budget document.

Sec. 3. [135A.032] [APPROPRIATIONS FOR NONINSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF NONINSTRUCTIONAL APPROPRIATIONS BASE.] The noninstructional services base for each public post-secondary system is the state share for the second year of the most recent biennium plus adjustments for inflation and for performance as specified in subdivision 2. The cost of technical college extension programs shall be included in noninstructional services.

Subd. 2. [ADJUSTMENT FOR PERFORMANCE.] The noninstructional services base shall be increased, up to one percent, if the system meets the performance standards established by the system's governing board as part of the biennial budget document.

Subd. 3. [ADJUSTMENT FOR CHANGE ITEMS.] The noninstructional services base may be adjusted for change items as determined by the governor and the legislature after noninstructional base adjustments for inflation and performance.

Sec. 4. [135A.033] [PERFORMANCE FUNDING.]

The governing boards of the University of Minnesota, the state universities, the community colleges, and the technical colleges, in conjunction with their respective campuses, shall each specify performance categories and indicators to be used for policy and appropriations decisions, as well as allocations for rewarding campuses that achieve performance levels and assisting campuses that are unable to achieve these levels. Because the mission of each system and type of campus varies, categories and indicators shall vary accordingly.

Sec. 5. [135A.034] [BUDGET PRIORITIES.]

The governing boards of the University of Minnesota, the state universities, the community colleges, and the technical colleges shall each develop, for legislative and executive branch acceptance, its highest budget priorities in accordance with statewide objectives for higher education. It is the intent of the legislature to appropriate at least 67 percent of the total cost of instruction after adjusting for inflation and enrollment changes. However, in the event of a budget shortfall, or if funding of inflation is not possible, available funding shall first be applied to the agreed upon budget priorities.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 135A.04, is amended to read:

135A.04 [VARIABLE TUITION.]

The board of regents of the University of Minnesota, ~~state university board, state board for community colleges, and state board for vocational education~~ and the higher education board shall each establish tuition. Tuition may vary by program, level of instruction, cost of instruction, or other classifications determined by each board. Tuition may be set at any percentage of instructional cost established by the respective boards.

Sec. 7. [PHASE-IN OF FORMULA.]

Each higher education system shall calculate its respective base for the 1996-1997 biennium for submission to the governor and legislature using the method in this article. Each system that experienced enrollment increases since 1993 shall adjust its instructional services base by the same percentage as the enrollment increased.

Sec. 8. [TASK FORCE.]

The chief financial officers, or their designees, of the University of Minnesota, state universities, technical colleges, community colleges, higher education board, and the commissioner of finance shall form a task force. The task force shall define terms, ensure uniform application of the formula, and other functions determined necessary by the task force. The higher education coordinating board shall convene the initial meeting. The task force expires June 30, 1997.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Subd. 15. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE.] (a) "Occupational disease" means a disease arising out of and in the course of employment peculiar to the occupation in which the employee is engaged and due to causes in excess of the hazards ordinary of employment and shall include undulant fever. Ordinary diseases of life to which the general public is equally exposed outside of employment are not compensable, except where the diseases follow as an incident of an occupational disease, or where the exposure peculiar to the occupation makes the disease an occupational disease hazard. A disease arises out of the employment only if there be a direct causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and if the occupational disease follows as a natural incident of the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment. An employer is not liable for compensation for any occupational disease which cannot be traced to the employment as a direct and proximate cause and is not recognized as a hazard characteristic of and peculiar to the trade, occupation, process, or employment or which results from a hazard to which the worker would have been equally exposed outside of the employment.

(b) If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, an employee was employed on active duty with an organized fire or police department of any municipality, as a member of the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, as a forest officer by the department of natural resources, or sheriff or full-time deputy sheriff of any county, or emergency medical services personnel as defined in section 144.761, subdivision 5, clauses (1) and (3), and the disease is that of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, and at the time of employment such employee was given a thorough physical examination by a licensed doctor of medicine, and a written report thereof has been made and filed with such organized fire or police department, with the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, department of natural resources, or sheriff's department of any county, or the employer of the emergency medical services personnel as defined in section 144.761, subdivision 5, clauses (1) and (3), which examination and report negated any evidence of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment. If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, any individual who by nature of their position provides emergency medical care, or an employee who was employed as a licensed police officer under section 626.84, subdivision 1; firefighter; paramedic; emergency medical technician; or licensed nurse providing emergency medical care; and who contracts an infectious or communicable disease to which the employee was exposed in the course of employment outside of a hospital, then the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment and the presumption may be rebutted by substantial factors brought by the employer or insurer.

(c) A firefighter on active duty with an organized fire department who is unable to perform duties in the department by reason of a disabling cancer of a type caused by exposure to heat, radiation, or a known or suspected carcinogen, as defined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer, and the carcinogen is reasonably linked to the disabling cancer, is presumed to have an occupational disease under paragraph (a). If a firefighter who enters the service after August 1, 1988, is examined by a physician prior to being hired and the examination discloses the existence of a cancer of a type described in this paragraph, the firefighter is not entitled to the presumption unless a subsequent medical determination is made that the firefighter no longer has the cancer."

Subdivision 1. [CERTAIN WAGES EXCLUDED FOR RATEMAKING.]
The rating association or an insurer shall not include wages paid for a

"ARTICLE 4

SELF-INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INSOLVENT SELF-INSURER.] "Insolvent self-insurer" means ~~either~~: (1) a member private self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation as a result of a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; ~~or~~; (2) a member self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; or (3) a member or former member private self-insurer who has failed to pay an assessment required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] For the purposes of assisting the commissioner, there is established a workers' compensation self-insurers' advisory committee of five members that are employers authorized to self-insure in Minnesota. Three of the members shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and two shall be appointed by the commissioner. In addition, one alternate member shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and one alternate member shall be appointed by the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADVICE TO COMMISSIONER.] At the request of the commissioner, the committee shall meet and shall advise the commissioner with respect to whether or not an applicant to become a private self-insurer in the state of Minnesota has met the statutory requirements to self-insure. The department of commerce may furnish the committee with any financial data which it has, but a member of the advisory committee who may have a conflict of interest in reviewing the financial data shall not have access to the data nor participate in the discussions concerning the applicant. All members of the advisory committee shall treat financial data received from the commissioner as nonpublic data. The committee shall advise the commissioner if it has any information that any private self-insurer may become insolvent. Disclosure of this data other than for the purposes of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 79A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs, and unpaid assessments required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurer" includes both current and former members of the self-insurers' security fund; and "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society every year for group member private self-insurers and, for a nongroup member private self-insurer's authority to self-insure, every year for the first five years. After the first five years, the nongroup member's total shall be as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society at least every two years, and each such actuarial study shall include a projection of future losses during the ~~two-year~~ period until the next scheduled actuarial study, less payments anticipated to be made during that time.

All data and information furnished by a private self-insurer to an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society for purposes of determining private self-insurers' estimated future liability must be certified by an officer of the private self-insurer to be true and correct with respect to payroll and paid losses, and must be certified, upon information and belief, to be true and correct with respect to reserves. The certification must be made by sworn affidavit. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, the certification of false data or information pursuant to this subdivision may result in a fine imposed by the commissioner of commerce on the private self-insurer up to the amount of $5,000, and termination of the private self-insurers' authority to self-insure. The determination of private self-insurers' estimated future liability by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society shall be conducted in accordance with standards and principles for establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves by the Actuarial Standards Board, an affiliate of the American Academy of Actuaries. The commissioner may reject an actuarial report that does not meet the standards and principles of the Actuarial Standards Board, and may further disqualify the actuary who prepared the report from submitting any future actuarial reports pursuant to this chapter. Within 30 days after the actuary has been served by the commissioner with a notice of disqualification, an actuary who is aggrieved by the disqualification may request a hearing to be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. Based on a review of the actuarial report, the commissioner of commerce may require an increase in the minimum security deposit in an amount the commissioner considers sufficient.

Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited security from any obligations under the posting or depositing and any surety bond so released shall be returned to the surety. Any other security shall be returned to the depositor or the person posting the bond.

As a condition for the granting or renewal of a certificate to self-insure, the commissioner may require a private self-insurer to furnish any additional security the commissioner considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under chapter 176.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.04, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY, OR DEFAULT; UTILIZATION OF SECURITY DEPOSIT.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the commissioner and the security fund if the commissioner of labor and industry has knowledge that any private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation benefits as required by chapter 176. If the commissioner determines that a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the private self-insurer to be bankrupt or insolvent, and the private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176 or, if the commissioner issues a certificate of default against a private self-insurer for failure to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176, or failure to pay an assessment to the self-insurers' security fund when due, then the security deposit shall be utilized to administer and pay the private self-insurers' workers' compensation or assessment obligations.

The department of commerce shall study the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, separate from the application of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 79A, the self-insurers' security fund. The purpose of mutual self-insurance pools shall be to cover their members against liability arising under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. The study must include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

- (1) a mutual self-insurance pool advisory committee to advise the commissioner of commerce;*
- (2) a mutual self-insurance guaranty fund and board of trustees, and other excess insurance, reinsurance, or other similar requirements;*
- (3) a minimum premium volume necessary for creation of a pool;*
- (4) the financial and actuarial requirements of a pool;*
- (5) the requirements of the bylaws and plan of operation of a pool and the mutual self-insurance pool guaranty fund;*
- (6) the assessment powers of the pool and of the pool guaranty fund;*
- (7) the requirement that a pool be a workers' compensation reinsurance association member and specify the workers' compensation reinsurance association's retention level of a pool;*

(8) the powers of the commissioner of commerce with respect to regulation and oversight of the pools and their guaranty fund;

(9) the amount of security deposits requirement and types of security allowable;

(10) the requirement of joint and several liability among the members, and the mechanics of establishing joint and several liability;

(11) the requirement of a perfected security interest in the security deposit;

(12) the amount of application fees and renewal fees for a pool;

(13) the requirement that all pools have a third party administrator and a fiscal agent; and

(14) the type and extent of educational programs required for employers before becoming pool members and for employers who are pool members, and for other professionals involved in the creation and maintenance of pools.

The department of commerce shall seek input from interested parties. The intent of the legislature in requiring this study is to allow the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, including small- and medium-sized employers as members, in a financially and actuarially sound basis so as to: (1) continue the appropriate payment of workers' compensation benefits to all injured employees of pool members; (2) do so in accordance with reasonable standards of financial and actuarial soundness which will ensure successful operation of mutual self-insurance pools for the benefit of their members; and (3) make available the benefits of group self-insurance to small- and medium-sized employers. The department shall by February 15, 1995, submit specific recommendations concerning mutual self-insurance pools to the committees of the house of representatives and senate having jurisdiction over workers' compensation self-insurance legislation."

Amend the title accordingly

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hottinger moved to amend S.F. No. 2475 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.50, is amended to read:

79.50 [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and

(h) (e) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of this chapter. ~~The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) experience rating plans;

(3) retrospective rating plans;

(4) general expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) minimum premiums;

(6) classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) loss development and trend factors;

(8) the workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(10) imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(11) the rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by ~~the workers' compensation insurers rating association licensed data service organizations; and~~

(12) the supporting data and information required in filings under section 79.56, including but not limited to the experience of the filing insurer and the extent to which the filing insurer relies upon data service organization loss information, descriptions of the actuarial and statistical methods employed in setting rates, and the filing insurers interpretation of any statistical data relied upon; and

(13) any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) ~~competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship;~~

(2) adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation;

(3) (2) encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) (3) assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) (4) requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules, making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section ~~and monitoring the effectiveness of competition;~~ and

(6) (5) preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services ~~where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [METHOD OF CALCULATION.] Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further ~~modified~~ increased up to 25 percent or decreased without restriction by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium if the increase or decrease is not unfairly discriminatory. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] ~~No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums~~ Rates and rating plans are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves ~~for the market in question~~, that would accrue to an insurer under the rates and rating plans would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business. The burden is on the insurer to establish that profit is not unreasonably high.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISCOUNTS PERMITTED.] An insurer may offer a ~~discount from~~ scheduled credit or debit to a manual premium calculated pursuant to section 79.53, subdivision 1, if the premium otherwise complies with this section. ~~The commissioner shall not by rule, or otherwise, prohibit a credit or~~ discount from a manual premium solely because it is greater than a certain fixed percentage of the premium.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RATING FACTORS.] In determining whether a rate filing complies with this section, separate consideration shall be given to: (i) past and prospective loss experience within this state and outside this state to the extent necessary to develop credible rates; (ii) dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers; and (iii) a reasonable allowance for expense and profit. An allowance for expense shall be presumed reasonable if it reflects expenses that are 22.5 percent greater or less than the average expense for all insurers writing workers' compensation insurance in this state. An allowance for after-tax profit shall consider anticipated investment income from premium receipts net of disbursements and from allocated surplus, based on the current five-year United States Treasury note yield and an assumed premium to surplus ratio of 2.25 to one. The allowance for after-tax profit shall be presumed reasonable if the corresponding return on equity target is equal to or less than the sum of: (i) the current yield on five-year United States Treasury securities; and (ii) an appropriate equity risk premium that reflects the risks of writing workers' compensation insurance. The risk premium shall not be less than the average, since 1926, of the differences in return between: (i) the annual return, including dividend income, for the Standard and Poor's 500 common stock index or predecessor index for each year; and (ii) the five-year United States Treasury note yield as of the start of the corresponding year. Profit and expense allowances not presumed reasonable under this subdivision, are reasonable if the circumstances of an insurer, the market, or other factors justify them.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [EXTERNAL FACTORS.] That portion of a rate or rating plan related to assessments from the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, agent commission, premium tax and any other state-mandated surcharges shall not cause the rate or rating plan to be considered excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE PREFILING OF RATES.] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their and such supporting data and information that the commissioner may by rule require, at least 60 days prior to its effective dates date. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer. The commissioner shall advise an insurer within 30 days of the filing if its submission is not accompanied with such supporting data and information that the commissioner by rule may require. The commissioner may extend the filing review period and effective date for an additional 30 days if an insurer, after having been advised of what supporting data and information is necessary to complete its filing, does not provide such information within 15 days of having been so notified. If any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is not disapproved by the commissioner within the filing review period, the insurer may implement it. For the period January 1, 1994, to December 31, 1994, the filing shall be made at least 90 days prior to the effective date and the department shall advise an insurer within 60 days of such filing if the filing is insufficient under this section.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law. Notwithstanding this subdivision, an employer that generates $500,000 in annual written workers' compensation premium under the rates and rating plan of an insurer before the application of any large deductible rating plans, may be written by that insurer using rates or rating plans that are not subject to disapproval but which have been filed. The $500,000 threshold shall be increased on January 1, 1995, and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $1,000. The commissioner shall advise insurers licensed to write workers' compensation insurance in this state of the annual threshold adjustment.

Sec. 11. [79.561] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISAPPROVAL; TIME PERIOD.] The commissioner may disapprove a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto prior to its effective date, as provided under section 79.56, subdivision 1, if the commissioner determines that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner disapproves any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto, the commissioner shall advise the filing insurer what rate and rating plan the commissioner has reason to believe would be in compliance with section 79.55, and the reasons for that determination. An insurer may not implement a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto which has been disapproved under this subdivision. If the commissioner disapproves any rate and rating plan filing or amendment thereto, an insurer may use its current rate and rating plan for writing any workers' compensation insurance in this state. Following any disapproval, the commissioner and insurer may reach agreement on a rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, in such cases, the rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto may be implemented by the insurer immediately.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] If an insurer's rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is disapproved under subdivision 1, the insurer may request a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The insurer shall have the burden of proof to justify that its rate and rating plan or amendment thereto is in compliance with section 79.55. The hearing must be scheduled promptly and in no case later than three months from the date of disapproval or else the rate and rating plan or amendment thereto shall be considered effective and may be implemented by the insurer. A determination pursuant to chapter 14 must be made within 90 days following the closing of the hearing record.

Subd. 3. [CONSULTANTS AND COSTS.] The commissioner may retain consultants, including a consulting actuary or other experts, that the commissioner determines necessary for purposes of this chapter. The salary limit set by section 43A.17 does not apply to a consulting actuary retained under this subdivision. A consulting actuary shall be a fellow in the casualty actuarial society and shall have demonstrated experience in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking. Any individual not so qualified shall not render an opinion or testify on actuarial aspects of a filing, including but not limited to, data quality, loss development, and trending. The costs incurred in retaining any consulting actuaries and experts shall be reimbursed by the special compensation fund.

Sec. 12. [APPROPRIATION.]

$900,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, to the department of commerce for the purposes of this article. The complement of the department of commerce is increased by 13 positions for the purposes of this article.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 79.53, subdivision 2; 79.54; 79.56, subdivision 2; 79.57; and 79.58, are repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE: TRANSITION.]

This article is effective on January 1, 1995. Rates and rating plans in use as of January 1, 1995, may continue to be used until such time as an amendment thereto or a new rate or rating plan is filed, at which time such submission shall be subject to this article.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.011, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [MAXIMUM MEDICAL IMPROVEMENT.] "Maximum medical improvement" means the date after which no further significant recovery from or significant lasting improvement to a personal injury can reasonably be anticipated, based upon reasonable medical probability. Once the date of maximum medical improvement has been determined, no further determinations of other dates of maximum medical improvement for that personal injury is permitted. The determination that an employee has reached maximum medical improvement shall not be rendered ineffective by the worsening of the employee's medical condition and recovery therefrom.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.] For permanent total disability, as defined in subdivision 5, the compensation shall be 66-2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury, subject to a maximum weekly compensation equal to the maximum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability and a minimum weekly compensation equal to the ~~minimum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability~~ 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage. This compensation shall be paid during the permanent total disability of the injured employee but after a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation has been paid, the amount of the weekly compensation benefits being paid by the employer shall be reduced by the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which give rise to payments under this subdivision. This reduction shall also apply to any old age and survivor insurance benefits. Payments shall be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be. In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, no compensation shall be payable during the period of confinement in the institution, unless there is wholly dependent on the employee for support some person named in section 176.111, subdivision 1, 2 or 3, in which case the compensation provided for in section 176.111, during the period of confinement, shall be paid for the benefit of the dependent person during dependency. The dependency of this person shall be determined as though the employee were deceased.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DEFINITION.] (a) For purposes of subdivision 4, permanent total disability means only:

(1) the total and permanent loss of the sight of both eyes, the loss of both arms at the shoulder, the loss of both legs so close to the hips that no effective artificial members can be used, complete and permanent paralysis, total and permanent loss of mental faculties; or

(2) any other injury that results in a disability rating under this chapter of at least 15 percent of the whole body which totally and permanently incapacitates the employee from working at an occupation which brings the employee an income.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), clause (2), "totally and permanently incapacitated" means that the employee's physical disability, in combination with the employee's age, education, training, and experience, causes the employee to be unable to secure anything more than sporadic employment resulting in an insubstantial income.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RETIRED CESSATION OF BENEFITS.] Temporary total disability payments shall cease at retirement. "Retirement" means that a preponderance of the evidence supports a conclusion that an employee has retired. The subjective statement of an employee that the employee is not retired is not sufficient in itself to rebut objective evidence of retirement but may be considered along with other evidence.

For injuries occurring after January 1, 1984, an employee who receives social security old age and survivors insurance retirement benefits is presumed retired from the labor market. This presumption is rebuttable by a preponderance of the evidence. Permanent total disability benefits shall cease at age 67; provided that the employee is eligible to receive disability benefits being paid by a government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which gave rise to payments under this chapter, or if the employee is eligible to receive any old age and survivor insurance benefits. If the employee is not eligible, then permanent total disability benefits may continue after age 67.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on or after October 1, 1977, but prior to October 1, 1992, under this section shall exceed six percent a year; in those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum, the increase shall be deemed to be six percent. No adjustment increase made on or after October 1, 1992, under this section shall exceed four percent a year; in those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum, the increase shall be deemed to be four percent. No adjustment increase shall be made under this section on or after October 1, 1994, for any injuries occurring after October 1, 1975. The workers' compensation advisory council may consider adjustment increases and make recommendations to the legislature.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is 66-2/3 percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. ~~The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.~~

Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.132, is repealed.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective October 1, 1994. Sections 2, 6, and 7 apply to a personal injury, as defined under Minnesota Statutes, section 176.011, subdivision 16, occurring on or after October 1, 1994.

ARTICLE 3

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 175.16, is amended to read:

175.16 [DIVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHED.] The department of labor and industry shall consist of the following divisions: division of workers' compensation, division of boiler inspection, division of occupational safety and health, division of statistics, division of steamfitting standards, division of voluntary apprenticeship, division of labor standards, and such other divisions as the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may deem necessary and establish. Each division of the department and persons in charge thereof shall be subject to the supervision of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry and, in addition to such duties as are or may be imposed on them by statute, shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by said commissioner.

Subd. 2. [FRAUD INVESTIGATION UNIT.] The department of labor and industry shall contain a fraud investigation unit for the purposes of investigating fraudulent or other illegal practices of health care providers, employers, insurers, attorneys, employees, and others related to workers' compensation and to investigate other matters under the jurisdiction of the department.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.178, is amended to read:

176.178 [FRAUD.]

Subdivision 1. [INTENT.] Any person who, with intent to defraud, receives workers' compensation benefits to which the person is not entitled by knowingly misrepresenting, misstating, or failing to disclose any material fact is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [FORMS.] The text of subdivision 1 shall be placed on all forms prescribed by the commissioner for claims or responses to claims for workers' compensation benefits under this chapter. The absence of the text does not constitute a defense against prosecution under subdivision 1.

Sec. 3. [176.861] [DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [INSURANCE INFORMATION.] The commissioner may, in writing, require an insurance company to release to the commissioner any or all relevant information or evidence the commissioner deems important which the company may have in its possession relating to a workers' compensation claim including material relating to the investigation of the claim, statements of any person, and any other evidence relevant to the investigation.

Subd. 2. [INFORMATION RELEASED TO AUTHORIZED PERSONS.] If an insurance company has reason to believe that a claim may be suspicious, fraudulent, or illegal, the company shall, in writing, notify the commissioner and provide the commissioner with all relevant material related to the company's inquiry into the claim.

Subd. 3. [GOOD FAITH IMMUNITY.] An insurance company or its agent acting in its behalf and in good faith who releases oral or written information under subdivisions 1 and 2 is immune from civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed.

Subd. 4. [SELF-INSURER; ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.] For the purposes of this section "insurance company" includes a self-insurer and the assigned risk plan and their agents.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

$200,000 is appropriated to the department of labor and industry from the special compensation fund for fiscal year 1995 for the purpose of section 1. The complement of the department is increased by three positions for the purpose of section 1.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment~~ permanent partial compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ Permanent partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. ~~Impairment~~ Permanent partial compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation~~ Permanent partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ Permanent partial compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive ~~economic recovery~~ permanent partial compensation or impairment compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability can be ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.021, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERMANENT PARTIAL BENEFITS, PAYMENT.] Payments for permanent partial disability as provided in section 176.101, subdivision 3 2a, shall be made in the following manner:

(a) If the employee returns to work, payment shall be made ~~by lump sum~~ at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made;

(b) If temporary total payments have ceased, but the employee has not returned to work, payment shall be made at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made;

(c) If temporary total disability payments cease because the employee is receiving payments for permanent total disability or because the employee is retiring or has retired from the work force, then payment shall be made ~~by lump sum~~ at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made;

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.102, but the employer does not furnish the employee with work the employee can do in a permanently partially disabled condition, and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made ~~by lump sum~~ at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial ~~disability, economic recovery compensation, impairment~~ compensation, medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.] (a) For injury producing temporary total disability, the compensation is 66-2/3 percent of the weekly wage at the time of injury.

(b) On and after October 1, 1993, the maximum weekly compensation payable shall be as follows:

(1) During the year commencing on October 1, 1992 1993, and each year thereafter, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(2) During the year commencing on October 1, 1994, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 106 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(3) During the year commencing on October 1, 1995, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 107 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(4) During the year commencing on October 1, 1996, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 108 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(5) During the year commencing on October 1, 1997, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 109 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(6) During the year commencing on October 1, 1998, and each year thereafter, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 110 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year.

(c) The minimum weekly compensation payable is 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31 of the preceding year or the injured employee's actual weekly wage, whichever is less.

(d) ~~Subject to subdivisions 3a to 3u this~~ Temporary total compensation shall be paid during the period of disability, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and shall cease whenever any one of the following occurs:

(1) the employee returns to work;

(2) the employee withdraws from the labor market;

(3) the disability ends and the employee fails to diligently search for appropriate work;

(4) the employee refuses an offer of work that is consistent with a plan of rehabilitation filed with the commissioner which meets the requirements of section 176.102, subdivision 4, or, if no plan has been filed, the employee refuses an offer of suitable gainful employment that the employee can do in the employee's physical condition; or

(5) 90 days pass after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision II, paragraph (b).

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, the 90-day period after maximum medical improvement commences on the earlier of:

(1) the date that the employee receives a written medical report indicating that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement; or

(2) the date that the employer or insurer serves the report on the employee and the employee's attorney, if any.

(f) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), (2), or (3), it may only be recommenced prior to 90 days after maximum medical improvement and only as follows:

(1) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), it may be recommenced if the employee is laid off or terminated within one year of employment for reasons other than misconduct or is medically unable to continue at the job;

(2) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (2), but the employee subsequently returned to work, it may be recommenced in accordance with clause (1); or

(3) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (3), it may be recommenced if the employee begins diligently searching for appropriate work. Temporary total disability compensation recommenced under this paragraph is subject to cessation under paragraph (d).

Recommenced temporary total disability compensation may not be paid beyond 90 days after the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(g) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clauses (4) and (5), it may not be recommenced at a later date except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be $66\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the difference between the weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to the maximum rate for temporary total compensation.

(b) Except as provided under subdivision 3k, Temporary partial compensation may be paid only while the employee is employed, earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury, and the reduced wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition is due to the injury. Except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), temporary partial compensation may not be paid for more than 225 weeks, or after 450 weeks after the date of injury, whichever occurs first.

(c) Temporary partial compensation must be reduced to the extent that the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition plus the temporary partial disability payment otherwise payable under this subdivision exceeds 500 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) Compensation for permanent partial disability is as provided in this subdivision. Permanent partial disability must be rated as a percentage of the whole body in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner under section 176.105. The percentage determined pursuant to the rules must be multiplied by the corresponding amount in the following table:

Percent of disability	Amount
0-25	$ 75,000
26-30	80,000
31-35	85,000
36-40	90,000
41-45	95,000
46-50	100,000
51-55	120,000
56-60	140,000
61-65	160,000
66-70	180,000
71-75	200,000
76-80	240,000
81-85	280,000
86-90	320,000
91-95	360,000
96-100	400,000

An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. The compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the employee's temporary total disability rate on the date of injury. Permanent partial disability is not payable while temporary total compensation is being paid. Permanent partial disability is payable to permanently totally disabled employees in installments at the same intervals and the same amount as the employee's permanent total disability rate on the date of injury commencing at the time the disability can be ascertained.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MINORS; APPRENTICES.] (a) If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is an apprentice of any age and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total or a compensable permanent partial disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which the employee is entitled for the injury, the compensation rate for temporary total, temporary partial, a or permanent total disability or economic recovery compensation shall be the maximum rate for temporary total disability under subdivision 1.

(b) If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is a minor and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which the employee is entitled for the injury, the compensation rate for a permanent total disability shall be the maximum rate for temporary total disability under subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.105, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT; RULES; LOSS OF MORE THAN ONE BODY PART.] (a) For the purpose of establishing a disability schedule pursuant to clause (b), the legislature declares its intent that the commissioner establish a disability schedule which, assuming the same number and distribution of severity of injuries, the aggregate total of impairment compensation and economic recovery compensation benefits under section 176.101, subdivisions 3a to 3u be approximately equal to the total aggregate amount payable for permanent partial disabilities under section 176.101, subdivision 3, provided, however, that awards for specific injuries under the proposed schedule need not be the same as they were for the same injuries under the schedule pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3. The schedule shall be determined by sound actuarial evaluation and shall be based on the benefit level which exists on January 1, 1983.

(b) The commissioner shall by rulemaking adopt procedures setting forth rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability and to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3, and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3, which the commissioner deems appropriate.

The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Prior to adoption of rules the commissioner shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner may consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(1) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(2) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(3) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(4) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(5) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(6) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(7) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall be used only in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

Nothing listed in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall be used to dispute or challenge a disability rating given to a part of the body so long as the whole schedule conforms with the expressed intent of clause (a).

(c) If an employee suffers a permanent functional disability of more than one body part due to a personal injury incurred in a single occurrence, the percent of the whole body which is permanently partially disabled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the percentage for all functional disability combined does not exceed the total for the whole body:

where: A is the greater percentage whole body loss of the first body part; and B is the lesser percentage whole body loss otherwise payable for the second body part. $A + B(1 - A)$ is equivalent to $A + B - AB$.

For permanent partial disabilities to three body parts due to a single occurrence or as the result of an occupational disease, the above formula shall be applied, providing that A equals the result obtained from application of the formula to the first two body parts and B equals the percentage for the third body part. For permanent partial disability to four or more body parts incurred as described above, A equals the result obtained from the prior application of the formula, and B equals the percentage for the fourth body part or more in arithmetic progressions.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly periodic benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of economic recovery or impairment compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Where the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the mistaken compensation was not received in good faith, the commissioner or compensation judge may order reimbursement of the compensation. For purposes of this section, a payment is not received in good faith if it is obtained through fraud, or if the employee knew that the compensation was paid under mistake of fact or law, and the employee has not refunded the mistaken compensation.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.221, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [~~MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AND IMPAIRMENT AND PERMANENT PARTIAL COMPENSATION.~~] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivisions 9 and 11, ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation or permanent partial compensation~~ are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.82, is amended to read:

176.82 [ACTION FOR CIVIL DAMAGES FOR OBSTRUCTING EMPLOYEE SEEKING BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [RETALIATORY DISCHARGE.] Any person discharging or threatening to discharge an employee for seeking workers' compensation benefits or in any manner intentionally obstructing an employee seeking workers' compensation benefits is liable in a civil action for damages incurred by the employee including any diminution in workers' compensation benefits caused by a violation of this section including costs and reasonable attorney fees, and for punitive damages not to exceed three times the amount of any compensation benefit to which the employee is entitled. Damages awarded under this section shall not be offset by any workers' compensation benefits to which the employee is entitled.

Subd. 2. [REFUSAL TO REHIRE.] An employer who, without reasonable cause, refuses to rehire its employee when employment is available within the employee's physical limitations, shall be liable for one year's wages. The wages are payable from the date of the refusal to rehire, and at the same time and at the same rate as the employee's preinjury wage, to continue during the period of the refusal up to a maximum of $15,000. These payments shall be in addition to any other payments provided by this chapter. In determining the availability of employment, the continuance in business of the employer shall be considered and written rules promulgated by the employer with respect to seniority or the provisions or any collective bargaining agreement with respect to seniority shall govern.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of the individual's weekly benefit amount in the form of:

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, such lump sum payment shall be allocated over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of employment but not to exceed 28 calendar days provided that 50 percent of the total of any such payments in excess of eight weeks shall be similarly allocated to the period immediately following the 28 days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer ~~except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3k; or~~

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.231, the individual shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 176.011, subdivision 26; and 176.101,

INSURANCE RATE REGULATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following terms, for the purposes of sections 79.01 to 79.24 this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to given them.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [UNFAIRLY DISCRIMINATORY.] A rate, rating plan, or schedule of rates is unfairly discriminatory in relation to another if it clearly fails to reflect equitably the differences in expected losses, expenses, and the degree of risk. Rates, rating plans, or schedules of rates are not unfairly discriminatory because different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, so long as the rates, rating plan, or schedule of rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXCESSIVENESS.] Rates, rating plans, or schedules of rates are not excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be reasonable in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business or if expenses are reasonable in relation to the services rendered.

The commissioner shall monitor the income and profit actually earned. If it is in excess of the expected profit and return, the commissioner shall provide appropriate adjustments in future rates or provide other appropriate relief.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [FLEXIBLE RANGE OF RATES.] An insurer may write insurance at rates that are lower than the rates approved by the commissioner if the rates are not unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. [79.086] [BUNDLING PROHIBITED.]

No insurer, data service organization, association, or the assigned risk plan may accept more than one application for a workers' compensation insurance minimum premium policy presented in a single package. Any multiple application shall be reported to the special compensation fund.

Sec. 6. [79.254] [PRIOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [PRESUMPTION.] Rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans that have been filed with the commissioner before January 1, 1994, are conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of this article until the initial schedule of rates has been approved by order of the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [FILING.] If a rate was not filed by an insurer before the effective date of this section, an insurer may file a rate for any classification for which a rate was not previously filed. The rate shall not be used until it is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve a rate up to the rate level approved for use by the assigned risk plan for that rate class. The rates may remain in force until the commissioner has approved a schedule of rates under section 79.71. If the commissioner disapproves of any rate or rating plan pursuant to authority granted in this subdivision, the disapproval shall not be subject to chapter 14 and the decision shall be final.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL.] Until the commissioner issues an order approving a schedule of rates under section 79.71, an insurer may not, through the use of any rating plan, charge a rate higher than the rates applicable to the insurer under subdivision 1 or 2. This subdivision does not prohibit the use of approved experience rate plans or retrospective rating plans that have been adopted in the filed rates by insurers, the assigned risk plan, or a data service organization. This section does not prohibit the adjustment of a schedule of rates to reflect adjustments in the assessment rate for the special compensation fund, any adjustment in the assessment for the assigned risk plan pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 5, any adjustment in the assessment for the Minnesota insurance guarantee association pursuant to section 60C.05, or any other assessment required by law.

Subd. 4. [INTERIM RATES.] Rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans filed after December 31, 1993, may not be used after the effective date of this article and the rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans in effect prior to January 1, 1994, are reinstated.

Subd. 5. [COMPLIANCE.] No insurer may avoid the application of this section by limiting or denying the use of credits or other adjustments to the rates that were available and used before January 1, 1994. The commissioner shall monitor the activities of insurers to ensure that the requirements of this section are satisfied.

Subd. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section shall apply only to policies issued or renewed to be effective after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.50, is amended to read:

79.50 [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers; and

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations;

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and

(h) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.59, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The fact that insurers writing not more than 25 percent of the workers' compensation premiums in Minnesota use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivision 1 or 2.

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under this chapter as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Sec. 9. [79.71] [RATES; HEARINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION FOR ADOPTION OF RATE SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state for each classification under which business is written. The schedule of rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

For purposes of this section, "association" means association of insurers.

(b) In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of an association, the department of labor and industry, or any other interested party who requests that a hearing be held to adopt a schedule of rates. Upon receipt of a petition requesting a hearing for adoption of a schedule of rates, the commissioner shall determine whether the petition sufficiently sets forth facts that show that the existing schedule of rates is excessive, inadequate, unfairly discriminatory, or otherwise in need of modification so as to indicate the need to hold a hearing. If an association is the petitioner, the commissioner may decline to grant a hearing if the association has failed to provide information requested by previous orders that modify the schedule of rates, if the request was reasonable. The commissioner may accept or reject the petition for a hearing and shall give notice of a determination to the petitioning party. If the commissioner rejects the petition, the commissioner shall notify the petitioning party of the reasons for the rejection.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] (a) The commissioner shall determine, within 90 days of receipt of the petition whether to accept or reject the petition. If the commissioner accepts the petition for hearing, the commissioner shall order a hearing on matters set forth in the petition. Each insurer shall notify their insureds that a hearing on a rate increase will be held. The form of the notice to be sent to each insured shall be prescribed by the commissioner. The hearing shall be held pursuant to the contested case procedures in chapter 14. The burden of proof is on the petitioning party.

(b) The commissioner shall forward a copy of the order for hearing to the chief administrative law judge. The chief administrative law judge must, within 30 days of the receipt of the order, set a hearing date, assign an administrative law judge to hear the matter, and notify the commissioner of the hearing date and the administrative law judge assigned to hear the matter. The commissioner shall publish notice of the hearing in the State Register at least 20 days before the hearing date. Approval of the notice before publication by the administrative law judge is not required.

(c) The administrative law judge may admit without the traditional evidentiary foundation documentary and statistical evidence accepted and relied on by an expert whose expertise is related to workers' compensation rate matters. An employer, person representing a group of employers, or other person that will be directly affected by a change in an insurer's existing rate level or rating plan, and the commissioner of labor and industry, must be allowed to intervene and participate in any hearing to challenge the rate level or rating plan as being excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(d) The report of the administrative law judge must be issued within 180 days from the date of receipt of the order by the chief administrative law judge. Within 60 days of the completion of the hearing, the administrative law judge must submit a report to the commissioner. The parties, or the administrative law judge if the parties cannot agree, shall adjust all time requirements under the contested case procedures to conform with the time requirements set forth in this subdivision. After the close of the hearing record, the administrative law judge shall transmit to the commissioner the entire record of the hearing, including the transcript, exhibits, and all other material properly accepted into evidence, together with the finding of facts, conclusions, and recommended order made by the administrative law judge. The time for submitting the report may be extended by the chief administrative law judge for good cause.

Subd. 3. [HEARING DETERMINATION.] The commissioner may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, matters raised in the petition for adoption of the schedule of rates or matters raised in the findings and recommendations of the administrative law judge. The commissioner's determination shall be based upon substantial evidence. The commissioner of commerce is an interested party if the commissioner's decision is appealed.

Subd. 4. [DEADLINE FOR DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall make a final determination with respect to adoption of a schedule of rates within 90 days after receipt of the administrative law judge's report. If the commissioner fails to act within the 90-day period, the findings, conclusions, and recommended order of the administrative law judge become the final order of the commissioner on the 91st day after receipt.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTANTS; COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.] The commissioner of commerce may hire consultants, including a consulting actuary and other experts, deemed necessary to assist in the establishment or modification of the schedule of rates. A sum sufficient to pay the costs of conducting the hearing provided under subdivision 2, appeals therefrom, or the establishment or modification of the schedule of rates, including the costs of consultants and related costs, is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce, and assessed against the rating association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 6. [CONSULTANTS; ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES.] The office of administrative hearings, upon approval of the chief administrative law judge, may hire consultants necessary to assist the administrative law judge assigned to a workers' compensation rate proceeding. A sum sufficient to pay the costs of the commissioner of labor and industry in regard to the hearing provided under subdivision 2 and appeals therefrom, including the costs of consultants and related costs, is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of labor and industry and assessed against the association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 7. [APPOINTMENT OF ACTUARY.] The commissioner of commerce shall employ the services of a casualty actuary experienced in workers' compensation whose duties shall include but not be limited to investigation of complaints by insured parties about rates, rate classifications, or the discriminatory practices of an insurer. The salary of the actuary employed pursuant to this section is not subject to the provisions of section 43A.17, subdivision 1.

Sec. 10. [79.72] [PETITION FOR REHEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION CONTENTS.] Any party may petition the commissioner for rehearing and reconsideration of a determination made under section 79.71. The petition for rehearing and reconsideration shall be served on the commissioner and all parties to the rate hearing within 30 days after service of the commissioner's final order. The petition shall set forth factual grounds in support of the petition. Any party adversely affected by a petition for review and reconsideration has 15 days to respond to factual matters alleged in the petition.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF REHEARING.] The commissioner may grant a rehearing upon the filing of a petition under subdivision 1. On rehearing, the commissioner may limit the scope of factual matters that are subject to rehearing and reconsideration. The rehearing is subject to the provisions of this section.

Subd. 3. [MODIFICATION OF ORDER.] Following rehearing, the commissioner may modify the terms of the initial order adopting a change in the schedule of rates upon a determination that adequate factual grounds exist to support modification. Adequate factual grounds include, but are not limited to, erroneous testimony by any witness or party to the hearing, a material change in Minnesota loss or expense data that occurs after a petition for adoption of the schedule of rates has been filed, or any other mistake of fact that has a substantial effect upon the schedule of rates adopted in prior orders of the commissioner.

Sec. 11. [79.73] [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Final orders of the commissioner pursuant to sections 79.71 and 79.72 are subject to judicial review pursuant to sections 14.63 to 14.69 but shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal.

Sec. 12. [79.74] [INTERIM SCHEDULE OF RATES.]

(a) An association, the commissioner of labor and industry, or any interested party may file a petition for an adjustment in the schedule of rates when there has been a law change in the benefit payable under chapter 176. "Law change" means only statutory changes or supreme court decisions. When a petition for a change in the schedule of rates due to a law change is received by the commissioner, the commissioner shall review the petition for up to 30 days to determine if it presents facts that warrant a hearing. If the commissioner accepts a petition for hearing, it shall be conducted pursuant to the contested case procedures in chapter 14.

(b) The chief administrative law judge shall assign an administrative law judge to hear a petition for a change in the schedule of rates within 30 days. The administrative law judge shall conclude the hearing within 60 days of assignment by the chief administrative law judge and file findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a proposed order with the commissioner within 30 days of concluding the hearing. The administrative law judge shall, after the close of the record, file a report with recommendations in the same manner as in section 79.71. The time for holding the hearing and filing the report with the commissioner may be extended by the chief administrative law judge upon a showing of good cause for an additional 30 days.

(c) The commissioner's order may affirm, reverse, or modify the findings and order of the administrative law judge. The petitioning party shall have the burden of proof in any hearing held pursuant to this subdivision. Interim rate hearings are available only for changes in the schedule of workers' compensation rates that result from law changes. All evidentiary, procedural, and review standards in section 79.71 shall apply to interim rate hearings, except the time requirements in this subdivision.

(d) Interim rate hearings are subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14, except that the commissioner's interim rate order shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal by any party. The commissioner is an interested party if the commissioner's decision is appealed pursuant to chapter 14.

(e) Interim rate hearings may only be held after an initial schedule of rates has been approved by the commissioner unless requested by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 13. [79.75] [AUTOMATIC ADJUSTMENT OF RATES.]

(a) The commissioner shall adopt a rule to establish a mechanism to automatically adjust a schedule of rates to reflect benefit changes mandated by operation of law after the most recent change in the schedule of rates, an adjustment in the assessment rate for the special compensation fund, any adjustment in the assessment for the assigned risk plan pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 5, any adjustment in the assessment for the Minnesota insurance guaranty association pursuant to section 60C.05, or any other assessment required by law.

(b) At each rate hearing held pursuant to section 79.71 or rehearing pursuant to section 79.72, following an automatic adjustment, the commissioner shall review the rate adjustment to assure that the schedule of rates adopted after the adjustment are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner finds that the schedule of rates adopted after the adjustment are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the commissioner shall order appropriate remedial action.

Sec. 14. [79.76] [MANUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIAL FILING REQUIRED.] (a) On or before October 1, 1994, a rate service association licensed in Minnesota must file with the commissioner all underwriting and rating manuals that are used in the classification of risks and the calculation of rating plans, rates, and fees. The association must provide the commissioner with at least six copies of each manual. A copy of each manual filed shall also be provided to the commissioner of labor and industry.

(b) The commissioner shall review the manuals and on or before January 1, 1995, approve or disapprove all or part of the manuals. The evidentiary, procedural, and review standards of section 79.71 shall apply to the review of the manuals. Until the commissioner has approved or disapproved the manuals, they shall remain in force. The association may contest the disapproval of a manual or part of a manual pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. Until the conclusion of the contested case proceeding, the portions of the manuals that were not approved shall remain in force.

Subd. 2. [NEW MANUALS AND AMENDMENTS.] If the association adopts or amends a manual, the manual or the amendment to the manual shall not be effective until approved by the commissioner. The association must provide the commissioner with at least six copies of each manual or amendment. A copy of each manual or amendment filed shall also be provided to the commissioner of labor and industry. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove any manual or amendment within 90 days of filing. The evidentiary, procedural, and review standards of section 79.71 shall apply to the review of the manuals. Any manual or amendment not approved within 90 days shall be deemed to be disapproved. As to a disapproved manual or amendment, the association may contest the disapproval pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] The burden of proof in a proceeding under this section shall be upon the party requesting the adoption of a manual or an amendment of a manual.

Subd. 4. [COSTS.] The costs of the commissioner and the commissioner of labor and industry in regard to a contested case proceeding under this section, including the costs of consultants, staff, related costs, and costs billed by the attorney general's office shall be paid from the special compensation fund.

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC ACCESS.] Copies of all approved manuals must be made available to the public for inspection during regular business hours at the office of the association. Proposed manuals and amendments to manuals must be made available in the same manner.

Sec. 15. [79.77] [INFORMATION.]

(a) In addition to other information that the commissioner requests pursuant to section 79.71, a rate service organization shall file with the commissioner, the following information on its Minnesota experience:

- (1) reserves for incurred but not reported losses of its members;*
- (2) paid claims;*
- (3) reserves for open claims;*
- (4) a schedule of claims in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;*
- (5) the income on invested reserves of its members;*
- (6) an itemized list of policies written at other than the filed rates;*
- (7) loss adjustment expenses;*
- (8) subrogation recoveries;*
- (9) administrative expenses; and*
- (10) commission and lobbying expenses.*

The filing of the information of Minnesota experience must be based on separate records containing only Minnesota information separately maintained by the association. The commissioner may request and the association must provide the separate records to the commissioner.

(b) Losses and reserves shall be reported separately as to medical and indemnity expenses. The rating association shall file an itemized breakdown of its lobbying expenses.

(c) The commissioner shall consider this information in an appropriate manner in adopting a schedule of rates and shall decline to grant a hearing pursuant to section 79.71 for purposes of considering a rate increase if the association fails to provide the information.

(d) The rating association shall be domiciled, chartered, and principally located in the state of Minnesota. Except with the approval of the commissioner, the rating association may not contract for its data collection responsibilities with data service organizations domiciled, chartered, or principally located outside the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 16. [79.78] [DEPARTMENT AS RATE SERVICE ORGANIZATION.]

The department of commerce shall assume the functions of all rate service organizations authorized by sections 79.61 and 79.62. Copies of all records and data maintained by rate service organizations must be provided to the department upon request.

An insurer, as a condition of doing business in this state, shall provide to the department all information on claims experience, administrative costs, investment income, loss reserves, adjustment expenses, and other pertinent information the department requests. The information must be provided in a form the department prescribes, at the time the insurer files its annual statement. The costs of this activity by the department shall be paid on an equitable and nondiscriminatory basis by the insurers as determined by the commissioner.

An insurer that fails to comply with this section is subject to a civil penalty, not to exceed $10,000 and is subject to other penalties, including revocation of its authority to do business in the state. These penalties are in addition to other penalties authorized by law. This section does not preclude the continued activities of any rate service organization. Rate service organizations or other persons may contract with the department to obtain the information collected by the department.

Sec. 17. [79.79] [RECORD; DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATION SHALL FURNISH INFORMATION.]

A data service organization shall keep a record of its proceedings. It shall furnish, upon demand, to any employer whose workers' compensation risk has been surveyed, full information about the survey, including the method of the computation and a detailed description and location of all items producing charges or credits. The organization shall provide a means, approved by the commissioner, for hearing any member or employer whose risk has been inspected, either in person or by a representative, before the governing or rating committee or other proper representatives with reference to any matter affecting the risk. Any insurer or employer may appeal from a decision of the organization to the commissioner. The organization shall make rules governing appeals to be filed with and approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may require the organization to file any information connected with its activities.

Sec. 18. [79.80] [RATES FILED.]

Every insurer writing workers' compensation insurance in this state, except as ordered by the commissioner, must file with the commissioner its rates for compensation insurance and all additions or changes. All rates so filed must comply with the requirements of law and are not effective until approved by the commissioner.

Sec. 19. [79.81] [RATES UNIFORM; EXCEPTIONS.]

No insurer may write insurance at a rate above that approved by the commissioner. The insurer may reduce or increase a rate by the application to individual risks of the system of merit or experience rating which has been approved by the commissioner. This reduction or increase shall be set forth in the policy or by endorsement. Upon written request, an insurer shall furnish a written explanation to the insured of how and why the individual rate was adjusted by application of a system of merit or experience rating. This explanation shall be mailed to the insured within 30 days of the request.

Sec. 20. [79.82] [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.]

The commissioner of commerce shall require compensation insurers, or their agents, to file the necessary reports for the purposes of this chapter for use by the commissioner including but not limited to report as a supplement to the annual report required by licensed property casualty insurers under section 60A.13 that satisfies this section.

The supplemental reports must include the following data for the previous year ending on the 31st day of December:

- (1) direct premiums written;
- (2) direct premiums earned;
- (3) net investment income, including net realized capital gains and losses, using appropriate estimates where necessary;
- (4) incurred claims, listed individually, together with the date each claim was incurred, and with figures provided for, of the following:
 - (a) dollar amount of claims closed with payment, plus
 - (b) reserves for reported claims at the end of the current year, minus
 - (c) reserves for reported claims at the end of the previous year, plus
 - (d) reserves for incurred but not reported claims at the end of the current year, minus

- (6) net underwriting gain or loss; and
- (7) net operation gain or loss, including net investment income.

This report is due by the first of May of each year. The commissioner shall annually audit, compile, and review all reports submitted by insurers pursuant to this section. The audit must verify that each item required by this subdivision on each line of business covered is accurate and complete. The department of commerce shall perform the audit on a domestic insurer, and may either personally audit a foreign insurer, or contract with the domiciliary state of the foreign insurer to have them perform the audit. In either case, each insurer audited shall pay the audit fees and expenses of the department, including per diem salary fees of persons who participated in or conducted the audit. These fees and expenses must be paid into the department of commerce revolving fund. These filings must be published and made available to any interested insured or citizen.

A rate, or a change or an amendment of a rate, that will result in an increase of an existing rate, filed by an insurer subject to this subdivision is not effective unless the insurer has complied with all of the requirements of this section.

The initial report required by this section is due May 1, 1995.

Sec. 21. [79.83] [VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES.]

Any insurer, data service organization, agent, or other representative or employee of any insurer or data service organization that fails to comply with or violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order or ruling of the commissioner, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $25,000. In addition, the license of any insurer, agent, or broker guilty of the violation may be revoked or suspended by the commissioner.

Sec. 22. [79.84] [RULEMAKING.]

Sec. 23. [79.85] [LIABILITY UNDER OTHER LAW.]

The regulatory scheme established by this chapter does not relieve any person from liability under sections 325D.49 to 325D.66, or United States Code, title 15, sections 1 to 38.

Sec. 24. [TRANSITION PROVISIONS; EMPLOYEES.]

Until January 1, 1998, initial appointment to the professional positions authorized by Minnesota Statutes, section 79.71, shall be deemed to be provisional or exceptional appointments as defined by Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.15, subdivisions 4 and 8; and the commissioner of employee relations must authorize those appointments as requested by the commissioner of commerce or labor and industry. Upon request of the commissioner of commerce or labor and industry, the appointments under this section shall be considered an unusual employment condition as defined by Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.17, subdivision 3, and salaries may be set accordingly.

Sec. 25. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

It is the intent of the legislature in enacting this article to reinstate the prior state workers' compensation insurance rate regulatory system that was repealed effective January 1, 1984. Judicial and administrative decisions regarding the prior law shall be deemed to be applicable to this article in the same manner as to the prior law.

Sec. 26. [RATE, CLASSIFICATION, AND CREDIT FREEZE.]

Until January 1, 1995, no insurer, data service organization, association, or the assigned risk plan may increase the workers' compensation rates of an employer, reclassify the operation of an employer or reduce a premium credit previously offered an employer. This section does not prohibit adjustment of an employer's experience rating in accordance with the rating plan of an insurer, data service organization, association or the assigned risk plan filed with the commissioner of commerce on or before December 31, 1993.

Sec. 27. [PREMIUM REDUCTION; REINSURANCE REFUND.]

Any amount received by an insurer or the assigned risk plan from the reinsurance association as surplus must be applied to proportionately reduce the premiums of the insured employers of the insurer or the assigned risk plan.

Sec. 28. [APPROPRIATION.]

$1,300,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the department of commerce for the purpose of this article. The appropriation is available immediately and is available until expended. The complement of the department of commerce is increased by a maximum of ten positions.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS.] (a) It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

(1) to deny any person the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations of a place of public accommodation because of race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, or sex, or for a taxicab company to discriminate in the access to, full utilization of, or benefit from service because of a person's disability; or

(2) for a place of public accommodation not to make reasonable accommodation to the known physical, sensory, or mental disability of a disabled person. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the factors to be considered may include:

(i) the frequency and predictability with which members of the public will be served by the accommodation at that location;

(ii) the size of the business or organization at that location with respect to physical size, annual gross revenues, and the number of employees;

(iii) the extent to which disabled persons will be further served from the accommodation;

(iv) the type of operation;

(v) the nature and amount of both direct costs and legitimate indirect costs of making the accommodation and the reasonableness for that location to finance the accommodation; and

(vi) the extent to which any persons may be adversely affected by the accommodation.

State or local building codes control where applicable. Violations of state or local building codes are not violations of this chapter and must be enforced under normal building code procedures.

(b) This paragraph lists general prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of disability. For purposes of this paragraph "individual" or "class of individuals" refers to the clients or customers of the covered public accommodation that enter into the contractual, licensing, or other arrangement.

(1) It is discriminatory to:

(i) subject an individual or class of individuals on the basis of a disability of that individual or class, directly or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, to a denial of the opportunity of the individual or class to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of an entity;

(ii) afford an individual or class of individuals on the basis of the disability of that individual or class, directly or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations that are not equal to those afforded to other individuals; and

(iii) provide an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability of that individual or class, directly or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, with goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations that are different or separate from those provided to other individuals, unless the action is necessary to provide the individual or class of individuals with goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations, or other opportunities that are as effective as those provided to others.

(2) Goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations must be afforded to an individual with a disability in the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of the individual.

(3) Notwithstanding the existence of separate or different programs or activities provided in accordance with this section, the individual with a disability may not be denied the opportunity to participate in the programs or activities that are not separate or different.

(4) An individual or entity may not, directly or through contractual or other arrangements, use standards or criteria and methods of administration:

(i) that have the effect of discriminating on the basis of disability; or

(ii) that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are subject to common administrative control.

(c) This paragraph lists specific prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of disability. For purposes of this paragraph, discrimination includes:

(1) the imposition or application of eligibility criteria that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or any class of individuals with disabilities from fully and equally enjoying any goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations, unless the criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations;

(2) failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures when the modifications are necessary to afford the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that making the modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations;

(3) failure to take all necessary steps to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated, or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity can demonstrate that taking the steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations being offered and would result in an undue burden;

(4) failure to remove architectural barriers, and communication barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities, and transportation barriers in existing vehicles used by an establishment for transporting individuals, not including barriers that can only be removed through the retrofitting of vehicles by the installation of hydraulic or other lifts, if the removal is readily achievable; and

(5) if an entity can demonstrate that the removal of a barrier under clause (4) is not readily achievable or cannot be considered a reasonable accommodation, a failure to make the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative means if the means are readily achievable.

(d) Nothing in this chapter requires an entity to permit an individual to participate in and benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations of the entity if the individual poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others. "Direct threat" means a significant risk to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated by a modification of policies, practices, or procedures or by the provision of auxiliary aids or services.

(e) No individual may be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of specified public transportation services provided by a private entity that is primarily engaged in the business of transporting people and whose operations affect commerce. For purposes of this paragraph, it is an unfair discriminatory practice for a private entity providing public transportation to engage in one or more of the following practices:

(1) imposition or application of eligibility criteria that screen out, or tend to screen out, an individual with a disability or a class of individuals with disabilities from fully enjoying the specified public transportation services provided by the entity, unless the criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of the services being offered;

(2) failure to make reasonable modifications, provide auxiliary aids and services, and remove barriers, consistent with section 363.03, subdivision 3, paragraph (c);

(3) the purchase or lease of a new vehicle, other than an automobile or van with a seating capacity of fewer than eight passengers, including the driver, or an over-the-road bus, that is to be used to provide specified public transportation that is not readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, except that a new vehicle need not be readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities if the vehicle is to be used solely in a demand responsive system and if the private entity can demonstrate that the system, when viewed in its entirety, provides a level of services to individuals with disabilities equivalent to the level of service provided to the general public;

(4) purchase or lease a new railroad passenger car that is to be used to provide specified public transportation if the car is not readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, or to manufacture railroad passenger cars or purchase used cars that have been remanufactured so as to extend their usable life by ten years or more, unless the remanufactured car, to the maximum extent feasible, is made readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, except that compliance with this clause is not required to the extent that compliance would significantly alter the historic or antiquated character of historic or antiquated railroad passenger cars or rail stations served exclusively by those cars;

(5) purchase or lease a new, used, or remanufactured vehicle with a seating capacity in excess of 16 passengers, including the driver, for use on a fixed route public transportation system, that is not readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs. If a private entity that operates a fixed route public transportation system purchases or leases a new, used, or remanufactured vehicle with a seating capacity of 16 passengers or fewer, including the driver, for use on the system which is not readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, it is an unfair discriminatory practice for the entity to fail to operate the system so that, when viewed in its entirety, the system ensures a level of service to individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, equivalent to the level of service provided to individuals without disabilities; or

(6) to fail to operate a demand responsive system so that, when viewed in its entirety, the system ensures a level of service to individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, equivalent to the level of service provided to individuals without disabilities. It is an unfair discriminatory practice for the entity to purchase or lease for use on a demand responsive system a new, used, or remanufactured vehicle with a seating capacity in excess of 16 passengers, including the driver, that is not readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs, unless the entity can demonstrate that the system, when viewed in its entirety, provides a level of service to individuals with disabilities equivalent to that provided to individuals without disabilities.

(f) It is an unfair discriminatory practice to construct a new facility or station to be used in the provision of public transportation services, unless the facilities or stations are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs. It is an unfair discriminatory practice for a facility or station currently used for the provision of public transportation services defined in this subdivision to fail to make alterations necessary in order, to the maximum extent feasible, to make the altered portions of facilities or stations readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including individuals who use wheelchairs. If the private entity is undertaking an alteration that affects or could affect the usability of or access to an area of the facility containing a primary function, the entity shall make the alterations so that, to the maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area, and the bathrooms, drinking fountains, and telephones serving the altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities if the alterations to the path of travel or to the functions mentioned are not disproportionate to the overall alterations in terms of cost and scope. The entity raising this defense has the burden of proof, and the department shall review these cases on a case-by-case basis."

(a) Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, no motion to modify a custody order may be made earlier than one year after the date of the entry of a decree of dissolution or legal separation containing a provision dealing with custody, except in accordance with paragraph (c).

(b) If a motion for modification has been heard, whether or not it was granted, unless agreed to in writing by the parties no subsequent motion may be filed within two years after disposition of the prior motion on its merits, except in accordance with paragraph (c).

(c) The time limitations prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not prohibit a motion to modify a custody order if the court finds that there is persistent and willful denial or interference with visitation, or has reason to believe that the child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development.

(d) If the court has jurisdiction to determine child custody matters, the court shall not modify a prior custody order unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior order or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior order, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the parties and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards the court shall retain the custody arrangement established by the prior order unless:

(i) both parties agree to the modification;

(ii) the child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the other party; or

(iii) the child's present environment endangers the child's physical or emotional health or impairs the child's emotional development and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

In addition, a court may modify a custody order under section 631.52.

(e) In deciding whether to modify a prior joint custody order, the court shall apply the standards set forth in paragraph (d) unless: (1) the parties agree in writing to the application of a different standard, or (2) the party seeking the modification is asking the court for permission to move the residence of the child to another state.

(f) If a custodial parent has been granted sole physical custody of a minor and the child subsequently lives with the noncustodial parent, and temporary sole physical custody has been approved by the court or by a court-appointed referee, the court may suspend the noncustodial parent's child support obligation pending the final custody determination. The court's order denying the suspension of child support must include a written explanation of the reasons why continuation of the child support obligation would be in the best interests of the child.'

Sec. 3. [WILLMAR REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER; LAND CONVEYANCE.]

(a) The commissioner of administration may convey, by quit claim deed in a form approved by the attorney general, to the county of Kandiyohi, those certain tracts of land owned by the state in connection with the ownership and operation of the Willmar regional treatment center. The conveyance must provide that the land reverts to the state if it is not used for the purpose set forth in paragraph (c).

(b) Tracts to be conveyed are located in Kandiyohi county and are described as:

(1) Tract A: ~~The Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter all in Section 1, Township 119, Range 35, lying Westerly of U.S.T.H. No. 71 and S.T.H. No. 23 Bypass, and Easterly of U.S.T.H. No. 71 & S.T.H. No. 23, and Northeasterly of S.T.H. No. 294, EXCEPT the South 200.00 feet of the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter thereof~~ *That part of the Northwest Quarter and Government Lot 1 of Section 1, Township 119, Range 35, lying Southwest-erly of the Southwesterly right-of-way line of U.S.T.H. No. 71 and S.T.H. No. 23 and East of the East right-of-way line of former U.S.T.H. No. 71 and S.T.H. No. 71 & S.T.H. No. 23 Bypass, and Easterly of S.T.H. No. 294~~ The North 750.00 feet of Government Lot 2 and the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 1, Township 119, Range 35, lying Easterly of the East right-of-way line of S.T.H. No. 294 and Southwesterly of the Southwesterly right-of-way line of U.S.T.H. No. 71 and S.T.H. No. 23.

(c) The described tracts are not required by the state for operation of the Willmar regional treatment center and are desired by Kandiyohi county for construction of a human services building and a future law enforcement center. Construction of the county facilities in close proximity to existing treatment center facilities would enable state and county sharing of services such as maintenance, food services, and central heating, resulting in efficiencies of operation and financial savings to both the state and the county.”

In addition, if the present bridge structure is less than ten feet in length but a hydrological survey indicates that the replacement bridge structure or culvert must be ten feet or more in length, then the bridge or culvert is eligible for replacement funds. In addition, if a culvert that replaces a deficient bridge is in a county comprehensive water plan approved by the board of water and soil resources and the department of natural resources, the costs of the culvert and roadway grading other than surfacing are eligible for replacement funds up to the cost of constructing a replacement bridge. The expenditures on bridge structures and culverts may be on a matching basis, and if on a matching basis, not more than 90 percent of the cost of a bridge structure or culvert may be paid from the county turnback account. When bridge approach construction work exceeds $10,000 in costs, or when the county engineer determines that the cost of the replacement culverts alone will not exceed $20,000, the town shall be eligible for financial assistance from the town bridge account. Financial assistance shall be requested by resolution of the county board and shall be limited to:

(1) 100 percent of the cost of the bridge approach work that is in excess of $10,000; or

(2) 100 percent of the cost of the replacement culverts when the cost does not exceed $20,000 and the town board agrees to be responsible for all the other costs, which may include costs for structural removal, installation, and permitting. The replacement structure design and costs shall be approved and certified by the county engineer, but need not be subsequently approved by the department of transportation.

An amount equal to 47.5 percent of the county turnback account must be set aside as a town road account and distributed as provided in section 162.081."

(b) The commissioner shall publish a list of all eligible facilities by September 1, 1994.

Sec. 4. [115B.383] [REQUIREMENTS FOR ELIGIBLE FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) An owner or operator of an eligible facility shall:

(1) by March 1, 1995, enter into a binding agreement with the commissioner to do the following prior to acceptance of the facility under this section:

(i) transfer to the state legal title to the property described in subdivision 2;

(ii) transfer any financial assurance funds required under section 116.07, subdivision 4h, that remain in the financial assurance accounts for the facility after facility closure and any postclosure care and contingency action undertaken under clause (4) to the commissioner of revenue to be credited to the landfill cleanup account established in section 115B.42, or, if financial assurance is provided through a letter of credit, pay to the commissioner of revenue the amount that would have accumulated had financial assurance been provided through a trust fund, less amounts paid or required to be paid for closure, postclosure, and contingency action under clauses (2) and (4);

(2) complete required closure activities at the facility in accordance with the terms of the facility's permit, any applicable closure orders or enforcement agreements with the agency, and the solid waste rules in effect at the time the facility stopped accepting waste;

(3) by March 1, 1995, send the commissioner a copy of all applicable comprehensive general liability insurance policies and other liability policies relating to property damage, certificates, or other evidence of insurance coverage held during the life of the facility; take any actions necessary to preserve the owner or operator's rights to payment or defense under the policies; cooperate with the commissioner in asserting claims; and enter into a binding agreement with the commissioner to assign, after May 1, 1996, and by July 1, 1996, only those rights under the policies for claims covered by subdivision 7, paragraph (c), to the commissioner; and

(4) until notification of acceptance is received under subdivision 3 or 4, continue to comply with all applicable postclosure care and contingency action requirements.

(b) At eligible facilities where closure or response actions are being undertaken by a person or group of persons, the person or group of persons may assist in completing, arranging for or verifying completion of, or providing necessary information related to, the requirements in paragraph (a).

(c) The commissioner shall maintain separate accounting for each eligible facility regarding:

(1) the amount of financial assurance funds transferred under paragraph (a), clause (1), item (ii); and

(2) costs of response actions taken at the facility.

(d) A person or group of persons undertaking actions under paragraph (b) may apply to the commissioner for acceptance of the eligible facility. The application must be in writing and must contain sufficient information to allow the commissioner to determine that the requirements of paragraph (a) have been completed or are otherwise not applicable. The application may not be made later than January 1, 1995.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY TO BE TRANSFERRED TO STATE.] (a) The property that must be transferred under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (i), is the entire property described in the most recent solid waste permit for the eligible facility, along with any property described in any previous solid waste permit for the eligible facility and any easements, licenses, or other property interests owned by the owner or operator that are necessary for response actions at the facility, except:

(1) an operating waste disposal facility on the property that is permitted by the agency or for which application for a permit was made by March 1, 1994, if the fill boundary of the facility is at least 200 feet from the fill boundary of the eligible facility;

(2) land and buildings associated with facilities on the property, other than operating waste disposal facilities, that the commissioner determines are reasonably necessary for continued operation of the facilities and are not located within the fill boundary of the eligible facility;

(3) any other land the commissioner determines will not be necessary for the long-term care of the eligible facility and any anticipated response actions at the facility; and

(4) land that the owner or operator before January 1, 1994, agreed to transfer and that was not used for placement of waste. Transfer of this land must be made not later than the transfer under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (i).

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "disposal facility" does not include appurtenant facilities needed to process waste for disposal or transfer to another waste facility.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION AND EARLY ACCEPTANCE.] (a) Within 60 days of receipt of an application submitted by a person or group of persons other than the owner or operator of an eligible facility under subdivision 1, paragraph (b), and for other facilities by June 1, 1995, the commissioner shall:

(1) certify as accepted those eligible facilities that:

(i) the commissioner determines have met the requirements of subdivision 1 as of March 1, 1995; and

(ii) have transferred the property described in subdivision 2 and the financial assurance funds described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), item (ii); and

(2) notify the owners or operators of eligible facilities that are not certified under clause (1), and the applicant for an eligible facility, if other than the owner or operator, that the owner or operator must complete all requirements under subdivision 1 by August 1, 1995, or execute a binding agreement with the commissioner by August 1, 1995, that provides for completion of those requirements.

(b) In cases where an owner or operator of an eligible facility applied for exclusion by March 1, 1995, and is subsequently notified by the commissioner that the facility did not qualify for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator and the applicant that within 60 days the owner or operator must complete the requirements of subdivision 1 or execute a binding agreement with the commissioner that provides for completion of those requirements.

Subd. 4. [ACCEPTANCE OF OTHER FACILITIES.] For facilities not accepted under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (1), within 60 days following the applicable date under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), or paragraph (b), for completion of the requirements in subdivision 1, the commissioner shall evaluate the status of the facility and shall accept a facility that has satisfied the conditions of subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [DEFAULT.] (a) Any of the following conditions constitutes grounds for the commissioner to declare an owner or operator in default:

(1) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has not entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner as required under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), the owner's or operator's failure to complete the requirements in subdivision 1 by August 1, 1995;

(2) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has not entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner as required under subdivision 3, paragraph (b), the owner or operator's failure to complete the requirements in subdivision 1 within 60 days of being notified under that paragraph; or

(3) for an owner or operator of an eligible facility who has entered into a binding agreement with the commissioner under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), or paragraph (b), the owner's or operator's failure to complete any of the terms of the binding agreement by the negotiated completion date.

(b) If an owner or operator is declared to be in default under paragraph (a), the commissioner shall:

(1) deny future permits or licenses, including renewal of existing permits or licenses, to operate a solid waste business;

(2) complete closure, postclosure, and any other necessary actions described in subdivision 8 at the facility and seek recovery of the costs from the owner or operator under section 115B.17, subdivision 6;

(3) file liens under subdivision 6; and

(4) acquire, by eminent domain under chapter 117, the property described in the most recent permit issued by the agency for the facility, and subtract from any amount awarded the owner the commissioner's costs of closure, postclosure care, and response actions at the facility.

Subd. 6. [LIENS.] (a) The following constitute liens in favor of the state upon any real property, other than homestead property, owned by the owner or operator that is located in the state:

(1) all expenses, including expenses related to seeking cost recovery, incurred by the commissioner under subdivision 5, paragraph (b), clause (2); and

(2) all expenses incurred by responsible persons other than the owner or operator that are subject to reimbursement under section 115B.44.

(b) For the purpose of determining the amount of a lien under paragraph (a), clause (1), the commissioner shall estimate environmental response costs that will be incurred in the future and discount that amount to present value.

(c) A lien under paragraph (a), clause (1), attaches when expenses are first incurred by the commissioner. A lien under paragraph (a), clause (2), attaches when the facility is declared to be in default under subdivision 5.

(d) A lien under this subdivision continues until it is satisfied or becomes unenforceable as for an environmental lien under section 514.672. Notice, filing, and release of a lien under this subdivision are governed by sections 514.671 to 514.676, except where those requirements are specific to cleanup action expenses only. Relative priority of a lien under this subdivision is governed by section 514.672, except that a lien attached to property that was included in a permit for a solid waste disposal facility takes precedence over all other liens regardless of when these liens were or are perfected. Amounts received to satisfy all or part of a lien under this subdivision must be deposited in the landfill cleanup account.

Subd. 7. [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE AND LIABILITY; EFFECT OF ACCEPTANCE.] (a) Except as provided in section 115B.386, sections 115B.04 and 115B.05, and all other state and local laws and regulations that might otherwise create liability arising from the presence of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or decomposition gases, do not apply to any eligible facility that is accepted under this section, provided that:

(1) liability, if any, to third parties for personal injury claims associated with the existence and operation of the facility applies to persons otherwise responsible for the existence and operation of the facility, regardless of its acceptance status; and

(2) liability, if any, to third parties for personal injury claims associated with the environmental response at the facility applies to persons that actually undertook the environmental response action that created the liability.

Nothing in this paragraph is intended to affect any contractual rights of any entity, whether such rights currently exist or are created in the future.

(b) Upon acceptance of a facility:

(1) any and all obligations under any and all federal, state, and local consent orders or decrees, administrative orders, including those issued pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 9601 et seq., or chapter

115B, and any other settlement agreement or document imposing environmental response requirements at a facility, and any future obligations imposed pursuant to federal, state, or local authority, become the sole obligations of the state, and shall be completed in a timely manner by the commissioner; and

(2) all persons subject to the obligations described in clause (1) prior to acceptance of the facility are fully and completely relieved of the obligations and liability therefor and any other responsibilities existing then or in the future, except that owners or operators of excluded facilities, owners or operators that have defaulted under this section, and owners or operators of ineligible facilities retain any and all such obligations.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (a), the state shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless any and all responsible persons from any and all liability at an accepted facility for environmental response costs, and all other costs and damages associated with the facility arising from the presence of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or decomposition gases, including without limitation liability under the Federal Superfund Act, chapters 115, 115B, 116, and 116B, and other state laws and regulations, including any orders and agreements authorized thereunder, common law, and any other federal, state, and local law.

(d) The commissioner and the attorney general shall communicate with the United States Environmental Protection Agency addressing the manner and procedure for the state's assumption of obligations and liability for all actions and costs imposed in orders, decrees, agreements, or other documents in which the United States Environmental Protection Agency is a party or has potential jurisdiction pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act.

Subd. 8. [RESPONSE TO RELEASES.] The commissioner shall conduct or contract for postclosure care at accepted facilities and take any removal or remedial action, including emergency action, related to a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant, or decomposition gas from an accepted facility that the commissioner finds necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. The commissioner may undertake detailed studies to determine the necessary response actions at individual facilities. To avoid duplication and increase administrative efficiency, the commissioner shall develop general work plans that can replace those provisions of the detailed studies that apply to facilities with similar characteristics. Before making a final determination of appropriate response actions for a facility, the commissioner shall hold at least one public informational meeting near the facility and provide for receiving and responding to comments related to the determination. The commissioner shall design, implement, and provide oversight of response actions consistent with a final determination made under this subdivision.

Subd. 9. [PRIORITY LIST.] For the purpose of preventing or responding to releases of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or decomposition gases at eligible facilities, the commissioner shall establish a priority list for eligible facilities. The list must be based on the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facility, the potential for direct human contact, and the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems. The list must be established by January 1, 1995, and must be updated to reflect inclusion of additional eligible facilities and changing conditions at the facilities that affect priority for response actions.

Subd. 10. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Upon request by the commissioner, a person whom the commissioner has reason to believe has or may obtain information related to the ownership or operation of an eligible facility, or to the generation, composition, transportation, treatment, or disposal of waste in an eligible facility, shall furnish to the commissioner any information that is relevant to a release or threatened release at an eligible facility.

Subd. 11. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The commissioner, on presentation of credentials, and at reasonable business hours, may:

(1) examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda, or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the agency under subdivision 10; and

(2) enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking action authorized by this section, including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 10, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking response action.

Subd. 12. [ACQUISITION AND DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.] The commissioner may acquire and dispose of other property, including easements and other forms of access to property, under section 115B.17, subdivisions 15 and 16, that the commissioner finds necessary for response actions related to an eligible facility.

Subd. 13. [INSURANCE.] The commissioner may conduct investigations to identify responsible persons at accepted facilities. At the commissioner's request, a responsible person identified under this subdivision shall provide the commissioner with a copy of all applicable comprehensive general liability insurance policies, certificates, or other evidence of insurance coverage held while the person engaged in actions making the person a potential responsible person; take any actions necessary to preserve the person's rights to payment or defense under the policies; cooperate with the commissioner in asserting claims; and assign only those rights under the policies for claims covered by subdivision 7, paragraph (c), to the commissioner.

Subd. 14. [PURSUIT OF ASSIGNED INSURANCE CLAIMS.] The attorney general shall vigorously pursue available insurance claims under rights assigned under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (3), and subdivision 13 and may contract for legal services for this purpose. All money recovered under this subdivision must be credited to the landfill cleanup account.

Sec. 5. [115B.384] [EXCLUDED FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION PROCEDURE.] Applications from eligible facilities requesting exclusion must be received by the commissioner by February 1, 1995. The owner or operator of an eligible facility that is subject to an enforcement order under section 106 of the Federal Superfund Act, as amended, may not apply for exclusion under this section. In addition to other information required by the commissioner, an application must include a disclosure of all financial assurance accounts established for the facility. Applications for exclusion shall meet the following criteria:

(1) be timely and complete;

(2) show that the operator or owner is complying with an approved financial assurance plan for the facility that is adequate to provide for closure, postclosure care, and contingency action and is complying with the agency's rules adopted under section 116.07, subdivision 4h; and

(3) demonstrate that the facility is closed or is in compliance with a closure schedule approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [EVALUATION OF EXCLUSION STATUS.] Within 60 days after the commissioner has received an application for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator if the facility has been accepted as an excluded facility. If the commissioner finds that the facility does not satisfy the requirements for exclusion, the commissioner shall notify the owner or operator of that fact.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTION ON USE OF PROPERTY AT EXCLUDED FACILITIES.] (a) A person may not use any property described in the most recent agency permit issued for an excluded facility in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(1) is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(2) is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment:

(b) Before any transfer of ownership of property described in paragraph (a), the owner must obtain approval from the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve a transfer if the owner can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that persons and property will not be exposed to undue risk from releases of hazardous substances or pollutants or contaminants.

(c) After obtaining approval from the commissioner, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing a legal description of the property that discloses to any potential transferee:

(1) that the land has been used as a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility;

(2) the identity, quantity, location, condition, and circumstances of the disposal and any release of hazardous substances or pollutants or contaminants from the facility to the full extent known or reasonably ascertainable; and

(3) that the use of the property or some portion of it may be restricted as provided in paragraph (a).

(d) An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under paragraph (c), clauses (1) to (3), with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded. If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the waste from the facility together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record an affidavit indicating the removal. Failure to record an affidavit as provided in this paragraph does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

(e) The county recorder shall record all affidavits presented in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d). The affidavits must be recorded in a manner that will ensure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [CLOSURE.] If the commissioner determines that the owner or operator of an excluded facility did not complete the terms of an approved closure plan by the date in the plan, the commissioner shall complete closure at the facility and seek cost recovery against the owner or operator under section 115B.17, subdivision 6.

Sec. 6. [115B.385] [ENFORCEMENT.]

Sections 115B.383, subdivisions 10 and 11, and 115B.384, subdivision 3, are enforceable under sections 115.071 and 116.072.

Sec. 7. [115B.386] [ILLEGAL ACTIONS AT ELIGIBLE FACILITIES.]

The commissioner may recover under section 115B.17, subdivision 6, that portion of the costs of a response action at any eligible facility attributable to a person who otherwise would be responsible for the release or threatened release under section 115B.03, and whose actions related to the release or threatened release were in violation of federal or state hazardous waste management laws in effect at the time of those actions. The commissioner's determination of the portion of the costs of a response action attributable to a person under this section, based on the volume and toxicity of waste in the facility associated with the person and other factors reasonably related to the contribution of the person to a release or threatened release, is prima facie evidence that those costs are attributable to the person.

Sec. 8. [115B.387] [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

The commissioner shall establish an advisory committee whose duty is to recommend procedures for implementing the landfill cleanup program. The committee may not have more than 13 members. The membership must provide statewide representation of a cross section of interests, including land disposal facility owners and operators, local governments, businesses, environmental groups, and the general citizenry.

Sec. 9. [115B.388] [MANAGEMENT AND DISPOSAL OF ACQUIRED PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [PLAN FOR LAND MANAGEMENT.] The commissioner, in consultation with the advisory committee established under section 115B.387, shall develop a site-specific plan for each facility for the long-term management and disposition of property acquired under section 115B.383, subdivision 1, within one year of completion of construction of response actions. In developing the plans, the commissioner shall consider any applicable land use plan adopted by a local unit of government. The plans must include provisions to prevent any use that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners; any other components of any containment system, or the function of any monitoring systems unless the commissioner finds that the disturbance:

(1) is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(2) is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Before completing any plan under this subdivision, the commissioner shall consult with the commissioner of finance regarding any restrictions that the commissioner of finance deems necessary on the disposition of property resulting from the use of bond proceeds to pay for response actions on the property, and shall incorporate the restrictions in the plan.

Subd. 2. [DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY BY THE COMMISSIONER.] (a) The commissioner shall offer to sell property acquired under section 115B.383, subdivision 1, to the person from whom the property was acquired, if the sale is consistent with the plan completed under subdivision 1. The offer is valid for 90 days. The sale price of property sold under this paragraph must be reduced by the amount of any lease payments made by the purchaser to the commissioner before the sale.

(b) The commissioner may dispose of other property acquired under section 115B.383, subdivision 1 or 6, if the disposal is consistent with the plan completed under subdivision 1.

Sec. 10. [115B.389] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement sections 115B.381 to 115B.388.

Sec. 11. [115B.39] [REPORT.]

By October 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall report to the legislative commission on waste management and to the appropriate finance committees of the senate and the house of representatives on the commissioner's activities under sections 115B.381 to 115B.389.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 115B.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURES.] Subject to appropriation, money in the account may be spent ~~for~~ by the commissioner to:

- (2) ~~monitor and take, or reimburse others for taking, response actions at mixed municipal solid waste disposal accepted facilities under this chapter;~~

Sec. 13. [115B.44] [REIMBURSABLE PARTIES AND EXPENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [TIMING OF EXPENSES.] (a) Environmental response costs at accepted facilities that are otherwise eligible for reimbursement under subdivision 3 and that were incurred before March 1, 1995, are reimbursable if they were submitted as receipts to the commissioner before June 1, 1995.

(b) Environmental response costs at accepted facilities that were incurred between March 1, 1995, and the date that the commissioner accepted the facility are reimbursable if they were submitted as receipts to the commissioner within 60 days of the facility's date of acceptance.

Subd. 2. [REIMBURSABLE PARTIES.] (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), the following persons are eligible for reimbursement under this section:

(1) owners or operators of accepted facilities, except those that have been declared in default under section 4, subdivision 5, after the owners or operators have agreed to waive all claims covered by section 115B.383, subdivision 7, paragraphs (a) and (c), against any other persons; and

(2) persons, other than owners and operators, incurring environmental response costs under a cleanup order issued by the United States Environmental Protection Agency under section 106 of the Federal Superfund Act, as amended; a request for response action; or a consent order or decree, or other settlement agreement, after the persons have agreed to:

(c) A person is not eligible for reimbursement under this section if, after July 1, 1994, the person files an action asserting a claim covered by section 115B.383, subdivision 7, paragraph (a) or (c), relating to an eligible facility, against a person who is a responsible person under section 115B.03, clause (b) or (c).

Subd. 3. [REIMBURSABLE EXPENSES.] (a) Environmental response costs that are documented with billings or other proof of project cost are eligible for reimbursement if the commissioner finds that they were reasonable and necessary under the circumstances. The commissioner may request further documentation from those requesting reimbursement if it is necessary in the commissioner's judgment.

(b) For owners or operators, the following costs are not reimbursable:

(1) costs attributable to normal operations of the facility or to activities required under the facility permit and applicable solid waste rules, including corrective action, closure, postclosure, and contingency action; and

The plan shall identify sites where reimbursement will occur and the estimated dollar amount for each site, and shall set out priorities and payment schedules.

Subd. 5. [REIMBURSEMENT TIMING.] The commissioner shall not issue reimbursement payments before November 15, 1996. The commissioner shall not issue reimbursements for expense statements filed after November 15, 1997, and shall approve or deny all reimbursement requests by November 15, 1998. ARTICLE 2

LANDFILL CLEANUP FUNDING

Section 1. [115B.45] [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT FOR INSURERS.]

In full satisfaction of any rights assigned to the state under section 115B.383, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (3), or subdivision 13, an insurer may tender to the commissioner before January 1, 1998, the voluntary buy-out amount calculated under section 115B.47. In consideration of the amount tendered to the commissioner, an insurer shall receive from the state the protection afforded by section 115B.383, subdivision 7, paragraph (c), except that no liability protection exists under that provision until the commissioner has received buyout commitments totaling $30,000,000. Any amounts received by the commissioner must be credited to the landfill cleanup account.

Sec. 2. [115B.46] [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT AMOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION.] The voluntary buy-out amount for an insurer must be calculated in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [VOLUNTARY BUY-OUT SHARE.] An insurer's unadjusted voluntary buy-out share is equal to that insurer's combined Minnesota written premium for the commercial multiperil line of insurance for calendar years 1970 through 1973, the liability other than auto line for calendar years 1970 and 1971, and the miscellaneous liability line for calendar years 1972 and 1973, as defined by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' annual statement instructions during the applicable periods, divided by the aggregate written premium for all insurers for these lines during these same time periods. The commissioner of commerce shall calculate the unadjusted shares for individual insurers from data published by A.M. Best for the applicable periods. The commissioner shall advise each insurer with an unadjusted share calculated pursuant to this subdivision of the amount of their unadjusted share. The commissioner shall also request from the insurers data to support an adjustment under subdivision 3. The commissioner shall so advise insurers by May 1, 1996.

Subd. 3. [ADJUSTMENTS.] An insurer may adjust its share by providing the commissioner of commerce with evidence that the insurer's Minnesota written premium liability other than auto written premium for calendar years 1970 and 1971 and miscellaneous liability for calendar years 1972 and 1973 included professional or medical malpractice insurance written premiums. The evidence may be provided by written documents or electronically imaged and reproduced documents, contemporaneous with the period of the adjustment, reflecting the insurer's professional or medical malpractice insurance written premium for these periods. The evidence may include an affidavit from an officer of the insurer testifying to the veracity of the data. An insurer's share must be adjusted by the amount of the insurer's professional or medical malpractice insurance Minnesota written premium for calendar years 1970 through 1973 subtracted from the insurer's aggregate liability other than auto and miscellaneous liability written premium for calendar years 1970 through 1973. The commissioner of commerce shall reduce the aggregate liability other than auto and miscellaneous liability written premium for all insurers by the amount of total adjustments for all insurers under this subdivision prior to the final calculation of each insurer's share. The commissioner shall recalculate each insurer's share using the method provided in subdivision 1 subject to the adjustment provided by this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [CREDITS.] An insurer may receive a credit of 25 percent for each of the calendar years 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973 that the insurer can demonstrate that sudden and accidental qualified pollution exclusions were endorsed to or included in all its comprehensive general liability insurance policies issued during these years. To support a claim for credits under this subdivision, an insurer may provide the commissioner of commerce with an affidavit from an officer or former officer testifying as to the business practice of the insurer during the year or years in question. An insurer may obtain a 25 percent credit for each of the years 1970, 1971, 1972, and 1973 that the exclusions were endorsed to or included in these policies.

Subd. 5. [FINAL CALCULATION.] An insurer's voluntary buy-out amount is equal to the multiplication of the insurer's adjusted share by $90,000,000 minus the amount of the insurer's credits under subdivision 4. The commissioner of commerce shall notify each insurer of its buy-out amount calculated under this section by September 30, 1996. An insurer that elects to buy-out under this section may pay the amount calculated under this subdivision in ten equal annual installments.

Subd. 6. [NONPUBLIC DATA.] All information obtained by the commissioner of commerce from insurers under this section is nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9.

Subd. 7. [HEARING.] An insurer who disagrees with the calculation of its voluntary buy-out amount may request that the commissioner of commerce reconsider. An insurer requesting reconsideration shall supply the commissioner with information that supports the insurer's position within 30 days of receipt of the notification under subdivision 4. The commissioner shall reconsider the insurer's calculation based upon the information supplied within 30 days of receipt of the information. An insurer may appeal the decision of the commissioner as a contested case under chapter 14.

Subd. 8. [MINIMUM AMOUNT.] An insurer's voluntary buy-out amount may not be less than $200,000.

Subd. 9. [RULES.] The commissioner of commerce may adopt rules to implement this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 116.07, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SOLID WASTE ASSESSMENTS.] (a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "assessed waste" means mixed municipal solid waste as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 21, infectious waste as defined in section 116.76, subdivision 12, pathological waste as defined in section 116.76, subdivision 14, industrial waste as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 13a, and construction debris as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 7.

(b) A person that collects mixed municipal solid assessed waste shall collect and remit to the commissioner of revenue a solid waste assessment from each of the person's customers as provided in paragraphs (b) (c) and (e) (d).

(b) (c) The amount of the assessment for each residential customer is $2 per year. Each waste collector shall collect the assessment annually from each residential customer that is receiving waste collection service on July 1 of each year and shall remit the amount collected along with the collector's first remittance of the sales tax on solid waste collection services, described in section 297A.45, made after October 1 of each year. Any amount of the assessment that is received by the waste collector after October 1 of each year must be remitted along with the collector's next remittance of sales tax after receipt of the assessment.

(e) (d) The amount of the assessment for each nonresidential customer is 42 28 cents per noncompacted cubic yard of periodic waste collection capacity purchased by the customer. Each waste collector shall collect the assessment from each nonresidential customer as part of each statement for payment of waste collection charges and shall remit the amount collected along with the next remittance of sales tax after receipt of the assessment.

(d) (e) A person who transports assessed waste generated by that person or by another person without compensation shall pay an assessment of 28 cents per noncompacted cubic yard or the equivalent to the operator of the facility to which the waste is delivered. The operator shall remit the assessments collected under this paragraph to the commissioner of revenue as though they were sales taxes under chapter 297A. This paragraph does not apply to a person who transports industrial waste generated by that person to a facility owned and operated by that person.

(f) The commissioner of revenue shall redesign sales tax forms for solid waste collectors to accommodate payment of the assessment. ~~The commissioner of revenue shall deposit~~ The amounts remitted under this subdivision ~~in the environmental fund and shall credit four-sevenths of the receipts must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the landfill cleanup account established in section 115B.42.~~

(e) (g) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "person that collects mixed municipal solid waste" means each person that ~~pays is required to pay~~ sales tax on solid waste collection services under section 297A.45.

(f) (h) The audit, penalty, enforcement, and administrative provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 297A apply to the assessments imposed under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. [FEDERAL INSURANCE TRUST FUND.]

The commissioner of the pollution control agency shall monitor developments relating to the establishment of a federal insurance trust fund, or a similar fund, as part of the reauthorization of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, United States Code, title 42, section 9601 et seq., and shall take actions, including communicating with Congress and the federal Environmental Protection Agency, to maximize the amount of money available from the federal fund for payments relating to mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities in this state. By January 15, 1995, the commissioner shall submit to the senate environment and natural resources finance division and the house committee on environment and natural resources finance a report containing:

(1) a summary of federal developments and the commissioner's actions under this section; and

(2) any recommendations for legislation.

Sec. 5. [VOLUNTARY INSURANCE BUY-OUT PROGRAM; EVALUATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

(a) The attorney general shall evaluate the voluntary insurance buy-out program established in sections 1 and 2 in light of the legislature's intent to maximize the net revenue to the state under the program. By January 15, 1996, the attorney general shall report on the evaluation to the appropriate committees of the legislature. The report must include:

(1) recommendations on changes to the program, including any recommendations for changes to the years to be considered in calculating the voluntary buy-out amount under section 2, subdivision 2; the adjustments and credits allowed under section 2, subdivisions 3 and 4; the $90,000,000 amount in section 2, subdivision 5; and any other element of the program; and

(2) a detailed explanation of the process by which the attorney general's recommendations, if any, were formulated, including a description of the comments of each of the entities listed in paragraph (b).

(b) In preparing the report, the attorney general shall consult with:

(1) representatives of the department of commerce and the pollution control agency;

(2) representatives of insurers at the state and national levels; and

(3) representatives of insureds:

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATIONS; TRANSFER.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATIONS.] (a) $16,900,000 is appropriated from the landfill cleanup account to the commissioner of the pollution control agency to conduct actions authorized in this act.

(b) $180,000,000 is appropriated from the bond proceeds fund to the commissioner of the pollution control agency for capital costs of environmental response actions at eligible facilities.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER.] The balance in the metropolitan landfill contingency action trust fund established under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.845, on the effective date of this section is transferred to the landfill cleanup account established under Minnesota Statutes, section 115B.42.

Sec. 7. [BOND SALE.]

(a) To provide the money appropriated in this act from the state bond proceeds fund, the commissioner of finance, on request of the governor, shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $180,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7, and paragraph (b).

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

Section 1. [116G.151] [REQUIRED ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT; FACILITIES IN MISSISSIPPI RIVER AREA.]

Until completion of an environmental impact statement that is found adequate under chapter 116D, a state or local agency may not issue a permit for construction or operation of a radioactive waste management facility or a metal materials processing project with a processing capacity in excess of 10,000 tons per month that would be located in or adjacent to the Mississippi river critical area, as described in Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 116G.15, or, if a radioactive waste management facility, within a mile of the Mississippi river south of the Mississippi's confluence with the St. Croix river.

This section applies to a radioactive waste management facility notwithstanding legislative ratification or approval of a prior environmental impact statement.

The pollution control agency is the responsible government unit for preparation of an environmental impact statement required under this section.

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Unless a physician determines, on the basis of the physician's good faith clinical judgment, that there is a medical emergency that so complicates a pregnancy as to necessitate an immediate abortion to avert the death of or grave and immediate bodily harm to a pregnant woman, at least 24 hours before the abortion, either the physician who is to perform the abortion or the physician's agent must tell the woman:

(1) the probable gestational age of the fetus at the time the abortion is to be performed;

(2) the nature of the proposed procedure or treatment and of those risks and alternatives to the procedure or treatment that a reasonable patient would consider material to the decision of whether or not to undergo the abortion such as, when medically accurate, the risks of infection, hemorrhage, danger to subsequent pregnancies, and infertility;

(3) that she has the right to review the printed materials described in subdivision 2; and

(4) the common medical risks associated with carrying her fetus to term.

This information may be provided by telephone without conducting a physical examination or tests of the woman, in which case the information required to be supplied may be based on facts supplied by the woman and whatever other relevant information is reasonably available to the physician or physician's agent. The physician or physician's agent shall also orally inform the woman that the printed materials have been provided by the state. If the woman chooses to view the materials, they must be given to her at least 24 hours before the abortion or mailed to her at least 72 hours before the abortion. The physician or physician's agent may choose to disassociate himself or herself from the materials, and may choose to comment or refrain from commenting on the materials.

The requirements of this subdivision shall not necessarily be considered a reasonable standard of care and a violation of this subdivision shall not constitute negligence per se.

Subd. 2. [PRINTED INFORMATION:] By January 1, 1995, the commissioner of health shall develop, for duplication by medical facilities, the following easily comprehensible printed materials in every language that is the primary language of one percent or more of the residents of Minnesota:

(1) geographically indexed materials designed to inform the woman of public and private agencies and services available to assist a woman through pregnancy, upon childbirth, and while the child is dependent, as well as adoption agencies, including a list of the agencies available, a description of the services they offer, telephone numbers of the agencies, and a description of the manner in which they might be contacted;

(2) materials to inform the woman that pregnancy may be avoided by the use of contraceptives and where those contraceptives may be obtained at no cost or reduced cost;

(3) materials to inform the woman that she may be able to obtain child support;

(4) materials designed to inform the woman of the major anatomical and physiological characteristics of the fetus at two-week gestational increments during the first and second trimesters. The materials must be objective, nonjudgmental, and convey only accurate scientific information about the fetus at the various gestational ages; and

(5) a statement of the gestational stage at which a fetus is likely to become viable.

The information and printed materials required to be developed under subdivision 2 are exempt from chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [ACKNOWLEDGMENT.] Before an abortion is performed, the woman shall be given the name of the physician who will perform the abortion and sign an acknowledgment form that indicates that:

(1) she has received the information described in subdivision 1 and had the opportunity to review the printed materials described in subdivision 2; and

(2) she has had the opportunity to ask questions about the materials and the procedure.

The acknowledgment form may be combined with other consent forms.

Subd. 4. [VIOLATION.] The license of any physician or physician's agent who violates this section may be subject to suspension or revocation pursuant to the provisions of chapter 147 or 148.

This subdivision does not limit or preclude any other remedies that a woman may have available to her."

7023.9050 MINOR MODIFICATION OF PERMIT.

In addition to the corrections or allowances listed in part 7001.0190, subpart 3, the commissioner upon obtaining the consent of the permittee may modify an indirect source permit without following the procedures in parts 7001.0100 to 7001.0130 if the commissioner determines that the modification would not result in an increase in carbon monoxide of greater than one part per million with respect to the eight-hour carbon monoxide standard, that the modification would not result in an increase in carbon monoxide of greater than three parts per million with respect to the one-hour carbon monoxide standard, and that the modification would not result in a violation of the carbon monoxide standard established in parts 7009.0010 to ~~7009.0080~~ 7009.0070.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Rules, part 7035.2835, subpart 3, is amended to read:

Subp. 3. Operation requirements for a yard waste compost facility.

A. Odors emitted from the facility must ~~not exceed the limits specified in~~ comply with parts 7011.0100 to 7011.0115, 7011.0300 to 7011.0410, 7011.1500 to 7011.1515, 7011.1600 to 7011.1625, 7011.2200 to 7011.2220, 7011.2300, and ~~7023.0100 to 7023.0120.~~

B. Composted yard waste offered for use must be produced by a process that encompasses turning of the yard waste on a periodic basis to aerate the yard waste, maintain temperatures, and reduce pathogens. The composted yard waste must contain no sharp objects greater than one inch in diameter.

C. By-products, including residuals and recyclables, must be stored in a manner that prevents vector problems and aesthetic degradation. Materials that are not composted must be stored and removed at least weekly.

D. Surface water drainage must be controlled to prevent leachate runoff. Surface water drainage must be diverted from the compost and storage areas.

E. The annual report required under part 7035.2585 must be submitted to the commissioner and must include the type and quantity, by weight or volume, of yard waste received at the compost facility; the quantity, by weight or volume, of compost produced; the quantity, by weight or volume, of compost removed from the facility; and a description of the end-product distribution and disposal system.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Rules, part 7035.2835, subpart 6, is amended to read:

Subp. 6. Operation requirements for a solid waste compost facility.

A. The owner or operator of a solid waste compost facility must maintain a record of the characteristics of the waste, sewage sludge, and other materials, such as nutrient or bulking agents, being composted including the source and volume or weight of the material. The record must be submitted as part of the annual report required under part 7035.2585.

B. Odors emitted by the facility must ~~not exceed the limits specified in comply with parts 7011.0300 to 7011.0330 and 7011.2200 to 7011.2220.~~

C. All wastes delivered to the facility must be confined to a designated delivery area and stored and removed at a frequency that prevents nuisances.

D. Access to the facility must be controlled by a perimeter fence and gate or enclosed building structures. All access points must be secured when the facility is not open for business or when no authorized personnel are on site.

E. By-products, including residuals and recyclables, must be stored to prevent vector intrusion and aesthetic degradation. Materials that are not composted must be removed at least once per week.

F. Run-off water that has come in contact with composted waste, materials stored for composting, or residual waste must be diverted to the leachate collection and treatment system. If the run-off water is held in a holding pond, it must be monitored on a quarterly basis for the parameters listed in item H and for fecal coliforms.

G. The temperature and retention time for the material being composted must be monitored and recorded each working day.

H. Periodic analyses of the compost must be completed for the following parameters: percentage of total solids; volatile solids as a percentage of total solids; pH; Kjeldahl, ammonia, and nitrate nitrogen; total phosphorus; cadmium; chromium; copper; lead; nickel; zinc; mercury; and polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB). All analyses must be reported on a dry weight basis. The sampling and analysis program must be established in the facility permit based on the facility design, intended end use distribution for the compost, waste composted, and facility operation.

I. Quarterly reports must be submitted to the commissioner within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter and must include: the results of the analyses required in item H; the quantity of solid waste delivered to the facility; sources and quantities of other materials used in the compost process; a description of the process to reduce pathogens; temperature readings; retention time; the quantity of compost produced; quantity and type of by-products removed; and a description of the end-product distribution and disposal system.

J. If, for any reason, the facility becomes inoperable, the owner or operator of the facility must notify the commissioner within 48 hours and implement the contingency action plan developed under part 7035.2615.

K. Compost must be produced by a process to further reduce pathogens. Three acceptable methods are described in subitems (1) to (3).

(1) The windrow method for reducing pathogens consists of an unconfined composting process involving periodic aeration and mixing. Aerobic conditions must be maintained during the compost process. A temperature of 55 degrees celsius must be maintained in the windrow for at least three weeks. The windrow must be turned at least twice every six to ten days.

(2) The static aerated pile method for reducing pathogens consists of an unconfined composting process involving mechanical aeration of insulated compost piles. Aerobic conditions must be maintained during the compost process. The temperature of the compost pile must be maintained at 55 degrees Celsius for at least seven days.

(3) The enclosed vessel method for reducing pathogens consists of a confined compost process involving mechanical mixing of compost under controlled environmental conditions. The retention time in the vessel must be at least 24 hours with the temperature maintained at 55 degrees Celsius. A stabilization period of at least seven days must follow the decomposition period. Temperature in the compost pile must be maintained at least at 55 degrees Celsius for three days during the stabilization period.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Rules, part 7035.2875, subpart 3, is amended to read:

Subp. 3. Operation and maintenance manual. The owner or operator of a refuse-derived fuel processing facility must prepare an operation and maintenance manual and keep the manual at the facility. The manual must contain the information needed to operate the facility properly and meet the following requirements:

A. Odors emitted by the facility must ~~not exceed the limits as specified in comply with parts 7011.0300 to 7011.0330 and 7011.2200 to 7011.2220.~~

B. Access to the site must be controlled by a complete perimeter fence and gate. The gate must be locked when the facility is not open for business.

C. By-products, including residuals and metal fractions, must be stored to prevent vector problems and aesthetic degradation. The by-products must be removed or used at least once a week.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Rules, part 7040.2800, subpart 1, is amended to read:

Subpart 1. Performance standard. A sewage sludge landspreading facility shall be designed, constructed, operated, and maintained so that it will not adversely impact the health and safety of the public living near or passing by the facility. ~~The facility shall comply with applicable provisions of parts 7011.0300 to 7011.0330 of the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency at the facility boundary.~~

Sec. 14. Minnesota Rules, part 7045.0460, subpart 2, is amended to read:

Subp. 2. Other location standards. No facility may be established or constructed in a wetland or within a shoreland.

No facility may be established or constructed in a location where the topography, geology, hydrology, or soil is unsuitable for the protection of the ground water and the surface water. Factors to be used in determining unsuitability of a site include:

A. proximity to lakes, streams, or ponds;

B. proximity to and type of bedrock;

C. presence of natural aquicludes to protect ground water;

D. value of the ground water as a water supply; and

E. ground water flow patterns, particularly if the site is located in a zone of recharge to aquifers usable as sources of drinking water.

No facility may be established or constructed in a location where facility activity would result in emissions of air contaminants causing the violation of the ambient air quality standards established in parts 7009.0010 to ~~7009.0080~~ 7009.0070.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Rules, part 8130.3500, subpart 3, is amended to read:

Subp. 3. Motor carrier direct pay certificate. A motor carrier direct pay certificate will be issued to qualified electing carriers by the commissioner of revenue and will be effective as of the date shown on the certificate. ~~A facsimile of the authorized motor carrier direct pay certificate is reproduced at part 8130.9958.~~

Sec. 16. Minnesota Rules, part 8130.6500, subpart 5, is amended to read:

Subp. 5. Sale of aircraft. When the dealer sells the aircraft, the selling price must be included in gross sales. The fact that the aircraft commercial use permit has not expired or that the dealer has reported and paid use tax on the aircraft has no effect on the taxability of the sale. The dealer must return the aircraft commercial use permit (unless previously returned) when the dealer files the sales and use tax return for the month in which the sale was made. No credit or refund is given for the $20 fee originally paid.

~~A facsimile of the authorized aircraft commercial use permit is reproduced at part 8130.9992."~~

The agency must not include in the calculation of the aggregate amount to be collected under the fee rules any amount in excess of 4,000 tons per year of each air pollutant from a source.

(d) To cover the reasonable costs described in paragraph (b), the agency shall provide in the rules promulgated under paragraph (c) for an increase in the fee collected in each year beginning after fiscal year 1993 by the percentage, if any, by which the Consumer Price Index for the most recent calendar year ending before the beginning of the year the fee is collected exceeds the Consumer Price Index for the calendar year 1989. For purposes of this paragraph the Consumer Price Index for any calendar year is the average of the Consumer Price Index for all-urban consumers published by the United States Department of Labor, as of the close of the 12-month period ending on August 31 of each calendar year. The revision of the Consumer Price Index that is most consistent with the Consumer Price Index for calendar year 1989 shall be used.

This appropriation is added to the appropriation in Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2.

[TRANSFER OF UNENCUMBERED BALANCES.] Effective the day following final enactment, the commissioner may transfer unencumbered appropriation balances for fiscal year 1994 among the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical assistance, Minnesota supplemental aid, and work readiness programs, and the entitlement portion of the chemical dependency consolidated treatment fund, with the approval of the commissioner of finance after notification of the chair of the senate health care and family service finance division and the chair of the house of representatives human services finance division.

Subd. 2. Social Services Administration

664,000 3,998,000

[DEAF SERVICES.] Up to $100,000 of unexpended nonentitlement grant money within the social services administration for fiscal year 1994 does not cancel but is available in fiscal year 1995 to be transferred to the deaf and hard-of-hearing services for hearing impaired grants. This money must be used to increase the capacity of statewide interpreter referral services, and none of this money may be used for administrative purposes. The amount transferred shall not become part of the base level funding for deaf services for the 1996-1997 biennium.

[SOCIAL SERVICES INFORMATION SYSTEM.] Of this appropriation, $371,000 in fiscal year 1995 is for the social services information system and is added to the appropriation in Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2, subdivision 3, to continue the design and development of a new system. Appropriations and federal receipts for the social services information system project must be deposited in the state systems account authorized and administered under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.014, and must be used for development and operation of department information systems according to law.

[VULNERABLE ADULTS REPORT.] $38,000 of the appropriation to the commissioner is to be transferred to the office of the attorney general to continue the study of, and prepare the report on, the vulnerable adults act.

[INDIAN ELDERLY ACCESS PROGRAM.] Of this appropriation, $44,000 is appropriated to the Minnesota board on aging for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1995, to fund a coordinator for the state Indian elderly access program. The area agency on aging of the Minnesota Chippewa tribe shall administer the program.

[OLMSTED COUNTY.] (a) The commissioner shall authorize a pilot project creating community-based short-term alternative services in Olmsted county for persons with overriding health care needs who, in the absence of these services, would require placement in more restrictive settings by reconfiguring the capacity of a 43-bed intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, provided the pilot project is cost neutral to the state. The commissioner may:

(1) authorize relocation of an alternative home and community-based services for up to 20 residents of an existing 43-bed intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions; and

(2) adjust the operating cost rate of the facility under Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0050, as necessary to implement the project.

(b) The facility's aggregate investment-per-bed limit in effect before downsizing must be the facility's investment-per-bed limit after downsizing. The facility's total revenues after downsizing must not increase as a result of the downsizing project. The facility's total revenues before downsizing are determined by multiplying the payment rate in effect the day before the downsizing is effective by the number of resident days for the reporting year preceding the downsizing project. For the purpose of this pilot project, the average medical assistance rate for the home and community-based services shall not exceed the rate made available, under Laws 1992, chapter 513, article 5, section 2, to residents of intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are relocated to alternative home and community-based services.

(c) This pilot project shall primarily serve persons who are the responsibility of Olmsted county and other counties in economic development region 10. This project must be approved by the commissioner under Minnesota Statutes, section 252.28, and must include criteria for determining how individuals are selected for alternative services and the use of a request for proposal process. The commissioner shall report to the legislature on the pilot project by January 1, 1996.

[WAGE ENHANCEMENT.] Of this appropriation, $150,000 is for a wage enhancement demonstration project to measure the impact of wage increases on staff retention and the quality of care. Within the limits of the appropriation, the commissioner shall increase wages and fringe benefits by up to 15 percent for personnel earning less than $7.25 per hour who are not central, affiliated, or corporate office personnel and who are employed by a provider in northeastern Minnesota that operates day training and habilitation services and five intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Any remaining money from this appropriation shall be used to increase wages and fringe benefits by up to 15 percent for personnel earning less than $7.25 per hour who are not central, affiliated, or corporate office personnel and who are employed by other day training and habilitation services that rank lowest in the state in terms of both reimbursement rates and employee wages. At least two-thirds of the increase must be allocated for salary increases and not more than one-third for fringe benefits and payroll taxes. In order to participate in the demonstration project, the provider shall comply with all reporting requirements established by the commissioner. The commissioner shall review the project on a retrospective basis to determine that the appropriation was spent as required, and shall reduce future per diem rates if necessary to recover amounts not spent on wage enhancements. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by December 31, 1995, the results of the demonstration project, including the effect on staff turnover and on the quality of care. The effective date for rate adjustments under this provision is January 1, 1995.

[COUNTY PLANNING GRANT.] Of this appropriation, $50,000 is for grants to counties for collaborative planning by local agencies and consumers to demonstrate alternative, noninstitutional models for services to persons with developmental disabilities or related conditions.

[SENIOR HOUSING WITH SERVICES REPORT.] The commissioners of health and human services shall convene a group of providers and consumers of housing with services for seniors to study the issue of quality assurance in this setting, and to report findings and recommendations to the 1995 legislature. The commissioner of health shall not adopt administrative rules under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 144B, until after the 1995 legislature has acted upon the report on quality assurance for housing with services for seniors.

[OUT-OF-HOME RESPITE CARE REPORT.] By February 1, 1995, the commissioner of human services, after consultation with the commissioner of health, must report to the legislature on methods to fund and provide out-of-home respite care for children with medically complex needs who live with their families. The report must include an estimate of the need for such services across the state, what services are now provided, funding sources currently used, and need for additional types of respite care and proposed funding sources.

[NEW CHANCE.] The first annual report to the legislature on the new chance demonstration project referred to in Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2, subdivision 3, must be prepared for the legislature by December 1, 1995.

The appropriation to the medical assistance program is increased by $1,165,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1995, for the purpose of (1) exceptionally high cost inpatient admissions for infants under the age of one, and for children under the age of six receiving services in a hospital that receives payment under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.969, subdivision 9 or 9a; and (2) hospitals with a 20 percent or greater negative adjustment that exceeds $1,000,000, as the adjustment is calculated under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.9695, subdivision 3.

[INFLATION ADJUSTMENTS.] The commissioner of finance shall include, as a budget change request in the 1996-1997 biennial detailed expenditure budget submitted to the legislature under Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.11, annual inflation adjustments in operating costs for: nursing services and home health aide services under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0625, subdivision 6a; nursing supervision of personal care services, under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0625, subdivision 19a; private duty nursing services under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0625, subdivision 7; home and community-based services waiver for persons with mental retardation and related conditions under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.501; home and community-based services waiver for the elderly under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0915; alternative care program un-

Notwithstanding the sunset provisions of this article, this increase shall become part of the base for the 1996-1997 biennium. For fiscal year 1995 only, the commissioner shall adjust rates paid to a health maintenance organization under medical assistance contract with the commissioner to reflect the hospital technology factor in this paragraph, and the adjustment must be made on an undiscounted basis.

[ICF/MR RECEIVERSHIP.] If an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions that is in receivership under Minnesota Statutes, section 245A.12 or 245A.13, is sold to an unrelated organization: (1) the facility shall be considered a newly established facility for rate setting purposes notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in section 256B.501, subdivision 11; and (2) the facility's historical basis for the physical plant, land, and land improvements for each facility must not exceed the prior owner's aggregate historical basis for these same assets for each facility. The allocation of the purchase price between land, land improvements, and physical plant shall be based on the real estate appraisal using the depreciated replacement cost method.

[NEW ICF/MR.] A newly constructed or newly established intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions that is developed and financed during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1995, shall not be subject to the equity requirements in Minnesota Stat-

62A.045 [PAYMENTS ON BEHALF OF WELFARE RECIPIENTS.]

No policy of accident and sickness insurance regulated under this chapter; vendor of risk management services regulated under section 60A.23; nonprofit health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C; health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D; or self-insured plan regulated under chapter 62E health plan issued or renewed to provide coverage to a Minnesota resident shall contain any provision denying or reducing benefits because services are rendered to a person who is eligible for or receiving medical benefits pursuant to title XIX of the Social Security Act (Medicaid) in this or any other state; chapter 256; 256B; or 256D or services pursuant to section 252.27; 256.9351 to 256.9361; 260.251, subdivision 1a; or 393.07, subdivision 1 or 2. No insurer health carrier providing benefits under policies plans covered by this section shall use eligibility for medical programs named in this section as an underwriting guideline or reason for nonacceptance of the risk.

To the extent that payment for covered expenses has been made under state medical programs for health care items or services furnished to an individual, in any case where a third party has a legal liability to make payments, the state is considered to have acquired the rights of the individual to payment by any other party for those health care items or services.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, when a person covered under by a policy of accident and sickness insurance, risk management plan, nonprofit health service plan, health maintenance organization, or self-insured health plan receives medical benefits according to any statute listed in this section, payment for covered services or notice of denial for services billed by the provider must be issued directly to the provider. If a person was receiving medical benefits through the department of human services at the time a service was provided, the provider must indicate this benefit coverage on any claim forms submitted by the provider to the ~~insurer~~ health carrier for those services. If the commissioner of human services notifies the ~~insurer~~ health carrier that the commissioner has made payments to the provider, payment for benefits or notices of denials issued by the ~~insurer~~ health carrier must be issued directly to the commissioner. Submission by the department to the ~~insurer~~ health carrier of the claim on a department of human services claim form is proper notice and shall be considered proof of payment of the claim to the provider and supersedes any contract requirements of the ~~insurer~~ health carrier relating to the form of submission. Liability to the insured for coverage is satisfied to the extent that payments for those benefits are made by the ~~insurer~~ health carrier to the provider or the commissioner.

A health carrier may not impose requirements on a state agency which has been assigned the rights of an individual eligible for medical programs named in this section, and covered for health benefits from the health carrier, that are different from requirements applicable to an agent or assignee of any other individual so covered.

For the purpose of this section, "health plan" includes integrated service networks, any plan governed under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), United States Code, title 29, sections 1001 to 1461, and the following exclusions under section 62A.011, subdivision 3, clauses (2), (6), (9), and (10).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 62A.046, is amended to read:

62A.046 [COORDINATION OF BENEFITS.]

(1) No group contract providing coverage for hospital and medical treatment or expenses issued or renewed after August 1, 1984, which is responsible for secondary coverage for services provided, may deny coverage or payment of the amount it owes as a secondary payor solely on the basis of the failure of another group contract, which is responsible for primary coverage, to pay for those services.

(2) A group contract which provides coverage of a claimant as a dependent of a parent who has legal responsibility for the dependent's medical care pursuant to a court order under section 518.171 must make payments directly to the provider of care, the custodial parent, or the department of human services pursuant to section 62A.045. In such cases, liability to the insured is satisfied to the extent of benefit payments made to the provider.

(3) This section applies to an insurer, a vendor of risk management services regulated under section 60A.23, a nonprofit health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C and a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D. Nothing in this section shall require a secondary payor to pay the obligations of the primary payor nor shall it prevent the secondary payor from recovering from the primary payor the amount of any obligation of the primary payor that the secondary payor elects to pay.

(4) Payments made by an enrollee or by the commissioner on behalf of an enrollee in the children's health plan under sections 256.9351 to 256.9361, or a person receiving benefits under chapter 256B or 256D, for services that are covered by the policy or plan of health insurance shall, for purposes of the deductible, be treated as if made by the insured.

(5) The commissioner of human services shall recover payments made by the children's health plan from the responsible insurer, for services provided by the children's health plan and covered by the policy or plan of health insurance.

(6) Insurers, vendors of risk management services, nonprofit health service plan corporations, fraternal, and health maintenance organizations may coordinate benefits to prohibit greater than 100 percent coverage when an insured, subscriber, or enrollee is covered by both an individual and a group contract providing coverage for hospital and medical treatment or expenses. Benefits coordinated under this paragraph must provide for 100 percent coverage of an insured, subscriber, or enrollee. To the extent appropriate, all coordination of benefits provisions currently applicable by law or rule to insurers, vendors of risk management services, nonprofit health service plan corporations, fraternal, and health maintenance organizations, shall apply to coordination of benefits between individual and group contracts, except that the group contract shall always be the primary plan. This paragraph does not apply to specified accident, hospital indemnity, specified disease, or other limited benefit insurance policies.

62A.048 [DEPENDENT COVERAGE.]

~~A policy of accident and sickness insurance health plan that covers an employee who is a Minnesota resident must, if it provides dependent coverage, allow dependent children who do not reside with the covered employee participant to be covered on the same basis as if they reside with the covered employee participant. Neither the amount of support provided by the employee to the dependent child nor the residency of the child may be used as an excluding or limiting factor for coverage or payment for health care. Enrollment of a child cannot be denied on the basis that the child was born out of wedlock, the child is not claimed as a dependent on the parent's federal income tax return, or the child does not reside with the parent or in the insurer's service area. Every health plan must provide coverage in accordance with section 518.171 to dependents covered by a qualified court or administrative order meeting the requirements of section 518.171.~~

For the purpose of this section, "health plan" includes integrated service networks, coverage designed solely to provide dental or vision care, and any plan governed under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), United States Code, title 29, sections 1001 to 1461.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 62A.27, is amended to read:

62A.27 [COVERAGE FOR ADOPTED CHILDREN.]

Consequently, the policy or plan shall not contain any provision concerning preexisting condition limitations, insurabil-~~

ity, eligibility, or health underwriting approval concerning ~~adopted~~ children placed for adoption with the participant.

Placement for adoption means the assumption and retention by a person of a legal obligation for total or partial support of a child in anticipation of adoption of the child. The child's placement with a person terminates upon the termination of the legal obligation for total or partial support.

For the purpose of this section, "health plan" includes integrated service networks, coverage that is designed solely to provide dental or vision care, and any plan under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), United States Code, title 29, sections 1001 to 1461.

The commissioner shall award grants in amounts up to $50,000 for the purpose of creating children's ~~safety centers supervised visitation facilities~~ to reduce children's vulnerability to violence and trauma related to family visitation, where there has been a history of domestic violence or abuse within the family. At least one of the pilot projects shall be located in the seven-county metropolitan area and at least one of the projects shall be located outside the seven-county metropolitan area, and the commissioner shall award the grants to provide the greatest possible number of ~~safety centers children's supervised visitation facilities~~ and to locate them to provide for the broadest possible geographic distribution of the ~~centers facilities~~ throughout the state.

The ~~centers facilities~~ must be available for use by district courts who may order visitation to occur at a ~~safety center supervised visitation facility~~. The ~~centers facilities~~ may also be used as drop-off sites, so that parents who are under court order to have no contact with each other can exchange children for visitation at a neutral site. Each ~~center facility~~ must provide sufficient security to ensure a safe visitation environment for children and their parents. A grantee must demonstrate the ability to provide a local match, which may include in-kind contributions.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256G.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROCEDURES.] If upon investigation the local agency decides that the application or commitment was not filed in the county of financial responsibility as defined by this chapter, but that the applicant is otherwise eligible for assistance, it shall send a copy of the application or commitment claim, together with the record of any investigation it has made, to the county it believes is financially responsible. The copy and record must be sent within 60 days of the date the application was approved or the claim was paid. The first local agency shall provide assistance to the applicant until financial responsibility is transferred under this section.

The county receiving the transmittal has 30 days to accept or reject financial responsibility and must notify the applicant's service providers of its decision. A failure to respond within 30 days establishes financial responsibility by the receiving county and that county must ensure payment for the approved services provided to the applicant.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256H.05, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [NON-STRIDE AFDC CHILD CARE PROGRAM.] (a) Starting one month after April 30, 1992, the department of human services shall reimburse eligible expenditures for 2,000 family slots for AFDC caretakers not eligible for services under section 256.736, who are engaged in an authorized educational or job search program. Each county will receive a number of family slots based on the county's proportion of the AFDC caseload. A county must receive at least two family slots. Eligibility and reimbursement are limited to the number of family slots allocated to each county. County agencies shall authorize an educational plan for each student and may prioritize families eligible for this program in their child care fund plan upon approval of the commissioner of human services.

(b)(1) Effective July 1, 1994, the department of human services shall reclaim 90 percent of the vacant slots in each county and distribute those slots to counties with ACCESS child care program waiting lists. The slots must be distributed to eligible families based on the July 1, 1994, waiting list placement date, first come, first served.

(2) ACCESS child care slots remaining after the waiting list under clause (1) has been eliminated must be distributed to eligible families on a first come, first served basis, based on the client's date of request. To secure a slot, counties must notify the department of human services within five calendar days of an ACCESS child care program request.

(3) The county must notify the department of human services when an ACCESS slot in the county becomes available. Notification by the county must be within five calendar days of the effective date of the termination of the ACCESS child care services. The resulting vacant slot must be returned to the department of human services. The slot will then be redistributed under clause (2).

Planning for the specialized facility must have been initiated before July 1, 1991, in anticipation of receiving a grant from the housing finance agency under section 462A.05, subdivision 20a, paragraph (b); or (5) for up to 40 beds in a single facility located in Hennepin county for the purpose of providing housing to chronic stage chemically dependent American Indians. This facility must be part of a provider-developed comprehensive services plan for homeless American Indian people, and must be developed in coordination with the affected neighborhood groups. The planning process must include at least one public hearing in the affected neighborhood. In addition, the provider shall develop an ongoing advisory committee composed of neighborhood residents, which shall meet at least quarterly to discuss the impact of the facility on the neighborhood and to develop recommendations for resolution of any problems which may arise.

(b) A county agency may enter into a group residential housing agreement for beds in addition to those currently covered under a group residential housing agreement if the additional beds are only a replacement of beds which have been made available due to closure of a setting, a change of licensure or certification which removes the beds from group residential housing payment, or as a result of the downsizing of a group residential housing setting. The transfer of available beds from one county to another can only occur by the agreement of both counties.

(c) Group residential housing beds which become available as a result of downsizing settings which have a license issued under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, must be permanently removed from the group residential housing census and not replaced.

(2) if the attempted marriage is invalid without a court order, the child is born within 280 days after the termination of cohabitation;

(c) After the child's birth, he and the child's biological mother have married, or attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared void, voidable, or otherwise invalid, and,

(1) he has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the state registrar of vital statistics;

(2) with his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate; or

(3) he is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;

(d) While the child is under the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his biological child;

(e) He and the child's biological mother acknowledge his paternity of the child in a writing signed by both of them under section 257.34 and filed with the state registrar of vital statistics. If another man is presumed under this paragraph to be the child's father, acknowledgment may be effected only with the written consent of the presumed father or after the presumption has been rebutted;

(f) Evidence of statistical probability of paternity based on blood or genetic testing establishes the likelihood that he is the father of the child, calculated with a prior probability of no more than 0.5 (50 percent), is 99 percent or greater;

(g) He and the child's biological mother have executed a recognition of parentage in accordance with section 257.75 and another man is presumed to be the father under this subdivision; or

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 257.57, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The child, the mother, or personal representative of the child, the public authority chargeable by law with the support of the child, the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor may bring an action:

(1) at any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), (e), (f), (g), or (h), or the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under clause (d) of that subdivision;

(2) for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (e) or (g), only if the action is brought within three years after the date of the execution of the declaration or recognition of parentage; or

(3) for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (f), only if the action is brought within three years after the party bringing the action, or the party's attorney of record, has been provided the blood or genetic test results.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 257.62, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BLOOD OR GENETIC TESTS REQUIRED.] The court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, mother, or alleged father to submit to blood or genetic tests. A copy of the test results must be served on the parties as provided in section 543.20. Any objection to the results of blood or genetic tests must be made in writing no later than 15 days prior to a hearing at which those test results may be introduced into evidence. Test results served upon a party must include notice of this right to object. If the alleged father is dead, the court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the decedent's parents or brothers and sisters or both to submit to blood or genetic tests. However, in a case involving these relatives of an alleged father, who is deceased, the court may refuse to order blood or genetic tests if the court makes an express finding that submitting to the tests presents a danger to the health of one or more of these relatives that outweighs the child's interest in having the tests performed. Unless the person gives consent to the use, the results of any blood or genetic tests of the decedent's parents, brothers, or sisters may be used only to establish the right of the child to public assistance including but not limited to social security and veterans' benefits. The tests shall be performed by a qualified expert appointed by the court.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 257.62, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [POSITIVE TEST RESULTS.] (a) If the results of blood or genetic tests completed in a laboratory accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks indicate that the likelihood of the alleged father's paternity, calculated with a prior probability of no more than 0.5 (50 percent), is 92 percent or greater, upon motion the court shall order the alleged father to pay temporary child support determined according to chapter 518. The alleged father shall pay the support money into court pursuant to the rules of civil procedure to await the results of the paternity proceedings.

(b) If the results of blood or genetic tests completed in a laboratory accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks indicate that likelihood of the alleged father's paternity, calculated with a prior probability of no more than 0.5 (50 percent), is 99 percent or greater, the alleged father is presumed to be the parent and the party opposing the establishment of the alleged father's paternity has the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged father is not the father of the child.

Subd. 6. [TESTS, EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE.] In any hearing brought under subdivision 5, a certified report of the facts and results of a laboratory analysis or examination of blood or genetic tests, that is performed in a laboratory accredited to meet the Standards for Parentage Testing of the American Association of Blood Banks and is prepared and attested by a qualified expert appointed by the court, shall be admissible in evidence without proof of the seal, signature, or official character of the person whose name is signed to it, ~~unless a demand is made by a party in a motion or responsive motion made within the time limit for making and filing a responsive motion that the matter be heard on oral testimony before the court. If no objection is made, the blood or genetic test results are admissible as evidence without the need for foundation testimony or other proof of authenticity or accuracy.~~

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 257.64, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If a party refuses to accept a recommendation made under subdivision 1 and blood or genetic tests have not been taken, the court shall require the parties to submit to blood or genetic tests, ~~if practicable. Any objection to blood or genetic testing results must be made in writing no later than 15 days before any hearing at which the results may be introduced into evidence. Test results served upon a party must include a notice of this right to object.~~ Thereafter the court shall make an appropriate final recommendation. If a party refuses to accept the final recommendation the action shall be set for trial.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 257.69, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNSEL; APPOINTMENT.] In all proceedings under sections 257.51 to 257.74, any party may be represented by counsel. ~~If the public authority charged by law with support of a child is a party, The county attorney shall represent the public authority. If the child receives public assistance and no conflict of interest exists, the county attorney shall also represent the custodial parent. If a conflict of interest exists, the court shall appoint counsel for the custodial parent at no cost to the parent. If the child does not receive public assistance, the county attorney may represent the custodial parent at the parent's request.~~ The court shall appoint counsel for a party who is unable to pay timely for counsel in proceedings under sections 257.51 to 257.74.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 257.69, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GUARDIAN; LEGAL FEES.] The court may order expert witness and guardian ad litem fees and other costs of the trial and pretrial proceedings, including appropriate tests, to be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court. The court shall require a party to pay part of the fees of court-appointed counsel according to the party's ability to pay, but if counsel has been appointed the appropriate agency shall pay the party's proportion of all other fees and costs. The agency responsible for child support enforcement shall pay the fees and costs for blood or genetic tests in a proceeding in which it is a party, is the real party in interest, or is acting on behalf of the child. However, at the close of a proceeding in which paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the court shall order the adjudicated father to reimburse the public agency, if the court finds he has sufficient resources to pay the costs of the blood or genetic tests. When a party bringing an action is represented by the county attorney, no filing fee shall be paid to the court administrator.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.171, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Compliance with this section constitutes compliance with a qualified medical child support order as described in the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) as amended by the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (OBRA).

(a) Every child support order must:

(1) expressly assign or reserve the responsibility for maintaining medical insurance for the minor children and the division of uninsured medical and dental costs; and

(2) contain the names and last known addresses, if any, of the dependents unless the court prohibits the inclusion of an address and orders the custodial parent to provide the address to the administrator of the health plan. The court shall order the party with the better group dependent health and dental insurance coverage or health insurance plan to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is ~~comparable to or better than a number two qualified plan~~ and available to the party on:

(i) a group basis; ~~or~~

(ii) through an employer or union; or

(iii) through a group health plan governed under the ERISA and included within the definitions relating to health plans found in section 62A.011, 62A.048, or 62E.06, subdivision 2.

"Health insurance" or "health insurance coverage" as used in this section means coverage that is comparable to or better than a number two qualified plan as defined in section 62E.06, subdivision 2. "Health insurance" or "health insurance coverage" as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 256, 256B, or 256D.

(b) If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor or obligee on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that ~~the group insurer insurance~~ is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor (1) to obtain other dependent health or dental insurance, (2) to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, or (3) to pay no less than $50 per month to be applied to the medical and dental expenses of the children or to the cost of health insurance dependent coverage.

(c) If the court finds that the available dependent health or dental insurance does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, including any existing or anticipated extraordinary medical expenses, and the court finds that the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to the payment of these medical or dental expenses, the court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan. Medical and dental expenses include, but are not limited to, necessary orthodontia and eye care, including prescription lenses.

(d) ~~If the obligor is employed by a self-insured employer subject only to the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) of 1974, and the insurance benefit plan meets the above requirements, the court shall order the obligor to enroll the dependents within 30 days of the court order effective date or be liable for all medical and dental expenses occurring while coverage is not in effect. If enrollment in the ERISA plan is precluded by exclusionary clauses, the court shall order the obligor to obtain other coverage or make payments as provided in paragraph (b) or (c).~~

(e) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties and approved by the court, if the court finds that the obligee is not receiving public assistance for the child and has the financial ability to contribute to the cost of medical and dental expenses for the child, including the cost of insurance, the court shall order the obligee and obligor to each assume a portion of these expenses based on their proportionate share of their total net income as defined in section 518.54, subdivision 6.

(f) ~~(e)~~ Payments ordered under this section are subject to section 518.611. An obligee who fails to apply payments received to the medical expenses of the dependents may be found in contempt of this order.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.171, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [IMPLEMENTATION.] A copy of the court order for insurance coverage shall be forwarded to the obligor's employer or union and to the health or dental insurance plan by the obligee or the public authority responsible for support enforcement only when ordered by the court or when the following conditions are met:

(1) the obligor fails to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority, within 30 days of the effective date of the court order, that the insurance has been obtained ~~or that application for insurability has been made;~~

(2) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its intent to enforce medical support on the obligor by mail at the obligor's last known post office address; and

(3) the obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority that the insurance coverage existed as of the date of mailing.

The employer or union shall forward a copy of the order to the health and dental insurance plan offered by the employer.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] (a) The order is binding on the employer or union and the health and dental insurance plan when service under subdivision 3 has been made. An employer or union that is included under ERISA may not deny enrollment based on exclusionary clauses described in section 62A.048. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union and its health and dental insurance plan shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in ~~the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled~~ or the least costly health insurance plan otherwise available to the obligor that is comparable to a number two qualified plan. If the obligor is not enrolled in a health insurance plan, the employer or union shall also enroll the obligor in the chosen plan if enrollment of the obligor is necessary in order to obtain dependent coverage under the plan. Enrollment of dependents and the obligor must be immediate and not dependent upon open enrollment periods. Enrollment is not subject to underwriting policies described in section 62A.048.

(b) An employer or union that willfully fails to comply with the order is liable for any health or dental expenses incurred by the dependents during the period of time the dependents were eligible to be enrolled in the insurance program, and for any other premium costs incurred because the employer or union willfully failed to comply with the order. An employer or union that fails to comply with the order is subject to contempt under section 518.615 and is also subject to a fine of $500 to be paid to the obligee or public authority. Fines paid to the public authority are designated for child support enforcement services.

(c) Failure of the obligor to execute any documents necessary to enroll the dependent in the group health and dental insurance plan will not affect the obligation of the employer or union and group health and dental insurance plan to enroll the dependent in a plan ~~for which other eligibility requirements are met~~. Information and authorization provided by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement, or by the custodial parent or guardian, is valid for the purposes of meeting enrollment requirements of the health plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subdivision 5 shall not be terminated except as authorized in subdivision 5.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 518.171, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE CHILD.] A minor child that an obligor is required to cover as a beneficiary pursuant to this section is eligible for insurance coverage as a dependent of the obligor until the child is emancipated or until further order of the court. The health or dental insurance plan may not disenroll or eliminate coverage of the child unless the health or dental insurance plan is provided satisfactory written evidence that the court order is no longer in effect, or the child is or will be enrolled in comparable health coverage through another health or dental insurance plan that will take effect not later than the effective date of the disenrollment, or the employer has eliminated family health and dental coverage for all of its employees.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.171, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect, the obligor's employer, union, or insurance agent shall release to the obligee or the public authority, upon request, information on the dependent coverage, including the name of the ~~insurer~~ health or dental insurance plan. The employer, union, health or dental insurance plan, or insurance agent must provide the obligee with insurance identification cards and all necessary written information to enable the obligee to utilize the insurance benefits for the covered dependents. Notwithstanding any other law, information reported pursuant to section 268.121 shall be released to the public agency responsible for support enforcement that is enforcing an order for ~~medical~~ health or dental insurance coverage under this section. The public agency responsible for support enforcement is authorized to release to the obligor's ~~insurer~~ health or dental insurance plan or employer information necessary to obtain or enforce medical support.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.171, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [OBLIGOR LIABILITY.] (a) An obligor who fails to maintain medical or dental insurance for the benefit of the children as ordered or fails to provide other medical support as ordered is liable to the obligee for any medical or dental expenses incurred from the effective date of the court order, including health and dental insurance premiums paid by the obligee because of the obligor's failure to obtain coverage as ordered. Proof of failure to maintain insurance or noncompliance with an order to provide other medical support constitutes a showing of increased need by the obligee pursuant to section 518.64 and provides a basis for a modification of the obligor's child support order.

(b) Payments for services rendered to the dependents that are directed to the obligor, in the form of reimbursement by the ~~insurer~~ health or dental insurance plan, must be endorsed over to and forwarded to the vendor or custodial parent or public authority when the reimbursement is not owed to the obligor. An obligor retaining insurance reimbursement not owed to the obligor may be found in contempt of this order and held liable for the amount of the reimbursement. Upon written verification by the ~~insurer~~ health or dental insurance plan of the amounts paid to the obligor, the reimbursement amount is subject to all enforcement remedies available under subdivision 10, including income withholding pursuant to section 518.611. The monthly amount to be withheld until the obligation is satisfied is 20 percent of the original debt or $50, whichever is greater.

Sec. 29. [518.575] [PUBLICATION OF NAMES OF DELINQUENT CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGORS.]

Every three months the department of human services shall publish at government bid rates in the newspaper of widest circulation in each county a list of the names and last known addresses of each person who (1) is a child support obligor, (2) resides in the county, (3) is at least $3,000 in arrears, and (4) has not made a child support payment, or has made only partial child support payments that total less than 25 percent of the amount of child support owed, for the last 12 months including any payments made through the interception of federal or state taxes. An obligor's name may not be published if the obligor claims in writing, and the department of human services determines, there is good cause for the nonpayment of child support. The list must be based on the best information available to the state at the time of publication.

Before publishing the name of the obligor, the department of human services shall send a notice to the obligor's last known address which states the department's intention to publish the obligor's name and the amount of child support the obligor owes. The notice must also provide an opportunity to have the obligor's name removed from the list by paying the arrearage or by entering into an agreement to pay the arrearage, and the final date when the payment or agreement can be accepted.

The department of human services shall insert with the notices sent to the obligee, a notice stating the intent to publish the obligor's name, and the criteria used to determine the publication of the obligor's name.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.611, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS OF INCOME WITHHOLDING.] (a) Withholding shall result when:

- (1) the obligor requests it in writing to the public authority;
- (2) the custodial parent requests it by making a motion to the court and the court finds that previous support has not been paid on a timely or consistent basis or that the obligor has threatened expressly or otherwise to stop or reduce payments; or
- (3) the obligor fails to make the maintenance or support payments, and the following conditions are met:
 - (i) the obligor is at least 30 days in arrears;
 - (ii) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of income withholding, showing arrearage, on the obligor at least 15 days before service of the notice of income withholding and a copy of the court's order on the payor of funds;
 - (iii) within the 15-day period, the obligor fails to move the court to deny withholding on the grounds that an arrearage of at least 30 days does not exist as of the date of the notice of income withholding, or on other grounds limited to mistakes of fact, and, ex parte, to stay service on the payor of funds until the motion to deny withholding is heard;
 - (iv) the obligee or the public authority serves a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order or notice of order, and the provisions of this section on the payor of funds; and
 - (v) the obligee serves on the public authority a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order, an application, and the fee to use the public authority's collection services.

For those persons not applying for the public authority's IV-D services, a monthly service fee of $15 must be charged to the obligor in addition to the amount of child support ordered by the court and withheld through automatic income withholding, or for persons applying for the public authority's IV-D services, the service fee under section 518.551, subdivision 7, applies. The county agency shall explain to affected persons the services available and encourage the applicant to apply for IV-D services.

(b) To pay the arrearage specified in the notice of income withholding, the employer or payor of funds shall withhold from the obligor's income an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support or maintenance obligation until the arrearage is paid.

(c) The obligor may move the court, under section 518.64, to modify the order respecting the amount of maintenance or support.

(d) Every order for support or maintenance shall provide for a conspicuous notice of the provisions of this subdivision that complies with section 518.68, subdivision 2. An order without this notice remains subject to this subdivision.

(e) Absent a court order to the contrary, if an arrearage exists at the time an order for ongoing support or maintenance would otherwise terminate, income withholding shall continue in effect in an amount equal to the former support or maintenance obligation plus an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support obligation, until all arrears have been paid in full.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.611, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the order is binding on the employer, trustee, payor of the funds, or financial institution when service under subdivision 2 has been made. Withholding must begin no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of the notice. In the case of a financial institution, preauthorized transfers must occur in accordance with a court-ordered payment schedule. An employer, payor of funds, or financial institution in this state is required to withhold income according to court orders for withholding issued by other states or territories. The payor shall withhold from the income payable to the obligor the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2 and section 518.613 and shall remit, within ten days of the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income, the amounts withheld to the public authority. The payor shall identify on the remittance information the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income. The obligor is considered to have paid the amount withheld as of the date the obligor received the remainder of the income. The financial institution shall execute preauthorized transfers from the deposit accounts of the obligor in the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2 as directed by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement.

(b) Employers may combine all amounts withheld from one pay period into one payment to each public authority, but shall separately identify each obligor making payment. Amounts received by the public authority which are in excess of public assistance expended for the party or for a child shall be remitted to the party.

(c) An employer shall not discharge, or refuse to hire, or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary withholding authorized by this section. The employer or other payor of funds shall be liable to the obligee for any amounts required to be withheld. A financial institution is liable to the obligee if funds in any of the obligor's deposit accounts identified in the court order equal the amount stated in the preauthorization agreement but are not transferred by the financial institution in accordance with the agreement. An employer or other payor of funds that fails to withhold or transfer funds in accordance with this section is also liable to the obligee for interest on the funds at the rate applicable to judgments under section 549.09, computed from the date the funds were required to be withheld or transferred. An employer or other payor of funds is liable for reasonable attorney fees of the obligee or public authority incurred in enforcing the liability under this paragraph. An employer or other payor of funds that has failed to comply with the requirements of this section is subject to contempt sanctions under section 518.615. If an employer violates this subdivision, a court may award the employee twice the wages lost as a result of this violation. If a court finds the employer violates this subdivision, the court shall impose a civil fine of not less than $500.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.613, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ORDER; COLLECTION SERVICES.] Every order for child support must include the obligor's social security number and date of birth and the name and address of the obligor's employer or other payor of funds. In addition, every order must contain provisions requiring the obligor to keep the public authority informed of the name and address of the obligor's current employer, or other payor of funds and whether the obligor has access to employment-related health insurance coverage and, if so, the health insurance policy information. Upon entry of the order for support or maintenance, the court shall mail, within five working days of entering the order, a copy of the court's automatic income withholding order and the provisions of section 518.611 and this section to the obligor's employer or other payor of funds and to the public authority responsible for child support enforcement. If the employer is unknown, the order must be forwarded to the public authority responsible for child support enforcement. Upon locating a payor of funds, the public authority responsible for child support enforcement shall mail a copy of the court's automatic income withholding order within five working days of locating the address of the payor of funds. An obligee who is not a recipient of public assistance must decide to either apply for the IV-D collection services of the public authority or obtain income withholding only services when an order for support is entered unless the requirements of this section have been waived under subdivision 7. The supreme court shall develop a standard automatic income withholding form to be used by all Minnesota courts. This form shall be made a part of any order for support or decree by reference.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 518.613, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WAIVER.] (a) The court may waive the requirements of this section if the court finds that there is no arrearage in child support or maintenance as of the date of the hearing; ~~that it would not be contrary to the best interests of the child~~, and: (1) one party demonstrates and the court finds that there is good cause to waive the requirements of this section or to terminate automatic income withholding on an order previously entered under this section; or (2) all parties reach a written agreement that provides for an alternative payment arrangement and the agreement is approved by the court after a finding that the agreement is likely to result in regular and timely payments. The court's findings waiving the requirements of this section must include a written explanation of the reasons why automatic withholding would not be in the best interests of the child and, in the case that involves modification of support, that past support has been timely made. If the court waives the requirements of this section:

(1) in all cases where the obligor is at least 30 days in arrears, withholding must be carried out pursuant to section 518.611;

(2) the obligee may at any time and without cause request the court to issue an order for automatic income withholding under this section; and

(3) the obligor may at any time request the public authority to begin withholding pursuant to this section, by serving upon the public authority the request and a copy of the order for child support or maintenance. Upon receipt of the request, the public authority shall serve a copy of the court's order and the provisions of section 518.611 and this section on the obligor's employer or other payor of funds. The public authority shall notify the court that withholding has begun at the request of the obligor pursuant to this clause.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "parties" includes the public authority in cases when it is a party pursuant to section 518.551, subdivision 9.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.615, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY.] The employer, trustee, or payor of funds is liable to the obligee or the agency responsible for child support enforcement for any amounts required to be withheld that were not paid. The court may enter judgment against the employer, trustee, or payor of funds for support not withheld or remitted. An employer, trustee, or payor of funds found guilty of contempt shall be punished by a fine of not more than $250 as provided in chapter 588. The court may also impose other contempt sanctions authorized under chapter 588.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) The following persons are immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result from their actions, if they are acting in good faith:

(1) any person making a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 3 or under section 626.5561 or assisting in an assessment under this section or under section 626.5561;

(2) any ~~social worker~~ person with responsibility for performing duties under this section or supervisor employed by a local welfare agency complying with subdivision 10d ~~or the provisions of section 626.5561~~; and

(3) any public or private school, facility as defined in subdivision 2, or the employee of any public or private school or facility who permits access by a local welfare agency or local law enforcement agency and assists in an investigation or assessment pursuant to subdivision 10 or under section 626.5561.

(b) A person who is a supervisor or ~~social worker~~ person with responsibility for performing duties under this section employed by a local welfare agency complying with subdivisions 10 and 11 or section 626.5561 or any related rule or provision of law is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise result from the person's actions, if the person is acting in good faith and ~~exercising due care~~ in accordance with any established protocols and rules and reasonable professional practice.

(c) This subdivision does not provide immunity to any person for failure to make a required report or for committing neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse of a child.

(d) If a person who makes a voluntary or mandatory report under subdivision 3 prevails in a civil action from which the person has been granted immunity under this subdivision, the court may award the person attorney fees and costs.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [LIABILITY; COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES.] If a person who is an alleged perpetrator prevails in a civil action arising out of an assessment, determination, or bad faith report made under this section, the person is entitled to costs and reasonable attorney fees in the action. This subdivision does not apply to criminal or juvenile court proceedings. This subdivision does not affect the immunity provisions of this section or other law.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [PROTOCOL GOVERNING ABUSE AND NEGLECT ASSESSMENTS.] The commissioner of human services shall adopt rules establishing a specific protocol to be followed by social workers, child protection workers, and supervisors employed by local welfare agencies and the commissioner in conducting assessments and making determinations under this section. In developing the rules the commissioner shall consult with individuals involved in assessing child abuse and neglect, including physicians and other health professionals, child psychologists, social workers, child protection workers, and supervisors, county attorneys, educators, and law enforcement. The commissioner shall also consult with representatives of parent and foster parent groups, facilities, attorneys and other advocates who represent the interests of persons who may be accused of child abuse and neglect, and representatives of communities of color.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, is amended to read:

Subd. 10e. [DETERMINATIONS.] Upon the conclusion of every assessment or investigation it conducts, the local welfare agency shall make two determinations: first, whether maltreatment has occurred; and second, whether child protective services are needed. Determinations under this subdivision must be made based on a preponderance of the evidence.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "maltreatment" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a person responsible for the child's care:

- (1) physical abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (d);
- (2) neglect as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (c);
- (3) sexual abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a); or
- (4) mental injury as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (k).

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a determination that child protective services are needed means that the local welfare agency has documented conditions during the assessment or investigation sufficient to cause a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, to conclude that a child is at significant risk of maltreatment if protective intervention is not provided and that the individuals responsible for the child's care have not taken or are not likely to take actions to protect the child from maltreatment or risk of maltreatment.

(c) This subdivision does not mean that maltreatment has occurred solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, in lieu of medical care. However, if lack of medical care may result in imminent and serious danger to the child's health, the local welfare agency may ensure that necessary medical services are provided to the child.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RECORDS.] Except as provided in subdivisions 10b, 10d, 10g, and 11b, and 11d, all records concerning individuals maintained by a local welfare agency under this section, including any written reports filed under subdivision 7, shall be private data on individuals, except insofar as copies of reports are required by subdivision 7 to be sent to the local police department or the county sheriff. Reports maintained by any police department or the county sheriff shall be private data on individuals except the reports shall be made available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority, including county medical examiners or county coroners. Section 13.82, subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b, apply to law enforcement data other than the reports. The welfare board shall make available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority, including county medical examiners or county coroners or their professional delegates, any records which contain information relating to a specific incident of neglect or abuse which is under investigation, petition, or prosecution and information relating to any prior incidents of neglect or abuse involving any of the same persons. The records shall be collected and maintained in accordance with the provisions of chapter 13. In conducting investigations and assessments pursuant to this section, the notice required by section 13.04, subdivision 2, need not be provided to a minor under the age of ten who is the alleged victim of abuse or neglect. An individual subject of a record shall have access to the record in accordance with those sections, except that the name of the reporter shall be confidential while the report is under assessment or investigation except as otherwise permitted by this subdivision. Any person conducting an investigation or assessment under this section who intentionally discloses the identity of a reporter prior to the completion of the investigation or assessment is guilty of a misdemeanor. After the assessment or investigation is completed, the name of the reporter shall be confidential. The subject of the report may compel disclosure of the name of the reporter only with the consent of the reporter or upon a written finding by the court that the report was false and that there is evidence that the report was made in bad faith. This subdivision does not alter disclosure responsibilities or obligations under the rules of criminal procedure.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11d. [DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO SUBJECT OF REPORT.] If a determination is made that maltreatment has occurred or that child protective services are needed, the person determined to be maltreating the child and the director of the facility, if applicable, may request a summary of the specific reasons for the determination and the person has access to data documenting the basis for the determination, excluding data that would identify the reporter or other confidential sources.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.] A person who conducts an assessment or assists in making an assessment under this section or section 626.5561 may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in a direct shared financial gain with a child abuse and neglect treatment provider. If an independent assessor is not available, the person responsible for making the determination under this section may use the services of an assessor with a financial interest or referral relationship, as authorized under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 42. [REPORT.]

The commissioner shall consult with the task force on child care and make recommendations for future distribution of the ACCESS slots under Minnesota Statutes, section 256H.05, subdivision 6, paragraph (b), to the 1995 legislature.

Sec. 43. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The department of human services shall report to the legislature in January 1996, in the department of human services annual report to the legislature, the fiscal implications of the program, established in Minnesota Statutes, section 518.575, which publishes the names of delinquent child support obligors, including related costs and savings.

Sec. 44. [REPEALER; SUPPORT ORDERS.]

Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 62C.141; 62C.143; 62D.106; and 62E.04, subdivisions 9 and 10, are repealed.

Sec. 45. [REPEALER; GENERAL ASSISTANCE FOR NEW RESIDENTS.]

Sec. 46. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Subdivision 1. [SUPPORT ORDERS.] Sections 2 to 5 and 23 to 28 (62A.045, 62A.046, 62A.048, 62A.27, and 518.171, subdivisions 1 to 8) are effective retroactively to August 10, 1993.

Subd. 2. [PUBLICATION OF NAMES.] Section 29 (518.575) is effective January 1, 1995.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY; COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES.] Section 36 (626.556, subdivision 4b) is effective August 1, 1996.

ARTICLE 3

HEALTH CARE ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 62A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1u. [PREMIUM RATE REGULATION.] No Medicare supplement policy, contract, or certificate, including policies, contracts, or certificates that supplement Medicare issued by health maintenance organizations and those contracts governed by section 1833 or 1876 of the federal Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, section 1395 et seq., may be issued or renewed to a Minnesota resident unless the premium rate charged complies with this subdivision. The premium rate must:

(1) not be used unless it has been approved by the commissioner of commerce or commissioner of health, whichever is applicable, as being in full compliance with this subdivision and other applicable state law, except as otherwise provided in clause (vi);

(2) not be approved, unless the commissioner of commerce or commissioner of health, whichever is applicable, has determined that the rate is reasonable. In determining reasonableness, the commissioner shall consider the effect of any Medicare benefit changes, the growth rates applied under section 62J.04, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), to the calendar year or years that the proposed premium rate would be in effect, actuarially valid changes in risk associated with the enrollee population and actuarially valid changes as a result of statutory changes in Laws 1992, chapter 549;

(3) approved by the commissioner of commerce or commissioner of health, whichever is applicable, as actuarially justified, based upon an actuarial review, by the commissioner's own employed or retained actuary, of the actuarial justification provided by the health carrier; and

(4) not be approved except after compliance with the following procedure:

(i) a health carrier that wishes to increase its premium rate must submit its request to the appropriate commissioner on or before October 15;

(ii) the health carrier must notify its policyholders, contract holders, enrollees, and certificate holders of the proposed increase by mail no later than November 1. The notice must specify the dollar amount per month or the percentage of the proposed increase and itemize the portion of the proposed increase attributable to each of the following:

(a) changes in Medicare deductibles and copays;

(b) changes in Medicare payments to the health carrier;

(c) changes in the medical care component of the Consumer Price Index, based upon the most recent 12-month change available as of October 1, as determined by the commissioners;

(d) expense or claims experience under the plan; and

(e) other factors specified by the health carrier.

The notice must provide a toll-free telephone number that may be used to call the health carrier for more information.

(iii) the notice must also inform the recipient of the dates, times, and locations of no fewer than five public hearings arranged jointly by the commissioners of health and commerce and must further inform the recipient that the recipient may appear at the hearing to comment on the proposed increase or may submit written comments to the appropriate commissioner. The hearings must be held in the first two weeks in December and must be located at convenient locations throughout the state, as determined by the commissioners in their discretion. The rates must not be approved until after the hearings;

(iv) clause (iii) does not apply to a proposed rate increase that is attributable only to the change in clause (ii), item (c), as determined by the commissioner. Upon receipt of a request for a rate increase, the commissioner shall determine, no later than October 15, whether the proposed increase complies with the clause. If the commissioner is in doubt, the determination shall be that it does not comply;

(v) no rate increase shall go into effect prior to January 1, except a request that complies with clause (iv) or that is described in clause (vi);

(vi) health maintenance organizations may increase premium rates for contracts governed by section 1833 or 1876 of the federal Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, section 1395 et seq., and for other contracts governed by federal law, on January 1 without complying with clause (iv) and without the prior approval of the commissioner of health. A rate increase permitted under this clause is not final until approved by the commissioner of health and is subject to all requirements and procedures required under this subdivision, except as expressly exempted in this subdivision. If the commissioner of health later disapproves all or part of a proposed rate increase that went into effect under this clause, the health maintenance organization shall promptly refund the excess premiums to the enrollees with interest at five percent per year.

This subdivision shall not apply to Minnesota comprehensive health association policies.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144A.46, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following individuals or organizations are exempt from the requirement to obtain a home care provider license:

(1) a person who is licensed as a registered nurse under sections 148.171 to 148.285 and who independently provides nursing services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care provider or other organization;

(2) a personal care assistant who provides services under the medical assistance program as authorized under sections 256B.0625, subdivision 19, and 256B.04, subdivision 16;

(3) a person or organization that exclusively offers, provides, or arranges for personal care assistant services under the medical assistance program as authorized under sections 256B.0625, subdivision 19, and 256B.04, subdivision 16;

(4) a person who is registered under sections 148.65 to 148.78 and who independently provides physical therapy services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care provider or other organization;

(5) a provider that is licensed by the commissioner of human services to provide semi-independent living services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0500 to 9525.0660 when providing home care services to a person with a developmental disability;

(6) a provider that is licensed by the commissioner of human services to provide home- and community-based services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.2000 to 9525.2140 when providing home care services to a person with a developmental disability; ~~or~~

(7) a person or organization that provides only home management services, if the person or organization is registered under section 144A.43, subdivision 3; or

(8) a person who is licensed as a social worker under sections 148B.18 to 148B.28 and who provides social work services in the home independently and not through any contractual or employment relationship with a home care provider or other organization.

An exemption under this subdivision does not excuse the individual from complying with applicable provisions of the home care bill of rights.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144A.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS AUTHORIZING AN INCREASE IN BEDS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or the addition of a new licensed nursing home bed, under the following conditions:

(a) to license or certify a new bed in place of one decertified after July 1, 1993, as long as the number of certified plus newly certified or recertified beds does not exceed the number of beds licensed or certified on July 1, 1993, or to address an extreme hardship situation, in a particular county that, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or the most recent estimate of the state demographer as of July 1, of each year of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives;

(b) to certify or license new beds in a new facility that is to be operated by the commissioner of veterans affairs or when the costs of constructing and operating the new beds are to be reimbursed by the commissioner of veterans affairs or the United States Veterans Administration; ~~or~~

(c) to license or certify beds in a facility that has been involuntarily delicensed or decertified for participation in the medical assistance program, provided that an application for relicensure or recertification is submitted to the commissioner within 120 days after delicensure or decertification; or

(d) to certify two existing beds in a facility with 66 licensed beds on January 1, 1994, that had an average occupancy rate of 98 percent or higher in both calendar year 1992 and calendar year 1993, and which began construction of four attached assisted living units in April 1993.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144A.071, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [EXCEPTIONS FOR REPLACEMENT BEDS.] It is in the best interest of the state to ensure that nursing homes and boarding care homes continue to meet the physical plant licensing and certification requirements by permitting certain construction projects. Facilities should be maintained in condition to satisfy the physical and emotional needs of residents while allowing the state to maintain control over nursing home expenditure growth.

The commissioner of health in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the renovation, replacement, upgrading, or relocation of a nursing home or boarding care home, under the following conditions:

(a) to license or certify beds in a new facility constructed to replace a facility or to make repairs in an existing facility that was destroyed or damaged after June 30, 1987, by fire, lightning, or other hazard provided:

(i) destruction was not caused by the intentional act of or at the direction of a controlling person of the facility;

(ii) at the time the facility was destroyed or damaged the controlling persons of the facility maintained insurance coverage for the type of hazard that occurred in an amount that a reasonable person would conclude was adequate;

(iii) the net proceeds from an insurance settlement for the damages caused by the hazard are applied to the cost of the new facility or repairs;

(iv) the new facility is constructed on the same site as the destroyed facility or on another site subject to the restrictions in section 144A.073, subdivision 5;

(v) the number of licensed and certified beds in the new facility does not exceed the number of licensed and certified beds in the destroyed facility; and

(vi) the commissioner determines that the replacement beds are needed to prevent an inadequate supply of beds.

Project construction costs incurred for repairs authorized under this clause shall not be considered in the dollar threshold amount defined in subdivision 2;

(b) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within a nursing home facility, provided the total costs of remodeling performed in conjunction with the relocation of beds does not exceed 25 percent of the appraised value of the facility or $500,000, whichever is less;

(c) to license or certify beds in a project recommended for approval under section 144A.073;

(d) to license or certify beds that are moved from an existing state nursing home to a different state facility, provided there is no net increase in the number of state nursing home beds;

(e) to certify and license as nursing home beds boarding care beds in a certified boarding care facility if the beds meet the standards for nursing home licensure, or in a facility that was granted an exception to the moratorium under section 144A.073, and if the cost of any remodeling of the facility does not exceed 25 percent of the appraised value of the facility or $500,000, whichever is less. If boarding care beds are licensed as nursing home beds, the number of boarding care beds in the facility must not increase beyond the number remaining at the time of the upgrade in licensure. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of the facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements;

(f) to license and certify up to 40 beds transferred from an existing facility owned and operated by the Amherst H. Wilder Foundation in the city of St. Paul to a new unit at the same location as the existing facility that will serve persons with Alzheimer's disease and other related disorders. The transfer of beds may occur gradually or in stages, provided the total number of beds transferred does not exceed 40. At the time of licensure and certification of a bed or beds in the new unit, the commissioner of health shall delicense and decertify the same number of beds in the existing facility. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the transfers allowed under this paragraph;

(g) to license and certify nursing home beds to replace currently licensed and certified boarding care beds which may be located either in a remodeled or renovated boarding care or nursing home facility or in a remodeled, renovated, newly constructed, or replacement nursing home facility within the identifiable complex of health care facilities in which the currently licensed boarding care beds are presently located, provided that the number of boarding care beds in the facility or complex are decreased by the number to be licensed as nursing home beds and further provided that, if the total costs of new construction, replacement, remodeling, or renovation exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate by reason of the new construction, replacement, remodeling, or renovation. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements;

(h) to license as a nursing home and certify as a nursing facility a facility that is licensed as a boarding care facility but not certified under the medical assistance program, but only if the commissioner of human services certifies to the commissioner of health that licensing the facility as a nursing home and certifying the facility as a nursing facility will result in a net annual savings to the state general fund of $200,000 or more;

(i) to certify, after September 30, 1992, and prior to July 1, 1993, existing nursing home beds in a facility that was licensed and in operation prior to January 1, 1992;

(j) to license and certify new nursing home beds to replace beds in a facility condemned as part of an economic redevelopment plan in a city of the first class, provided the new facility is located within one mile of the site of the old facility. Operating and property costs for the new facility must be determined and allowed under existing reimbursement rules;

(k) to license and certify up to 20 new nursing home beds in a community-operated hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility with 40 beds on April 21, 1991, that suspended operation of the hospital in April 1986. The commissioner of human services shall provide the facility with the same per diem property-related payment rate for each additional licensed and certified bed as it will receive for its existing 40 beds;

(l) to license or certify beds in renovation, replacement, or upgrading projects as defined in section 144A.073, subdivision 1, so long as the cumulative total costs of the facility's remodeling projects do not exceed 25 percent of the appraised value of the facility or $500,000, whichever is less;

(m) to license and certify beds that are moved from one location to another for the purposes of converting up to five four-bed wards to single or double occupancy rooms in a nursing home that, as of January 1, 1993, was county-owned and had a licensed capacity of 115 beds;

(n) to allow a facility that on April 16, 1993, was a 106-bed licensed and certified nursing facility located in Minneapolis to layaway all of its licensed and certified nursing home beds. These beds may be relicensed and recertified in a newly-constructed teaching nursing home facility affiliated with a teaching hospital upon approval by the legislature. The proposal must be developed in consultation with the interagency committee on long-term care planning. The beds on layaway status shall have the same status as voluntarily delicensed and decertified beds, except that beds on layaway status remain subject to the surcharge in section 256.9657. This layaway provision expires July 1, 1995;

(o) to allow a project which will be completed in conjunction with an approved moratorium exception project for a nursing home in southern Cass county and which is directly related to that portion of the facility that must be repaired, renovated, or replaced, to correct an emergency plumbing problem for which a state correction order has been issued and which must be corrected by August 31, 1993; ~~or~~

(p) to allow a facility that on April 16, 1993, was a 368-bed licensed and certified nursing facility located in Minneapolis to layaway, upon 30 days prior written notice to the commissioner, up to 30 of the facility's licensed and certified beds by converting three-bed wards to single or double occupancy. Beds on layaway status shall have the same status as voluntarily delicensed and decertified beds except that beds on layaway status remain subject to the surcharge in section 256.9657, remain subject to the license application and renewal fees under section 144A.07 and shall be subject to a $100 per bed reactivation fee. In addition, at any time within three years of the effective date of the layaway, the beds on layaway status may be:

(1) relicensed and recertified upon relocation and reactivation of some or all of the beds to an existing licensed and certified facility or facilities located in Pine River, Brainerd, or International Falls; provided that the total project construction costs related to the relocation of beds from layaway status for any facility receiving relocated beds may not exceed the dollar threshold provided in subdivision 2 unless the construction project has been approved through the moratorium exception process under section 144A.073;

(2) relicensed and recertified, upon reactivation of some or all of the beds within the facility which placed the beds in layaway status, if the commissioner has determined a need for the reactivation of the beds on layaway status;

(q) to license and certify up to 24 nursing home beds in a facility located in St. Louis county which, as of January 1, 1993, has a licensed capacity of 26 hospital beds and 24 nursing home beds under the following conditions:

(1) no more than 12 nursing home beds can be licensed and certified during fiscal year 1995; and

(2) the additional 12 nursing home beds can be licensed and certified during fiscal year 1996 only if the 1994 occupancy rate for nursing homes within a 25-mile radius of the facility exceeds 96 percent.

This facility shall not be required to comply with the new construction standards contained in the nursing home licensure rules for resident bedrooms;

(r) to license and certify up to 117 beds that are relocated from a licensed and certified 138-bed nursing facility located in St. Paul to a hospital with 130 licensed hospital beds located in South St. Paul, provided that the nursing facility and hospital are owned and operated by the same organization and that prior to the date the relocation is completed the hospital ceases operation of its inpatient hospital services at that hospital.

The total project construction cost estimate for the project must not exceed the cost estimate submitted for the replacement of the nursing facility in connection with the moratorium exception process initiated under section 144A.073 in 1993.

At the time of licensure and certification of the 117 nursing facility beds in the new location, the facility may layaway the remaining 21 nursing facility beds, which shall have the same status as voluntarily delicensed and decertified beds except that beds on layaway status remain subject to the surcharge in section 256.9657. The 21 nursing facility beds on layaway status may be relicensed and recertified within the identifiable complex of health care facilities in which the beds are currently located upon recommendation by the commissioner of human services; or

(s) to license and certify a newly constructed 118-bed facility in Crow Wing county when the following conditions are met:

(1) the owner of the new facility delicensures an existing 68-bed facility located in the same county;

(2) the owner of the new facility delicensures 60 beds in three-bed rooms in other owned facilities located in the seven-county metropolitan area; and

(3) the project results in a ten-bed reduction in the number of licensed beds operated statewide by the owner of the new facility.

All beds in the newly constructed facility shall be licensed as nursing home beds regardless of the licensure of beds at the closed facility.

The property-related payment rate of a facility placing beds on layaway status must be adjusted by the incremental change in its rental per diem after recalculating the rental per diem as provided in section 256B.431, subdivision 3a, paragraph (d). The property-related payment rate for a facility relicensing and recertifying beds from layaway status must be adjusted by the incremental change in its rental per diem after recalculating its rental per diem using the number of beds after the relicensing to establish the facility's capacity day divisor, which shall be effective the first day of the month following the month in which the relicensing and recertification became effective. Any beds remaining on layaway status more than three years after the date the layaway status became effective must be removed from layaway status and immediately delicensed and decertified.

Subd. 2. [REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS.] At the intervals specified in rules, the interagency committee shall publish in the State Register a request for proposals for nursing home projects to be licensed or certified under section 144A.071, subdivision 4a, clause (c). The public notice of this funding and the request for proposal must specify how the approval criteria will be prioritized by the advisory review panel, the interagency long-term care planning committee, and the commissioner. The notice must describe the information that must accompany a request and state that proposals must be submitted to the interagency committee within 90 days of the date of publication. The notice must include the amount of the legislative appropriation available for the additional costs to the medical assistance program of projects approved under this section. If no money is appropriated for a year, the notice for that year must state that proposals will not be requested because no appropriations were made. To be considered for approval, a proposal must include the following information:

(1) whether the request is for renovation, replacement, upgrading, or conversion;

(2) a description of the problem the project is designed to address;

(3) a description of the proposed project;

(4) an analysis of projected costs, including initial construction and remodeling costs, site preparation costs, resident discharge plans when downsizing is part of the proposal, financing costs, including the current estimated long-term financing costs of the proposal, including the amount and sources of money, bond fund reserve, annual payments scheduled, interest

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144A.073, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF PROPOSALS.] Within the limits of money specifically appropriated to the medical assistance program for this purpose, the interagency long-term care planning committee may recommend that the commissioner of health grant exceptions to the nursing home licensure or certification moratorium for proposals that satisfy the requirements of this section. The interagency committee shall appoint an advisory review panel composed of representatives of consumers and providers to review proposals and provide comments and recommendations to the committee. The commissioners of human services and health shall provide staff and technical assistance to the committee for the review and analysis of proposals. The interagency committee shall hold a public hearing before submitting recommendations to the commissioner of health on project requests. The committee shall submit recommendations within 150 days of the date of the publication of the notice, based on a comparison and ranking of proposals using the criteria in subdivision 4. The commissioner of health shall approve or disapprove a project within 30 days after receiving the committee's recommendations. The advisory review panel, the committee, and the commissioner of health shall base their recommendations, approvals, or disapprovals on a comparison and ranking of proposals using only the criteria in subdivision 4 and in emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner. The cost to the medical assistance program of the proposals approved must be within the limits of the appropriations specifically made for this purpose. Approval of a proposal expires 18 months after approval by the commissioner of health unless the facility has commenced construction as defined in section 144A.071, subdivision 1a, paragraph (d). The committee's report to the legislature, as required under section 144A.31, must include the projects approved, the criteria used to recommend proposals for approval, and the estimated costs of the projects, including the costs of initial construction and remodeling, and the estimated operating costs during the first two years after the project is completed.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144A.073, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [EXTENSION OF APPROVAL OF A PROJECT REQUIRING AN EXCEPTION TO THE NURSING HOME MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, a construction project that was approved by the commissioner under the moratorium exception approval process in this section prior to July 1, 1992, may be commenced more than 18 months after the date of the commissioner's approval but no later than July 1, 1994 January 1, 1995, or 12 months after the effective date of a nursing home property-related payment system enacted to replace the current rate freeze in section 256B.431, subdivision 12, whichever is later, except that for a project eligible under this section that applies for department of housing and urban development funding prior to September 30, 1994, construction may be commenced no later than July 1, 1995.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144A.073, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CRITERIA FOR REVIEW.] (a) The following criteria must be used in a consistent manner to compare and, evaluate, and rank all proposals submitted. Except for the criteria specified in clauses (4) and (5), the application of criteria listed under this paragraph must not reflect any distinction based on the geographic location of the proposed project:

(1) ~~the extent to which the average occupancy rate of the facility supports the need for the proposed project;~~

(2) ~~the extent to which the average occupancy rate of all facilities in the county in which the applicant is located, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, supports the need for the proposed project;~~

(3) ~~the extent to which the proposal furthers state long-term care goals specified in permanent rules adopted under subdivision 8, including the goal of enhancing the availability and use of alternative care services and the goal of reducing the number of long-term care resident rooms with more than two beds;~~

(4) ~~the cost effectiveness of the proposal, including (2) the proposal's long-term effects on the costs of the medical assistance program, as determined by the commissioner of human services; and~~

(5) ~~other factors developed in rule by the commissioner of health that evaluate and assess how the proposed project will further promote or protect the health, safety, comfort, treatment, or well-being of the facility's residents.~~

(3) the extent to which the proposal at the time of the application under this section eliminates beds from the state's nursing home or certified boarding care bed supply, results in the closure of at least one nursing home or certified boarding care home, or distinct sections of a facility;

(4) notwithstanding paragraph (b), and subdivision 5, the extent to which the project would result in a newly constructed facility or an addition to a facility in a county:

(i) with less than the statewide average of nursing home beds per 1,000 persons aged 65 or older;

(ii) where services are available as an alternative to nursing home use;

(iii) where nursing home occupancy exceeds 97 percent as determined by the department of human services; and

(iv) located in a development region where the percentage of projected population increase between 1990 and 2005 in the number of persons aged 85 or older exceeds the statewide projection included in 1993 state demographer data.

The project must involve a reduction in beds in a development region with a nursing home occupancy rate less than the statewide average accomplished through the transfer of beds, especially the transfer of beds from three-bed or four-bed rooms, provided that for every six licensed beds transferred, an additional licensed bed is delicensed. Projects may only be approved under this clause until June 30, 1995;

(5) until June 30, 1995, and notwithstanding section 144A.073, subdivision 6, the extent to which the project would increase the capacity of a nursing home attached to a hospital, that has been delicensed, but only if the most current occupancy rate for nursing homes within a 25-mile radius of the facility exceeds 96 percent. The facility shall not be required to comply with the new construction standards contained in the nursing home licensure rules for resident bedrooms;

(b) In addition to the criteria in paragraph (a), the following criteria must be used to evaluate, compare, and rank proposals involving renovation or replacement:

(1) (6) the extent to which the project improves conditions that affect the health or safety of residents, such as narrow corridors, narrow door frames, unenclosed fire exits, and wood frame construction, and similar provisions contained in fire and life safety codes and licensure and certification rules;

(2) (7) the extent to which the project improves conditions that affect the comfort or quality of life of residents in a facility or the ability of the facility to provide efficient care, such as a relatively high number of residents in a room; inadequate lighting or ventilation; poor access to bathing or toilet facilities; a lack of available ancillary space for dining rooms, day rooms, or rooms used for other activities; problems relating to heating, cooling, or energy efficiency; inefficient location of nursing stations; narrow corridors; or other provisions contained in the licensure and certification rules;

(8) the extent to which the applicant demonstrates the delivery of quality care to residents as evidenced by the two most recent state agency certification surveys and the applicants' response to those surveys;

(9) the extent to which the project removes the need for waivers or variances previously granted by either the licensing agency, certifying agency, fire marshal, or local governmental entity; and

(10) other factors developed in permanent rule by the commissioner of health that evaluate and assess how the proposed project will further promote or protect the health, safety, comfort, treatment, or well-being of the facility's residents.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), clauses (4) and (5), the use of the following criteria is limited to evaluation, comparison, and ranking, of proposals that involve relocation:

(1) the extent to which the average occupancy rate of the facility and the average occupancy rate of all facilities in the county in which the project will be located, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, supports the need for the proposed project; and

(2) the extent to which the number of nursing home beds per 1,000 individuals over the age of 85 in the county in which the project will be located, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, supports the need for the project.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144A.073, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [UTILIZATION COSTS.] As part of the technical assistance review and analysis of proposals, the commissioner of human services shall verify any state medical assistance utilization costs projected by a proposal. If verified, the advisory review panel, the interagency committee, and the commissioner shall include the projected state medical assistance costs when calculating whether the combined costs of all projects exceed any statutory funding allocation threshold for the exceptions process.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144A.073, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner of health shall adopt emergency or permanent rules to implement this section. The permanent rules must be in accordance with and implement only the criteria listed in this section. The authority to adopt emergency and permanent rules continues until ~~December 30, 1988~~ July 1, 1996. For any moratorium exceptions process that occurs prior to July 1, 1996, an emergency rule may be used only to the extent that it is in accordance with and implements only the criteria listed in this section.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.015, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [COOPERATION REQUIRED.] Upon the request of the department of human services, any state agency or third party payer shall cooperate with the department in furnishing information to help establish a third party liability. Upon the request of the department of human services or county child support or human service agencies, any employer or third party payer shall cooperate in furnishing information about group health insurance plans or medical benefit plans available to its employees. The department of human services and county agencies shall limit its use of information gained from agencies and, third party payers, and employers to purposes directly connected with the administration of its public assistance and child support programs. The provision of information by agencies and, third party payers, and employers to the department under this subdivision is not a violation of any right of confidentiality or data privacy.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.045, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STATE AGENCY HEARINGS.] (a) Any person applying for, receiving or having received public assistance or a program of social services granted by the state agency or a county agency under sections 252.32, 256.031 to 256.036, and 256.72 to 256.879, chapters 256B, 256D, 256E, 261, or the federal Food Stamp Act whose application for assistance is denied, not acted upon with reasonable promptness, or whose assistance is suspended, reduced, terminated, or claimed to have been incorrectly paid, or any patient or relative aggrieved by an order of the commissioner under section 252.27, or a party aggrieved by a ruling of a prepaid health plan, may contest that action or decision before the state agency by submitting a written request for a hearing to the state agency within 30 days after receiving written notice of the action or decision, or within 90 days of such written notice if the applicant, recipient, patient, or relative shows good cause why the request was not submitted within the 30-day time limit.

(b) Except for a prepaid health plan, a vendor of medical care as defined in section 256B.02, subdivision 7, or a vendor under contract with a county agency to provide social services under section 256E.08, subdivision 4, is not a party and may not request a hearing under this section, except if assisting a recipient as provided in subdivision 4.

(c) An applicant or recipient is not entitled to receive social services beyond the services included in the amended community social services plan developed under section 256E.081, subdivision 3, if the county agency has met the requirements in section 256E.081.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.045, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDUCT OF HEARINGS.] All hearings held pursuant to subdivision 3, 3a, or 4a shall be conducted according to the provisions of the federal Social Security Act and the regulations implemented in accordance with that act to enable this state to qualify for federal grants-in-aid, and according to the rules and written policies of the commissioner of human services. County agencies shall install equipment necessary to conduct telephone hearings. A state human services referee may schedule a telephone conference hearing when the distance or time required to travel to the county agency offices will cause a delay in the issuance of an order, or to promote efficiency, or at the mutual request of the parties. Hearings may be conducted by telephone conferences unless the applicant, recipient, or former recipient objects. The hearing shall not be held earlier than five days after filing of the required notice with the county or state agency. The state human services referee shall notify all interested persons of the time, date, and location of the hearing at least five days before the date of the hearing. Interested persons may be represented by legal counsel or other representative of their choice, including a provider of therapy services, at the hearing and may appear personally, testify and offer evidence, and examine and cross-examine witnesses. The applicant, recipient, or former recipient shall have the opportunity to examine the contents of the case file and all documents and records to be used by the county or state agency at the hearing at a reasonable time before the date of the hearing and during the hearing. Upon request, the county agency shall provide reimbursement for transportation, child care, photocopying, medical assessment, witness fee, and other necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the applicant, recipient, or former recipient in connection with the appeal. All evidence, except that privileged by law, commonly accepted by reasonable people in the conduct of their affairs as having probative value with respect to the issues shall be submitted at the hearing and such hearing shall not be "a contested case" within the meaning of section 14.02, subdivision 3. The agency must present its evidence prior to or at the hearing and may not submit evidence after the hearing except by agreement of the parties at the hearing, provided the recipient has the opportunity to respond.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.045, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ORDERS OF THE COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] A state human services referee shall conduct a hearing on the appeal and shall recommend an order to the commissioner of human services. The recommended order must be based on all relevant evidence and must not be limited to a review of the propriety of the state or county agency's action. A referee may take official notice of adjudicative facts. The commissioner of human services may accept the recommended order of a state human services referee and issue the order to the county agency and the applicant, recipient, former recipient, or prepaid health plan. The commissioner on refusing to accept the recommended order of the state human services referee, shall notify the county agency and the applicant, recipient, former recipient, or prepaid health plan of that fact and shall state reasons therefor and shall allow each party ten days' time to submit additional written argument on the matter. After the expiration of the ten-day period, the commissioner shall issue an order on the matter to the county agency and the applicant, recipient, former recipient, or prepaid health plan.

A party aggrieved by an order of the commissioner may appeal under subdivision 7, or request reconsideration by the commissioner within 30 days after the date the commissioner issues the order. The commissioner may reconsider an order upon request of any party or on the commissioner's own motion. A request for reconsideration does not stay implementation of the commissioner's order. Upon reconsideration, the commissioner may issue an amended order or an order affirming the original order.

Any order of the commissioner issued under this subdivision shall be conclusive upon the parties unless appeal is taken in the manner provided by subdivision 7. Any order of the commissioner is binding on the parties and must be implemented by the state agency or a county agency until the order is reversed by the district court, or unless the commissioner or a district court orders monthly assistance or aid or services paid or provided under subdivision 10.

Except for a prepaid health plan, a vendor of medical care as defined in section 256B.02, subdivision 7, or a vendor under contract with a county agency to provide social services under section 256E.08, subdivision 4, is not a party and may not request a hearing or seek judicial review of an order issued under this section, unless assisting a recipient as provided in subdivision 4.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.9365, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner of human services shall establish a program to pay private health plan premiums for persons who have contracted human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) to enable them to continue coverage under a group or individual health plan. If a person is determined to be eligible under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall: (1) pay the eligible person's group plan premium for the period of continuation coverage provided in the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985; or (2) pay the eligible person's individual plan premium for 24 36 months.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.9365, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~[RULES COST-EFFECTIVE COVERAGE.] The commissioner shall establish rules as necessary to implement the program. Special Requirements for the payment of individual plan premiums under subdivision 2, clause (5), must be designed to ensure that the state cost of paying an individual plan premium over a two-year three-year period does not exceed the estimated state cost that would otherwise be incurred in the medical assistance or general assistance medical care program. The commissioner shall purchase the most cost-effective coverage available for eligible individuals.~~

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.9657, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOSPITAL SURCHARGE.] (a) Effective October 1, 1992, each Minnesota hospital except facilities of the federal Indian Health Service and regional treatment centers shall pay to the medical assistance account a surcharge equal to 1.4 percent of net patient revenues excluding net Medicare revenues reported by that provider to the health care cost information system according to the schedule in subdivision 4.

(b) Effective July 1, 1994, the surcharge under paragraph (a) is increased to ~~1.56~~ 1.6 percent.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.9657, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PAYMENTS INTO THE ACCOUNT.] (a) Payments to the commissioner under subdivisions 1 to 3 must be paid in monthly installments due on the 15th of the month beginning October 15, 1992. The monthly payment must be equal to the annual surcharge divided by 12. Payments to the commissioner under subdivisions 2 and 3 for fiscal year 1993 must be based on calendar year 1990 revenues. Effective July 1 of each year, beginning in 1993, payments under subdivisions 2 and 3 must be based on revenues earned in the second previous calendar year.

(b) Effective October 1, 1994, and each October 1 thereafter, the payments in paragraph (a) must be based on revenues earned in the previous calendar year.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.9685, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall establish procedures for determining medical assistance and general assistance medical care payment rates under a prospective payment system for inpatient hospital services in hospitals that qualify as vendors of medical assistance. The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for implementing this section and sections 256.9686, 256.969, and 256.9695. ~~The medical assistance payment rates must be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of recipients in efficiently and economically operated hospitals. Services must meet the requirements of section 256B.04, subdivision 15, or 256D.03, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), to be eligible for payment except the commissioner may establish exemptions to specific requirements based on diagnosis,~~ procedure, or service after notice in the State Register and a 30-day comment period.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.969, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [EXCEPTIONALLY HIGH COSTS FOR INFANT AND CHILD ADMISSIONS.] (a) The commissioner shall include in the payment rates an adjustment factor for exceptionally high cost inpatient admissions for infants under the age of one in any hospital and for children under the age of six receiving services in a hospital receiving payment under subdivision 9 or 9a. The thresholds for exceptionally⁹ high cost admissions shall be established for neonatal and burn diagnostic categories at one standard deviation, and for all other diagnostic categories at two standard deviations, beyond the mean operating cost per admission. The thresholds shall be adjusted from the base year to the rate year by the hospital cost index. The additional adjustment factor shall apply to admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1992.

(b) For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1992, to December 31, 1994, in the case of clause (1) or to October 25, 1993, in the case of clause (2):

(1) Payments for admissions not subject to subdivision 13 shall be determined by multiplying the allowable charges for the admission by the hospital's base year allowable operating cost to charge ratio and subtracting the high cost threshold. The result shall be multiplied by 50 percent after adjustment for subdivisions 9, 9a, 20, 22, and 23; and the core hospital increase of Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2, and reduced for payments under subdivision 8. A negative result on an admission specific basis shall not be implemented. Payments established under section 256.9695, subdivision 3, paragraph (e), shall not be affected by this subdivision and for purposes of appeals under section 256.9695, subdivision 1, payment shall be considered to have been made at the time of admission. Payment for admissions occurring from July 1, 1992, to December 31, 1993, and paid by May 1, 1994, shall be made on or about August 1, 1994. Payment for admissions occurring from January 1, 1994, to December 31, 1994, and paid by May 1, 1995, shall be made on or about July 1, 1995.

(2) Payments for admissions subject to subdivision 13 shall be determined by multiplying the allowable charges for the admission by the hospital's base year allowable operating cost to charge ratio and subtracting the high cost threshold. The result shall be multiplied by 50 percent after adjustment for subdivisions 9, 9a, 20, 22, and 23, and the core hospital increase of Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2. The sum of this result for all admissions shall be reduced for payments under subdivision 13. A negative result shall not be implemented. Payments established under section 256.9695, subdivision 3, paragraph (e), shall not be affected by this subdivision and for purposes of appeals under section 256.9695, subdivision 1, payment shall be considered to have been made at the time of admission. Payment shall be made according to the schedule of clause (1).

(c) For admissions occurring on or after January 1, 1995, that are not subject to subdivision 13:

(1) Operating rates shall be established using the 90, 70, or alternative percentage of costs beyond the threshold and methodology of subdivision 8, except that if an admission also qualifies for payment under subdivision 8, the higher amount of outlier cost that is unrecognized in payments shall be added back to the operating cost per admission.

(2) Payments shall be determined by multiplying the allowable charges for the admission by the hospital's base year allowable operating cost to charge ratio and subtracting the high cost threshold and multiplying by the applicable 90, 70, or alternative percentage. The result shall be multiplied by 50 percent after adjustment for subdivisions 9, 9a, 20, 22, and 23, and the core hospital increase of Laws 1993, First Special Session chapter 1, article 1, section 2. If an admission qualifies for payment under this subdivision and subdivision 8, payment shall be made at the higher amount.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.969, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SEPARATE BILLING BY CERTIFIED REGISTERED NURSE ANESTHETISTS.] Hospitals may exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs from the operating payment rate as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11. For the rate year beginning January 1, 1995, a hospital that has previously elected to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs may elect to include these costs by notifying the commissioner of this election by October 1, 1994. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year of the request to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs. The hospital must agree that all hospital claims for the cost and charges of certified registered nurse anesthetist services will not be included as part of the rates for inpatient services provided during the rate year. In this case, the operating payment rate shall be adjusted to exclude the cost of certified registered nurse anesthetist services. ~~Payments made through separate claims for certified registered nurse anesthetist services shall not be paid directly through the hospital provider number or indirectly by the certified registered nurse anesthetist to the hospital or related organizations.~~

For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1991, and until the expiration date of section 256.9695, subdivision 3, services of certified registered nurse anesthetists provided on an inpatient basis may be paid as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11, when the hospital's base year did not include the cost of these services. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by July 1, 1991, of the request and must comply with all other requirements of this subdivision.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.969, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE FACILITIES.] Indian health service facilities are exempt from the rate establishment methods required by this section and shall be reimbursed at charges as limited to the amount allowed under federal law. ~~This exemption is not effective for payments under general assistance medical care.~~

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [HOSPITAL PEER GROUPS.] For admissions occurring on or after the later of July 1, 1994, or the implementation date of the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system, operating payment rates of each hospital shall be limited to the payment rates within its peer group so that the statewide payment level is reduced by ten percent under the medical assistance program and by 15 percent under the general assistance medical care program under paragraphs (a) to (d). Rates established for long-term hospitals as designated by the Medicare program and neonatal transfer rates that are paid according to subdivision 13 are not subject to peer group limitations. For subsequent rate years, the limits shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index. The commissioner shall contract for the development of criteria for and the establishment of the peer groups. Peer groups must be established based on variables that affect medical assistance cost such as scope and intensity of services, acuity of patients, location, and capacity. Rates shall be standardized by the case mix index and adjusted, if applicable, for the variable outlier percentage. The peer groups may exclude and have separate limits or be standardized for operating cost differences that are not common to all hospitals in order to establish a minimum number of groups.

(a) Peer groups are established based on the status of the hospital or the rehabilitation distinct part of the hospital on the October 1 prior to a rebased rate year using the criteria of clauses (1) to (6), except that the criteria of clauses (3) and (4) must be combined under general assistance medical care:

(1) nonmetropolitan statistical area hospitals;

(2) metropolitan statistical area major teaching hospitals. A major teaching hospital is one that meets the certification requirements of the council of teaching hospitals including the operation of a minimum of four approved active residency programs with at least two in medicine, surgery, obstetrics, pediatrics, family practice, or psychiatry;

(3) metropolitan statistical area minor teaching hospitals as designated by the Medicare program;

(4) metropolitan statistical area nonteaching hospitals;

(5) children's hospitals with neonatal intensive care units. A children's hospital is a hospital in which the admissions are predominantly individuals under 18 years of age; and

(6) rehabilitation hospitals and rehabilitation distinct parts of hospitals as designated by the Medicare program, and children's hospitals without neonatal intensive care units.

(b) The limitation on rates is established for each eligibility and rehabilitation category of rates within a peer group according to clauses (1) to (5):

(1) combine the adjusted base year operating rate per admission and outlier rate per day into a rate per admission for each hospital after recalculating each hospital's case mix index based on the Medicare diagnostic related groups using the grouper in effect for the rate year;

(2) determine the metropolitan statistical area, nonmetropolitan statistical area, and statewide average rates from clause (1);

(3) after excluding rates based on averages in clause (2), establish the limit at the median for each medical assistance and general assistance medical care category, and at 139 percent of the median for the rehabilitation category;

(4)(i) for medical assistance, if clause (1) is greater than clause (3), add 80 percent of the difference between clause (1) and clause (3) to clause (3) and divide the result by clause (1). Multiply this result by each hospital's adjusted base year operating rate per admission and outlier rate per day;

(ii) for general assistance medical care, if clause (1) is greater than clause (3), add 64 percent of the difference between clause (1) and clause (3) to clause (3) and divide the result by clause (1). Multiply this result by each hospital's adjusted base year operating rate per admission and outlier rate per day; and

(iii) for rates established for the rehabilitation category, regardless of program eligibility, if clause (1) is greater than clause (3), divide clause (3) by clause (1) and multiply the result by each hospital's adjusted base year operating rate per admission and outlier rate per day;

(5) for any hospital with an admission or outlier rate that is based on an average rate of other hospitals:

(i) for medical assistance, if clause (2) is greater than clause (3), add 80 percent of the difference between clause (2) and clause (3) to clause (3) and divide the result by clause (2). Multiply this result by each hospital's applicable average adjusted base year operating rate per admission or outlier rate per day;

(ii) for general assistance medical care, if clause (2) is greater than clause (3), add 64 percent of the difference between clause (2) and clause (3) to clause (3) and divide the result by clause (2). Multiply this result by each hospital's applicable average adjusted base year operating rate per admission or outlier rate per day; and

(iii) for rates established for the rehabilitation category, regardless of program eligibility, if clause (2) is greater than clause (3), divide clause (3) by clause (2) and multiply the result by each hospital's adjusted base year operating rate per admission and outlier rate per day.

(c) Hospitals that have not chosen to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs from rates according to subdivision 10 are allowed to elect the option if the commissioner is notified in writing by June 1, 1994.

(d) For rate years in which the rates are not rebased to more recent data, the limits are adjusted by the hospital cost index.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.9695, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION.] Except as provided in section 256.969, subdivision 8, the commissioner shall establish a transition period for the calculation of payment rates from July 1, 1989, to the implementation date of the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system or July 1, 1992, whichever is earlier.

During the transition period:

(a) Changes resulting from section 256.969, subdivisions 7, 9, 10, 11, and 13, shall not be implemented, except as provided in section 256.969, subdivisions 12 and 20.

(b) The beginning of the 1991 rate year shall be delayed and the rates notification requirement shall not be applicable.

(c) Operating payment rates shall be indexed from the hospital's most recent fiscal year ending prior to January 1, 1991, by prorating the hospital cost index methodology in effect on January 1, 1989. For payments made for admissions occurring on or after June 1, 1990, until the implementation date of the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system the hospital cost index excluding the technology factor shall not exceed five percent. This hospital cost index limitation shall not apply to hospitals that meet the requirements of section 256.969, subdivision 20, paragraphs (a) and (b).

(d) Property and pass-through payment rates shall be maintained at the most recent payment rate effective for June 1, 1990. However, all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation of subdivision 2c, for two complete fiscal years. Property and pass-through costs shall be retroactively settled through the transition period. The laws in effect on the day before July 1, 1989, apply to the retroactive settlement.

(e) If the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system has not been completed by July 1, 1992, the commissioner shall make adjustments for admissions occurring on or after that date as follows:

(1) provide a ten percent increase to hospitals that meet the requirements of section 256.969, subdivision 20, or, upon written request from the hospital to the commissioner, 50 percent of the rate change that the commissioner estimates will occur after the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system; and

(2) adjust the Minnesota and local trade area rebased payment rates that are established after the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system to compensate for a rebasing effective date of July 1, 1992. The adjustment shall be determined using claim specific payment changes that result from the rebased rates and revised methodology in effect after the systems upgrade. Any adjustment that is greater than zero shall be ratably reduced by 20 percent. In addition, every adjustment shall be reduced for payments under clause (1), and differences in the hospital cost index. Hospitals shall revise claims so that services provided by rehabilitation units of hospitals are reported separately. The adjustment shall be in effect until the amount due to or owed by the hospital is fully paid over a number of admissions that is equal to the number of admissions under adjustment multiplied by 1.5, except that a hospital with a 20 percent or greater negative adjustment that exceeds $1,000,000 must use a schedule that is three times the number of admissions under adjustment. The adjustment for admissions occurring from July 1, 1992 to December 31, 1992, shall be based on claims paid as of August 1, 1993, and the adjustment shall begin with the effective date of rules governing rebasing. The adjustment for admissions occurring from January 1, 1993, to the effective date of the rules shall be based on claims paid as of February 1, 1994, and shall begin after the first adjustment period is fully paid. For purposes of appeals under subdivision 1, the adjustment shall be considered payment at the time of admission.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.042, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIEN ENFORCEMENT.] The state agency may perfect and enforce its lien by following the procedures set forth in sections 514.69, 514.70 and 514.71, and its verified lien statement shall be filed with the appropriate court administrator in the county of financial responsibility. The verified lien statement shall contain the following: the name and address of the person to whom medical care was furnished, the date of injury, the name and address of the vendor or vendors furnishing medical care, the dates of the service, the amount claimed to be due for the care, and, to the best of the state agency's knowledge, the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations claimed to be liable for damages arising from the injuries. This section shall not affect the priority of any attorney's lien. The state agency is not subject to any limitations period referred to in section 514.69 or 514.71 and has one year from the date notice is first received by it under subdivision 4, paragraph (c), even if the notice is untimely, or one year from the date medical bills are first paid by the state agency, whichever is later, to file its verified lien statement. The state agency may commence an action to enforce the lien within one year of (1) the date the notice required by subdivision 4, paragraph (c), is received or (2) the date the recipient's cause of action is concluded by judgment, award, settlement, or otherwise, whichever is later.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.056, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [TREATMENT OF TRUSTS.] (a) A "medical assistance qualifying trust" is a revocable or irrevocable trust, or similar legal device, established on or before August 10, 1993, by a person or the person's spouse under the terms of which the person receives or could receive payments from the trust principal or income and the trustee has discretion in making payments to the person from the trust principal or income. Notwithstanding that definition, a medical assistance qualifying trust does not include: (i) a trust set up by will; (ii) a trust set up before April 7, 1986, solely to benefit a person with mental retardation living in an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation; or (iii) a trust set up by a person with payments made by the Social Security Administration pursuant to the United States Supreme Court decision in Sullivan v. Zebley, 110 S. Ct. 885 (1990). The maximum amount of payments that a trustee of a medical assistance qualifying trust may make to a person under the terms of the trust is considered to be available assets to the person, without regard to whether the trustee actually makes the maximum payments to the person and without regard to the purpose for which the medical assistance qualifying trust was established.

(b) Trusts established after August 10, 1993, are treated according to section 13611(b) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, (OBRA) Public Law Number 103-66.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.059, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Community spouse" means the spouse of an institutionalized ~~person~~ spouse.

(c) "Spousal share" means one-half of the total value of all assets, to the extent that either the institutionalized spouse or the community spouse had an ownership interest at the time of institutionalization.

(d) "Assets otherwise available to the community spouse" means assets individually or jointly owned by the community spouse, other than assets excluded by subdivision 5, paragraph (c).

(e) "Community spouse asset allowance" is the value of assets that can be transferred under subdivision 3.

(f) "Institutionalized spouse" means a person who is:

(i) in a hospital, nursing facility, intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, or is receiving home and community-based services under section 256B.0915, and is expected to remain in such facility or institution or receive such home and community-based services for at least 30 consecutive days; and

(ii) married to a person who is not in a hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, and is not receiving home and community-based services under section 256B.0915.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY SPOUSE ASSET ALLOWANCE.] An institutionalized spouse may transfer assets to the community spouse solely for the benefit of the community spouse. Except for increased amounts allowable under subdivision 4, the maximum amount of assets allowed to be transferred is the amount which, when added to the assets otherwise available to the community spouse, is as follows:

(1) prior to July 1, 1994, the greater of:

(i) $14,148;

(ii) the lesser of the spousal share or $70,740; or

(iii) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse; and

(2) for persons who begin whose date of initial determination of eligibility for medical assistance following their first continuous period of institutionalization occurs on or after July 1, 1994, the greater of:

(i) $20,000;

(ii) the lesser of the spousal share or $70,740; or

(iii) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse.

If the assets available to the community spouse are already at the limit permissible under this section, or the higher limit attributable to increases under subdivision 4, no assets may be transferred from the institutionalized spouse to the community spouse. The transfer must be made as soon as practicable after the date the institutionalized spouse is determined eligible for medical assistance, or within the amount of time needed for any court order required for the transfer. On January 1, 1994, and every January 1 thereafter, the limits in this subdivision shall be adjusted by the same percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers (all items; United States city average) between the two previous Septembers. These adjustments shall also be applied to the limits in subdivision 5.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSET AVAILABILITY.] (a) At the time of application initial determination of eligibility for medical assistance benefits following the first continuous period of institutionalization, assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse shall be the total value of all assets in which either spouse has an ownership interest, reduced by the following:

(1) prior to July 1, 1994, the greater of:

(i) $14,148;

(ii) the lesser of the spousal share or $70,740; or

(iii) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse;

(2) for persons who begin whose date of initial determination of eligibility for medical assistance following their first continuous period of institutionalization occurs on or after July 1, 1994, the greater of:

(i) $20,000;

(ii) the lesser of the spousal share or $70,740; or

(iii) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse. If the community spouse asset allowance has been increased under subdivision 4, then the assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse under this subdivision shall be further reduced by the value of additional amounts allowed under subdivision 4.

(b) An institutionalized spouse may be found eligible for medical assistance even though assets in excess of the allowable amount are found to be available under paragraph (a) if the assets are owned jointly or individually by the community spouse, and the institutionalized spouse cannot use those assets to pay for the cost of care without the consent of the community spouse, and if: (i) the institutionalized spouse assigns to the commissioner the right to support from the community spouse under section 256B.14, subdivision 3; (ii) the institutionalized spouse lacks the ability to execute an assignment due to a physical or mental impairment; or (iii) the denial of eligibility would cause an imminent threat to the institutionalized spouse's health and well-being.

(c) After the month in which the institutionalized spouse is determined eligible for medical assistance, during the continuous period of institutionalization, no assets of the community spouse are considered available to the institutionalized spouse, unless the institutionalized spouse has been found eligible under clause (b).

(d) Assets determined to be available to the institutionalized spouse under this section must be used for the health care or personal needs of the institutionalized spouse.

(e) For purposes of this section, assets do not include assets excluded under ~~section 256B.056, without regard to the limitations on total value in that section~~ the supplemental security income program.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS.] (a) For transfers of assets made on or before August 10, 1993, if a person or the person's spouse has given away, sold, or disposed of, for less than fair market value, any asset or interest therein, except assets other than the homestead that are excluded under ~~section 256B.056, subdivision 3~~ the supplemental security program, within 30 months before or any time after the date of institutionalization if the person has been determined eligible for medical assistance, or within 30 months before or any time after the date of the first approved application for medical assistance if the person has not yet been determined eligible for medical assistance, the person is ineligible for long-term care services for the period of time determined under subdivision 2.

(b) Effective for transfers made on or after July 1, 1993, or upon federal approval, whichever is later August 10, 1993, (i) a person, a person's spouse, or a person's authorized representative any person, court, or administrative body with legal authority to act in place of, on behalf of, at the direction of, or upon the request of the person or person's spouse, (ii) may not give away, sell, or dispose of, for less than fair market value, any asset or interest therein, except assets other than the homestead that are excluded under the supplemental security income program, for the purpose of establishing or maintaining medical assistance eligibility. For purposes of determining eligibility for medical assistance long-term care services, any transfer of an asset such assets within 60 36 months preceding application before or any time after an institutionalized person applies for medical assistance or during the period of medical assistance eligibility, including assets excluded under section 256B.056, subdivision 3, or 36 months before or any time after a medical assistance recipient becomes institutionalized, for less than fair market value may be considered. Any such transfer for less than fair market value made within 60 months preceding application for medical assistance or during the period of medical assistance eligibility is presumed to have been made for the purpose of establishing or maintaining medical assistance eligibility and the person is ineligible for medical assistance long-term care services for the period of time determined under subdivision 2, unless the person furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose, or unless the transfer is permitted under subdivisions subdivision 3 or 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, in the case of payments from a trust or portions of a trust that are considered transfers of assets under federal law, any transfers made within 60 months before or any time after an institutionalized person applies for medical assistance and within 60 months before or any time after a medical assistance recipient becomes institutionalized, may be considered.

(c) This section applies to transfers, for less than fair market value, of income or assets, including assets that are considered income in the month received, such as inheritances, court settlements, and retroactive benefit payments or income to which the person or the person's spouse is entitled but does not receive due to action by the person, the person's spouse, or any person, court, or administrative body with legal authority to act in place of, on behalf of, at the direction of, or upon the request of the person or the person's spouse.

(d) This section applies to payments for care or personal services provided by a relative, unless the compensation was stipulated in a notarized, written agreement which was in existence when the service was performed, the care or services directly benefited the person, and the payments made represented reasonable compensation for the care or services provided. A notarized written agreement is not required if payment for the services was made within 60 days after the service was provided.

(e) This section applies to the portion of any asset or interest that a person or, a person's spouse, or any person, court, or administrative body with legal authority to act in place of, on behalf of, at the direction of, or upon the request of the person or the person's spouse, transfers to an irrevocable any trust, annuity, or other instrument, that exceeds the value of the benefit likely to be returned to the person or spouse while alive, based on estimated life expectancy using the life expectancy tables employed by the supplemental security income program to determine the value of an agreement for services for life. The commissioner may adopt rules reducing life expectancies based on the need for long-term care.

(f) For purposes of this section, long-term care services include services in a nursing facility, services that are eligible for payment according to section 256B.0625, subdivision 2, because they are provided in a swing bed, intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, and home and community-based services provided pursuant to section 256B.491 sections 256B.0915, 256B.092, and 256B.49. For purposes of this subdivision and subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, "institutionalized person" includes a person who is an inpatient in a nursing facility; or in a swing bed, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or who is receiving home and community-based services under section 256B.491 sections 256B.0915, 256B.092, and 256B.49.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] (a) For any uncompensated transfer occurring on or before August 10, 1993, the number of months of ineligibility for long-term care services shall be the lesser of 30 months, or the uncompensated transfer amount divided by the average medical assistance rate for nursing facility services in the state in effect on the date of application. The amount used to calculate the average medical assistance payment rate shall be adjusted each July 1 to reflect payment rates for the previous calendar year. The period of ineligibility begins with the month in which the assets were transferred. If the transfer was not reported to the local agency at the time of application, and the applicant received long-term care services during what would have been the period of ineligibility if the transfer had been reported, a cause of action exists against the transferee for the cost of long-term care services provided during the period of ineligibility, or for the uncompensated amount of the transfer, whichever is less. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G. The uncompensated transfer amount is the fair market value of the asset at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received.

(b) For uncompensated transfers made on or after July 1, August 10, 1993, or upon federal approval, whichever is later, the number of months of ineligibility, including partial months, for medical assistance long-term care services shall be the total uncompensated value of the resources transferred divided by the average medical assistance rate for nursing facility services in the state in effect on the date of application. If a calculation of a penalty period results in a partial month, payments for medical assistance services will be reduced in an amount equal to the fraction, except that in calculating the value of uncompensated transfers, uncompensated transfers not to exceed $1,000 in total value per month shall be disregarded for each month prior to the month of application for medical assistance. The amount used to calculate the average medical assistance payment rate shall be adjusted each July 1 to reflect payment rates for the previous calendar year. The period of ineligibility begins with the month in which the assets were transferred except that if one or more uncompensated transfers are made during a period of ineligibility, the total assets transferred during the ineligibility period shall be combined and a penalty period calculated to begin in the month the first uncompensated transfer was made. The penalty in this paragraph shall not apply to uncompensated transfers of assets not to exceed a total of $1,000 per month during a medical assistance eligibility certification period. If the transfer was not reported to the local agency at the time of application, and the applicant received medical assistance services during what would have been the period of ineligibility if the transfer had been reported, a cause of action exists against the transferee for the cost of medical assistance services provided during the period of ineligibility, or for the uncompensated amount of the transfer, whichever is less. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G. The uncompensated transfer amount is the fair market value of the asset at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received.

(c) If the total value of all uncompensated transfers made in a month exceeds $1,000, the disregards allowed under paragraph (b) do not apply. Effective 60 days following published notice of receipt of federal approval, if a calculation of a penalty period results in a partial month, payments for long-term care services will be reduced in an amount equal to the fraction, except that in calculating the value of uncompensated transfers, if the total value of all uncompensated transfers made in a month do not exceed $1,000 in total value, then such transfers shall be disregarded for each month prior to the month of application for or during receipt of medical assistance. Notice of federal approval shall be published in the State Register.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [HOMESTEAD EXCEPTION TO TRANSFER PROHIBITION.]

(ii) child who is under age 21;

(iii) blind or permanently and totally disabled child as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(iv) sibling who has equity interest in the home and who was residing in the home for a period of at least one year immediately before the date of the individual's admission to the facility; or

(v) son or daughter who was residing in the individual's home for a period of at least two years immediately before the date of the individual's admission to the facility, and who provided care to the individual that permitted the individual to reside at home rather than in an institution or facility;

(2) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the homestead at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(3) the local agency grants a waiver of the excess resources created by the uncompensated transfer because denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

(b) When a waiver is granted under paragraph (a), clause (3), a cause of action exists against the person to whom the homestead was transferred for that portion of long-term care services granted within:

(i) 30 months of ~~the~~ a transfer made on or before August 10, 1993;

(ii) 60 months if the homestead was transferred after August 10, 1993, to a trust or portion of a trust that is considered a transfer of assets under federal law; or

(iii) 36 months if transferred in any other manner after August 10, 1993, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G.

(c) Effective for transfers made on or after July 1, 1993, or upon federal approval, whichever is later, an institutionalized person is not ineligible for medical assistance services due to a transfer of assets for less than fair market value if the asset transferred was a homestead and:

(i) spouse;

(ii) child who is under age 21;

(iii) blind or permanently and totally disabled child as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(iv) sibling who has equity interest in the home and who was residing in the home for a period of at least one year immediately before the date of the individual's admission to the facility; or

(v) son or daughter who was residing in the individual's home for a period of at least two years immediately before the date of the individual's admission to the facility, and who provided care to the individual that permitted the individual to reside at home rather than in an institution or facility;

(2) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the homestead at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(3) the local agency grants a waiver of the excess resources created by the uncompensated transfer because denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

(d) When a waiver is granted under paragraph (c), clause (3), a cause of action exists against the person to whom the homestead was transferred for that portion of medical assistance services granted during the period of ineligibility under subdivision 2, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

(2) the institutionalized spouse, prior to being institutionalized, transferred assets to a spouse, provided that the spouse to whom the assets were transferred does not then transfer those assets to another person for less than fair market value. (At the time when one spouse is institutionalized, assets must be allocated between the spouses as provided under section 256B.059); or

(3) the assets were transferred to the individual's child who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as determined in the supplemental security income program; or

(4) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the assets either at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(5) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility for long-term care services would work an undue hardship and grants a waiver of excess assets. When a waiver is granted, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the assets were transferred for that portion of long-term care services granted within 30 months of the transfer, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under this chapter; or

(6) for transfers occurring after August 10, 1993, the assets were transferred by the person or person's spouse: (i) into a trust established solely for the benefit of a son or daughter of any age who is blind or disabled as defined by the supplemental security income program; or (ii) into a trust established solely for the benefit of an individual who is under 65 years of age who is disabled as defined by the supplemental security income program.

(3) the assets were transferred to the individual's child who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as determined in the supplemental security income program; or

(4) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the assets either at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(5) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility for medical assistance services would work an undue hardship and grants a waiver of excess assets. When a waiver is granted, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the assets were transferred for that portion of medical assistance services granted during the period of ineligibility determined under subdivision 2 or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under this chapter.

Recipients who can direct their own care, or persons who cannot direct their own care when authorized by the responsible party, may use approved hours outside the home when normal life activities take them outside the home and when, without the provision of personal care, their health and safety would be jeopardized. Medical assistance does not cover personal care services for residents of a hospital, nursing facility, intermediate care facility, health care facility licensed by the commissioner of health, or unless a resident who is otherwise eligible is on leave from the facility and the facility either pays for the personal care services or forgoes the facility per diem for the leave days that personal care services are used except as authorized in section 256B.64 for ventilator-dependent recipients in hospitals. Total hours of service and payment allowed for services outside the home cannot exceed that which is otherwise allowed for personal care services in an in-home setting according to section 256B.0627. All personal care services must be provided according to section 256B.0627. (b) A provider who has submitted a prior authorization request for physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, or related services must have access via telephone to the consultant to whom the request has been assigned. The department must make a reasonable amount of consultant time available for providers to contact the consultant by telephone in order to discuss either a pending request or a request about which a recommendation has been made. - (1) there were less than ten billings in the calendar year specified in legislation governing maximum payment rates;
- (2) the service was not available in the calendar year specified in legislation governing maximum payment rates;*

(3) the payment amount is the result of a provider appeal;

(4) the procedure code description has changed since the calendar year specified in legislation governing maximum payment rates, and, therefore, the prevailing charge information reflects the same code but a different procedure description; or

(5) the 50th percentile reflects a payment which is grossly inequitable when compared with payment rates for procedures or services which are substantially similar.

(b) When one of the situations identified in paragraph (a) occurs, the commissioner shall use the following methodology to reconstruct a rate comparable to the 50th percentile of the prevailing rate:

(1) refer to information which exists for the first nine billings in the calendar year specified in legislation governing maximum payment rates; or

(2) refer to surrounding or comparable procedure codes; or

(3) refer to the 50th percentile of years subsequent to the calendar year specified in legislation governing maximum payment rates, and reduce that amount by applying an appropriate Consumer Price Index formula; or

(4) refer to relative value indexes; or

(5) refer to reimbursement information from other third parties, such as Medicare.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT RATES.] (a) Payment for case management services for persons infected with tuberculosis that are covered under section 256B.0625, subdivision 39, shall be $10 per 15 minutes of case management time. (1) if the federal share of the overpayment amount is due and owing to the federal government under federal law and regulations, the commissioner shall recover from the medical assistance vendor the federal share of the determined overpayment amount paid to that provider using the schedule of payments required by the federal government; and

(2) if the overpayment to a medical assistance vendor is due to a retroactive adjustment made because the medical assistance vendor's temporary payment rate was higher than the established desk audit payment rate or because of a department error in calculating a payment rate, the commissioner shall recover from the medical assistance vendor the total amount of the overpayment within 120 days after the date on which written notice of the adjustment is sent to the medical assistance vendor or according to a schedule of payments approved by the commissioner; and

(3) a medical assistance vendor is liable for the overpayment amount owed by a medical assistance long-term care facility if the vendor and facility are under common control or ownership.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes, 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0911, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

(4) individuals who are enrolled in the Ebenezer/Group Health social health maintenance organization project, or enrolled in a demonstration project under section 256B.69, subdivision 18, at the time of application to a nursing home; or

(5) individuals previously screened and currently being served under the alternative care or waiver programs.

Regardless of the exemptions in clauses (2) to (4), persons who have a diagnosis or possible diagnosis of mental illness, mental retardation, or a related condition must be screened before admission unless the admission prior to screening is authorized by the local mental health authority or the local developmental disabilities case manager, or unless authorized by the county agency according to Public Law Number 101-508.

Before admission to a Medicaid certified nursing home or boarding care home, all persons must be screened and approved for admission through an assessment process. The nursing facility is authorized to conduct case mix assessments which are not conducted by the county public health nurse under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0059. The designated county agency is responsible for distributing the quality assurance and review form for all new applicants to nursing homes.

Other persons who are not applicants to nursing facilities must be screened if a request is made for a screening.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0911, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REIMBURSEMENT FOR CERTIFIED NURSING FACILITIES.] (a) Medical assistance reimbursement for nursing facilities shall be authorized for a medical assistance recipient only if a preadmission screening has been conducted prior to admission or the local county agency has authorized an exemption. Medical assistance reimbursement for nursing facilities shall not be provided for any recipient who the local screener has determined does not meet the level of care criteria for nursing facility placement or, if indicated, has not had a level II PASARR evaluation completed unless an admission for a recipient with mental illness is approved by the local mental health authority or an admission for a recipient with mental retardation or related condition is approved by the state mental retardation authority. The commissioner shall make a request to the health care financing administration for a waiver allowing screening team approval of Medicaid payments for certified nursing facility care. An individual has a choice and makes the final decision between nursing facility placement and community placement after the screening team's recommendation, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The local county mental health authority or the state mental retardation authority under Public Law Numbers 100-203 and 101-508 may prohibit admission to a nursing facility, if the individual does not meet the nursing facility level of care criteria or needs specialized services as defined in Public Law Numbers 100-203 and 101-508. For purposes of this section, "specialized services" for a person with mental retardation or a related condition means "active treatment" as that term is defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 483.440(a)(1).

(c) Upon the receipt by the commissioner of approval by the Secretary of Health and Human Services of the waiver requested under paragraph (a), the local screener shall deny medical assistance reimbursement for nursing facility care for an individual:

(i) whose long-term care needs can be met in a community-based setting and whose cost of community-based home care services is less than 75 percent of the average payment for nursing facility care for that individual's case mix classification; ~~and who is either;~~

(ii) who is being screened for nursing facility admission;

(iii) who meets a nursing facility level of care; and

(iv) who is either:

(i) (A) a current medical assistance recipient ~~being screened for admission to a nursing facility; or~~

(ii) (B) an individual who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of entering a nursing facility ~~and who meets a nursing facility level of care.~~

(d) Appeals from the screening team's recommendation or the county agency's final decision shall be made according to section 256.045, subdivision 3.

The county shall be held harmless if the recommendation of the screening team is community placement.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0913, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SERVICES COVERED UNDER ALTERNATIVE CARE.] (a) Alternative care funding may be used for payment of costs of:

(1) adult foster care;

- (2) adult day care;
- (3) home health aide;
- (4) homemaker services;
- (5) personal care;
- (6) case management;
- (7) respite care;
- (8) assisted living;
- (9) residential care services;
- (10) care-related supplies and equipment;
- (11) meals delivered to the home;
- (12) transportation;
- (13) skilled nursing;
- (14) chore services;
- (15) companion services;
- (16) nutrition services; and
- (17) training for direct informal caregivers.

(b) The county agency must ensure that the funds are used only to supplement and not supplant services available through other public assistance or services programs.

(c) Unless specified in statute, the service standards for alternative care services shall be the same as the service standards defined in the elderly waiver. Persons or agencies must be employed by or under a contract with the county agency or the public health nursing agency of the local board of health in order to receive funding under the alternative care program.

(d) The adult foster care rate shall be considered a difficulty of care payment and shall not include room and board. The adult foster care daily rate shall be negotiated between the county agency and the foster care provider. The rate established under this section shall not exceed 75 percent of the state average monthly nursing home payment for the case mix classification to which the individual receiving foster care is assigned, and it must allow for other alternative care services to be authorized by the case manager.

(e) Personal care services may be provided by a personal care provider organization. A county agency may contract with a relative of the client to provide personal care services, but must ensure nursing supervision. Covered personal care services defined in section 256B.0627, subdivision 4, must meet applicable standards in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.0335.

(f) Costs for supplies and equipment that exceed $150 per item per month must have prior approval from the commissioner. A county may use alternative care funds to purchase supplies and equipment from a non-Medicaid certified vendor if the cost for the items is less than that of a Medicaid vendor. A county is not required to contract with a provider of supplies and equipment if the monthly cost of the supplies or equipment is less than $250.

(g) For purposes of this section, residential care services are services which are provided to individuals living in residential care homes. Residential care homes are currently licensed as board and lodging establishments and are registered with the department of health as providing special services. Residential care services are defined as "supportive services" and "health-related services." "Supportive services" means the provision of up to 24-hour supervision and oversight. Supportive services includes: (1) transportation, when provided by the residential care center only; (2) socialization, when socialization is part of the plan of care, has specific goals and outcomes established, and is not diversional or recreational in nature; (3) assisting clients in setting up meetings and appointments; (4) assisting clients in setting up medical and social services; (5) providing assistance with personal laundry, such as carrying the client's laundry to the laundry room. Assistance with personal laundry does not include any laundry, such as bed linen, that is included in the room and board rate. Health-related services are limited to minimal assistance with dressing, grooming, and bathing and providing reminders to residents to take medications that are self-administered or providing storage for medications, if requested. Individuals receiving residential care services cannot receive both personal care services and residential care services.

(h) For the purposes of this section, "assisted living" refers to supportive services provided by a single vendor to clients who reside in the same apartment building of three or more units. Assisted living services are defined as up to 24-hour supervision, and oversight, supportive services as defined in clause (1), individualized home care aide tasks as defined in clause (2), and individualized home management tasks as defined in clause (3) provided to residents of a residential center living in their units or apartments with a full kitchen and bathroom. A full kitchen includes a stove, oven, refrigerator, food preparation counter space, and a kitchen utensil storage compartment. Assisted living services must be provided by the management of the residential center or by providers under contract with the management or with the county.

(1) Supportive services include:

(i) socialization, when socialization is part of the plan of care, has specific goals and outcomes established, and is not diversional or recreational in nature;

(ii) assisting clients in setting up meetings and appointments; and

(iii) providing transportation, when provided by the residential center only.

Individuals receiving assisted living services will not receive both assisted living services and homemaking or personal care services. Individualized means services are chosen and designed specifically for each resident's needs, rather than provided or offered to all residents regardless of their illnesses, disabilities, or physical conditions.

(2) Home care aide tasks means:

(i) preparing modified diets, such as diabetic or low sodium diets;

(ii) reminding residents to take regularly scheduled medications or to perform exercises;

(iii) household chores in the presence of technically sophisticated medical equipment or episodes of acute illness or infectious disease;

(iv) household chores when the resident's care requires the prevention of exposure to infectious disease or containment of infectious disease; and

(v) assisting with dressing, oral hygiene, hair care, grooming, and bathing, if the resident is ambulatory, and if the resident has no serious acute illness or infectious disease. Oral hygiene means care of teeth, gums, and oral prosthetic devices.

(3) Home management tasks means:

(i) housekeeping;

(ii) laundry;

(iii) preparation of regular snacks and meals; and

(iv) shopping.

~~A person's eligibility to reside in the building must not be contingent on the person's acceptance or use of the assisted living services.~~ Assisted living services as defined in this section shall not be authorized in boarding and lodging establishments licensed according to sections 157.01 to 157.031.

Reimbursement for assisted living services and residential care services shall be made by the lead agency to the vendor as a monthly rate negotiated with the county agency. The rate shall not exceed the nonfederal share of the greater of either the statewide or any of the geographic groups' weighted average monthly medical assistance nursing facility payment rate of the case mix resident class to which the 180-day eligible client would be assigned under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059, except for alternative care assisted living projects established under Laws 1988, chapter 689, article 2, section 256, whose rates may not exceed 65 percent of either the statewide or any of the geographic groups' weighted average monthly medical assistance nursing facility payment rate of the case mix resident class to which the 180-day eligible client would be assigned under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059. The rate may not cover rent and direct food costs.

(i) For purposes of this section, companion services are defined as nonmedical care, supervision and oversight, provided to a functionally impaired adult. Companions may assist the individual with such tasks as meal preparation, laundry and shopping, but do not perform these activities as discrete services. The provision of companion services does not entail hands-on medical care. Providers may also perform light housekeeping tasks which are incidental to the care and supervision of the recipient. This service must be approved by the case manager as part of the care plan. Companion services must be provided by individuals or nonprofit organizations who are under contract with the local agency to provide the service. Any person related to the waiver recipient by blood, marriage or adoption cannot be reimbursed under this service. Persons providing companion services will be monitored by the case manager.

(j) For purposes of this section, training for direct informal caregivers is defined as a classroom or home course of instruction which may include:

transfer and lifting skills, nutrition, personal and physical cares, home safety in a home environment, stress reduction and management, behavioral management, long-term care decision making, care coordination and family dynamics. The training is provided to an informal unpaid caregiver of a 180-day eligible client which enables the caregiver to deliver care in a home setting with high levels of quality. The training must be approved by the case manager as part of the individual care plan. Individuals, agencies, and educational facilities which provide caregiver training and education will be monitored by the case manager.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.0913, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [REQUIREMENTS FOR INDIVIDUAL CARE PLAN.] The case manager shall implement the plan of care for each 180-day eligible client and ensure that a client's service needs and eligibility are reassessed at least every ~~six~~ 12 months. The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary to allow the individual to remain in a community setting. In developing the individual's care plan, the case manager should include the use of volunteers from families and neighbors, religious organizations, social clubs, and civic and service organizations to support the formal home care services. The county shall be held harmless for damages or injuries sustained through the use of volunteers under this subdivision including workers' compensation liability. The lead agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program. The lead agency shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care and to the commissioner that the most cost-effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual and that the individual was free to choose among available qualified providers, both public and private. The case manager must give the individual a ten-day written notice of any decrease in or termination of alternative care services.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0913, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [CLIENT PREMIUMS.] (a) A premium is required for all 180-day eligible clients to help pay for the cost of participating in the program. The amount of the premium for the alternative care client shall be determined as follows:

(1) when the alternative care client's income less recurring and predictable medical expenses is greater than the medical assistance income standard but less than 150 percent of the federal poverty guideline, and total assets are less than $6,000, the fee is zero;

(2) when the alternative care client's income less recurring and predictable medical expenses is greater than 150 percent of the federal poverty guideline and total assets are less than $6,000, the fee is 25 percent of the cost of alternative care services or the difference between 150 percent of the federal poverty guideline and the client's income less recurring and predictable medical expenses, whichever is less; and

(3) when the alternative care client's total assets are greater than $6,000, the fee is 25 percent of the cost of alternative care services.

For married persons, total assets are defined as the total marital assets less the estimated community spouse asset allowance, under section 256B.059, if applicable. For married persons, total income is defined as the client's income less the monthly spousal allotment, under section 256B.058.

All alternative care services except case management shall be included in the estimated costs for the purpose of determining 25 percent of the costs.

The monthly premium shall be calculated ~~and be payable in the~~ based on the cost of the first full month in which the of alternative care services begin and shall continue unaltered for six months until the semiannual reassessment unless the actual cost of services falls below the fee until the next reassessment is completed or at the end of 12 months whichever comes first. Premiums are due and payable each month alternative care services are received unless the actual cost of the services is less than the premium.

(b) The fee shall be waived by the commissioner when:

(1) a person who is residing in a nursing facility is receiving case management only;

(2) a person is applying for medical assistance;

(3) a married couple is requesting an asset assessment under the spousal impoverishment provisions;

(4) a person is a medical assistance recipient, but has been approved for alternative care-funded assisted living services;

(5) a person is found eligible for alternative care, but is not yet receiving alternative care services; or

(6) a person is an adult foster care resident for whom alternative care funds are being used to meet a portion of the person's medical assistance spend-down, as authorized in subdivision 4; and

(7) a person's fee under paragraph (a) is less than $25.

(c) The county agency must collect the premium from the client and forward the amounts collected to the commissioner in the manner and at the times prescribed by the commissioner. Money collected must be deposited in the general fund and is appropriated to the commissioner for the alternative care program. The client must supply the county with the client's social security number at the time of application. If a client fails or refuses to pay the premium due, the county shall supply the commissioner with the client's social security number and other information the commissioner requires to collect the premium from the client. The commissioner shall collect unpaid premiums using the revenue recapture act in chapter 270A and other methods available to the commissioner. The commissioner may require counties to inform clients of the collection procedures that may be used by the state if a premium is not paid.

(d) The commissioner shall begin to adopt emergency or permanent rules governing client premiums within 30 days after July 1, 1991, including criteria for determining when services to a client must be terminated due to failure to pay a premium.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0915, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner is authorized to apply for a home and community-based services waiver for the elderly, authorized under section 1915(c) of the Social Security Act, in order to obtain federal financial participation to expand the availability of services for persons who are eligible for medical assistance. The commissioner may apply for additional waivers or pursue other federal financial participation which is advantageous to the state for funding home care services for the frail elderly who are eligible for medical assistance. The provision of waived services to elderly and disabled medical assistance recipients must comply with the criteria approved in the waiver.

Home and community-based services provided under the elderly and disabled waivers are available to individuals who, but for the provisions of such services, would require a nursing facility level of care, the cost of which could be reimbursed under the approved Medicaid state plan. A preadmission screening must be done in accordance with section 256B.0911, except for subdivision 7, to establish that an individual would require a nursing facility level of care.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.0915, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITS OF CASES, RATES, REIMBURSEMENT, AND FORECASTING.] (a) The number of medical assistance waiver recipients that a county may serve must be allocated according to the number of medical assistance waiver cases open on July 1 of each fiscal year. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner.

(b) The monthly limit for the cost of waived services to an individual waiver client shall be the statewide average payment rate of the case mix resident class to which the waiver client would be assigned under medical assistance case mix reimbursement system. The statewide average payment rate is calculated by determining the statewide average monthly nursing home rate effective July 1 of the fiscal year in which the cost is incurred, less the statewide average monthly income of nursing home residents who are age 65 or older, and who are medical assistance recipients in the month of March of the previous state fiscal year. The following costs must be included in determining the total monthly costs for the waiver client:

(1) cost of all waived services, including extended medical supplies and equipment; and

(2) cost of skilled nursing, home health aide, and personal care services reimbursable by medical assistance.

(c) Medical assistance funding for skilled nursing services, home health aide, and personal care services for waiver recipients must be approved by the case manager and included in the individual care plan.

(d) Expenditures for extended medical supplies and equipment that cost over $150 per month for both the elderly waiver and the disabled waiver must have the commissioner's prior approval. A county is not required to contract with a provider of supplies and equipment if the monthly cost of the supplies or equipment is less than $250.

(e) For the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1993, and for subsequent fiscal years, the commissioner of human services shall not provide automatic annual inflation adjustments for home and community-based waived services. The commissioner of finance shall include as a budget change request in each biennial detailed expenditure budget submitted to the legislature under section 16A.11 annual adjustments in reimbursement rates for home and community-based waived services, based on the forecasted percentage change in the Home Health Agency Market Basket of Operating Costs, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, compared to the previous fiscal year, unless otherwise adjusted by statute. The Home Health Agency Market Basket of Operating Costs is published by Data Resources, Inc. The forecast to be used is the one published for the calendar quarter beginning January 1, six months prior to the beginning of the fiscal year for which rates are set. The adult foster care rate shall be considered a difficulty of care payment and shall not include room and board.

(f) The adult foster care daily rate for the elderly and disabled waivers shall be negotiated between the county agency and the foster care provider. The rate established under this section shall not exceed the state average monthly nursing home payment for the case mix classification to which the individual receiving foster care is assigned, and it must allow for other waiver and medical assistance home care services to be authorized by the case manager.

(g) The assisted living and residential care service rates for elderly and disabled waivers shall be made to the vendor as a monthly rate negotiated with the county agency. The rate shall not exceed the nonfederal share of the greater of either the statewide or any of the geographic groups' weighted average monthly medical assistance nursing facility payment rate of the case mix resident class to which the elderly or disabled client would be assigned under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059, except for alternative care assisted living projects established under Laws 1988, chapter 689, article 2, section 256, whose rates may not exceed 65 percent of the greater of either the statewide or any of the geographic groups' weighted average monthly medical assistance nursing facility payment rate for the case mix resident class to which the elderly or disabled client would be assigned under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059. The rate may not cover direct rent or food costs.

(h) The county shall negotiate individual rates with vendors and may be reimbursed for actual costs up to the greater of the county's current approved rate or 60 percent of the maximum rate in fiscal year 1994 and 65 percent of the maximum rate in fiscal year 1995 for each service within each program.

(i) On July 1, 1993, the commissioner shall increase the maximum rate for home-delivered meals to $4.50 per meal.

(j) Reimbursement for the medical assistance recipients under the approved waiver shall be made from the medical assistance account through the invoice processing procedures of the department's Medicaid Management Information System (MMIS), only with the approval of the client's case manager. The budget for the state share of the Medicaid expenditures shall be forecasted with the medical assistance budget, and shall be consistent with the approved waiver.

(k) Beginning July 1, 1991, the state shall reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision on or after January 1, 1991, for individuals who are receiving medical assistance.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.0915, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REASSESSMENTS FOR WAIVER CLIENTS.] A reassessment of a client served under the elderly or disabled waiver must be conducted at least every ~~six~~ 12 months and at other times when the case manager determines that there has been significant change in the client's functioning. This may include instances where the client is discharged from the hospital.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.15, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ESTATES SUBJECT TO CLAIMS.] If a person receives any medical assistance hereunder, on the person's death, if single, or on the death of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom received medical assistance, the total amount paid for medical assistance rendered for the person and spouse shall be filed as a claim against the estate of the single person or the estate of the surviving spouse ~~in the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate and may be collected in any manner allowed by chapter 524 or otherwise permitted by law.~~

A claim ~~shall be filed~~ exists only if medical assistance was rendered for either or both persons under one of the following circumstances:

(a) the person was over ~~65~~ 55 years of age, and received services under this chapter, excluding alternative care;

(b) the person resided in a medical institution for six months or longer, received services under this chapter excluding alternative care, and, at the time of institutionalization or application for medical assistance, whichever is later, the person could not have reasonably been expected to be discharged and returned home, as certified in writing by the person's treating physician. For purposes of this section only, a "medical institution" means a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, nursing facility, or inpatient hospital; or

(c) the person received general assistance medical care services under chapter 256D.

The claim shall be considered an expense of the last illness of the decedent for the purpose of section 524.3-805. Any statute of limitations that purports to limit any county agency or the state agency, or both, to recover for medical assistance granted hereunder shall not apply to any claim made hereunder for reimbursement for any medical assistance granted hereunder. Counties are entitled to one-half of the nonfederal share of medical assistance collections from estates that are directly attributable to county effort.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS.] The claim shall include only the total amount of medical assistance rendered after age 65 55 or during a period of institutionalization described in subdivision 1a, clause (b), and the total amount of general assistance medical care rendered, and shall not include interest. Claims that have been allowed but not paid shall bear interest according to section 524.3-806, paragraph (d). A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly owned property at any time during the marriage.

Any claim under this section will be limited, or waived, to the extent that evidence of undue hardship upon financially dependent family members or other documented dependents of the deceased medical assistance recipient is shown. Undue hardship exists when application of probate laws regarding medical assistance would deprive financially dependent family members or other documented dependents of the deceased medical assistance recipient of food, clothing, shelter, or other necessities of life. Undue hardship does not exist where application of probate laws regarding medical assistance merely causes the deceased medical recipient's family members or other persons inconvenience, or might restrict their lifestyle, but would not cause the risk of serious deprivation of food, clothing, shelter, or other necessities of life.

Undue hardship does not exist where the waiver or limitation of a claim under this section will not result in the distribution of the estate to the person claiming undue hardship.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.19, subdivision 1d, is amended to read:

Subd. 1d. [PORTION OF NONFEDERAL SHARE TO BE PAID BY CERTAIN COUNTIES.] In addition to the percentage contribution paid by a county under subdivision 1, the governmental units designated in this subdivision shall be responsible for an additional portion of the nonfederal share of medical assistance cost. For purposes of this subdivision, "designated governmental unit" means the counties of Becker, Beltrami, Clearwater, Cook, Dodge, Hubbard, Itasca, Lake, Mahnomon, Pennington, Pipestone, Ramsey, St. Louis, Steele, Todd, Traverse, and Wadena.

Beginning in 1994, each of the governmental units designated in this subdivision shall transfer before noon on May 31 to the state Medicaid agency an amount equal to the number of licensed beds as of September 30, 1991, in any nursing home owned by the county multiplied by $5,723. If two or more counties own a nursing home, the payment shall be prorated. These sums shall be part of the designated governmental unit's portion of the nonfederal share of medical assistance costs, but shall not be subject to payback provisions of section 256.025.

Subd. 15. [CAPITAL REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT COST REPORTING AND RATE CALCULATION.] For rate years beginning after June 30, 1993, a nursing facility's capital repair and replacement payment rate shall be established annually as provided in paragraphs (a) to ~~(d)~~ (e).

(a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 12, the costs of ~~acquiring~~ any of the following items not included in the equity incentive computations under subdivision 16 or reported as a capital asset addition under subdivision 18, paragraph (b), including cash payment for equity investment and principal and interest expense for debt financing, ~~shall must~~ be reported in the capital repair and replacement cost category ~~when the cost of the item exceeds $500:~~

- (1) wall coverings;

- (2) paint;
- (3) floor coverings;
- (4) window coverings;
- (5) roof repair; and
- (6) heating or cooling system repair or replacement;
- (7) window repair or replacement;
- (8) initiatives designed to reduce energy usage by the facility if accompanied by an energy audit prepared by a professional engineer or architect registered in Minnesota, or by an auditor certified under Minnesota Rules, part 7635.0130, to do energy audits and the energy audit identifies the initiative as a conservation measure; and
- (9) repair or replacement of capital assets not included in the equity incentive computations under subdivision 16.

(b) Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 12, the repair or replacement of a capital asset not included in the equity incentive computations under subdivision 16 or reported as a capital asset addition under subdivision 18, paragraph (b), must be reported in the capital repair and replacement cost category under this subdivision when the cost of the item exceeds $500, and in the plant operations and maintenance cost category when the cost of the item is equal to or less than $500.

(c) To compute the capital repair and replacement payment rate, the allowable annual repair and replacement costs for the reporting year must be divided by actual resident days for the reporting year. The annual allowable capital repair and replacement costs shall not exceed $150 per licensed bed. The excess of the allowed capital repair and replacement costs over the capital repair and replacement limit shall be a cost carryover to succeeding cost reporting periods, except that sale of a facility, under subdivision 14, shall terminate the carryover of all costs except those incurred in the most recent cost reporting year. The termination of the carryover shall have effect on the capital repair and replacement rate on the same date as provided in subdivision 14, paragraph (f), for the sale. For rate years beginning after June 30, 1994, the capital repair and replacement limit shall be subject to the index provided in subdivision 3f, paragraph (a). For purposes of this subdivision, the number of licensed beds shall be the number used to calculate the nursing facility's capacity days. The capital repair and replacement rate must be added to the nursing facility's total payment rate.

(e) (d) Capital repair and replacement costs under this subdivision shall not be counted as either care-related or other operating costs, nor subject to care-related or other operating limits.

(d) (e) If costs otherwise allowable under this subdivision are incurred as the result of a project approved under the moratorium exception process in section 144A.073, or in connection with an addition to or replacement of buildings, attached fixtures, or land improvements for which the total historical cost of these assets exceeds the lesser of $150,000 or ten percent of the nursing facility's appraised value, these costs must be claimed under subdivision 16 or 17, as appropriate.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.431, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR MORATORIUM EXCEPTIONS.] (a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 3, for rate periods beginning on October 1, 1992, and for rate years beginning after June 30, 1993, a nursing facility that (1) has completed a construction project approved under section 144A.071, subdivision 4a, clause (m); (2) has completed a construction project approved after June 30, 1993, under section 144A.071, subdivision 4a; or (3) has completed a renovation, replacement, or upgrading project approved under the moratorium exception process in section 144A.073 shall be reimbursed for costs directly identified to that project as provided in subdivision 16 and this subdivision.

(b) Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subparts 5, item A, subitems (1) and (3), and 7, item D, allowable interest expense on debt shall include:

(1) interest expense on debt related to the cost of purchasing or replacing depreciable equipment, excluding vehicles, not to exceed six percent of the total historical cost of the project; and

(2) interest expense on debt related to financing or refinancing costs, including costs related to points, loan origination fees, financing charges, legal fees, and title searches; and issuance costs including bond discounts, bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, corporate counsel, printing, and financial forecasts. Allowable debt related to items in this clause shall not exceed seven percent of the total historical cost of the project. To the extent these costs are financed, the straight-line amortization of the costs in this clause is not an allowable cost; and

(3) interest on debt incurred for the establishment of a debt reserve fund, net of the interest earned on the debt reserve fund.

(c) Debt incurred for costs under paragraph (b) is not subject to Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 5, item A, subitem (5) or (6).

(d) The incremental increase in a nursing facility's rental rate, determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section, resulting from the acquisition of allowable capital assets, and allowable debt and interest expense under this subdivision shall be added to its property-related payment rate and shall be effective on the first day of the month following the month in which the moratorium project was completed.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision 3f, paragraph (a), for rate periods beginning on October 1, 1992, and for rate years beginning after June 30, 1993, the replacement-costs-new per bed limit to be used in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 4, item B, for a nursing facility that has completed a renovation, replacement, or upgrading project that has been approved under the moratorium exception process in section 144A.073, or that has completed an addition to or replacement of buildings, attached fixtures, or land improvements for which the total historical cost exceeds the lesser of $150,000 or ten percent of the most recent appraised value, must be $47,500 per licensed bed in multiple-bed rooms and $71,250 per licensed bed in a single-bed room. These amounts must be adjusted annually as specified in subdivision 3f, paragraph (a), beginning January 1, 1993.

(f) A nursing facility that completes a project identified in this subdivision and, as of April 17, 1992, has not been mailed a rate notice with a special appraisal for a completed project, or completes a project after April 17, 1992, but before September 1, 1992, may elect either to request a special reappraisal with the corresponding adjustment to the property-related payment rate under the laws in effect on June 30, 1992, or to submit their capital asset and debt information after that date and obtain the property-related payment rate adjustment under this section, but not both.

(g) For purposes of this paragraph, a total replacement means the complete replacement of the nursing facility's physical plant through the construction of a new physical plant or the transfer of the nursing facility's residents from one physical plant location to another. Upon completion of a total replacement project, the commissioner shall compute the incremental change in the nursing facility's rental per diem by replacing its appraised value, including the historical capital asset costs, and capital debt and interest costs with the new nursing facility's physical plant allowable capital asset costs and the related allowable capital debt and interest costs. If the new nursing facility has decreased its licensed capacity, the aggregate investment per bed limit in subdivision 3a, paragraph (d), shall apply. In the case of either type of total replacement as authorized under either section 144A.071 or 144A.073, the provisions of this subdivision shall also apply.

Subd. 23. [COUNTY NURSING HOME PAYMENT ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) Beginning in 1994, the commissioner shall pay a nursing home payment adjustment on May 31 after noon to a county in which is located a nursing home that, as of January 1 of the previous year, was county-owned and had over 40 beds and medical assistance occupancy in excess of 50 percent during the reporting year ending September 30, 1991. The adjustment shall be an amount equal to $16 per calendar day multiplied by the number of beds licensed in the facility as of September 30, 1991.

(b) Payments under paragraph (a) are excluded from medical assistance per diem rate calculations. These payments are required notwithstanding any rule prohibiting medical assistance payments from exceeding payments from private pay residents. A facility receiving a payment under paragraph (a) may not increase charges to private pay residents by an amount equivalent to the per diem amount payments under paragraph (a) would equal if converted to a per diem.

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [MODIFIED SHARED EFFICIENCY INCENTIVE.] Notwithstanding section 256B.74, subdivision 3, for the rate year beginning July 1, 1993, the maximum efficiency incentive is $2.20, and for rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1994, the commissioner shall determine a nursing facility's efficiency incentive by first computing the allowable difference, which is the lesser of $4.50 or the amount by which the facility's other operating cost limit exceeds its nonadjusted other operating cost per diem for that rate year. The commissioner shall then use the following table to compute the nursing facility's efficiency incentive: by:

(a) subtracting the allowable difference from $4.50 and dividing the result by $4.50,

(b) multiplying 0.20 by the ratio resulting from (a), and then,

(c) adding 0.50 to the result from (b), and

(d) multiplying the result from (c) times the allowable difference.

The facility's efficiency incentive payment shall be the lesser of $2.25 or the product obtained in (d). Each increment or partial increment the nursing facility's nonadjusted other operating per diem is below its other operating cost limit shall be multiplied by the corresponding percentage for that per diem increment. The sum of each of those computations shall be the nursing facility's efficiency incentive.

Other Operating Cost Per Diem Increment Below Facility Limit	Percentage Applied to Each Per Diem Increment
Less than $0.50	70 percent
$0.50 to less than $0.70	75 percent
$0.70 to less than $0.90	80 percent
$0.90 to less than $1.10	85 percent
$1.10 to less than $1.30	90 percent
$1.30 to less than $1.50	95 percent
$1.50 to less than $1.70	100 percent
$1.70 to less than $1.90	100 percent
$1.90 to less than $2.10	100 percent
$2.10 to less than $2.30	100 percent
$2.30 to less than $2.50	100 percent
$2.50 to less than $2.70	100 percent
$2.70 to less than $2.90	100 percent
$2.90 to less than $3.10	100 percent
$3.10 to less than $3.30	100 percent
$3.30 to less than $3.50	100 percent
$3.50 to less than $3.70	100 percent
$3.70 to less than $3.90	100 percent
$3.90 to less than $4.10	100 percent
$4.10 to less than $4.30	100 percent

The maximum efficiency incentive is $2.44 per resident day.

"Day-to-day operational control" means that the central, affiliated, or corporate office has the authority to require, mandate, direct, or compel the employees of the long-term care nursing facility to perform or refrain from performing certain acts, or to supplant or take the place of the top management of the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility. "Day-to-day operational control" includes the authority to hire or terminate employees or to provide an employee of the central, affiliated, or corporate office to serve as administrator of the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility;

(2) the central, affiliated, or corporate office performs or is authorized to perform two or more of the following: the execution of contracts; authorization of purchase orders; signature authority for checks, notes, or other financial instruments; requiring the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility to use the group or volume purchasing services of the central, affiliated, or corporate office; or the authority to make annual capital expenditures for the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility exceeding $50,000, or $500 per licensed bed, whichever is less, without first securing the approval of the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility board of directors;

(3) the central, affiliated, or corporate office becomes or is required to become the licensee under applicable state law;

(4) the agreement provides that the compensation for services provided under the agreement is directly related to any profits made by the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility; or

(5) the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility entering into the agreement is governed by a governing body that meets fewer than four times a year, that does not publish notice of its meetings, or that does not keep formal records of its proceedings.

(b) "Consulting agreement" means any agreement the purpose of which is for a central, affiliated, or corporate office to advise, counsel, recommend, or suggest to the owner or operator of the nonrelated ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility measures and methods for improving the operations of the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility.

(c) "~~Long-term care Nursing~~ facility" means a nursing facility whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.431 ~~or an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation and related conditions whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.501.~~

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.432, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION; DIRECT IDENTIFICATION OF COSTS OF ~~LONG-TERM CARE NURSING~~ FACILITIES; MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT.] All costs that can be directly identified with a specific ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility that is a related organization to the central, affiliated, or corporate office, or that is controlled by the central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, must be allocated to that ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility.

Sec. 89. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.432, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION OF REMAINING COSTS; ALLOCATION RATIO.] (a) After the costs that can be directly identified according to subdivisions 3 and 4 have been allocated, the remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs must be allocated between the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility operations and the other activities or facilities unrelated to the ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility operations based on the ratio of total operating costs.

(b) For purposes of allocating these remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs, the numerator for the allocation ratio shall be determined as follows:

(1) for ~~long-term care nursing~~ facilities that are related organizations or are controlled by a central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total operating costs incurred by each related organization or controlled ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility;

(2) for a central, affiliated, or corporate office providing goods or services to related organizations that are not ~~long-term care nursing~~ facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total operating costs incurred by the ~~non-long-term care non-nursing facility~~ related organizations;

(4) for business activities that involve the providing of goods or services to unrelated parties which are not ~~long-term care nursing~~ facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the greater of directly identified costs or revenues generated by the activity or function.

(c) The denominator for the allocation ratio is the sum of the numerators in paragraph (b), clauses (1) to (4).

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.432, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COST ALLOCATION BETWEEN ~~LONG-TERM CARE NURSING~~ FACILITIES.] (a) Those ~~long-term care nursing~~ operations that have long-term care facilities both in Minnesota and outside of Minnesota must allocate the ~~long-term care nursing~~ operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in subdivision 5 to Minnesota based on the ratio of total resident days in Minnesota ~~long-term care nursing~~ facilities to the total resident days in all facilities.

(b) The Minnesota ~~long-term care nursing~~ operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in paragraph (a) must be allocated to each Minnesota ~~long-term care nursing~~ facility on the basis of resident days.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.501, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS.] The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. ~~The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities.~~ In developing the procedures, the commissioner shall include:

(a) cost containment measures that assure efficient and prudent management of capital assets and operating cost increases which do not exceed increases in other sections of the economy;

(b) limits on the amounts of reimbursement for property, ~~general and administration,~~ and new facilities;

(c) requirements to ensure that the accounting practices of the facilities conform to generally accepted accounting principles;

(d) incentives to reward accumulation of equity;

(e) ~~a revaluation on sale between unrelated organizations for a facility that, for at least three years before its use as an intermediate care facility, has been used by the seller as a single family home and been claimed by the seller as a homestead, and was not revalued immediately prior to or upon entering the medical assistance program, provided that the facility revaluation not exceed the amount permitted by the Social Security Act, section 1902(a)(13); and rule revisions which:~~

(1) combine the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, and professional liability and real estate insurance expenses into one general operating cost category;

(4) establish a best practices award system that is based on outcome measures and that rewards quality, innovation, cost effectiveness, and staff retention;

(5) establish compensation limits for employees on the basis of full-time employment and the developmentally disabled client base of a provider group or facility. The commissioner may consider the inclusion of hold harmless provisions;

(6) establish overall limits on a facility's rate of inflation increases. The commissioner shall consider groupings of facilities that account for a significant variation in cost. The limits, once established, shall be indexed for inflation and may be rebased by the commissioner; and

(7) develop cost allocation principles which are based on facility expenses; and

(f) appeals procedures that satisfy the requirements of section 256B.50 for appeals of decisions arising from the application of standards or methods pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0500 to 9510.0890, 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, and 42 MCAR 2.05301 to 2.05315 (temporary).

Subd. 3c. [COMPOSITE FORECASTED INDEX.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall establish a statewide composite forecasted index to take into account economic trends and conditions between the midpoint of the facility's reporting year and the midpoint of the rate year following the reporting year. The statewide composite index must incorporate the forecast by Data Resources, Inc. of increases in the average hourly earnings of nursing and personal care workers indexed in Standard Industrial Code 805 in "Employment and Earnings," published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable salaries and wages to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities.

For adjustments to the other operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, the statewide index must incorporate the Data Resources, Inc. forecast for increases in the national CPI-U. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable other operating costs to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities. The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the reporting year.

For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall index a facility's allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories by using Data Resources, Inc., forecast for change in the Consumer Price Index-All Items (U.S. city average) (CPI-U). The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the first quarter of the calendar year in which the rate year begins. For fiscal years beginning after June 30, 1993, the commissioner shall not provide automatic inflation adjustments for intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation. The commissioner of finance shall include annual inflation adjustments in operating costs for intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation and related conditions as a budget change request in each biennial detailed expenditure budget submitted to the legislature under section 16A.11.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256B.501, subdivision 3g, is amended to read:

This instrument shall include assessment of the services identified as needed and provided to each client to address behavioral needs, integration into the community, ability to perform activities of daily living, medical and therapeutic needs, and other relevant factors determined by the commissioner. By January 30, 1994, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on:

- (1) the assessment process and scoring system utilized;
- (2) possible utilization of assessment information by facilities for management purposes; and
- (3) possible application of the assessment for purposes of adjusting the operating cost rates of facilities based on a comparison of client services characteristics, resource needs, and costs. For clients newly admitted to the facility, the interdisciplinary team shall complete an assessment of the client, using the uniform assessment instrument developed by the commissioner, within 30 days of the client's admission to the facility. The facility's qualified mental retardation professional shall complete and submit the assessment form to the department of health, quality assurance and review section, within ten working days following the 30-day interdisciplinary team meeting. Clients admitted to the facility for temporary care shall not be assessed using the uniform instrument, unless the clients' length of stay in the facility exceeds 30 days.

(c) Beginning with the biennial reporting year which begins January 1, 1993, a facility is no longer required to have a certified audit of its financial statements. The cost of a certified audit shall not be an allowable cost in that reporting year, nor in subsequent reporting years unless the facility submits its certified audited financial statements in the manner otherwise specified in this subdivision. A nursing facility which does not submit a certified audit must submit its working trial balance.

(d) In addition to the approved pension or profit sharing plans allowed by the reimbursement rule, the commissioner shall allow those plans specified in Internal Revenue Code, sections 403(b) and 408(k).

(ii) the reserves for the plan cannot be used, directly or indirectly, as collateral for debts incurred or other obligations of the facility or related organizations to the facility;

(iii) if the plan provides workers' compensation coverage for non-Minnesota facilities, the plan's cost methodology must be consistent among all facilities covered by the plan, and if reasonable, is allowed notwithstanding any reimbursement laws regarding cost allocation to the contrary;

(iv) central, affiliated, corporate, or nursing facility costs related to their administration of the plan are costs which must remain in the nursing facility's administrative cost category, and must not be allocated to other cost categories; and

(v) required security deposits, whether in the form of cash, investments, securities, assets, letters of credit, or in any other form are not allowable costs for purposes of establishing the facilities payment rate;

(5) any costs allowed pursuant to clauses (1) to (3) are subject to the following requirements:

(i) if the facility is sold or otherwise ceases operations, the plan's reserves must be subject to an actuarially based settle-up after 36 months from the date of sale or the date on which operations ceased. The facility's medical assistance portion of the total excess plan reserves must be paid to the state within 30 days following the date on which excess plan reserves are determined;

No excess payment approved by the commissioner after June 30, 1991, shall be authorized unless:

(1) the need for specific level of service is documented in the individual service plan of the person to be served;

(2) the level of service needed can be provided within the rates established under section 252.46 and Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, without a rate exception within 12 months;

(7) any contingencies for an approval as outlined in writing by the commissioner are met; and

(8) any commissioner orders for use of preferred providers are met.

The commissioner shall evaluate the services provided pursuant to this subdivision through program and fiscal audits.

The commissioner may terminate the rate exception at any time under any of the conditions outlined in Minnesota Rules, part 9510.1120, subpart 3, for county termination, or by reason of information obtained through program and fiscal audits which indicate the criteria outlined in this subdivision have not been, or are no longer being, met.

The commissioner may approve no more than one rate exception, up to 12 months duration, for an eligible client.

Sec. 97. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [PAYMENT FOR PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS FOR CRISIS INTERVENTION SERVICES.] State-operated, community-based crisis services provided in accordance with section 252.50, subdivision 7, to a resident of an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation (ICF/MR) reimbursed under this section shall be paid by medical assistance in accordance with the paragraphs in this subdivision.

(a) "Crisis services" means the specialized services listed in clauses (1) to (3) provided to prevent the recipient from requiring placement in a more restrictive institutional setting such as an inpatient hospital or regional treatment center and to maintain the recipient in his or her present community setting.

(1) The crisis services provider shall assess the recipient's behavior and environment to identify factors contributing to the crisis.

(2) The crisis services provider shall develop a recipient-specific intervention plan in coordination with the service planning team and provide recommendations for revisions to the individual service plan if necessary to prevent or minimize the likelihood of future crisis situations. The intervention plan shall include a transition plan to aid the recipient in returning to the community-based ICF/MR if the recipient is receiving residential crisis services.

(3) The crisis services provider shall consult with and provide training and ongoing technical assistance to the recipient's service providers to aid in the implementation of the intervention plan and revisions to the individual service plan.

(b) "Residential crisis services" means crisis services that are provided to a recipient admitted to the crisis services foster care setting because the ICF/MR receiving reimbursement under this section is not able, as determined by the commissioner, to provide the intervention and protection of the recipient and others living with the recipient that is necessary to prevent the recipient from requiring placement in a more restrictive institutional setting.

(c) Crisis services providers must be licensed by the commissioner under section 245A.03 to provide foster care, must exclusively provide short-term crisis intervention, and must not be located in a private residence.

(d) Payment rates are determined annually for each crisis services provider based on cost of care for each provider as defined in section 246.50. Interim payment rates are calculated on a per diem basis by dividing the projected cost of providing care by the projected number of contact days for the fiscal year, as estimated by the commissioner. Final payment rates are calculated by dividing the actual cost of providing care by the actual number of contact days in the applicable fiscal year.

(e) Payment shall be made for each contact day. "Contact day" means any day in which the crisis services provider has face-to-face contact with the recipient or any of the recipient's medical assistance service providers for the purpose of providing crisis services as defined in paragraph (c).

(f) Payment for residential crisis services is limited to 21 days, unless an additional period is authorized by the commissioner. The additional period may not exceed 21 days.

(g) Payment for crisis services shall be made only for services provided while the ICF/MR receiving reimbursement under this section:

(1) has a shared services agreement with the crisis services provider in effect in accordance with section 246.57;

(2) has reassigned payment for the provision of the crisis services under this subdivision to the commissioner in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 447.10(e); and

(3) has executed a cooperative agreement with the crisis services provider to implement the intervention plan and revisions to the individual service plan as necessary to prevent or minimize the likelihood of future crisis situations, to maintain the recipient in his or her present community setting, and to prevent the recipient from requiring a more restrictive institutional setting.

(h) Payment to the ICF/MR receiving reimbursement under this section shall be made for each therapeutic leave day during which the recipient is receiving residential crisis services, if the ICF/MR is otherwise eligible to receive payment for a therapeutic leave day under Minnesota Rules, part 9505.0415. Payment under this paragraph shall be terminated if the commis-tioner determines that the ICF/MR is not meeting the terms of the cooperative agreement under paragraph (g) or that the recipient will not return to the ICF/MR.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.69, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. The criteria shall ensure that all eligible individuals in the county have continuing access to the full range of medical assistance services as specified in subdivision 6. The commissioner shall exempt the following persons from participation in the project, in addition to those who do not meet the criteria for limitation of choice: (1) persons eligible for medical assistance according to section 256B.055, subdivision 1, or who are in foster placement; (2) persons eligible for medical assistance due to blindness or disability as determined by the social security administration or the state medical review team, unless they are 65 years of age or older; (3) recipients who currently have private coverage through a health maintenance organization; and (4) recipients who are eligible for medical assistance by spending down excess income for medical expenses other than the nursing facility per diem expense. The commissioner may allow persons with a one month spend-down, who are otherwise eligible to enroll, to voluntarily enroll or remain enrolled if they elect to prepay their monthly spend-down to the state. Before limitation of choice is implemented, eligible individuals shall be notified and after notification, shall be allowed to choose only among demonstration providers. After initially choosing a provider, the recipient is allowed to change that choice only at specified times as allowed by the commissioner. If a demonstration provider ends participation in the project for any reason, a recipient enrolled with that provider must select a new provider but may change providers without cause once more within the first 60 days after enrollment with the second provider.

Sec. 99. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256B.69, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [ALTERNATIVE INTEGRATED LONG-TERM CARE SERVICES; ELDERLY AND DISABLED PERSONS.] The commissioner may implement demonstration projects to create alternative integrated delivery systems for acute and long-term care services to elderly and disabled persons that provide increased coordination, improve access to quality services, and mitigate future cost increases. The commissioner may seek federal authority to combine Medicare and Medicaid capitation payments for the purpose of such demonstrations. Medicare funds and services shall be administered according to the terms and conditions of the federal waiver and demonstration provisions. For the purpose of administering medical assistance funds, demonstrations under this subdivision are subject to subdivisions 1 to 17. The provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.1450 to 9500.1464, apply to these demonstrations, with the exceptions of parts 9500.1452, subpart 2, item B; and 9500.1457, subpart 1, items B and C, which do not apply to elderly persons enrolling in demonstrations under this section. An initial open enrollment period may be provided. Persons who disenroll from demonstrations under this subdivision remain subject to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.1450 to 9500.1464. When a person is enrolled in a health plan under this demonstration and the health plan's participation is subsequently terminated for any reason, the person shall be provided an opportunity to select a new health plan and shall have the right to change health plans within the first 60 days of enrollment in the second health plan. Persons required to participate in health plans under section 256B.69 who fail to make a choice of health plan will not be randomly assigned to health plans under this demonstration. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.9363, subdivision 5, and Minnesota Rules, part 9505.5220, subpart 1a, if adopted, for the purpose of demonstrations under this subdivision, the commissioner may contract with managed care organizations to serve only elderly persons eligible for medical assistance, or both elderly and disabled persons.

Before implementation of a demonstration project for disabled persons, the commissioner must provide information to appropriate committees of the house and senate and must involve representatives of affected disability groups in the design of the demonstration projects.

Sec. 100. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.]

(a) General assistance medical care may be paid for any person who is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B, including eligibility for medical assistance based on a spend-down of excess income according to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, and:

(1) who is receiving assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051, or who is having a payment made on the person's behalf under sections 256I.01 to 256I.06; or

(2)(i) who is a resident of Minnesota; and whose equity in assets is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. No asset test shall be applied to children and their parents living in the same household. Exempt assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B, with the following exception: the maximum amount of undistributed funds in a trust that could be distributed to or on behalf of the beneficiary by the trustee, assuming the full exercise of the trustee's discretion under the terms of the trust, must be applied toward the asset maximum; and

(ii) who has countable income not in excess of the assistance standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 4, or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, using a six-month budget period, except that a one-month budget period must be used for recipients residing in a long-term care facility. The method for calculating earned income disregards and deductions for a person who resides with a dependent child under age 21 shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1. However, if a disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder described in section 256.74, subdivision 1, clause (4), has been applied to the wage earner's income, the disregard shall not be applied again until the wage earner's income has not been considered in an eligibility determination for general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical assistance, or aid to families with dependent children for 12 consecutive months. The earned income and work expense deductions for a person who does not reside with a dependent child under age 21 shall be the same as the method used to determine eligibility for a person under section 256D.06, subdivision 1, except the disregard of the first $50 of earned income is not allowed; or

(3) who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in a facility that is determined by the commissioner or the federal health care financing administration to be an institution for mental diseases.

(b) Eligibility is available for the month of application, and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

(c) General assistance medical care is not available for a person in a correctional facility unless the person is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, and the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

(d) General assistance medical care is not available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the county agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

(e) In determining the amount of assets of an individual, there shall be included any asset or interest in an asset, including an asset excluded under paragraph (a), that was given away, sold, or disposed of for less than fair market value within the ~~30~~ 60 months preceding application for general assistance medical care or during the period of eligibility. Any transfer described in this paragraph shall be presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for general assistance medical care, unless the individual furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of the asset or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received. For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility, including partial months, shall be calculated by dividing the uncompensated transfer amount by the average monthly per person payment made by the medical assistance program to skilled nursing facilities for the previous calendar year. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed period has expired. The period of ineligibility may exceed 30 months, and a reapplication for benefits after 30 months from the date of the transfer shall not result in eligibility unless and until the period of ineligibility has expired. The period of ineligibility begins in the month the transfer was reported to the county agency, or if the transfer was not reported, the month in which the county agency discovered the transfer, whichever comes first. For applicants, the period of ineligibility begins on the date of the first approved application.

(f)(1) Beginning October 1, 1993, an undocumented alien or a nonimmigrant is ineligible for general assistance medical care other than emergency services. For purposes of this subdivision, a nonimmigrant is an individual in one or more of the classes listed in United States Code, title 8, section 1101(a)(15), and an undocumented alien is an individual who resides in the United States without the approval or acquiescence of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (f), "emergency services" has the meaning given in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 440.255(b)(1), except that it also means services rendered because of suspected or actual pesticide poisoning.

General assistance medical care applicants and recipients must apply or agree to apply third party health and accident benefits to the costs of medical care. ~~They~~ General assistance and general assistance medical care applicants and recipients must cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments to be eligible under this chapter. By signing an application for general assistance or general assistance medical care, a person assigns to the department of human services all rights to medical support or payments for medical expenses from another person or entity on their own or their dependent's behalf and agrees to cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments. The application shall contain a statement explaining the assignment. Any rights or amounts assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. An assignment is effective on the date general assistance medical care eligibility takes effect. The assignment shall not affect benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage until the person or organization providing the benefits has received notice of the assignment.*

General assistance medical care applicants and recipients must cooperate by providing information about any group health plan in which they may be eligible to enroll. They must cooperate with the state and local agency in determining if the plan is cost-effective. If the plan is determined cost-effective and the premium will be paid by the state or local agency or is available at no cost to the person, they must enroll or remain enrolled in the group health plan. Cost-effective insurance premiums approved for payment by the state agency and paid by the local agency are eligible for reimbursement according to subdivision 6.*

The commissioner shall consider proposals by counties and vendors for prepaid health plans, competitive bidding programs, block grants, or other vendor payment mechanisms designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Before implementing prepaid programs in counties with a county operated or affiliated public teaching hospital or a hospital or clinic operated by the University of Minnesota, the commissioner shall consider the risks the prepaid program creates for the hospital and allow the county or hospital the opportunity to participate in the program in a manner that reflects the risk of adverse selection and the nature of the patients served by the hospital, provided the terms of participation in the program are competitive with the terms of other participants considering the nature of the population served. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625. For payments made during fiscal year 1990 and later years, the commissioner shall consult with an independent actuary in establishing prepayment rates, but shall retain final control over the rate methodology.*

528.08 [RIGHTS OF CREDITORS.]

No multiple-party account will be effective against an estate of a deceased party to transfer to a survivor sums needed to pay a deceased party's debts, taxes, and expenses of administration, including statutory allowances to the surviving spouse, minor children and dependent children, and claims under section 246.53, 256B.15, 256D.16, or 261.04 if other assets of the estate are insufficient, to the extent the deceased party is the source of the funds or beneficial owner. A surviving party or P.O.D. payee who receives payment from a multiple-party account after the death of a deceased party shall be liable to account to the deceased party's personal representative for amounts the decedent owned beneficially immediately before death to the extent necessary to discharge any such claims and charges remaining unpaid after the application of the assets of the decedent's estate. No proceeding to assert this liability shall be commenced unless the personal representative has received a written demand by a surviving spouse, a creditor or one acting for a minor dependent child of the decedent, and no proceeding shall be commenced later than two years following the death of the decedent. Sums recovered by the personal representative shall be administered as part of the decedent's estate. For purposes of this section, the term "personal representative" means the personal representative of the deceased party's estate if one has been appointed or a duly authorized agent of a government agency asserting a claim pursuant to section 246.53, 256B.15, 256D.16, or 261.04 by means of an affidavit of collection under section 524.3-1201, if no application or petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction. This section shall not affect the right of a financial institution to make payment on multiple-party accounts according to the terms thereof, or make it liable to the estate of a deceased party unless, before payment, the institution has been served with an affidavit of collection under section 524.3-1201 or process in a proceeding by the personal representative.

Sec. 115. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE TO STANDARDIZE SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION FOR PRIOR AUTHORIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPOSITION OF TASK FORCE.] A six-member advisory task force on prior authorization for physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, or related services supporting documentation is established. The task force is comprised of one licensed psychiatrist, one licensed physical therapist, one licensed occupational therapist, one licensed speech therapist, one licensed rehabilitation nurse, and one consumer representative. All licensed task force members must be actively engaged in the practice of their profession in Minnesota. The members of the task force shall be appointed by the commissioner of human services. No more than three members may be of one gender. All licensed professional members shall be selected from lists submitted to the commissioner by the appropriate professional associations. Task force members who are licensed professionals shall not be compensated for their service. The consumer representative member must be compensated for time spent on task force activities as specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059, subdivision 3. The task force shall expire on December 31, 1995.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER AND TASK FORCE.] The task force shall study the lists of items, specified in the issue of the medical assistance and general assistance medical care provider manual which is in effect as of the effective date of this section, that are required to be submitted by each category of provider along with the provider's request for prior authorization. The task force shall recommend to the commissioner any amendments or refinements needed to clarify the lists. The commissioner shall use the recommendations of the task force in developing standardized documentation which a provider will submit with a prior authorization request. If the commissioner intends to depart from the recommendations of the task force, the commissioner shall inform the task force of the intended departure, provide a written explanation of the reasons for the departure, and give the task force an opportunity to comment on the intended departure.

Sec. 116. [PRIOR AUTHORIZATION ALTERNATIVES; REPORT REQUIRED.]

The commissioner shall report on alternative methods, other than prior authorization, to achieve utilization review of the therapy services provided by an entity that operates a Medicare certified comprehensive outpatient rehabilitation facility which was certified prior to January 1, 1993, and that is a facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9570.2000 to 9570.3600, when these services are provided within the comprehensive outpatient rehabilitation facility and not provided in a nursing facility other than the entity's own, and by facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9570.2000 to 9570.3600, which provide residential services for persons with physical handicaps. The commissioner must consult with these facilities to develop recommendations for alternative methods of utilization review. By February 1, 1995, the commissioner must submit the report to the legislature.

Sec. 117. [POLICY OPTIONS FOR BED TRANSFERS.]

The interagency long-term care planning committee shall present to the legislature by January 15, 1995, policy options for transferring beds from areas of the state with a bed surplus to areas of the state with a bed shortage and for increasing the capacity of nursing homes attached to hospitals that have been delicensed. The options must include a comprehensive plan for distributing existing nursing home and certified boarding care home beds in order to serve the aging population as projected by the state demographer.

Sec. 118. [RULES.]

For rate years beginning as soon as practical after September 30, 1995, the commissioner shall revise Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, to incorporate changes made to Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.501.

Sec. 119. [ICF/MR RULE REVISION.]

The commissioner shall consider various time record and time distribution record keeping requirements when developing rule revisions for cost allocation regarding intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The commissioner shall consider information from the public, including providers, provider associations, advocates, and counties when developing rule amendments in the area of cost allocation.

From July 1, 1994, until December 31, 1994, all employees and consultants of ICFs/MR, including any individual for whom any portion of that individual's compensation is reported for reimbursement under Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, shall document their service to all sites according to paragraphs (a) to (c). For this purpose, and for paragraphs (a) to (c), employee means an individual who is compensated by a facility or provider group for necessary services on any hourly or salaried basis.

Employees and consultants for whom no portion of that individual's total compensation is reported for reimbursement in Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, are exempt from the record keeping requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) to (c).

(a) Time and attendance records are required for all employees and consultants as set forth in Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.432, subdivision 8.

(b) Employees and consultants shall keep time records on a daily basis showing the actual time spent on various activities, as required by Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0030, except that employees with multiple duties must not use a sampling method.

(c) All employees and consultants who work for the benefit of more than one site shall keep a record of where work is performed. This record must specify the time in which work performed at a site solely benefits that site. The amount of time reported for work performed at a site for the sole benefit of that site does not need to be adjusted for brief, infrequent telephone interruptions, time spent away from the site when accompanying clients from that site, and time away from the site for shopping or errands if the shopping or errands benefit solely that site.

For record keeping purposes, site means a Minnesota ICF/MR, waived services location, semi-independent living service arrangement, day training and habilitation operation, or similar out-of-state service operation for persons with developmental disabilities. Site also means any nondevelopmental disability service location or any business operation owned or operated by a provider group, either in or outside of Minnesota, whether or not that operation provides a service to persons with developmental disabilities.

Sec. 120. [STUDY ON NEED FOR BREAST CANCER PATIENT BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH'S DUTIES.] The commissioner of health shall, in consultation with representatives of public and private organizations knowledgeable of breast cancer issues, study the need for a breast cancer patient bill of rights. The study must take into consideration the types of information that a breast cancer patient requires to make an informed decision about treatment options, the manner in which the information is communicated to the patient, and the timeliness of the provision of the information.

Subd. 2. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE.] The commissioner shall submit a report of findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1995. If the report includes a recommendation for the establishment of a breast cancer patient bill of rights, it must also contain specific recommendations concerning the content of the proposed bill of rights.

Sec. 121. [FEDERAL WAIVER; DENTAL SERVICE PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of human services shall seek from the United States Department of Human Services all waivers necessary to operate two dental service pilot programs in rural areas that lack adequate dental service. The first pilot program would allow the commissioner to contract with individual dentists or groups of dentists to provide the necessary dental services to medical assistance recipients and allow the commissioner to rent dental office space and pay for dental services on an hourly basis. The second pilot program would allow the commissioner to authorize payment systems that provide capitated medical assistance payments that would be paid directly to dentists and not through a prepaid health plan. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1995, on the status of obtaining the waivers needed to operate these pilot programs.

Sec. 122. [STUDY OF LOSS RATIOS: MEDICARE RELATED COVER-AGE.]

The commissioner of commerce and the commissioner of health shall jointly study the loss ratios experienced with respect to all coverages regulated under Minnesota Statutes, section 62A.36, subdivision 1. The commissioners shall determine, using sound actuarial analysis, the effects of increasing the minimum loss ratios for those coverages by one percentage point per year for seven years. The commissioners shall jointly report their findings, analysis, and conclusions to the legislature, in compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 3.195, no later than December 15, 1994. The commissioners shall conduct the entire study jointly and attempt to arrive at and report unified consistent findings, analysis, and conclusions; the commissioners shall not study separately only the coverages that each commissioner respectively regulates.

Sec. 123. [CHISAGO COUNTY HOSPITAL PROJECT.]

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 144.551, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), a project to replace a hospital in Chisago county may be commenced if:

- (1) the new hospital is located within ten miles of the current site;
- (2) the project will result in a net reduction of licensed hospital beds; and
- (3) all hospitals within ten miles of the project agree to the general location criteria, or if the hospitals do not agree by July 1, 1994, the commissioner approves the project through the process described in paragraph (b). The hospitals may notify the commissioner and request a mutually agreed upon extension of time not to extend beyond August 15, 1994, for submission of this project to the commissioner. The commissioner shall render a decision on the project within 60 days after submission by the parties. The commissioner's decision is the final administrative decision of the agency.

(b) As expressly authorized under paragraph (a), the commissioner shall approve a project if it is determined that replacement of the existing hospital or hospitals will:

- (1) promote high quality care and services;
- (2) provide improved access to care;
- (3) not involve a substantial expansion of inpatient service capacity; and
- (4) benefit the region to be served by the new regional facility.

(c) Prior to making this determination, the commissioner shall solicit and review written comments from hospitals and community service agencies located within ten miles of the new hospital site and from the regional coordinating board.

(d) For the purposes of pursuing the project established under this section, Chisago health services and district memorial hospital may pursue discussions and work cooperatively with each other, and with another organization mutually agreed upon, to plan for a new hospital facility to serve the area presently served by the two hospitals.

Sec. 124. [WAIVER REQUEST FOR EMPLOYED DISABLED PERSONS.]

The commissioner shall seek a federal waiver in order to implement a work incentive for disabled persons eligible for medical assistance who are not residents of long-term care facilities. The waiver shall request authorization to establish a medical assistance earned income disregard for employed disabled persons equivalent to the threshold amount applied to persons who qualify under section 1619(b) of the Social Security Act, except that when a disabled person's earned income reaches the maximum income permitted at the threshold under section 1619(b), the person shall retain medical assistance eligibility and must contribute to the costs of medical care on a sliding fee basis. This waiver will not be implemented without further approval from the legislature.

Sec. 125. [EFFECT ON LOCAL ORDINANCE.]

Sections 108 and 109 (461.16 and 461.17) do not preempt a local ordinance which provides for more restrictive regulation of retail tobacco sales.

Sec. 126. [CRISIS SERVICES.]

The commissioner of human services shall explore and recommend various methods of funding crisis services for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The commissioner shall seek advice from affected parties in making the recommendations and report the recommendations to the 1995 legislature.

Sec. 127. [STUDY.]

The board of social work, in consultation with the Minnesota Hospital Association, shall review the effects of social worker licensure on rural hospitals and report its findings to the house health and human services committee and the senate health care committee by January 1, 1996.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 245.97, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TERMS, COMPENSATION, REMOVAL AND EXPIRATION.] The membership terms, compensation, and removal of members of the committee and the filling of membership vacancies are governed by section 15.0575. ~~The ombudsman committee and the medical review subcommittee expire on June 30, 1994.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 246.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COST OF CARE.] "Cost of care" means the commissioner's charge for services provided to ~~any person admitted to a state facility resident patients, outpatients, and day care patients.~~

~~For purposes of this subdivision, "Charge for services" means the cost of services, treatment, maintenance, bonds issued for capital improvements, depreciation of buildings and equipment, and indirect costs related to the operation of state facilities. The commissioner may determine the charge for services on an anticipated average per diem basis as an all inclusive charge per facility, per disability group, or per treatment program. The commissioner may determine a charge per service, using a method that includes direct and indirect costs. Charge for services for outpatient or day care patients or residents shall be on a cost-for-service basis under a schedule the commissioner shall establish.~~

~~For purposes of this subdivision, "resident patient" means a person who occupies a bed while housed in a state facility for observation, care, diagnosis, or treatment.~~

~~For purposes of this subdivision, "outpatient" or "day care patient or resident" means a person who makes use of diagnostic, therapeutic, counseling, or other service in a state facility or through state personnel but does not occupy a bed overnight.~~

~~For the purposes of collecting from the federal government for the care of those patients eligible for medical care under the Social Security Act, "cost of care" shall be determined as set forth in the rules and regulations of the Department of Health and Human Services or its successor agency.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 246.57, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZED.] The commissioner of human services may authorize any state facility operated under the authority of the commissioner to enter into agreement with other governmental entities and both nonprofit and for-profit organizations for participation in shared service agreements that would be of mutual benefit to the state, other governmental entities and organizations involved, and the public. Notwithstanding section 16B.06, subdivision 2, the commissioner of human services may delegate the execution of shared services contracts to the chief executive officers of the regional centers or state operated nursing homes. No additional employees shall be added to the legislatively approved complement for any regional center or state nursing home as a result of entering into any shared service agreement. However, positions funded by a shared service agreement may be authorized by the commissioner of finance for the duration of the shared service agreement. The charges for the services shall be on an actual cost basis. All receipts for shared services may be retained by the regional treatment center or, state-operated nursing home, or other facility that provided the services, in addition to other funding the regional treatment center or state-operated nursing home receives.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 252.025, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. State hospitals for persons with mental retardation shall be established and maintained at ~~Faribault~~, Cambridge and Brainerd and until June 30, 1998, at Faribault, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary they shall be respectively known as the Faribault regional center, the Cambridge regional human services center, and the Brainerd regional human services center. Each of the foregoing state hospitals shall also be known by the name of regional center at the discretion of the commissioner of human services. The terms "human services" or "treatment" may be included in the designation.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 252.025, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [SERVICES FOR DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS; FARIBAULT REGIONAL CENTER CATCHMENT AREA.] (a) This section governs the downsizing of the Faribault regional center (FRC). As residents are discharged from the Faribault regional center, the buildings will be transferred to the department of corrections, and the department of human services will develop a system of state-operated services that: (1) meets the needs of clients discharged from the Faribault regional center; (2) is fiscally sound; and (3) accommodates the evolving nature of the health care system.

(b) The Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault (MCF-FRB) shall expand its existing capacity by 300 beds. The department of human services shall transfer buildings related to this expansion according to agreements between the department of corrections and the Faribault community task force, established pursuant to section 252.51, no sooner than September 1, 1994.

After the city of Faribault has held a public hearing, the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault may subsequently proceed with expansion of its capacity by an additional 300 beds, on or after a date when the commissioner of human services certifies that the Faribault regional center campus will be vacated because alternative community-based services, including those developed by the department of human services in accordance with subdivision 9, will be available for the remaining residents of the Faribault regional center. The actual date on which the remainder of the Faribault regional center campus will be transferred to the commissioner of corrections shall be determined by mutual agreement between the commissioners of human services and corrections, after consultation with the exclusive representatives and the Faribault community task force. In no event shall the total capacity of the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault exceed 1,200 beds, and the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault shall not include any maximum security beds. The transfer of the Faribault regional center campus to the commissioner of corrections shall occur no sooner than July 1, 1998, unless negotiated with the exclusive representatives and community task force.

(c) The department of corrections shall provide necessary and appropriate modifications to road access on the Faribault regional center campus within the available appropriation. The city of Faribault shall not bear any cost of such modifications.

The department of corrections shall request necessary appropriations in future legislative sessions to provide necessary and appropriate modifications to the water-sewage system used by the Faribault regional center, the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault, and the city of Faribault. The city of Faribault shall not bear any cost of such modifications.

(d) No sooner than July 1, 1995, the Faribault regional center shall transfer the operation of its power plant to the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault contingent upon the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault receiving a state appropriation for the full cost of necessary positions. The Faribault regional center employees in positions assigned to the power plant as of the transfer date shall be allowed to transfer to the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault or exercise their memorandum of understanding options. All employees who transfer shall retain their current classification, employment condition, and salary upon such transfer.

(e) Prior to the transfer of the Faribault regional center laundry to the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault, the Faribault regional center shall decrease laundry positions as the Faribault regional center resident population declines. However, the department of human services and the Faribault regional center laundry management shall actively pursue additional shared service contracts to offset any involuntary position reductions in the laundry. The additional laundry work done as a result of the initial 300-bed corrections expansion will also be used to offset any involuntary position reductions. Further expansion of corrections beds and the resultant increased laundry will also be used to offset any involuntary reductions. If, after the above, position reductions are necessary, they shall occur pursuant to the memorandum of understanding between the state, the department of human services, and the exclusive representatives.

Upon the transfer of the Faribault regional center campus to the commissioner of corrections, the Faribault regional center may transfer the laundry to the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault. If the transfer occurs, the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault shall operate the laundry as a prison industry. The Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault shall maintain existing shared service contracts. The shared service positions shall be maintained by the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault unless shared service income does not support these positions. If such positions are to be eliminated, such elimination shall be pursuant to the memorandum of understanding. However, other than specified above, the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault shall only eliminate positions through attrition.

All Faribault regional center employees assigned to the laundry as of the transfer date shall be allowed to transfer to the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault or exercise their memorandum of understanding options. All employees who transfer shall retain their current classification, employment condition, and salary upon such transfer.

(f) In consultation with the applicable exclusive representatives, the departments of corrections, human services, and employee relations shall establish training programs to enhance the opportunity of the Faribault regional center employees to obtain positions beyond entry level at the Minnesota correctional facility at Faribault. While participating in this training, individuals shall remain on the Faribault regional center payroll and the department of human services shall seek a legislative appropriation for this purpose. The department of corrections shall seek a legislative appropriation for retraining the Faribault regional center employees.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 252.025, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [SOUTHERN CITIES COMMUNITY HEALTH CLINIC.] The department of human services shall consult with the Faribault community task force and the exclusive representatives before making any decisions about:

- (1) the future of the Southern Cities Community Health Clinic;
- (2) the services currently provided by that clinic to developmentally disabled clients in the Faribault regional center catchment area; and
- (3) changes in the model for providing those services.

The department of human services shall guarantee the provision of medically necessary psychiatric and dental services to developmentally disabled clients in the Faribault service area until or unless other appropriate arrangements have been made to provide those clients with those services.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 252.025, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [STATE-OPERATED SERVICES IN THE FARIBAULT CATCHMENT AREA.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 4, and in addition to the programs already developed, the department of human services shall establish the following state-operated, community-based programs in the Faribault regional center catchment area:

- (1) state-operated community residential services to serve as a primary provider for 40 current residents of the Faribault regional center whose clinical symptoms or behaviors make them difficult to serve. Those state-operated, community-based residential services shall be configured as ten four-bed waived services homes. The program configuration may be modified in accordance with paragraph (c).

Beginning July 1, 1995, in addition to the residential services for those 40 clients, the department of human services agrees to seek legislation to develop and establish state-operated, community-based residential services for any other current residents of the Faribault regional center for whom the commissioner of human services finds that respective counties of financial responsibility are unable to find appropriate residential services operated by private providers. Counties shall give the strongest possible consideration to the placement preference of clients and families;

(2) a minimum of four state-operated day training and habilitation facilities for persons leaving the Faribault regional center as the result of downsizing and for other individuals referred by county agencies;

Subd. 6. [VARIANCES.] (a) A variance from the minimum or maximum payment rates in subdivisions 2 and 3 may be granted by the commissioner when the vendor requests and the county board submits to the commissioner a written variance request on forms supplied by the commissioner with the recommended payment rates. A variance to the rate maximum may be utilized for costs associated with compliance with state administrative rules, compliance with court orders, capital costs required for continued licensure, increased insurance costs, start-up and conversion costs for supported employment, direct service staff salaries and benefits, transportation, and other program related costs when any of the criteria in clauses (1) to ~~(3)~~ (4) is also met:

(1) change is necessary to comply with licensing citations;

(2) a licensed vendor currently serving fewer than 70 persons with payment rates of 80 percent or less of the statewide average rates and with clients meeting the behavioral or medical criteria under clause (3) approved by the commissioner as a significant program change under section 252.28;

(3) a significant change is approved by the commissioner under section 252.28 that is necessary to provide authorized services to a new client or clients with very severe self-injurious or assaultive behavior, or medical conditions requiring delivery of physician-prescribed medical interventions requiring one-to-one staffing for at least 15 minutes each time they are performed, or to a new client or clients directly discharged to the vendor's program from a regional treatment center; or

~~(3) a significant increase in the average level of staffing is needed (4) there is a need to maintain required staffing levels in order to provide authorized services approved by the commissioner under section 252.28, that is necessitated by a significant and permanent decrease in licensed capacity or loss of clientele when counties choose alternative services under Laws 1992, chapter 513, article 9, section 41.~~

The county shall review the adequacy of services provided by vendors whose payment rates are 80 percent or more of the statewide average rates and 50 percent or more of the vendor's clients meet the behavioral or medical criteria in paragraph (a), clause (3).

A variance under this paragraph may be approved only if the costs to the medical assistance program do not exceed the medical assistance costs for all clients served by the alternatives and all clients remaining in the existing services.

(b) A variance to the rate minimum may be granted when (1) the county board contracts for increased services from a vendor and for some or all individuals receiving services from the vendor lower per unit fixed costs result or (2) when the actual costs of delivering authorized service over a 12-month contract period have decreased.

(c) The written variance request under this subdivision must include documentation that all the following criteria have been met:

(1) The commissioner and the county board have both conducted a review and have identified a need for a change in the payment rates and recommended an effective date for the change in the rate.

(2) The vendor documents efforts to reallocate current staff and any additional staffing needs cannot be met by using temporary special needs rate exceptions under Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140.

(3) The vendor documents that financial resources have been reallocated before applying for a variance. No variance may be granted for equipment, supplies, or other capital expenditures when depreciation expense for repair and replacement of such items is part of the current rate.

(4) For variances related to loss of clientele, the vendor documents the other program and administrative expenses, if any, that have been reduced.

(5) The county board submits verification of the conditions for which the variance is requested, a description of the nature and cost of the proposed changes, and how the county will monitor the use of money by the vendor to make necessary changes in services.

(6) The county board's recommended payment rates do not exceed 95 percent of the greater of 125 percent of the current statewide median or 125 percent of the regional average payment rates, whichever is higher, for each of the regional commission districts under sections 462.381 to 462.396 in which the vendor is located except for the following: when a variance is recommended to allow authorized service delivery to new clients with severe self-injurious or assaultive behaviors or with medical conditions requiring delivery of physician prescribed medical interventions, or to persons being directly discharged from a regional treatment center to the vendor's program, those persons must be assigned a payment rate of 200 percent of the current statewide average rates. All other clients receiving services from the vendor must be assigned a payment rate equal to the vendor's current rate unless the vendor's current rate exceeds 95 percent of 125 percent of the statewide median or 125 percent of the regional average payment rates, whichever is higher. When the vendor's rates exceed 95 percent of 125 percent of the statewide median or 125 percent of the regional average rates, the maximum rates assigned to all other clients must be equal to the greater of 95 percent of 125 percent of the statewide median or 125 percent of the regional average rates. The maximum payment rate that may be recommended for the vendor under these conditions is determined by multiplying the number of clients at each limit by the rate corresponding to that limit and then dividing the sum by the total number of clients.

(7) The vendor has not received a variance under this subdivision in the past 12 months.

(d) The commissioner shall have 60 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the complete request to accept or reject it, or the request shall be deemed to have been granted. If the commissioner rejects the request, the commissioner shall state in writing the specific objections to the request and the reasons for its rejection.

To appeal, the vendor and county board must file a written notice of appeal with the commissioner. The notice of appeal must be postmarked within 45 days of the postmark date on the commissioner's notification to the vendor and county agency that a variance request or county recommended rate has been denied. The notice of appeal must specify the reasons for the appeal, the dollar amount in dispute, and the basis in statute or rule for challenging the commissioner's decision.

Within 45 days of receipt of the notice of appeal, the commissioner must convene a reconciliation conference to attempt to resolve the rate dispute. If the dispute is not resolved to the satisfaction of the parties, the commissioner shall initiate a contested case proceeding under sections 14.57 to 14.69. In a contested case hearing held under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner incorrectly applied the governing law or regulations, or that the commissioner improperly exercised the commissioner's discretion, in refusing to grant a variance or in refusing to adopt a county recommended rate.

In any case coming within this exception, the county attorney shall apply to the designated county agency in the county in which the acquittal took place for a preliminary investigation unless substantially the same information relevant to the proposed patient's current mental condition as could be obtained by a preliminary investigation is part of the court record in the criminal proceeding or is contained in the report of a mental examination conducted in connection with the criminal proceeding. The designated agency shall appoint a screening team to conduct an investigation which shall include:

(i) a personal interview with the proposed patient and other individuals who appear to have knowledge of the condition of the proposed patient. If the proposed patient is not interviewed, reasons must be documented;

(d) The prepetition screening team shall refuse to support a petition if the investigation does not disclose evidence sufficient to support commitment. Notice of the prepetition screening team's decision shall be provided to the prospective petitioner.

(e) If the interested person wishes to proceed with a petition contrary to the recommendation of the prepetition screening team, application may be made directly to the county attorney, who may determine whether or not to proceed with the petition. Notice of the county attorney's determination shall be provided to the interested party.

(f) When the proposed patient has been acquitted of a crime under section 611.026, the county attorney shall file a petition for commitment pursuant to subdivision 2. In any case coming within this exception, the county attorney shall apply to the designated county agency in the county in which the acquittal took place for a preliminary investigation unless substantially the same information relevant to the proposed patient's current mental condition as could be obtained by a preliminary investigation is part of the court record in the criminal proceeding or is contained in the report of a mental examination conducted in connection with the criminal proceeding. If a court petitions for commitment pursuant to the rules of criminal procedure or a county attorney petitions pursuant to acquittal of a criminal charge under section 611.026, the prepetition investigation, if required by this section, shall be completed within seven days after the filing of the petition.

(g) The prepetition screening report must be distributed to the proposed patient, patient's counsel, the county attorney, any person authorized by the patient, and any other person as the court directs.

(h) The prepetition screening report is not admissible in any court proceedings unrelated to the commitment proceedings. This paragraph does not affect the admissibility of the information contained in the report.

Subd. 2. [THE PETITION.] Any interested person may file a petition for commitment in the ~~probate~~ district court of the county of the proposed patient's residence or presence. The county attorney has the sole discretion to present and pursue a petition for civil commitment. Following an acquittal of a person of a criminal charge under section 611.026, the petition shall be filed by the county attorney of the county in which the acquittal took place and the petition shall be filed with the court in which the acquittal took place, and that court shall be the committing court for purposes of this chapter. The petition shall set forth the name and address of the proposed patient, the name and address of the patient's nearest relatives, and the reasons for the petition. The petition must contain factual descriptions of the proposed patient's recent behavior, including a description of the behavior, where it occurred, and over what period of time it occurred. Each factual allegation must be supported by observations of witnesses named in the petition. Petitions shall be stated in behavioral terms and shall not contain judgmental or conclusory statements. The petition shall be accompanied by a written statement by an examiner stating that the examiner has examined the proposed patient within the 15 days preceding the filing of the petition and is of the opinion that the proposed patient is suffering a designated disability and should be committed to a treatment facility. The statement shall include the reasons for the opinion. If a petitioner has been unable to secure a statement from an examiner, the petition shall include documentation that a reasonable effort has been made to secure the supporting statement.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [ORDER RESTRICTING ACCESS TO PETITION.] For good cause, the county attorney may secure an ex parte order prior to the first court hearing to restrict dissemination of the petition and related information to parties other than the patient or the patient's counsel until the court hearing.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PREHEARING EXAMINATION: NOTICE AND SUMMONS PROCEDURE.] A summons to appear for a prehearing examination and the commitment hearing shall be served upon the proposed patient. A plain language notice of the proceedings and notice of the filing of the petition, a copy of the petition, a copy of the examiner's supporting statement, and the order for examination and a copy of the prepetition screening report shall be given to the proposed patient, patient's counsel, the petitioner, any interested person, and any other persons as the court directs. All papers shall be served personally on the proposed patient. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the notice shall be served on the proposed patient by a nonuniformed person.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] (a) The court shall find the facts specifically, separately state its conclusions of law, and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment. Where commitment is ordered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically state the proposed patient's conduct which is a basis for determining that each of the requisites for commitment is met.

(b) If commitment is ordered, the findings shall also include a listing of less restrictive alternatives considered and rejected by the court and the reasons for rejecting each alternative.

(c) If the prepetition screening team has determined that a patient is not competent to consent to the administration of neuroleptic medication but would not object to or refuse the administration of neuroleptic medication, the court may, at the time of commitment, appoint a guardian ad litem for purposes of section 253B.03, subdivision 6c, paragraph (c), clause (3).

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT.] Prior to the termination of the initial commitment order or final discharge of the patient, the head of the facility shall file a written report with the committing court with a copy to the patient and patient's counsel, setting forth in detailed narrative form at least the following:

- (1) the diagnosis of the patient with the supporting data;
- (2) the anticipated discharge date;
- (3) an individualized treatment plan;
- (4) a detailed description of the discharge planning process with suggested after care plan;
- (5) whether the patient is in need of further care and treatment with evidence to support the response;
- (6) whether any further care and treatment must be provided in a treatment facility with evidence to support the response;
- (7) whether in the opinion of the head of the facility the patient must continue to be committed to a treatment facility; and
- (8) whether in the opinion of the head of the facility the patient satisfies the statutory requirement for continued commitment, with documentation to support the opinion; and
- (9) whether the administration of neuroleptic medication is clinically indicated, whether the patient is able to give informed consent to that medication, and the basis for these opinions.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 253B.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable. ~~A patient committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to sections 253B.08, 253B.09, 253B.12, and 253B.18.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 525.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The court may appoint a guardian of the person if it determines that all the powers and duties listed in this subdivision are needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person. The court may appoint a conservator of the person if it determines that a conservator is needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person through the exercise of some, but not all, of the powers and duties listed in this subdivision. The duties and powers of a guardian or those which the court may grant to a conservator of the person include, but are not limited to:

(1) The power to have custody of the ward or conservatee and the power to establish a place of abode within or without the state, except as otherwise provided in this clause. The ward or conservatee or any person interested in the ward's or conservatee's welfare may petition the court to prevent or to initiate a change in abode. A ward or conservatee may not be admitted to a regional treatment center by the guardian or conservator except (1) after a hearing pursuant to chapter 253B; (2) for outpatient services; or (3) for the purpose of receiving temporary care for a specific period of time not to exceed 90 days in any calendar year.

(2) The duty to provide for the ward's or conservatee's care, comfort and maintenance needs, including food, clothing, shelter, health care, social and recreational requirements, and, whenever appropriate, training, education, and habilitation or rehabilitation. The guardian or conservator has no duty to pay for these requirements out of personal funds. Whenever possible and appropriate, the guardian or conservator should meet these requirements through governmental benefits or services to which the ward or conservatee is entitled, rather than from the ward's or conservatee's estate. Failure to satisfy the needs and requirements of this clause shall be grounds for removal of a private guardian or conservator, but the guardian or conservator shall have no personal or monetary liability.

(3) The duty to take reasonable care of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects, and, if other property requires protection, the power to seek appointment of a guardian or conservator of the estate. The guardian or conservator must give notice in the manner required and to those persons specified in section 525.55 prior to the disposition of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles, or other personal effects. The notice must inform the person of the right to object to the disposition of the property within ten days and to petition the court for a review of the guardian's or conservator's proposed actions. Notice of the objection must be served by mail or personal service on the guardian or conservator and the ward or conservatee unless the ward or conservatee be the objector. The guardian or conservator served with notice of an objection to the disposition of the property may not dispose of the property unless the court approves the disposition after a hearing.

(4)(a) The power to give any necessary consent to enable the ward or conservatee to receive necessary medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment or service, ~~except that~~ including neuroleptic medication. No guardian or conservator may give consent for psychosurgery, electroshock, sterilization, or experimental treatment of any kind unless the procedure is first approved by order of the court as provided in this clause. The guardian or conservator shall not consent to any medical care for the ward or conservatee which violates the known conscientious, religious, or moral belief of the ward or conservatee.

(b) A guardian or conservator who believes a procedure described in clause (4)(a) requiring prior court approval to be necessary for the proper care of the ward or conservatee shall petition the court for an order and, in the case of a public guardianship or conservatorship under chapter 252A, obtain the written recommendation of the commissioner of human services. The court shall fix the time and place for the hearing and shall give notice to the ward or conservatee and to the other persons specified in section 525.55, subdivision 1. The notice shall comply with the requirements of, and be served in the manner provided in section 525.55, subdivision 2. The court shall appoint an attorney to represent the ward or conservatee who is not represented by counsel. In every case the court shall determine if the procedure is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. In making its determination, the court shall consider a written medical report which specifically considers the medical risks of the procedure, whether alternative, less restrictive methods of treatment could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee, and any recommendation of the commissioner of human services for a public ward or conservatee. The standard of proof is that of clear and convincing evidence.

(c) In the case of a petition for sterilization of a mentally retarded ward or conservatee, the court shall appoint a licensed physician, a psychologist who is qualified in the diagnosis and treatment of mental retardation, and a social worker who is familiar with the ward's or conservatee's social history and adjustment or the case manager for the ward or conservatee to examine or evaluate the ward or conservatee and to provide written reports to the court. The reports shall indicate why sterilization is being proposed, whether sterilization is necessary and is the least intrusive method for alleviating the problem presented, and whether it is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. The medical report shall specifically consider the medical risks of sterilization, the consequences of not performing the sterilization, and whether alternative methods of contraception could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee.

(d) Any conservatee whose right to consent to a sterilization has not been restricted under this section or section 252A.101, may be sterilized only if the conservatee consents in writing or there is a sworn acknowledgment by an interested person of a nonwritten consent by the conservatee. The consent must certify that the conservatee has received a full explanation from a physician or registered nurse of the nature and irreversible consequences of the sterilization operation.

(e) A guardian or conservator or the public guardian's designee who acts within the scope of authority conferred by letters of guardianship under section 252A.101, subdivision 7, and according to the standards established in this chapter or in chapter 252A shall not be civilly or criminally liable for the provision of any necessary medical care, including but not limited to, the administration of psychotropic medication or the implementation of aversive and deprivation procedures to which the guardian or conservator or the public guardian's designee has consented.

(5) The power to approve or withhold approval of any contract, except for necessities, which the ward or conservatee may make or wish to make.

(6) The duty and power to exercise supervisory authority over the ward or conservatee in a manner which limits civil rights and restricts personal freedom only to the extent necessary to provide needed care and services.

Sec. 14. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the words "probate court" to "district court," where appropriate, in Minnesota Statutes 1994 and subsequent editions of the statutes.

ARTICLE 6

PUBLIC HEALTH

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 16B.75, is amended to read:

16B.75 [INTERSTATE COMPACT ON INDUSTRIALIZED/MODULAR BUILDINGS.]

The state of Minnesota ratifies and approves the following compact:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON INDUSTRIALIZED/MODULAR BUILDINGS

ARTICLE I

FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS OF POLICY

(1) The compacting states find that:

(a) Industrialized/modular buildings are constructed in factories in the various states and are a growing segment of the nation's affordable housing and commercial building stock.

(b) The regulation of industrialized/modular buildings varies from state to state and locality to locality, which creates confusion and burdens state and local building officials and the industrialized/modular building industry.

(c) Regulation by multiple jurisdictions imposes additional costs, which are ultimately borne by the owners and users of industrialized/modular buildings, restricts market access and discourages the development and incorporation of new technologies.

(2) It is the policy of each of the compacting states to:

(a) Provide the states which regulate the design and construction of industrialized/modular buildings with a program to coordinate and uniformly adopt and administer the states' rules and regulations for such buildings, all in a manner to assure interstate reciprocity.

(b) Provide to the United States Congress assurances that would preclude the need for a voluntary preemptive federal regulatory system for modular housing, as outlined in Section 572 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, including development of model standards for modular housing construction, such that design and performance will insure quality, durability and safety; will be in accordance with life-cycle cost-effective energy conservation standards; all to promote the lowest total construction and operating costs over the life of such housing.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Commission" means the interstate industrialized/modular buildings commission.

(2) "Industrialized/modular building" means any building which is of closed construction, i.e. constructed in such a manner that concealed parts or processes of manufacture cannot be inspected at the site, without disassembly, damage or destruction, and which is made or assembled in manufacturing facilities, off the building site, for installation, or assembly and installation, on the building site. "Industrialized/modular building" includes, but is not limited to, modular housing which is factory-built single-family and multi-family housing (including closed wall panelized housing) and other modular, nonresidential buildings. "Industrialized/modular building" does not include any structure subject to the requirements of the National Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974.

(3) "Interim reciprocal agreement" means a formal reciprocity agreement between a noncompacting state wherein the noncompacting state agrees that labels evidencing compliance with the model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings, as authorized in Article VIII, section (9), shall be accepted by the state and its subdivisions to permit installation and use of industrialized/modular buildings. Further, the noncompacting state agrees that by legislation or regulation, and appropriate enforcement by uniform administrative procedures, the noncompacting state requires all industrialized/modular building manufacturers within that state to comply with the model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings.

(4) "State" means a state of the United States, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(5) "Uniform administrative procedures" means the procedures adopted by the commission (after consideration of any recommendations from the rules development committee) which state and local officials, and other parties, in one state, will utilize to assure state and local officials, and other parties, in other states, of the substantial compliance of industrialized/modular building construction with the construction standard of requirements of such other states; to assess the adequacy of building systems; and to verify and assure the competency and performance of evaluation and inspection agencies.

(6) "Model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings" means the construction standards adopted by the commission (after consideration of any recommendations from the rules development committee) which govern the design, manufacture, handling, storage, delivery and installation of industrialized/modular buildings and building components. The construction standards and any amendments thereof shall conform insofar as practicable to model building codes and referenced standards generally accepted and in use throughout the United States.

ARTICLE III

CREATION OF COMMISSION

The compacting states hereby create the Interstate Industrialized/Modular Buildings Commission, hereinafter called commission. Said commission shall be a body corporate of each compacting state and an agency thereof. The commission shall have all the powers and duties set forth herein and such additional powers as may be conferred upon it by subsequent action of the respective legislatures of the compacting states.

The commissioner may designate another official as an alternate to act on behalf of the commissioner at commission meetings which the commissioner is unable to attend.

Each state commissioner shall be appointed, suspended, or removed and shall serve subject to and in accordance with the laws of the state which said commissioner represents; and each vacancy occurring shall be filled in accordance with the laws of the state wherein the vacancy exists.

The ratio between state commissioners and representative commissioners shall be three to one.~~ In the event states withdraw from the compact or, for any other reason, the number of state commissioners is reduced, the state commissioners shall remove the last added representative commissioner as necessary to maintain a the ratio of state commissioners to representative commissioners of ~~three to one~~ described herein.

Upon a majority vote of the state commissioners, the state commissioners may remove, fill a vacancy created by, or replace any representative commissioner, provided that any replacement is made from the same representative group and a ~~three to one ratio~~ the ratio described herein is maintained. Unless provided otherwise, the representative commissioners have the same authority and responsibility as the state commissioners.

In addition, the commission may have as a member one commissioner representing the United States government if federal law authorizes such representation. Such commissioner shall not vote on matters before the commission. Such commissioner shall be appointed by the President of the United States, or in such other manner as may be provided by Congress.

Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the compacting states. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the compacting states as follows: one-half in equal shares; one-fourth among the compacting states in accordance with the ratio of their populations to the total population of the compacting states, based on the last decimal federal census; and one-fourth among the compacting states in accordance with the ratio of industrialized/modular building units manufactured in each state to the total of all units manufactured in all of the compacting states.

The commission shall not pledge the credit of any compacting state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it by donations, grants, or sale of labels: provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. The Honorable Allan H. Spear

The Honorable Irv Anderson
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 2710, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 2710 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 16B.61, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS.] (a) [SPACE FOR COMMUTER VANS.] The code must require that any parking ramp or other parking facility constructed in accordance with the code include an appropriate number of spaces suitable for the parking of motor vehicles having a capacity of seven to 16 persons and which are principally used to provide prearranged commuter transportation of employees to or from their place of employment or to or from a transit stop authorized by a local transit authority.

(b) [SMOKE DETECTION DEVICES.] The code must require that all dwellings, lodging houses, apartment houses, and hotels as defined in section 299F.362 comply with the provisions of section 299F.362.

(c) [DOORS IN NURSING HOMES AND HOSPITALS.] The state building code may not require that each door entering a sleeping or patient's room from a corridor in a nursing home or hospital with an approved complete standard automatic fire extinguishing system be constructed or maintained as self-closing or automatically closing.

(d) [CHILD CARE FACILITIES IN CHURCHES; GROUND LEVEL EXIT.] A licensed day care center serving fewer than 30 preschool age persons and which is located in a below ground space in a church building is exempt from the state building code requirement for a ground level exit when the center has more than two stairways to the ground level and its exit.

(e) [CHILD CARE FACILITIES IN CHURCHES; VERTICAL ACCESS.] Until August 1, 1996, an organization providing child care in an existing church building which is exempt from taxation under section 272.02, subdivision 1, clause (5), shall have five years from the date of initial licensure under chapter 245A to provide interior vertical access, such as an elevator, to persons with disabilities as required by the state building code. To obtain the extension, the organization providing child care must secure a $2,500 performance bond with the commissioner of human services to ensure that interior vertical access is achieved by the agreed upon date.

(f) [FAMILY AND GROUP FAMILY DAY CARE.] The commissioner of administration shall establish a task force to determine occupancy standards specific and appropriate to family and group family day care homes and to examine hindrances to establishing day care facilities in rural Minnesota. The task force must include representatives from rural and urban building code inspectors, rural and urban fire code inspectors, rural and urban county day care licensing units, rural and urban family and group family day care providers and consumers, child care advocacy groups, and the departments of administration, human services, and public safety.

By January 1, 1989, the commissioner of administration shall report the task force findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees together with proposals for legislative action on the recommendations.

Until the legislature enacts legislation specifying appropriate standards, the definition of Group R-3 occupancies in the state building code applies to family and group family day care homes licensed by the department of human services under Minnesota Rules, chapter 9502.

(g) [MINED UNDERGROUND SPACE.] Nothing in the state building codes shall prevent cities from adopting rules governing the excavation, construction, reconstruction, alteration, and repair of mined underground space pursuant to sections 469.135 to 469.141, or of associated facilities in the space once the space has been created, provided the intent of the building code to establish reasonable safeguards for health, safety, welfare, comfort, and security is maintained.

(h) [ENCLOSED STAIRWAYS.] No provision of the code or any appendix chapter of the code may require stairways of existing multiple dwelling buildings of two stories or less to be enclosed.

(i) [DOUBLE CYLINDER DEAD BOLT LOCKS.] No provision of the code or appendix chapter of the code may prohibit double cylinder dead bolt locks in existing single-family homes, townhouses, and first floor duplexes used exclusively as a residential dwelling. Any recommendation or promotion of double cylinder dead bolt locks must include a warning about their potential fire danger and procedures to minimize the danger.

(j) [RELOCATED RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS.] A residential building relocated within or into a political subdivision of the state need not comply with the state energy code or section 326.371 provided that, where available, an energy audit is conducted on the relocated building.

(k) [AUTOMATIC GARAGE DOOR OPENING SYSTEMS.] The code must require all residential buildings as defined in section 325F.82 to comply with the provisions of sections 325F.82 and 325F.83.

(l) [EXIT SIGN ILLUMINATION.] For a new building on which construction is begun on or after October 1, 1993, or an existing building on which remodeling affecting 50 percent or more of the enclosed space is begun on or after October 1, 1993, the code must prohibit the use of internally illuminated exit signs whose electrical consumption during nonemergency operation exceeds 20 watts of resistive power. All other requirements in the code for exit signs must be complied with.

(m) [RESIDENTIAL WORK.] By January 1, 1996, the commissioner of administration shall develop building code provisions in accordance with the directives and provisions developed under section 144.874, subdivision 11a.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.871, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ABATEMENT.] "Abatement" means ~~removal of, replacement of, or encapsulation of deteriorated paint, bare soil, dust, drinking water, or other lead-containing materials that are or may become readily accessible during the lead abatement process and pose an immediate threat of actual lead exposure to people~~ any set of procedures designed to eliminate or reduce human exposure to lead hazards.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [LEAD HAZARD.] "Lead hazard" means a condition that causes exposure to lead from lead-contaminated dust, lead-contaminated bare soil, lead-contaminated drinking water, lead-contaminated deteriorating paint, or lead-contaminated intact paint on accessible, friction, or impact surfaces that poses an immediate threat that would result in adverse human health effects.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144.871, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ABATEMENT CONTRACTOR.] "Abatement contractor" means any person hired by a property owner or resident to perform abatement of a lead source in violation of standards under section 144.878 and who is licensed by the commissioner according to rules adopted under section 144.878, subdivision 5.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [DETERIORATED PAINT.] "Deteriorated paint" or "deteriorating paint" means paint that is chipped, peeled, or otherwise separated from its substrate or that is attached to damaged substrate.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.872, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOME ASSESSMENTS CONTRACTS.] (a) The commissioner shall, within available federal or state appropriations, contract with boards of health, who may determine priority for responding to cases of elevated blood lead levels, to conduct assessments to determine sources of lead contamination in the residences of pregnant women whose blood lead levels are at least ten micrograms per deciliter and of children whose blood lead levels are at least 20 micrograms per deciliter or whose blood lead levels persist in the range of 15 to 19 micrograms per deciliter for 90 days after initial identification to the board of health or the commissioner. Assessments must be conducted within five working days of the board of health receiving notice that the criteria in this subdivision have been met. The commissioner or boards of health must be notified of all violations of standards under section 144.878, subdivision 2, that are identified during a home assessment in accordance with section 144.878.

(b) The commissioner or boards of health must identify the known addresses for the previous 12 months of the child or pregnant woman with elevated blood lead levels and notify the property owners at those addresses. The commissioner may also collect information on the race, sex, and family income of children and pregnant women with elevated blood lead levels.

(c) Within the limits of appropriations, a board of health shall conduct home assessments for children and pregnant women whose confirmed blood lead levels are in the range of ten to 19 micrograms per deciliter.

(d) The commissioner shall also provide educational materials on all sources of lead to boards of health to provide education on ways of reducing the danger of lead contamination. The commissioner may provide laboratory or field lead testing equipment to a board of health or may reimburse a board of health for direct costs associated with assessments.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.872, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LEAD CLEANUP EQUIPMENT AND MATERIAL GRANTS.]

(a) Within the limits of available state or federal appropriations, funds shall be made available under a grant program to nonprofit community-based organizations in areas at high risk for toxic lead exposure. Grantees shall use the money to purchase lead cleanup equipment and to pay for training for staff and volunteers for lead abatement certification. Grantees may work with licensed lead abatement contractors and ~~certified trainers~~ sponsors of approved training courses in order to receive training necessary for certification under section 144.876, subdivision 1. Lead cleanup equipment shall include: high efficiency particle accumulator and wet vacuum cleaners, drop cloths, secure containers, respirators, scrapers, dust and particle containment material, and other cleanup and containment materials to remove loose paint and plaster, patch plaster, control household dust, wax floors, clean carpets and sidewalks, and cover bare soil.

(b) Upon certification, the grantee's staff and volunteers may make equipment and educational materials available to residents and property owners and instruct them on the proper use. Equipment shall be made available to low-income households on a priority basis at no fee, and other households on a sliding fee scale. Equipment shall not be made available to any person, ~~licensed lead abatement contractor, or certified trainer~~ who charges or intends to charge a fee for services performed using equipment or materials purchased by a nonprofit community-based organization through a grant obtained under this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.873, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT REQUIRED.] Medical laboratories performing blood lead analyses must report to the commissioner finger stick and venipuncture blood lead results and the method used to obtain these results. Boards of health must report to the commissioner the results of analyses from residential samples of paint, soil, dust, and drinking water. The commissioner shall require the type of blood sample tested and the date of the test, and the current address and birthdate of the patient, the gender and race of the patient, and other related information from medical laboratories and boards of health as may be needed to monitor and evaluate blood lead levels in the public. Clinic staff and physicians who collect blood samples for lead analyses must provide the information in this subdivision to the medical laboratory performing the analyses. If a clinic or physician sends a blood lead test to a medical laboratory outside of Minnesota, that clinic or physician must meet the reporting requirements under this subdivision.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.874, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENCE ASSESSMENT.] (a) A board of health must conduct a ~~timely~~ an assessment of a residence ~~and all common areas, if the residence is located in a building with two or more residential units,~~ within ~~five~~ ten working days of receiving notification that the criteria in this subdivision have been met, as confirmed by lead analysis of a venous blood sample, to determine sources of lead exposure if:

(1) a pregnant woman in the residence is identified as having a blood lead level of at least ten micrograms of lead per deciliter of whole blood;

(2) a child in the residence is identified as having a blood lead level at or above 20 micrograms per deciliter; or

(3) a child in the residence is identified as having a blood lead level that persists in the range of 15 to 19 micrograms per deciliter for 90 days after initial identification. In a building with two or more residential units, a board of health must inspect the individual unit in which the conditions of this subdivision are met and must also inspect all common areas in the building. Assessments must be conducted by a board of health regardless of the availability of state or federal appropriations for assessments.

(b) Within the limits of available state and federal appropriations, a board of health shall also conduct home assessments for children whose confirmed blood lead levels are in the range of ten to 19 micrograms per deciliter. A board of health may assess a residence even if none of the three criteria in this subdivision are met.

(c) If a child regularly spends several hours at one or more other sites such as another residence, or a residential or commercial child care facility, the board of health must also assess the other sites. The board of health shall have one additional day to complete the assessment for each additional site.

(d) ~~Sections 144.871 to 144.879 neither authorize nor prohibit a board of health from charging a property owner for the cost of assessment. The commissioner or boards of health must identify the known addresses for the previous 12 months of the child or pregnant woman with elevated blood lead levels and notify the property owners at those addresses. This information shall be classified as private data on individuals as defined under section 13.02, subdivision 12.~~

(e) The board of health must conduct the residential assessment according to rules adopted by the commissioner under section 144.878. A board of health must have residence assessments performed by lead inspectors licensed by the commissioner according to rules adopted under section 144.878. A board of health may observe the performance of lead abatement in progress and may enforce the provisions of sections 144.871 to 144.879 under section 144.8781. The staff complement of the department of health shall be increased by two full-time equivalent positions who shall be lead inspectors.

(f) A lead inspector must notify the commissioner or the board of health of all violations under section 144.878, subdivision 2, that are identified in a residence assessment under this section.

(g) The commissioner may provide laboratory or field lead testing equipment to a board of health or may reimburse a board of health for direct costs associated with assessments.

(h) Sections 144.871 to 144.879 neither authorize nor prohibit a board of health from charging a property owner for the cost of assessment.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.874, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [~~SWAB TEAMS; LEAD ASSESSMENT; LEAD ABATEMENT ORDERS.~~] A board of health must order a property owner to perform abatement on a lead source that exceeds a standard adopted according to section 144.878 at the residence of a child with an elevated blood lead level or a pregnant woman with a blood lead level of at least ten micrograms per deciliter. If the paint standard under section 144.878 is violated, but the paint is intact, the board of health must not order paint removal unless the intact paint is a known source, or reasonably expected to be a source, of actual lead exposure to a specific person. Before the board of health may order the intact paint to be removed, a reasonable effort must be made to protect the child and preserve the intact paint by the use of guards or other protective devices. Lead abatement orders must require that any source of damage, such as leaking roofs, plumbing, and windows, must be repaired or replaced, as needed, to prevent damage to lead-containing interior surfaces. The board of health is not required to pay for lead abatement. With each lead abatement order, the board of health must coordinate with swab team abatement and provide a residential lead abatement guide.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.874, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [SWAB TEAM SERVICES.] After issuing abatement orders for a residence of a child or pregnant women with elevated blood lead levels, the commissioner or a board of health must send a swab team within five ten working days to the residence to perform swab team services as defined in section 144.871, subdivision 9. If the commissioner or board of health provides swab team services after an assessment, but before the issuance of an abatement order, swab team services do not need to be repeated after the issuance of an abatement order. Swab team services are not considered completed until the reassessment required under subdivision 6 shows no violation of one or more of the standards under section 144.878, subdivision 2. If assessments and abatement orders are conducted at times when weather or soil conditions do not permit the assessment or abatement of lead in soil, the residences shall have their soil assessed and abated, if necessary, at the first opportunity that weather and soil conditions allow.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.874, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [LEAD ABATEMENT AND LEAD-SAFE WORK DIRECTIVES.] (a) In order to achieve statewide consistency in the application of lead abatement standards, the commissioner shall issue program directives that interpret the application of rules under section 144.878 in ambiguous or unusual lead abatement situations. These directives are guidelines to local boards of health. The commissioner shall periodically review the evaluation of lead abatement orders and the program directives to determine if the rules under section 144.878 need to be amended to reflect new understanding of lead abatement practices and methods.

(b) By July 1, 1995, the commissioner shall develop in cooperation with the commissioner of administration provisions, procedures, and directives to define residential remodeling, renovation, installation, and rehabilitation activities that are not lead abatement but may disrupt lead-based paint surfaces. The directives and provisions must define lead-safe procedures for nonlead abatement activities including preparation, cleanup, and disposal procedures. The directives must be based on the different levels and types of work involved and the potential for lead hazards. The directives must address activities including, but not limited to, painting, remodeling, weatherization, installation of cable, wire, plumbing, and gas, and replacement of doors and windows. The commissioners of health and administration shall consult with representatives of builders, weatherization providers, nonprofit rehabilitation organizations, a representative of each of the affected trades, and housing and redevelopment authorities in developing the directives and procedures. This group shall also make recommendations for consumer and contractor education and training. Directives developed under this section are exempt from chapter 14. The commissioner of health shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1995, regarding development of the provisions required under this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.8771, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] (a) An application for a license and for renewal of a license must be on a form provided by the commissioner and be accompanied by:

- (1) the fee set by the commissioner; and
- (2) evidence that the applicant has successfully completed a lead inspection training course approved by the commissioner or, within the previous 180 days, an initial lead inspection training course.

(b) The fee required by this subdivision is waived for an employee of a ~~board of health~~ the federal, state, or local government within Minnesota.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.878, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LEAD STANDARDS AND ABATEMENT METHODS.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing standards and abatement methods for lead in paint, dust, ~~and~~ drinking water, ~~and~~ soil in a manner that protects public health and the environment for all residences, including residences also used for a commercial purpose.

(b) The commissioner shall differentiate between intact paint and deteriorating paint. The commissioner and political subdivisions shall require abatement of intact paint only if the commissioner or political subdivision finds that the intact paint is on a chewable or lead-dust producing surface that is a known source or reasonably expected to be a source of actual lead exposure to a specific person. The commissioner shall work cooperatively with the commissioner of administration to determine which practices under section 144.874, subdivision 11a, may be used for lead-safe work including preparation and cleanup. The commissioner shall work cooperatively with the commissioner of the pollution control agency to develop disposal procedures. In adopting rules under this subdivision, the commissioner shall require the best available technology for lead abatement methods, paint stabilization, and repainting.

(b) (c) The commissioner of health shall adopt standards and abatement methods for lead in bare soil on playgrounds and residential property in a manner to protect public health and the environment. The commissioner shall adopt a maximum standard of 100 parts of lead per million in bare soil, unless it is proven that a different standard provides greater protection of public health.

(e) (d) The commissioner of the pollution control agency shall adopt rules to ensure that removal of exterior lead-based coatings from residential property by abrasive blasting methods is conducted in a manner that protects public health and the environment.

(d) (e) All standards adopted under this subdivision must provide reasonable margins of safety that are consistent with a detailed review of scientific evidence and an emphasis on overprotection rather than underprotection when the scientific evidence is ambiguous. The rules must apply to any individual performing or ordering the performance of lead abatement.

(e) (f) No unit of local government may have an ordinance or regulation governing lead abatement methods for lead in paint, dust, or soil for residences and residential land that require a different lead abatement method than the lead abatement standards established under sections 144.871 to 144.879.

(g) The commissioner shall adopt standards and abatement methods for lead in drinking water in a manner to protect the public health and the environment. The commissioner shall adopt rules for controlling lead in drinking water as contained in Code of Federal Regulations, title 40, part 141. Samples collected for the purposes of lead analysis of drinking water shall be done in accordance with lab certification requirements and analytical techniques specified by the Code of Federal Regulations, title 40, part 141.89.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144.878, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [PRIORITIES FOR RESPONSE ACTION.] The commissioner of health must establish, by publication in the State Register, a priority list of census tracts at high risk for toxic lead exposure for primary prevention response actions. In establishing the list, the commissioner shall award points under this subdivision to each census tract on which information is available. The priority for primary prevention response actions in census tracts at high risk for toxic lead exposure shall be based on the cumulative points awarded to each census tract. A greater number of points means a higher priority. If a tie occurs in the number of points, priority shall be given to the census tract with the higher percentage of population with blood lead levels greater than ten micrograms of lead per deciliter. All local governmental units and boards of health shall follow the priorities under this subdivision. The commissioner shall revise and update the priority list at least every five years. Points shall be awarded to each census tract for each criteria, considered independently, as described in section 144.871, subdivision 7a. Points shall be awarded as follows:

(a) In a census tract where at least 20 children have been screened in the last five years, one point shall be awarded for each ten percent of children who were under six years old at the time they were screened for lead in blood and whose blood lead level exceeds ten micrograms of lead per deciliter. An additional point shall be awarded if one percent of the children had blood levels greater than 20 micrograms per deciliter of blood. Two points shall be awarded to a census tract, where the blood lead screening has been inadequate, that is contiguous with a census tract where more than ten percent of the children under six years of age have blood lead levels exceeding ten micrograms per deciliter.

(b) One point shall be awarded for every five percent of housing that is defined as dilapidated or deteriorated by the planning department or similar agency of the city in which the housing is located. Where data is available by neighborhood or section within a city, the percent of dilapidated or deteriorated housing shall apply equally to each census tract within the neighborhood or section.

(c) One point shall be awarded for every 100 parts per million of lead soil, based on the median soil lead values of foundation soil samples, calculated on 100 parts per million intervals, or fraction thereof. For the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, the commissioner shall use the June 1988 census tract version of the houseside map entitled "Distribution of Houseside Lead Content of Soil-Dust in the Twin Cities," prepared by the Center for Urban and Regional Affairs. Where the map displays a census tract that is crossed by two or more intervals, the commissioner shall make a reasoned determination of the median foundation soil lead value for that tract. Values for census tracts may be updated by surveying the tract according to the procedures under Minnesota Rules, part 4761.0400, subpart 8.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 144.878, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LEAD ABATEMENT CONTRACTORS AND EMPLOYEES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to license lead abatement contractors; to certify employees of lead abatement contractors who perform abatement, and to certify lead abatement trainers who provide lead abatement training for contractors, employees, or other lead abatement trainers. A person who performs painting, renovation, rehabilitation, remodeling, or other residential work that is not lead abatement need not be a licensed lead abatement contractor. By July 1, 1994, a person who performs work that removes intact paint on residences built before February 27, 1978, must determine whether lead sources are present and whether the planned work would be lead abatement as defined in section 144.871, subdivision 2. This determination may be made by quantitative chemical analysis, X-ray fluorescence analyzer, or chemical spot test using sodium rhodizonate. If lead sources are identified, the work must be performed by a licensed lead abatement contractor. An owner of an owner-occupied residence with one or two units is not subject to the requirements under this subdivision. All lead abatement training must include a hands-on component and instruction on the health effects of lead exposure, the use of personal protective equipment, workplace hazards and safety problems, abatement methods and work practices, decontamination procedures, cleanup and waste disposal procedures, lead monitoring and testing methods, and legal rights and responsibilities. The commissioner shall adopt rules to approve lead abatement training courses and to charge a fee for approval. At least 30 days before publishing initial notice of proposed rules under this subdivision on the licensing of lead abatement contractors, the commissioner shall submit the rules to the chairs of the health and human services committee in the house of representatives and the health care committee in the senate, and to any legislative committee on licensing created by the legislature.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 144.878, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [RESIDENTIAL RENOVATION AND REMODELING.] A person who performs painting, renovation, rehabilitation, remodeling, demolition, or other residential work that is not lead abatement need not be a licensed lead abatement contractor. After July 1, 1995, a person who performs work that removes intact paint on residences built before February 27, 1978, must determine whether lead sources are present. This determination may be made by quantitative chemical analysis, X-ray fluorescence analyzer, or chemical spot test using sodium rhodizonate. A person does not have to be licensed as a lead inspector to use sodium rhodizonate for this purpose. If lead sources are identified, the work must be performed in accordance with the standard in section 144.878, subdivision 2, as modified by the program directives developed under section 144.874, subdivision 11a. An owner of an owner-occupied residence with one or two units is not subject to the requirements under this subdivision.

Sec. 18. [144.8782] [EXEMPTIONS.]

The provisions of sections 144.876 and 144.878, subdivision 5, do not apply to homeowners, apartment owners, farmers, and small business persons with 50 or fewer employees who do their own maintenance and remodeling work, or to small contractors, excluding lead abatement contractors. Exemptions under this section also apply to purchasers of one or two unit residences. Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.50, is amended to read:

79.50 [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and

(h) (e) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of this chapter. ~~The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) experience rating plans;

(3) retrospective rating plans;

(4) general expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) minimum premiums;

(6) classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) loss development and trend factors;

(8) the workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(10) imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(11) the rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by ~~the workers' compensation insurers rating association licensed data service organizations; and~~

(12) the supporting data and information required in filings under section 79.56, including but not limited to the experience of the filing insurer and the extent to which the filing insurer relies upon data service organization loss information, descriptions of the actuarial and statistical methods employed in setting rates, and the filing insurers interpretation of any statistical data relied upon; and

(13) any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) ~~competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship;~~

(2) adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation;

(3) (2) encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) (3) assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) (4) requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules, making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section ~~and monitoring the effectiveness of competition; and~~

(6) (5) preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services ~~where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [METHOD OF CALCULATION.] Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further ~~modified~~ increased up to 25 percent or decreased without restriction by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium if the increase or decrease is not unfairly discriminatory. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] ~~No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums~~ Rates and rating plans are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves ~~for the market in question~~, that would accrue to an insurer ~~under the rates and rating plans~~ would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business. The burden is on the insurer to establish that profit is not unreasonably high.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISCOUNTS PERMITTED.] An insurer may offer a discount from scheduled credit or debit to a manual premium calculated pursuant to section 79.53, subdivision 1, if the premium otherwise complies with this section. The commissioner shall not by rule, or otherwise, prohibit a credit or discount from a manual premium solely because it is greater than a certain fixed percentage of the premium.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RATING FACTORS.] In determining whether a rate filing complies with this section, separate consideration shall be given to: (i) past and prospective loss experience within this state and outside this state to the extent necessary to develop credible rates; (ii) dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers; and (iii) a reasonable allowance for expense and profit. An allowance for expense shall be presumed reasonable if it reflects expenses that are 22.5 percent greater or less than the average expense for all insurers writing workers' compensation insurance in this state. An allowance for after-tax profit shall consider anticipated investment income from premium receipts net of disbursements and from allocated surplus, based on the current five-year United States Treasury note yield and an assumed premium to surplus ratio of 2.25 to one. The allowance for after-tax profit shall be presumed reasonable if the corresponding return on equity target is equal to or less than the sum of: (i) the current yield on five-year United States Treasury securities; and (ii) an appropriate equity risk premium that reflects the risks of writing workers' compensation insurance. The risk premium shall not be less than the average, since 1926, of the differences in return between: (i) the annual return, including dividend income, for the Standards and Poors 500 common stock index or predecessor index for each year; and (ii) the five-year United States Treasury note yield as of the start of the corresponding year. Profit and expense allowances not presumed reasonable under this subdivision, are reasonable if the circumstances of an insurer, the market, or other factors justify them.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [EXTERNAL FACTORS.] That portion of a rate or rating plan related to assessments from the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, agent commission, premium tax and any other state-mandated surcharges shall not cause the rate or rating plan to be considered excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE PREFILING OF RATES.] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their and such supporting data and information that the commissioner may by rule require, at least 60 days prior to its effective dates date. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer. The commissioner shall advise an insurer within 30 days of the filing if its submission is not accompanied with such supporting data and information that the commissioner by rule may require. The commissioner may extend the filing review period and effective date for an additional 30 days if an insurer, after having been advised of what supporting data and information is necessary to complete its filing, does not provide such information within 15 days of having been so notified. If any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is not disapproved by the commissioner within the filing review period, the insurer may implement it. For the period January 1, 1994, to December 31, 1994, the filing shall be made at least 90 days prior to the effective date and the department shall advise an insurer within 60 days of such filing if the filing is insufficient under this section.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law. Notwithstanding this subdivision, an employer that generates $500,000 in annual written workers' compensation premium under the rates and rating plan of an insurer before the application of any large deductible rating plans, may be written by that insurer using rates or rating plans that are not subject to disapproval but which have been filed. The $500,000 threshold shall be increased on January 1, 1995, and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $1,000. The commissioner shall advise insurers licensed to write workers' compensation insurance in this state of the annual threshold adjustment.

Sec. 11. [79.561] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISAPPROVAL; TIME PERIOD.] The commissioner may disapprove a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto prior to its effective date, as provided under section 79.56, subdivision 1, if the commissioner determines that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner disapproves any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto, the commissioner shall advise the filing insurer what rate and rating plan the commissioner has reason to believe would be in compliance with section 79.55, and the reasons for that determination. An insurer may not implement a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto which has been disapproved under this subdivision. If the commissioner disapproves any rate and rating plan filing or amendment thereto, an insurer may use its current rate and rating plan for writing any workers' compensation insurance in this state. Following any disapproval, the commissioner and insurer may reach agreement on a rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, in such cases, the rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto may be implemented by the insurer immediately.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] If an insurer's rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is disapproved under subdivision 1, the insurer may request a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The insurer shall have the burden of proof to justify that its rate and rating plan or amendment thereto is in compliance with section 79.55. The hearing must be scheduled promptly and in no case later than three months from the date of disapproval or else the rate and rating plan or amendment thereto shall be considered effective and may be implemented by the insurer. A determination pursuant to chapter 14 must be made within 90 days following the closing of the hearing record.

Subd. 3. [CONSULTANTS AND COSTS.] The commissioner may retain consultants, including a consulting actuary or other experts, that the commissioner determines necessary for purposes of this chapter. The salary limit set by section 43A.17 does not apply to a consulting actuary retained under this subdivision. A consulting actuary shall be a fellow in the casualty actuarial society and shall have demonstrated experience in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking. Any individual not so qualified shall not render an opinion or testify on actuarial aspects of a filing, including but not limited to, data quality, loss development, and trending. The costs incurred in retaining any consulting actuaries and experts shall be reimbursed by the special compensation fund.

$900,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, to the department of commerce for the purposes of this article. The complement of the department of commerce is increased by 13 positions for the purposes of this article.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 79.53, subdivision 2; 79.54; 79.56, subdivision 2; 79.57; and 79.58, are repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE: TRANSITION.]

This article is effective on January 1, 1995. Rates and rating plans in use as of January 1, 1995, may continue to be used until such time as an amendment thereto or a new rate or rating plan is filed, at which time such submission shall be subject to this article."

SELF-INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INSOLVENT SELF-INSURER.] "Insolvent self-insurer" means either: (1) a member private self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation as a result of a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; or; (2) a member self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; or (3) a member or former member private self-insurer who has failed to pay an assessment required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] For the purposes of assisting the commissioner, there is established a workers' compensation self-insurers' advisory committee of five members that are employers authorized to self-insure in Minnesota. Three of the members shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and two shall be appointed by the commissioner. In addition, one alternate member shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and one alternate member shall be appointed by the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADVICE TO COMMISSIONER.] At the request of the commissioner, the committee shall meet and shall advise the commissioner with respect to whether or not an applicant to become a private self-insurer in the state of Minnesota has met the statutory requirements to self-insure. The department of commerce may furnish the committee with any financial data which it has, but a member of the advisory committee who may have a conflict of interest in reviewing the financial data shall not have access to the data nor participate in the discussions concerning the applicant. All members of the advisory committee shall treat financial data received from the commissioner as nonpublic data. The committee shall advise the commissioner if it has any information that any private self-insurer may become insolvent. Disclosure of this data other than for the purposes of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 79A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs, and unpaid assessments required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurer" includes both current and former members of the self-insurers' security fund; and "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society every year for group member private self-insurers and, for a nongroup member private self-insurer's authority to self-insure, every year for the first five years. After the first five years, the nongroup member's total shall be as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society at least every two years, and each such actuarial study shall include a projection of future losses during the ~~two-year~~ period until the next scheduled actuarial study, less payments anticipated to be made during that time.

All data and information furnished by a private self-insurer to an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society for purposes of determining private self-insurers' estimated future liability must be certified by an officer of the private self-insurer to be true and correct with respect to payroll and paid losses, and must be certified, upon information and belief, to be true and correct with respect to reserves. The certification must be made by sworn affidavit. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, the certification of false data or information pursuant to this subdivision may result in a fine imposed by the commissioner of commerce on the private self-insurer up to the amount of $5,000, and termination of the private self-insurers' authority to self-insure. The determination of private self-insurers' estimated future liability by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society shall be conducted in accordance with standards and principles for establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves by the Actuarial Standards Board, an affiliate of the American Academy of Actuaries. The commissioner may reject an actuarial report that does not meet the standards and principles of the Actuarial Standards Board, and may further disqualify the actuary who prepared the report from submitting any future actuarial reports pursuant to this chapter. Within 30 days after the actuary has been served by the commissioner with a notice of disqualification, an actuary who is aggrieved by the disqualification may request a hearing to be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. Based on a review of the actuarial report, the commissioner of commerce may require an increase in the minimum security deposit in an amount the commissioner considers sufficient.

Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited security from any obligations under the posting or depositing and any surety bond so released shall be returned to the surety. Any other security shall be returned to the depositor or the person posting the bond.

As a condition for the granting or renewal of a certificate to self-insure, the commissioner may require a private self-insurer to furnish any additional security the commissioner considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under chapter 176.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.04, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY, OR DEFAULT; UTILIZATION OF SECURITY DEPOSIT.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the commissioner and the security fund if the commissioner of labor and industry has knowledge that any private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation benefits as required by chapter 176. If the commissioner determines that a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the private self-insurer to be bankrupt or insolvent, and the private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176 or, if the commissioner issues a certificate of default against a private self-insurer for failure to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176, or failure to pay an assessment to the self-insurers' security fund when due, then the security deposit shall be utilized to administer and pay the private self-insurers' workers' compensation or assessment obligations.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.15, is amended to read:

9. If any part or provision of this bond shall be declared unenforceable or held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or parts of this bond.

Sec. 7. [MUTUAL SELF-INSURANCE POOL STUDY.]

The department of commerce shall study the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, separate from the application of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 79A, the self-insurers' security fund. The purpose of mutual self-insurance pools shall be to cover their members against liability arising under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. The study must include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

(1) a mutual self-insurance pool advisory committee to advise the commissioner of commerce;

(2) a mutual self-insurance guaranty fund and board of trustees, and other excess insurance, reinsurance, or other similar requirements;

(3) a minimum premium volume necessary for creation of a pool;

(4) the financial and actuarial requirements of a pool;

(5) the requirements of the bylaws and plan of operation of a pool and the mutual self-insurance pool guaranty fund;

(6) the assessment powers of the pool and of the pool guaranty fund;

(7) the requirement that a pool be a workers' compensation reinsurance association member and specify the workers' compensation reinsurance association's retention level of a pool;

(8) the powers of the commissioner of commerce with respect to regulation and oversight of the pools and their guaranty fund;

(9) the amount of security deposits requirement and types of security allowable;

(10) the requirement of joint and several liability among the members, and the mechanics of establishing joint and several liability;

(11) the requirement of a perfected security interest in the security deposit;

(12) the amount of application fees and renewal fees for a pool;

(13) the requirement that all pools have a third party administrator and a fiscal agent; and

(14) the type and extent of educational programs required for employers before becoming pool members and for employers who are pool members, and for other professionals involved in the creation and maintenance of pools.

The department of commerce shall seek input from interested parties. The intent of the legislature in requiring this study is to allow the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, including small- and medium-sized employers as members, in a financially and actuarially sound basis so as to: (1) continue the appropriate payment of workers' compensation benefits to all injured employees of pool members; (2) do so in accordance with reasonable standards of financial and actuarial soundness which will ensure successful operation of mutual self-insurance pools for the benefit of their members; and (3) make available the benefits of group self-insurance to small- and medium-sized employers. The department shall by February 15, 1995, submit specific recommendations concerning mutual self-insurance pools to the committees of the house of representatives and senate having jurisdiction over workers' compensation self-insurance legislation."

SELF-INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INSOLVENT SELF-INSURER.] "Insolvent self-insurer" means ~~either~~: (1) a member private self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation as a result of a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; ~~or~~; (2) a member self-insurer who has failed to pay compensation and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 176; or (3) a member or former member private self-insurer who has failed to pay an assessment required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, and who has been issued a certificate of default by the commissioner and whose security deposit has been called by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] For the purposes of assisting the commissioner, there is established a workers' compensation self-insurers' advisory committee of five members that are employers authorized to self-insure in Minnesota. Three of the members shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and two shall be appointed by the commissioner. In addition, one alternate member shall be elected by the members of the self-insurers' security fund board of trustees and one alternate member shall be appointed by the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADVICE TO COMMISSIONER.] At the request of the commissioner, the committee shall meet and shall advise the commissioner with respect to whether or not an applicant to become a private self-insurer in the state of Minnesota has met the statutory requirements to self-insure. The department of commerce may furnish the committee with any financial data which it has, but a member of the advisory committee who may have a conflict of interest in reviewing the financial data shall not have access to the data nor participate in the discussions concerning the applicant. All members of the advisory committee shall treat financial data received from the commissioner as nonpublic data. The committee shall advise the commissioner if it has any information that any private self-insurer may become insolvent. Disclosure of this data other than for the purposes of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 79A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs, and unpaid assessments required by section 79A.12, subdivision 2, relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurer" includes both current and former members of the self-insurers' security fund; and "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society every year for group member private self-insurers and, for a nongroup member private self-insurer's authority to self-insure, every year for the first five years. After the first five years, the nongroup member's total shall be as determined by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society at least every two years, and each such actuarial study shall include a projection of future losses during the ~~two year~~ period until the next scheduled actuarial study, less payments anticipated to be made during that time.

All data and information furnished by a private self-insurer to an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society for purposes of determining private self-insurers' estimated future liability must be certified by an officer of the private self-insurer to be true and correct with respect to payroll and paid losses, and must be certified, upon information and belief, to be true and correct with respect to reserves. The certification must be made by sworn affidavit. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, the certification of false data or information pursuant to this subdivision may result in a fine imposed by the commissioner of commerce on the private self-insurer up to the amount of $5,000, and termination of the private self-insurers' authority to self-insure. The determination of private self-insurers' estimated future liability by an Associate or Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society shall be conducted in accordance with standards and principles for establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves by the Actuarial Standards Board, an affiliate of the American Academy of Actuaries. The commissioner may reject an actuarial report that does not meet the standards and principles of the Actuarial Standards Board, and may further disqualify the actuary who prepared the report from submitting any future actuarial reports pursuant to this chapter. Within 30 days after the actuary has been served by the commissioner with a notice of disqualification, an actuary who is aggrieved by the disqualification may request a hearing to be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. Based on a review of the actuarial report, the commissioner of commerce may require an increase in the minimum security deposit in an amount the commissioner considers sufficient.

Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited security from any obligations under the posting or depositing and any surety bond so released shall be returned to the surety. Any other security shall be returned to the depositor or the person posting the bond.

As a condition for the granting or renewal of a certificate to self-insure, the commissioner may require a private self-insurer to furnish any additional security the commissioner considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under chapter 176.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79A.04, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY, OR DEFAULT; UTILIZATION OF SECURITY DEPOSIT.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the commissioner and the security fund if the commissioner of labor and industry has knowledge that any private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation benefits as required by chapter 176. If the commissioner determines that a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the private self-insurer to be bankrupt or insolvent, and the private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176 or, if the commissioner issues a certificate of default against a private self-insurer for failure to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176, or failure to pay an assessment to the self-insurers' security fund when due, then the security deposit shall be utilized to administer and pay the private self-insurers' workers' compensation or assessment obligations.

(a) The obligation of this bond shall terminate upon written notice of cancellation from the surety, given by registered or certified mail to the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred, including obligations resulting from claims which are incurred but not yet reported, as a self-insurer prior to effective date of termination. This termination is effective 60 days after receipt of notice of cancellation by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota.

(b) This bond shall also terminate upon the revocation of the certificate to self-insure, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred, including obligations resulting from claims which are incurred but not yet reported, as a self-insurer prior to effective date of termination. The principal and the surety, herein named, shall be immediately notified in writing by said commissioner, in the event of such revocation.

6. Where the principal posts with the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, or the state treasurer, state of Minnesota, a replacement security deposit, in the form of a surety bond, irrevocable letter of credit, cash, securities, or any combination thereof, in the full amount as may be required by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, to secure all incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation of said principal under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the surety is released from obligations under the surety bond upon the date of acceptance by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, of said replacement security deposit.

7. If the said principal shall suspend payment of workers' compensation benefits or shall become insolvent or a receiver shall be appointed for its business, or the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, issues a certificate of default, the undersigned surety will become liable for the workers' compensation obligations of the principal on the date benefits are suspended. The surety shall begin payments within 14 days under paragraph 8, or 30 days under paragraph 10, after receipt of written notification by certified mail from the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, to begin payments under the terms of this bond.

8. If the surety exercises its option to administer claims, it shall pay benefits due to the principal's injured workers within 14 days of the receipt of the notification by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, without a formal award of a compensation judge, the commissioner of labor and industry, any intermediate appellate court, or the Minnesota supreme court and such payment will be a charge against the penal sum of the bond. Administrative and legal costs and payment of assessments incurred by the surety in discharging its obligations and payment of the principal's obligations for administration and legal expenses and payment of assessments under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, and sections 79A.01 to 79A.17 and Laws 1988, chapter 674, section 23, shall also be a charge against the penal sum of the bond; however, the total amount of this surety bond set aside for the payment of said administrative and legal expenses and payment of assessments shall be limited to a maximum ten percent of the total penal sum of the bond unless otherwise authorized by the security fund.

9. If any part or provision of this bond shall be declared unenforceable or held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or parts of this bond.

10. If the surety does not give notice to the security fund and the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, within two business days of receipt of written notification from the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, to exercise its option to administer claims pursuant to paragraph 8, then the self-insurer's security fund will assume the payments of the workers' compensation obligations of the principal pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. The surety shall pay, within 30 days of the receipt of the notification by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, to the self-insurer's security fund as an initial deposit an amount equal to ten percent of the penal sum of the bond, and shall thereafter, upon notification from the security fund that the balance of the initial deposit had fallen to one percent of the penal sum of the bond, remit to the security fund an amount equal to the payments made by the security fund in the three calendar months immediately preceding said notification. All such payments will be a charge against the penal sum of the bond.

11. Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the principal's security deposit or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or the adequacy of the security or the reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal costs, arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, the principal, or the self-insurers' security fund shall be resolved by the commissioner of commerce pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176 and sections 79A.01 to 79A.17 and Laws 1988, chapter 674, section 23.

Sec. 7. [MUTUAL SELF-INSURANCE POOL STUDY.]

The department of commerce shall study the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, separate from the application of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 79A, the self-insurers' security fund. The purpose of mutual self-insurance pools shall be to cover their members against liability arising under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. The study must include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

- (1) a mutual self-insurance pool advisory committee to advise the commissioner of commerce;*
- (2) a mutual self-insurance guaranty fund and board of trustees, and other excess insurance, reinsurance, or other similar requirements;*
- (3) a minimum premium volume necessary for creation of a pool;*
- (4) the financial and actuarial requirements of a pool;*
- (5) the requirements of the bylaws and plan of operation of a pool and the mutual self-insurance pool guaranty fund;*
- (6) the assessment powers of the pool and of the pool guaranty fund;*
- (7) the requirement that a pool be a workers' compensation reinsurance association member and specify the workers' compensation reinsurance association's retention level of a pool;*
- (8) the powers of the commissioner of commerce with respect to regulation and oversight of the pools and their guaranty fund;*
- (9) the amount of security deposits requirement and types of security allowable;*
- (10) the requirement of joint and several liability among the members, and the mechanics of establishing joint and several liability;*
- (11) the requirement of a perfected security interest in the security deposit;*
- (12) the amount of application fees and renewal fees for a pool;*

(13) the requirement that all pools have a third party administrator and a fiscal agent; and

(14) the type and extent of educational programs required for employers before becoming pool members and for employers who are pool members, and for other professionals involved in the creation and maintenance of pools.

The department of commerce shall seek input from interested parties. The intent of the legislature in requiring this study is to allow the creation of mutual self-insurance pools, including small- and medium-sized employers as members, in a financially and actuarially sound basis so as to: (1) continue the appropriate payment of workers' compensation benefits to all injured employees of pool members; (2) do so in accordance with reasonable standards of financial and actuarial soundness which will ensure successful operation of mutual self-insurance pools for the benefit of their members; and (3) make available the benefits of group self-insurance to small- and medium-sized employers. The department shall by February 15, 1995, submit specific recommendations concerning mutual self-insurance pools to the committees of the house of representatives and senate having jurisdiction over workers' compensation self-insurance legislation."

“ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.50, is amended to read:

79.50 [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and

(h) (e) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of this chapter. ~~The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) experience rating plans;

(3) retrospective rating plans;

(4) general expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) minimum premiums;

(6) classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) loss development and trend factors;

(8) the workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(10) imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(11) the rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by ~~the workers' compensation insurers rating association licensed data service organizations; and~~

(12) the supporting data and information required in filings under section 79.56, including but not limited to the experience of the filing insurer and the extent to which the filing insurer relies upon data service organization loss information, descriptions of the actuarial and statistical methods employed in setting rates, and the filing insurers interpretation of any statistical data relied upon; and

(13) any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) ~~competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship;~~

(2) adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation;

(3) (2) encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) (3) assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) (4) requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules, making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section and monitoring the effectiveness of competition; and

(6) (5) preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [METHOD OF CALCULATION.] Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further ~~modified~~ increased up to 25 percent or decreased without restriction by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium if the increase or decrease is not unfairly discriminatory. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] ~~No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums~~ Rates and rating plans are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer under the rates and rating plans would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business. The burden is on the insurer to establish that profit is not unreasonably high.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISCOUNTS PERMITTED.] An insurer may offer a ~~discount from scheduled credit or debit~~ to a manual premium calculated pursuant to section 79.53, subdivision 1, if the premium otherwise complies with this section. ~~The commissioner shall not by rule, or otherwise, prohibit a credit or discount from a manual premium solely because it is greater than a certain fixed percentage of the premium.~~

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RATING FACTORS.] In determining whether a rate filing complies with this section, separate consideration shall be given to: (i) past and prospective loss experience within this state and outside this state to the extent necessary to develop credible rates; (ii) dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers; and (iii) a reasonable allowance for expense and profit. An allowance for expense shall be presumed reasonable if it reflects expenses that are 22.5 percent greater or less than the average expense for all insurers writing workers' compensation insurance in this state.

An allowance for after-tax profit shall consider anticipated investment income from premium receipts net of disbursements and from allocated surplus, based on the current five-year United States Treasury note yield and an assumed premium to surplus ratio of 2.25 to one. The allowance for after-tax profit shall be presumed reasonable if the corresponding return on equity target is equal to or less than the sum of: (i) the current yield on five-year United States Treasury securities; and (ii) an appropriate equity risk premium that reflects the risks of writing workers' compensation insurance. The risk premium shall not be less than the average, since 1926, of the differences in return between: (i) the annual return, including dividend income, for the Standards and Poors 500 common stock index or predecessor index for each year; and (ii) the five-year United States Treasury note yield as of the start of the corresponding year. Profit and expense allowances not presumed reasonable under this subdivision, are reasonable if the circumstances of an insurer, the market, or other factors justify them.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [EXTERNAL FACTORS.] That portion of a rate or rating plan related to assessments from the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, agent commission, premium tax and any other state-mandated surcharges shall not cause the rate or rating plan to be considered excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE PREFILING OF RATES.~~] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, ~~within 15 days after their and such supporting data and information that the commissioner may by rule require, at least 60 days prior to its effective dates date. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer.~~ The commissioner shall advise an insurer within 30 days of the filing if its submission is not accompanied with such supporting data and information that the commissioner by rule may require. The commissioner may extend the filing review period and effective date for an additional 30 days if an insurer, after having been advised of what supporting data and information is necessary to complete its filing, does not provide such information within 15 days of having been so notified. If any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is not disapproved by the commissioner within the filing review period, the insurer may implement it. For the period January 1, 1994, to December 31, 1994, the filing shall be made at least 90 days prior to the effective date and the department shall advise an insurer within 60 days of such filing if the filing is insufficient under this section.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law. Notwithstanding this subdivision, an employer that generates $500,000 in annual written workers' compensation premium under the rates and rating plan of an insurer before the application of any large deductible rating plans, may be written by that insurer using rates or rating plans that are not subject to disapproval but which have been filed. The $500,000 threshold shall be increased on January 1, 1995, and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $1,000. The commissioner shall advise insurers licensed to write workers' compensation insurance in this state of the annual threshold adjustment.

Sec. 11. [79.561] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISAPPROVAL; TIME PERIOD.] The commissioner may disapprove a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto prior to its effective date, as provided under section 79.56, subdivision 1, if the commissioner determines that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner disapproves any rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto, the commissioner shall advise the filing insurer what rate and rating plan the commissioner has reason to believe would be in compliance with section 79.55, and the reasons for that determination: An insurer may not implement a rate and rating plan or amendment thereto which has been disapproved under this subdivision. If the commissioner disapproves any rate and rating plan filing or amendment thereto, an insurer may use its current rate and rating plan for writing any workers' compensation insurance in this state. Following any disapproval, the commissioner and insurer may reach agreement on a rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, in such cases, the rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto may be implemented by the insurer immediately.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] If an insurer's rate or rating plan filing or amendment thereto is disapproved under subdivision 1, the insurer may request a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The insurer shall have the burden of proof to justify that its rate and rating plan or amendment thereto is in compliance with section 79.55. The hearing must be scheduled promptly and in no case later than three months from the date of disapproval or else the rate and rating plan or amendment thereto shall be considered effective and may be implemented by the insurer. A determination pursuant to chapter 14 must be made within 90 days following the closing of the hearing record.

Subd. 3. [CONSULTANTS AND COSTS.] The commissioner may retain consultants, including a consulting actuary or other experts, that the commissioner determines necessary for purposes of this chapter. The salary limit set by section 43A.17 does not apply to a consulting actuary retained under this subdivision. A consulting actuary shall be a fellow in the casualty actuarial society and shall have demonstrated experience in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking. Any individual not so qualified shall not render an opinion or testify on actuarial aspects of a filing, including but not limited to, data quality, loss development, and trending. The costs incurred in retaining any consulting actuaries and experts shall be reimbursed by the special compensation fund.

Sec. 12. [APPROPRIATION.]

$900,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, to the department of commerce for the purposes of this article. The complement of the department of commerce is increased by 13 positions for the purposes of this article.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 79.53, subdivision 2; 79.54; 79.56, subdivision 2; 79.57; and 79.58, are repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE: TRANSITION.]

This article is effective on January 1, 1995. Rates and rating plans in use as of January 1, 1995, may continue to be used until such time as an amendment thereto or a new rate or rating plan is filed, at which time such submission shall be subject to this article.

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 176.011, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE.] (a) “Occupational disease” means a disease arising out of and in the course of employment peculiar to the occupation in which the employee is engaged and due to causes in excess of the hazards ordinary of employment and shall include undulant fever. Ordinary diseases of life to which the general public is equally exposed outside of employment are not compensable, except where the diseases follow as an incident of an occupational disease, or where the exposure peculiar to the occupation makes the disease an occupational disease hazard. A disease arises out of the employment only if there be a direct causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and if the occupational disease follows as a natural incident of the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment. An employer is not liable for compensation for any occupational disease which cannot be traced to the employment as a direct and proximate cause and is not recognized as a hazard characteristic of and peculiar to the trade, occupation, process, or employment or which results from a hazard to which the worker would have been equally exposed outside of the employment.

(b) If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, an employee was employed on active duty with an organized fire or police department of any municipality, as a member of the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, as a forest officer by the department of natural resources, ~~or~~ sheriff or full-time deputy sheriff of any county, or emergency medical services personnel as defined in section 144.761, subdivision 5, clauses (1) and (3), and the disease is that of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, and at the time of employment such employee was given a thorough physical examination by a licensed doctor of medicine, and a written report thereof has been made and filed with such organized fire or police department, with the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, department of natural resources, ~~or~~ sheriff's department of any county, or the employer of the emergency medical services personnel as defined in section 144.761, subdivision 5, clauses (1) and (3), which examination and report negated any evidence of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment. If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, any individual who by nature of their position provides emergency medical care, or an employee who was employed as a licensed police officer under section 626.84, subdivision 1; firefighter; paramedic; emergency medical technician; or licensed nurse providing emergency medical care; and who contracts an infectious or communicable disease to which the employee was exposed in the course of employment outside of a hospital, then the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment and the presumption may be rebutted by substantial factors brought by the employer or insurer.

(c) A firefighter on active duty with an organized fire department who is unable to perform duties in the department by reason of a disabling cancer of a type caused by exposure to heat, radiation, or a known or suspected carcinogen, as defined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer, and the carcinogen is reasonably linked to the disabling cancer, is presumed to have an occupational disease under paragraph (a). If a firefighter who enters the service after August 1, 1988, is examined by a physician prior to being hired and the examination discloses the existence of a cancer of a type described in this paragraph, the firefighter is not entitled to the presumption unless a subsequent medical determination is made that the firefighter no longer has the cancer."

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.737, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [CLAIMS ARISING FROM THE COMMUNITY WORK EXPERIENCE PROGRAM.] (a) Payment of any claims resulting from an alleged injury or death of a recipient participating in a community work experience program established and operated by a county pursuant to section 256.737 shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Claims of $1,000 or less that are subject to this section shall be investigated by the county agency responsible for supervising the work to determine if the claim is valid and if the loss is covered by the claimant's insurance.

The investigating county agency shall submit all valid claims to the department of human services. The department shall pay the portion of an approved claim that is not covered by the claimant's insurance within three months of the date of submission. On or before the first day of each legislative session, the department shall submit to the appropriate committees of the senate and the house of representatives a list of claims paid during the preceding calendar year and shall be reimbursed by legislative appropriation for any claims that exceed the original appropriation provided to the department to operate this program. Any unspent monies from this fund shall carry over to the second year of the biennium, and any unspent monies remaining at the end of the second year shall be returned to the state general fund.

A claim in excess of $1,000, and a claim that was not paid by the department may be presented to, heard, and determined by the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives and, if approved, shall be paid pursuant to the legislative claims procedure.

(c) Compensation paid under this section is limited to reimbursement for medical expenses and compensation for disability as impairment compensation or death. No compensation shall be paid under this section for pain and suffering or lost wages. Payments made under this section shall be reduced by any proceeds received by the claimant from any insurance policy covering the loss. For the purposes of this section, "insurance policy" does not include the medical assistance program authorized under chapter 256B or the general assistance medical care program authorized under chapter 256D.

(d) The procedure established by this section is exclusive of all other legal, equitable, and statutory remedies against the state, its political subdivisions, or employees of the state or its political subdivision. The claimant shall not be entitled to seek damages pursuant to any state or county insurance policy or self-insurance program.

(e) A claim is not valid for purposes of this subdivision if the local agency responsible for supervising the work cannot verify:

(1) that appropriate safety training and information is provided to all persons being supervised by the agency under this subdivision; and

(2) that all programs involving work by those persons comply with federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration and state department of labor and industry safety standards. A claim that is not valid because of failure to verify safety training or compliance with safety standards will not be paid by the department of human services or through the legislative claims process and must be heard, decided, and paid, if appropriate, by the local government unit responsible for supervising the work of the claimant."

(a) It is the goal of this chapter to ~~improve~~ protect the state's land, air, water, and other natural resources and the public health by improving waste management in the state to serve the following purposes:

- (1) Reduction in the amount and toxicity of waste generated;
- (2) Separation and recovery of materials and energy from waste;
- (3) Reduction in indiscriminate dependence on disposal of waste;
- (4) Coordination of solid waste management among political subdivisions; and
- (5) Orderly and deliberate development and financial security of waste facilities including disposal facilities.

(b) The waste management goal of the state is to foster an integrated waste management system in a manner appropriate to the characteristics of the waste stream and thereby protect the state's land, air, water, and other natural resources and the public health. The following waste management practices are in order of preference:

- (1) waste reduction and reuse;
- (2) waste recycling;
- (3) composting of yard waste and food waste;
- (4) resource recovery through mixed municipal solid waste composting or incineration; and
- (5) land disposal.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.03, subdivision 17a, is amended to read:

Subd. 17a. [MAJOR APPLIANCES.] "Major appliances" means clothes washers and dryers, dishwashers, hot water heaters, ~~residential heat pumps,~~ furnaces, garbage disposals, trash compactors, conventional and microwave ovens, ranges and stoves, air conditioners, dehumidifiers, refrigerators, and freezers.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.072, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EDUCATION, PROMOTION, AND PROCUREMENT.] The office shall include waste reduction and reuse, including packaging reduction and reuse, as an element of its program of public education on waste management required under this section. The waste reduction and reuse education program must include dissemination of information and may include an award program for model waste reduction and reuse efforts. Waste reduction and reuse educational efforts must also include provision of information about and promotion of the model procurement program developed by the commissioner of administration under section 115A.15, subdivision 7, or any other model procurement program that results in significant waste reduction and reuse.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 115A.54, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT PROJECTS.] (a) The director shall provide technical and financial assistance for the acquisition and betterment of solid waste management projects as provided in this subdivision and section 115A.52. Money appropriated for the purposes of this subdivision must be distributed as grants.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), a project may receive grant assistance up to 25 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less, except that projects constructed as a result of intercounty cooperative agreements may receive (1) grant assistance up to 25 percent of the capital cost of the project; or (2) $2,000,000 times the number of participating counties, whichever is less.

(c) A recycling project or a project to compost or cocompost waste may receive grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less, except that projects completed as a result of intercounty cooperative agreements may receive (1) grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project; or (2) $2,000,000 times the number of participating counties, whichever is less. The following projects may also receive grant assistance in the amounts specified in this paragraph:

(1) a project to improve control of or reduce air emissions at an existing resource recovery facility; and

(2) a project to substantially increase the recovery of materials or energy, substantially reduce the amount or toxicity of waste processing residuals, or expand the capacity of an existing resource recovery facility to meet the resource recovery needs of an expanded region if each county from which waste is or would be received has achieved a recycling rate in excess of the goals in section 115A.551, and is implementing aggressive waste reduction and household hazardous waste management programs.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (e), the director may award grants for transfer stations that will initially transfer waste to landfills if the transfer stations are part of a planned resource recovery project, the county where the planned resource recovery facility will be located has a comprehensive solid waste management plan approved by the director, and the solid waste management plan proposes the development of the resource recovery facility. If the proposed resource recovery facility is not in place and operating within eight years of the date of the grant award, the recipient shall repay the grant amount to the state.

(e) Projects without resource recovery are not eligible for assistance.

(f) In addition to any assistance received under paragraph (b) or (c), a project may receive grant assistance for the cost of tests necessary to determine the appropriate pollution control equipment for the project or the environmental effects of the use of any product or material produced by the project.

(g) In addition to the application requirements of section 115A.51, an application for a project serving eligible jurisdictions in only a single county must demonstrate that cooperation with jurisdictions in other counties to develop the project is not needed or not feasible. Each application must also demonstrate that the project is not financially prudent without the state assistance, because of the applicant's financial capacity and the problems inherent in the waste management situation in the area, particularly transportation distances and limited waste supply and markets for resources recovered.

(h) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "project" means a processing facility, together with any transfer stations, transmission facilities, and other related and appurtenant facilities primarily serving the processing facility. The director shall adopt rules for the program by July 1, 1985.

(i) Notwithstanding anything in this subdivision to the contrary, a project to construct a new mixed municipal solid waste transfer station that has an enforceable commitment of at least ten years, or of sufficient length to retire bonds sold for the facility, to serve an existing resource recovery facility may receive grant assistance up to 75 percent of the capital cost of the project if addition of the transfer station will increase substantially the geographical area served by the resource recovery facility and the ability of the resource recovery facility to operate more efficiently on a regional basis and the facility meets the criteria in paragraph (c), the second clause (2). A transfer station eligible for assistance under this paragraph is not eligible for assistance under any other paragraph of this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.5501, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATEWIDE WASTE PACKAGING REDUCTION GOAL.] It is the goal of the state that there be a minimum 25 percent statewide per capita reduction in the amount of discarded packaging delivered to ~~solid waste composting, incineration, refuse derived fuel and disposal~~ facilities by December 31, 1995, based on a reasonable estimate of the amount of packaging that was delivered to ~~solid waste composting, incineration, and disposal~~ facilities in calendar year 1992.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.5501, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MEASUREMENT; PROCEDURES.] To measure the overall percentage of packaging in the statewide solid waste stream, the commissioner and the chair of the metropolitan council, in consultation with the director, shall each conduct an annual four-season solid waste composition study in the nonmetropolitan and metropolitan areas respectively or shall develop an alternative method that is as statistically reliable as a waste composition study to measure the percentage of packaging in the waste stream.

Beginning in 1993, the chair of the council shall submit the results from the metropolitan area to the commissioner by March 1 of each year. The commissioner shall average the nonmetropolitan and metropolitan results and submit the statewide percentage, along with a statistically reliable margin of error, to the director by April 1 of each year. The director shall report the information to the legislative commission on waste management by July 1 of each year. The 1994 report must include a discussion of the reliability of data gathered under this subdivision and the methodology used to determine a statistically reliable margin of error.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 115A.5501, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FACILITY COOPERATION AND REPORTS.] The owner or operator of a ~~solid waste composting, incineration, refuse derived fuel or disposal~~ facility shall allow access upon reasonable notice to authorized office, agency, or metropolitan council staff for the purpose of conducting waste composition studies or otherwise assessing the amount of total packaging in the waste delivered to the facility under this section.

Beginning in 1993, by February 1 of each year the owner or operator of a facility governed by this subdivision shall submit a report to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, specifying the total amount of solid waste received by the facility between January 1 and December 31 of the previous year. The commissioner shall calculate the total amount of solid waste delivered to solid waste facilities from the reports received from the facility owners or operators and shall report the aggregate amount to the director by April 1 of each year. The commissioner shall assess a nonforgivable administrative penalty under section 116.072 of $500 plus any forgivable amount necessary to enforce this subdivision on any owner or operator who fails to submit a report required by this subdivision.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.5501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FURTHER REDUCTION GOALS.] If the goal in subdivision 1 is met, the director shall include in the report required in subdivision 4 recommendations for appropriate goals for further reducing the amount of discarded packaging delivered to facilities. The report must include an analysis of the costs of further reductions.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.5501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, "facility" means a composting, incineration, refuse-derived fuel, or disposal facility that accepts mixed municipal solid waste or construction waste.

Sec. 11. [115A.5502] [PACKAGING PRACTICES; PREFERENCES; GOALS.]

Packaging forms a substantial portion of solid waste and contributes to environmental degradation and the costs of managing solid waste. It is imperative to reduce the amount and toxicity of packaging that must be managed as solid waste. In order to achieve significant reduction of packaging in solid waste and to assist packagers and others to meet the packaging reduction goal in section 115A.5501, the goal of the state is that items be distributed without any packaging where feasible and, only when necessary to protect health and safety or product integrity, with the minimal amount of packaging possible. The following categories of packaging are listed in order of preference for use by all persons who find it necessary to package items for distribution or use in the state:

(1) minimal packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials and that is designed to be and actually is reused for its original purpose at least five times;

(2) minimal packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials, that is recyclable, and is regularly collected through recycling collection programs available to at least 75 percent of the residents of the state;

(3) minimal packaging that does not comply with clauses (1) and (2) because it is required under federal or state law and for which there does not exist a commercially feasible alternative that does comply with clauses (1) and (2);

(4) packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials but does not comply with clauses (1) to (3); and

(5) all other packaging.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.554, is amended to read:

115A.554 [AUTHORITY OF SANITARY DISTRICTS.]

A sanitary district ~~with the authority to regulate solid waste~~ has the ~~authority~~ ~~authorities~~ and ~~duty~~ ~~duties~~ of counties within the district's boundary for purposes of sections 115A.46, subdivision 4; 115A.48; 115A.551; 115A.552; 115A.553; 115A.919; 115A.929; 115A.93; 115A.96, subdivision 6; 115A.961; 115A.991; 375.18, subdivision 14; ~~and~~ 400.08, ~~subdivision 5~~ except subdivision 4, paragraph (b); 400.16; and 400.161.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.557, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY TO RECEIVE MONEY.] (a) To be eligible to receive money distributed by the office under this section, a county shall within one year of October 4, 1989:

(1) create a separate account in its general fund to credit the money; and

(2) set up accounting procedures to ensure that money in the separate account is spent only for the purposes in subdivision 2.

(b) In each following year, each county shall also:

(1) have in place an approved solid waste management plan or master plan including a recycling implementation strategy under section 115A.551, subdivision 7, or 473.803, subdivision 1e, and a household hazardous waste management plan under section 115A.96, subdivision 6, by the dates specified in those provisions;

(2) submit a report by ~~March~~ April 1 of each year to the office detailing how the money was spent and the resulting gains achieved in solid waste management practices during the previous calendar year; and

(3) provide evidence to the office that local revenue equal to 25 percent of the money sought for distribution under this section will be spent for the purposes in subdivision 2.

(c) The office shall withhold all or part of the funds to be distributed to a county under this section if the county fails to comply with this subdivision and subdivision 2.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.87, is amended to read:

115A.87 [JUDICIAL REVIEW; ATTORNEY GENERAL TO PROVIDE COUNSEL.]

An action challenging a designation must be brought within 60 days of the approval of the designation by the reviewing authority. The action is subject to section 562.02.

In any action challenging a designation ordinance or the implementation of a designation ordinance, the person bringing the challenge shall notify the attorney general. The attorney general may intervene in any administrative or court action to represent the state's interest in designation of solid waste, and, on request of a county whose designation ordinance has been challenged, provide legal representation for the county in any administrative or court action related to the challenge.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.882, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INSPECTION.] A person authorized by a county in which a designation ordinance is effective may, anywhere in the state:

(1) upon presentation of identification and without a search warrant, inspect or copy the records required to be kept on a waste collection vehicle under subdivision 2 and inspect the waste on the vehicle at the time of deposit of the waste at a facility;

(3) request, in writing, copies of records of a solid waste collector that indicate the type, origin, and weight or, if applicable, the volume of waste collected, the identity of the facility at which the waste was deposited, and the date of deposit at the facility; and

(4) upon presentation of identification and without a search warrant, inspect or copy that portion of the business records of a waste collector necessary to comply with clause (3) at the central record-keeping location of the waste collector only if the collector fails to provide copies of the records within 15 days of receipt of a written request for them, unless the time has been extended by agreement of the parties.

Records or information received, inspected, or copied by a county under this section are classified as nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 9, and may be used by the county solely for enforcement of a designation ordinance. A waste collector or the owner or operator of a waste facility shall maintain business records needed to comply with this section for two years.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.882, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CIVIL ENFORCEMENT; VENUE.] (a) A person who fails to comply with this section is subject to:

(1) an action to compel performance or to restrain or enjoin any activity that interferes with the requirement to keep records in subdivision 2 or the requirement to allow timely entry and inspection in subdivision 3;

(2) damages caused by the failure to keep records or by refusal to allow timely entry or inspection;

(3) a civil penalty payable to the county seeking enforcement of up to $10,000 per day for each day of refusal to allow timely entry or inspection; or

(4) any or all of the above.

(b) A county in which a designation ordinance is in effect may enforce this section by commencing an action in district court in the county in which the facility is located or in the county in which the designation ordinance is in effect. The court may compel performance in any manner deemed appropriate by the court, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order to show cause, a temporary restraining order, or an injunction. In addition, the court may order payment of damages or a civil penalty or both. In an action brought by a county to enforce this section in which the county substantially prevails, the court may order payment by the defendant of the county's costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney fees.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.9157, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PILOT PROJECTS.] By April 15, 1992, manufacturers whose rechargeable batteries or products powered by rechargeable batteries are sold in this state shall implement pilot projects for the collection and proper management of all rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by nonremovable rechargeable batteries. Manufacturers may act as a group or through a representative organization. The pilot projects must run for a minimum of 18 months and be designed to collect sufficient statewide data for the design and implementation of permanent collection and management programs that may be reasonably expected to collect at least 90 percent of waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state.

By December 1, 1991, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall submit plans for the projects to the legislative commission. At least every six months during the pilot projects the manufacturers shall submit progress reports to the commission. The commission shall review the plans and progress reports.

By November 1, 1993, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall report to the legislative commission the final results of the projects and plans for implementation of permanent programs. The commission shall review the final results and plans.

By October 1, 1994, and by October 1, 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall submit to the commission additional reports that detail progress made toward implementing permanent management programs. The October 1, 1995, report must include a description of the programs implemented under subdivision 5. These progress reports must include the estimated amount of rechargeable batteries subject to this section sold in the state by each manufacturer and the amount of batteries each collected during the previous year. A representative organization may report amounts in aggregate for all the members of the organization.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.9157, subdivision 5; is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS.] ~~By April 15, 1994~~ September 20, 1995, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall implement permanent programs, based on the results of the pilot projects required in subdivision 4, that may be reasonably expected to collect 90 percent of the waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state. The batteries and products collected must be recycled or otherwise managed or disposed of properly.

In every odd-numbered year after 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall provide information to the commission that specifies at least the estimated amount of rechargeable batteries subject to this section sold in the state by each manufacturer and the amount of batteries each collected during the previous two years. A representative organization may report the amounts in aggregate for all the members of the organization.

(2) in or on the land, unless approved by the agency; or

(3) in or on the waters of the state or in a stormwater or wastewater collection or treatment system.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "antifreeze" does not include small amounts of antifreeze contained in water used to flush the cooling system of a vehicle after the antifreeze has been drained and does not include deicer that has been used on the exterior of a vehicle.

(c) This section does not apply to antifreeze placed in a wastewater collection system that includes a publicly or privately owned treatment works that is permitted by the agency until ~~July 1, 1995~~ December 31, 1996.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), motor oil filters and portions of motor oil filters may be processed at a permitted mixed municipal solid waste resource recovery facility that directly burns the waste if:

(1) the facility is subject to an industrial waste management plan that addresses management of motor oil filters and the owner or operator of the facility can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the facility is in compliance with that plan;

(2) the facility recovers ferrous metal after incineration for recycling as part of its operation; and

(3) the motor oil filters are collected separately from mixed municipal solid waste and are not combined with it except for the purpose of incinerating the waste.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.918, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this section and sections 115A.919 and 115A.921 to 115A.929.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.918, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EQUIVALENT.] For mixed municipal solid waste, the measure of "equivalent" or "equivalent cubic yards of waste" is 3.33 cubic yards per ton of waste.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Waste residue from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purpose of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from any fee imposed by a county under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate county, except that for facilities operating outside of the metropolitan area the commissioner shall prescribe procedures for verifying the required 85 percent volume reduction.

(b) A facility permitted for the disposal of construction debris is exempt from 25 percent of a fee imposed under subdivision 1 if the facility has implemented a recycling program approved by the county and 25 percent if the facility contains a liner and leachate collection system approved by the agency.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.921, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MIXED MUNICIPAL SOLID WASTE.] A city or town may impose a fee, not to exceed $1 per cubic yard of waste, or its equivalent, on operators of facilities for the disposal of mixed municipal solid waste located within the city or town. The revenue from the fees must be credited to the city or town general fund. Revenue produced by 25 cents of the fee must be used only for purposes of landfill abatement or for purposes of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of facilities. Revenue produced by the balance of the fee may be used for any general fund purpose.

Waste residue from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purpose of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from the fee imposed by a city or town under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate city or town, except that for facilities operating outside of the metropolitan area the commissioner shall prescribe procedures for verifying the required 85 percent volume reduction.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE.] A local government unit may satisfy the requirements of this section by establishing at least three price categories for collection of household mixed municipal solid waste to include, for households that generate small volumes of waste, a waste collection unit that is smaller than and priced lower than for other generators if the local government unit:

(1) operates or contracts for the operation of a residential recycling program that collects more categories of recyclable materials than required in section 115A.552;

(2) has a residential participation rate in its recycling programs of at least 70 percent or in excess of the participation rate for the county in which it is located, whichever is greater;

(3) is located in a county that has exceeded the recycling goals in section 115A.551; and

(4) generates, by all waste generators in the city, an amount of mixed municipal solid waste that is managed by incineration, production of refuse-derived fuel, mixed municipal solid waste composting, or disposal that is no greater, in proportion to the total amount of waste managed as listed above by all waste generators in the county in which the city is located, than it was for calendar year 1993.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.95, is amended to read:

115A.95 [RECYCLABLE MATERIALS.]

A disposal facility or a resource recovery facility that is composting waste, burning waste, or converting waste to energy or to materials for combustion, and is owned or operated by a public agency or supported by public funds or by obligations issued by a public agency, may not accept source-separated recyclable materials, and a solid waste collector or transporter may not deliver source-separated recyclable materials to such a facility, except for recycling or transfer to a recycler, unless the director determines that no other person is willing to accept the recyclable materials.

[RULES IMPLEMENTATION; DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] In lieu of adopting rules to implement this section, the commissioner of the pollution control agency, in consultation with the director of the office of waste management, shall adopt rules to implement this section shall seek membership in the toxics in packaging clearinghouse administered by the source reduction task force of the Coalition of Northeastern Governors for the purposes of implementation of this section and resolving issues and disputes that arise in connection with it. The commissioner shall seek a recommendation from the clearinghouse prior to making a decision on an issue or dispute of first impression and shall implement the recommendation unless the commissioner specifically finds that the recommended determination is not in the state's best interest. A package for which a request for exemption has been submitted to the commissioner is not subject to enforcement action pending the commissioner's determination.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.965, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [REPORT.] By September 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall prepare and submit to the legislative commission a report to include:

(2) issues and disputes that have arisen under this section, the recommendations made by the toxics in packaging clearinghouse for resolution of those issues and disputes, and how those issues and disputes were finally resolved by the commissioner.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 115A.9651, is amended to read:

115A.9651 [TOXICS IN SPECIFIED PRODUCTS; ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] After July 1, 1994, (a) No person may deliberately introduce lead, cadmium, mercury, or hexavalent chromium into distribute for sale or use in this state any ink, dye, pigment, paint, or fungicide that is intended for use or for sale in this state manufactured after September 1, 1994, into which lead, cadmium, mercury, or hexavalent chromium has been intentionally introduced.

Until July 1, 1997, this section does not apply to electrodeposition primer coating or primer coating used on aircraft, porcelain enamel coatings, medical devices, hexavalent chromium in the form of chromine acid when processed at a temperature of at least 750 degrees Fahrenheit, or ink used for computer identification markings.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "intentionally introduce" means to deliberately use a metal listed in paragraph (a) as an element during manufacture or distribution of an item listed in paragraph (a). Intentional introduction does not include the incidental presence of any of the prohibited elements.

(c) The concentration of a listed metal in an item listed in paragraph (a) may not exceed 100 parts per million.

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY EXEMPTION.] (a) An item listed in subdivision 1 is exempt from this section until July 1, 1997, if the manufacturer of the item submits to the commissioner a written request for an exemption by August 1, 1994. The request must include at least:

(1) an explanation of why compliance is not technically feasible at the time of the request;

(2) how the manufacturer will comply by July 1, 1997; and

(3) the name, address, and telephone number of a person the commissioner can contact for further information.

(b) By September 1, 1994, a person who uses an item listed in subdivision 1, into which one of the listed metals has been intentionally introduced, may submit, on behalf of the manufacturer, a request for temporary exemption only if the manufacturer fails to submit an exemption request as provided in paragraph (a). The request must include:

(1) an explanation of why the person must continue to use the item and a discussion of potential alternatives;

(2) an explanation of why it is not technically feasible at the time of the request to formulate or manufacture the item without intentionally introducing a listed metal;

(3) that the person will seek alternatives to using the item by July 1, 1997, if it still contains an intentionally introduced listed metal; and

(4) the name, address, and telephone number of a person the commissioner can contact for further information.

(c) A person who submits a request for temporary exemption under paragraph (b) may submit a request for a temporary exemption after September 1, 1994, for an item that the person will use as an alternative to the item for which the request was originally made as long as the new item has a total concentration level of all the listed metals that is significantly less than in the original item. An exemption under this paragraph expires July 1, 1997, and the person who requests it must submit the progress description required in paragraph (e).

(d) By October 1, 1994, and annually thereafter if requests are received under paragraph (c), the commissioner shall submit to the legislative commission on waste management a list of manufacturers and persons that have requested an exemption under this subdivision and the items for which exemptions were sought, along with copies of the requests.

(e) By July 1, 1996, each manufacturer on the list shall submit to the commissioner a description of the progress the manufacturer has made toward compliance with subdivision 1, and the date compliance has been achieved or the date on or before July 1, 1997, by which the manufacturer anticipates achieving compliance. By July 1, 1996, each person who has requested an exemption under paragraph (b) or (c) shall submit to the commissioner:

(1) a description of progress made to eliminate the listed metal or metals from the item or progress made by the person to find a replacement item that does not contain an intentionally introduced listed metal; and

(2) the date or anticipated date the item is or will be free of intentionally introduced metals or the date the person has stopped or will stop using the item.

By October 1, 1996, the commissioner shall submit to the legislative commission a summary of the progress made by the manufacturers and other persons and any recommendations for appropriate legislative or other action to ensure that products are not distributed in the state after July 1, 1997, that violate subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION; ENFORCEMENT.] (a) This section does not apply to art supplies.

(b) This section may be enforced under sections 115.071 and 116.072. The attorney general or the commissioner of the agency shall coordinate enforcement of this section with the director of the office.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 115A.981, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] (a) The commissioner shall report to the legislative commission on waste management by July 1 of each odd-numbered year on the economic status and outlook of the state's solid waste management sector including an estimate of the extent to which prices for solid waste management paid by consumers reflect costs related to environmental and public health protection, including a discussion of how prices are publicly and privately subsidized and how identified costs of waste management are not reflected in the prices.

(b) In preparing the report, the commissioner shall:

(1) consult with the director; the metropolitan council; local government units; solid waste collectors, transporters, and processors; owners and operators of solid waste facilities; and other interested persons;

(2) consider and analyze information received under subdivision 2 and information available under section 115A.929; and

(3) analyze information gathered and comments received relating to the most recent solid waste management policy report prepared under section 115A.411.

The commissioner shall also recommend any legislation necessary to ensure adequate and reliable information needed for preparation of the report.

(c) The report must also include:

(1) statewide and facility by facility estimates of the total potential costs and liabilities associated with solid waste disposal facilities for closure and postclosure care, response costs under chapter 115B, and any other potential costs, liabilities, or financial responsibilities;

(2) statewide and facility by facility requirements for proof of financial responsibility under section 116.07, subdivision 4h, and how each facility is meeting those requirements.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 116.07, subdivision 4h, is amended to read:

Subd. 4h. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY RULES.] (a) The agency shall adopt rules requiring the operator or owner of a solid waste disposal facility to submit to the agency proof of the operator's or owner's financial capability to provide reasonable and necessary response during the operating life of the facility and for ~~20~~ 30 years after closure for a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility or for a minimum of 20 years after closure, as determined by agency rules, for any other solid waste disposal facility, and to provide for the closure of the facility and postclosure care required under agency rules. Proof of financial responsibility is required of the operator or owner of a facility receiving an original permit or a permit for expansion after adoption of the rules. Within 180 days of the effective date of the rules or by July 1, 1987, whichever is later, proof of financial responsibility is required of an operator or owner of a facility with a remaining capacity of more than five years or 500,000 cubic yards that is in operation at the time the rules are adopted. Compliance with the rules and the requirements of paragraph (b) is a condition of obtaining or retaining a permit to operate the facility.

(b) A municipality, as defined in section 475.51, subdivision 2, including a sanitary district, that owns or operates a solid waste disposal facility that was in operation on May 15, 1989, may meet its financial responsibility for all or a portion of the contingency action portion of the reasonable and necessary response costs at the facility by pledging its full faith and credit to meet its responsibility.

The pledge must be made in accordance with the requirements in chapter 475 for issuing bonds of the municipality, and the following additional requirements:

(1) The governing body of the municipality shall enact an ordinance that clearly accepts responsibility for the costs of contingency action at the facility and that reserves, during the operating life of the facility and for ~~20 years~~ the time period required in paragraph (a) after closure, a portion of the debt limit of the municipality, as established under section 475.53 or other law, that is equal to the total contingency action costs.

(2) The municipality shall require that all collectors that haul to the facility implement a plan for reducing solid waste by using volume-based pricing, recycling incentives, or other means.

(3) When a municipality opts to meet a portion of its financial responsibility by relying on its authority to issue bonds, it shall also begin setting aside in a dedicated long-term care trust fund money that will cover a portion of the potential contingency action costs at the facility, the amount to be determined by the agency for each facility based on at least the amount of waste deposited in the disposal facility each year, and the likelihood and potential timing of conditions arising at the facility that will necessitate response action. The agency may not require a municipality to set aside more than five percent of the total cost in a single year.

(4) A municipality shall have and consistently maintain an investment grade bond rating as a condition of using bonding authority to meet financial responsibility under this section.

(5) The municipality shall file with the commissioner of revenue its consent to have the amount of its contingency action costs deducted from state aid payments otherwise due the municipality and paid instead to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance account created in section 115B.20, if the municipality fails to conduct the contingency action at the facility when ordered by the agency. If the agency notifies the commissioner that the municipality has failed to conduct contingency action when ordered by the agency, the commissioner shall deduct the amounts indicated by the agency from the state aids in accordance with the consent filed with the commissioner.

(6) The municipality shall file with the agency written proof that it has complied with the requirements of paragraph (b).

(c) The method for proving financial responsibility under paragraph (b) may not be applied to a new solid waste disposal facility or to expansion of an existing facility, unless the expansion is a vertical expansion. Vertical expansions of qualifying existing facilities cannot be permitted for a duration of longer than three years.

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO ISSUE.] Pollution control agency staff designated by the commissioner and department of natural resources conservation officers may issue citations to a person who disposes of solid waste as defined in section 116.06, subdivision 22, at a location not authorized by law for the disposal of solid waste without permission of the owner of the property. A citation issued under this subdivision must include a requirement that the person cited remove and properly dispose of or otherwise manage the waste or reimburse any government agency that has disposed of the waste for the reasonable costs of disposal.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY AMOUNT.] The citation must impose the following penalty amounts:

(1) $100 per major appliance, as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 17a, up to a maximum of $2,000;

(2) $25 per waste tire, as defined in section 115A.90, subdivision 11, up to a maximum of $2,000;

(3) $25 per lead acid battery governed by section 115A.915, up to a maximum of $2,000;

(4) $1 per pound of other solid waste or $20 per cubic foot up to a maximum of $2,000; and

(5) up to $200 for any amount of waste that escapes from a vehicle used for the transportation of solid waste if, after receiving actual notice that waste has escaped the vehicle, the person or company transporting the waste fails to immediately collect the waste.

Subd. 3. [APPEALS.] Citations may be appealed under the procedures in section 116.072, subdivision 6, if the person requests a hearing by notifying the commissioner in writing within 15 days after receipt of the citation. If a hearing is not requested within the 15-day period, the citation becomes a final order not subject to further review.

Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT OF FIELD CITATIONS.] Field citations may be enforced under section 116.072, subdivisions 9 and 10.

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDY.] The authority to issue field citations is in addition to other remedies available under statutory or common law, except that the state may not seek penalties under any other provision of law for the incident subject to the citation.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 116.731, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [VENTING.] A person may not knowingly vent or otherwise release into the environment any CFC used as a refrigerant in appliances.

Sec. 35. [116.735] [APPLIANCE RECYCLERS AND SERVICERS; TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION.]

The agency shall develop standards of competence for persons who service or recycle appliances that may contain CFCs and the commissioner may conduct training programs for persons who service or recycle appliances. A person engaged in the business of recycling appliances as described in section 115A.9561, subdivision 2, shall, and a person who services appliances may, obtain from the commissioner a certificate of competence or equivalent federal certification that has been approved by the commissioner.

The agency may adopt rules to implement this section.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 116.76, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMERCIAL TRANSPORTER.] "Commercial transporter" means a person, other than the United States government, who transports infectious or pathological waste for compensation.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 116.79, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PREPARATION OF MANAGEMENT PLANS.] (a) To the extent applicable to the facility, a person in charge of a facility that generates, stores, decontaminates, incinerates, or disposes of infectious or pathological waste must prepare a management plan for the infectious or pathological waste handled by the facility. A person may prepare a common management plan for all generating facilities owned and operated by the person. If a single plan is prepared to cover multiple facilities, the plan must identify common policy and procedures for the facilities and any management procedures that are facility specific. The plan must identify each generating facility covered by the plan. A management plan must list all physicians, dentists, chiropractors, podiatrists, veterinarians, certified nurse practitioners, certified nurse midwives, or physician assistants, employed by, under contract to, or working at the generating facilities, except hospitals or laboratories. A management plan from a hospital must list the number of licensed beds and from a laboratory must list the number of generating employees.

(b) The management plan must describe, to the extent the information is applicable to the facility:

(1) the type of infectious waste and pathological waste that the person generates or handles;

(2) the segregation, packaging, labeling, collection, storage, and transportation procedures for the infectious waste or pathological waste that will be followed;

(3) the decontamination or disposal methods for the infectious or pathological waste that will be used;

(4) the transporters and disposal facilities that will be used for the infectious waste;

(5) the steps that will be taken to minimize the exposure of employees to infectious agents throughout the process of disposing of infectious or pathological wastes; and

(6) the name of the individual responsible for the management of the infectious waste or pathological waste.

(c) If the generator mails sharps for storage, decontamination, or disposal, the plan must specify how the generator will comply with applicable federal laws and rules. The plan must also specify the name, address, and telephone number of the facility to which the sharps are mailed, the name of the person who receives the sharps at the facility, and the annual amount mailed to the facility. If the facility to which the sharps are mailed is not the disposal facility, the plan must also identify the disposal facility.

(d) The management plan must be kept at the facility.

(e) To the extent applicable to the facility, management plans must be accompanied by a statement of the quantity of infectious and pathological waste generated, decontaminated, stored, incinerated, or disposed of at the facility during the previous two-year period. Quantities shall be reported in pounds.

(f) A management plan must be updated at least once every two years.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 116.92, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [BAN; TOYS OR, GAMES, AND APPAREL.] A person may not sell for resale or at retail in this state a toy or game that contains mercury, or an item of clothing or wearing apparel that is exempt from sales tax under section 297A.25, subdivision 8, that contains an electric switch that contains mercury.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 400.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

[MANAGEMENT AND SERVICE CONTRACTS.] Notwithstanding sections 375.21 and 471.345, a county may enter into contracts for the construction, installation, maintenance and operation of property and facilities on private or public lands and may contract for the furnishing of solid waste management services upon terms and conditions determined by the board, with or without advertisement for bids, including the use of conditional sales contracts and lease-purchase agreements. If a county contract is let by negotiation, without advertising for bids, the county shall conduct negotiations and award the contract using a fair and open procedure and in full compliance with section 471.705. If an agency permit is required for a solid waste service, a contract entered into under this subdivision is not binding until the permit is issued.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 473.149, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The council shall report on abatement to the legislative commission on waste management by July 1 of each year. The report must include an assessment of whether the objectives of the metropolitan abatement plan have been met and whether each county and each class of city within each county have achieved the objectives set for it in the council's plan. The report must recommend any legislation that may be required to implement the plan. The report shall include the reports required by sections 115A.551, subdivision 5 4; 473.846; and 473.848, subdivision 4. If in any year the council reports that the objectives of the council's abatement plan have not been met, the council shall evaluate and report on the need to reassign governmental responsibilities among cities, counties, and metropolitan agencies to assure implementation and achievement of the metropolitan and local abatement plans and objectives.

The report in each even-numbered year must include a report on the operating, capital, and debt service costs of solid waste facilities in the metropolitan area; changes in the costs; the methods used to pay the costs; and the resultant allocation of costs among users of the facilities and the general public. The facility costs report must present the cost and financing analysis in the aggregate and broken down by county and by major facility.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.803, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ROLE OF PRIVATE SECTOR; COUNTY OVERSIGHT.] A county may include in its solid waste management master plan and in its plan for county land disposal abatement a determination that the private sector will achieve, either in part or in whole, the goals and requirements of sections 473.149 and 473.803, as long as the county:

(1) retains active oversight over the efforts of the private sector and monitors performance to ensure compliance with the law and the goals and standards of the council and the county as expressed in the metropolitan solid waste management plan and the county master plan;

(2) continues to meet its responsibilities under the law for ensuring proper waste management, including, at a minimum, enforcing waste management law, providing waste education, promoting waste reduction, and providing its residents the opportunity to recycle waste materials; and

(3) continues to provide all required reports on the county's progress in meeting the waste management goals and standards of this chapter and chapter 115A.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE COLLECTION AND TRANSPORTATION.] (a) Each metropolitan county may adopt ordinances governing the collection of solid waste. A county may adopt, but may not be required to adopt, an ordinance that requires the separation from mixed municipal waste, by generators before collection, of materials that can readily be separated for use or reuse as substitutes for raw materials or for transformation into a usable soil amendment.

(b) Each local unit of government within the metropolitan area shall adopt an ordinance governing the collection of solid waste within its boundaries. If the county within which it is located has adopted a collection ordinance, the local unit shall adopt either the county ordinance by reference or a more strict ordinance. If the county within which it is located has adopted a separation ordinance, the ordinance applies in all local units within the county that have failed to meet the local abatement performance standards, as stated in the most recent annual county report.

(c) Ordinances of counties and local government units may establish reasonable conditions respecting but shall not prevent the transportation of solid waste by a licensed collector through and between counties and local units, except as required for the enforcement of any designation of a facility by a county under chapter 115A or for enforcement of the prohibition on disposal of unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste under sections 473.848 and 473.849.

(d) A licensed collector or a metropolitan county or local government unit may request review by the council of an ordinance adopted under this subdivision. The council shall approve or disapprove the ordinance within 60 days of the submission of a request for review. The ordinance shall remain in effect unless it is disapproved.

(e) Ordinances of counties and local units of government:

(1) shall provide for the enforcement of any designation of facilities by the counties under chapter 115A;

(2) may require waste collectors and transporters to deliver unprocessed mixed municipal waste generated in the county to processing facilities; and

(3) may prohibit waste collectors and transporters from delivering unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste generated in the county to disposal facilities for final disposal.

(f) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the authority of the local government unit to regulate and license collectors of solid waste or to require review or approval by the council for ordinances regulating collection.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE FACILITIES.] Each metropolitan county shall by ordinance establish and from time to time revise rules, regulations, and standards for solid waste facilities within the county, relating to location, sanitary operation, periodic inspection and monitoring, maintenance, termination and abandonment, and other pertinent matters. The county ordinance may require facilities accepting mixed municipal solid waste for disposal to install scales. The county ordinance may prohibit disposal facilities from accepting unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste for final disposal. The county ordinance shall require permits or licenses for solid waste facilities and shall require that such facilities be registered with a county office.

Sec. 44. [473.812] [RECORDS; INSPECTION.]

For the purpose of enforcing section 473.811 or ordinances adopted under that section, a county has the responsibilities and authorities for record inspection under section 115A.882, regardless of whether the county has adopted a designation ordinance under sections 115A.80 to 115A.893.

(b) A facility that does not weigh the waste but that measures the volume of the waste that it accepts must pay a fee of $2 per cubic yard of waste accepted at the entrance of the facility. This fee and the tipping fee must be calculated on the same basis.

(c) Waste residue, from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purposes of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse, is exempt from the fee imposed by this subdivision if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. To qualify for exemption under this clause, waste residue must be brought to a disposal facility separately. The commissioner of revenue, with the advice and assistance of the council and the agency, shall prescribe procedures for determining the amount of waste residue qualifying for exemption.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.844, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [USE OF FUNDS.] (a) The money in the account may be spent only for the following purposes:

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES FROM THE FUND.] Money in the fund may only be appropriated to the agency for expenditure for:

(1) reasonable and necessary expenses for closure and postclosure care of a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility in the metropolitan area for a ~~20-year~~ 30-year period after closure, if the agency determines that the operator or owner will not take the necessary actions requested by the agency for closure and postclosure in the manner and within the time requested;

(2) reasonable and necessary response and postclosure costs at a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility in the metropolitan area that has been closed for ~~20~~ 30 years in compliance with the closure and postclosure rules of the agency; or

(3) reimbursement to a local government unit for costs incurred over $400,000 under a work plan approved by the commissioner of the agency to remediate methane at a closed disposal facility owned by the local government unit.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 473.846, is amended to read:

473.846 [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The agency and metropolitan council shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house ways and means committee, and the legislative commission on waste management separate reports describing the activities for which money from the landfill abatement account and contingency action trust fund has been spent during the previous fiscal year. The agency shall report by November 1 of each year on expenditures during its previous fiscal year. The council shall report on expenditures during the previous calendar year and must incorporate its report in the report required by section 473.149, due July 1 of each year. [RESTRICTION.] (a) After January 1, 1990 For the purposes of implementing the waste management policies in section 115A.02 and metropolitan area goals related to landfill abatement established under this chapter, a person may not dispose of unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste generated in the metropolitan area at a waste disposal facilities located in the metropolitan area facility unless the waste disposal facility meets the standards in section 473.849 and:

(1) the waste has been certified as unprocessable by a county under subdivision 2; or

(2)(i) the waste has been transferred to the disposal facility from a resource recovery facility;

(ii) no other resource recovery facility is serving the metropolitan area is capable of processing the waste; and

(iii) the waste has been certified as unprocessable by the operator of the resource recovery facility under subdivision 3.

(b) For purposes of this section, mixed municipal solid waste does not include street sweepings, construction debris, mining waste, foundry sand, and other materials, if they are not capable of being processed by resource recovery as determined by the council.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.848, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DEFINITION.] For the purpose of this section, waste is "unprocessed" if it has not, after collection and before disposal, undergone at least one process, as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 25, excluding storage, exchange, and transfer of the waste separation of materials for resource recovery through recycling, incineration for energy production, production and use of refuse-derived fuel, composting, or any combination of these processes so that the weight of the waste remaining that must be disposed of in a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility is not more than 35 percent of the weight before processing; on an annual average.

Sec. 51. [ELECTRONIC APPLIANCES; REPORT.]

By July 1, 1995, the director of the office of waste management, in consultation with the commissioner of the pollution control agency and counties, shall submit a report to the legislative commission on waste management regarding management of waste electronic appliances that:

(2) identifies whether the use of mercury in the products is essential, whether alternatives exist to using mercury, and what those alternatives are; and

(3) recommends legislation to address public health and environmental protection in the distribution, sale, and use of products into which mercury has been intentionally introduced and to address reduction of mercury in the products and management of the products when they become waste, including recommendations for banning specific products when the costs of management as waste outweigh the benefits that accrue from distribution, sale, and use of the products.

Sec. 53. [RECYCLING FACILITIES; REPORT.]

By July 1, 1995, the commissioner of the pollution control agency shall submit to the legislative commission on waste management a report that contains:

In preparing the report, the commissioner shall consult with the director of the office of waste management, the chair of the metropolitan council, counties, and the recycling industry.

Sec. 54. [ADDITION TO FEE REPORT.]

The director of the office of waste management shall include in the solid waste fee report due December 1, 1994, required under Laws 1993, chapter 172, section 92, an analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of expanding the authority of counties, under Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.919, to also authorize fees on waste delivered to transfer stations, incinerator ash disposal facilities, and industrial waste disposal facilities. This portion of the report must discuss at least:

(1) arguments for and against expansion of the fees;

(2) if expansion may be appropriate, whether expanded fee authority should be limited to the metropolitan area or should be applied statewide;

(3) if expansion may be appropriate, whether the legislature should set the amount of the fees, place a maximum amount on fees in statute, or allow counties to determine the amount of the fees;

(4) if expansion may be appropriate, how revenue from the fees should be used, how to avoid fees being paid for the same waste more than once and how to structure fees to have a minimal effect on cooperative agreements between counties governing waste management; and

(5) how expanding or not expanding application of the fees will affect competition between similar types of facilities and will affect whether waste is managed in the most environmentally sound manner.

Sec. 55. [DELAYED REPORTS.]

The 1994 date for reports required under Minnesota Statutes, sections 115A.551, subdivision 4; and 115A.557, subdivision 4, is delayed until August 1, 1994.

“Sec. 2. [256.0281] [RESTRUCTURING OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.]

The commissioners of human services and jobs and training shall develop a plan for first-time application for aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) and family general assistance (FGA) in order to assure that, during the first six months of eligibility, first-time applicants for AFDC and FGA will receive the following in lieu of standard AFDC or FGA:

- (1) immediate and enhanced job search and placement activities;
- (2) if an unsubsidized job is not located within the first 60 days, or at an earlier date recommended by the commissioners, then subsidized employment in the private or public sector or a placement in a community service job that pays wages up to the value of AFDC or FGA is required;
- (3) priority help in establishing child support enforcement;
- (4) child care assistance for job search activities and employment;
- (5) eligibility for medical care; and
- (6) vendor payments for need items included in the AFDC consolidated standard of assistance under the state plan.

The commissioners shall consider to what extent exceptions should be made for:

- (1) a person who is suffering from a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;
- (2) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the professionally certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household;
- (3) a person who has been placed in, and is residing in, a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, or in an approved chemical dependency domiciliary facility, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the county agency through its director or designated representative;
- (4) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in section 256D.05, subdivision 3;
- (5) a person not described in clause (1) or (3) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician, licensed psychologist, or other qualified professional, as mentally retarded or mentally ill, and that condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;
- (6) a person who has an application pending for, or is appealing termination of benefits from, the Social Security Disability program or the program of Supplemental Security Income for the aged, blind, and disabled, provided the person has a professionally certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(7) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because advanced age significantly affects the person's ability to seek or engage in substantial work; and

(8) a pregnant woman, if it has been medically verified that the child is expected to be born within the next six months.

The commissioners shall present to the 1995 legislature a statewide phased-in implementation plan, starting in counties designated by the commissioners which includes employability assessment criteria, feasibility of colocation of services, and a description of the modifications that the commissioners recommend. The plan must identify needed federal waivers, evaluation criteria, state plan amendments, and other approvals under the AFDC and job opportunities and basic skills (JOBS) program. The commissioner's plan must include implementation of the project by October 1, 1995, or after the necessary waivers are approved, whichever is later. The commissioners shall also provide to the legislature, by February 1, 1997, a report which includes a comparison of the immediate job search project under section 31 and the project implemented under this section.

Sec. 3. [256.0282] [RESTRUCTURING OF PROJECT STRIDE.]

The commissioners of human services and jobs and training shall develop recommendations to restructure the program entitled "success through reaching individual development and employment" (STRIDE), under sections 256.73 to 256.739, to effectively and efficiently employ AFDC recipients. The commissioners shall identify modifications necessary to implement the following principles:

(1) employment is the expected program outcome;

(2) training and education will be used primarily to enhance job skills of employed participants;

(3) adequate support services shall remain available until the recipient achieves employment that provides wages that enable the recipient to be self-sufficient;

(4) aggressive development of job markets;

(5) extended post-placement follow-up to retain current employment or move to better jobs;

(6) concurrent services which combine education and employment;

(7) within the limits of available funding, certain categories of AFDC recipients shall be required to participate in project STRIDE services after two years; and

(8) failure to participate will result in termination of assistance for noncompliant participants under the Family Support Act of 1988.

The commissioners shall present to the 1995 legislature a plan which includes specific categories for mandatory participants and a description of the modifications that the commissioners recommend within existing appropriations. The proposal must identify needed federal waivers, state plan amendments, and other approvals under the AFDC and JOBS programs.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.031, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AUTHORIZATION FOR THE DEMONSTRATION.] (a) The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the commissioners of education, finance, jobs and training, health, and planning, and the director of the higher education coordinating board, is authorized to proceed with the planning and designing of the Minnesota family investment plan and to implement the plan to test policies, methods, and cost impact on an experimental basis by using field trials. The commissioner, under the authority in section 256.01, subdivision 2, shall implement the plan according to sections 256.031 to 256.0361 and Public Law Numbers 101-202 and 101-239, section 8015, as amended. If major and unpredicted costs to the program occur, the commissioner may take corrective action consistent with Public Law Numbers 101-202 and 101-239, which may include termination of the program. Before taking such corrective action, the commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the senate family services committee, the house health and human services committee, the health care and family services division of the senate family services and health care committees and the human services division of the house health and human services committee, or, if the legislature is not in session, consult with the legislative advisory commission.

(b) The field trials shall be conducted as permitted under federal law, for as many years as necessary, and in different geographical settings, to provide reliable instruction about the desirability of expanding the program statewide.

(c) The commissioner shall select the counties which shall serve as field trial or comparison sites based on criteria which ensure reliable evaluation of the program.

(d) The commissioner is authorized to determine the number of families and characteristics of subgroups to be included in the evaluation.

(i) A family that applies for or is currently receiving financial assistance from aid to families with dependent children; family general assistance or work readiness; or food stamps may be tested for eligibility for aid to families with dependent children or family general assistance and may be assigned by the commissioner to a test or a comparison group for the purposes of evaluating the family investment plan. A family found not eligible for aid to families with dependent children or family general assistance will be tested for eligibility for the food stamp program. If found eligible for the food stamp program, the commissioner may randomly assign the family to a test group, comparison group, or neither group. Families assigned to a test group receive benefits and services through the family investment plan. Families assigned to a comparison group receive benefits and services through existing programs. A family may not select the group to which it is assigned. Once assigned to a group, an eligible family must remain in that group for the duration of the project.

(ii) To evaluate the effectiveness of the family investment plan, the commissioner may designate a subgroup of families from the test group who shall be exempt from section 256.035, subdivision 1, and shall not receive case management services under section 256.035, subdivision 6a. Families are eligible for services under section 256.736 to the same extent as families receiving AFDC.

(e) After field trials have begun, the commissioner may extend field trials of the Minnesota family investment plan to Ramsey county with county board consent. This extension of the field trials may be executed only if permitted under federal law, and is subject to federal approval. Ramsey county shall coordinate efforts with the community when developing the service delivery plan under section 256.0361, subdivision 1.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [ELIGIBILITY NOT BARRED BY WORKING OVER 99 HOURS; PAST EMPLOYMENT HISTORY; AND 30-DAY WAITING PERIOD.] An individual receiving assistance may work over 99 hours per month and remain eligible for assistance, provided all other requirements of the aid to families with dependent children are met. The applicant is not required to demonstrate past employment history or 30 days of prior unemployment to be eligible for AFDC-unemployed parent. This subdivision is effective upon federal approval of the request to waive the applicable federal regulations and remains effective for the duration of the waiver.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [PARENTING OR PREGNANT MINORS; RESTRICTION ON ASSISTANCE WITH FEDERAL EXCEPTIONS.] (a) The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Minor parent" means an individual who:

(i) is under the age of 18;

(ii) has never been married; and

(iii) is either the natural parent of a dependent child living in the same household or eligible for assistance paid to a pregnant woman under subdivision 5.

(2) "Household of a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative" means the place of residence of:

(i) a natural or adoptive parent;

(ii) a legal guardian pursuant to appointment or acceptance under section 260.242, 525.615, or 525.6165, and related laws; or

(iii) another individual who is age 18 or over and related to the minor parent as specified in Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.90(c)(1)(v), provided that the residence is maintained as a home for the minor parent and child under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.90(c)(1)(v)(B).

(3) "Adult-supervised supportive living arrangement" means a private family setting or other living arrangement, not including a public institution, which, as determined by the county agency, is maintained as a family setting, as evidenced by the assumption of responsibility for the care and control of the minor parent and dependent child or the provision of supportive services, such as counseling, guidance, or supervision.

(b) A minor parent and the dependent child who is in the care of the minor parent must reside in the household of a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative, or in an adult-supervised supportive living arrangement in order to receive AFDC unless:

(1) the minor parent has no living parent or legal guardian whose whereabouts is known;

(2) no living parent or legal guardian of the minor parent allows the minor parent to live in the parent's or legal guardian's home;

(3) the minor parent lived apart from the minor parent's own parent or legal guardian for a period of at least one year before either the birth of the dependent child or the parent's having made application for AFDC;

(4) the physical or emotional health or safety of the minor parent or dependent child would be jeopardized if they resided in the same residence with the minor parent's parent or legal guardian; or

(5) the minor parent and dependent child have, on the effective date of this section, been living independently as part of an approved social services plan for less than the one-year period required under clause (3).

(c) Minor applicants must be informed orally and in writing about the eligibility requirements and their rights and obligations under the program.

(d) If a minor parent makes allegations supporting the conclusion that paragraph (b), clause (4), applies, a referral must be made to child protective services, and child protective services must determine, or must have previously determined, that the home is not safe due to alleged maltreatment or that protective services are needed.

(e) If a minor parent is not living with a parent or legal guardian due to paragraph (b), clause (2) or (4), the minor parent must reside in a living arrangement that meets the standards of paragraph (a), clause (3).

(f) AFDC must be paid in the form of a protective payment on behalf of the minor parent and dependent child to the minor parent's parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 234.60.

(g) This subdivision is effective until the request to waive the federal exceptions is granted, except for persons in the control group. After the waiver is granted, this subdivision is applicable only to persons in the control group, which is necessary to evaluate the effect of the federal waiver.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5b. [PARENTING OR PREGNANT MINORS; RESTRICTION ON ASSISTANCE WITH STATE EXCEPTIONS.] (a) The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Minor parent" means an individual who:

(i) is under the age of 18;

(ii) has never been married; and

(iii) is either the natural parent of a dependent child living in the same household or eligible for assistance paid to a pregnant woman under subdivision 5.

(2) "Household of a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative" means the place of residence of:

(i) a natural or adoptive parent;

(ii) a legal guardian pursuant to appointment or acceptance under section 260.242, 525.615, or 525.6165, and related laws; or

(iii) another individual who is age 18 or over and related to the minor parent as specified in Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.90(c)(1)(v), provided that the residence is maintained as a home for the minor parent and child under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.90(c)(1)(v)(B).

(3) "Adult-supervised supportive living arrangement" means a private family setting or other living arrangement, not including a public institution, which, as determined by the county agency, is maintained as a family setting, as evidenced by the assumption of responsibility for the care and control of the minor parent and dependent child or the provision of supportive services, such as counseling, guidance, or supervision.

(b) A minor parent and the dependent child who is in the care of the minor parent must reside in the household of a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative, or in an adult-supervised supportive living arrangement in order to receive AFDC unless:

(1) the minor parent applying for aid has no parent or legal guardian whose whereabouts are known;

(2) the county determines that the minor parent or the minor's dependent child has been a victim of neglect, sexual abuse, physical abuse, mental injury, or threatened injury as defined in section 626.556, subdivision 1, by a parent, or an individual residing in the same home as the minor parent; or

(3) no living parent or legal guardian of the minor parent allows the minor parent to live in the parent's or legal guardian's home.

(c) AFDC must be paid in the form of a protective payment on behalf of the minor parent and dependent child to the minor parent's parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 234.60.

(d) This subdivision supersedes subdivision 5a, except for persons in the control group under subdivision 5a, clause (g), and is effective upon federal approval of the request to waive the exceptions in the federal regulation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.73, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 8a, if an amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient in excess of the payment due, it shall be recoverable by the county agency. The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment.

(b) When an overpayment occurs, the county agency shall recover the overpayment from a current recipient by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the recipient is a member for one or more monthly assistance payments until the overpayment is repaid. All county agencies in the state shall reduce the assistance payment by three percent of the assistance unit's standard of need or the amount of the monthly payment, whichever is less, for all overpayments whether or not the overpayment is due solely to agency error. If the overpayment is due solely to having wrongfully obtained assistance, whether based on a court order, the finding of an administrative fraud disqualification hearing or a waiver of such a hearing, or a confession of judgment containing an admission of an intentional program violation, the amount of this reduction shall be ten percent. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment, the county agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment.

(c) Overpayments may also be voluntarily repaid, in part or in full, by the individual, in addition to the above aid reductions, until the total amount of the overpayment is repaid.

(d) The county agency shall make reasonable efforts to recover overpayments to persons no longer on assistance in accordance with standards adopted in rule by the commissioner of human services. The county agency need not attempt to recover overpayments of less than $35 paid to an individual no longer on assistance if the individual does not receive assistance again within three years, unless the individual has been convicted of fraud under section 256.98.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [START WORK OFFSET.] An overpayment resulting from earned income received in the first month of employment is not recoverable by the county agency provided the aid to families with dependent children assistance unit has not previously received a start work offset. A "start work offset" for purposes of this subdivision is the amount of the overpayment the assistance unit would otherwise be required to pay to the county under subdivision 8. This exception to subdivision 8 is available every two years to an aid to families with dependent children assistance unit.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [COUNTY DUTIES.] (a) To the extent of available state appropriations, county boards shall:

- (1) refer all mandatory and eligible volunteer caretakers permitted to participate under subdivision 3a to an employment and training service provider for participation in employment and training services;
- (2) identify to the employment and training service provider the target group of which the referred caretaker is a member;
- (3) provide all caretakers with an orientation which meets the requirements in subdivisions 10a and 10b;
- (4) work with the employment and training service provider to encourage voluntary participation by caretakers in the target groups;
- (5) work with the employment and training service provider to collect data as required by the commissioner;

(6) to the extent permissible under federal law, require all caretakers coming into the AFDC program to attend orientation;

(7) encourage nontarget caretakers to develop a plan to obtain self-sufficiency;

(8) notify the commissioner of the caretakers required to participate in employment and training services;

(9) inform appropriate caretakers of opportunities available through the head start program and encourage caretakers to have their children screened for enrollment in the program where appropriate;

(10) provide transportation assistance using available funds to caretakers who participate in employment and training programs;

(11) ensure that orientation, job search, services to custodial parents under the age of 20, educational activities and work experience for AFDC-UP families, and case management services are made available to appropriate caretakers under this section, except that payment for case management services is governed by subdivision 13;

(12) explain in its local service unit plan under section 268.88 how it will ensure that target caretakers determined to be in need of social services are provided with such social services. The plan must specify how the case manager and the county social service workers will ensure delivery of needed services;

(13) to the extent allowed by federal laws and regulations, provide a job search program as defined in subdivision 14, a community work experience program as defined in section 256.737, grant diversion as defined in section 256.739, and on-the-job training as defined in section 256.738. A county may also provide another work and training program approved by the commissioner and the secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Planning and approval for employment and training services listed in this clause must be obtained through submission of the local service unit plan as specified under section 268.88. A county is not required to provide a community work experience program if the county agency is successful in placing at least 40 percent of the monthly average of all caretakers who are subject to the job search requirements of subdivision 14 in grant diversion or on-the-job training program;

(14) prior to participation, provide an assessment of each AFDC recipient who is required or volunteers to participate in an approved employment and training service. The assessment must include an evaluation of the participant's (i) educational, child care, and other supportive service needs; (ii) skills and prior work experience; and (iii) ability to secure and retain a job which, when wages are added to child support, will support the participant's family. The assessment must also include a review of the results of the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) screening and preschool screening under chapter 123, if available; the participant's family circumstances; and, in the case of a custodial parent under the age of 18, a review of the effect of a child's developmental and educational needs on the parent's ability to participate in the program;

(15) develop an employability development plan for each recipient for whom an assessment is required under clause (14) which: (i) reflects the assessment required by clause (14); (ii) takes into consideration the recipient's physical capacity, skills, experience, health and safety, family responsibilities, place of residence, proficiency, child care and other supportive service needs; (iii) is based on available resources and local employment opportunities; (iv) specifies the services to be provided by the employment and training service provider; (v) specifies the activities the recipient will participate in, including the worksite to which the caretaker will be assigned, if the caretaker is subject to the requirements of section 256.737, subdivision 2; (vi) specifies necessary supportive services such as child care; (vii) to the extent possible, reflects the preferences of the participant; ~~and~~ (viii) includes a written agreement between the county agency and the caregiver that outlines a reasonable schedule for completing the plan, including specific completion deadlines, and confirms that (A) there is a market for full-time employees with this education or training where the caregiver will or is willing to reside upon completion of the program; (B) the average wage level for employees with this education or training is greater than the caregiver can earn without this education or training; (C) the caregiver has the academic ability to successfully complete the program; and (D) there is a reasonable expectation that the caregiver will complete the training program based on such factors as the caregiver's previous education, training, work history, current motivation, and changes in previous circumstances; and (ix) specifies the recipient's long-term employment goal which shall lead to self-sufficiency;

(16) obtain the written or oral concurrence of the appropriate exclusive bargaining representatives with respect to job duties covered under collective bargaining agreements to assure that no work assignment under this section or sections 256.737, 256.738, and 256.739 results in: (i) termination, layoff, or reduction of the work hours of an employee for the purpose of hiring an individual under this section or sections 256.737, 256.738, and 256.739; (ii) the hiring of an individual if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job; (iii) any infringement of the promotional opportunities of any currently employed individual; (iv) the impairment of existing contracts for services or collective bargaining agreements; or (v) except for on-the-job training under section 256.738, a participant filling an established unfilled position vacancy; and

(17) assess each caretaker in an AFDC-UP family who is under age 25, has not completed high school or a high school equivalency program, and who would otherwise be required to participate in a work experience placement under section 256.737 to determine if an appropriate secondary education option is available for the caretaker. If an appropriate secondary education option is determined to be available for the caretaker, the caretaker must, in lieu of participating in work experience, enroll in and meet the educational program's participation and attendance requirements. "Secondary education" for this paragraph means high school education or education designed to prepare a person to qualify for a high school equivalency certificate, basic and remedial education, and English as a second language education. A caretaker required to participate in secondary education who, without good cause, fails to participate shall be subject to the provisions of subdivision 4a and the sanction provisions of subdivision 4, clause (6). For purposes of this clause, "good cause" means the inability to obtain licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the caretaker to attend, inability to obtain transportation needed to attend, illness or incapacity of the caretaker or another member of the household which requires the caretaker to be present in the home, or being employed for more than 30 hours per week.

(b) Funds available under this subdivision may not be used to assist, promote, or deter union organizing.

(c) A county board may provide other employment and training services that it considers necessary to help caretakers obtain self-sufficiency.

(d) Notwithstanding section 256G.07, when a target caretaker relocates to another county to implement the provisions of the caretaker's case management contract or other written employability development plan approved by the county human service agency, its case manager or employment and training service provider, the county that approved the plan is responsible for the costs of case management and other services required to carry out the plan, including employment and training services. The county agency's responsibility for the costs ends when all plan obligations have been met, when the caretaker loses AFDC eligibility for at least 30 days, or when approval of the plan is withdrawn for a reason stated in the plan, whichever occurs first. Responsibility for the costs of child care must be determined under chapter 256H. A county human service agency may pay for the costs of case management, child care, and other services required in an approved employability development plan when the nontarget caretaker relocates to another county or when a target caretaker again becomes eligible for AFDC after having been ineligible for at least 30 days.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [JOB SEARCH.] (a) Each county agency must establish and operate a job search program as provided under this section. Unless exempt, the principal wage earner in an AFDC-UP assistance unit must be referred to and begin participation in the job search program within 30 days of being determined eligible for AFDC. Unless exempt, an AFDC caretaker who has received AFDC for at least 36 months or more out of the last 60 months must also be referred to and begin participation in the job search program, but is not required to participate in the work experience program under section 256.737, the on-the-job training program under section 256.738, or the grant diversion program under section 256.739, under paragraph (d). If the principal wage earner is exempt from participation in job search, the other caretaker must be referred to and begin participation in the job search program within 30 days of being determined eligible for AFDC. The principal wage earner ~~or the~~, other caretaker, or the caretaker who has been on assistance for at least 36 out of the last 60 months is exempt from job search participation if:

(1) the caretaker is exempt from registration under subdivision 3; or

(2) the caretaker is under age 25, has not completed a high school diploma or an equivalent program, and is participating in a secondary education program as defined in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (17), which is approved by the employment and training service provider in the employability development plan.

(b) The job search program must provide four consecutive weeks of job search activities for no less than 20 hours per week but not more than 32 hours per week. The employment and training service provider shall specify for each participating caretaker the number of weeks and hours of job search to be conducted and shall report to the county agency if the caretaker fails to cooperate with the job search requirement. For purposes of the AFDC caretakers who have received AFDC for at least 36 months or more out of the last 60 months, the job search must also include 32 hours of job search training. The commissioners of human services and jobs and training shall develop criteria so that job search shall include a maximum of 32 hours of training for participants in how to search for employment, development of a personal resume, use of job banks and other employer identification methods, practice of effective interviewing skills, familiarity of appropriate work behaviors, identification of specific job openings, and a plan to apply for such openings. The employment and training service provider shall report to the county agency if the caretaker fails to cooperate with the job search requirement.

(c) The job search program may provide services to ~~non-AFDC UP~~ caretakers not mandated to participate in the job search program.

(d) After completion of job search requirements in this section, nonexempt caretakers shall be placed in and must participate in and cooperate with the work experience program under section 256.737, the on-the-job training program under section 256.738, or the grant diversion program under section 256.739. Caretakers must be offered placement in a grant diversion or on-the-job training program, if either such employment is available, before being required to participate in a community work experience program under section 256.737.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.81, is amended to read:

256.81 [COUNTY AGENCY, DUTIES.]

(1) The county agency shall keep such records, accounts, and statistics in relation to aid to families with dependent children as the state agency shall prescribe.

(2) Each grant of aid to families with dependent children shall be paid to the recipient by the county agency unless paid by the state agency. Payment must be by check or electronic means except in those instances in which the county agency, subject to the rules of the state agency, determines that payments for care shall be made to an individual other than the parent or relative with whom the dependent child is living or to vendors of goods and services for the benefit of the child because such parent or relative is unable to properly manage the funds in the best interests and welfare of the child. At the request of a recipient, the state or county may make payments directly to vendors of goods and services, but only for goods and services appropriate to maintain the health and safety of the child, as determined by the county.

(3) The state or county may ask the recipient to give written consent authorizing the state or county to provide advance notice to a vendor before vendor payments of rent are reduced or terminated. Whenever possible under state and federal laws and regulations and if the recipient consents, the state or county shall provide at least 30 days notice to vendors before vendor payments of rent are reduced or terminated. If 30 days notice cannot be given, the state or county shall notify the vendor within three working days after the date the state or county becomes aware that vendor payments of rent will be reduced or terminated. When the county notifies a vendor that vendor payments of rent will be reduced or terminated, the county shall include in the notice that it is illegal to discriminate on the grounds that a person is receiving public assistance and the penalties for violation. The county shall also notify the recipient that it is illegal to discriminate on the grounds that a person is receiving public assistance and the procedures for filing a complaint. The county agency may develop procedures, including using the MAXIS system, to implement vendor notice and may charge vendors a fee not exceeding $5 to cover notification costs.

(4) A vendor payment arrangement is not a guarantee that a vendor will be paid by the state or county for rent, goods, or services furnished to a recipient, and the state and county are not liable for any damages claimed by a vendor due to failure of the state or county to pay or to notify the vendor on behalf of a recipient, except under a specific written agreement between the state or county and the vendor or when the state or county has provided a voucher guaranteeing payment under certain conditions.

(5) The county shall be paid from state and federal funds available therefor the amount provided for in section 256.82.

(6) Federal funds available for administrative purposes shall be distributed between the state and the counties in the same proportion that expenditures were made except as provided for in section 256.017.

(7) The commissioner and affected county may require that assistance paid under the aid to families with dependent children emergency assistance program in the form of a rental unit damage deposit, less any amount retained by the landlord to pay for property damage, be returned to the county when the assistance unit vacates the premises or paid to the recipient's new landlord as a vendor payment.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.979, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ACCRUAL OF SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS.] The commissioner of human services shall seek a waiver from the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to enable the agency to accrue child support payments received on behalf of both AFDC and non-AFDC clients until the sum total of the money owed by the state agency to the client is at least $10. Obligor shall be assessed a processing fee of $10 to be retained by the county agency in every instance when both of the following conditions exist:

- (1) the obligor pays less than the required monthly support obligation; and*
- (2) that reduced payment would result in a child support payment to an AFDC or non-AFDC client of less than $10 for that month.*

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256.983, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAMS ESTABLISHED.] Within the limits of available appropriations, and to the extent required or authorized by applicable federal regulations, the commissioner of human services shall require the establishment of fraud prevention investigation programs in the seven counties participating in the fraud prevention investigation pilot project established under section 256.983, and in 11 additional Minnesota counties with the largest aid to families with dependent children program caseloads as of July 1, 1991. If funds are sufficient, the commissioner may also extend fraud prevention investigation programs to: (1) other counties that have welfare fraud control programs already in place based on enhanced funding contracts covering the fraud investigation function; and (2) counties that have the largest aid to families with dependent children caseloads as of July 1, 1993, and are not currently participating in the fraud prevention investigation pilot project. The pilot project may be expanded provided the expansion is budget neutral to the state.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256D.05, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ASSISTANCE FOR PERSONS WITHOUT A VERIFIED RESIDENCE.] (a) For applicants or recipients of general assistance, emergency general assistance, or work readiness assistance who do not have a verified residence address, the county agency may provide assistance using one or more of the following methods:

(1) the county agency may provide assistance in the form of vouchers or vendor payments and provide separate vouchers or vendor payments for food, shelter, and other needs;

(2) the county agency may divide the monthly assistance standard into weekly payments, whether in cash or by voucher or vendor payment. Nothing in this clause prevents the county agency from issuing voucher or vendor payments for emergency general assistance in an amount less than the standards of assistance; and

(3) the county agency may determine eligibility and provide assistance on a weekly basis. Weekly assistance can be issued in cash or by voucher or vendor payment and can be determined either on the basis of actual need or by prorating the monthly assistance standard.

(b) An individual may verify a residence address by providing a driver's license; a state identification card; a statement by the landlord, apartment manager, or homeowner verifying that the individual is residing at the address; or other written documentation approved by the commissioner.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 256D.06, subdivision 1, if the county agency elects to provide assistance on a weekly payment basis, the agency may not provide assistance for a period during which no need is claimed by the individual unless the individual has good cause for failing to claim need. The individual must be notified, each time weekly assistance is provided, that subsequent weekly assistance will not be issued unless the individual claims need. The advance notice required under section 256D.10 does not apply to weekly assistance that is withheld because the individual failed to claim need without good cause.

(d) The county agency may not issue assistance on a weekly basis to an applicant or recipient who has professionally certified mental illness or mental retardation or a related condition, or to an assistance unit that includes minor children, unless requested by the assistance unit.

(4) for the purposes of clauses (2) and (3), the county agency may divide the monthly assistance standard as follows: $25 the first week, $50 each of the second and third weeks, and the remainder for the fourth week.

Sec. 16. [256D.0511] [LUMP-SUM PAYMENTS.]

A person who is ineligible for aid to families with dependent children due to a lump-sum payment according to Minnesota Rules, part 9500.2560, is also ineligible for general assistance and work readiness benefits for the duration the person is ineligible for aid to families with dependent children, unless the person demonstrates that the lump-sum payment was used for basic needs, including items necessary to participate in education, work, and training to become economically self-sufficient, or medical expenses.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256D.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [VENDOR PAYMENTS TO LANDLORDS.] The commissioner and affected county may require that assistance paid under the emergency general assistance program in the form of a rental unit damage deposit, less any amount retained by the landlord to pay for property damage, be returned to the county when the recipient vacates the premises or paid to the recipient's new landlord as a vendor payment.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 256H.05, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] Families eligible for guaranteed child care assistance under the AFDC child care program are:

(1) persons receiving services under section 256.736;

(2) AFDC recipients who are employed;

(3) persons who are members of transition year families under section 256H.01, subdivision 16;

(4) members of the control group for the STRIDE evaluation conducted by the Manpower Demonstration Research Corporation; and

(5) AFDC caretakers who are participating in the non-STRIDE AFDC child care program; and

(6) persons participating in the immediate job search pilot project in Hennepin county and one rural county.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 268.672, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ELIGIBLE JOB APPLICANT.] "Eligible job applicant" means a person who: (1) has been a resident of this state for at least one month, (2) is unemployed, (3) is not receiving and is not qualified to receive unemployment compensation or workers' compensation, and (4) is determined to be likely to be available for employment by an eligible employer for the duration of the job, and (5) is participating in the immediate job search pilot project in Hennepin county and one rural county.

For the purposes of this subdivision, a farmer or any member of a farm family household who can demonstrate severe household financial need must be considered unemployed."

"Sec. 26. [STUDY AND REPORT.]

The commissioner of human services shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1995, recommendations for establishing a statewide employment and training program for unemployed noncustodial parents modeled after the national parent's fair share pilot project. The report shall include cost estimates and must be developed in consultation with the departments of trade and economic development and jobs and training, and with counties that participate in the national pilot project and other interested counties.

Sec. 27. [CHILD CARE COOPERATIVES STUDY.]

The commissioner of human services shall determine the feasibility of operation and use of child care cooperatives by AFDC recipients who are working or attending school.

The commissioner shall present to the 1995 legislature the results of the determination and statewide phased-in implementation plan starting with counties designated by the commissioner, but including at a minimum, at least one rural and one metro county. The plan must ensure parental choice of a provider that best suits the family needs, identify evaluation criteria, state plan amendments, state legislation waivers, and all other information that is necessary to implement the plan.

Sec. 28. [JOINT EFFORT; INCENTIVES TO WORK.]

The departments of human services and revenue must jointly design a plan which provides the following monetary supplements on a monthly basis to working families: federal and state earned income tax credits, renters credit/housing subsidy, dependent care credit. The commissioner shall report the recommendations in the plan to the legislature by January 1, 1995.

Sec. 29. [PARENTS' FAIR SHARE; MANDATORY COMMUNITY WORK EXPERIENCE.]

The parents' fair share (PFS) pilot project shall include a mandatory community work experience component for participants who fail to comply with other requirements of the pilot project.

Sec. 30. [FEDERAL WAIVER PACKAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUEST.] The department of human services shall make a single request for the waivers listed in this section to the United States Department of Health and Human Services. The waivers in the package support and encourage AFDC recipients to move from reliance on welfare to self-sufficiency. The commissioner shall explore alternatives to the waiver evaluation process, which is required by the federal government, in an effort to reduce costs of the evaluation, and develop a cost-effective evaluation process for the waiver package in this section. The commissioner shall investigate the feasibility of the following: one evaluation for the entire waiver package, consolidation of evaluation efforts for the same or similar waiver with another state, completion of the evaluation internally, possibly by the office of legislative auditor, and other alternatives. The commissioner shall also notify the revisor of statutes when each waiver is approved by the federal government.

Subd. 2. [WAIVER TO DISALLOW PARENTAL INCOME OF A PREGNANT OR PARENTING MINOR LIVING WITH PARENTS.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver from the filing unit requirement, Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 206.10(a)(1)(vii), for minor parents who live with a parent who is on AFDC with other dependent children so that the minor can get the same separate need standard as they would get if the parent were not on AFDC. The commissioner shall also seek a waiver to disregard all parental income if the parent is on AFDC with other children; and if the parent is not on AFDC with other children, to disregard 150 percent of the federal poverty guideline and deem the remainder of income under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.20(a)(3)(xviii), provided the parental income does not exceed 150 percent of poverty. If the commissioner experiences barriers or complications in preparing the waiver under this subdivision, the commissioner shall report back to the legislature for clarification. This should not delay the requests for the other waivers under this section. The commissioner shall also explore how the waivers under this subdivision will affect other programs, and report to the legislature potential waivers to provide necessary consistency across programs. The general policy in requesting these waivers is to keep the family intact and give the minor parent, the dependent child, and the grandparent an incentive to continue living together as a family. That incentive is providing the minor parent with a grant, probably based on a two-child standard, without taking a grant away from the grandparent. These waivers encourage a minor parent to remain living with the parent by reducing the barriers to receiving assistance.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER TO ALLOW START WORK OFFSET.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver of the federal regulation which requires the state to recover overpayments of AFDC from the assistance unit which was overpaid if the overpayment occurred in the month the assistance unit started working, and the overpayment resulted from the assistance unit's increased earnings. This "start work offset" is available to an assistance unit every two years. This waiver provides an incentive to begin working in an effort to obtain self-sufficiency.

Subd. 4. [WAIVER OF THE 100-HOUR RULE; WORK HISTORY REQUIREMENT; 30-DAY WAITING PERIOD REQUIREMENT.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver to eliminate the 100-hour rule under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.100(a)(1)(i); the eligibility requirement for past employment history under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.100(a)(3)(iii); and the requirement for a 30-day waiting period under Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233.100(a)(3)(i).

Subd. 5. [WAIVER OF MOTOR VEHICLE RESOURCE LIMIT.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver to increase the maximum equity value of a licensed motor vehicle, which can be excluded as a resource under the federal regulations, from $1,500 to the level permitted under the federal Food Stamp Program. This waiver is essential for AFDC recipients who need reliable transportation to participate in education, work, and training to become self-sufficient.

Subd. 6. [WAIVER TO ALLOW STUDENTS TO EARN INCOME WITHOUT AFFECTING THE PARENT AFDC GRANT AND ALLOW A SEPARATE SAVINGS ACCOUNT FOR EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT NEEDS.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver of the federal regulation which includes the earned income of dependent children and minor caretakers who are attending school at least half-time when determining eligibility for AFDC. The commissioner shall also seek a waiver which allows savings set aside in a separate account specifically for future education or employment needs be excluded from the AFDC resource limits.

Subd. 7. [WAIVER OF THE FEDERAL EXCEPTIONS TO REQUIRING A PARENTING MINOR TO LIVE WITH A PARENT.] The commissioner shall seek a waiver of the exceptions to the law which requires minor parents to live with a parent or in a supervised living arrangement in order to be eligible for AFDC.

Subd. 8. [IMPLEMENTATION.] The commissioner shall implement the program changes authorized under this subdivision promptly upon approval of the waiver, provided all conditions are met under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.01, subdivision 2, clause (12).

Subd. 9. [EVALUATION.] If any of the federal waivers are granted, the commissioner shall evaluate the program changes according to federal waiver requirements and if necessary submit reports to the legislature within a time frame consistent with the evaluation criteria that are established.

Subd. 10. [ADDITIONAL WAIVER REQUEST FOR EMPLOYED DISABLED PERSONS.] The commissioner shall seek a federal waiver in order to implement a work incentive for disabled persons eligible for medical assistance who are not residents of long-term care facilities. The waiver shall request authorization to establish a medical assistance earned income disregard for employed disabled persons equivalent to the threshold amount applied to persons who qualify under section 1619(b) of the Social Security Act, except that when a disabled person's earned income reaches the maximum income permitted at the threshold under section 1619(b), the person shall retain medical assistance eligibility and must contribute to the costs of medical care on a sliding fee basis. This subdivision is subject to the implementation process under subdivision 8.

Sec. 31. [IMMEDIATE JOB SEARCH; PILOT PROJECT.]

Subdivision 1. [PILOT PROJECT.] Hennepin county and one rural county chosen by the commissioner of human services from among rural counties that apply shall develop and implement a pilot project which requires AFDC and family general assistance recipients not previously entered on the MAXIS computer system to begin immediate job search.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Recipients who become eligible for assistance on or after January 1, 1995, in the rural county and on or after October 1, 1995, in Hennepin county, or after necessary waivers have been obtained, whichever occurs later, shall be screened by a financial eligibility worker as follows:

(1) recipients who have serious barriers to employment and may be eligible for Supplemental Security Income shall be referred for a Supplemental Security Income assessment according to the procedures in Minnesota Statutes, section 256D.06, subdivision 7; and

(2) all other recipients shall immediately participate in the existing job search program in the county for up to 60 days, except:

(i) those persons exempt under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.736, subdivision 14, provided that the exemption for a caretaker providing full-time care for the child is only available while the child is under the age of one; and

(ii) persons participating in the Minnesota family investment program under Minnesota Statutes, section 256.033.

(b) Participation in job search under paragraph (a) is a condition of eligibility for AFDC and family general assistance.

(c) Recipients under paragraph (a), clause (2), that have not become employed within 60 days may be referred to a multidisciplinary team of qualified professionals for an employability development plan which:

(i) will take into account the needs of the recipient's physical capacity, skills, experience, health and safety, family responsibilities, place of residence, proficiency, child care, and other support service needs;

(ii) is based on available resources and local employment opportunities;

(iii) specifies the services to be provided by the employment and training service provider;

(iv) specifies the activities the recipient will participate in, including the worksite to which the caretaker will be assigned, if the caretaker is subject to the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 256.737, subdivision 2;

(v) specifies necessary supportive services such as child care; and

(vi) to the extent possible, reflects the preferences of the participant. The employability development plan must be completed 90 days after applying for assistance.

(d) Recipients who are successful in gaining employment during job search are eligible for job-related child care until they qualify for sliding fee child care assistance.

(e) Recipients who have not become employed after completing their employability plan may be referred to the emergency jobs program under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.673.

Subd. 3. [WAGE SUBSIDY FOR PILOT PROJECT.] For the purposes of this pilot project, the wage subsidy funding under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.6751, must be allocated to Hennepin county and the rural county selected by the commissioner by determining the number of AFDC and family general assistance cases in each county as a percentage of the total AFDC and family general assistance state caseload, provided that the total appropriation for this purpose shall be allocated to the rural county until October 1, 1995. The appropriation may be used for persons in any stage of the pilot project.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITIZATION OF CLIENTS.] The project must include criteria to prioritize clients if sufficient funds are not available to serve all eligible clients.

Subd. 5. [WORKER DISPLACEMENT PROHIBITED.] (a) For purposes of work performed by an individual with an employer whose employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement, a pilot project county must obtain the written concurrence of the appropriate exclusive bargaining representative with respect to the individual's job duties to ensure that no work performed results in:

(1) termination, layoff, or reduction of the work hours of an employee for the purpose of hiring an individual;

(2) the hiring of an individual if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job;

(3) any infringement of the promotional opportunities of any currently employed individual;

(4) the impairment of existing contracts for service or collective bargaining agreements; or

(5) except for on-the-job training, a participant filling an established unfilled position vacancy. Work established under this pilot project must also result in an increase in employment opportunities over those which would otherwise be available.

(b) For purposes of this section a pilot project county and bargaining units representing public employees may enter into agreements that provide for the training of individuals, on-the-job experience, or work experience training provided that such arrangements result in permanent employment. If the permanent employment is with a public employer, wages and benefits must be provided according to collectively bargained agreements.

Subd. 6. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall provide to the legislature by February 1, 1997, a progress report on the pilot project. The report must include recommendations on whether the project should be continued.

Sec. 32. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATIONS.] The appropriations in this section, except for subdivision 13, are from the general fund to the commissioner of human services and are available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1995, and are added to or subtracted from the appropriation in Laws 1993 First Special Session, chapter 1, article 1, section 2.

Subd. 2. [PARENT'S FAIR SHARE PILOT PROJECT.] $500,000 is appropriated for the following purposes:

(a) $300,000 for a grant to Ramsey county to enable the county to participate in the parent's fair share pilot project. This money is available only if Ramsey county is accepted for participation in the national pilot project. As a condition of this grant, the commissioner may require a local match from the county.

(b) $50,000 each added to the appropriations to Anoka and Dakota counties for costs associated with the parent's fair share pilot project.

(c) $100,000 for costs associated with the mandatory community work experience component of the parents' fair share pilot project.

Subd. 4. [STRIDE.] $1,924,000 is appropriated for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 256.736, subdivision 14.

Sec. 33. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 256.734, is repealed."

Page 9, line 24, after the period, insert "Sections 5, 7, 8, 9, and 13 are effective upon federal approval of the applicable waivers. Section 6 is effective October 1, 1994."

(1) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the offense; and

(2) the delinquency petition alleges that the child committed an offense that would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes, or that the child committed any felony offense while using, whether by brandishing, displaying, threatening with, or otherwise employing, a firearm.

If the court determines that probable cause exists to believe the child committed the alleged offense, the burden is on the child to rebut this presumption by demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court serves public safety. If the court finds that the child has not rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall certify the child to district court.

Subd. 2b. [PUBLIC SAFETY.] In determining whether the public safety is served by certifying a child to district court, the court shall consider the following factors:

(1) the seriousness of the alleged offense in terms of community protection, including the existence of any aggravating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines, the use of a firearm, and the impact on any victim;

(2) the culpability of the child in committing the alleged offense, including the level of the child's participation in planning and carrying out the offense and the existence of any mitigating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines;

(3) the child's prior record of delinquency;

(4) the child's programming history, including the child's past willingness to participate meaningfully in available programming;

(5) the adequacy of the punishment or programming available in the juvenile justice system; and

(6) the dispositional options available for the child.

In considering these factors, the court shall give greater weight to the seriousness of the alleged offense and the child's prior record of delinquency than to the other factors listed in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [PRIMA FACIE CASE.] A prima facie case that the public safety is not served or that the child is not suitable for treatment shall have been established if the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the alleged offense and:

(1) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person and (a) in committing the offense, the child acted with particular cruelty or disregard for the life or safety of another; or (b) the offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning by the juvenile; or (c) the juvenile, at the time of the offense, used, whether by brandishing, displaying, threatening with, or otherwise employing, a firearm; or

(2) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the first degree; or

(3) is alleged by delinquency petition (a) to have committed the delinquent act of escape from confinement to a state juvenile correctional facility or a local juvenile correctional facility and (b) to have committed an offense as part of, or subsequent to, escape from custody that would be a felony listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9, if committed by an adult; or

(4) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense within the preceding 24 months which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the second or third degree, manslaughter in the first degree, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or assault in the first degree; or

(5) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed manslaughter in the second degree, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the second degree, arson in the first degree, aggravated robbery, or assault in the second degree; or

(6) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months, one or both of which would be the felony of burglary of a dwelling if committed by an adult, and the child is alleged by the delinquency petition to have committed another burglary of a dwelling. For purposes of this subdivision, "dwelling" means a building which is, in whole or in part, usually occupied by one or more persons living there at night; or

(7) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed three offenses, none in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed any felony other than those described in clause (2), (4), or (5); or

(8) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person, other than a violation of section 609.713, in furtherance of criminal activity by an organized gang; or

(9) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a felony level violation of chapter 152 involving the unlawful sale or possession of a schedule I or II controlled substance, while in a park zone or a school zone as defined in section 152.01, subdivisions 12a and 14a. This clause does not apply to a juvenile alleged to have unlawfully possessed a controlled substance in a private residence located within the school zone or park zone; or

(10) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a), and has been previously found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a).

For the purposes of this subdivision, "aggravated felony against the person" means a violation of any of the following provisions: section 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20, subdivision 1 or 2; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.245; 609.25; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.345, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.561; 609.582, subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c); or 609.713.

For the purposes of this subdivision, an "organized gang" means an association of five or more persons, with an established hierarchy, formed to encourage members of the association to perpetrate crimes or to provide support to members of the association who do commit crimes.

Subd. 3a. [PRIOR REFERENCE CERTIFICATION; EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 2, and 3 2a, and 2b, the court shall order a reference certification in any felony case where if the prosecutor shows that the child has been previously referred for prosecution prosecuted on a felony charge by an order of reference certification issued pursuant to either a hearing held under subdivision 2 or pursuant to the waiver of the right to such a hearing, other than a prior reference certification in the same case.

This subdivision only applies if the child is convicted of the offense or offenses for which the child was prosecuted pursuant to the order of reference certification or of a lesser included lesser-included offense which is a felony.

This subdivision does not apply to juvenile offenders who are subject to criminal court jurisdiction under section 609.055.

Subd. 3b. [ADULT CHARGED WITH JUVENILE OFFENSE.] The juvenile court has jurisdiction to hold a certification hearing on motion of the prosecuting authority to certify the matter to district court if:

(1) an adult is alleged to have committed an offense before the adult's 18th birthday; and

(2) a petition is filed under section 260.131 before expiration of the time for filing under section 628.26.

The court may not certify the matter to district court under this subdivision if the adult demonstrates that the delay was purposefully caused by the state in order to gain an unfair advantage;

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] When the juvenile court enters an order referring certifying an alleged violation to a prosecuting authority district court, the prosecuting authority shall proceed with the case as if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court had never attached.

Subd. 5. [WRITTEN FINDINGS; OPTIONS.] The court shall decide whether to order certification to district court within 15 days after the certification hearing was completed, unless additional time is needed, in which case the court may extend the period up to another 15 days. If the juvenile court orders a reference for prosecution certification, and the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the order shall contain in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why the child is not suitable to treatment or the public safety is not served under by retaining the provisions of laws relating to proceeding in the juvenile courts court. If the juvenile court, after a hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision 2, decides not to order a reference for prosecution certification to district court, the decision shall contain, in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why a reference for prosecution certification is not ordered. If the juvenile court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a applies, the court shall designate the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution and include in its decision written findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why the retention of the proceeding in juvenile court serves public safety, with specific reference to the factors listed in subdivision 2b. If the court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the court may designate the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

Subd. 6. [FIRST-DEGREE MURDER.] When a motion for certification has been filed in a case in which the petition alleges that the child committed murder in the first degree, the prosecuting authority shall present the case to the grand jury for consideration of indictment under chapter 628 within 14 days after the petition was filed.

Subd. 7. [INAPPLICABILITY TO CERTAIN OFFENDERS.] This section does not apply to a child excluded from the definition of delinquent child under section 260.015, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

Sec. 14. [260.126] [EXTENDED JURISDICTION JUVENILE PROSECUTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] A proceeding involving a child alleged to have committed a felony offense is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution if:

(1) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, a certification hearing was held, and the court designated the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution;

(2) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense; the child is alleged to have committed an offense for which the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes presume a commitment to prison or to have committed any felony in which the child allegedly used a firearm; and the prosecutor designated in the delinquency petition that the proceeding is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution; or

(3) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the prosecutor requested that the proceeding be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution, a hearing was held on the issue of designation, and the court designated the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

Subd. 2. [HEARING ON PROSECUTOR'S REQUEST.] When a prosecutor requests that a proceeding be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution, the court shall hold a hearing under section 260.155 to consider the request. The hearing must be held within 30 days of the filing of the request for designation, unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or the child as to why the hearing should not be held within this period in which case the hearing shall be held within 90 days of the filing of the request. If the prosecutor shows by clear and convincing evidence that designating the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution serves public safety, the court shall grant the request for designation. In determining whether public safety is served, the court shall consider the factors specified in section 260.125, subdivision 2b. The court shall decide whether to designate the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution within 15 days after the designation hearing is completed, unless additional time is needed, in which case the court may extend the period up to another 15 days.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDINGS.] A child who is the subject of an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution has the right to a trial by jury and to the effective assistance of counsel, as described in section 260.155, subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [DISPOSITION.] (a) If an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution results in a guilty plea or finding of guilt, the court shall:

(1) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under section 260.185; and

(2) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which shall be stayed on the condition that the offender not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense.

(b) If a child prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile after designation by the prosecutor in the delinquency petition is convicted of an offense after trial that is not an offense described in subdivision 1, clause (2), the court shall adjudicate the child delinquent and order a disposition under section 260.185. If the extended jurisdiction juvenile proceeding results in a guilty plea for an offense not described in subdivision 1, clause (2), the court may impose a disposition under paragraph (a) if the child consents.

Subd. 5. [EXECUTION OF ADULT SENTENCE.] When it appears that a person convicted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile has violated the conditions of the stayed sentence, or is alleged to have committed a new offense, the court may, without notice, revoke the stay and probation and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody. The court shall notify the offender in writing of the reasons alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of execution of the adult sentence. If the offender challenges the reasons, the court shall hold a summary hearing on the issue at which the offender is entitled to be heard and represented by counsel. After the hearing, if the court finds that reasons exist to revoke the stay of execution of sentence, the court shall treat the offender as an adult and order any of the adult sanctions authorized by section 609.14, subdivision 3. If the offender was convicted of an offense described in subdivision 1, clause (2), and the court finds that reasons exist to revoke the stay, the court must order execution of the previously-imposed sentence unless the court makes written findings regarding the mitigating factors that justify continuing the stay.

Subd. 6. [INAPPLICABILITY TO CERTAIN OFFENDERS.] This section does not apply to a child excluded from the definition of delinquent child under section 260.015, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.131, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [DELINQUENCY PETITION; EXTENDED JURISDICTION JUVENILE.] When a prosecutor files a delinquency petition alleging that a child committed a felony offense after reaching the age of 16 years, the prosecutor shall indicate in the petition whether the prosecutor designates the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution. When a prosecutor files a delinquency petition alleging that a child aged 14 to 17 years committed a felony offense, the prosecutor may request that the court designate the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.132, is amended to read:

260.132 [PROCEDURE; HABITUAL TRUANTS, RUNAWAYS, JUVENILE PETTY AND MISDEMEANOR OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] When a peace officer, or attendance officer in the case of a habitual truant, has probable cause to believe that a child:

(1) is in need of protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (11) or (12); or;

(2) is a juvenile petty offender; or

(3) has committed a delinquent act that would be a petty misdemeanor or misdemeanor if committed by an adult;

the officer may issue a notice to the child to appear in juvenile court in the county in which the child is found or in the county of the child's residence or, in the case of a juvenile petty offense, or a petty misdemeanor or misdemeanor delinquent act, the county in which the offense was committed. The officer shall file a copy of the notice to appear with the juvenile court of the appropriate county. If a child fails to appear in response to the notice, the court may issue a summons notifying the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place set for the hearing. If the peace officer finds it necessary to take the child into custody, sections 260.165 and 260.171 shall apply.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF NOTICE.] Filing with the court a notice to appear containing the name and address of the child, specifying the offense alleged and the time and place it was committed, has the effect of a petition giving the juvenile court jurisdiction. In the case of running away, the place where the offense was committed may be stated in the notice as either the child's custodial parent's or guardian's residence or lawful placement or where the child was found by the officer. In the case of truancy, the place where the offense was committed may be stated as the school or the place where the child was found by the officer.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO PARENT.] Whenever a notice to appear or petition is filed alleging that a child is in need of protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (11) or (12), ~~or is a juvenile petty offender, or has committed a delinquent act that would be a petty misdemeanor or misdemeanor if committed by an adult,~~ the court shall summon and notify the person or persons having custody or control of the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place of hearing. This summons and notice shall be served in the time and manner provided in section 260.135, subdivision 1.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.145, is amended to read:

260.145 [FAILURE TO OBEY SUMMONS OR SUBPOENA; CONTEMPT, ARREST.]

If any person personally served with summons or subpoena fails, without reasonable cause, to appear or bring the ~~minor~~ child, ~~or if any custodial parent or guardian fails, without reasonable cause, to accompany the child to a hearing as required under section 260.155, subdivision 4b,~~ the person may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue a warrant for the person's arrest, or both. In any case when it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual, or that the welfare of the ~~minor~~ child requires that the ~~minor~~ child be brought forthwith into the custody of the court, the court may issue a warrant for the ~~minor~~ child.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.152, is amended to read:

260.152 [MENTAL HEALTH SCREENING OF JUVENILES IN DETENTION CHILDREN.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of corrections, shall establish pilot projects in counties to reduce the recidivism rates of juvenile offenders, by identifying and treating underlying mental health problems that contribute to delinquent behavior and can be addressed through nonresidential services. At least one of the pilot projects must be in the seven-county metropolitan area and at least one must be in greater Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM COMPONENTS.] (a) The commissioner of human services shall, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, provide grants to the counties for the pilot projects. The projects shall build upon the existing service capabilities in the community and must include:

(1) availability of screening for mental health problems of all juveniles admitted before adjudication to a secure detention facility as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 16, and any juvenile alleged to be delinquent as that term is defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, who is admitted to a shelter care facility, as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 17; children who are alleged or found to be delinquent and children who are reported as being or found to be in need of protection or services.

(2) (b) The projects must include referral for mental health assessment of all juveniles children for whom the screening indicates a need. This assessment is to be provided by the appropriate mental health professional. If the juvenile child is of a minority race or minority ethnic heritage, the mental health professional must be skilled in and knowledgeable about the juvenile's child's racial and ethnic heritage, or must consult with a special mental health consultant who has such knowledge so that the assessment is relevant, culturally specific, and sensitive to the juvenile's child's cultural needs; and.

(3) (c) Upon completion of the assessment, the project must provide or ensure access to or provision of nonresidential mental health services identified as needed in the assessment.

Subd. 3. [SCREENING TOOL.] The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, shall jointly develop a model screening tool to screen juveniles held in juvenile detention children to determine if a mental health assessment is needed. This tool must contain specific questions to identify potential mental health problems. In implementing a pilot project, a county must either use this model tool or another screening tool approved by the commissioner of human services which meets the requirements of this section.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] To receive funds, the county program proposal shall be a joint proposal with all affected local agencies, resulting in part from consultation with the local coordinating council established under section 245.4873, subdivision 3, and the local mental health advisory council established under section 245.4875, subdivision 5, and shall contain the following:

(1) evidence of interagency collaboration by all publicly funded agencies serving juveniles children with emotional disturbances, including evidence of consultation with the agencies listed in this section;

(2) a signed agreement by the local court services and local mental health and county social service agencies to work together on the following: development of a program; development of written interagency agreements and protocols to ensure that the mental health needs of juvenile offenders and children in need of protection or services are identified, addressed, and treated; and development of a procedure for joint evaluation of the program;

(3) a description of existing services that will be used in this program;

(4) a description of additional services that will be developed with program funds, including estimated costs and numbers of juveniles children to be served; and

(5) assurances that funds received by a county under this section will not be used to supplant existing mental health funding for which the juvenile child is eligible.

The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall jointly determine the application form, information needed, deadline for application, criteria for awards, and a process for providing technical assistance and training to counties. The technical assistance shall include information about programs that have been successful in reducing recidivism by juvenile offenders.

Subd. 5. [INTERAGENCY AGREEMENTS.] To receive funds, the county must agree to develop written interagency agreements between local court services agencies and local county mental health agencies within six months of receiving the initial program funds. These agreements shall include a description of each local agency's responsibilities, with a detailed assignment of the tasks necessary to implement the program. The agreement shall state how they will comply with the confidentiality requirements of the participating local agencies.

Subd. 6. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, develop systems and procedures for evaluating the pilot projects. The departments must develop an interagency management information system to track juveniles children who receive mental health and chemical dependency services. The system must be designed to meet the information needs of the agencies involved and to provide a basis for evaluating outcome data. The system must be designed to track the mental health treatment of juveniles children released from custody and to improve the planning, delivery, and evaluation of services and increase interagency collaboration. The evaluation protocol must be designed to measure the impact of the program on juvenile recidivism, school performance, and state and county budgets.

Subd. 7. [REPORT.] ~~On~~ By January 1, 1994, and annually after that, each year, the commissioner of corrections and the commissioner of human services shall present a joint report to the legislature on the pilot projects funded under this section. The report shall include information on the following:

- (1) the number of juvenile offenders children screened and assessed who are juvenile offenders and the number who were reported as children in need of protection or services;
- (2) the number of juveniles children referred for mental health services, the types of services provided, and the costs;
- (3) the number of subsequently adjudicated juveniles that received mental health services under this program; and
- (4) the estimated cost savings of the program and the impact on crime and family reintegration.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) Except for hearings arising under section 260.261, hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner, except that a child who is prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile has the right to a jury trial on the issue of guilt. The rules of evidence promulgated pursuant to section 480.0591 and the law of evidence shall apply in adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be delinquent, an extended jurisdiction juvenile, or a juvenile petty offender, and hearings conducted pursuant to section 260.125 except to the extent that the rules themselves provide that they do not apply. In all adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, the court shall admit only evidence that would be admissible in a civil trial. To be proved at trial, allegations of a petition alleging a child to be in need of protection or services must be proved by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) Except for proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may be continued or adjourned from time to time. In proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may not be continued or adjourned for more than one week unless the court makes specific findings that the continuance or adjournment is in the best interests of the child. If a hearing is held on a petition involving physical or sexual abuse of a child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, the court shall file the decision with the court administrator as soon as possible but no later than 15 days after the matter is submitted to the court. When a continuance or adjournment is ordered in any proceeding, the court may make any interim orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the court shall exclude the general public from these hearings under this chapter and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court, ~~except that~~. The court shall open the hearings to the public in delinquency or extended jurisdiction juvenile proceedings where the child is alleged to have committed an offense or has been proven to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the offense, except that the court may exclude the public from portions of a certification hearing to discuss psychological material or other evidence that would not be accessible to the public in an adult proceeding.

(d) In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the court administrator in writing, at the named person's last known address, of (1) the date of the ~~reference~~ certification or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case.

(e) Adoption hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.155, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL.] (a) The ~~minor~~ child, parent, guardian or custodian have the right to effective assistance of counsel in connection with a proceeding in juvenile court. Before a child who is charged by delinquency petition with a misdemeanor offense waives the right to counsel or enters a plea, the child shall consult in person with counsel who shall provide a full and intelligible explanation of the child's rights. The court shall appoint counsel, or stand-by counsel if the child waives the right to counsel, for a child who is:

(1) charged by delinquency petition with a gross misdemeanor or felony offense; or

(2) the subject of a delinquency proceeding in which out-of-home placement has been proposed.

(b) If they desire counsel but are unable to employ it, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the ~~minor~~ child or the parents or guardian in any other case in which it feels that such an appointment is desirable.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.155, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [PARENT OR GUARDIAN MUST ACCOMPANY CHILD AT HEARING.] The custodial parent or guardian of a child who is alleged or found to be delinquent, or is prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile, must accompany the child at each hearing held during the delinquency or extended jurisdiction juvenile proceedings, unless the court excuses the parent or guardian from attendance for good cause shown. The failure of a parent or guardian to comply with this duty may be punished as provided in section 260.145.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RECORDS REQUIRED TO BE KEPT.] (a) The juvenile court judge shall keep such minutes and in such manner as the court deems necessary and proper. Except as provided in paragraph (b), the court shall keep and maintain records pertaining to delinquent adjudications until the person reaches the age of ~~23~~ 28 years and shall release the records on an individual to another juvenile court that has jurisdiction of the juvenile, to a requesting adult court for purposes of sentencing, or to an adult court or juvenile court as required by the right of confrontation of either the United States Constitution or the Minnesota Constitution. The juvenile court shall provide, upon the request of any other juvenile court, copies of the records concerning adjudications involving the particular child. The court also may provide copies of records concerning delinquency adjudications, on request, to law enforcement agencies, probation officers, and corrections agents if the court finds that providing these records serves public safety or is in the best interests of the child. The records have the same data classification in the hands of the agency receiving them as they had in the hands of the court.

The court shall also keep an index in which files pertaining to juvenile matters shall be indexed under the name of the child. After the name of each file shall be shown the file number and, if ordered by the court, the book and page of the register in which the documents pertaining to such file are listed. The court shall also keep a register properly indexed in which shall be listed under the name of the child all documents filed pertaining to the child and in the order filed. The list shall show the name of the document and the date of filing thereof. The juvenile court legal records shall be deposited in files and shall include the petition, summons, notice, findings, orders, decrees, judgments, and motions and such other matters as the court deems necessary and proper. Unless otherwise provided by law, all court records shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of any child to whom the records relate, and to the child's parent and guardian.

(b) The court shall retain records of the court finding that a juvenile committed an act that would be a violation of, or an attempt to violate, section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, until the offender reaches the age of 25 28. If the offender commits another violation of sections 609.342 to 609.345 as an adult, or the court convicts a child as an extended jurisdiction juvenile, the court shall retain the juvenile records for as long as the records would have been retained if the offender had been an adult at the time of the juvenile offense. This paragraph does not apply unless the juvenile was ~~represented by an attorney when the petition was admitted or proven~~ provided counsel as required by section 260.155, subdivision 2.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.161, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. - (2) the type of act for which the juvenile was adjudicated delinquent and date of the offense; and
- (3) the date and county of the adjudication.

(b) The bureau shall retain data on a juvenile until the offender reaches the age of 25 28. If the offender commits another violation of sections 609.342 to 609.345 as an adult, the bureau shall retain the data for as long as the data would have been retained if the offender had been an adult at the time of the juvenile offense.

(c) The juvenile court shall forward to the bureau the following data on individuals convicted as extended jurisdiction juveniles:

- (1) the name and birthdate of the offender;
- (2) the crime committed by the offender and the date of the crime; and
