"Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 124A.03, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [REFERENDUM ALLOWANCE REDUCTION.] A district's referendum allowance under subdivision 1c is reduced by the amounts calculated in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d).

(a) The referendum allowance reduction equals the amount by which a district's supplemental revenue reduction exceeds the district's supplemental revenue allowance for fiscal year 1993.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), if a district's initial referendum allowance is less than ten percent of the formula allowance for that year, the reduction equals the lesser of (1) an amount equal to $100, or (2) the amount calculated in paragraph (a).

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) or (b), a school district's referendum allowance reduction equals (1) an amount equal to $100, times (2) one minus the ratio of 20 percent of the formula allowance minus the district's initial referendum allowance limit to 20 percent of the formula allowance for that year if:

(i) the district's adjusted net tax capacity for assessment year 1992 per actual pupil unit for fiscal year 1995 is less than $3,000;

(ii) the district's net unappropriated operating fund balance as of June 30, 1993, divided by the actual pupil units for fiscal year 1995 is less than $200;

(iii) the district's supplemental revenue allowance for fiscal year 1993 is equal to zero; and

(iv) the district's initial referendum revenue authority for the current year divided by the district's net tax capacity for assessment year 1992 is greater than ten percent.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), (b), or (c), the referendum revenue reduction for a newly reorganized district is computed as follows:

(1) for a newly reorganized district created effective July 1, 1994, the referendum revenue reduction equals the lesser of the amount calculated for the combined district under paragraph (a), (b), or (c), or the sum of the amounts by which each of the reorganizing district's supplemental revenue reduction exceeds its respective supplemental revenue allowances calculated for the districts as if they were still in existence for fiscal year 1995; or

(2) for a newly reorganized district created after July 1, 1994, the referendum revenue reduction equals the lesser of the amount calculated for the combined district under paragraph (a), (b), or (c), or the sum of the amounts by which each of the reorganizing district's supplemental revenue reduction exceeds its respective supplemental revenue allowances calculated for the year preceding the year of reorganization.

(e) A district may levy an amount up to the amounts calculated in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d), times the district's actual pupil units for the school year. This levy is not eligible for referendum equalization aid under subdivision 1h.

This section shall be effective for taxes payable in 1997 and later years."

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 16A.152, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~[BUDGET RESERVE AND CASH FLOW ACCOUNT ESTABLISHED.]~~ (a) ~~A budget reserve and cash flow account is created in the general fund in the state treasury. The commissioner of finance shall restrict part or all of the balance before reserves in the general fund as may be necessary to fund the budget reserve and cash flow account as provided by law from time to time.~~

(b) ~~The commissioner of finance shall transfer the amount necessary to bring the total amount of the budget reserve and cash flow account, including any existing balance in the account on June 30, 1993, to $360,000,000. The amounts restricted shall remain in the account until drawn down under subdivision 1 or increased under subdivision 2 3.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 16A.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BUDGET RESERVE ESTABLISHED.] A budget reserve is created in the general fund in the state treasury. The commissioner of finance shall transfer the amount necessary to bring the total amount in the account to $220,000,000 on July 1, 1995. The amount restricted shall remain in the account until drawn down under the provisions of subdivision 3 or 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 16A.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL REVENUES; PRIORITY.] If on the basis of a forecast of general fund revenues and expenditures the commissioner of finance determines that there will be a positive unrestricted budgetary general fund balance at the close of the biennium, the commissioner of finance must allocate money an amount equal to the lesser of the forecast increase in total net general fund tax receipts or the total positive unrestricted budgetary balance to the budget reserve, and cash flow account until the total amount in the account equals five percent of total general fund appropriations for the current biennium as established by the most recent legislative session. Beginning July 1, 1993, forecast unrestricted budgetary general fund balances are first appropriated to restore the budget reserve and cash flow account to $500,000,000. Additional biennial unrestricted budgetary general fund balances available after November 1 of every odd-numbered calendar year are appropriated in January of the following year to reduce the property tax levy recognition percent under section 121.904, subdivision 4a, to zero before additional money beyond $500,000,000 is allocated to the budget reserve and cash flow account. $180,000,000 of the budget reserve and cash flow account shall be dedicated to elementary and secondary education.

The amounts necessary to meet the requirements of this section are appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 16A.152, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [USE.] (a) The purpose of the cash flow account is to reserve sufficient cash balances to meet cash flow deficiencies resulting from uneven distribution of revenue collections and required expenditure payments during a fiscal year. Appropriations from this account shall be restricted to modifying state expenditures payment dates in a manner that reduces the amount needed in the account to avoid short-term borrowing. Appropriations for this purpose shall not exceed the value of the improvement in forecast annual cash lowpoints.

(b) The use of the budget reserve is restricted to the following purposes:

(1) to offset a decline in forecast general fund tax receipts for the current biennium, subject to the provisions of subdivision 4;

(2) to provide interim funding of programs affected by federal funding reductions by appropriation in regular or special legislative session or in accordance with the provisions of section 3.30; or

(3) to provide one-time funding for program dissolution or restructuring costs by appropriation in regular or special legislative session or in accordance with the provisions of section 3.30.

(c) The use of the budget reserve should be governed by principles based on the full economic cycle rather than the budget cycle. The budget reserve may be used when a negative budgetary balance is projected and when objective measures, such as reduced growth in total wages, retail sales, or employment, reflect downturns in the state's economy.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 16A.152, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REDUCTION.] (a) If the commissioner determines that ~~probable forecast tax receipts for the general fund will be less than anticipated, and that the amount available for the remainder of forecast total general fund resources for the biennium will be less than needed,~~ the commissioner shall, with the approval of the governor, and after consulting the legislative advisory commission, reduce the amount in the budget reserve ~~and cash flow account as needed up to an amount equal to the reduction in net forecast tax revenues, not to exceed the amount necessary~~ to balance expenditures with revenue.

(b) An additional deficit shall, with the approval of the governor, and after consulting the legislative advisory commission, be made up by reducing unexpended allotments of any prior appropriation or transfer. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the commissioner is empowered to defer or suspend prior statutorily created obligations which would prevent effecting such reductions.

(c) If the commissioner determines that probable receipts for any other fund, appropriation, or item will be less than anticipated, and that the amount available for the remainder of the term of the appropriation or for any allotment period will be less than needed, the commissioner shall notify the agency concerned and then reduce the amount allotted or to be allotted so as to prevent a deficit.

(d) In reducing allotments, the commissioner may consider other sources of revenue available to recipients of state appropriations and may apply allotment reductions based on all sources of revenue available.

(e) In like manner, the commissioner shall reduce allotments to an agency by the amount of any saving that can be made over previous spending plans through a reduction in prices or other cause."

It is the policy of the state of Minnesota that public programs shall be of the highest quality and value and promote fairness. As such, the legislature and governor will apply the following principles, where feasible and to as great an extent as possible, when developing and reviewing education programs:

(1) programs will provide funds directly to people rather than to institutions, agencies, or service providers;

(2) public subsidies will be targeted to people and jurisdictions and other recipients primarily based on need and the state's constitutional obligations;

(3) competition will be used as a tool to align institutional self-interest with the public's interest;

(4) the cost of public goods and services will reflect the true and complete costs of providing those goods and services;

(5) spending reforms will attempt to meet public responsibilities through nongovernmental entities with which people already have relationships of mutual obligation; and

April 20, 1995

The Honorable Irv Anderson
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Allan H. Spear
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 47, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House concur in the Senate amendment and that H.F. No. 47 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 116.07, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SOLID WASTE GENERATOR ASSESSMENTS.] (a) For the purposes of this subdivision;

(1) "assessed waste" means mixed municipal solid waste as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 21, infectious waste as defined in section 116.76, subdivision 12, pathological waste as defined in section 116.76, subdivision 14, industrial waste as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 13a, and construction debris as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 7-; provided that all types of assessed waste listed in this clause do not include materials that are separated for recycling by the generator and that are collected separately from other waste and delivered to a waste facility for the purpose of recycling and recycled, and it also does not include waste generated outside of Minnesota;

(2) "noncompacted cubic yard" means a loose cubic yard of assessed waste;

(3) "nonresidential customer" means:

(i) an owner or operator of a business, including a home operated business, industry, church, nursing home, nonprofit organization, school, or any other commercial or institutional enterprise;

(ii) an owner of a building or site containing multiple residences, including a townhome or manufactured home park, where no resident has separate trash pickup, and no resident is separately assessed for such service; and

(iii) any other generator of assessed waste that is not a residential customer as defined in clause (6);

(4) "periodic waste collection" means each time a waste container is emptied by the person that collects the assessed waste;

(5) "person that collects assessed waste" means each person that is required to pay sales tax on solid waste collection services under section 297A.45, or would pay sales tax under that section if the assessed waste was mixed municipal solid waste; and

(6) "residential customer" means:

(i) a detached single family residence that generates only household mixed municipal solid waste; and

(ii) a person residing in a building or at a site containing multiple residences, including a townhome or a manufactured home park, where each resident either (A) is separately assessed for waste collection or (B) has separate waste collection for each resident, even if the resident pays to the owner or an association a monthly maintenance fee which includes the expense of waste collection, and the owner or association pays the waste collector for waste collection in one lump sum.

(b) A person that collects assessed waste shall collect and remit to the commissioner of revenue a solid waste generator assessment from each of the person's customers as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d). A waste management facility that accepts assessed waste shall collect and remit to the commissioner of revenue the solid waste assessment as provided in paragraph (e).

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (f), the amount of the assessment for each residential customer is $2 per year. Each ~~waste collector~~ person that collects assessed waste shall collect the assessment annually from each residential customer that is receiving mixed municipal solid waste collection service on July 1 of each year and shall remit the amount actually collected along with the collector's person's first remittance of the sales tax on solid waste collection services, described in section 297A.45, made after October 1 of each year. For buildings or sites that contain multiple residences that are not separately billed for collection services, the person who collects assessed waste shall collect the assessment for all the residences from the person who is billed for the collection service. Any amount of the assessment that is received by the waste collector person that collects assessed waste after October 1 of each year must be remitted along with the collector's person's next remittance of sales tax after receipt of the assessment.

(d) The amount of the assessment for each nonresidential customer is 60 cents per noncompacted cubic yard of periodic waste collection capacity purchased by the customer, based on the size of the container for the assessed waste. For a residential customer that generates assessed waste that is not mixed municipal solid waste, the amount of the assessment is 60 cents per noncompacted cubic yard of collection capacity purchased for the waste that is not mixed municipal solid waste, based on the size of the container for the waste. If the capacity purchased is for compacted cubic yards of mixed municipal solid waste, the noncompacted capacity purchased is based on the compaction ratio of 3:1. The commissioner of revenue, after consultation with the commissioner of the pollution control agency, shall determine, and may publish by notice, compaction rates for other types of waste where they exist and conversion schedules for waste that is managed by measurements other than cubic yards. Each waste collector person that collects assessed waste shall collect the assessment from each nonresidential customer as part of each statement for payment of waste collection charges and shall remit the amount actually collected along with the next remittance of sales tax after receipt of the assessment.

(e) A person who transports assessed waste generated by that person or by another person without compensation shall pay an assessment of 60 cents per noncompacted cubic yard or the equivalent to the operator of the waste management facility to which the waste is delivered. The operator shall remit the assessments actually collected under this paragraph to the commissioner of revenue as though they were sales taxes under chapter 297A. This paragraph subdivision does not apply to a person who transports industrial waste generated by that person to a facility owned and operated by that person.

(f) The amount of the assessment for each residential customer that is subject to a mixed municipal solid waste collection service for which the customer pays, based on the volume of waste collected, by purchasing specific collection bags or stickers from the waste collector, municipality, or other vendor is either:

(1) determined by a method developed by the waste collector or municipality and approved by the commissioner of revenue, which yields the equivalent of approximately a $2 annual assessment per household; or

(2) three cents per each 35 gallon unit or less. If the per unit fee method under this clause is used, it is the responsibility of the waste collector or the municipality who is selling the bags or stickers to remit the amount of the assessment to the department of revenue, according to a payment schedule provided by the commissioner of revenue. The collection service and assessment under this clause shall be included in the price of the bag or sticker.

(g) The commissioner of revenue shall redesign sales tax forms for solid persons that collect assessed waste collectors to accommodate payment of the assessment. The amounts remitted under this subdivision must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the landfill cleanup account established in section 115B.42.

(g) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "person that collects mixed municipal solid waste" means each person that is required to pay sales tax on solid waste collection services under section 297A.45, or would pay sales tax under that section if the assessed waste was mixed municipal solid waste.

(h) For persons that collect assessed waste and operators of waste management facilities who are required to collect the solid waste generator assessments under this subdivision, and persons who are required to remit the assessment under paragraph (f), and who do not collect and remit the sales tax on solid waste collection services under section 297A.45, the commissioner of revenue shall determine when and in what manner the persons and operators must remit the assessment amounts actually collected.

(i) For the purposes of this subdivision, the requirement to "collect" the solid waste generator assessment under paragraph (b) means that the person to whom the requirement applies shall:

(i) include the amount of the assessment in the appropriate statement of charges for waste collection services and in any action to enforce payment on delinquent accounts;

(ii) accurately account for assessments received;

(iii) indicate to generators that payment of the assessment by the waste generator is required by law and inform generators, using information supplied by the commissioner of the agency, of the purposes for which revenue from the assessment will be spent; and

(iv) cooperate fully with the commissioner of revenue to identify generators of assessed waste who fail to remit payment of the assessment.

(j) The audit, penalty, enforcement, and administrative provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 297A apply to the assessments imposed under this subdivision.

(k) If less than $25,000,000 is projected to be available for new encumbrances in any fiscal year after fiscal year 1996 for expenditure from all existing dedicated revenue sources for landfill cleanup and reimbursement costs under sections 115B.39 to 115B.46, by April 1 before the next fiscal year in which the shortfall is projected the commissioner of the agency shall certify to the commissioner of revenue the amount of the shortfall. To provide for the shortfall, the commissioner of revenue shall increase the assessment under paragraphs (d) and (e) by an amount sufficient to generate revenue equal to the amount of the shortfall effective the following July 1 and shall provide notice of the increased assessment to affected waste generators by May 1 following certification to persons who are required to collect and remit the solid waste generator assessments under this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [REPEALER.]

Laws 1994, chapter 510, article 6, section 1, is repealed.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective beginning January 1, 1995."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to solid waste; merging two conflicting amendments to the solid waste generator assessment statute that were enacted in 1994; correcting and clarifying terminology; amending Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 116.07, subdivision 10; repealing Laws 1994, chapter 510, article 6, section 1."

(i) the audit is conducted by a registered consultant or contractor that has not provided other services in connection with the corrective action; and

(ii) the audit includes a description of any deficiencies that may extend the time needed to complete the corrective action or increase its cost;

(3) costs that the responsible person is legally obligated to pay as damages to third parties for bodily injury, property damage, or corrective action costs incurred by a third party caused by a release where the responsible person's liability for the costs has been established by a court order, consent decree, or a court-approved stipulation of settlement approved before May 11, 1994, for which the responsible party has assigned its rights to reimbursement under this section to a third-party claimant; and

~~(3)~~ (4) up to 180 days worth of interest costs, incurred after May 25, 1991, associated with the financing of corrective action. Interest costs are not eligible for reimbursement to the extent they exceed two percentage points above the adjusted prime rate charged by banks, as defined in section 270.75, subdivision 5, at the time the financing contract was executed.

(c) A cost for liability to a third party is incurred by the responsible person when an order or consent decree establishing the liability is entered. Except as provided in this paragraph, reimbursement may not be made for costs of liability to third parties until all eligible corrective action costs have been reimbursed. If a corrective action is expected to continue in operation for more than one year after it has been fully constructed or installed, the board may estimate the future expense of completing the corrective action and, after subtracting this estimate from the total reimbursement available under subdivision 3, reimburse the costs for liability to third parties. The total reimbursement may not exceed the limit set forth in subdivision 3."

(2) upon final full payment, the range operator and landowners shall relinquish their interest in the property to the agency or unit of government obtaining the closure.

(c) If the requirements of paragraph (a), clause (2), are met, the shooting range operations may be suspended if:

(1) the range operators are given reasonable notice and opportunity to respond; and

(2) the range operators are given a reasonable opportunity to correct safety defects and meet the minimum range safety standards contained in generally accepted operation practices.

(d) If a shooting range is suspended from operation because the requirements of paragraph (a), clause (2), are met and if the shooting range operators are able to obtain a current certificate of reasonable shooting range safety compliance from an organization establishing range safety standards, any order of a state agency, or unit of government to suspend the shooting range operation must, upon application by the operators, be vacated."

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124.918, subdivision 8, a school district's levy reduction as otherwise authorized under that subdivision for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no less than it was for the prior year. General education aid reduction for the 1996-1997 school year shall be governed by Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.035, subdivision 5, and the levy reduction as dictated by this section.

Sec. 58. [EQUALIZED DEBT SERVICE LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124.95, subdivision 4, a school district's levy as otherwise authorized under that subdivision for the 1996-1997 school year taxes payable in 1996 shall be based on the actual pupil units in the district for the 1992-1993 school year and the 1993 adjusted net tax of the district.

Sec. 59. [UNEQUALIZED REFERENDUM LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, subdivision 1i, a school district's unequalized referendum levy for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year. If the resulting levy is less than the school district would have levied under that subdivision, the school district shall receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 60. [REFERENDUM LEVY.]

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) or (c), notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, subdivision 2 or 2b, or 124B.03, subdivision 2, no referendum conducted after March 30, 1995, under those sections may authorize a levy first becoming payable in 1996.

(b) A referendum may authorize such a levy if the referendum provides for continuation of a referendum levy that terminates beginning with taxes payable in 1996. If the terminated levy had been based on net tax capacity, the referendum relating to taxes payable in 1996 must be based on net tax capacity and the ballot shall state the estimated referendum tax rate based on net tax capacity for taxes levied in 1996, notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.03, subdivisions 2 and 2a. To the extent the referendum relates to taxes payable in 1997 and subsequent years, the levies for those years are subject to Minnesota Statutes, sections 124A.03, subdivision 2a, and 124A.0311, subdivision 3, and the ballot shall also state the estimated referendum tax rate as a percentage of market value for taxes levied in 1997.

(c) A referendum may authorize such a levy if the levy required under the referendum would not result in an increase for taxes payable in 1996 in the total levy for all purposes imposed by the school district over the total levy imposed by the district for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 61. [REFERENDUM AUTHORITY; CONVERSION.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.0311, subdivisions 2 and 3, no school district may convert its referendum authority currently authorized to be levied against net tax capacity to referendum authority authorized to be levied against referendum market value effective for taxes payable in 1996.

Sec. 62. [TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.22, subdivision 4a, a school district's training and experience levy for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year.

Sec. 63. [SUPPLEMENTAL LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.22, subdivision 8a, a school district's supplemental levy for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year.

Sec. 64. [GENERAL EDUCATION LEVY; OFF-FORMULA DISTRICTS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.23, subdivision 3, an off-formula school district's levy for general education for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year. An off-formula school district's aid reduction for general education levy equity under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.24, shall be computed using the levy computed under this section. If an off-formula district payments pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.035, subdivision 4, are reduced from that received in the prior school year, the district shall receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 65. [LEVY REDUCTION.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.26, subdivision 2, a district's levy reduction for the 1996-1997 school year under that subdivision shall be no less than it was in the prior year. To the extent that the resulting reduction is greater than the school district would have otherwise received under that subdivision, the school district shall receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 66. [STAFF DEVELOPMENT LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.292, subdivision 3, a school district's levy for staff development for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year.

Sec. 67. [SCHOOL RESTRUCTURING LEVIES.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 126.019, a school district's levy under that section for taxes payable in 1996 shall be no greater than it was in the prior year. To the extent the resulting levy is less than the district would have otherwise been authorized to levy under that section, the district shall receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 68. [LEVY FOR LOCAL SHARE OF TECHNICAL COLLEGE CONSTRUCTION.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.411, the levy as otherwise authorized under that section for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year. If the resulting levy is less than is necessary for the district to pay its local share of the costs of construction in that year, the joint vocational technical district shall receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 69. [JOINT VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL DISTRICT TAX LEVY.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.67, a joint vocational technical district's levy under that subdivision for the 1996-1997 school year shall be no greater than it was for the prior year.

Sec. 70. [LEVY ADJUSTMENT.]

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any adjustment of a school district's levy authority other than for debt redemption fund excesses under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, for taxes payable in 1996 shall not result in a levy that is greater than it was in 1995. If the resulting levy adjustments reduce the district's revenues below that which the district would have otherwise received in the absence of this section, the district will receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 71. [OTHER LEVY AUTHORITY.]

A school district's levy under any special law or any authority other than that contained in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 124, 124A, and 136C, shall not be greater for taxes payable in 1996 than it was for taxes payable in 1995 except for any debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments issued prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995.

Sec. 72. [BENEFIT RATIO FOR RURAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 272.67, subdivision 6, the benefit ratio used for apportioning levies to a rural service district for taxes payable in 1996 shall not be greater than that in effect for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 73. [PROHIBITION AGAINST INCURRING NEW DEBT.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) After March 30, 1995, no municipality as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 475.51, or any special taxing district as defined under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.066, may sell obligations, certificates of indebtedness, or capital notes under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, section 412.301, or any other law authorizing obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments or enter into installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements under Minnesota Statutes, section 465.71, or any other law authorizing installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements if issuing those debt instruments or entering into those contracts would require a levy first becoming due in 1996. This restriction does not apply to (1) refunding bonds sold to refund bonds originally sold before March 30, 1995, or (2) obligations for which the amount of the levy first becoming due in 1996 would not exceed the amount by which the municipality's total debt service levy for taxes payable in 1996 prior to issuance of those obligations is less than the municipality's total debt service levy for taxes payable in 1995. As used in clause (2), "obligations" includes certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments or installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements.

(b) For purposes of this section, bonds will be deemed to have been sold before March 30, 1995, if:

(1) an agreement has been entered into between the municipality and a purchaser or underwriter for the sale of the bonds by that date;

(2) the issuing municipality is a party to contract or letter of understanding entered into before March 30, 1995, with the federal government or the state government that requires the municipality to pay for a project, and the project will be funded with the proceeds of the bonds; or

(3) the proceeds of the bonds will be used to fund a project or acquisition with respect to which the municipality has entered into a contract with a builder or supplier before March 30. Debt service payments due on bonds described in this paragraph during calendar year 1996 will be paid by the state. The amount of those payments must be repaid by the municipality to the state in three equal annual installments beginning in 1997. No interest will be due on those payments if timely paid by June 15 of the year due.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, installment purchase contracts, lease purchase agreements or any other debt instruments, and the debt service levies for the obligations shall, for purposes of this act, be treated as if sold prior to March 30, 1995, if:

(a) The municipality or other governmental authority has satisfied any one of the following conditions prior to March 30, 1995:

(1) it has adopted a resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the obligations;

(2) it has declared official intent to issue the obligations under federal tax laws and regulations;

or

(3) it has entered into a binding agreement to design or construct a project or acquire property to be financed with the obligations; and

(b) The municipality makes a finding at the time of the sale of the bonds that no levy will be required for taxes payable in 1996 to pay the debt service on the obligations because sufficient funds are available from nonproperty tax sources to pay the debt service.

Sec. 74. [ASSESSMENT LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [1995 ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, or any other law to the contrary, the value of property for the 1995 assessment shall not exceed the lesser of its limited market value determined for the 1994 assessment pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 1a, or its market value as otherwise determined for the 1994 assessment provided that any value attributable to new construction or improvements to the extent it does not qualify for deferral under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 16, shall be added to the prior year's value used to determine its tax capacity. It is further provided that previously tax exempt property that loses its tax exempt status pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 4, shall not have its assessment limited in any way under this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [1996 ASSESSMENT.] The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 1a, shall govern in determining the value of property classified as agricultural homestead or nonhomestead, residential homestead or nonhomestead, or noncommercial seasonal residential for the 1996 assessment provided that "five percent" shall be substituted for "ten percent" in that section.

Sec. 75. [LEVY LIMITATION TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996 PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 1, in 1995, no taxing authority other than a school district shall certify to the county auditor a proposed property tax levy or in the case of a township, a final property tax levy, greater than the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year except as provided in subdivisions 3, 4, and 5.

Subd. 2. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996 FINAL LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in 1995, no taxing authority other than a school district shall certify to the county auditor a property tax levy greater than the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year except as provided in subdivisions 4 to 6.

Subd. 3. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] School district levies shall be governed by sections 10 to 71.

Subd. 4. [DEBT SERVICE EXCEPTION.] If a payable 1996 levy for debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments sold prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995, exceeds the levy a taxing authority certified pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, for taxes payable in 1995 for the same purpose, the excess may be levied notwithstanding the limitations of subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 5. [ANNEXATION EXCEPTION.] The city tax rate for taxes payable in 1996 on any property annexed under chapter 414 may not be increased over the city or township tax rate in effect on the property in 1995, notwithstanding any law, municipal board order, or ordinance to the contrary. The limit on the annexing city's levy under subdivisions 1 and 2 may be increased in excess of that limit by an amount equal to the net tax capacity of the property annexed times the city or township tax rate in effect on that property for taxes payable in 1995. The levy limit of the city or township from which the property was annexed shall be reduced by the same amount.

Subd. 6. [INCREASE AUTHORIZED.] Notwithstanding the limitation of subdivision 1, a taxing authority other than a school district may increase its levy for taxes payable in 1996 over that certified to the county pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year by an amount equal to the taxing authority's net tax capacity pursuant to section 74, subdivision 1, times its tax rate for taxes payable in 1995 less the taxing authority's levy under subdivision 1.

Sec. 76. [FREEZE ON LOCAL MATCH REQUIREMENTS.]

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the local funding or local match required from any city, town, or county for any state grant or program shall not be increased for calendar year 1996 above the dollar amount of the local funding or local match required for the same grant or program in 1995, regardless of the level of state funding provided; and any new local match or local funding requirements for new or amended state grants or programs shall not be effective until calendar year 1997. Nothing in this section shall affect the eligibility of a city, town, or county, for the receipt of state grants or program funds in 1996 or reduce the amount of state funding a city, town, or county would otherwise receive in 1996 if the local match requirements of the state grant or program were met in 1996.

Sec. 77. [SUSPENSION OF SALARY AND BUDGET APPEAL AUTHORIZATION.]

After April 11, 1995, no county sheriff may exercise the authority granted under Minnesota Statutes, section 387.20, subdivision 7, and no county attorney may exercise the authority granted under Minnesota Statutes, section 388.18, subdivision 6, to the extent that the salary or budget increase sought in the appeal would result in an increase in county expenditures in calendar year 1996.

Sec. 78. [SUSPENSION OF PUBLICATION AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

A local taxing authority is not required to comply with the public advertisement notice of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 5a, or the public hearing requirement of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 6, with respect to taxes levied in 1995, payable in 1996, only.

Sec. 79. [LEVY LIMITATION TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] The "percentage increase in the implicit price deflator" means the percentage change in the implicit price deflator for state and local governments purchases of goods and services as calculated in Minnesota Statutes, section 477A.03, subdivision 3, provided that the 2.5 percent and five percent limits do not apply and that the increase can not be less than zero percent.

Subd. 2. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997 PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 1, in 1996, no taxing authority other than a school district or a joint vocational technical district shall certify to the county auditor a proposed property tax levy or in the case of a township, a final property tax levy, that is greater than the product of:

(1) the sum of one plus the lesser of (i) three percent, or (ii) the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator; and

(2) the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year, except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5.

Subd. 3. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997 FINAL LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in 1996, no taxing authority other than a school district or a joint vocational technical district shall certify to the county auditor a property tax levy that is greater than the product of:

(1) the sum of one plus the lesser of (i) three percent, or (ii) the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator; and

(2) the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year, except as provided in subdivisions 4, 5, and 6.

Subd. 4. [REFERENDA.] (a) A taxing authority other than a school district or an education district may increase its levy above the limits provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, by the amount approved by the voters residing in the jurisdiction of the authority at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the governing body or shall be called by the governing body upon written petition of qualified voters of the jurisdiction. The referendum shall be conducted during the calendar year before the increased levy authority, if approved, first becomes payable. Only one election to approve an increase may be held in a calendar year. The referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy and the estimated referendum tax rate as a percentage of taxable net tax capacity in the year it is to be levied. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the governing body of, be approved?"

(b) The governing body shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the referendum to each taxpayer a notice of the referendum and the proposed levy increase. The governing body need not mail more than once notice to any taxpayer. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of tax increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the jurisdiction of the taxing authority.

The notice must include the following statement: "Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(c) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the registered voters of the jurisdiction of the taxing authority on the day the petition is filed with the governing body. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held on the date specified in paragraph (a).

(d) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

(e) A bond authorization under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.59, shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this subdivision provided the ballot includes the information required in paragraph (a) and the notice required in paragraph (b) is distributed.

Subd. 5. [DEBT SERVICE EXCEPTION.] If a payable 1997 levy for debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments sold prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995, exceeds the levy a taxing authority certified pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, for taxes payable in 1996 for the same purpose, or a payable 1997 levy for general obligations exceeds any payable 1997 levy required as a condition for the issuance of such general obligations, the excess may be levied notwithstanding the limitations of subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 6. [LEVY OF TOWN BEING MERGED INTO CITY.] If a town has entered into an agreement to merge with a home rule charter or statutory city, and the merger has been approved by a referendum, the town's levy for taxes payable in 1997 shall not exceed the greater of (1) the amount determined under subdivisions 1 to 5, or (2) the amount established as a term of the merger agreement with the city.

Sec. 80. [FISCAL DISPARITIES FREEZE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 2, clause (a), the amount to be deducted from a governmental unit's net tax capacity for taxes payable in 1996 under that clause shall equal the amount deducted for taxes payable in 1995. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 2, clause (b), the amount to be added to a governmental unit's net tax capacity for taxes payable in 1996 under that clause shall equal the same amount added for taxes payable in 1995. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 3, the areawide portion of the levy for each governmental unit shall be determined using the local tax rate for the 1993 levy year. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 6, the portion of commercial-industrial property within a municipality subject to the areawide tax rate shall be computed using the amount determined under Minnesota Statutes, sections 473F.06 and 473F.07, for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 81. [TAX RATE FREEZE.]

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION OF LEVY; PAYMENT.] If in the course of determining local tax rates for taxes payable in 1996 after reductions for disparity reduction aid under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.08, subdivisions 1c and 1d, the county auditor finds the local tax rate exceeds that in effect for taxes payable in 1995, the county auditor shall reduce the local government's levy so the local tax rate does not exceed that in effect for taxes payable in 1995. The difference between the levy as originally certified by the local government and the reduced levy shall be certified to the commissioner of revenue at the time the abstracts are submitted under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.29. That amount shall be paid to the local government on or before August 31.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION.] An amount sufficient to pay the aid provided for under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for payment to counties, cities, townships, and special taxing districts. An amount sufficient to pay the aid provided for under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of education for payment to school districts.

Sec. 82. [PENSION LIABILITIES.]

Notwithstanding any other law or charter provision to the contrary, no levy for taxes payable in 1996 for a local police and fire relief association for the purpose of amortizing an unfunded pension liability may exceed the levy for that purpose for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 83. [DUTIES OF TOWNSHIP BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 365.10, in 1995 the township board of supervisors shall adjust the levy and in 1996 the township board of supervisors may adjust the expenditures of a township below the level authorized by the electors to adjust for any reduction in the previously authorized levy of the township pursuant to section 75.

Sec. 84. [PROPERTY TAX AND EDUCATION AIDS REFORM.]

Subdivision 1. [RECOMMENDED PROGRAM.] The legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy shall prepare and recommend to the legislature a property tax reform and education aids reform program that includes:

- (1) a property tax classification and class rate system;
- (2) elementary and secondary education aids and levies; and
- (3) aids to local government.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS.] (a) The recommended program must provide for accountability, equity, revenue adequacy, and efficiency as provided in paragraphs (b) to (e).

(b) The recommended program must provide accountability by being understandable to the taxpayer, by linking the costs of services to the taxes paid for those services, and by correlating the responsibility for raising revenues with the ability to make spending decisions.

(c) The recommended program must provide equity by minimizing large, short-term shifts in tax burdens, and by ensuring that tax burdens and aids are progressive and related to the ability to pay or raise revenue.

(d) The recommended program must provide for adequate revenue by controlling costs and the need for increased revenue, minimizing reductions or shifts in revenues available to local governments to provide needed services, and directing aids to meet needs and fund services based on established funding priorities.

(e) The program must promote efficiency by providing stable predictable property taxes and local government revenues that are competitive with those of other states and areas so that property taxes and aids have minimal impact on the economic decisions of taxpayers.

Subd. 3. [TASK FORCE.] The commission may designate a task force to advise the commission in carrying out its duties under this section. The task force may include legislators, agency and legislative staff, state and local governmental officials, educators, and taxpayers and members of the public. The task force expires on January 1, 1997.

Subd. 4. [SERVICES.] The commission may enter into contracts for the professional and other services necessary to carry out its duties under this section.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] The commission shall report its recommendations to the legislature on or before January 1, 1997. The report shall include proposed legislation to implement the recommendations of the commission.

Sec. 85. [UNFUNDED MANDATE PROHIBITION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "state mandates" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 3.881.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING OF THE COST OF MANDATES.] If the fiscal note prepared by the commissioner of finance under Minnesota Statutes, section 3.982, indicates that a new or expanded mandate on a political subdivision in a bill introduced in the legislature will impose a statewide cost on counties in excess of $500,000 or a statewide cost on cities or townships in excess of $250,000, the political subdivisions are not required to implement the mandate unless the legislature, by appropriation enacted before the mandate is required to be implemented, provides reimbursement to the political subdivisions for the costs incurred.

Sec. 86. [SAVINGS CLAUSE.]

Notwithstanding the repealers in section 88 or any other provision in this act to the contrary, nothing in this act constitutes an impairment of any obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments, including installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements, issued before the date of final enactment of this act, by a municipality as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.174, subdivision 6, or a special taxing district as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.066.

Sec. 87. [PIPESTONE COUNTY.]

Subdivision 1. [BOND AUTHORIZATION.] The county of Pipestone may issue its general obligation bonds in a principal amount of not to exceed $598,000 to defray the expense of repair and renovation of the county courthouse and courthouse annex. The bonds shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. No further election proceedings are required and Minnesota Statutes, section 275.61, shall not apply.

Sections 10 to 71, and section 75, subdivision 3, will not become effective if a bill styled as S.F. No. 944 is enacted during the 1995 session of the legislature and that bill provides for the imposition of levies by school districts for taxes payable in 1996.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 121.904, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [~~PROPERTY TAX SHIFT REDUCTION CHANGE IN LEVY RECOGNITION PERCENT.~~] (a) Money appropriated under section 16A.152, subdivision 2, must be used to ~~reduce the~~ levy recognition percent specified in subdivision 4a, clauses (b)(2) and (b)(3), for taxes payable in the succeeding calendar year.

(b) The levy recognition percent shall equal the result of the following computation: the current levy recognition percent, times the ratio of

(1) the statewide total amount of levy recognized in June of the year in which the taxes are payable pursuant to subdivision 4a, clause (b), excluding those levies that are shifted for revenue recognition but are not included in the computation of the adjustment to aids under section 124.155, subdivision 1, reduced by the difference between the amount of money appropriated under section 16A.152, subdivision 2, and the amount required for the adjustment payment under clause (d), to

(2) the statewide total amount of the levy recognized in June of the year in which the taxes are payable pursuant to subdivision 4a, clause (b), excluding those levies that are shifted for revenue recognition but are not included in the computation of the adjustment to aids under section 124.155, subdivision 1.

The result shall be rounded up to the nearest one-tenth of a percent. However, in no case shall the levy recognition percent be reduced below zero or increased above the current levy recognition percent.

(c) The commissioner of finance must certify to the commissioner of education the levy recognition percent computed under this subdivision by January 5 of each year. The commissioner of education must notify school districts of a change in the levy recognition percent by January 15.

(d) For fiscal years 1994 and 1995, When the levy recognition percent is increased or decreased as provided in this subdivision, a special aid adjustment shall be made to each school district with an operating referendum levy:

(i) When the levy recognition percent is increased from the prior fiscal year, the commissioner of education shall calculate the difference between (1) the amount of the levy under section 124A.03, that is recognized as revenue for the current fiscal year according to subdivision 4a; and (2) the amount of the levy, under section 124A.03, that would have been recognized as revenue for the current fiscal year had the percentage according to subdivision 4a, not been increased. The commissioner shall reduce other aids due the district by the amount of the difference. This aid reduction shall be in addition to the aid reduction required because of the increase pursuant to this subdivision of the levy recognition percent.

(ii) When the levy recognition percent is reduced as provided in this subdivision from the prior fiscal year, a special adjustment payment shall be made to each school district with an operating referendum levy that received an aid reduction under Laws 1991, chapter 265, article 1, section 31, or Laws 1992, chapter 499, article 1, section 22 when the levy recognition percent was last increased. The special adjustment payment shall be in addition to the additional payments required because of the reduction pursuant to this subdivision of the levy recognition percent. The amount of the special adjustment payment shall be computed by the commissioner of education such that any remaining portion of the aid reduction these districts received that has not been repaid is repaid on a proportionate basis as the levy recognition percent is reduced from 50 percent to 31 percent. The special adjustment payment must be included in the state aid payments to school districts according to the schedule specified in section 124.195, subdivision 3. An additional adjustment shall be made on June 30, 1995, for the final payment otherwise due July 1, 1995, under Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 136C.36.

(e) The commissioner of finance shall transfer from the general fund to the education aids appropriations specified by the commissioner of education, the amounts needed to finance the additional payments required because of the reduction pursuant to this subdivision of the levy recognition percent. Payments to a school district of additional state aids resulting from a reduction in the levy recognition percent must be included in the cash metering of payments made according to section 124.195 after January 15, and must be paid in a manner consistent with the percent specified in that section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 272.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Whenever any real estate is sold for a consideration in excess of $1,000, whether by warranty deed, quitclaim deed, contract for deed or any other method of sale, the grantor, grantee or the legal agent of either shall file a certificate of value with the county auditor in the county in which the property is located when the deed or other document is presented for recording. Contract for deeds are subject to recording under section 507.235, subdivision 1. Value shall, in the case of any deed not a gift, be the amount of the full actual consideration thereof, paid or to be paid, including the amount of any lien or liens assumed. The items and value of personal property transferred with the real property must be listed and deducted from the sale price. The certificate of value shall include the classification to which the property belongs for the purpose of determining the fair market value of the property. The certificate shall include financing terms and conditions of the sale which are necessary to determine the actual, present value of the sale price for purposes of the sales ratio study. The commissioner of revenue shall promulgate administrative rules specifying the financing terms and conditions which must be included on the certificate. The identification numbers of the grantors and grantees are private data on individuals or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02, subdivisions 9 and 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private or nonpublic data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue for purposes of tax administration.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.11, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [LIMITED MARKET VALUE.] In the case of all property classified as agricultural homestead or nonhomestead, residential homestead or nonhomestead, or noncommercial seasonal recreational residential, the assessor shall compare the value with that determined in the preceding assessment. The amount of the increase entered in the current assessment shall not exceed the greater of (1) ten percent of the value in the preceding assessment, or (2) one third of the difference between the current assessment and the preceding assessment an amount equal to the value determined for the preceding assessment year, multiplied by the rate of increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as determined by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics. This limitation shall not apply to increases in value due to improvements. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "assessment" means the value prior to any exclusion under subdivision 16.

For the first assessment year after the sale or conveyance of property for which the actual market value is less than the value determined under this subdivision, the market value of the property will be increased to its actual market value.

The provisions of this subdivision shall be in effect ~~only~~ for assessment years ~~1993 through 1997~~ 1996 and thereafter.

For purposes of the assessment/sales ratio study conducted under section 124.2131, and the computation of state aids paid under chapters 124, 124A, and 477A, market values and net tax capacities determined under this subdivision and subdivision 16, shall be used.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.11, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [VALUATION EXCLUSION FOR CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS.] Improvements to homestead property made before January 2, 2003, shall be fully or partially excluded from the value of the property for assessment purposes provided that:

(1) the house is at least 35 years old at the time of the improvement; and

(2) either:

(a) the assessor's estimated market value of the house on January 2 of the current year is equal to or less than $150,000; or

(b) if the estimated market value of the house is over $150,000 market value but is less than $300,000 on January 2 of the current year, the property qualifies if:

(i) it is located in a city or town in which 50 percent or more of the homes were constructed before 1960 based upon the 1990 federal census, and

(ii) the city or town's median family income based upon the 1990 federal census is less than the statewide median family income based upon the 1990 federal census; or

(c) if the estimated market value of the house is over $300,000 on January 2 of the current year, the property qualifies if:

(i) it meets the qualifications of paragraph (b), items (i) and (ii); and

(ii) it is located in a city of the first class within the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2.

~~Any house which has an estimated market value of $300,000 or more on January 2 of the current year is not eligible to receive any property valuation exclusion under this section. For purposes of determining this eligibility, "house" means land and buildings.~~

The age of a residence is the number of years that the residence has existed at its present site. In the case of an owner-occupied duplex or triplex, the improvement is eligible regardless of which portion of the property was improved.

If the property lies in a jurisdiction which is subject to a building permit process, a building permit must have been issued prior to commencement of the improvement. Any improvement must add at least $1,000 to the value of the property to be eligible for exclusion under this subdivision. Only improvements to the structure which is the residence of the qualifying homesteader or construction of or improvements to no more than one two-car garage per residence qualify for the provisions of this subdivision. If an improvement was begun between January 2, 1992, and January 2, 1993, any value added from that improvement for the January 1994 and subsequent assessments shall qualify for exclusion under this subdivision provided that a building permit was obtained for the improvement between January 2, 1992, and January 2, 1993. Whenever a building permit is issued for property currently classified as homestead, the issuing jurisdiction shall notify the property owner of the possibility of valuation exclusion under this subdivision. The assessor shall require an application, including documentation of the age of the house from the owner, if unknown by the assessor. The application may be filed subsequent to the date of the building permit provided that the application is filed prior to the next assessment date.

After the adjournment of the 1994 county board of equalization meetings, no exclusion may be granted for an improvement by a local board of review or county board of equalization unless (1) a building permit was issued prior to the commencement of the improvement if the jurisdiction requires a building permit, and (2) an application was completed on a timely basis. No abatement of the taxes for qualifying improvements may be granted by a county board unless (1) a building permit was issued prior to commencement of the improvement if the jurisdiction requires a building permit, and (2) an application was completed on a timely basis.

The assessor shall note the qualifying value of each improvement on the property's record, and the sum of those amounts shall be subtracted from the value of the property in each year for ten years after the improvement has been made, at which time an amount equal to 20 percent of the qualifying value shall be added back in each of the five subsequent assessment years. The valuation exclusion shall terminate whenever (1) the property is sold, or (2) the property is reclassified to a class which does not qualify for treatment under this subdivision. Improvements made by an occupant who is the purchaser of the property under a conditional purchase contract do not qualify under this subdivision unless the seller of the property is a governmental entity. The qualifying value of the property shall be computed based upon the increase from that structure's market value as of January 2 preceding the acquisition of the property by the governmental entity.

The total qualifying value for a homestead may not exceed $50,000. The total qualifying value for a homestead with a house that is less than 70 years old may not exceed $25,000. The term "qualifying value" means the increase in estimated market value resulting from the improvement if the improvement occurs when the house is at least 70 years old, or one-half of the increase in estimated market value resulting from the improvement otherwise. The $25,000 and $50,000 maximum qualifying value under this subdivision may result from up to three separate improvements to the homestead. The application shall state, in clear language, that if more than three improvements are made to the qualifying property, a taxpayer may choose which three improvements are eligible, provided that after the taxpayer has made the choice and any valuation attributable to those improvements has been excluded from taxation, no further changes can be made by the taxpayer.

If 50 percent or more of the square footage of a structure is voluntarily razed or removed, the valuation increase attributable to any subsequent improvements to the remaining structure does not qualify for the exclusion under this subdivision. If a structure is unintentionally or accidentally destroyed by a natural disaster, the property is eligible for an exclusion under this subdivision provided that the structure was not completely destroyed. The qualifying value on property destroyed by a natural disaster shall be computed based upon the increase from that structure's market value as determined on January 2 of the year in which the disaster occurred. A property receiving benefits under the homestead disaster provisions under section 273.123 is not disqualified from receiving an exclusion under this subdivision. If any combination of improvements made to a structure after January 1, 1993, increases the size of the structure by 100 percent or more, the valuation increase attributable to the portion of the improvement that causes the structure's size to exceed 100 percent does not qualify for exclusion under this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] (a) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for the purposes of a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is a residential homestead.

Agricultural land, as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, that is occupied and used as a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is an agricultural homestead.

Dates for establishment of a homestead and homestead treatment provided to particular types of property are as provided in this section.

Property of a trustee, beneficiary, or grantor of a trust is not disqualified from receiving homestead benefits if the homestead requirements under this chapter are satisfied.

The assessor shall require proof, as provided in subdivision 13, of the facts upon which classification as a homestead may be determined. Notwithstanding any other law, the assessor may at any time require a homestead application to be filed in order to verify that any property classified as a homestead continues to be eligible for homestead status.

When there is a name change or a transfer of homestead property, the assessor may reclassify the property in the next assessment unless a homestead application is filed to verify that the property continues to qualify for homestead classification.

(b) For purposes of this section, homestead property shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

(c) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner is a homestead but only to the extent of the homestead treatment that would be provided if the related owner occupied the property. For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (f), "relative" means a parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. Property that was classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time when treatment under this paragraph would first apply shall continue to be classified as seasonal recreational residential property for the first

~~four assessment years beginning after the date when the relative of the owner occupies the property as a homestead will not be reclassified as a homestead unless it is occupied as a homestead by the owner; this delay prohibition also applies to property that, in the absence of this paragraph, would have been classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time when the residence was constructed. Neither the related occupant nor the owner of the property may claim a property tax refund under chapter 290A for a homestead occupied by a relative. In the case of a residence located on agricultural land, only the house, garage, and immediately surrounding one acre of land shall be classified as a homestead under this paragraph, except as provided in paragraph (d).~~

(d) Agricultural property that is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner, is a homestead, only to the extent of the homestead treatment that would be provided if the related owner occupied the property, and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) the relative who is occupying the agricultural property is a son, daughter, father, or mother of the owner of the agricultural property or a son or daughter of the spouse of the owner of the agricultural property,

(2) the owner of the agricultural property must be a Minnesota resident,

(3) the owner of the agricultural property must not receive homestead treatment on any other agricultural property in Minnesota, and

(4) the owner of the agricultural property is limited to only one agricultural homestead per family under this paragraph.

Neither the related occupant nor the owner of the property may claim a property tax refund under chapter 290A for a homestead occupied by a relative qualifying under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, "agricultural property" means the house, garage, other farm buildings and structures, and agricultural land.

Application must be made to the assessor by the owner of the agricultural property to receive homestead benefits under this paragraph. The assessor may require the necessary proof that the requirements under this paragraph have been met.

(e) In the case of property owned by a property owner who is married, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses occupies the property and the other spouse is absent due to: (1) marriage dissolution proceedings, (2) legal separation, (3) employment or self-employment in another location as provided under subdivision 13, or (4) residence in a nursing home or boarding care facility. Homestead treatment, in whole or in part, shall not be denied to the spouse of an owner if he or she previously occupied the residence with the owner and the absence of the owner is due to one of the prior four exceptions.

(f) If an individual is purchasing property with the intent of claiming it as a homestead and is required by the terms of the financing agreement to have a relative shown on the deed as a coowner, the assessor shall allow a full homestead classification and extend full homestead credit. This provision only applies to first-time purchasers, whether married or single, or to a person who had previously been married and is purchasing as a single individual for the first time. The application for homestead benefits must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain the data necessary for the assessor to determine if full homestead benefits are warranted.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] (a) A person who meets the homestead requirements under subdivision 1 must file a homestead application with the county assessor to initially obtain homestead classification.

(b) On or before January 2, 1993, each county assessor shall mail a homestead application to the owner of each parcel of property within the county which was classified as homestead for the 1992 assessment year. The format and contents of a uniform homestead application shall be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees on the contents of the homestead application form. The application must clearly inform the taxpayer that this application must be signed by all owners who occupy the property or by the qualifying relative and returned to the county assessor in order for the property to continue receiving homestead treatment. The envelope containing the homestead application shall clearly identify its contents and alert the taxpayer of its necessary immediate response.

(c) Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor the social security number of each occupant who is listed as an owner of the property on the deed of record, the name and address of each owner who does not occupy the property, and the name and social security number of each owner's spouse who occupies the property. The application must be signed by each owner who occupies the property and by each owner's spouse who occupies the property, or, in the case of property that qualifies as a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), by the qualifying relative.

If a property owner occupies a homestead, the property owner's spouse may not claim another property as a homestead unless the property owner and the property owner's spouse file with the assessor an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor stating that the property owner's spouse does not occupy the homestead because marriage dissolution proceedings are pending, the spouses are legally separated, or the spouse's employment or self-employment at a location distant from the other spouse's place of employment requires the spouse to have a separate homestead. The assessor may require proof of employment or self-employment and employment or self-employment location, or proof of dissolution proceedings or legal separation.

~~If the social security number or affidavit or other proof is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead. Owners or spouses occupying residences owned by their spouses and previously occupied with the other spouse, either of whom fail to include the other spouse's name and social security number of the homestead application or provide the affidavits or other proof requested, will be deemed to have elected to receive only partial homestead treatment of their residence. The remainder of the residence will be classified as nonhomestead residential. When an owner or spouse's name and social security number appear on homestead applications for two separate residences and only one application is signed, the owner or spouse will be deemed to have elected to homestead the residence for which the application was signed.~~

The social security numbers or affidavits or other proofs of the property owners and spouses are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue, or, for purposes of proceeding under the revenue recapture act to recover personal property taxes owing, to the county treasurer.

(d) If residential real estate is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner and qualifies for a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), in order for the property to receive homestead status, a homestead application must be filed with the assessor. The social security number of each relative occupying the property and the social security number of each owner who is related to an occupant of the property shall be required on the homestead application filed under this subdivision. If a different relative of the owner subsequently occupies the property, the owner of the property must notify the assessor within 30 days of the change in occupancy. The social security number of a relative occupying the property is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

(e) The homestead application shall also notify the property owners that the application filed under this section will not be mailed annually and that if the property is granted homestead status for the 1993 assessment, or any assessment year thereafter, that same property shall remain classified as homestead until the property is sold or transferred to another person, or the owners, the spouse of the owner, or the relatives no longer use the property as their homestead. Upon the sale or transfer of the homestead property, a certificate of value must be timely filed with the county auditor as provided under section 272.115. Failure to notify the assessor within 30 days that the property has been sold, transferred, or that the owner, the spouse of the owner, or the relative is no longer occupying the property as a homestead, shall result in the penalty provided under this subdivision and the property will lose its current homestead status.

(f) If the homestead application is not returned within 30 days, the county will send a second application to the present owners of record. The notice of proposed property taxes prepared under section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall reflect the property's classification. Beginning with assessment year 1993 for all properties, if a homestead application has not been filed with the county by December 15, the assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year, provided that the owner may be entitled to receive the homestead classification by proper application under section 375.192.

(g) At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security number of each property owner and the property owner's spouse occupying the property, or relative of a property owner, applying for homestead classification under this subdivision. The commissioner shall use the information provided on the lists as appropriate under the law, including for the detection of improper claims by owners, or relatives of owners, under chapter 290A.

(h) If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the taconite homestead credit under section 273.135, and the supplemental homestead credit under section 273.1391.

The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes. In the case of a manufactured home, the amount shall be certified to the current year's tax list for collection.

(i) Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

(j) If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

(k) In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.13, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [CLASS 3.] (a) Commercial and industrial property and utility real and personal property, except class 5 property as identified in subdivision 31, clause (1), is class 3a. It has a class rate of three percent of the first $100,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, and 5.06 percent of the market value over $100,000. In the case of state-assessed commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value. In the case of other commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value, except that:

(1) if the market value of the parcel is less than $100,000, and additional parcels are owned by the same person or entity in the same city or town within that county, the reduced class rate shall be applied up to a combined total market value of $100,000 for all parcels owned by the same person or entity in the same city or town within the county;

(2) in the case of grain, fertilizer, and feed elevator facilities, as defined in section 18C.305, subdivision 1, or 232.21, subdivision 8, the limitation to one parcel per owner per county for the reduced class rate shall not apply, but there shall be a limit of $100,000 of preferential value per site of contiguous parcels owned by the same person or entity. Only the value of the elevator portion of each parcel shall qualify for treatment under this clause. For purposes of this subdivision, contiguous parcels include parcels separated only by a railroad or public road right-of-way; and

(3) in the case of property owned by a nonprofit charitable organization that qualifies for tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1993, if the property is used as a business incubator, the limitation to one parcel per owner per county for the reduced class rate shall not apply, provided that the reduced rate applies only to the first $100,000 of value per parcel owned by the organization. As used in this clause, a "business incubator" is a facility used for the development of nonretail businesses, offering access to equipment, space, services, and advice to the tenant businesses, for the purpose of encouraging economic development, diversification, and job creation in the area served by the organization.

To receive the reduced class rate on additional parcels under clause (1), (2), or (3), the taxpayer must notify the county assessor that the taxpayer owns more than one parcel that qualifies under clause (1), (2), or (3).

(b) Employment property defined in section 469.166, during the period provided in section 469.170, shall constitute class 3b and has a class rate of 2.3 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 3.6 percent of the remainder, except that for employment property located in a border city enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), the class rate of the first $100,000 of market value and the class rate of the remainder is determined under paragraph (a), unless the governing body of the city designated as an enterprise zone determines that a specific parcel shall be assessed pursuant to the first clause of this sentence. The governing body may provide for assessment under the first clause of the preceding sentence only for property which is located in an area which has been designated by the governing body for the receipt of tax reductions authorized by section 469.171, subdivision 1.

(c) Structures which are (i) located on property classified as class 3a, (ii) constructed after January 2, 1995, and (iii) located in a transit zone as defined under section 473.3915, shall have a class rate of four percent on that portion of the market value in excess of $100,000. The four percent rate shall also apply to that portion of any class 3a structure located in a transit zone constructed after January 2, 1995, even if the remainder of the structure was constructed prior to January 2, 1995. For the purposes of this paragraph, a structure shall be considered to be located in a transit zone if any portion of the structure lies within the zone.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.13, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and 3.4 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter.

(b) Class 4b includes:

(1) residential real estate containing less than four units, other than seasonal residential, and recreational;

(2) manufactured homes not classified under any other provision;

(3) a dwelling, garage, and surrounding one acre of property on a nonhomestead farm classified under subdivision 23, paragraph (b).

Class 4b property has a class rate of 2.8 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, 2.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993, and 2.3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1994 and thereafter.

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined in Title II, as amended through December 31, 1990, of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971, as amended, or rules promulgated by the agency and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan made pursuant to Title II of the Act; or

(ii) situated on real property that is used for housing the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined by the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971, as amended, or rules adopted by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of the act.

This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan.

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

(3) a qualified low-income building as defined in section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section and receives public financing, except financing provided under sections 469.174 to 469.179, which contains terms restricting the rents; or (iii) meets the requirements of section 273.1317. Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to a term of 15 years. The public financing received must be from at least one of the following sources: government issued bonds exempt from taxes under section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1993, the proceeds of which are used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building; programs under section 221(d)(3), 202, or 236, of Title II of the National Housing Act; rental housing program funds under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 or the market rate family graduated payment mortgage program funds administered by the Minnesota housing finance agency that are used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building; public financing provided by a local government used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building, including grants or loans from federal community development block grants, HOME block grants, or residential rental bonds issued under chapter 474A; or other rental housing program funds provided by the Minnesota housing finance agency for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents unless the owner of the property elects to have the property assessed under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. If the owner of the property elects to have the market value determined on the basis of the actual restricted rents, as provided in Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55, the property will be assessed at the rate provided for class 4a or class 4b property, as appropriate. Properties described in clauses (1)(ii), (3), and (4) may apply to the assessor for valuation under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. The land on which these structures are situated has the class rate given in paragraph (b) if the structure contains fewer than four units, and the class rate given in paragraph (a) if the structure contains four or more units. This clause applies only to the property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

(4) a parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, if it is owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by lower income families or individuals. This clause does not apply to any portion of the land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes. For purposes of this clause, a lower income family is a family with an income that does not exceed 65 percent of the median family income for the area, and a lower income individual is an individual whose income does not exceed 65 percent of the median individual income for the area, as determined by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. For purposes of this clause, "neighborhood real estate trust" means an entity which is certified by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located to have the following characteristics:

(a) it is a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A;

(b) it has as its principal purpose providing housing for lower income families in a specific geographic community designated in its articles or bylaws;

(c) it limits membership with voting rights to residents of the designated community; and

(d) it has a board of directors consisting of at least seven directors, 60 percent of whom are members with voting rights and, to the extent feasible, 25 percent of whom are elected by resident members of buildings owned by the trust; and

(5) except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c), real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property is used for residential occupancy, and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in this clause also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts. Owners of real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and all or a portion of which was devoted to commercial purposes for not more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment desiring classification as class 1c or 4c, must submit a declaration to the assessor designating the cabins or units occupied for 250 days or less in the year preceding the year of assessment by January 15 of the assessment year. Those cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located will be designated class 1c or 4c as otherwise provided. The remainder of the cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located will be designated as class 3a. The first $100,000 of the market value of the remainder of the cabins or units and a proportionate share of the land on which they are located shall have a class rate of three percent. The owner of property desiring designation as class 1c or 4c property must provide guest registers or other records demonstrating that the units for which class 1c or 4c designation is sought were not occupied for more than 250 days in the year preceding the assessment if so requested. The portion of a property operated as a (1) restaurant, (2) bar, (3) gift shop, and (4) other nonresidential facility operated on a commercial basis not directly related to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes shall not qualify for class 1c or 4c;

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes, and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or 3.2 percent malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity;

(7) post-secondary student housing of not more than one acre of land that is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A and is used exclusively by a student cooperative, sorority, or fraternity for on-campus housing or housing located within two miles of the border of a college campus; and

Class 4c property has a class rate of 2.3 percent of market value, except that (i) for each parcel of seasonal residential recreational property not used for commercial purposes under clause (5) ~~has a class rate of 2.2 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter,~~ the first $72,000 of market value on each parcel has a class rate of ~~two~~ 1.8 percent for taxes payable in 1997 and thereafter and the market value of each parcel that exceeds $72,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent, and (ii) manufactured home parks assessed under clause (8) have a class rate of two percent ~~for taxes payable in 1993, 1994, and 1995 only.~~

(d) Class 4d property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the Farmers Home Administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the Farmers Home Administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The class rates in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause apply to the properties described in them, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. For those properties, 4c or 4d classification is available only for those units meeting the requirements of section 273.1318.

Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

In the case of a structure financed or refinanced under any federal or state mortgage insurance or direct loan program exclusively for housing for the elderly or for housing for the handicapped, a unit shall be considered occupied so long as it is actually occupied by an elderly or handicapped person or, if vacant, is held for rental to an elderly or handicapped person.

(2) For taxes payable in 1992, 1993, and 1994, only, buildings and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located, leased by the occupant under the community lending model lease-purchase mortgage loan program administered by the Federal National Mortgage

Association, provided the occupant's income is no greater than 60 percent of the county or area median income, adjusted for family size and the building consists of existing single family or duplex housing. The lease agreement must provide for a portion of the lease payment to be escrowed as a nonrefundable down payment on the housing. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor to determine qualification under this clause.

(3) Qualifying buildings and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located, leased for a period of up to five years by the occupant under a lease-purchase program administered by the Minnesota housing finance agency or a housing and redevelopment authority authorized under sections 469.001 to 469.047, provided the occupant's income is no greater than 80 percent of the county or area median income, adjusted for family size, and the building consists of two or less dwelling units. The lease agreement must provide for a portion of the lease payment to be escrowed as a nonrefundable down payment on the housing. The administering agency shall verify the occupants income eligibility and certify to the county assessor that the occupant meets the income criteria under this paragraph. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. For purposes of this section, "qualifying buildings and appurtenances" shall be defined as one or two unit residential buildings which are unoccupied and have been abandoned and boarded for at least six months.

Class 4d property has a class rate of two percent of market value except that property classified under clause (3), shall have the same class rate as class 1a property.

(e) Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (3); paragraph (c), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), is assessed at the class rate applicable to it under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316. Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (d) is assessed at 2.3 percent of market value if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [WIND ENERGY CONVERSION SYSTEMS.] Taxable wind energy conversion systems, situated upon land owned by another person, which are not in good faith owned, operated, and exclusively controlled by such other person, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 274.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDINARY BOARD; MEETINGS, DEADLINES, GRIEVANCES.] (a) The town board of a town, or the council or other governing body of a city, is the board of review except in cities whose charters provide for a board of equalization. The county assessor shall fix a day and time when the board or the board of equalization shall meet in the assessment districts of the county. On or before February 15 of each year the assessor shall give written notice of the time to the city or town clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of any charter to the contrary, the meetings must be held between April 1 and May 31 each year. The clerk shall give published and posted notice of the meeting at least ten days before the date of the meeting. If at least 25 percent of the net tax capacity of the city or town is noncommercial seasonal recreational residential property classified under section 273.13, subdivision 25, the meeting or, if more than one meeting is scheduled, at least one of the meetings must be held on a Saturday. The Saturday meeting date must be contained on the notice of valuation of real property under section 273.121. The board shall meet at the office of the clerk to review the assessment and classification of property in the town or city. No changes in valuation or classification which are intended to correct errors in judgment by the county assessor may be made by the county assessor after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned; however, corrections of errors that are merely clerical in nature or changes that extend homestead treatment to property are permitted after adjournment until the tax extension date for that assessment year. The changes must be fully documented and maintained in the assessor's office and must be available for review by any person. A copy of the changes made during this period must be sent to the county board no later than December 31 of the assessment year.

(b) The board shall determine whether the taxable property in the town or city has been properly placed on the list and properly valued by the assessor. If real or personal property has been omitted, the board shall place it on the list with its market value, and correct the assessment so that each tract or lot of real property, and each article, parcel, or class of personal property, is entered on the assessment list at its market value. No assessment of the property of any person may be raised unless the person has been duly notified of the intent of the board to do so. On application of any person feeling aggrieved, the board shall review the assessment or classification, or both, and correct it as appears just.

(c) A local board of review may reduce assessments upon petition of the taxpayer but the total reductions must not reduce the aggregate assessment made by the county assessor by more than one percent. If the total reductions would lower the aggregate assessments made by the county assessor by more than one percent, none of the adjustments may be made. The assessor shall correct any clerical errors or double assessments discovered by the board of review without regard to the one percent limitation.

(d) A majority of the members may act at the meeting, and adjourn from day to day until they finish hearing the cases presented. The assessor shall attend, with the assessment books and papers, and take part in the proceedings, but must not vote. The county assessor, or an assistant delegated by the county assessor shall attend the meetings. The board shall list separately, on a form appended to the assessment book, all omitted property added to the list by the board and all items of property increased or decreased, with the market value of each item of property, added or changed by the board, placed opposite the item. The county assessor shall enter all changes made by the board in the assessment book.

(e) If a person fails to appear in person, by counsel, or by written communication before the board after being duly notified of the board's intent to raise the assessment of the property, or if a person feeling aggrieved by an assessment or classification fails to apply for a review of the assessment or classification, the person may not appear before the county board of equalization for a review of the assessment or classification. This paragraph does not apply if an assessment was made after the board meeting, as provided in section 273.01, or if the person can establish not having received notice of market value at least five days before the local board of review meeting.

(f) The board of review or the board of equalization must complete its work and adjourn within 20 days from the time of convening stated in the notice of the clerk, unless a longer period is approved by the commissioner of revenue. No action taken after that date is valid. All complaints about an assessment or classification made after the meeting of the board must be heard and determined by the county board of equalization. A nonresident may, at any time, before the meeting of the board of review file written objections to an assessment or classification with the county assessor. The objections must be presented to the board of review at its meeting by the county assessor for its consideration.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 276.131, is amended to read:

276.131 [DISTRIBUTION OF PENALTIES, INTEREST, AND COSTS.]

The penalties, interest, and costs collected on special assessments and real and personal property taxes must be distributed as follows:

(1) all penalties and interest collected on special assessments against real or personal property must be distributed to the taxing jurisdiction that levied the assessment;

(2) 50 percent of all penalties and interest collected on real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located, and the other 50 percent must be distributed to the school district in which the property is located districts within the county. The distribution to the school district must be in accordance with the provisions of section 124.10; and

(3) all costs collected by the county on special assessments and on delinquent real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3 or 4, on May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, a penalty shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer. The penalty shall be at a rate of two percent on homestead property until May 31 and four percent on June 1. The penalty on nonhomestead property shall be at a rate of four percent until May 31 and eight percent on June 1. This penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statements, whichever is later, on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 1c or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the first day of each month beginning July 1, up to and including October 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes provided that if the due date was extended beyond May 15 as the result of any delay in mailing property tax statements no additional penalty shall accrue if the tax is paid by the extended due date. If the tax is not paid by the extended due date, then all penalties that would have accrued if the due date had been May 15 shall be charged. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of two percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the first day of November an additional penalty of four percent shall accrue and on the first day of December following, an additional penalty of two percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

This section applies to payment of personal property taxes assessed against improvements to leased property, except as provided by section 277.01, subdivision 3.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 279.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. In the case of class 4c seasonal residential recreational property not used for commercial purposes, penalties shall accrue and be charged on unpaid taxes at the times and at the rates provided in subdivision 1 for homestead property.

Sec. 17. [473.3915] [TRANSIT ZONES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in subdivisions 2 and 3 have the meaning given them.

Subd. 2. [TRANSIT ROUTE.] "Transit route" means a route along which transportation of passengers is provided by a motor vehicle or other means of conveyance, including light rail transit, by any person operating on a regular and continuing basis as a common carrier on fixed routes and schedules. "Transit route" does not include (1) a route along which transportation is provided for children to or from school or for passengers between a common carrier terminal station and a hotel or motel, (2) transportation by common carrier railroad or by taxi, (3) transportation furnished by a person solely for that person's employees or customers, or (4) paratransit.

Subd. 4. [TRANSIT ZONES; MAP AND PLAN.] For the purposes of section 273.13, subdivision 24, the council shall designate transit zones and identify them on a detailed map and in a plan. The council shall review the map and plan once a year and revise them as necessary to indicate the current transit zones. The council shall provide each county and city assessor in the metropolitan area a copy of the current map and plan.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 477A.011, subdivision 36, is amended to read:

Subd. 36. [CITY AID BASE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), "city aid base" means, for each city, the sum of the local government aid and equalization aid it was originally certified to receive in calendar year 1993 under Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 477A.013, subdivisions 3 and 5, and the amount of disparity reduction aid it received in calendar year 1993 under Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 273.1398, subdivision 3.

(b) A city that in 1992 or 1993 transferred an amount from governmental funds to its sewer and water fund, which amount exceeded its net levy for taxes payable in the year in which the transfer occurred, has a "city aid base" equal to the amount the city was certified to receive in calendar year 1995 under section 477A.013.

Sec. 19. Laws 1992, chapter 511, article 2, section 45, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [HOUSING REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY; EXCEPTIONS.] The requirements of subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5 do not apply in order to qualify for the exemption if the student housing is owned by the local housing and redevelopment authority, the reduced cost of development due to the exemption is reflected in lower rents, and a reasonable system is used to provide priority to students in renting the dwelling units.

Sec. 20. Laws 1992, chapter 511, article 2, section 45, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EXPIRATION.] ~~This section applies to student housing approved by the state board before January 1, 1997.~~ The property tax exemption for a student housing development is limited to 20 years from the date of first occupancy. This section expires January 1, 2018.

Sec. 21. Laws 1992, chapter 511, article 2, section 46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [HOUSING REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY; EXCEPTIONS.] The requirements of subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5 do not apply in order to qualify for the exemption if the student housing is owned by the local housing and redevelopment authority or by a multicounty housing and redevelopment authority on land leased from a city or school district, the reduced cost of development due to the exemption is reflected in lower rents, and a reasonable system is used to provide priority to students in renting the dwelling units.

Sec. 22. Laws 1992, chapter 511, article 2, section 46, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EXPIRATION.] ~~This section applies to student housing approved by the state board before January 1, 1997.~~ The property tax exemption for a student housing development is limited to 20 years from the date of first occupancy. This section expires January 1, 2018.

Sec. 23. [HACA REDUCTION; HENNEPIN COUNTY COURT EMPLOYEES.]

There shall be deducted from the homestead and agricultural credit aid payments to Hennepin county under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398, an amount equal to $180,000 which represents the cost to the state for the assumption of two Hennepin county staff attorneys whose job function is that of court referees and whose positions should have been transferred to the state as part of the court takeover in Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 4. One-half of the total amount shall be deducted from each of the aid payments made in 1995 to Hennepin county under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398. The amount of reduction made under this section shall be a permanent aid reduction.

Sec. 24. [TRANSIT ZONE MAP; DATE FIRST PRODUCED.]

The metropolitan council shall produce an initial version of the transit zone map required under section 473.3915, subdivision 4, by January 1, 1996.

Sec. 25. [COMPUTATION OF TAX RATES.]

In computing the basic transportation tax rate under Minnesota Statutes, section 124.226, subdivision 1, and the general education tax rate under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.23, subdivision 1, the commissioner shall, notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 124.2131, subdivision 1, use adjusted net tax capacities that do not reflect the class rate reduction in section 11. Notwithstanding the dollar amounts specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 124.226, subdivision 1, and section 124A.23, subdivision 1, the resulting rate shall be applied to the adjusted net tax capacities as computed under Minnesota Statutes, section 124.2131, for purposes of determining the basic transportation levy under Minnesota Statutes, section 124.226, subdivision 1, and the general education levy under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.23, subdivision 2. The equalization factor under Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.02, shall be computed using the tax rate computed under this section.

Sec. 26. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 17 and 24 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Section 3 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sections 4, 8, 9, and 12 are effective for taxes levied in 1995, payable in 1996, and thereafter, provided that the provisions of section 8 restricting homestead classification for seasonal recreational residential property applies to taxes payable in 1996 and thereafter regardless of the date of occupancy of the property or the date of filing of an application for homestead classification by the relative of the owner.

Section 7 is effective for improvements made in 1995 and subsequent years.

Sections 10 and 13 are effective for 1996 assessments for taxes payable in 1997 and subsequent years.

Sections 15 and 16 are effective for taxes levied in 1995, payable in 1996, and thereafter.

Section 18 is effective for aids paid in 1996 and thereafter.

Sections 19 and 20 are effective the day after the governing body of Duluth complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Sections 21 and 22 are effective the day after the governing body of Thief River Falls complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Section 23 is effective for aid payments made to Hennepin county in 1995 provided, however, that the aid reduction is contingent upon enactment of a law in 1995 which (i) transfers the Hennepin county positions, and (ii) provides from the general fund a funding to the state supreme court for the positions.

PROPERTY TAX REFUND

Section 1. [13.515] [PROPERTY TAX DATA.]

The following data calculated or maintained by political subdivisions and shown on property tax statements under section 276.09 are classified as private data on individuals, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12: (1) property tax refund amounts under section 276.04, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), clause (8); and (2) the property tax after deduction of the property tax refunds under section 276.04, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), clause (9).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 270A.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REFUND.] "Refund" means an individual income tax refund or political contribution refund, pursuant to chapter 290; or a property tax credit or refund, pursuant to chapter 290A, other than a refund which has been certified to or calculated by the county auditor under section 276.012.

For purposes of this chapter, lottery prizes, as set forth in section 349A.08, subdivision 8, shall be treated as refunds.

In the case of a joint property tax refund payable to spouses under chapter 290A, the refund shall be considered as belonging to each spouse in the proportion of the total refund that equals each spouse's proportion of the total income determined under section 290A.03, subdivision 3. The commissioner shall remit the entire refund to the claimant agency, which shall, upon the request of the spouse who does not owe the debt, determine the amount of the refund belonging to that spouse and refund the amount to that spouse.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 270B.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS.] The commissioner may disclose to a county auditor and treasurer, and to their designated agents or employees, the property tax refund amounts for each parcel of homestead property in the county as determined by the commissioner under chapter 290A.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 270B.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS.] For purposes of determining and administering homestead status and property tax refunds, the commissioner may disclose to a county auditor, county treasurer, county assessor, the county recorder or registrar of deeds, and their designated agents or employees, and those officials may disclose to each other and to the commissioner, the parcel identification number and the names and social security numbers of the owners of homestead property and their spouses.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] (a) A person who meets the homestead requirements under subdivision 1 must file a homestead application with the county assessor to initially obtain homestead classification.

(b) On or before January 2, 1993, each county assessor shall mail a homestead application to the owner of each parcel of property within the county which was classified as homestead for the 1992 assessment year. The format and contents of a uniform homestead application shall be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees on the contents of the homestead application form. The application must clearly inform the taxpayer that this application must be signed by all owners who occupy the property or by the qualifying relative and returned to the county assessor in order for the property to continue receiving homestead treatment. The envelope containing the homestead application shall clearly identify its contents and alert the taxpayer of its necessary immediate response.

(c) Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor the social security number of each occupant who is listed as an owner of the property on the deed of record, the name and address of each owner who does not occupy the property, and the name and social security number of each owner's spouse who occupies the property. The application must be signed by each owner who occupies the property and by each owner's spouse who occupies the property, or, in the case of property that qualifies as a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), by the qualifying relative.

If a property owner occupies a homestead, the property owner's spouse may not claim another property as a homestead unless the property owner and the property owner's spouse file with the assessor an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor stating that the property owner's spouse does not occupy the homestead because marriage dissolution proceedings are pending, the spouses are legally separated, or the spouse's employment or self-employment location requires the spouse to have a separate homestead. The assessor may require proof of employment or self-employment and employment or self-employment location, or proof of dissolution proceedings or legal separation.

If the social security number or affidavit or other proof is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead.

The social security numbers or affidavits or other proofs of the property owners and spouses are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue, or, for purposes of proceeding under the revenue recapture act to recover personal property taxes owing, to the county treasurer.

(d) If residential real estate is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner and qualifies for a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), in order for the property to receive homestead status, a homestead application must be filed with the assessor. The social security number of each relative occupying the property and the social security number of each owner who is related to an occupant of the property shall be required on the homestead application filed under this subdivision. If a different relative of the owner subsequently occupies the property, the owner of the property must notify the assessor within 30 days of the change in occupancy. The social security number of a relative occupying the property is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

(e) The homestead application shall also notify the property owners that the application filed under this section will not be mailed annually and that if the property is granted homestead status for the 1993 assessment, or any assessment year thereafter, that same property shall remain classified as homestead until the property is sold or transferred to another person, or the owners or the relatives no longer use the property as their homestead. Upon the sale or transfer of the homestead property, a certificate of value must be timely filed with the county auditor as provided under section 272.115. Failure to notify the assessor within 30 days that the property has been sold, transferred, or that the owner or the relative is no longer occupying the property as a homestead, shall result in the penalty provided under this subdivision and the property will lose its current homestead status.

(f) If the homestead application is not returned within 30 days, the county will send a second application to the present owners of record. The notice of proposed property taxes prepared under section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall reflect the property's classification. Beginning with assessment year 1993 for all properties, if a homestead application has not been filed with the county by December 15, the assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year, provided that the owner may be entitled to receive the homestead classification by proper application under section 375.192.

(g) At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security number of each property owner and the property owner's spouse occupying the property, or relative of a property owner, applying for homestead classification under this subdivision. The commissioner shall use the information provided on the lists as appropriate under the law, including for the detection of improper claims by owners, or relatives of owners, under chapter 290A.

(h) If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the taconite homestead credit under section 273.135, and the supplemental homestead credit under section 273.1391, and the property tax refunds under chapter 290A deducted on the property tax statement.

The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes. In the case of a manufactured home, the amount shall be certified to the current year's tax list for collection.

(i) Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to property tax refunds reimbursed to the county by the state shall be paid to the commissioner of revenue for deposit in the fund from which it was paid. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

(j) If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

(k) In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 275.065, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) The county auditor shall prepare and the county treasurer shall deliver after November 10 and on or before November 24 each year, by first class mail to each taxpayer at the address listed on the county's current year's assessment roll, a notice of proposed property taxes and, in the case of a town, final property taxes.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice.

(c) The notice must inform taxpayers that it contains the amount of property taxes each taxing authority other than a town proposes to collect for taxes payable the following year and, for a town, the amount of its final levy. It must clearly state that each taxing authority, including regional library districts established under section 134.201, and including the metropolitan taxing districts as defined in paragraph (i), but excluding all other special taxing districts and towns, will hold a public meeting to receive public testimony on the proposed budget and proposed or final property tax levy, or, in case of a school district, on the current budget and proposed property tax levy. It must clearly state the time and place of each taxing authority's meeting and an address where comments will be received by mail. The notice must include the estimated percentage increase in Minnesota personal income, provided by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.064, in a way to facilitate comparison of the proposed budget and levy increases with the increase in personal income. For 1993, the notice must clearly state that each taxing authority holding a public meeting will describe the increases or decreases of the total budget, including employee and independent contractor compensation in the prior year, current year, and the proposed budget year.

(d) The notice must state for each parcel:

(1) the market value of the property as determined under section 273.11, and used for computing property taxes payable in the following year and for taxes payable in the current year; and, in the case of residential property, whether the property is classified as homestead or nonhomestead. The notice must clearly inform taxpayers of the years to which the market values apply and that the values are final values;

(2) by county, city or town, school district excess referenda levy, remaining school district levy, regional library district, if in existence, the total of the metropolitan special taxing districts as defined in paragraph (i) and the sum of the remaining special taxing districts, and as a total of the taxing authorities, including all special taxing districts, the proposed or, for a town, final net tax on the property for taxes payable the following year, including separate deductions for the property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h, and the actual tax for taxes payable the current year, including separate deductions for the property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h. For the purposes of this subdivision, "school district excess referenda levy" means school district taxes for operating purposes approved at referendums, including those taxes based on net tax capacity as well as those based on market value. "School district excess referenda levy" does not include school district taxes for capital expenditures approved at referendums or school district taxes to pay for the debt service on bonds approved at referenda. In the case of the city of Minneapolis, the levy for the Minneapolis library board and the levy for Minneapolis park and recreation shall be listed separately from the remaining amount of the city's levy. In the case of a parcel where tax increment or the fiscal disparities areawide tax applies, the proposed tax levy on the captured value or the proposed tax levy on the tax capacity subject to the areawide tax must each be stated separately and not included in the sum of the special taxing districts; and

(3) the increase or decrease in the amounts in clause (2) from taxes payable in the current year to proposed or, for a town, final taxes payable the following year, expressed as a dollar amount and as a percentage.

(e) The notice must clearly state that the proposed or final taxes do not include the following and that these items may increase the proposed tax shown on the notice:

(1) special assessments;

(2) levies approved by the voters after the date the proposed taxes are certified, including bond referenda, school district levy referenda, and levy limit increase referenda;

(3) amounts necessary to pay cleanup or other costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the date the proposed taxes are certified;

(4) amounts necessary to pay tort judgments against the taxing authority that become final after the date the proposed taxes are certified; and

(5) the contamination tax imposed on properties which received market value reductions for contamination.

The notice must state that the deduction for a property tax refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is contingent upon continuity in ownership of the property.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision 7, failure of the county auditor to prepare or the county treasurer to deliver the notice as required in this section does not invalidate the proposed or final tax levy or the taxes payable pursuant to the tax levy.

(g) If the notice the taxpayer receives under this section lists the property as nonhomestead and the homeowner provides satisfactory documentation to the county assessor that the property is owned and has been used as the owner's homestead prior to June 1 of that year, the assessor shall reclassify the property to homestead for taxes payable in the following year.

(h) In the case of class 4 residential property used as a residence for lease or rental periods of 30 days or more, the taxpayer must either:

(1) mail or deliver a copy of the notice of proposed property taxes to each tenant, renter, or lessee; or

(2) post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises of the property.

(i) For purposes of this subdivision, subdivisions 5a and 6, "metropolitan special taxing districts" means the following taxing districts in the seven-county metropolitan area that levy a property tax for any of the specified purposes listed below:

(1) metropolitan council under section 473.132, 473.167, 473.249, 473.325, 473.446, 473.521, 473.547, or 473.834;

(2) metropolitan airports commission under section 473.667, 473.671, or 473.672; and

(3) metropolitan mosquito control commission under section 473.711.

For purposes of this section, any levies made by the regional rail authorities in the county of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, or Washington under chapter 398A shall be included with the appropriate county's levy and shall be discussed at that county's public hearing.

The notice must be mailed or posted by the taxpayer by November 27 or within three days of receipt of the notice, whichever is later. A taxpayer may notify the county treasurer of the address of the taxpayer, agent, caretaker, or manager of the premises to which the notice must be mailed in order to fulfill the requirements of this paragraph.

Sec. 7. [276.012] [COMPUTATION AND ADMINISTRATION OF PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS.]

(a) On or before October 1 each year, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the property tax refund amount under section 290A.04, subdivision 2, for each parcel of homestead property as defined in section 290A.04, subdivision 6, other than a manufactured home assessed under section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), that qualifies for a refund relating to taxes payable in the current year.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the refund for purposes of the proposed property tax notice for each parcel of homestead property as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 6, other than a manufactured home assessed under section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), that may qualify for a refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, for taxes payable in the subsequent year.

(c) After certification of the levies by taxing districts under section 275.07, the county auditor shall compute the refund for each parcel of homestead property as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 6, other than a manufactured home assessed under section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), that qualifies for a refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, for taxes payable in the current year.

(d) The county auditor shall separately certify the amounts in paragraphs (a) and (c) to the county treasurer who shall reflect the amounts as property tax deductions on the property tax statement under section 276.04 for taxes payable in the current year, provided that to receive the refunds, the property must be classified as homestead property under section 273.13 for taxes payable in the year the refund is payable.

(e) The county auditor shall annually separately certify the costs of the property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h, to the department of revenue with the abstract of tax lists under section 275.29.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 276.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF TAX STATEMENTS.] (a) The treasurer shall provide for the printing of the tax statements. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the property tax statement and its contents. The statement must contain the parcel identification number and a county identification number in the upper right corner of the statement. The statement must contain the qualifying tax amount to be used by the taxpayer in claiming a property tax refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2, in the form and location determined by the commissioner of revenue. The statement must contain a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the county, township or municipality, the total of the metropolitan special taxing districts as defined in section 275.065, subdivision 3, paragraph (i), school district excess referenda levy, remaining school district levy, and the total of other voter approved referenda levies based on market value under section 275.61 must be separately stated. The amounts due all other special taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. For the purposes of this subdivision, "school district excess referenda levy" means school district taxes for operating purposes approved at referenda, including those taxes based on market value. "School district excess referenda levy" does not include school district taxes for capital expenditures approved at referendums or school district taxes to pay for the debt service on bonds approved at referenda. The amount of the tax on contamination value imposed under sections 270.91 to 270.98, if any, must also be separately stated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The amount of market value excluded under section 273.11, subdivision 16, if any, must also be listed on the tax statement. The statement shall include the following sentence, printed in upper case letters in boldface print: "THE STATE OF MINNESOTA DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY PROPERTY TAX REVENUES. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA REDUCES YOUR PROPERTY TAX BY PAYING CREDITS AND REIMBURSEMENTS TO LOCAL UNITS OF GOVERNMENT."

(b) The property tax statements for manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property.

(c) Real and personal property tax statements must contain the following information in the order given in this paragraph. The information must contain the current year tax information in the right column with the corresponding information for the previous year in a column on the left:

(1) the property's estimated market value under section 273.11, subdivision 1;

(2) the property's taxable market value after reductions under section 273.11, subdivisions 1a and 16;

(3) the property's gross tax, calculated by multiplying the property's gross tax capacity times the total local tax rate and adding to the result the sum of the aids enumerated in clause (3);

(4) a total of the following aids:

(i) education aids payable under chapters 124 and 124A;

(ii) local government aids for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A; and

(iii) disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398;

(5) for homestead residential and agricultural properties, the homestead and agricultural credit aid apportioned to the property. This amount is obtained by multiplying the total local tax rate by the difference between the property's gross and net tax capacities under section 273.13. This amount must be separately stated and identified as "homestead and agricultural credit." For purposes of comparison with the previous year's amount for the statement for taxes payable in 1990, the statement must show the homestead credit for taxes payable in 1989 under section 273.13, and the agricultural credit under section 273.132 for taxes payable in 1989;

(6) any credits received under sections 273.119; 273.123; 273.135; 273.1391; 273.1398, subdivision 4; 469.171; and 473H.10, except that the amount of credit received under section 273.135 must be separately stated and identified as "taconite tax relief"; and

(7) the net tax payable in the manner required in paragraph (a);

(8) for eligible homestead properties, the property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h, if any, shown separately as deductions on the statement; and

(9) the tax after deduction of the property tax refunds under clause (8).

(d) The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids enumerated in clauses (3) and (4) that local governments will receive in the following year. ~~In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, for taxes levied in 1991, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter,~~ The commissioner must certify this amount by September 1.

The county auditor shall, within 30 days after the settlement, send an abstract of it to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. At the settlement the treasurer shall make complete returns of the receipts on the current tax list, showing the amount collected on account of the several funds included in the list.

Settlement of receipts from the later of May 20 or the actual settlement date to December 31 of each year must be made as provided in section 276.111.

For purposes of this section, "receipts" includes all tax payments received by the county treasurer on or before the settlement date and all property tax refunds paid to the county treasurer under section 290A.07.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 276.111, is amended to read:

276.111 [DISTRIBUTIONS AND FINAL YEAR-END SETTLEMENT.]

Within 14 business days after July 20, the county treasurer shall pay to each taxing district 100 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the taxing district from the settlement day determined in section 276.09 to July 25.

Within seven business days after October 15, the county treasurer shall pay to the school districts 50 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district from ~~the settlement day determined in section 276.09~~ July 25 to October 20. The remaining 50 percent of the estimated tax collections must be paid to the school district within the next seven business days. Within ten business days after November 15, the county treasurer shall pay to the school district 100 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school districts from October 20 to November 20.

Within ten business days after November 15, the county treasurer shall pay to each taxing district, except any school district, 100 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to each taxing district from ~~the settlement day determined in section 276.09~~ July 25 to November 20.

After subtracting any tax distributions that have been made to the taxing districts in July, October, and November, the treasurer shall pay to each of the taxing districts on or before January 25, the balance of the tax amounts collected on behalf of each taxing district. Interest accrues at an annual rate of eight percent and must be paid to the taxing district if this final settlement amount is not paid by January 25. Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 289A.60, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [PENALTIES RELATING TO PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS.] (a) If the commissioner determines that a property tax refund claim is or was excessive and was filed with fraudulent intent, the claim must be disallowed in full. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed may be recovered by assessment and collection.

(b) If it is determined that a property tax refund claim is excessive and was negligently prepared, ten percent of the corrected claim must be disallowed. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed must be recovered by assessment and collection.

(c) An owner or managing agent who knowingly fails to give a certificate of rent constituting property tax to a renter, as required by section 290A.19, paragraph (a), is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each failure.

(d) If the owner or managing agent knowingly gives rent certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual rent constituting property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported. An overstatement of rent constituting property taxes is presumed to be knowingly made if it exceeds by ten percent or more the actual rent constituting property taxes.

(e) No property tax refund claim based on rent paid, or on property taxes payable in the case of a manufactured home assessed under section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), is allowed if the initial claim is filed more than one year after the original due date for filing the claim.

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (e), no property tax refund claim based on property taxes payable filed after the original due date for filing the claim may be paid. No extensions of time for filing may be granted.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.03, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead ~~before reductions made under section 273.13~~ but after deductions made under sections 273.135, 273.1391, 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits in any calendar year other than property tax refunds determined under chapter 290A. In the case of a claimant who makes ground lease payments, "property taxes payable" includes the amount of the payments directly attributable to the property taxes assessed against the parcel on which the house is located. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes ~~as defined in section 274.19, subdivision 8~~ assessed under section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), "property taxes payable" shall also include the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable," the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year ~~in which the tax is payable~~ to which the "property taxes payable" used in computing the refund relate, and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, on or before December 15 of the assessment year to which the "property taxes payable" relate; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made on or before ~~December~~ August 15 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

No refunds under section 290A.04, subdivision 2 or 2h, may be deducted on the property tax statement unless the property is classified as homestead property for taxes payable in the year the property tax refund is paid.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. (a) If the gross property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than 12 percent over the net property taxes payable in the prior year on the same property that is owned and occupied by the same owner on January 2 of both years, and the amount of that increase is $100 or ~~more for taxes payable in 1995 and 1996, a claimant who is, a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to 60 percent of the amount of the increase over the greater of 12 percent of the prior year's net property taxes payable or $100 for taxes payable in 1995 and 1996. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the gross property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead after the assessment date for the prior year's taxes.~~

The maximum refund allowed under this subdivision is $1,000.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable minus refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

~~(e) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.~~

~~(d) On or before December 1, 1995, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in 1996. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims for taxes payable in 1996 exceed $5,500,000, the commissioner shall first reduce the 60 percent refund rate enough, but to no lower a rate than 50 percent, so that the estimated total refund claims do not exceed $5,500,000. If the commissioner estimates that total claims will exceed $5,500,000 at a 50 percent refund rate, the commissioner shall also reduce the $1,000 maximum refund amount by enough so that total estimated refund claims do not exceed $5,500,000.~~

~~The determinations of the revised thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.~~

~~(e) Upon request, the appropriate county official shall make available the names and addresses of the property taxpayers who may be eligible for the additional property tax refund under this section. The information shall be provided on a magnetic computer disk. The county may recover its costs by charging the person requesting the information the reasonable cost for preparing the data. The information may not be used for any purpose other than for notifying the homeowner of potential eligibility and assisting the homeowner, without charge, in preparing a refund claim.~~

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.07, is amended to read:

290A.07 [TIME FOR AND MANNER OF PAYMENT.]

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT TO COUNTY TREASURER AS DEDUCTION ON PROPERTY TAX STATEMENT.] ~~A claimant~~ In the case of property not included in subdivision 2a shall receive full payment after September 15 and before September 30, payment of a refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2, is made as a deduction on the property tax statement for the homestead for taxes payable the following year, and payment of a refund under section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is made as a deduction on the property tax statement for the homestead for taxes payable in the current year.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT TO COUNTY TREASURER.] Annually on or before July 20, the commissioner shall pay the amount of the property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h, certified by the county auditor under section 276.012, paragraph (e), to the county treasurer for settlement and distribution under sections 276.09 to 276.111.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.15, is amended to read:

290A.15 [CLAIM APPLIED AGAINST OUTSTANDING LIABILITY.]

The amount of any claim otherwise payable under this chapter may be applied by the commissioner against any delinquent tax liability of the claimant or spouse of the claimant payable to the department of revenue. This section does not apply to (1) refunds under section 290A.04, subdivision 2, that have been certified by the commissioner of revenue to the county auditor under section 276.012, or (2) refunds under section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, determined by the county auditor under section 276.012.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.18, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CLAIM BY SURVIVING SPOUSE OR DEPENDENT.] Except as provided in subdivision 3, if a person entitled to relief under this chapter dies prior to receiving relief, the surviving spouse or dependent of the person shall be entitled to file the claim and receive relief. If there is no surviving spouse or dependent, the right to the credit shall lapse.

Subd. 2. [CLAIMANT CANNOT BE LOCATED.] Except as provided in subdivision 3, if the commissioner cannot locate the claimant within two years from the date that the original warrant was issued, or if a claimant to whom a warrant has been issued does not cash that warrant within two years from the date the warrant was issued, the right to the credit shall lapse, and the warrant shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 3. [RIGHT TO RECEIVE REFUND NOT PERSONAL TO CLAIMANT.] Property tax refunds under section 290A.04, subdivisions 2 and 2h, are paid as a deduction on the property tax statement of the property as provided in section 290A.07, subdivision 3. The right to receive the deduction is not personal to the claimant or to a surviving spouse or dependent of the claimant.

Sec. 17. [290A.26] [APPROPRIATION; COUNTY COSTS.]

$2,650,000 is appropriated for fiscal year 1997, and $2,370,000 is appropriated for fiscal year 1998, and each year thereafter, to the commissioner of revenue to pay counties for the costs of implementing and administering the property tax refunds for homeowners. The commissioner shall make the payments annually, on July 20 of each year. Each county auditor shall determine the county's costs and certify the costs to the commissioner at the time and in the manner directed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall review the costs, and may limit or correct them, return them to the county for changes, or request additional information or documentation. The commissioner shall apportion the available appropriation to each county in the same proportion that the county's expenses as finally determined by the commissioner are to the sum of all the counties' expenses.

Sec. 18. [1996 LEVY; TRUTH IN TAXATION NOTICE.]

For taxes payable in 1997 only, the notice of proposed property taxes under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall state that beginning with property taxes payable in 1997, the homestead property tax refund calculated under Minnesota Statutes, section 290A.04, subdivision 2, and the special refund for property tax increases under Minnesota Statutes, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, shall be paid as a deduction from the net tax on the property for all qualifying properties other than manufactured homes assessed under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c). The notice shall clearly notify the taxpayer that these deductions are shown on the notice of proposed taxes for taxes payable in 1997, and that the actual tax for taxes payable in 1997 may be greater than the amount shown on the notice if the ownership or classification of the property changes before the refunds are paid. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form and wording of the statement required in this section. The commissioner may prescribe that the statement be included with the notice of proposed property taxes as a separate addendum. At least five working days before distribution to the counties, the notice prescribed by the commissioner of revenue under this section must be submitted to the chairs of the senate committee on taxes and tax laws and the house tax committee for their advice and approval.

For the city of Minneapolis, the authority may designate up to 500 parcels in the city to be included in a housing replacement district over the life of the district.

(c) The city in which the authority is located must pay at least 25 percent of the project costs from its general fund, property tax levy, or other unrestricted money, not including tax increments.

(d) The project must have as its sole object the acquisition of parcels for the purpose of preparing the site to be sold for market rate housing. As used in this section, "market rate housing" means housing that has a market value that does not exceed 150 percent of the average market value of single-family housing in that municipality.

Subd. 2. [HOUSING REPLACEMENT DISTRICT PLAN.] To establish a housing replacement district under sections 31 to 34, an authority shall develop a housing replacement project plan which shall contain:

(1) a statement of the objectives and a description of the projects proposed by the authority for the housing replacement district;

(2) a statement of the housing replacement project plan, demonstrating the coordination of that plan with the city's comprehensive plan;

(3) estimates of the following:

(i) cost of the program, including administrative expenses;

(ii) sources of revenue to finance or otherwise pay public costs;

(iii) the most recent net tax capacity of taxable real property within the housing replacement district; and

(iv) the estimated captured net tax capacity of the housing replacement district at completion;

(4) statements of the authority's alternate estimates of the impact of the housing replacement district on the net tax capacities of all taxing jurisdictions in which the district is located in whole or in part. For purposes of one statement, the municipality shall assume that the estimated captured net tax capacity would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district, and for purposes of the second statement, the county shall assume that none of the estimated captured net tax capacity would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district; and

(5) identification of all parcels to be included in the zone, to the extent known at the time the plan is prepared. At a minimum, the parcels that will be included in the district during its first year must be identified in the original plan. If parcels for subsequent years are not specifically identified, the plan must include the criteria that will be used by the authority to select parcels to be included in the later years.

Subd 3. [PROCEDURE.] The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 469.175, subdivisions 3, 4, 5, and 6, apply to the establishment and operation of the districts created under sections 31 to 34, except as follows:

(1) the determination specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.175, subdivision 3, clause (1), is not required; and

(2) addition of parcels not identified in the original plan is not treated as a modification of a plan requiring an approval process provided that the parcels added are consistent with the criteria described in subdivision 2, clause (5).

Sec. 33. [LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DURATION LIMITS.] No tax increment shall be paid to the authority on each parcel in a housing replacement district after 20 years from date of receipt by the county of the first tax increment from that parcel.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENTS.] All revenues derived from tax increments shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely to pay the costs of site acquisition, demolition of existing structures, site preparation, and pollution abatement on parcels identified in the plan, as well as public improvements and administrative costs directly related to those parcels.

Sec. 34. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAWS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION OF TAX INCREMENT.] The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, apply to the computation of tax increment for the housing replacement districts created under sections 31 to 34.

[OTHER PROVISIONS.] References in Minnesota Statutes to tax increment financing districts created and tax increments generated under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.174 to 469.179, other than references in Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1399, shall include housing replacement districts and tax increments subject to sections 31 to 34, provided that Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.174 to 469.179, apply only to the extent specified in sections 31 to 34.

Sec. 35. [CITY OF FAIRMONT; TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICT.]

TACONITE TAX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OCCUPATION TAX; IRON ORE; TACONITE CONCENTRATES.] A person engaged in the business of mining or producing of iron ore or, taconite concentrates or direct reduced ore in this state shall pay an occupation tax to the state of Minnesota. The tax is determined in the same manner as the tax imposed by section 290.02, except that sections 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (a), and 290.17, subdivision 4, do not apply. The tax is in addition to all other taxes.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.227, is amended to read:

298.227 [TACONITE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.]

An amount equal to that distributed pursuant to each taconite producer's taxable production and qualifying sales under section 298.28, subdivision 9a, shall be held by the iron range resources and rehabilitation board in a separate taconite economic development fund for each taconite and direct reduced ore producer. Money from the fund for each producer shall be released only on the written authorization of a joint committee consisting of an equal number of representatives of the salaried employees and the nonsalaried production and maintenance employees of that producer. The district 33 director of the United States Steelworkers of America, on advice of each local employee president, shall select the employee members. In nonorganized operations, the employee committee shall be elected by the nonsalaried production and maintenance employees. Each producer's joint committee may authorize release of the funds held pursuant to this section only for acquisition of equipment and facilities for the producer or for research and development in Minnesota on new mining, or taconite, iron, or steel production technology. Funds may be released only upon a majority vote of the representatives of the committee. If a taconite production facility is sold after operations at the facility had ceased, any money remaining in the fund for the former producer may be released to the purchaser of the facility on the terms otherwise applicable to the former producer under this section. Any portion of the fund which is not released by a joint committee within two years of its deposit in the fund shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund created in section 298.292 for placement in their respective special accounts. Two-thirds of the unreleased funds shall be distributed to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund. This section is effective for taxes payable in 1993 and 1994.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For concentrate produced in 1992, 1993, ~~and~~ 1994, and 1995 there is imposed upon taconite and iron sulphides, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of $2.054 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced therefrom.

(b) For concentrates produced in ~~1995~~ 1996 and subsequent years, the tax rate shall be equal to the preceding year's tax rate plus an amount equal to the preceding year's tax rate multiplied by the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator from the fourth quarter of the second preceding year to the fourth quarter of the preceding year. "Implicit price deflator" for the gross national product means the implicit price deflator prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States Department of Commerce.

(c) The tax shall be imposed on the average of the production for the current year and the previous two years. The rate of the tax imposed will be the current year's tax rate. This clause shall not apply in the case of the closing of a taconite facility if the property taxes on the facility would be higher if this clause and section 298.25 were not applicable.

(d) If the tax or any part of the tax imposed by this subdivision is held to be unconstitutional, a tax of $2.054 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced shall be imposed.

(e) Consistent with the intent of this subdivision to impose a tax based upon the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate, the commissioner of revenue may indirectly determine the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate included in fluxed pellets by subtracting the weight of the limestone, dolomite, or olivine derivatives or other basic flux additives included in the pellets from the weight of the pellets. For purposes of this paragraph, "fluxed pellets" are pellets produced in a process in which limestone, dolomite, olivine, or other basic flux additives are combined with merchantable iron ore concentrate. No subtraction from the weight of the pellets shall be allowed for binders, mineral and chemical additives other than basic flux additives, or moisture.

(f) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, for concentrates produced in 1994 through 1999 the first five years of a plant's production of direct reduced ore, the rate of the tax on direct reduced ore is determined under this paragraph. As used in this paragraph, "direct reduced ore" is ore that results in a product that has an iron content of at least 75 percent. The rate to be applied to direct reduced ore is 25 percent of the rate otherwise determined under this subdivision for the first 500,000 of taxable tons for the production year, and 50 percent of the rate otherwise determined for any remainder. If the taxpayer had no production in the two years prior to the the current production year, the tonnage eligible to be taxed at 25 percent of the rate otherwise determined under this subdivision is the first 166,667 tons. If the taxpayer had some production in the year prior to the current production year but no production in the second prior year, the tonnage eligible to be taxed at 25 percent of the rate otherwise determined under this subdivision is the first 333,333 tons.

(2) Production of direct reduced ore in this state is subject to the tax imposed by this section, but if that production is not produced by a producer of taconite or iron sulfides, the production of taconite or iron sulfides consumed in the production of direct reduced iron in this state is not subject to the tax imposed by this section on taconite or iron sulfides.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.25, is amended to read:

298.25 [TAXES ADDITIONAL TO OTHER TAXES.]

The taxes imposed under section 298.24 shall be in addition to the occupation tax imposed upon the business of mining and producing iron ore. Except as herein otherwise provided, such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes upon such taconite and iron sulphides, and direct reduced ore or the lands in which they are contained, or upon the mining or quarrying thereof, or the production of concentrate or direct reduced ore therefrom, or upon the concentrate or direct reduced ore produced, or upon the machinery, equipment, tools, supplies and buildings used in such mining, quarrying or production, or upon the lands occupied by, or used in connection with, such mining, quarrying or production facilities. If electric or steam power for the mining, transportation or concentration of such taconite or the concentrates or direct reduced ore produced therefrom is generated in plants principally devoted to the generation of power for such purposes, the plants in which such power is generated and all machinery, equipment, tools, supplies, transmission and distribution lines used in the generation and distribution of such power, shall be considered to be machinery, equipment, tools, supplies and buildings used in the mining, quarrying, or production of taconite and taconite concentrates or direct reduced ore within the meaning of this section. If part of the power generated in such a plant is used for purposes other than the mining or concentration of taconite or direct reduced ore or the transportation or loading of taconite or the concentrates thereof or direct reduced ore, a proportionate share of the value of such generating facilities, equal to the proportion that the power used for such other purpose bears to the generating capacity of the plant, shall be subject to the general property tax in the same manner as other property; provided, power generated in such a plant and exchanged for an equivalent amount of power which is used for the mining, transportation, or concentration of such taconite or concentrates or direct reduced ore produced therefrom, shall be considered as used for such purposes within the meaning of this section. Nothing herein shall prevent the assessment and taxation of the surface of reserve land containing taconite and not occupied by such facilities or used in connection therewith at the value thereof without regard to the taconite or iron sulphides therein, nor the assessment and taxation of merchantable iron ore or other minerals, or iron-bearing materials other than taconite or iron sulphides in such lands in the manner provided by law, nor the assessment and taxation of facilities used in producing sulphur or sulphur products from iron sulphide concentrates, or in refining such sulphur products, under the general property tax laws. Nothing herein shall except from general taxation or from taxation as provided by other laws any property used for residential or townsite purposes, including utility services thereto.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.28, subdivision 9a, is amended to read:

Subd. 9a. [TACONITE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.] (a) ~~10.4 cents per ton for distributions in 1993 and~~ 15.4 cents per ton for distributions in 1994, and 1995, and ~~11.3 cents per ton for distributions in~~ 1996 shall be paid to the taconite economic development fund. No distribution shall be made under this paragraph in any year in which total industry production falls below 30 million tons.

(b) An amount equal to 50 percent of the tax under section 298.24 for concentrate sold in the form of pellet chips and fines not exceeding 5/16 inch in size and not including crushed pellets shall be paid to the taconite economic development fund. The amount paid shall not exceed $700,000 annually for all companies. If the initial amount to be paid to the fund exceeds this amount, each company's payment shall be prorated so the total does not exceed $700,000.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 298.296, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TEMPORARY LOAN AUTHORITY.] The board may recommend that up to $10,000,000 from the corpus of the trust may be used for loans as provided in this subdivision. The money would be available for loans for construction and equipping of facilities constituting (1) a value added iron products plant, which may be either a new plant or a facility incorporated into an existing plant that produces iron upgraded to a minimum of 75 percent iron content or any iron alloy with a total minimum metallic content of 90 percent; or (2) a new mine or minerals processing plant for any mineral subject to the net proceeds tax imposed under section 298.015. A loan under this subdivision may not exceed $5,000,000 for any facility. The authority to make loans under this subdivision terminates December 31, ~~1995~~ 1997.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for production years beginning after December 31, 1994.

(c) Tangible personal property delivered to a common or contract carrier or foreign vessel for delivery to a purchaser in another state or nation is a sale in that state or nation, regardless of f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale.

(e) Sales made by or through a corporation that is qualified as a domestic international sales corporation under section 992 of the Internal Revenue Code are not considered to have been made within this state.

(f) Sales, rents, royalties, and other income in connection with real property is attributed to the state in which the property is located.

(g) Receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property, including finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state and to other states if the property is not located in this state. Moving property including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, or mobile equipment is located in this state if:

(1) the operation of the property is entirely within this state; or

(2) the operation of the property is in two or more states and the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in this state.

If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the royalties or other income must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser uses the intangible property or the rights therein in the regular course of its business operations in this state, regardless of the location of the purchaser's customers.

(i) Sales of intangible property are made within the state in which the property is used by the purchaser. If the property is used in more than one state, the sales must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of use in this state. If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the sale must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser used the intangible property in the regular course of its business operations in this state.

(j) Receipts from the performance of services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of where the services are consumed received. ~~If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state. (e) Receipts from the lease or rental of real or tangible personal property, including both finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state. Tangible personal property that is characteristically moving property, such as motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, mobile equipment, and the like, is considered to be located in a state if:

(1) the operation of the property is entirely within the state; or

(2) the operation of the property is in two or more states, but the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in the state.

(f) Interest income and other receipts from assets in the nature of loans that are secured primarily by real estate or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the security property is located in this state under the principles stated in paragraph (e).

(g) Interest income and other receipts from consumer loans not secured by real or tangible personal property that are made to residents of this state, whether at a place of business, by traveling loan officer, by mail, by telephone or other electronic means, must be attributed to this state.

(h) Interest income and other receipts from commercial loans and installment obligations that are unsecured by real or tangible personal property or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the income and receipts are attributed to the state in which the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business is located. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) Interest income and other receipts from a participating financial institution's portion of participation and syndication loans must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h). A participation loan is an arrangement in which a lender makes a loan to a borrower and then sells, assigns, or otherwise transfers all or a part of the loan to a purchasing financial institution. In the case of merchants located within and outside the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.

(l) Receipts from the performance of fiduciary and other services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of the services are consumed received. ~~If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state.~~ For the purposes of this section, services provided to a corporation, partnership, or trust must be attributed to a state where it has a fixed place of doing business. ~~If the extent to which the benefits of state where the services are consumed in this state received is not readily determinable or is a state where the corporation, partnership, or trust does not have a fixed place of doing business, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed received at the location of the office of the customer from which the services were ordered in the regular course of the customer's trade or business. If the ordering office cannot be determined, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed received at the office of the customer to which the services are billed.~~

(m) Receipts from the issuance of travelers checks and money orders must be attributed to the state in which the checks and money orders are purchased.

(n) Receipts from investments of a financial institution in securities and from money market instruments must be apportioned to this state based on the ratio that total deposits from this state, its residents, including any business with an office or other place of business in this state, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities bear to the total deposits from all states, their residents, their political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities. In the case of an unregulated financial institution subject to this section, these receipts are apportioned to this state based on the ratio that its gross business income, excluding such receipts, earned from sources within this state bears to gross business income, excluding such receipts, earned from sources within all states. For purposes of this subdivision, deposits made by this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities must be attributed to this state, whether or not the deposits are accepted or maintained by the taxpayer at locations within this state.

(o) A financial institution's interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the receipts factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included in paragraph (n).

DEPARTMENT PROPERTY TAX AND PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 168.012, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [MANUFACTURED HOMES.] Manufactured homes shall not be taxed as motor vehicles using the public streets and highways and shall be exempt from the motor vehicle tax provisions of this chapter. Except as provided in section 273.125, manufactured homes shall be taxed as personal property. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1957, section 272.02 or any other act providing for tax exemption shall be inapplicable to manufactured homes, except such manufactured homes as are held by a licensed dealer and exempted as inventory. Travel trailers not conspicuously displaying current registration plates on the property tax assessment date shall be taxed as manufactured homes if occupied as human dwelling places. ~~Park trailers not used on the highway during any calendar year~~ must be taxed as manufactured homes if occupied as human dwelling places, and in addition, park trailers used on the highway during any calendar year must be taxed under section 168.013, subdivision 1j.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] (a) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for the purposes of a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is a residential homestead.

Agricultural land, as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, that is occupied and used as a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is an agricultural homestead.

Dates for establishment of a homestead and homestead treatment provided to particular types of property are as provided in this section.

Property of a trustee, beneficiary, or grantor of a trust is not disqualified from receiving homestead benefits if the homestead requirements under this chapter are satisfied.

The assessor shall require proof, as provided in subdivision 13, of the facts upon which classification as a homestead may be determined. Notwithstanding any other law, the assessor may at any time require a homestead application to be filed in order to verify that any property classified as a homestead continues to be eligible for homestead status. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the department of revenue may, upon request from an assessor, verify whether an individual who is requesting or receiving homestead classification has filed a Minnesota income tax return as a resident for the most recent taxable year for which the information is available.

When there is a name change or a transfer of homestead property, the assessor may reclassify the property in the next assessment unless a homestead application is filed to verify that the property continues to qualify for homestead classification.

(b) For purposes of this section, homestead property shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

(c) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner is a homestead but only to the extent of the homestead treatment that would be provided if the related owner occupied the property. For purposes of this paragraph, "relative" means a parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. Property that was classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time when treatment under this paragraph would first apply shall continue to be classified as seasonal recreational residential property for the first four assessment years beginning after the date when the relative of the owner occupies the property as a homestead; this delay also applies to property that, in the absence of this paragraph, would have been classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time when the residence was constructed. Neither the related occupant nor the owner of the property may claim a property tax refund under chapter 290A for a homestead occupied by a relative. In the case of a residence located on agricultural land, only the house, garage, and immediately surrounding one acre of land shall be classified as a homestead under this paragraph, except as provided in paragraph (d).

(d) Agricultural property that is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner, is a homestead, only to the extent of the homestead treatment that would be provided if the related owner occupied the property, and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) the relative who is occupying the agricultural property is a son, daughter, father, or mother of the owner of the agricultural property or a son or daughter of the spouse of the owner of the agricultural property,

(2) the owner of the agricultural property must be a Minnesota resident,

(3) the owner of the agricultural property must not receive homestead treatment on any other agricultural property in Minnesota, and

(4) the owner of the agricultural property is limited to only one agricultural homestead per family under this paragraph.

Neither the related occupant nor the owner of the property may claim a property tax refund under chapter 290A for a homestead occupied by a relative qualifying under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, "agricultural property" means the house, garage, other farm buildings and structures, and agricultural land.

Application must be made to the assessor by the owner of the agricultural property to receive homestead benefits under this paragraph. The assessor may require the necessary proof that the requirements under this paragraph have been met.

(e) In the case of property owned by a property owner who is married, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses occupies the property and the other spouse is absent due to: (1) marriage dissolution proceedings, (2) legal separation, (3) employment or self-employment in another location as provided under subdivision 13, or (4) residence in a nursing home or boarding care facility.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COOPERATIVES AND CHARITABLE CORPORATIONS.] When one or more dwellings, or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units, are owned by a corporation or association organized under chapter 308A, and each person who owns a share or shares in the corporation or association is entitled to occupy a dwelling, or dwelling unit in the building, the corporation or association may claim homestead treatment for each dwelling, or for each unit in case of a building containing several dwelling units, for the dwelling or for the part of the value of the building occupied by a shareholder. Each dwelling or unit must be designated by legal description or number, and the net tax capacity of each dwelling that qualifies for assessment under this subdivision must include not more than one-half acre of land, if platted, nor more than 80 acres if unplatted. The net tax capacity of the building or buildings containing several dwelling units is the sum of the net tax capacities of each of the respective units comprising the building. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the corporation or association must be wholly owned by persons having a right to occupy a dwelling or dwelling unit owned by the corporation or association. A charitable corporation organized under the laws of Minnesota and not otherwise exempt thereunder with no outstanding stock qualifies for homestead treatment with respect to member residents of the dwelling units who have purchased and hold residential participation warrants entitling them to occupy the units.

When dwelling units no longer qualify under this subdivision, the current owner must notify the assessor within 60 days. Failure to notify the assessor within 60 days shall result in the loss of benefits under this subdivision for taxes payable in the year that the failure is discovered. For these purposes, "benefits under this subdivision" means the difference in the net tax capacity of the units which no longer qualify as computed under this subdivision and as computed under the otherwise applicable law, times the local tax rate applicable to the building for that taxes payable year. Upon discovery of a failure to notify, the assessor shall inform the auditor of the difference in net tax capacity for the building or buildings in which units no longer qualify, and the auditor shall calculate the benefits under this subdivision. Such amount, plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of that amount, shall then be demanded of the building's owner. The property owner may appeal the county's determination by serving copies of a petition for review with county officials as provided in section 278.01 and filing a proof of service as provided in section 278.01 with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. The appeal shall be governed by the tax court procedures provided in chapter 271, for cases relating to the tax laws as defined in section 271.01, subdivision 5; disregarding sections 273.125, subdivision 5, and 278.03, but including section 278.05, subdivision 2. If the amount of the benefits under this subdivision and penalty are not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of the benefit and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes on the affected buildings.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317A and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, and has received public financing, homestead treatment may be claimed by the cooperative association on behalf of the members of the cooperative for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. The cooperative association must provide the assessor with the social security numbers of those members. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions must be met:

(a) the cooperative association must be organized under chapter 308A and all voting members of the board of directors must be resident tenants of the cooperative and must be elected by the resident tenants of the cooperative;

(b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years, which permits the cooperative association, while not in default on the lease, to participate materially in the management of the property, including material participation in establishing budgets, setting rent levels, and hiring and supervising a management agent;

(c) to the extent permitted under state or federal law, the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale;

(d) a minimum of 40 percent of the cooperative association's members must have incomes at or less than 60 percent of area median gross income as determined by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development under section 142(d)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991. For purposes of this clause, "member income" means the income of a member existing at the time the member acquires cooperative membership;

(e) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317A and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, and the limited partnership agreement must provide that the managing general partner have sufficient powers so that it materially participates in the management and control of the limited partnership;

(f) prior to becoming a member of a leasehold cooperative described in this subdivision, a person must have received notice that (1) describes leasehold cooperative property in plain language, including but not limited to the effects of classification under this subdivision on rents, property taxes and tax credits or refunds, and operating expenses, and (2) states that copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative association, the lease between the owner and the cooperative association, a sample sublease between the cooperative association and a tenant, and, if the owner is a partnership, a copy of the limited partnership agreement, can be obtained upon written request at no charge from the owner, and the owner must send or deliver the materials within seven days after receiving any request;

(g) if a dwelling unit of a building was occupied on the 60th day prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property described in this subdivision, the notice described in paragraph (f) must have been sent by first class mail to the occupant of the unit at least 60 days prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property. For purposes of the notice under this paragraph, the copies of the documents referred to in paragraph (f) may be in proposed version, provided that any subsequent material alteration of those documents made after the occupant has requested a copy shall be disclosed to any occupant who has requested a copy of the document. Copies of the articles of incorporation and certificate of limited partnership shall be filed with the secretary of state after the expiration of the 60-day period unless the change to leasehold cooperative status does not proceed;

(h) the county attorney of the county in which the property is located must certify to the assessor that the property meets the requirements of this subdivision;

(i) the public financing received must be from at least one of the following sources:

(1) tax increment financing proceeds used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building or interest rate write-downs relating to the acquisition of the building;

(2) government issued bonds exempt from taxes under section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991, the proceeds of which are used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building;

(3) programs under section 221(d)(3), 202, or 236, of Title II of the National Housing Act;

(4) rental housing program funds under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 or the market rate family graduated payment mortgage program funds administered by the Minnesota housing finance agency that are used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building;

(5) low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991;

(6) public financing provided by a local government used for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building, including grants or loans from (i) federal community development block grants; (ii) HOME block grants; or (iii) residential rental bonds issued under chapter 474A; or

(7) other rental housing program funds provided by the Minnesota housing finance agency for the acquisition or rehabilitation of the building;

(j) at the time of the initial request for homestead classification or of any transfer of ownership of the property, the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located must hold a public hearing and make the following findings:

(1) that the granting of the homestead treatment of the apartment's units will facilitate safe, clean, affordable housing for the cooperative members that would otherwise not be available absent the homestead designation;

(2) that the owner has presented information satisfactory to the governing body showing that the savings garnered from the homestead designation of the units will be used to reduce tenant's rents or provide a level of furnishing or maintenance not possible absent the designation; and

Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

When dwelling units no longer qualify under this subdivision, the current owner must notify the assessor within 60 days. Failure to notify the assessor within 60 days shall result in the loss of benefits under this subdivision for taxes payable in the year that the failure is discovered. For these purposes, "benefits under this subdivision" means the difference in the net tax capacity of the units which no longer qualify as computed under this subdivision and as computed under the otherwise applicable law, times the local tax rate applicable to the building for that taxes payable year. Upon discovery of a failure to notify, the assessor shall inform the auditor of the difference in net tax capacity for the building or buildings in which units no longer qualify, and the auditor shall calculate the benefits under this subdivision. Such amount, plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of that amount, shall then be demanded of the building's owner. The property owner may appeal the county's determination by serving copies of a petition for review with county officials as provided in section 278.01 and filing a proof of service as provided in section 278.01 with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. The appeal shall be governed by the tax court procedures provided in chapter 271, for cases relating to the tax laws as defined in section 271.01, subdivision 5; disregarding sections 273.125, subdivision 5, and 278.03, but including section 278.05, subdivision 2. If the amount of the benefits under this subdivision and penalty are not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of the benefit and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes on the affected buildings.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [LIMITATION ON HOMESTEAD CLASSIFICATION.] If the assessor has classified a property as both homestead and nonhomestead, the greater of the value attributable to the portion of the property classified as class 1 or class 2a or the value of the first tier of net class rates provided under section 273.13, subdivision 22, or 23, paragraph (a), is entitled to assessment as a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23. The limitation in this subdivision does not apply to buildings containing fewer than four residential units or to a single rented or leased dwelling unit located within or attached to a private garage or similar structure owned by the owner of a homestead and located on the premises of that homestead.

If the assessor has classified a property as both homestead and nonhomestead, ~~the homestead credit provided in section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and~~ the reductions in tax provided under sections 273.135 and 273.1391 apply to the value of both the homestead and the nonhomestead portions of the property.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] (a) A person who meets the homestead requirements under subdivision 1 must file a homestead application with the county assessor to initially obtain homestead classification.

(b) On or before January 2, 1993, each county assessor shall mail a homestead application to the owner of each parcel of property within the county which was classified as homestead for the 1992 assessment year. The format and contents of a uniform homestead application shall be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees on the contents of the homestead application form. The application must clearly inform the taxpayer that this application must be signed by all owners who occupy the property or by the qualifying relative and returned to the county assessor in order for the property to continue receiving homestead treatment. The envelope containing the homestead application shall clearly identify its contents and alert the taxpayer of its necessary immediate response.

(c) Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor the social security number of each occupant who is listed as an owner of the property on the deed of record, the name and address of each owner who does not occupy the property, and the name and social security number of each owner's spouse who occupies the property. The application must be signed by each owner who occupies the property and by each owner's spouse who occupies the property, or, in the case of property that qualifies as a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), by the qualifying relative.

If a property owner occupies a homestead, the property owner's spouse may not claim another property as a homestead unless the property owner and the property owner's spouse file with the assessor an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor stating that the property owner's spouse does not occupy the homestead because marriage dissolution proceedings are pending, the spouses are legally separated, or the spouse's employment or self-employment location requires the spouse to have a separate homestead. The assessor may require proof of employment or self-employment and employment or self-employment location, or proof of dissolution proceedings or legal separation.

If the social security number or affidavit or other proof is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead.

The social security numbers or affidavits or other proofs of the property owners and spouses are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue, or, for purposes of proceeding under the revenue recapture act to recover personal property taxes owing, to the county treasurer.

(d) If residential real estate is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner and qualifies for a homestead under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), in order for the property to receive homestead status, a homestead application must be filed with the assessor. The social security number of each relative occupying the property and the social security number of each owner who is related to an occupant of the property shall be required on the homestead application filed under this subdivision. If a different relative of the owner subsequently occupies the property, the owner of the property must notify the assessor within 30 days of the change in occupancy. The social security number of a relative occupying the property is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

(e) The homestead application shall also notify the property owners that the application filed under this section will not be mailed annually and that if the property is granted homestead status for the 1993 assessment, or any assessment year thereafter, that same property shall remain classified as homestead until the property is sold or transferred to another person, or the owners or the relatives no longer use the property as their homestead. Upon the sale or transfer of the homestead property, a certificate of value must be timely filed with the county auditor as provided under section 272.115. Failure to notify the assessor within 30 days that the property has been sold, or transferred if no certificate of real estate value is filed under section 272.115, or that the owner or the relative is no longer occupying the property as a homestead, shall result in the penalty provided under this subdivision and the property will lose its current homestead status.

(f) If the homestead application is not returned within 30 days, the county will send a second application to the present owners of record. The notice of proposed property taxes prepared under section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall reflect the property's classification. Beginning with assessment year 1993 for all properties, if a homestead application has not been filed with the county by December 15, the assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year, provided that the owner may be entitled to receive the homestead classification by proper application under section 375.192.

(g) At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security number of each property owner and the property owner's spouse occupying the property, or relative of a property owner, applying for homestead classification under this subdivision. The commissioner shall use the information provided on the lists as appropriate under the law, including for the detection of improper claims by owners, or relatives of owners, under chapter 290A.

(h) If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the taconite homestead credit under section 273.135, and the supplemental homestead credit under section 273.1391.

The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of persons who owned the affected property at the time the application related to the improperly allowed homestead was submitted, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal serving copies of a petition for review with county officials as provided in section 278.01 and filing a proof of service as provided in section 278.01 with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county. The appeal shall be governed by the tax court procedures provided in chapter 271, for cases relating to the tax laws as defined in section 271.01, subdivision 5; disregarding sections 273.125, subdivision 5, and 278.03, but including section 278.05, subdivision 2. If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes. In the case of a manufactured home, the amount shall be certified to the current year's tax list for collection treasurer. The treasurer shall assess interest to the total of the homestead benefits and penalty according to the provisions of section 277.17, and shall have the powers enumerated in sections 277.20 and 277.21 to enforce payment of the benefits, penalty, interest, and costs as a delinquent personal property tax obligation of the owner of the affected property at the time the application related to the improperly allowed homestead was submitted.

(i) Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

(j) If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

(k) In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 274.14, is amended to read:

274.14 [LENGTH OF SESSION; RECORD.]

The county board of equalization or the special board of equalization appointed by it shall meet during ~~the last two weeks in June that contain~~ the last ten meeting days, in June. For this purpose, "meeting days" are defined as any day of the week excluding Saturday and Sunday. The board may meet on any ten consecutive meeting days in June, after the second Friday in June, if the actual meeting dates are contained on the valuation notices mailed to each property owner in the county under section 273.121. No action taken by the county board of review after June 30 is valid, except for corrections permitted in sections 273.01 and 274.01. The county auditor shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings and orders of the board. The record must be published like other proceedings of county commissioners. A copy of the published record must be sent to the commissioner of revenue, with the abstract of assessment required by section 274.16.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 275.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The taxes voted by cities, counties, school districts, and special districts shall be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before five working days after December 20 in each year. A town must certify the levy adopted by the town board to the county auditor by September 15 each year. If the town board modifies the levy at a special town meeting after September 15, the town board must recertify its levy to the county auditor on or before five working days after December 20. The taxes certified shall not be reduced by the aid received under ~~sections~~ section 273.1398, ~~subdivisions 2 and~~ subdivision 3. If a city, town, county, school district, or special district fails to certify its levy by that date, its levy shall be the amount levied by it for the preceding year.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 275.08, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. The amounts certified under section 275.07 ~~after adjustment under section 275.07, subdivision 3,~~ by an individual local government unit, except for any amounts certified under sections 124A.03, subdivision 2a, and 275.61, shall be divided by the total net tax capacity of all taxable properties within the local government unit's taxing jurisdiction. The resulting ratio, the local government's local tax rate, multiplied by each property's net tax capacity shall be each property's tax for that local government unit before reduction by any credits.

Any amount certified to the county auditor under section 124A.03, subdivision 2a, or 275.61, after the dates given in those sections, shall be divided by the total estimated market value of all taxable properties within the taxing district. The resulting ratio, the taxing district's new referendum tax rate, multiplied by each property's estimated market value shall be each property's new referendum tax before reduction by any credits.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 289A.60, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [PENALTIES RELATING TO PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS.] (a) If the commissioner determines that a property tax refund claim is or was excessive and was filed with fraudulent intent, the claim must be disallowed in full. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed may be recovered by assessment and collection.

(b) If it is determined that a property tax refund claim is excessive and was negligently prepared, ten percent of the corrected claim must be disallowed. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed must be recovered by assessment and collection.

(c) An owner ~~or managing agent~~ who knowingly without reasonable cause fails to give a certificate of rent constituting property tax to a renter, as required by section 290A.19, paragraph (a), is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each failure.

(d) If the owner or managing agent knowingly gives rent certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual rent constituting property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported. An overstatement of rent constituting property taxes is presumed to be knowingly made if it exceeds by ten percent or more the actual rent constituting property taxes.

(e) No claim is allowed if the initial claim is filed more than one year after the original due date for filing the claim.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means the dwelling occupied as the claimant's principal residence and so much of the land surrounding it, not exceeding ten acres, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home and any other property used for purposes of a homestead as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, except for agricultural land assessed as part of a homestead pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 23, "homestead" is limited to 320 acres or, where the farm homestead is rented, one acre. The homestead may be owned or rented and may be a part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and the land on which it is built. A manufactured home, as defined in section 273.125, subdivision 8, or a park trailer taxed as a manufactured home under section 168.012, subdivision 9, assessed as personal property may be a dwelling for purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.03, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made under section 273.13 but after deductions made under sections 273.135, 273.1391, 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits in any calendar year. In the case of a claimant who makes ground lease payments, "property taxes payable" includes the amount of the payments directly attributable to the property taxes assessed against the parcel on which the house is located. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes as defined in section 274.19, subdivision 8, and for homesteads which are park trailers taxed as manufactured homes under section 168.012, subdivision 9, "property taxes payable" shall also include the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable," the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, on or before December 15 of the assessment year to which the "property taxes payable" relate; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made on or before December 15 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner of revenue shall construct and make available to taxpayers a comprehensive table showing the property taxes to be paid and refund allowed at various levels of income and assessment. The table shall follow the schedule of income percentages, maximums and other provisions specified in subdivision 2, except that the commissioner may graduate the transition between income brackets. All refunds shall be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue.

The commissioner shall include on the form an appropriate space or method for the claimant to identify if the property taxes paid are for a manufactured home, as defined in section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), or a park trailer taxed as a manufactured home under section 168.012, subdivision 9.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290A.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. A claimant who is a renter or a homeowner who occupies a manufactured home, as defined in section 273.125, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), or a park trailer taxed as a manufactured home under section 168.012, subdivision 9, shall receive full payment after August 1 and before August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 477A.015, is amended to read:

477A.015 [PAYMENT DATES.]

The commissioner of revenue shall make the payments of local government aid to affected taxing authorities in two installments on July 20 and December 26 annually.

~~The commissioner may pay all or part of the payment due on December 26 at any time after August 15 upon the request of a city that requests such payment as being necessary for meeting its cash flow needs.~~

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 7 are effective for taxes payable in 1997 and thereafter. Sections 3 to 6 are effective January 1, 1996, and thereafter. Section 10 is effective for certificates of rent paid required after the date of final enactment. Sections 11 to 14 are effective for refunds based on property taxes paid in 1997 and thereafter, and for rent paid in 1996 and thereafter. Section 15 is effective July 1, 1996, and thereafter.

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are declared to be contraband:

(1) All packages which do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in sections 297.01 to 297.13, including but not limited to (i) packages with illegible stamps and packages with stamps that are not complete or whole even if the stamps are legible, and (ii) all devices for the vending of cigarettes in which such unstamped packages as defined in item (i) are found, including all contents contained within the devices.

(2) Any device for the vending of cigarettes and all packages of cigarettes contained therein, where the device does not afford at least partial visibility of contents. Where any package exposed to view does not carry the stamp required by sections 297.01 to 297.13, it shall be presumed that all packages contained in the device are unstamped and contraband.

(3) Any device for the vending of cigarettes to which the commissioner or authorized agents have been denied access for the inspection of contents. In lieu of seizure, the commissioner or an agent may seal the device to prevent its use until inspection of contents is permitted.

(4) Any device for the vending of cigarettes which does not carry the name and address of the owner, plainly marked and visible from the front of the machine.

(5) Any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner for the storage or transportation of more than 5,000 cigarettes which are contraband under this subdivision. When cigarettes are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or are in movement from either a public warehouse to a distributor upon orders from a manufacturer or distributor, or from one distributor to another, the cigarettes are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 297.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within two days after the seizure of any alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall deliver an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the seizure was made, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an ownership or security interest in the property may file with the commissioner a demand for a judicial determination of the question as to whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. The commissioner, within 30 days, shall institute an action in the district court of the county where the seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The only issue to be decided by the court is whether the alleged contraband is contraband, as defined in subdivision 1. The action shall be brought in the name of the state and shall be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and shall try and determine the issues of fact and law involved. Whenever a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the commissioner may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) deliver the forfeited property to the commissioner of human services for use by patients in state institutions; (2) cause it to be destroyed; or (3) cause it to be sold at public auction as provided by law. If a demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced as provided in this subdivision, the property shall be released by the commissioner and redelivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized shall be deemed forfeited to the state by operation of law and may be disposed of by the commissioner as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. ~~Whenever the commissioner is satisfied that any person from whom property is seized under sections 297.01 to 297.13 was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by sections 297.01 to 297.13, the commissioner shall release the property seized, without further legal proceedings.~~

DEPARTMENT COLLECTIONS AND COMPLIANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 60A.15, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [OVERPAYMENTS, CLAIMS FOR REFUND.] (1) [PROCEDURE, TIME LIMIT, APPROPRIATION.] A company who has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from whom there has been collected an amount of tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner of revenue a claim for a refund of the excess. Except as provided in subdivision 11, no claim or refund shall be allowed or made after ~~3 1/2 years from the date prescribed for filing the return (plus any extension of time granted for filing the return but only if filed within the extended time) or after two years from the date of overpayment, whichever period is longer, unless before the expiration of the period a claim is filed by the company~~ the period prescribed in section 289A.40, subdivision 1. For this purpose, a return or amended return claiming an overpayment constitutes a claim for refund.

Upon the filing of a claim, the commissioner shall examine it, shall make and file written findings denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part, and shall mail a notice thereof to the company at the address stated upon the return. If the claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall issue a certificate for the refundment of the excess paid by the company, with interest at the rate specified in section 270.76 computed from the date of the payment of the tax until the date the refund is paid or the credit is made to the company. The commissioner of finance shall pay the refund out of the proceeds of the taxes imposed by this section, as other state moneys are expended. As much of the proceeds of the taxes as necessary are appropriated for that purpose.

(2) [DENIAL OF CLAIM, COURT PROCEEDINGS.] If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the commissioner shall mail an order of denial to the company in the manner prescribed in subdivision 8. An appeal from this order may be taken to the Minnesota tax court in the manner prescribed in section 271.06, or the company may commence an action against the commissioner to recover the denied overpayment. The action may be brought in the district court of the district in the county of its principal place of business, or in the district court for Ramsey county. The action in the district court must be commenced within 18 months following the mailing of the order of denial to the company. If a claim for refund is filed by a company and no order of denial is issued within six months of the filing, the company may commence an action in the district court as in the case of a denial, but the action must be commenced within two years of the date that the claim for refund was filed.

(3) [CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME.] If the commissioner and the company have, within the periods prescribed in clause (1), consented in writing to any extension of time for the assessment of the tax, the period within which a claim for refund may be filed, or a refund may be made or allowed, if no claim is filed, shall be the period within which the commissioner and the company have consented to an extension for the assessment of the tax and six months thereafter. ~~The period within which a claim for refund may be filed shall not expire prior to two years after the tax was paid.~~

(4) [OVERPAYMENTS; REFUNDS.] If the amount determined to be an overpayment exceeds the taxes imposed by this section, the amount of excess shall be considered an overpayment. An amount paid as tax constitutes an overpayment even if in fact there was no tax liability with respect to which the amount was paid.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in the case of any overpayment, the commissioner, within the applicable period of limitations, shall refund any balance of more than one dollar to the company if the company requests the refund.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 60A.199, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [REFUND PROCEDURE; TIME LIMIT; APPROPRIATION.] A licensee which has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from which there was collected an amount of tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner of revenue a claim for a refund of the excess. Except as provided in subdivision 3, no claim or refund shall be allowed or made ~~after 3 1/2 years from the date prescribed for filing the return (plus any extension of time granted for filing the return but only if filed within the extended time) or after two years from the date of overpayment, whichever period is longer, unless before the expiration of the period a claim is filed by the licensee~~ the period prescribed in section 289A.40, subdivision 1. For this purpose, a return or amended return claiming an overpayment constitutes a claim for refund.

Upon the filing of a claim the commissioner shall examine it, shall make written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part, and shall mail a notice thereof to the licensee at the address stated upon the return. If the claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall issue a certificate for a refund of the excess paid by the licensee, with interest at the rate specified in section 270.76 computed from the date of the payment of the tax until the date the refund is paid or credit is made to the licensee. The commissioner of finance shall cause the refund to be paid as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds of the taxes as is necessary are appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 60A.199, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME.] If the commissioner and the licensee have, within the periods prescribed by this section, consented in writing to any extension of time for the assessment of the tax, the period within which a claim for refund may be filed, or a refund may be made or allowed, if no claim is filed, is the period within which the commissioner and the licensee have consented to an extension for the assessment of the tax and six months thereafter, ~~the period within which a claim for refund may be filed shall not expire prior to two years after the tax was paid.~~

Sec. 4. [270.7002] [PERSONAL LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO HONOR A LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [SURRENDER OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO LEVY.] A person who fails or refuses to surrender property or rights to property subject to a levy served on the person under section 270.70, 270.7001, or 290.92, subdivision 23, is liable in an amount equal to the value of the property or rights not surrendered, or the amount of taxes, penalties, and interest for the collection of which the levy was made, whichever is less. A financial institution need not surrender funds on deposit until ten days after service of the levy.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] In addition to the personal liability imposed by subdivision 1, if a person required to surrender property or rights to property fails to do so without reasonable cause, the person is liable for a penalty equal to 25 percent of the amount under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [PERSON DEFINED.] The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to surrender the property or rights to property or to respond to the levy.

Subd. 4. [ORDER ASSESSING LIABILITY.] The liability imposed by this section may, after demand to honor a levy has been made, be assessed by the commissioner within 60 days after service of the demand. The assessment may be based on information available to the commissioner. The assessment is presumed to be valid, and the burden is on the person assessed to show it is incorrect or invalid. An order assessing liability for failure to honor a levy is reviewable administratively under section 289A.65, and is appealable to tax court under chapter 271. The amount assessed, plus interest at the rate specified in section 270.75, may be collected by any remedy available to the commissioner for the collection of taxes. The proceeds collected are applied first to the liability of the original taxpayer to the extent of the liability under subdivision 1 plus interest, and then to the penalty under subdivision 2.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 270.72, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner may not notify the licensing authority unless the applicant taxpayer owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes or has not filed returns. If the applicant taxpayer does not owe delinquent taxes but has not filed returns, the commissioner may not notify the licensing authority unless the taxpayer has been given 90 days' written notice to file the returns or show that the returns are not required to be filed. A licensing authority that has received a notice from the commissioner may issue, transfer, or renew, or not revoke the applicant's license only if (a) the commissioner issues a tax clearance certificate and (b) the commissioner or the applicant forwards a copy of the clearance to the authority. The commissioner may issue a clearance certificate only if the applicant does not owe the state any uncontested delinquent taxes, penalties, or interest and has filed all required returns.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 270.72, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE AND HEARING.] (a) The commissioner, on notifying a licensing authority pursuant to subdivision 1 not to issue, transfer, or renew a license, must send a copy of the notice to the applicant. If the applicant requests, in writing, within 30 days of the date of the notice a hearing, a contested case hearing must be held. The hearing must be held within 45 days of the date the commissioner refers the case to the office of administrative hearings. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the applicant must be served with 20 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of the hearing and the allegations against the applicant. (b) Prior to notifying a licensing authority pursuant to subdivision 1 to revoke a license, the commissioner must send a notice to the applicant of the commissioner's intent to require revocation of the license and of the applicant's right to a hearing under paragraph (a). A license is subject to revocation when 30 days have passed following the date of the notice in this paragraph without the applicant requesting a hearing, or, if a hearing is timely requested, upon final determination of the hearing under section 14.62, subdivision 1. A license shall be revoked by the licensing authority within 30 days after receiving notice from the commissioner to revoke.

The secretary of state, upon receipt of the order, shall revoke the certificate of authority of the corporation to do business in this state, and shall reinstate the certificate under section 303.19 only when the corporation has obtained from the commissioner an order finding that the corporation is in compliance with state tax law. When returns are filed on other than an annual basis, the allowable credit must be claimed on the first return due after July 1 of a calendar year. The commissioner shall compute the annual refund installment due under this subdivision, and notify the taxpayer of the total amount of the claim for refund which has been allowed.

~~(e)~~ (d) The ~~credit allowed for~~ installment paid each year equals 20 percent of the ~~claimed~~ refund ~~allowed~~ unless the commissioner determines that the cumulative refunds due for a particular year under this section will exceed $150,000,000. ~~(g)~~ (f) The commissioner may establish a de minimis individual refund amount below which the installment provisions do not apply. The amount established under this paragraph is not subject to the provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 289A.60, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE AND FILE RETURN.] If a taxpayer fails to make and file a return other than an income tax return of an individual, a withholding return, or sales or use tax return, within the time prescribed or an extension, a penalty is added to the tax. The penalty is three percent of the amount of tax not paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax including any extensions if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional five percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days, during which the failure continues, not exceeding 23 percent in the aggregate.

~~If a taxpayer fails to file a return, other than an income tax return of an individual, within 60 days of the date prescribed for filing of the return (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), the addition to tax under this subdivision must not be less than the lesser of: (1) $200; or (2) the greater of (a) 25 percent of the amount required to be shown as tax on the return without reduction for any payments made or refundable credits allowable against the tax, or (b) $50.~~

If a taxpayer fails to file a withholding or sales or use tax return within the time prescribed, including an extension, a penalty of five percent of the amount of tax not timely paid is added to the tax.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290.92, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [WITHHOLDING BY EMPLOYER OF DELINQUENT TAXES.] (1) The commissioner may, within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or if a lien has been filed under section 270.69, within the statutory period for enforcement of the lien, give notice to any employer deriving income which has a taxable situs in this state regardless of whether the income is exempt from taxation, that an employee of that employer is delinquent in a certain amount with respect to any state taxes, including penalties, interest, and costs. The commissioner can proceed under this subdivision only if the tax is uncontested or if the time for appeal of the tax has expired. The commissioner shall not proceed under this subdivision until the expiration of 30 days after mailing to the taxpayer, at the taxpayer's last known address, a written notice of (a) the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due from the taxpayer and demand for their payment, and (b) the commissioner's intention to require additional withholding by the taxpayer's employer pursuant to this subdivision. The effect of the notice shall expire 180 days after it has been mailed to the taxpayer provided that the notice may be renewed by mailing a new notice which is in accordance with this subdivision. The renewed notice shall have the effect of reinstating the priority of the original claim. The notice to the taxpayer shall be in substantially the same form as that provided in section 571.72. The notice shall further inform the taxpayer of the wage exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14. If no statement of exemption is received by the commissioner within 30 days from the mailing of the notice, the commissioner may proceed under this subdivision. The notice to the taxpayer's employer may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee of the department of revenue and shall be in substantially the same form as provided in section 571.75. Upon receipt of notice, the employer shall withhold from compensation due or to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice, subject to the provisions of section 571.922. The employer shall continue to withhold each pay period until the notice is released by the commissioner under section 270.709. Upon receipt of notice by the employer, the claim of the state of Minnesota shall have priority over any subsequent garnishments or wage assignments. The commissioner may arrange between the employer and the employee for withholding a portion of the total amount due the employee each pay period, until the total amount shown by the notice plus accrued interest has been withheld.

The "compensation due" any employee is defined in accordance with the provisions of section 571.921. The maximum withholding allowed under this subdivision for any one pay period shall be decreased by any amounts payable pursuant to a garnishment action with respect to which the employer was served prior to being served with the notice of delinquency and any amounts covered by any irrevocable and previously effective assignment of wages; the employer shall give notice to the department of the amounts and the facts relating to such assignments within ten days after the service of the notice of delinquency on the form provided by the department of revenue as noted in this subdivision.

(2) If the employee ceases to be employed by the employer before the full amount set forth in a notice of delinquency plus accrued interest has been withheld, the employer shall immediately notify the commissioner in writing of the termination date of the employee and the total amount withheld. No employer may discharge any employee by reason of the fact that the commissioner has proceeded under this subdivision. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of this provision, the employee shall have the same remedy as provided in section 571.927, subdivision 2.

(3) Within ten days after the expiration of such pay period, the employer shall remit to the commissioner, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner, the amount withheld during each pay period under this subdivision. ~~Should any employer, after notice, willfully fail to withhold in accordance with the notice and this subdivision, or willfully fail to remit any amount withheld as required by this subdivision, the employer shall be liable for the total amount set forth in the notice together with accrued interest which may be collected by any means provided by law relating to taxation. Any amount collected from the employer for failure to withhold or for failure to remit under this subdivision shall be credited to the employee's account in the following manner: penalties, interest, tax, and costs.~~

(4) Clauses (1), (2), and (3), except provisions imposing a liability on the employer for failure to withhold or remit, shall apply to cases in which the employer is the United States or any instrumentality thereof or this state or any municipality or other subordinate unit thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall refund to the employee excess amounts withheld from the employee under this subdivision. If any excess results from payments by the employer because of willful failure to withhold or remit as prescribed in clause (3), the excess attributable to the employer's payment shall be refunded to the employer.

(6) Employers required to withhold delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs under this subdivision shall not be required to compute any additional interest, costs or other charges to be withheld.

(7) The collection remedy provided to the commissioner by this subdivision shall have the same legal effect as if it were a levy made pursuant to section 270.70.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 294.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES; TIME LIMIT.] A company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual who has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from whom there has been collected (other than by proceedings instituted by the attorney general under sections 294.06 and 294.08, subdivision 3) an amount of gross earnings tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner of revenue a claim for a refund of such excess. Except as provided in subdivision 4, no such claim shall be entertained unless filed within ~~two years after such tax was paid or collected, or within 3 1/2 years from the filing of the return, whichever period is the longer~~ the period prescribed in section 289A.40, subdivision 1. Upon the filing of a claim the commissioner shall examine the same and shall make and file written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice thereof to such company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual at the address stated upon the return. If such claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall credit the amount of the allowance against any tax due the state from the claimant and for the balance of said allowance, if any, the commissioner shall issue a certificate for the refundment of the excess paid. The commissioner of finance shall cause such refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the gross earnings taxes imposed by Minnesota Statutes 1967, chapters 294 and 295 as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose. Any allowance so made by the commissioner shall include interest at the rate specified in section 270.76 computed from the date of payment or collection of the tax until the date the refund is paid to the claimant.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 294.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME.] If the commissioner and the taxpayer have within the periods prescribed in subdivision 1 consented in writing to any extension of time for the assessment of the tax under the provisions of section 294.08, subdivision 4, the period within which a claim for refund may be filed, or a refund may be made or allowed, if no claim is filed, shall be the period within which the commissioner and the taxpayer have consented to an extension for the assessment of the tax and six months thereafter, ~~provided, however, that the period within which a claim for refund may be filed shall not expire prior to two years after the tax was paid.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 297.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Every licensed distributor outside this state shall in like manner file a return showing the quantity and wholesale sales price of each tobacco product shipped or transported to retailers in this state to be sold by those retailers, during the preceding calendar month. Returns shall be made upon forms furnished and prescribed by the commissioner and shall contain such other information as the commissioner may require. Each return shall be accompanied by a remittance for the full tax liability shown therein, less 1.5 percent of such liability as compensation to reimburse the distributor for expenses incurred in the administration of sections 297.31 to 297.39. The return for the May liability and 75 percent of the estimated June liability is due on the date payment of the tax is due.

A distributor having a liability of $120,000 or more during a calendar fiscal year ending June 30 must remit all liabilities in the subsequent fiscal calendar year ending June 30 by means of a funds transfer as defined in section 336.4A-104, paragraph (a). The funds transfer payment date, as defined in section 336.4A-401, must be on or before the date the tax is due. If the date the tax is due is not a funds transfer business day, as defined in section 336.4A-105, paragraph (a), clause (4), the payment date must be on or before the funds transfer business day next following the date the tax is due.

The amount so added to any tax under this subdivision and subdivision 1 shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax and shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid, unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

~~In the case of a failure to file a return within 60 days of the date prescribed for filing of the return (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), the addition to tax under this subdivision shall not be less than the lesser of (i) $200; or (ii) the greater of (a) 25 percent of the amount required to be shown as tax on the return without reduction for any payments made or refundable credits allowable against the tax; or (b) $50.~~

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 297C.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

[PROCEDURE, TIME LIMIT, APPROPRIATION.] A company which has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from which there was collected an amount of tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner of revenue a claim for a refund of the excess. Except as provided in subdivision 4, no claim or refund shall be allowed or made after ~~3 1/2 years from the date prescribed for filing the return (plus any extension of time granted for filing the return but only if filed within the extended time) or after two years from the date of overpayment, whichever period is longer, unless before the expiration of the period a claim is filed by the company~~ the period prescribed in section 289A.40, subdivision 1. If the resulting levy adjustments reduce the district's revenues below that which the district would have otherwise received in the absence of this section, the district will receive additional aid equal to the difference.

Sec. 71. [OTHER LEVY AUTHORITY.]

A school district's levy under any special law or any authority other than that contained in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 124, 124A, and 136C, shall not be greater for taxes payable in 1996 than it was for taxes payable in 1995 except for any debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments issued prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995.

Sec. 72. [BENEFIT RATIO FOR RURAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 272.67, subdivision 6, the benefit ratio used for apportioning levies to a rural service district for taxes payable in 1996 shall not be greater than that in effect for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 73. [PROHIBITION AGAINST INCURRING NEW DEBT.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) After March 30, 1995, no municipality as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 475.51, or any special taxing district as defined under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.066, may sell obligations, certificates of indebtedness, or capital notes under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, section 412.301, or any other law authorizing obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments or enter into installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements under Minnesota Statutes, section 465.71, or any other law authorizing installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements if issuing those debt instruments or entering into those contracts would require a levy first becoming due in 1996. This restriction does not apply to (1) refunding bonds sold to refund bonds originally sold before March 30, 1995, or (2) obligations for which the amount of the levy first becoming due in 1996 would not exceed the amount by which the municipality's total debt service levy for taxes payable in 1996 prior to issuance of those obligations is less than the municipality's total debt service levy for taxes payable in 1995. As used in clause (2), "obligations" includes certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments or installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements.

(b) For purposes of this section, bonds will be deemed to have been sold before March 30, 1995, if:

(1) an agreement has been entered into between the municipality and a purchaser or underwriter for the sale of the bonds by that date;

(2) the issuing municipality is a party to contract or letter of understanding entered into before March 30, 1995, with the federal government or the state government that requires the municipality to pay for a project, and the project will be funded with the proceeds of the bonds; or

(3) the proceeds of the bonds will be used to fund a project or acquisition with respect to which the municipality has entered into a contract with a builder or supplier before March 30. Debt service payments due on bonds described in this paragraph during calendar year 1996 will be paid by the state. The amount of those payments must be repaid by the municipality to the state in three equal annual installments beginning in 1997. No interest will be due on those payments if timely paid by June 15 of the year due.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, installment purchase contracts, lease purchase agreements or any other debt instruments, and the debt service levies for the obligations shall, for purposes of this act, be treated as if sold prior to March 30, 1995, if:

(a) The municipality or other governmental authority has satisfied any one of the following conditions prior to March 30, 1995:

(1) it has adopted a resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the obligations;

(2) it has declared official intent to issue the obligations under federal tax laws and regulations;

or

(b) The municipality makes a finding at the time of the sale of the bonds that no levy will be required for taxes payable in 1996 to pay the debt service on the obligations because sufficient funds are available from nonproperty tax sources to pay the debt service.

Sec. 74. [ASSESSMENT LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [1995 ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, or any other law to the contrary, the value of property for the 1995 assessment shall not exceed the lesser of its limited market value determined for the 1994 assessment pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 1a, or its market value as otherwise determined for the 1994 assessment provided that any value attributable to new construction or improvements to the extent it does not qualify for deferral under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 16, shall be added to the prior year's value used to determine its tax capacity. It is further provided that previously tax exempt property that loses its tax exempt status pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 4, shall not have its assessment limited in any way under this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [1996 ASSESSMENT.] The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, subdivision 1a, shall govern in determining the value of property classified as agricultural homestead or nonhomestead, residential homestead or nonhomestead, or noncommercial seasonal residential for the 1996 assessment provided that "five percent" shall be substituted for "ten percent" in that section.

Sec. 75. [LEVY LIMITATION TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996 PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 1, in 1995, no taxing authority other than a school district shall certify to the county auditor a proposed property tax levy or in the case of a township, a final property tax levy, greater than the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year except as provided in subdivisions 3, 4, and 5.

Subd. 2. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1996 FINAL LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in 1995, no taxing authority other than a school district shall certify to the county auditor a property tax levy greater than the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year except as provided in subdivisions 4 to 6.

Subd. 3. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] School district levies shall be governed by sections 10 to 71.

Subd. 4. [DEBT SERVICE EXCEPTION.] If a payable 1996 levy for debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments sold prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995, exceeds the levy a taxing authority certified pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, for taxes payable in 1995 for the same purpose, the excess may be levied notwithstanding the limitations of subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 5. [ANNEXATION EXCEPTION.] The city tax rate for taxes payable in 1996 on any property annexed under chapter 414 may not be increased over the city or township tax rate in effect on the property in 1995, notwithstanding any law, municipal board order, or ordinance to the contrary. The limit on the annexing city's levy under subdivisions 1 and 2 may be increased in excess of that limit by an amount equal to the net tax capacity of the property annexed times the city or township tax rate in effect on that property for taxes payable in 1995. The levy limit of the city or township from which the property was annexed shall be reduced by the same amount.

Subd. 6. [INCREASE AUTHORIZED.] Notwithstanding the limitation of subdivision 1, a taxing authority other than a school district may increase its levy for taxes payable in 1996 over that certified to the county pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year by an amount equal to the taxing authority's net tax capacity pursuant to section 74, subdivision 1, times its tax rate for taxes payable in 1995 less the taxing authority's levy under subdivision 1.

Sec. 76. [FREEZE ON LOCAL MATCH REQUIREMENTS.]

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the local funding or local match required from any city, town, or county for any state grant or program shall not be increased for calendar year 1996 above the dollar amount of the local funding or local match required for the same grant or program in 1995, regardless of the level of state funding provided; and any new local match or local funding requirements for new or amended state grants or programs shall not be effective until calendar year 1997. Nothing in this section shall affect the eligibility of a city, town, or county, for the receipt of state grants or program funds in 1996 or reduce the amount of state funding a city, town, or county would otherwise receive in 1996 if the local match requirements of the state grant or program were met in 1996.

Sec. 77. [SUSPENSION OF SALARY AND BUDGET APPEAL AUTHORIZATION.]

After April 11, 1995, no county sheriff may exercise the authority granted under Minnesota Statutes, section 387.20, subdivision 7, and no county attorney may exercise the authority granted under Minnesota Statutes, section 388.18, subdivision 6, to the extent that the salary or budget increase sought in the appeal would result in an increase in county expenditures in calendar year 1996.

Sec. 78. [SUSPENSION OF PUBLICATION AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

A local taxing authority is not required to comply with the public advertisement notice of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 5a, or the public hearing requirement of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 6, with respect to taxes levied in 1995, payable in 1996, only.

Sec. 79. [LEVY LIMITATION TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] The "percentage increase in the implicit price deflator" means the percentage change in the implicit price deflator for state and local governments purchases of goods and services as calculated in Minnesota Statutes, section 477A.03, subdivision 3, provided that the 2.5 percent and five percent limits do not apply and that the increase can not be less than zero percent.

Subd. 2. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997 PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 1, in 1996, no taxing authority other than a school district or a joint vocational technical district shall certify to the county auditor a proposed property tax levy or in the case of a township, a final property tax levy, that is greater than the product of:

(1) the sum of one plus the lesser of (i) three percent, or (ii) the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator; and

(2) the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year, except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5.

Subd. 3. [TAXES PAYABLE IN 1997 FINAL LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, for purposes of the certification required by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in 1996, no taxing authority other than a school district or a joint vocational technical district shall certify to the county auditor a property tax levy that is greater than the product of:

(1) the sum of one plus the lesser of (i) three percent, or (ii) the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator; and

(2) the amount certified to the county auditor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, in the prior year, except as provided in subdivisions 4, 5, and 6.

Subd. 4. [REFERENDA.] (a) A taxing authority other than a school district or an education district may increase its levy above the limits provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, by the amount approved by the voters residing in the jurisdiction of the authority at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the governing body or shall be called by the governing body upon written petition of qualified voters of the jurisdiction. The referendum shall be conducted during the calendar year before the increased levy authority, if approved, first becomes payable. Only one election to approve an increase may be held in a calendar year. The referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy and the estimated referendum tax rate as a percentage of taxable net tax capacity in the year it is to be levied. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the governing body of, be approved?"

(b) The governing body shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the referendum to each taxpayer a notice of the referendum and the proposed levy increase. The governing body need not mail more than once notice to any taxpayer. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of tax increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the jurisdiction of the taxing authority.

The notice must include the following statement: "Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(c) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the registered voters of the jurisdiction of the taxing authority on the day the petition is filed with the governing body. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held on the date specified in paragraph (a).

(d) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

(e) A bond authorization under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.59, shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this subdivision provided the ballot includes the information required in paragraph (a) and the notice required in paragraph (b) is distributed.

Subd. 5. [DEBT SERVICE EXCEPTION.] If a payable 1997 levy for debt service on obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments sold prior to March 30, 1995, or to make payments on installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements entered into prior to March 30, 1995, exceeds the levy a taxing authority certified pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.07, subdivision 1, for taxes payable in 1996 for the same purpose, or a payable 1997 levy for general obligations exceeds any payable 1997 levy required as a condition for the issuance of such general obligations, the excess may be levied notwithstanding the limitations of subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 6. [LEVY OF TOWN BEING MERGED INTO CITY.] If a town has entered into an agreement to merge with a home rule charter or statutory city, and the merger has been approved by a referendum, the town's levy for taxes payable in 1997 shall not exceed the greater of (1) the amount determined under subdivisions 1 to 5, or (2) the amount established as a term of the merger agreement with the city.

Sec. 80. [FISCAL DISPARITIES FREEZE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 2, clause (a), the amount to be deducted from a governmental unit's net tax capacity for taxes payable in 1996 under that clause shall equal the amount deducted for taxes payable in 1995. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 2, clause (b), the amount to be added to a governmental unit's net tax capacity for taxes payable in 1996 under that clause shall equal the same amount added for taxes payable in 1995. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 3, the areawide portion of the levy for each governmental unit shall be determined using the local tax rate for the 1993 levy year. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08, subdivision 6, the portion of commercial-industrial property within a municipality subject to the areawide tax rate shall be computed using the amount determined under Minnesota Statutes, sections 473F.06 and 473F.07, for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 81. [TAX RATE FREEZE.]

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION OF LEVY; PAYMENT.] If in the course of determining local tax rates for taxes payable in 1996 after reductions for disparity reduction aid under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.08, subdivisions 1c and 1d, the county auditor finds the local tax rate exceeds that in effect for taxes payable in 1995, the county auditor shall reduce the local government's levy so the local tax rate does not exceed that in effect for taxes payable in 1995. The difference between the levy as originally certified by the local government and the reduced levy shall be certified to the commissioner of revenue at the time the abstracts are submitted under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.29. That amount shall be paid to the local government on or before August 31.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION.] An amount sufficient to pay the aid provided for under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for payment to counties, cities, townships, and special taxing districts. An amount sufficient to pay the aid provided for under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of education for payment to school districts.

Sec. 82. [PENSION LIABILITIES.]

Notwithstanding any other law or charter provision to the contrary, no levy for taxes payable in 1996 for a local police and fire relief association for the purpose of amortizing an unfunded pension liability may exceed the levy for that purpose for taxes payable in 1995.

Sec. 83. [DUTIES OF TOWNSHIP BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 365.10, in 1995 the township board of supervisors shall adjust the levy and in 1996 the township board of supervisors may adjust the expenditures of a township below the level authorized by the electors to adjust for any reduction in the previously authorized levy of the township pursuant to section 75.

Sec. 84. [PROPERTY TAX AND EDUCATION AIDS REFORM.]

Subdivision 1. [RECOMMENDED PROGRAM.] The legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy shall prepare and recommend to the legislature a property tax reform and education aids reform program that includes:

- (1) a property tax classification and class rate system;
- (2) elementary and secondary education aids and levies; and
- (3) aids to local government.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS.] (a) The recommended program must provide for accountability, equity, revenue adequacy, and efficiency as provided in paragraphs (b) to (e).

(b) The recommended program must provide accountability by being understandable to the taxpayer, by linking the costs of services to the taxes paid for those services, and by correlating the responsibility for raising revenues with the ability to make spending decisions.

(c) The recommended program must provide equity by minimizing large, short-term shifts in tax burdens, and by ensuring that tax burdens and aids are progressive and related to the ability to pay or raise revenue.

(d) The recommended program must provide for adequate revenue by controlling costs and the need for increased revenue, minimizing reductions or shifts in revenues available to local governments to provide needed services, and directing aids to meet needs and fund services based on established funding priorities.

(e) The program must promote efficiency by providing stable predictable property taxes and local government revenues that are competitive with those of other states and areas so that property taxes and aids have minimal impact on the economic decisions of taxpayers.

Subd. 3. [TASK FORCE.] The commission may designate a task force to advise the commission in carrying out its duties under this section. The task force may include legislators, agency and legislative staff, state and local governmental officials, educators, and taxpayers and members of the public. The task force expires on January 1, 1997.

Subd. 4. [SERVICES.] The commission may enter into contracts for the professional and other services necessary to carry out its duties under this section.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] The commission shall report its recommendations to the legislature on or before January 1, 1997. The report shall include proposed legislation to implement the recommendations of the commission.

Sec. 85. [UNFUNDED MANDATE PROHIBITION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "state mandates" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 3.881.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING OF THE COST OF MANDATES.] If the fiscal note prepared by the commissioner of finance under Minnesota Statutes, section 3.982, indicates that a new or expanded mandate on a political subdivision in a bill introduced in the legislature will impose a statewide cost on counties in excess of $500,000 or a statewide cost on cities or townships in excess of $250,000, the political subdivisions are not required to implement the mandate unless the legislature, by appropriation enacted before the mandate is required to be implemented, provides reimbursement to the political subdivisions for the costs incurred.

Sec. 86. [SAVINGS CLAUSE.]

Notwithstanding the repealers in section 88 or any other provision in this act to the contrary, nothing in this act constitutes an impairment of any obligations, certificates of indebtedness, capital notes, or other debt instruments, including installment purchase contracts or lease purchase agreements, issued before the date of final enactment of this act, by a municipality as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.174, subdivision 6, or a special taxing district as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.066.

Sec. 87. [PIPESTONE COUNTY.]

Subdivision 1. [BOND AUTHORIZATION.] The county of Pipestone may issue its general obligation bonds in a principal amount of not to exceed $598,000 to defray the expense of repair and renovation of the county courthouse and courthouse annex. The bonds shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. No further election proceedings are required and Minnesota Statutes, section 275.61, shall not apply.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section takes effect the day after the county board of Pipestone county complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

(2) upon final full payment, the range operator and landowners shall relinquish their interest in the property to the agency or unit of government obtaining the closure.

"Sec. 6. [60A.235] [STANDARDS FOR DETERMINING WHETHER CONTRACTS ARE HEALTH PLAN CONTRACTS OR STOP LOSS CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.] The purpose of this section is to establish a standard for the determination of whether an insurance policy or other evidence or coverage should be treated as a policy of accident and sickness insurance or a stop loss policy for the purpose of the regulation of the business of insurance. The laws regulating the business of insurance in Minnesota impose distinctly different requirements upon accident and sickness insurance policies and stop loss policies. In particular, the regulation of accident and sickness insurance in Minnesota includes measures designed to reform the health insurance market, to minimize or prohibit selective rating or rejection of employee groups or individual group members based upon health conditions, and to provide access to affordable health insurance coverage regardless of preexisting health conditions. The health care reform provisions enacted in Minnesota will only be effective if they are applied to all insurers and health carriers who in substance, regardless of purported form, engage in the business of issuing health insurance coverage to employees of an employee group. This section applies to insurance companies and health carriers and the policies or other evidence of coverage that they issue. This section does not apply to employers or the benefit plans they establish for their employees.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given.

(a) "Attachment point" means the claims amount beyond which the insurance company or health carrier incurs a liability for payment.

(b) "Direct coverage" means coverage under which an insurance company or health carrier assumes a direct obligation to an individual, under the policy or evidence of coverage, with respect to health care expenses incurred by the individual or a member of the individual's family.

(c) "Expected claims" means the amount of claims that, in the absence of a stop loss policy or other insurance or evidence of coverage, are projected to be incurred under an employer-sponsored plan covering health care expenses.

(d) "Expected plan claims" means the expected claims less the projected claims in excess of the specific attachment point, adjusted to be consistent with the employer's aggregate contract period.

(e) "Health plan" means a health plan as defined in section 62A.011 and includes group coverage regardless of the size of the group.

Subd. 3. [HEALTH PLAN POLICIES ISSUED AS STOP LOSS COVERAGE.] (a) An insurance company or health carrier issuing or renewing an insurance policy or other evidence of coverage, that provides coverage to an employer for health care expenses incurred under an employer-sponsored plan provided to the employer's employees, retired employees, or their dependents, shall issue the policy or evidence of coverage as a health plan if the policy or evidence of coverage:

(1) has a specific attachment point for claims incurred per individual that is lower than $10,000;
or

(2) has an aggregate attachment point that is lower than the sum of:

(i) 150 percent of the first $50,000 of expected plan claims;

(ii) 120 percent of the next $450,000 of expected plan claims; and

(iii) 110 percent of the remaining expected plan claims.

(b) Where the insurance policy or evidence of coverage applies to a contract period of more than one year, the dollar amounts set forth in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2), must be multiplied by the length of the contract period expressed in years.

(c) The commissioner may adjust the constant dollar amounts provided in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2), on January 1 of any year, based upon changes in the medical component of the Consumer Price Index (CPI). Adjustments must be in increments of $100 and must not be made unless at least that amount of adjustment is required. The commissioner shall publish any change in these dollar amounts at least three months before their effective date.

Subd. 13. [REFUSAL TO RENEW.] Refusing to renew, declining to offer or write, or charging differential rates for an equivalent amount of homeowner's insurance coverage, as defined by section 65A.27, for property located in a town or statutory or home rule charter city, in which the insurer offers to sell or writes homeowner's insurance, solely because:

(a) of the geographic area in which the property is located;

(b) of the age of the primary structure sought to be insured;

(c) the insured or prospective insured was denied coverage of the property by another insurer, whether by cancellation, nonrenewal or declination to offer coverage, for a reason other than those specified in section 65A.01, subdivision 3a, clauses (a) to (e); or

(d) the property of the insured or prospective insured has been insured under the Minnesota FAIR plan act, shall constitute an unfair method of competition and an unfair and deceptive act or practice.

This subdivision prohibits an insurer from filing or charging different rates for different zip code areas within the same town or statutory or home rule charter city.

This subdivision shall not prohibit the insurer from applying underwriting or rating standards which the insurer applies generally in all other locations in the state and which are not specifically prohibited by clauses (a) to (d). Such underwriting or rating standards shall specifically include but not be limited to standards based upon the proximity of the insured property to an extraordinary hazard or based upon the quality or availability of fire protection services or based upon the density or concentration of the insurer's risks. Clause (b) shall not prohibit the use of rating standards based upon the age of the insured structure's plumbing, electrical, heating or cooling system or other part of the structure, the age of which affects the risk of loss. Any insurer's failure to comply with section 65A.29, subdivisions 2 to 4, either (1) by failing to give an insured or applicant the required notice or statement or (2) by failing to state specifically a bona fide underwriting or other reason for the refusal to write shall create a presumption that the insurer has violated this subdivision.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 72A.20, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [DISCRIMINATION IN AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE POLICIES.] (a) No insurer that offers an automobile insurance policy in this state shall:

- (1) use the employment status of the applicant as an underwriting standard or guideline; or
- (2) deny coverage to a policyholder for the same reason.

(b) No insurer that offers an automobile insurance policy in this state shall:

(1) use the applicant's status as a tenant, as the term is defined in section 566.18, subdivision 2, as an underwriting standard or guideline; or

(2) deny coverage to a policyholder for the same reason; or

(3) make any discrimination in offering or establishing rates, premiums, dividends, or benefits of any kind, or by way of rebate, for the same reason.

(c) No insurer that offers an automobile insurance policy in this state shall:

(1) use the failure of the applicant to have an automobile policy in force during any period of time before the application is made as an underwriting standard or guideline; or

This provision does not apply if the applicant was required by law to maintain automobile insurance coverage and failed to do so.

An insurer may require reasonable proof that the applicant did not fail to maintain this coverage. The insurer is not required to accept the mere lack of a conviction or citation for failure to maintain this coverage as proof of failure to maintain coverage.

(d) No insurer that offers an automobile insurance policy in this state shall use an applicant's prior claims for benefits paid under section 65B.44 as an underwriting standard or guideline if the applicant was 50 percent or less negligent in the accident or accidents causing the claims.

(e) No insurer that offers an automobile insurance policy in this state shall file or charge different rates for different zip code areas within the same town or statutory or home rule charter city."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

103G.222 [REPLACEMENT OF WETLANDS.]

(a) After the effective date of the rules adopted under section 103B.3355 or 103G.2242, whichever is later, wetlands must not be drained or filled, wholly or partially, unless replaced by restoring or creating wetland areas of at least equal public value under a replacement plan approved as provided in section 103G.2242, a replacement plan under a local governmental unit's comprehensive wetland protection and management plan approved by the board adopted under section 103G.2242, subdivision 1, paragraph (e) 1a, or, if a permit to mine is required under section 93.481, under a mining reclamation plan approved by the commissioner under the permit to mine. Mining reclamation plans shall apply the same principles and standards for replacing wetlands by restoration or creation of wetland areas that are applicable to mitigation plans approved as provided in section 103G.2242.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (l), replacement must be guided by the following principles in descending order of priority:

(1) avoiding the direct or indirect impact of the activity that may destroy or diminish the wetland;

(2) minimizing the impact by limiting the degree or magnitude of the wetland activity and its implementation;

(3) rectifying the impact by repairing, rehabilitating, or restoring the affected wetland environment;

(4) reducing or eliminating the impact over time by preservation and maintenance operations during the life of the activity; and

(5) compensating for the impact by replacing or providing substitute wetland resources or environments.

(c) If a wetland is located in a cultivated field, then replacement must be accomplished through restoration only without regard to the priority order in paragraph (b), provided that a deed restriction is placed on the altered wetland prohibiting nonagricultural use for at least ten years.

(d) Restoration and replacement of wetlands must be accomplished in accordance with the ecology of the landscape area affected.

(e) Replacement shall be within the same watershed or county as the impacted wetlands, as based on the wetland evaluation in section 103G.2242, subdivision 2, except that counties or watersheds in which 80 percent or more of the presettlement wetland acreage is intact may accomplish replacement in counties or watersheds in which 50 percent or more of the presettlement wetland acreage has been filled, drained, or otherwise degraded. Wetlands impacted by public transportation projects may be replaced statewide, provided they are approved by the commissioner under an established wetland banking system, or under the rules for wetland banking as provided for under section 103G.2242.

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (g), for a wetland located on nonagricultural land, replacement must be in the ratio of two acres of replaced wetland for each acre of drained or filled wetland.

(g) For a wetland located on agricultural land or in counties or watersheds in which 80 percent or more of the presettlement wetland acreage exists, replacement must be in the ratio of one acre of replaced wetland for each acre of drained or filled wetland.

(h) Wetlands that are restored or created as a result of an approved replacement plan are subject to the provisions of this section for any subsequent drainage or filling.

(i) Except in counties or watersheds where 80 percent or more of the presettlement wetlands are intact, only wetlands that have been restored from previously drained or filled wetlands, wetlands created by excavation in nonwetlands, wetlands created by dikes or dams along public or private drainage ditches, or wetlands created by dikes or dams associated with the restoration of previously drained or filled wetlands may be used in a statewide banking program established in rules adopted under section 103G.2242, subdivision 1. Modification or conversion of nondegraded naturally occurring wetlands from one type to another are not eligible for enrollment in a statewide wetlands bank.

(j) The technical evaluation panel established under section 103G.2242, subdivision 2, shall ensure that sufficient time has occurred for the wetland to develop wetland characteristics of soils, vegetation, and hydrology before recommending that the wetland be deposited in the statewide wetland bank. If the technical evaluation panel has reason to believe that the wetland characteristics may change substantially, the panel shall postpone its recommendation until the wetland has stabilized.

(k) This section and sections 103G.223 to 103G.2242, 103G.2364, and 103G.2365 apply to the state and its departments and agencies.

(l) A local government unit may make a sequencing determination and, after consideration, deviate from the provisions of paragraph (b), without a written alternatives analysis from the applicant, for projects involving the draining or filling of less than:

(1) 2,000 square feet of wetlands in the building setback of shoreland areas in all counties;

(2) 10,000 square feet of wetlands in counties with 80 percent or less of their presettlement wetlands remaining; and

(3) 20,000 square feet of wetlands in counties with more than 80 percent of their presettlement wetlands remaining.

(m) For projects involving draining or filling of wetlands outside of the building setback of shoreland areas, a person may satisfy replacement requirements under this section by paying an amount equal to the fair market value of the upland created by the draining or filling activity, as determined by a licensed appraiser. The payment must be made to the board or to the local government unit if it has established a wetland bank that is approved by the board. The board or local government unit shall use any money received under this paragraph for making withdrawals from the wetland bank administered by the board or local government unit for the purpose of replacing lost wetland values. Payments received by the board under this paragraph must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund and are appropriated to the board for the purposes of this paragraph.

These rules must address the criteria, procedure, timing, and location of acceptable replacement of wetland values; may address the state establishment and administration of a wetland banking program for public and private projects, which may include provisions allowing monetary payment to the wetland banking program for alteration of wetlands on agricultural land; the methodology to be used in identifying and evaluating wetland functions; the administrative, monitoring, and enforcement procedures to be used; and a procedure for the review and appeal of decisions under this section. In the case of peatlands, the replacement plan rules must consider the impact on carbon balance described in the report required by Laws 1990, chapter 587, and include the planting of trees or shrubs.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 103G.2242, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [NOTICE OF APPLICATION.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), within ten days of receiving an application for approval of a replacement plan under this section, a ~~copy~~ summary of the application must be submitted ~~to the board~~ for publication in the Environmental Quality Board Monitor and separate copies of the complete application mailed to the members of the technical evaluation panel, individual members of the public who request a copy, ~~the board of supervisors of the soil and water conservation district, the managers of the watershed district if one exists, the board of county commissioners, and the commissioner of agriculture, and the mayors of the cities within the area watershed.~~ At the same time, the local government unit must give general notice to the public in a general circulation newspaper within the area affected natural resources.

(2) the wetland area to be drained or filled under the revised replacement is located more than 500 feet from the area to be drained or filled under the original replacement plan.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 103G.2242, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF DECISION.] (a) ~~Except as provided in paragraph (b),~~ At least 30 ten days prior to the effective date of the approval or denial of a replacement plan under this section, a ~~copy~~ summary of the approval or denial must be submitted for publication in the Environmental Quality Board Monitor and separate copies mailed to the applicant, the ~~board~~ members of the technical evaluation panel, individual members of the public who request a copy, ~~the board of supervisors of the soil and water conservation district, the managers of the watershed district if one exists, the board of county commissioners, and the commissioner of agriculture, and the mayors of the cities within the area watershed~~ natural resources. Notice in the Environmental Quality Board Monitor is not required for projects involving the draining or filling of less than 10,000 square feet of wetlands.

Subd. 9. [APPEAL.] Appeal of ~~the~~ a replacement plan, exemption, or no-loss decision may be obtained by mailing a ~~notice of appeal~~ petition to the board within ~~30~~ 15 days after the postmarked date of the mailing specified in subdivision 7. The local government unit may require the petitioner to post a bond in an amount not to exceed $500. If appeal is not sought within 30 15 days, the decision becomes final. Appeal may be made by the wetland owner, by any of those to whom notice is required to be mailed under subdivision 7, or by 100 residents of the county in which a majority of the wetland is located. Within 30 days after receiving a petition, the board shall decide whether to grant the petition and hear the appeal. The board shall grant the petition unless the board finds that the appeal is meritless, trivial, or brought solely for the purposes of delay; that the petitioner has not exhausted all local administrative remedies; or that the petitioner has not posted a bond if required by the local government unit. In determining whether to grant the appeal, the board shall also consider the size of the wetland, other factors in controversy, any patterns of similar acts by the local government unit or petitioner, and the consequences of the delay resulting from the appeal. All appeals must be heard by the committee for dispute resolution of the board, and a decision made within 60 days of the appeal. The decision must be served by mail on the parties to the appeal, and is not subject to the provisions of chapter 14. ~~The~~ A decision whether to grant a petition for appeal and a decision on the merits of an appeal must be considered the decision of an agency in a contested case for purposes of judicial review under sections 14.63 to 14.69.

(d) Notwithstanding section 103G.222, paragraph (i), the following areas are eligible for replacement credit as determined by the local government unit, including enrollment in a statewide wetlands bank:

(1) an area of permanent vegetative cover reestablished on a wetland that was planted with annually seeded crops, was in a crop rotation seeding of pasture grasses or legumes, or was required to be set aside to receive price supports or other payments under United States Code, title 7, sections 1421 to 1469, in six of the last ten years prior to January 1, 1991;

(2) a buffer area of permanent vegetative cover established on upland adjacent to a wetland, if the upland buffer area was established at the time of wetland replacement; and

The commissioner of natural resources, a conservation officer, or a peace officer, or for an ordinance violation the sheriff, may issue a cease and desist order to stop any illegal activity adversely affecting draining or filling of a wetland. In the order, or by separate order, the commissioner, conservation officer, or peace officer may require restoration or replacement of the wetland, as determined by the local soil and water conservation district or as otherwise provided by a comprehensive wetland protection and management plan. The soil and water conservation district shall make its determination within 30 days after the cease and desist order or separate restoration order is issued.

Natural resource block grants made under Laws 1993, chapter 172, section 6, may be used for development and implementation of comprehensive wetland protection and management plans under Minnesota Statutes, section 103G.2242, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 14. [STUDY OF WETLAND BANKING ALTERNATIVES; REPORT.]

The wetland heritage committee, under the auspices of the state comprehensive wetlands planning project, investigates alternative procedures and policies for improving the current wetland banking system in the state. The study must address ecological, hydrological, and economic aspects of wetland banking. The study and any recommendations must be reported to the appropriate policy committees of the legislature by January 1, 1997.

The third-party purchaser may appeal the commissioner's order through a contested case hearing in accordance with chapter 14.

(c) Each third-party purchaser regulated under any chapter cited in paragraph (a) shall itemize, on each payment made to a hospital, surgical center, pharmacy, or health care provider for health care services, the amount representing the additional expense required to be paid by the third-party payer under paragraph (a)."

"ARTICLE 1

METROPOLITAN LIVABLE COMMUNITIES ACT

Section 1. [473.25] [LIVABLE COMMUNITIES CRITERIA AND GUIDELINES.]

(a) The council shall establish criteria for uses of the fund provided in section 473.251 that are consistent with and promote the purposes of this article and the policies of the metropolitan development guide adopted by the council including, but not limited to:

(1) helping to change long-term market incentives that adversely impact creation and preservation of living-wage jobs in the fully developed area;

(2) creating incentives for developing communities to include a full range of housing opportunities;

(3) creating incentives to preserve and rehabilitate affordable housing in the fully developed area; and

(4) creating incentives for all communities to implement compact and efficient development.

(b) The council shall establish guidelines for the livable community demonstration account for projects that the council would consider funding with either grants or loans. The guidelines must provide that the projects will:

(1) interrelate development or redevelopment and transit;

(2) interrelate affordable housing and employment growth areas;

(3) intensify land use that leads to more compact development or redevelopment;

(4) involve development or redevelopment that mixes incomes of residents in housing, including introducing or reintroducing higher value housing in lower income areas to achieve a mix of housing opportunities;

(5) encourage public infrastructure investments which connect urban neighborhoods and suburban communities, attract private sector redevelopment investment in commercial and residential properties adjacent to the public improvement, and provide project area residents with expanded opportunities for private sector employment; or

(c) The council shall establish guidelines governing who may apply for a grant or loan from the fund, providing priority for proposals using innovative partnerships between government, private for-profit, and nonprofit sectors.

(d) The council shall prepare an annual plan for distribution of the fund based on the criteria for project and applicant selection.

(e) The council shall prepare and submit to the legislature, as provided in section 3.195, an annual report on the metropolitan livable communities fund. The report must include information on the amount of money in the fund, the amount distributed, to whom the funds were distributed and for what purposes, and an evaluation of the effectiveness of the projects funded in meeting the policies and goals of the council. The report may make recommendations to the legislature on changes to this act.

Sec. 2. [473.251] [FUND ESTABLISHED.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The metropolitan livable communities fund is created and consists of the following accounts:

(1) the tax base revitalization account;

(2) the livable communities demonstration account; and

(3) the local housing incentives account.

Subd. 2. [TAX BASE REVITALIZATION ACCOUNT.] The council shall credit to a tax base revitalization account within the fund the amount, if any, provided for under section 473.167, subdivision 3a, paragraph (b), and the amount, if any, distributed to the council pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 3b. For the purposes of this subdivision, municipality means any county, town, or statutory or home rule charter city in the metropolitan area.

(a) The council must use the funds in the account to make grants to municipalities for the cleanup of polluted land in the metropolitan area. The council shall prescribe and provide the grant application form to municipalities. A site qualifies for a grant under this subdivision if the criteria specified in section 116J.554, subdivision 2, are met.

(b) The legislature expects that applications for grants will exceed the available funds and the council will be able to provide grants to only some of the applicant municipalities. If applications for grants for qualified sites exceed the available funds, the council shall make grants that provide the highest return in public benefits for the public costs incurred, that encourage commercial and industrial development that will lead to the preservation or growth of living-wage jobs and that enhance the tax base of the recipient municipality.

(c) A municipality may use the grant to provide a portion of the local match requirement for project costs that qualify for a grant under sections 116J.551 to 116J.57.

Subd. 3. [LIVABLE COMMUNITIES DEMONSTRATION ACCOUNT.] The council shall credit to the livable communities demonstration account within the fund the revenues from the tax levied under this subdivision. The purpose of this account is to fund the initiatives specified in section 1, subdivision 4, paragraph (b). The council shall levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area for the livable communities demonstration account. This tax shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The levy shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a)(1) for taxes payable in 1996, 50 percent of (i) the metropolitan mosquito control commission's property tax levy limit for 1995 as determined under section 473.711, subdivision 2, multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current taxes payable year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located in the metropolitan area for the previous taxes payable year; and

(2) for taxes payable in 1997 and subsequent years, the product of (i) the property tax levy limit under this subdivision for the previous year multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current taxes payable year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located in the metropolitan area for the previous taxes payable year.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities under chapter 473F, tax increment financing under sections 469.174 to 469.179, and high voltage transmission lines under section 273.425.

(b) The metropolitan council, for the purposes of the fund, is considered a unique taxing jurisdiction for purposes of receiving aid pursuant to section 273.1398. For aid to be received in 1996, the fund's homestead and agricultural credit base shall equal 50 percent of the metropolitan mosquito control commission's certified homestead and agricultural credit aid for 1995, determined under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, less any permanent aid reduction under section 477A.0132. For aid to be received under section 273.1398 in 1997 and subsequent years, the fund's homestead and agricultural credit base shall be determined in accordance with section 273.1398, subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. [LOCAL HOUSING INCENTIVES ACCOUNT; DISTRIBUTION.] The council shall credit to the local housing incentives account within the fund the revenues distributed by a municipality under paragraph (c), clause (1), and the revenues distributed under section 3. The purpose of this account is to expand and preserve affordable and life-cycle housing opportunities. The funds in the account must be distributed annually by the council to municipalities:

(1) that have not met their affordable and life-cycle housing goals as determined by the council;

(2) are actively funding projects designed to help meet the goals; and

(3) whose contribution levy exceeds its distribution levy by more than $200 per household according to the most recent population estimates determined by the metropolitan council.

The funds distributed by the council must be matched on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the municipality receiving the funds. When distributing funds in the account, the council must give priority to those municipalities that demonstrate the proposed project will link employment opportunities with affordable housing. For the purposes of this subdivision, "municipality" means a statutory or home rule charter city or town in the metropolitan area.

(a) The council shall negotiate with each municipality to establish affordable and life-cycle housing goals for that municipality that are consistent with and promote the policies of the metropolitan council as provided in the adopted metropolitan development guide. The council shall establish affordable and life-cycle housing goals for each municipality by January 15, 1996. By June 30, 1996, each municipality shall identify to the council the actions it plans to take to meet the established housing goals. Beginning January 15, 1998, and annually thereafter, each municipality must report to the council the following:

(1) the tax revenues defined in paragraph (e) that were levied in the prior year;

(2) the portion of the revenues that were spent on meeting the municipality's affordable and life-cycle housing goals; and

(3) information on how the expenditures directly support the municipality's efforts to meet its affordable and life-cycle housing goals.

The council shall verify each municipality's compliance with this paragraph.

(b) A municipality that is determined by the council to have met its affordable and life-cycle housing goals in the previous year may retain the amount calculated under paragraph (e) to maintain existing affordable and life-cycle housing.

(c) A municipality that is determined by the council not to have met the affordable and life-cycle housing goals in the previous year, as negotiated and agreed to with the council, shall either: (1) distribute the amount calculated under paragraph (e) to the local housing incentives account; (2) distribute the amount calculated under paragraph (e) to the housing redevelopment authority of the county in which the municipality is located; or (3) retain the amount calculated under paragraph (e) to create affordable and life-cycle housing as approved by the council. A municipality may escrow the amount calculated under paragraph (e) for a period of up to three years. During the third year, the municipality must demonstrate to the council that it is expending the funds to create affordable and life-cycle housing opportunities. A municipality may enter into agreements with adjacent municipalities to cooperatively provide affordable and life-cycle housing. The housing may be provided in any of the cooperating municipalities, but must meet the combined housing goals of each participating municipality.

(d) If a municipality can demonstrate to the council that it is already expending an amount equal to or greater than the amount calculated under paragraph (e) on affordable and life-cycle housing, the municipality is not required to expend any additional levels to meet the affordable and life-cycle housing goals established under paragraph (a).

(e)(1) By July 1, 1996, each county assessor shall certify each municipality's average residential homestead limited market value for the 1994 assessment year, including the value of the farm house, garage, and one acre only in the case of farm homesteads, multiplied by a factor of two, as the municipality's "market value base amount." (2) By July 1, 1996, and each succeeding year, for each municipality, the county assessor shall determine which homesteads have market values in excess of the municipality's market value base amount and the county auditor shall certify the aggregate net tax capacity corresponding to the amount by which those homesteads' market values exceed the municipality's market value base amount as the "net tax capacity excess amount" for the assessment year corresponding to the current taxes payable year. By July 1, 1996, the county auditor shall also certify the net tax capacity excess amount for taxes payable in 1995. (3) By July 1, 1996, and each succeeding year, the county auditor shall also certify each municipality's local tax rate for the current taxes payable year. (4) By July 1, 1996, and each succeeding year, the county auditor shall certify for each municipality the amount equal to four percent of the municipality's current year total residential homestead tax capacity multiplied by the local tax rate. (5) By August 1, 1996, and each succeeding year, the metropolitan council shall notify each municipality of its "affordable and life-cycle housing opportunities amount" equal to the lesser of the amount certified under clause (4) or the amount, if any, by which the net tax capacity excess amount for the current year exceeds the amount for taxes payable in 1995 multiplied by the municipality's local tax rate certified in clause (3).

Sec. 3. [REVENUES CREDITED.]

The council shall credit $1,000,000 of the proceeds of solid waste bonds issued by the council under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.831, before its repeal to the local housing incentives account in the metropolitan livable communities fund. In 1998 and thereafter, the council shall credit $1,000,000 of the revenues generated by the levy authorized in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.249, to the local housing incentives account.

Sec. 4. [PROGRAM REPORT.]

The metropolitan council shall submit a report to the legislature by January 15, 2003, evaluating the metropolitan livable communities act. The report must include an accounting of the funds credited to the tax base revitalization account, the livable communities demonstration account, and the local housing incentives account, a summary of how the funds were spent, an analysis of the costs and benefits of the program, and recommendations for future legislative action regarding the program.

Sec. 5. [2025 REPORT.]

The metropolitan council shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1996, on the probable development patterns in and affecting the metropolitan area by the year 2025 under various scenarios, including the present course of growth versus directed, compact, and efficient development. The report should consider impacts on the greater metropolitan region, including within it counties in which five percent or more of residents commute to employment in the present metropolitan region or which are part of the metropolitan area as defined by the U.S. Department of Commerce Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area.

Sec. 6. [APPLICATION.]

This article applies in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day after final enactment. Section 2 is effective for taxes levied in 1995 and payable in 1996, and subsequent years.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION CYCLES; REPORTING TO LCWM.] (a) In making grants, the commissioner shall establish ~~regular~~ semiannual application deadlines in which grants will be authorized from all or part of the available appropriations of money in the account.

(b) After each semiannual cycle in which grants are awarded, the commissioner shall report to the legislative commission on waste management the grants awarded and appropriate supporting information describing each grant made. This report must be made 30 days after the grants are awarded.

(c) The commissioner shall annually report to the legislative commission on the status of the cleanup projects undertaken under grants made under the programs. Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 116J.556, is amended to read:

116J.556 [LOCAL MATCH REQUIREMENT.]

(a) In order to qualify for a grant under sections 116J.551 to 116J.557, the municipality must pay for at least one-half of the project costs as a local match. The municipality shall pay an amount of the project costs equal to at least ~~48~~ five percent of the cleanup costs from the municipality's general fund, a property tax levy for that purpose, or other unrestricted money available to the municipality (excluding tax increments). These unrestricted moneys may be spent for project costs, other than cleanup costs, and qualify for the local match payment equal to ~~48~~ five percent of cleanup costs. The rest of the local match may be paid with tax increments, regional, state, or federal money available for the redevelopment of brownfields or any other money available to the municipality.

(b) If the development authority establishes a tax increment financing district or hazardous substance subdistrict on the site to pay for part of the local match requirement, the district or subdistrict is not subject to the state aid reductions under section 273.1399. In order to qualify for the exemption from the state aid reductions, the municipality must elect, by resolution, on or before the request for certification is filed that all tax increments from the district or subdistrict will be used exclusively to pay (1) for project costs for the site and (2) administrative costs for the district or subdistrict. The district or subdistrict must be decertified when an amount of tax increments equal to no more than three times the costs of implementing the response action plan for the site and the administrative costs for the district or subdistrict have been received, after deducting the amount of the state grant.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only: (1) to accelerate the acquisition of primarily undeveloped property when there is a reasonable probability that the property will increase in value before highway construction, and to update an expired environmental impact statement on a project for which the right-of-way is being purchased; (2) to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction; or (3) to advance planning and environmental activities on highest priority major metropolitan river crossing projects, under the transportation development guide chapter/policy plan. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement. The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. The price may include the costs of preparing environmental documents that were required for the acquisition and that were paid for with money that the recipient received from the loan fund. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. If a recipient is not permitted to include in the conveyance price the cost of preparing environmental documents that were required for the acquisition, then the recipient is not required to repay the council an amount equal to 40 percent of the money received from the loan fund and spent in preparing the environmental documents. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3 and distributed to the right-of-way acquisition loan fund pursuant to subdivision 3a, paragraph (a), all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program, the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount of the authorized levy proceeds distributed to the right-of-way acquisition loan fund pursuant to subdivision 3a, paragraph (a), for that year.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473.167, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 2a and for the tax base revitalization account in the metropolitan livable communities fund, established under section 473.251, subdivision 3. This tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund and the tax base revitalization account shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, ~~except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.~~

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund and the tax base revitalization account shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 5/100 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, except as provided in section 473.249, subdivision 3, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area;

(c) for taxes payable in 1990, an amount not to exceed $2,700,000; and

(d) for taxes payable in 1991 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable in 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current taxes payable year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for taxes payable in 1988.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund and tax base revitalization account in the metropolitan livable communities fund, under section 473.251, subdivision 3, for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

~~The property tax levied under this subdivision for taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right of way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under this section.~~

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [DISTRIBUTION OF TAX PROCEEDS.] (a) Right-of-way acquisition loan fund. Tax proceeds shall first be deposited into the right-of-way acquisition loan fund in an amount determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right-of-way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under subdivision 3.

(b) Metropolitan livable communities tax base revitalization account. Any tax proceeds not first deposited into the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall be distributed to the tax base revitalization account in the metropolitan livable communities fund, established under section 473.251, subdivision 3.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473.711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BUDGET; TAX LEVY.] (a) Budget. The metropolitan mosquito control commission shall prepare an annual budget. The budget may provide for expenditures in an amount not exceeding the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision.

(b) Tax Levy. The commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the district as defined in section 473.702 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716. The tax shall not exceed the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. A participating county may agree to levy an additional tax to be used by the commission for the purposes of sections

473.701 to 473.716 but the sum of the county's and commission's taxes may not exceed the county's proportionate share of the property tax levy limitation determined under this subdivision based on the ratio of its total net tax capacity to the total net tax capacity of the entire district as adjusted by section 270.12, subdivision 3. The auditor of each county in the district shall add the amount of the levy made by the district to other taxes of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected, the county treasurer shall make settlement of the tax with the district in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions. No county shall levy any tax for mosquito, disease vectoring tick, and black gnat (Simuliidae) control except under ~~sections 473.701 to 473.716~~ this section. The levy shall be in addition to other taxes authorized by law.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan mosquito control commission shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(i) for taxes payable in 1996, 50 percent of the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current assessment taxes payable year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous assessment taxes payable year; and

(ii) for taxes payable in 1997 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current taxes payable year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous taxes payable year.

For the purpose of determining the commission's property tax levy limitation under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

(c) Homestead and Agricultural Credit Aid. For aids payable in 1996 and subsequent years, the commission's homestead and agricultural credit aid base under section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is permanently reduced by 50 percent of the amount certified to be received in 1995, less any permanent aid reduction in 1995 under section 477A.0132.

(d) Emergency Tax Levy. If the commissioner of the department of health declares a health emergency due to a threatened or actual outbreak of disease caused by mosquitos, disease vectoring ticks, or black gnats (Simuliidae), the commission may levy an additional tax not to exceed $500,000 on all taxable property in the district to pay for the required control measures.

(e) Optional County Levy. A participating county may levy a tax in an amount to be determined by the county board for mosquito, disease vectoring tick, and black gnat (Simuliidae) nuisance control. If the county levies the tax for nuisance control, it must contract with the commission to provide for nuisance control activities within the county. The levy for nuisance control shall be in addition to other levies authorized by law to the county.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. Beginning in 1987 and each subsequent year through 1998, the city of Bloomington shall determine the interest payments for that year for the bonds which have been sold for the highway improvements pursuant to Laws 1986, chapter 391, section 2, paragraph (g). Effective for property taxes payable in 1988 through property taxes payable in 1999, after the Hennepin county auditor has computed the areawide portion of the levy for the city of Bloomington pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (a), the auditor shall annually add a dollar amount to the city of Bloomington's areawide portion of the levy equal to the amount which has been certified to the auditor by the city of Bloomington for the interest payments for that year for the bonds which were sold for highway improvements. The total areawide portion of the levy for the city of Bloomington including the additional amount for interest repayment certified pursuant to this subdivision shall be certified by the Hennepin county auditor to the administrative auditor pursuant to subdivision 5. The Hennepin county auditor shall distribute to the city of Bloomington the additional areawide portion of the levy computed pursuant to this subdivision at the same time that payments are made to the other counties pursuant to subdivision 7a. For property taxes payable from the year 2000 through 2009 in each of the first 15 years following retirement of all indebtedness incurred through the issuance of bonds and notes by the city of Bloomington and the Bloomington port authority to finance public improvements within the Mall of America tax increment financing district, the Hennepin county auditor shall adjust Bloomington's contribution to the areawide gross tax capacity upward each year by a value equal to ~~ten~~ 1/15th of 35 percent of the total additional areawide levy distributed to Bloomington under this subdivision from 1988 to 1999, divided by the areawide tax rate for taxes payable in the previous year.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [LIVABLE COMMUNITIES FUND.] (a) The Hennepin county auditor shall certify the city of Bloomington's interest payments for 1987 for the bonds which were sold for highway improvements pursuant to Laws 1986, chapter 391, section 2, paragraph (g).

(b) For taxes payable in 1996 through taxes payable in 1999, the Hennepin county auditor shall certify the amount calculated by subtracting the amount certified under subdivision 3a from the amount in paragraph (a). For taxes payable in 2000 and subsequent years, the Hennepin county auditor shall certify the amount calculated in paragraph (a).

(c) The metropolitan council may annually certify to the Ramsey county auditor the amount calculated under paragraph (b), or a lesser amount, to be used to provide funds for the cleanup of polluted lands in the metropolitan area.

(d) The Ramsey county auditor shall annually add a dollar amount to its areawide portion of the levy equal to the amount which has been certified in paragraph (c). The total areawide portion of the levy for Ramsey county, including the additional amount certified under paragraph (c), shall be certified by the Ramsey county auditor to the administrative auditor pursuant to subdivision 5.

(e) The Ramsey county auditor shall distribute the amount certified in paragraph (c) to the metropolitan council for the tax base revitalization account within the metropolitan livable communities fund, established under section 473.251, at the same time that payments are made to the other counties pursuant to subdivision 7a.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [AREAWIDE TAX RATE.] On or before August 25 of each year, the county auditor shall certify to the administrative auditor that portion of the levy of each governmental unit determined under ~~subdivision~~ subdivisions 3, clause (a), 3a, and 3b. The administrative auditor shall then determine the areawide tax rate sufficient to yield an amount equal to the sum of such levies from the areawide net tax capacity. On or before September 1 of each year, the administrative auditor shall certify the areawide tax rate to each of the county auditors.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [CERTIFICATION OF VALUES; PAYMENT.] The administrative auditor shall determine for each county the difference between the total levy on distribution value pursuant to ~~subdivision~~ subdivisions 3, clause (a), 3a, and 3b, within the county and the total tax on contribution value pursuant to subdivision 6, within the county. On or before May 16 of each year, the administrative auditor shall certify the differences so determined to each county auditor. In addition, the administrative auditor shall certify to those county auditors for whose county the total tax on contribution value exceeds the total levy on distribution value the settlement the county is to make to the other counties of the excess of the total tax on contribution value over the total levy on distribution value in the county. On or before June 15 and November 15 of each year, each county treasurer in a county having a total tax on contribution value in excess of the total levy on distribution value shall pay one-half of the excess to the other counties in accordance with the administrative auditors certification.

549.01 [AGREEMENT AS TO FEES OF ATTORNEY.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, "health care provider" means a physician, surgeon, dentist, or other health care professional or hospital, including all persons or entities providing health care as defined in section 145.61, subdivisions 2 and 4, or a certified health care professional employed by or providing services as an independent contractor in a hospital; and "contingency fee" means a fee for professional legal services that is in whole or in part dependent upon the recovery of any amount of damages, whether through judgment or settlement.

Subd. 2. [FEES GENERALLY.] Other than as provided in subdivision 3, a party shall have an unrestricted right to agree with an attorney as to compensation for services, and the measure and mode thereof; but certain sums may be allowed to the prevailing party for expenses in an action, which are termed costs.

Subd. 3. [CONTINGENCY FEES; ACTIONS AGAINST A HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] (a) An attorney shall not contract for or collect a contingency fee for representing a person seeking damages in connection with an action for injury or damage against a health care provider based upon the person's alleged professional negligence in excess of the following limits:

(1) 40 percent of the first $50,000 recovered;

- (2) 33-1/3 percent of the next $50,000 recovered;
- (3) 20 percent of the next $400,000 recovered; and
- (4) ten percent of any amount on which the recovery exceeds $500,000.

The limitations apply regardless of whether the recovery is by settlement, arbitration, or judgment, or whether the person for whom the recovery is made is a responsible adult, an infant, or a person of unsound mind.

(b) An attorney may not receive contingency fees on any portion of an award for noneconomic or punitive damages.

(c) In the event that the judgment or settlement includes periodic or future payments of damages, the amount recovered for purposes of this section is the cost of the annuity or trust established to make the payments, or if there is no annuity or trust, the present value of the payments.

Subd. 4. [VIOLATION OF SECTION.] A fee contracted for in violation of this section is void and unenforceable. A claimant affected by a violation of this section may bring an action in the court in which the claim was or could have been brought, for damages in the amount of three times the fee improperly contracted for or collected, reasonable attorney fees, and other relief to which the person may be entitled.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 595.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [WAIVER OF PRIVILEGE FOR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS.] A party who commences an action makes a claim or files a lawsuit for malpractice, error, mistake, or failure to cure, whether based on contract or tort, against a health care provider on the person's own behalf or in a representative capacity, waives in that action any privilege existing under subdivision 1, paragraphs (d) and (g), as to any information or opinion in the possession of a health care provider who has examined or cared for the party or other person whose health or medical condition has been placed in controversy in the action. This waiver must permit all parties to the action, and their attorneys or authorized representatives, to informally discuss the information or opinion with the health care provider if the provider consents. ~~Prior to an informal discussion with a health care provider, the defendant must mail written notice to the other party at least 15 days before the discussion. The plaintiff's attorney or authorized representative must have the opportunity to be present at any informal discussion. Appropriate medical authorizations permitting discussion must be provided by the party commencing the action upon request from any other party.~~

A health care provider may refuse to consent to the discussion but, in that event, the party seeking the information or opinion may take the deposition of the health care provider with respect to that information and opinion, without obtaining a prior court order.

For purposes of this subdivision, "health care provider" means a physician, surgeon, dentist, or other health care professional or hospital, including all persons or entities providing health care as defined in section 145.61, subdivisions 2 and 4, or a certified health care professional employed by or providing services as an independent contractor in a hospital.

Subd. 4. [APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES; MEDICAL MALPRACTICE.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 1 to 3, for purposes of medical malpractice actions, when two or more persons are jointly liable, contributions to awards must be in proportion to the percentage of fault attributable to each."

CHILDREN'S SUPERVISED VISITATION FACILITIES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner shall issue a request for proposals from existing local nonprofit, nongovernmental, or governmental organizations, to use existing local facilities as pilot children's safety centers supervised visitation facilities, which may also be used for visitation exchanges. The commissioner shall award grants in amounts up to $50,000 for the purpose of creating or maintaining children's safety centers supervised visitation facilities in an effort to reduce children's vulnerability to violence and trauma related to family visitation, where there has been a history of domestic violence or abuse within the family. At least one of the pilot projects shall be located in the seven-county metropolitan area and at least one of the projects shall be located outside the seven-county metropolitan area, and The commissioner shall award the grants to provide the greatest possible number of safety centers children's supervised visitation facilities and to locate them to provide for the broadest possible geographic distribution of the centers facilities throughout the state.

Each children's safety center supervised visitation facility must use existing local facilities to provide a healthy interactive environment for parents who are separated or divorced and for parents with children in foster homes to visit with their children. The centers facilities must be available for use by district courts who may order visitation to occur at a safety center supervised visitation facility.

The centers facilities may also be used as drop-off sites, so that parents who are under court order to have no contact with each other can exchange children for visitation at a neutral site. Each center facility must provide sufficient security to ensure a safe visitation environment for children and their parents. A grantee must demonstrate the ability to provide a 25 percent local match, which may include in-kind contributions.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [COUNTY INVOLVEMENT.] Each county or group of counties is encouraged to provide supervised visitation services in an effort to fill the gap in the court system that orders supervised visitation, but does not provide a facility to accomplish the supervised visitation as ordered. Each county or group of counties is encouraged to either financially contribute to an existing supervised visitation center in the area, or establish a new facility if there is not one in the area, possibly through county social services. In creating a new facility, the county may collaborate with other counties, other supervised visitation facilities, family services collaboratives, court services, and any other entity or organization. The goal is to provide supervised visitation facilities statewide. The county shall apply for funding that may be available through the federal government, specifically for family preservation or family reunification purposes, or any other source of funding that will aid in developing and maintaining this vital service.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES FUNDING.] The commissioner may award grants to create or maintain children's supervised visitation facilities.

In awarding grants to maintain a children's supervised visitation facility, the commissioner may award a grant to a facility that can demonstrate a 35 percent local match, provided the facility is diligently exploring and pursuing all available funding options in an effort to become self-sustaining, and those efforts are reported to the commissioner.

In awarding grants under the program to create a children's supervised visitation facility, the commissioner shall give priority to:

(1) areas of the state where no other children's safety-center supervised visitation facility or similar facility exists;

(2) applicants who demonstrate that private funding for the center facility is available and will continue; and

(3) facilities that are adapted for use to care for children, such as day care centers, religious institutions, community centers, schools, technical colleges, parenting resource centers, and child care referral services.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL SERVICES.] Each ~~center~~ supervised visitation facility may provide parenting and child development classes, and offer support groups to participating custodial parents and hold regular classes designed to assist children who have experienced domestic violence and abuse.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ADMINISTRATION.] In administering the grants authorized by this section, the commissioner shall ensure that the term "children's supervised visitation facility" is used in all future applications, publicity releases, requests for proposals, and other materials of like nature. Materials published prior to the enactment of this legislation which use different terms may be distributed by the commissioner until supplies are gone.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 517.08, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [TERM OF LICENSE; FEE.] The court administrator shall examine upon oath the party applying for a license relative to the legality of the contemplated marriage. If at the expiration of a five-day period, on being satisfied that there is no legal impediment to it, the court administrator shall issue the license, containing the full names of the parties before and after marriage, and county and state of residence, with the district court seal attached, and make a record of the date of issuance. The license shall be valid for a period of six months. In case of emergency or extraordinary circumstances, a judge of the county court or a judge of the district court of the county in which the application is made, may authorize the license to be issued at any time before the expiration of the five days. The court administrator shall collect from the applicant a fee of $65 $68 for administering the oath, issuing, recording, and filing all papers required, and preparing and transmitting to the state registrar of vital statistics the reports of marriage required by this section. If the license should not be used within the period of six months due to illness or other extenuating circumstances, it may be surrendered to the court administrator for cancellation, and in that case a new license shall issue upon request of the parties of the original license without fee. A court administrator who knowingly issues or signs a marriage license in any manner other than as provided in this section shall pay to the parties aggrieved an amount not to exceed $1,000.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 517.08, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [DISPOSITION OF LICENSE FEE.] Of the marriage license fee collected pursuant to subdivision 1b, the court administrator shall pay $50 $53 to the state treasurer to be deposited in ~~the general fund~~ as follows: $50 in the general fund, and $3 in the special revenue fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of human services for supervised visitation facilities under section 256F.09.

Subd. 4d. [PERMIT FEES.] (a) The agency may collect permit fees in amounts not greater than those necessary to cover the reasonable costs of reviewing and acting upon applications for agency permits and implementing and enforcing the conditions of the permits pursuant to agency rules. Permit fees shall not include the costs of litigation. The agency shall adopt rules under section 16A.128 establishing the amounts and methods of collection of any permit fees collected under this subdivision. The fee schedule must reflect reasonable and routine permitting, implementation, and enforcement costs. The agency may impose an additional enforcement fee to be collected for a period of up to two years to cover the reasonable costs of implementing and enforcing the conditions of a permit under the rules of the agency. Any money collected under this paragraph shall be deposited in the special revenue account.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), ~~and section 16A.128, subdivision 1~~, the agency shall collect an annual fee from the owner or operator of all stationary sources, emission facilities, emissions units, air contaminant treatment facilities, treatment facilities, potential air contaminant storage facilities, or storage facilities subject to the requirement to obtain a permit under Title V of the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, Public Law Number 101-549, Statutes at Large, volume 104, pages 2399 et seq., or section 116.081. The annual fee shall be used to pay for all direct and indirect reasonable costs, including attorney general costs, required to develop and administer the permit program requirements of Title V of the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, Public Law Number 101-549, Statutes at Large, volume 104, pages 2399 et seq., and sections of this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter related to air contamination and noise. Those costs include the reasonable costs of reviewing and acting upon an application for a permit; implementing and enforcing statutes, rules, and the terms and conditions of a permit; emissions, ambient, and deposition monitoring; preparing generally applicable regulations; responding to federal guidance; modeling, analyses, and demonstrations; preparing inventories and tracking emissions; providing information to the public about these activities; and, after June 30, 1992, the costs of acid deposition monitoring currently assessed under section 116C.69, subdivision 3.

(c) The agency shall adopt fee rules in accordance with the procedures in section ~~16A.128, subdivisions 1a and 2a,~~ 16A.1285 that will result in the collection, in the aggregate, from the sources listed in paragraph (b), of the following amounts:

(1) in fiscal years 1992 and 1993, the amount appropriated by the legislature from the air quality account in the environmental fund for the agency's air quality program;

(2) for fiscal year 1994 and thereafter, an amount not less than $25 per ton of each volatile organic compound; pollutant regulated under United States Code, title 42, section 7411 or 7412 (section 111 or 112 of the federal Clean Air Act); and each pollutant, except carbon monoxide, for which a national primary ambient air quality standard has been promulgated; and

(3) for fiscal year 1994 and thereafter, the agency fee rules may also result in the collection, in the aggregate, from the sources listed in paragraph (b), of an amount not less than $25 per ton of each pollutant not listed in clause (2) that is regulated under Minnesota Rules, chapter 7005, or for which a state primary ambient air quality standard has been adopted.

The agency must not include in the calculation of the aggregate amount to be collected under the fee rules any amount in excess of 4,000 tons per year of each air pollutant from a source.

(d) To cover the reasonable costs described in paragraph (b), the agency shall provide in the rules promulgated under paragraph (c) for an increase in the fee collected in each year beginning after fiscal year 1993 by the percentage, if any, by which the Consumer Price Index for the most recent calendar year ending before the beginning of the year the fee is collected exceeds the Consumer Price Index for the calendar year 1989. For purposes of this paragraph the Consumer Price Index for any calendar year is the average of the Consumer Price Index for all-urban consumers published by the United States Department of Labor, as of the close of the 12-month period ending on August 31 of each calendar year. The revision of the Consumer Price Index that is most consistent with the Consumer Price Index for calendar year 1989 shall be used.

(e) Any money collected under paragraphs (b) to (d) must be deposited in an air quality account in the environmental fund and must be used solely for the activities listed in paragraph (b).

(f) Persons who wish to construct or expand an air emission facility may offer to reimburse the agency for the costs of staff overtime or consultant services needed to expedite permit review. The reimbursement shall be in addition to fees imposed by paragraphs (a) to (d). When the agency determines that it needs additional resources to review the permit application in an expedited manner, and that expediting the review would not disrupt air permitting program priorities, the agency may accept the reimbursement. Reimbursements accepted by the agency are appropriated to the agency for the purpose of reviewing the permit application. Reimbursement by a permit applicant shall precede and not be contingent upon issuance of a permit and shall not affect the agency's decision on whether to issue or deny a permit, what conditions are included in a permit, or the application of state and federal statutes and rules governing permit determinations.

ABOLISHING COMMISSIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 62J.04, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADJUSTED GROWTH LIMITS AND ENFORCEMENT.] (a) The commissioner shall publish the final adjusted growth limit in the State Register by January 31 of the year that the expenditure limit is to be in effect. The adjusted limit must reflect the actual regional consumer price index for urban consumers for the previous calendar year, and may deviate from the previously published projected growth limits to reflect differences between the actual regional consumer price index for urban consumers and the projected Consumer Price Index for urban consumers. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by February 15 of each year on differences between the projected increase in health care expenditures, the actual expenditures based on data collected, and the impact and validity of growth limits within the overall health care reform strategy.

(b) The commissioner shall enforce limits on growth in spending and revenues for integrated service networks and for the regulated all-payer option. If the commissioner determines that artificial inflation or padding of costs or prices has occurred in anticipation of the implementation of growth limits, the commissioner may adjust the base year spending totals or growth limits or take other action to reverse the effect of the artificial inflation or padding.

(c) The commissioner shall impose and enforce overall limits on growth in revenues and spending for integrated service networks, with adjustments for changes in enrollment, benefits, severity, and risks. If an integrated service network exceeds the growth limits, the commissioner may reduce future limits on growth in aggregate premium revenues for that integrated service network by up to the amount overspent. If the integrated service network system exceeds a systemwide spending limit, the commissioner may reduce future limits on growth in premium revenues for the integrated service network system by up to the amount overspent.

(d) The commissioner shall set prices, utilization controls, and other requirements for the regulated all-payer option to ensure that the overall costs of this system, after adjusting for changes in population, severity, and risk, do not exceed the growth limits. If growth limits for a calendar year are exceeded, the commissioner may reduce reimbursement rates or otherwise recoup amounts exceeding the limit for all or part of the next calendar year. To the extent possible, the commissioner may reduce reimbursement rates or otherwise recoup amounts over the limit from individual providers who exceed the growth limits.

(e) The commissioner, in consultation with the Minnesota health care commission, shall research and make recommendations to the legislature regarding the implementation of growth limits for integrated service networks and the regulated all-payer option. The commissioner ~~must~~ shall consider both spending and revenue approaches and ~~will~~ report on the implementation of the interim limits as defined in sections 62P.04 and 62P.05. Sec. 5. [119A.05] [FUNDING CONSOLIDATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY FOR FUNDING CONSOLIDATION.] Notwithstanding existing law governing allocation of funds by local grantees, mode of service delivery, specific population and client groups to be served, grantee planning and reporting requirements, and other procedural requirements for the grant programs identified in this section, a local grantee may elect to consolidate all or a portion of funding received from the programs under subdivision 5 in a collaboration funding plan, if all conditions specified in this section are satisfied. County boards, school boards, or governing boards of other grantees may elect not to consolidate funding for a program.

For grantees electing consolidation, the commissioner may, in consultation with the legislative commission on children, youth and their families, waive all provisions of rules inconsistent with the intent of this section. This waiver authority does not apply to rules governing client protections, due process, or inclusion of clients, parents, cultures, and ethnicities in decision making. Funding to a local grantee must be determined according to the funding formulas or allocation rules governing the individual programs listed in section 119A.04.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT.] A consolidated funding account is established under the control of the commissioner of children, families, and learning. The purpose of this account is to clearly identify and provide accountability for funds previously distributed to local grantees through the individual categorical grant programs in subdivision 5. By direction of the commissioner, after consultation with the partnership planning team and, upon a finding that the conditions specified in this section have been satisfied, funds must be transmitted to this account and allocated to local grantees by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY; ACCOUNTABILITY.] To be eligible to receive funding for local consolidation, as provided for in this section, a grantee must meet the following requirements:

(1) demonstrate participation by counties and schools in a local collaborative process as defined in section 121.8355 or in a similar process of collaboration with other local governments and community organizations which satisfies the governance and planning guidelines published by the commissioner as provided for in this section;

(2) document consultation by counties and schools with community action agencies and private industry councils;

(3) complete and document, according to guidelines published by the commissioner, a collaborative planning process which clearly identifies:

(i) allocation of resources in the collaboration annual funding plan;

(ii) a description of the governance structure for the execution of the funding plan;

(iii) outcomes consistent with the statewide goals identified in this chapter and in statutes governing previous categorical funding included in the collaboration funding plan; and

(iv) indicators sufficient to measure improvement or decline in specified outcomes compared to baseline performance;

(4) agree to periodically report information concerning progress in addressing outcomes, as provided for in guidelines to be published by the commissioner, and

(5) execute a written agreement between the commissioner and the local grantees setting forth responsibilities, obligations, and conditions consistent with this section. The agreement must state that the funds that are being locally consolidated will be used collectively only to achieve the objectives of the separate programs being locally consolidated.

Subd. 4. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The geographic area for a local consolidated funding process must be an entire county, a multicounty area, or, with the approval of the county board and commissioner, a subcounty area. The process may provide for coordination of service delivery in jurisdictions that extend across county boundaries.

Subd. 5. [PROGRAMS INCLUDED.] Grant programs transferred to the department of children, families, and learning in section 119A.04 and programs transferred from the abolished department of education are eligible for local funding consolidation. Eligibility of any federally funded programs for local funding consolidation is conditioned upon obtaining necessary federal waivers or changes in federal law.

Subd. 6. [MULTIAGENCY PLAN.] Money appropriated for learning readiness programs under section 121.821, early childhood family education programs under section 121.882, and Head Start programs, including Project Cornerstone, under sections 268.912 to 268.916, shall not be expended until the local school district or school districts and the Head Start grantee agree to a plan for coordinating local services under these programs.

Subd. 7. [ENTRY INTO PROGRAM.] Grantees who meet all requirements of this section may elect to begin using funding for a local consolidated funding process beginning January 1, 1996, or at each six-month interval.

Subd. 8. [SANCTIONS.] If the commissioner finds that a grantee has failed to comply with this section, the grantee becomes subject to all requirements of individual grant programs as specified in statutes and rules.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 256F.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FEDERAL REVENUE ENHANCEMENT.] (a) [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] The commissioner of human services may enter into an agreement with one or more family services collaboratives to enhance federal reimbursement under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act and federal administrative reimbursement under Title XIX of the Social Security Act. The commissioner may contract with the department of children, families, and learning for purposes of transferring the federal reimbursement to the commissioner of children, families, and learning to be distributed to the collaboratives according to clause (2). The commissioner shall have the following authority and responsibilities regarding family services collaboratives:

(1) the commissioner shall submit amendments to state plans and seek waivers as necessary to implement the provisions of this section;

(2) the commissioner shall pay the federal reimbursement earned under this subdivision to each collaborative based on their earnings. Notwithstanding section 256.025, subdivision 2, payments to collaboratives for expenditures under this subdivision will only be made of federal earnings from services provided by the collaborative;

(3) the commissioner shall review expenditures of family services collaboratives using reports specified in the agreement with the collaborative to ensure that the base level of expenditures is continued and new federal reimbursement is used to expand education, social, health, or health-related services to young children and their families;

(4) the commissioner may reduce, suspend, or eliminate a family services collaborative's obligations to continue the base level of expenditures or expansion of services if the commissioner determines that one or more of the following conditions apply:

(i) imposition of levy limits that significantly reduce available funds for social, health, or health-related services to families and children;

(ii) reduction in the net tax capacity of the taxable property eligible to be taxed by the lead county or subcontractor that significantly reduces available funds for education, social, health, or health-related services to families and children;

(iii) reduction in the number of children under age 19 in the county, collaborative service delivery area, subcontractor's district, or catchment area when compared to the number in the base year using the most recent data provided by the state demographer's office; or

(iv) termination of the federal revenue earned under the family services collaborative agreement;

(5) the commissioner shall not use the federal reimbursement earned under this subdivision in determining the allocation or distribution of other funds to counties or collaboratives;

(6) the commissioner may suspend, reduce, or terminate the federal reimbursement to a provider that does not meet the reporting or other requirements of this subdivision;

(7) the commissioner shall recover from the family services collaborative any federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions for audit exceptions directly attributable to the family services collaborative's actions in the integrated fund, or the proportional share if federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions are based on a statewide random sample; and

(8) the commissioner shall establish criteria for the family services collaborative for the accounting and financial management system that will support claims for federal reimbursement.

(b) [FAMILY SERVICES COLLABORATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES.] The family services collaborative shall have the following authority and responsibilities regarding federal revenue enhancement:

(1) the family services collaborative shall be the party with which the commissioner contracts. A lead county shall be designated as the fiscal agency for reporting, claiming, and receiving payments;

(2) the family services collaboratives may enter into subcontracts with other counties, school districts, special education cooperatives, municipalities, and other public and nonprofit entities for purposes of identifying and claiming eligible expenditures to enhance federal reimbursement, or to expand education, social, health, or health-related services to families and children;

(3) the family services collaborative must continue the base level of expenditures for education, social, health, or health-related services to families and children from any state, county, federal, or other public or private funding source which, in the absence of the new federal reimbursement earned under this subdivision, would have been available for those services, except as provided in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (4). The base year for purposes of this subdivision shall be the four-quarter calendar year ending at least two calendar quarters before the first calendar quarter in which the new federal reimbursement is earned;

(4) the family services collaborative must use all new federal reimbursement resulting from federal revenue enhancement to expand expenditures for education, social, health, or health-related services to families and children beyond the base level, except as provided in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (4);

(5) the family services collaborative must ensure that expenditures submitted for federal reimbursement are not made from federal funds or funds used to match other federal funds. Notwithstanding section 256B.19, subdivision 1, for the purposes of family services collaborative expenditures under agreement with the department, the nonfederal share of costs shall be provided by the family services collaborative from sources other than federal funds or funds used to match other federal funds;

(6) the family services collaborative must develop and maintain an accounting and financial management system adequate to support all claims for federal reimbursement, including a clear audit trail and any provisions specified in the agreement; and

(7) the family services collaborative shall submit an annual report to the commissioner as specified in the agreement.

Sec. 7. [PARTNERSHIP PLANNING TEAM AND FAMILY ADVISORY GROUP.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of children, families, and learning shall select not more than 15 persons knowledgeable about serving children and families to serve on the partnership planning team.

At least eight members must be parents and must represent a broad cross-section of income groups, racial and ethnic groups, and ages of children. The partnership planning team must include representatives from community-based organizations serving primarily communities of color, county boards, school boards, community action agencies, private industry councils, and other community-based organizations.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The team shall advise the commissioner in the following areas:

(1) structure of the department;

(2) appropriate department advisory board structure;

(3) the appropriateness of specific applications for funding consolidation and the consistency of those applications with the purposes of chapter 119A;

(4) potential funding reductions; and

(5) technical refinements to the legislation establishing the new department and funding consolidation.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The team must also provide a report to the 1996 legislature that describes the new department structure, provides a summary of the ways in which the department is fulfilling the purposes and achieving the goals specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 119A.01, and provides a recommendation for technical refinements related to the legislation creating the department.

Sec. 8. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT; ALLOWING CONSOLIDATION OF COUNTY PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION FOR DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.] The commissioners of human services; corrections; health; and children, families, and learning shall allow counties to consolidate the plans required under Minnesota Statutes, chapters 145A, 256E, and 401, into one plan, to be submitted to those commissioners.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONERS.] The several commissioners shall work together and shall work with the counties participating in the pilot project when developing the single county plan. Each commissioner shall also provide technical assistance to the county, if requested by the county.

Subd. 3. [INTEGRATED COUNTY PLANNING.] The counties participating in the pilot project may submit one plan consolidating the community health, community social services, and community corrections plans required under Minnesota Statutes, chapters 145A, 256E, and 401, respectively. County boards, corrections advisory boards, community health boards, community action agencies, private industry councils, and school districts shall collaborate in planning for and providing a continuum of services in each county.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY PLAN.] The plan must comply with federal requirements. The plan may be submitted to the commissioners by computer. The plan must be a three-part plan in that it must provide a summary of:

(1) intra-county collaboration;

(2) collaboration with other service providers; and

(3) collaboration with local nonprofit organizations, including churches and ecumenical organizations.

The two parts of the plan shall each provide information on the existence or nonexistence of efforts to integrate funding, collaborate governance, cross-train, coordinate information gathering and management, and provide a one-stop service center or community-based service delivery system to improve the provision of services offered to children and families. The plan must also address the barriers to collaboration.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.] For purposes of this section, the several commissioners shall provide one consolidated report to the legislature by January 1, 1996. The report shall evaluate the pilot counties' single plan and shall provide the advantages and problems with consolidating the plans.

Sec. 9. [REPORT ON STRUCTURE OF AGENCIES.]

The commissioner of administration in separate consultation with the commissioners of the departments of human services, health, corrections, public safety, housing finance, and the office of strategic and long-range planning shall prepare a report by February 15, 1996, examining the organization of programs remaining in those departments after transfer of the programs identified in this bill, and identifying alternative organizational structures that may be more effective and efficient than the organization prior to the transfer.

Sec. 10. [WORKER PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that the reorganization of state agencies, including the abolishment of agencies or their functions and the merger of agency functions to the extent possible, makes the best use of affected agency employees and improves the direct service capabilities of state employees to provide public services to citizens of the state and to customers of the agency. To assure that quality services are delivered to citizens of Minnesota, appointing authorities shall comply with this section.

Subd. 2. [RESTRUCTURING PROVISIONS.] The restructuring of agencies required by this act must be conducted in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, sections 15.039 and 43A.045.

Subd. 3. [WORKER PARTICIPATION COMMITTEES.] (a) After the commissioner-designate of children, families, and learning has been appointed, before the restructuring of executive branch agencies under this act, a labor and management committee including representatives of employees and employers must be established and given adequate time to perform the activities prescribed by paragraph (b). Each exclusive representative of employees shall select a committee member from each of its bargaining units in each affected agency. The head of each agency shall select an employee member from each unit of employees not represented by an exclusive representative. The agency head shall also appoint one or more committee members to represent the agency. The number of members appointed by the agency head, however, may not exceed the total number of members selected by exclusive representatives. The labor and management committee must be participatory and nonauthoritarian. Exclusive representatives must be directly involved in the work of the committee.

(b) The committee established under paragraph (a) shall:

(1) in cooperation with the commissioner of education and the commissioner-designate, review and reevaluate the powers and duties of the department of education and identify those that are consistent with the purpose and goals of the department of children, families, and learning;

(2) identify tasks related to agency reorganization and adopt plans for addressing those tasks;

(3) identify other employer and employee issues related to reorganization and adopt plans for addressing those issues;

(4) adopt plans for implementing this act, including detailed plans for providing retraining for affected employees; and

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYEE JOB SECURITY.] The head of an agency that is scheduled to be restructured shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representatives of affected employees of the agency in the event that employees are at risk of being laid off due to restructuring or significant change in the activities of the agency. Bargaining under this subdivision must have as its purpose the achievement of the highest possible degree of public service delivery to the citizens of Minnesota and the provision of appropriate incentives to state employees. Incentives may include, but are not limited to, early retirement incentives, negotiated options in place of layoff, methods to mitigate layoffs and the effect of layoffs, job training and retraining opportunities, and enhanced severance.

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYEE TRAINING AND RETRAINING.] The legislature recognizes that a well-trained and well-educated work force is needed to provide effective and efficient public service delivery and that training and retraining of state employees is a priority when merger and reorganization of state agencies occur. The labor and management committee required by subdivision 2 shall determine the employee training and retraining required because of agency reorganization. Employees whose job duties are affected by reorganization must be given the opportunity to take part in training or retraining for the new job duties. Existing employees must be trained or retrained for agency positions before new hiring takes place.

Sec. 11. [APPOINTMENT; TRANSFERS OF EDUCATION FUNCTIONS.]

By July 1, 1995, the governor shall appoint a commissioner-designate of the department of children, families, and learning. Mr. Riveness then moved to amend S.F. No. 1246 as follows:

"ARTICLE 11 PILOT PROJECTS

Section 1. [PURPOSE.]

The purpose of articles 11 and 12 is to make government work better and cost less. To accomplish this purpose, articles 11 and 12 establish incentives for state and local employees to act in a manner that provides the best and most efficient services to the public. Articles 11 and 12 also remove barriers that currently discourage state and local agencies from taking innovative approaches to improving services and achieving cost savings.

Sec. 2. [HUMAN RESOURCES SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The legislature reaffirms its commitment to an efficient and effective merit-based human resources system that meets the management needs of the state and that meets the program needs of the people of the state. The purpose of this section is to establish a process to ensure the continuation of merit-based principles, while removing rules and procedures that cause unnecessary inefficiencies in the state human resources system.

Subd. 2. [PILOT PROJECT.] During the biennium ending June 30, 1997, the governor shall designate an executive agency that will conduct a pilot civil service project. The pilot program must adhere to the policies expressed in subdivision 1 and in Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.01. For the purposes of conducting the pilot project, the commissioner of the designated agency is exempt from the provisions that relate to employment in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 43A, Minnesota Rules, chapter 3900, and administrative procedures and policies of the department of employee relations. If a proposed exemption from the provisions that relate to employment in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 43A, Minnesota Rules, chapter 3900, and administrative procedures and policies of the department of employee relations would violate the terms of a collective bargaining agreement effective under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 179A, the exemption is not effective without the consent of the exclusive representative that is a party to the agreement. Upon request of the commissioner carrying out the pilot project, the commissioner of employee relations shall provide technical assistance in support of the pilot project. This section does not exempt an agency from compliance with Minnesota Statutes, sections 43A.19 and 43A.191, or from rules adopted to implement those sections.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of employee relations, in consultation with the agency selected in subdivision 2, shall design and implement a system for evaluating the success of the pilot project in subdivision 2. The system specifically must:

(1) evaluate the extent to which the agency has been successful in maintaining a merit-based human resources system in the absence of the traditional civil service rules and procedures;

(2) quantify time and money saved in the hiring process under the pilot project as compared to hiring under the traditional rules and procedures; and

The agency involved in the pilot project under this section and the department of employee relations shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1997, and January 1, 1998, on the progress and results of the project. The report must include at least the elements required in this subdivision, and must also make recommendations for legislative changes needed to ensure the state will have the most efficient and effective merit-based human resources system possible.

Subd. 4. [WORKING GROUP.] The governor shall appoint a stakeholder working group to advise the agency selected in subdivision 2 and the commissioner of employee relations on implementation of the pilot project under this section. The group must include not more than 15 people, and must include:

(1) not more than five representatives of management of the agency selected for the pilot project;

(2) not more than five representatives of exclusive representatives of the agency selected by the pilot project, chosen by the exclusive representatives, provided that the number of representatives under this clause may not be less than the number of management representatives under clause (1);

(3) up to three representatives of customers of the services provided by the agency selected for the pilot project; and

(4) up to two representatives of nonprofit citizens' organizations devoted to the study and improvement of government services.

Subd. 5. [PILOT PROJECT.] During the biennium ending June 30, 1997, the human resources innovation committee established under Laws 1993, chapter 301, section 1, subdivision 6, shall designate state job classifications to be included in a pilot project. Under this pilot project: (1) resumes of applicants for positions to be filled through a competitive open process will be evaluated through an objective computerized system that will identify which applicants have the required skills; and (2) information on applicants determined to have required skills will be forwarded to the agency seeking to fill a vacancy, without ranking these applicants, and without a limit on the number of applicants that may be forwarded to the hiring agency. Laws or rules that govern examination, ranking of eligibles, and certification of eligibles for competitive open positions do not apply to job classifications included in the pilot project. Before designating a job classification under this subdivision, the committee must assure that the hiring process for those job classifications complies with the policies in subdivision 1.

Subd. 6. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of employee relations, in consultation with the human resources innovation committee, shall design and implement a system for evaluating the success of the pilot project in subdivision 5. By January 1, 1997, and January 1, 1998, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the pilot project. The report must:

- (1) list job classifications subject to the pilot project, and the number of positions filled under these job classes;
- (2) evaluate the extent to which the project has been successful in maintaining a merit-based system in the absence of traditional civil service laws and rules;
- (3) quantify time and money saved in the hiring process under the pilot project, as compared to hiring under the traditional laws and rules;
- (4) document the extent of complaints or problems arising under the new system; and
- (5) recommend any changes in laws or rules needed to make permanent the successes of the pilot project.

Subd. 7. [EXTENSION.] Laws 1993, chapter 301, section 1, subdivision 6, is not repealed until June 30, 1997.

Subd. 8. [REPEALER.] Minnesota Rules, parts 3900.0100 to 3900.4700 and 3900.6100 to 3900.9100, and all administrative procedures of the department of employee relations that control the manner in which state agencies hire employees, are repealed on June 30, 1999.

Sec. 3. [GAINSHARING.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature recognizes state employees as crucial resources in providing effective and efficient government services to the people of Minnesota. The legislature believes that state employees should benefit from successful efforts they make to improve government efficiency and effectiveness.

Subd. 2. [PILOT PROJECT.] During the biennium ending June 30, 1997, the department of employee relations shall implement a system of incentives, including economic incentives for unrepresented employees, for employees in the department. The system must be approved by the commissioner of finance before being implemented. The system must have the following characteristics:

- (1) it must provide nonmanagerial unrepresented employees within the agency the possibility of earning economic rewards by suggesting changes in operation of the department's programs;
- (2) it must provide groups of nonmanagerial represented employees within the agency the possibility of receiving group rewards in the form of training opportunities, additional employee complement, or other resources that benefit overall group performance;
- (3) any economic awards must be based on changes in operations suggested by nonmanagerial employees that result in objectively measurable cost savings of at least $25,000 or significant and objectively measurable efficiencies in services that the agency provides to its customers or clients, without decreasing the quality of these services;
- (4) awards must be a minimum of $500 to a maximum of $2,500 a year to unrepresented nonmanagerial employees who were instrumental in identifying and implementing the efficiency and cost-saving measures;
- (5) an "efficiency savings account," consisting of money saved directly as a result of initiatives under this section, must be created within each fund that is used to provide money for department services and must be used to pay any awards under this section;
- (6) no award may be given except upon approval of a team composed of equal numbers of management and nonmanagement employees selected by the commissioner of employee relations from state employees outside of the department; and
- (7) the economic awards granted to unrepresented employees must be one-time awards, and may not add to the base salary of employees.

Subd. 3. [REPORTING.] The commissioner of employee relations shall report to the legislature on January 1, 1997, and January 1, 1998, on the progress and results of the incentive programs under this section. The reports must include:

(1) a description of the measurable cost savings and in-agency services that were used as the basis for rewards; and

Sec. 4. [PROCUREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The primary purpose of the laws governing state contracting is to ensure that state agencies obtain high quality goods and services at the least cost and in the most efficient and effective manner. The purpose of this section is to establish a process to ensure that agencies obtain goods and services in this manner, while removing rules and procedures that cause unnecessary inefficiencies in the purchasing system.

Subd. 2. [PILOT PROJECT.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the governor shall designate an executive agency that, during the biennium ending June 30, 1997, is exempt from any procurement-related law, rule, or administrative procedure before an agency enters into a contract. The agency selected in this section shall establish a process for obtaining goods and services that complies with the policies in subdivision 1. The process must include guidelines to prevent conflicts of interest for agency employees involved in developing bid specifications or proposals, evaluating bids or proposals, entering into contracts, or evaluating the performance of a contractor. The guidelines must attempt to ensure that such an employee:

(1) does not have any financial interest in and does not personally benefit from the contract;

(2) does not accept from a contractor or bidder any promise, obligation, contract for future reward, or gift, other than an item of nominal value; and

(3) does not appear to have a conflict of interest because of a family or close personal relationship to a contractor or bidder, or because of a past employment or business relationship with a contractor or bidder.

Upon request of the agency, the department of administration shall provide the agency technical assistance in designing such a process.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of administration, in consultation with the agency selected in subdivision 2, shall design and implement a system for evaluating the success of the pilot project in subdivision 2. The system specifically must:

(1) evaluate the extent to which the agency has been successful in obtaining high quality goods and services at the least cost in the absence of the traditional checks placed on agencies by laws, rules, and procedures administered by the commissioner of administration;

(2) quantify time and money saved in the procurement process under the pilot project as compared to purchasing goods and services under the traditional rules and procedures; and

The agency involved in the pilot project under this section and the commissioner of administration shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1997, and January 1, 1998, on the progress and results of the project. The reports must include at least the elements required in clauses (1) to (3) and must also make recommendations for legislative changes needed to ensure that the state will have the most efficient and effective system possible for purchasing goods and services.

Sec. 5. [UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA CONTRACTING.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the governor shall designate one executive agency that will work with the University of Minnesota to develop more efficient and effective procedures for state agencies to contract with the University of Minnesota. Consideration must be given to using a single agency and a single set of administrative procedures for all state contracting with the University. As part of its 1998-1999 biennial budget request, the University of Minnesota shall include measures demonstrating the efficiency gained through these procedures and any recommendations for further improvements.

Sec. 6. [PRESERVATION OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 5 or article 12 authorizes the unilateral modification or abrogation of a right under a collective bargaining agreement. The legislature affirmatively encourages state agencies and bargaining units, when negotiating future agreements, to allow for participation in pilot projects that foster innovation, creativity, and productivity within the state human resource system and within individual agencies, departments, or units thereof.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 12BOARD OF INNOVATION*Section 1. [465.7971] [WAIVERS OF STATE RULES; POLICIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] A state agency may apply to the board for a waiver from: (1) an administrative rule or policy adopted by the department of employee relations that deals with the state personnel system; (2) an administrative rule or policy of the department of administration that deals with the state procurement system; or (3) a policy of the department of finance that deals with the state accounting system. Two or more state agencies may submit a joint application. A waiver application must identify the rule or policy at issue, and must describe the improved outcome sought through the waiver.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW PROCESS.] (a) The board shall review all applications submitted under this section. The board shall dismiss an application if it finds that the application proposes a waiver that would result in due process violations, violations of federal law or the state or federal constitution, or the loss of services to people who are entitled to them. If a proposed waiver would violate the terms of a collective bargaining agreement effective under chapter 179A, the waiver is not effective without the consent of the exclusive representative that is a party to the agreement. The board may approve a waiver only if the board determines that if the waiver is granted: (1) services can be provided in a more efficient or effective manner; and (2) services related to human resources must be provided in a manner consistent with the policies expressed in article 2, section 1, and in section 43A.01 and services related to procurement must be provided in a manner consistent with the policies expressed in article 4, section 1. In the case of a waiver from a policy of the department of finance, the board may approve the waiver only if it determines that services will be provided in a more efficient or effective manner and that state funds will be adequately accounted for and safeguarded in a manner that complies with generally accepted government accounting principles.

(b) Within 15 days of receipt of the application, the board shall send a copy of the application to: (1) the agency whose rule or policy is involved; and (2) all exclusive representatives who represent employees of the agency requesting the waiver. The agency whose rule or policy is involved may mail a copy of the application to all persons who have registered with the agency under section 14.14, subdivision 1a.

(c) The agency whose rule or policy is involved or an exclusive representative shall notify the board of its agreement with or objection to and grounds for objection to the waiver within 60 days of the date when the application was transmitted to the agency or the exclusive representative. An agency's or exclusive representative's failure to do so is considered agreement to the waiver.

(d) If the agency or the exclusive representative objects to the waiver, the board shall schedule a meeting at which the agency requesting the waiver may present its case for the waiver and the objecting party may respond. The board shall decide whether to grant a waiver at its next regularly scheduled meeting following its receipt of an agency's response, or the end of the 60-day response period, whichever occurs first. If consideration of an application is not concluded at the meeting, the matter may be carried over to the next meeting of the board. Interested persons may submit written comments to the board on the waiver request.

(e) If the board grants a request for a waiver, the board and the agency requesting the waiver shall enter into an agreement relating to the outcomes desired as a result of the waiver and the means of measurement to determine whether those outcomes have been achieved with the waiver. The agreement must specify the duration of the waiver, which must be for at least two years and not more than four years. If the board determines that an agency to which a waiver is granted is failing to comply with the terms of the agreement, the board may rescind the agreement.

Subd. 3. [BOARD.] For purposes of evaluating waiver requests involving rules or policies of the department of administration, the chief administrative law judge shall appoint a third administrative law judge to replace the commissioner of administration on the board.

343.235 [DISPOSITION OF SEIZED ANIMALS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] An animal taken into custody under section 343.22 or 343.29 may be humanely disposed of at the discretion of the jurisdiction having custody of the animal ~~seven ten~~ days after the animal is taken into custody, provided that the procedures in subdivision 3 are followed. An animal raised for food or fiber products shall not be seized or disposed of without prior examination by a licensed veterinarian pursuant to a warrant issued by a judge.

Subd. 2. [SECURITY.] A person claiming an interest in an animal in custody under subdivision 1 may prevent disposition of the animal by posting a ~~bond or~~ security in an amount sufficient to provide for the animal's actual costs of care and keeping ~~for at least 30 days, inclusive of the date on which the animal was taken into custody. Even if a bond or security is posted, the authority having custody of the animal may humanely dispose of the animal at the end of the time for which expenses of care and keeping are covered by the bond or security, unless there is a court order prohibiting the disposition. The order must provide for a bond or other security in the amount necessary to protect the authority having custody of the animal from any cost of the care, keeping, or disposal of the animal. The security must be posted within ten days of the seizure inclusive of the date of the seizure.~~

Subd. 3. [NOTICE; RIGHT TO HEARING.] (a) The authority taking custody of an animal under section 343.22 or 343.29 shall give notice of this section by delivering or mailing it to a person claiming an interest in the animal or by posting a copy of it at the place where the animal is taken into custody or by delivering it to a person residing on the property, and telephoning, if possible. The notice must include:

(1) a description of the animal seized; the authority and purpose for the seizure; the time, place, and circumstances under which the animal was seized; and the location, address, telephone number, and contact person where the animal is kept;

(2) a statement that a person claiming an interest in the animal may post security to prevent disposition of the animal and may request a hearing concerning the seizure or impoundment and that failure to do so within ten days of the date of the notice will result in disposition of the animal; and

(3) a statement that all actual costs of the care, keeping, and disposal of the animal are the responsibility of the person claiming an interest in the animal, except to the extent that a court or hearing officer finds that the seizure or impoundment was not substantially justified by law.

The notice must also include a form that can be used by a person claiming an interest in the animal for requesting a hearing under this subdivision.

(b) Upon request of a person claiming an interest in the animal, which request must be made within ten days of the date of seizure, a hearing must be held within five business days of the request, to determine the validity of the seizure and impoundment. If the seizure was done pursuant to a warrant under section 343.22, the hearing must be conducted by the judge who issued the warrant. If the seizure was done under section 343.29, the municipality taking custody of the animal or, in the case of a humane society, the municipality from which the animal was seized, may either (1) authorize a licensed veterinarian with no financial interest in the matter or professional association with either party or (2) use the services of a hearing officer to conduct the hearing. A person claiming an interest in the animal who is aggrieved by a decision of a hearing officer under this subdivision may seek a court order governing the seizure or impoundment within five days of notice of the order.

(c) The judge or hearing officer may authorize the return of the animal, if the judge or hearing officer finds that:

(1) the animal is physically fit; and

(2) the person claiming an interest in the animal can and will provide the care required by law for the animal.

(d) The person claiming an interest in the animal is liable for all actual costs of care, keeping, and disposal of the animal, except to the extent that a court or hearing officer finds that the seizure or impoundment was not substantially justified by law. The costs must be paid in full or a mutually satisfactory arrangement for payment must be made between the municipality and the person claiming an interest in the animal before return of the animal to the person.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 343.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DELIVERY TO SHELTER.] Any peace officer, animal control officer, or agent of the federation or county or district societies for the prevention of cruelty, may remove, shelter, and care for any animal which is not properly sheltered from cold, hot, or inclement weather or any animal not properly fed and watered, or provided with suitable food and drink in circumstances that threaten the life of the animal. When necessary, a peace officer, animal control officer, or agent may deliver the animal to another person to be sheltered and cared for, and furnished with suitable food and drink. In all cases, the owner, if known, shall be immediately notified as provided in section 343.235, subdivision 3, and the person having possession of the animal, shall have a lien thereon for its actual costs of care and keeping and the expenses of the notice. If the owner or custodian is unknown and cannot by reasonable effort be ascertained, or does not, within seven ten days after notice, redeem the animal by paying the expenses authorized by this subdivision, the animal may be disposed of as provided in section 343.235."

If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state. For the purposes of this section, services provided to a corporation, partnership, or trust may only be attributed to a state in which it has a fixed place of doing business. If the extent to which the benefits of services are consumed in this state where the services are received is not readily determinable, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed received at the location of the office of the customer from which the services were ordered in the regular course of the customer's trade or business. If the ordering office cannot be determined, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed received at the office of the customer to which the services are billed.

~~(m)~~ (p) Receipts from the issuance of travelers checks and money orders must be attributed to the state in which the checks and money orders are purchased.

~~(n)~~ (q) Receipts from investments of a financial institution in securities and from money market instruments must be apportioned to this state based on the ratio that total deposits from this state, its residents, including any business with an office or other place of business in this state, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities bear to the total deposits from all states, their residents, their political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities. In the case of an unregulated financial institution subject to this section, these receipts are apportioned to this state based on the ratio that its gross business income, excluding such receipts, earned from sources within this state bears to gross business income, excluding such receipts, earned from sources within all states. For purposes of this subdivision, deposits made by this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities must be attributed to this state, whether or not the deposits are accepted or maintained by the taxpayer at locations are attributed to this state if the investments are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state.

The taxpayer has the burden of proving that investments of a financial institution in securities and from money market instruments are properly assigned to a regular place of business outside this state. Where the day-to-day decisions regarding an investment occur at more than one regular place of business, the investment is considered to be located at the regular place of business of the taxpayer where the investment or trading policies and guidelines with respect to the investment are established.

~~(o)~~ (r) A financial institution's interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the receipts factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included in paragraph (n) (q).

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 290.191, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS; PROPERTY FACTOR.] (a) For financial institutions, the property factor includes, as well as tangible property, intangible property as set forth in this subdivision.

(b) Intangible personal property must be included at its tax basis for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Goodwill must not be included in the property factor.

(d) Coin and currency located in this state must be attributed to this state must not be included in the property factor.

(e) Lease financing receivables must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the property is located the receivables are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state.

(f) Assets in the nature of loans that are secured by real or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the security property is located the loans are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state.

(g) Assets in the nature of consumer loans and installment obligations that are unsecured or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the loan was made to a resident of this state.

(h) Assets in the nature of commercial loan and installment obligations that are unsecured by real or tangible personal property or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the assets must be attributed to the state in which there is located the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) A participating financial institution's portion of participation and syndication loans must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h) and (f).

(j) (h) Financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables must be attributed to the state to which the credit card charges and fees are regularly billed if the receivables are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within the state.

(k) (i) Receivables arising from merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant are attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and without the state, only receivables from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer if the receivables are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within the state.

(l) (j) Assets in the nature of securities and money market instruments are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that total deposits from this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities bear to the total deposits from all states, their residents, their political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities. In the case of an unregulated financial institution, the assets are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that its gross business income earned from sources within this state bears to gross business income earned from sources within all states. For purposes of this paragraph, deposits made by this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities are attributed to this state, whether or not the deposits are accepted or maintained by the taxpayer at locations within this state must not be included in the property factor.

(m) (k) A financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the property factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under paragraph (l) must not be included in the property factor.

(l) For the purposes of paragraphs (e) to (i), loan assets and receivables are properly assigned in this state if the preponderance of substantive contact occurred in this state. In determining where the preponderance of substantive contact occurred, the following consideration should be given:

(1) solicitation;

(3) negotiation;

(4) approval; and

If a municipality is located partly within and partly without the area, the references in sections 473F.01 to 473F.13 to property or any portion thereof subject to taxation or taxing jurisdiction within the municipality are to such property or portion thereof as is located in that portion of the municipality within the area, except that the fiscal capacity of such a municipality shall be computed upon the basis of the valuation and population of the entire municipality.

~~A municipality shall be excluded from the area if its municipal comprehensive zoning and planning policies conscientiously exclude most commercial industrial development, for reasons other than preserving an agricultural use. The metropolitan council and the commissioner of revenue shall jointly make this determination annually and shall notify those municipalities that are ineligible to participate in the tax base sharing program provided in this chapter for the following year.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION OF NET TAX CAPACITY.] The net tax capacity of a governmental unit is its net tax capacity, as determined in accordance with other provisions of law including section 469.177, subdivision 3, subject to the following adjustments:

(a) There shall be subtracted from its net tax capacity its excess homestead growth net tax capacity, plus, in each municipality in which the governmental unit exercises ad valorem taxing jurisdiction, an amount which bears the same proportion to 40 percent of the amount certified in that year under sections 473F.06 and 473F.07 for the municipality as the total preceding year's net tax capacity of commercial-industrial property which is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the governmental unit within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3, bears to equal to the municipality's contribution percentage times the total preceding year's net tax capacity of commercial-industrial property within the jurisdiction and within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3;

(b) There shall be added to its net tax capacity, in each municipality in which the governmental unit exercises ad valorem taxing jurisdiction, an amount which bears the same proportion to the areawide net tax capacity for the year attributable to that municipality as the total preceding year's net tax capacity of residential property which is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the governmental unit within the municipality bears to the total preceding year's net tax capacity of residential property of the municipality.

The tax rate determined in accordance with subdivision 4 shall apply in the taxation of the remainder of the net tax capacity of the item property.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [APPLICATION TO HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] Each county assessor shall determine each municipality's "excess homestead areawide ratio" as the excess homestead growth net tax capacity reported under section 473F.05 divided by the excess homestead net tax capacity for the current year. The areawide tax rate determined under subdivision 5 shall apply to that portion of the excess homestead net tax capacity of each homestead property in the municipality equal to the excess homestead areawide ratio. The tax rate determined in accordance with subdivision 4 shall apply in the taxation of the remainder of the net tax capacity of the property.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 473F.08, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [FISCAL DISPARITIES ADJUSTMENT.] In any year in which the highest class rate for class 3a property changes from the rate in the previous year, the following adjustments shall be made to the procedures described in sections 473F.06 to 473F.08.

(1) An initial contribution tax capacity shall be determined for each municipality based on the previous year's class rates.

(3) Each jurisdiction's distribution levy shall be determined by applying the procedures described in subdivision 3, clause (a), to the distribution tax capacity determined pursuant to clause (2).

(4) Each municipality's final contribution tax capacity shall be determined equal to as its excess homestead growth net tax capacity plus that portion of its initial contribution tax capacity attributable to commercial-industrial property multiplied by the ratio of the new highest class rate for class 3a property to the previous year's highest class rate for class 3a property.

(5) For the purposes of computing education aids and any other state aids requiring the addition of the fiscal disparities distribution tax capacity to the local tax capacity, each municipality's final distribution tax capacity shall be determined equal to its initial distribution tax capacity multiplied by the ratio of the new highest class rate for class 3a property to the previous year's highest class rate for class 3a property areawide total final contribution tax capacity to the areawide total initial contribution net tax capacity.

(6) The areawide tax rate shall be determined by dividing the sum of the amounts determined in clause (3) by the sum of the values determined in clause (4).

Sec. 12. [CONFLICTING PROVISIONS.]

If a bill designated as H.F. No. 1156 is enacted into law, and if that bill dedicates a portion of a municipality's net tax capacity to providing revenues for specific purposes, then "excess homestead growth net tax capacity," as defined in section 5, must exclude any net tax capacity dedicated to a specific purpose by H.F. No. 1156.

Sec. 13. [PROPERTY TAX RELIEF REQUIREMENT.]

Subd. 3. For taxes payable in 1997 only, any county, city, or town which has a net distribution net tax capacity which is both greater than zero and greater than its net distribution net tax capacity for taxes payable in 1996 may not certify a levy for taxes payable in 1997 that causes its tax rate to exceed its tax rate for taxes payable in 1996, reduced by its tax rate reduction percentage.

Sec. 14. [APPLICATION.]

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

If the rule adopted is the same as the proposed rule, publication may be made by publishing notice in the State Register that the rule has been adopted as proposed and by citing the prior publication. If the rule adopted differs from the proposed rule, the portions of the adopted rule which differ from the proposed rule shall be included in the notice of adoption together with a citation to the prior State Register publication of the remainder of the proposed rule. After this period, the action of the county board is final, subject to appeal as provided in chapter 14.

(c) For the purpose of administration of rules adopted under this subdivision, the commissioner and the agency may provide exceptions for cases where the owner of a feedlot has specific written plans to close the feedlot within five years. These exceptions include waiving requirements for major capital improvements.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, a discharge caused by an extraordinary natural event such as a precipitation event of greater magnitude than the 25-year, 24-hour event, tornado, or flood in excess of the 100-year flood is not a "direct discharge of pollutants."

(e) In adopting and enforcing rules under this subdivision, the commissioner shall cooperate closely with other governmental agencies.

(f) The pollution control agency shall work with the Minnesota extension service, the department of agriculture, the board of water and soil resources, producer groups, local units of government, as well as with appropriate federal agencies such as the Soil Conservation Service and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, to notify and educate producers of rules under this subdivision at the time the rules are being developed and adopted and at least every two years thereafter.

A feedlot permit is not required for livestock feedlots with less than 50 animal units. The filed objection must contain a concise statement of the commission's reasons for its action. An objection to a proposed rule submitted under section 14.15, subdivision 4, or 14.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), may not be filed before the rule is adopted.

(b) The secretary of state shall affix to each objection a certification of the date and time of its filing and as soon after the objection is filed as practicable shall transmit a certified copy of it to the agency issuing the rule in question and the revisor of statutes. The secretary of state shall also maintain a permanent register open to public inspection of all objections by the commission.

(c) The legislative commission to review administrative rules shall publish and index an objection filed under this section in the next issue of the State Register. The revisor of statutes shall indicate its existence adjacent to the rule in question when that rule is published in Minnesota Rules.

(d) Within 14 days after the filing of an objection by the commission to a rule, the issuing agency shall respond in writing to the commission. After receipt of the response, the commission may withdraw or modify its objection.

(e) After the filing of an objection by the commission that is not subsequently withdrawn, the burden is upon the agency in any proceeding for judicial review or for enforcement of the rule to establish that the whole or portion of the rule objected to is valid.

(f) The failure of the commission to object to a rule is not an implied legislative authorization of its validity.

(g) Pursuant to sections 14.44 and 14.45, the commission may petition for a declaratory judgment to determine the validity of any rule objected to by the commission.

This action must be started within two years after an objection is filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(h) The commission may intervene in litigation arising from agency action. For purposes of this paragraph, agency action means the whole or part of a rule, or the failure to issue a rule.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 4A.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEES.] The director shall set fees under section ~~16A.128, subdivision 2,~~ 16A.1285 reflecting the actual costs of providing the center's information products and services to clients.

Fees collected must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the land management information center revolving account. Money in the account is appropriated to the director for operation of the land management information system, including the cost of services, supplies, materials, labor, and equipment, as well as the portion of the general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the office that is attributable to the land management information system. The director may require a state agency to make an advance payment to the revolving fund sufficient to cover the agency's estimated obligation for a period of 60 days or more. If the revolving fund is abolished or liquidated, the total net profit from operations must be distributed to the funds from which purchases were made. The amount to be distributed to each fund must bear to the net profit the same ratio as the total purchases from each fund bear to the total purchases from all the funds during a period of time that fairly reflects the amount of net profit each fund is entitled to receive under this distribution.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.04, is amended to read:

14.04 [AGENCY ORGANIZATION; GUIDEBOOK.]

To assist interested persons dealing with it, each agency shall, in a manner prescribed by the commissioner of administration, prepare a description of its organization, stating the process whereby general course and method of its operations and where and how the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests. The commissioner of administration shall publish these descriptions at least once every four years commencing in 1981 in a guidebook of state agencies. Notice of the publication of the guidebook shall be published in the State Register and given in newsletters, newspapers, or other publications, or through other means of communication.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY TO MODIFY PROPOSED RULE.] (a) An agency may modify a proposed rule in accordance with the procedures of the administrative procedure act. However, an agency may not modify a proposed rule so that it is substantially different from the proposed rule in the notice of intent to adopt rules or notice of hearing.

(b) A modification does not make a proposed rule substantially different if:

(1) the differences are within the scope of the matter announced in the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing and are in character with the issues raised in that notice;

(2) the differences are a logical outgrowth of the contents of the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing and the comments submitted in response to the notice; and

(3) the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing provided fair warning that the outcome of that rulemaking proceeding could be the rule in question.

(c) In determining whether the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing provided fair warning that the outcome of that rulemaking proceeding could be the rule in question the following factors must be considered:

(1) the extent to which persons who will be affected by the rule should have understood that the rulemaking proceeding on which it is based could affect their interests;

(2) the extent to which the subject matter of the rule or issues determined by the rule are different from the subject matter or issues contained in the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing; and

(3) the extent to which the effects of the rule differ from the effects of the proposed rule contained in the notice of intent to adopt or notice of hearing.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW AND REPEAL OF RULES.] By December 1 of each year, an agency shall submit a list of all the rules of the agency to the governor, the legislative commission to review administrative rules, and the revisor of statutes. The list must identify any rules that are obsolete and should be repealed. The list must also include an explanation of why the rule is obsolete and the agency's timetable for repeal.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.06, is amended to read:

14.06 [REQUIRED RULES.]

(a) Each agency shall adopt rules, in the form prescribed by the revisor of statutes, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures related to the administration of official agency duties to the extent that those procedures directly affect the rights of or procedures available to the public.

(b) Upon the request of any person, and as soon as feasible and to the extent practicable, each agency shall adopt rules to supersede those principles of law or policy lawfully declared by the agency as the basis for its decisions in particular cases it intends to rely on as precedents in future cases. This paragraph does not apply to the public utilities commission.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.08, is amended to read:

14.08 [~~REVISOR OF STATUTES~~ APPROVAL OF RULE AND RULE FORM; COSTS.]

(a) Two copies of a rule adopted pursuant to ~~the provisions of section 14.26 or 14.32~~ shall be submitted by the agency to the ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge. The ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge shall send one copy of the rule to the revisor on the same day as it is submitted by the agency under section 14.26 ~~or 14.32~~. Within five days after receipt of the rule, excluding weekends and holidays, the revisor shall either return the rule with a certificate of approval of the form of the rule to the ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge or notify the ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge and the agency that the form of the rule will not be approved.

If the ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge disapproves a rule, the agency may modify it and the agency shall submit two copies of the modified rule to the ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge who shall send a copy to the revisor for approval as to form as described in this paragraph.

(b) One copy of a rule adopted after a public hearing shall be submitted by the agency to the revisor for approval of the form of the rule. Within five working days after receipt of the rule, the revisor shall either return the rule with a certificate of approval to the agency or notify the agency that the form of the rule will not be approved.

(c) If the revisor refuses to approve the form of the rule, the revisor's notice shall revise the rule so it is in the correct form.

(d) The ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge shall assess an agency for the ~~attorney general's~~ actual cost of processing rules under this section. ~~The agency shall pay the attorney general's assessments using the procedures of section 8.15.~~ Each agency shall include in its budget money to pay the ~~attorney general's~~ assessments. Receipts from the assessment must be deposited in the ~~state treasury and credited to the general fund~~ administrative hearings account created in section 14.54.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.09, is amended to read:

14.09 [PETITION FOR ADOPTION OF RULE.]

Any interested person may petition an agency requesting the adoption, ~~suspension~~, amendment, or repeal of any rule. The petition shall be specific as to what action is requested and the need for the action. Upon receiving a petition an agency shall have 60 days in which to make a specific and detailed reply in writing as to its planned disposition of the request and the reasons for its planned disposition of the request. If the agency states its intention to hold a public hearing on the subject of the request, it shall proceed according to sections 14.05 to 14.36 ~~14.28~~. The ~~attorney general~~ chief administrative law judge shall prescribe by rule the form for all petitions under this section and may prescribe further procedures for their submission, consideration, and disposition.

Sec. 11. [14.101] [ADVICE ON POSSIBLE RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED NOTICE.] In addition to seeking information by other methods designed to reach persons or classes of persons who might be affected by the proposal, an agency, before publication of a notice of intent to adopt or a notice of hearing, shall solicit comments from the public on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking proposal under active consideration within the agency by causing notice to be published in the State Register. The notice must include a description of the subject matter of the proposal, the types of groups and individuals likely to be affected, and indicate where, when, and how persons may comment on the proposal and whether and how drafts of any proposal may be obtained from the agency.

Subd. 2. [ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] Each agency may also appoint committees to comment, before publication of a notice of intent to adopt or a notice of hearing, on the subject matter of a possible rulemaking under active consideration within the agency. The membership of those committees must be published at least annually in the State Register.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF GOOD FAITH COMPLIANCE.] If an agency has made a good faith effort to comply with this section, a rule may not be invalidated on the grounds that the contents of this notice are insufficient or inaccurate.

Sec. 12. [14.125] [TIME LIMIT ON AUTHORITY TO ADOPT, AMEND, OR REPEAL RULES.]

An agency shall publish a notice of intent to adopt rules or a notice of hearing within 18 months of the effective date of the law authorizing or requiring rules to be adopted, amended, or repealed. If the notice is not published within the time limit imposed by this section, the authority for the rules expires. The agency shall not use other law in existence at the time of the expiration of rulemaking authority under this section as authority to adopt, amend, or repeal these rules.

An agency that publishes a notice of intent to adopt rules or a notice of hearing within the time limit specified in this section may subsequently amend or repeal the rules without additional legislative authorization.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.131, is amended to read:

14.131 [STATEMENT OF NEED AND REASONABLENESS.]

Before the agency orders the publication of a rulemaking notice required by section 14.14, subdivision 1a, the agency must prepare, review, and make available for public review a statement of the need for and reasonableness of the rule ~~and a fiscal note if required by section 3.982.~~ The statement of need and reasonableness must be prepared under rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge, and must include the following to the extent the agency, through reasonable effort, can ascertain this information:

(1) a description of the classes of persons who probably will be affected by the proposed rule, including classes that will bear the costs of the proposed rule and classes that will benefit from the proposed rule;

(2) the probable costs to the agency and to any other agency of the implementation and enforcement of the proposed rule and any anticipated effect on state revenues;

(3) a determination of whether there are less costly methods or less intrusive methods for achieving the purpose of the proposed rule;

(4) a description of any alternative methods for achieving the purpose of the proposed rule that were seriously considered by the agency and the reasons why they were rejected in favor of the proposed rule;

(5) the probable costs of complying with the proposed rule; and

(6) an assessment of any differences between the proposed rule and existing federal regulations and a specific analysis of the need for and reasonableness of each difference.

For rules setting, adjusting, or establishing regulatory, licensure, or other charges for goods and services, the statement of need and reasonableness must include the comments and recommendations of the commissioner of finance and must address any fiscal and policy concerns raised during the review process, as required by section 16A.1285.

The statement must also describe the agency's efforts to provide additional notification to persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the proposed rule or must explain why these efforts were not made.

The agency shall send a copy of the statement of need and reasonableness to the legislative commission to review administrative rules when it becomes available for public review.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.14, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [NOTICE OF RULE HEARING.] (a) Each agency shall maintain a list of all persons who have registered with the agency for the purpose of receiving notice of rule ~~hearings proceedings~~. The agency may inquire as to whether those persons on the list wish to maintain their names thereon and may remove names for which there is a negative reply or no reply within 60 days. The agency shall, at least 30 days prior to the date set for the hearing, give notice of its intention to adopt rules by United States mail to all persons on its list, and by publication in the State Register. The mailed notice shall include either a copy of the proposed rule or a description of the nature and effect of the proposed rule and an announcement that a free copy of the proposed rule is available on request from the agency. Each agency may, at its own discretion, also contact persons not on its list ~~and may give~~ who may be affected by the rule being proposed. In addition, each agency shall make reasonable efforts to notify persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the rule being proposed by giving notice of its intention in newsletters, newspapers, or other publications, or through other means of communication. The notice in the State Register must include the proposed rule or an amended rule in the form required by the revisor under section 14.07, together with a citation to the most specific statutory authority for the proposed rule, a statement of the place, date, and time of the public hearing, a statement that persons may register with the agency for the purpose of receiving notice of rule proceedings and notice that a rule has been adopted, and other information as required by law or rule. When an entire rule is proposed to be repealed, the agency need only publish that fact, giving the citation to the rule to be repealed in the notice.

(b) The legislative commission to review administrative rules may authorize an agency to omit from the notice of rule hearing the text of any proposed rule, the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient if:

- (1) knowledge of the rule is likely to be important to only a small class of persons;
- (2) the notice of rule hearing states that a free copy of the entire rule is available upon request to the agency; and
- (3) the notice of rule hearing states in detail the specific subject matter of the omitted rule, cites the statutory authority for the proposed rule, and details the proposed rule's purpose and motivation.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.15, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINDING OF SUBSTANTIAL ~~CHANGE DIFFERENCE~~.] If the report contains a finding that a rule has been modified in a way which makes it substantially different, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from that which was originally proposed, or that the agency has not met the requirements of sections 14.131 to 14.18, it shall be submitted to the chief administrative law judge for approval. If the chief administrative law judge approves the finding of the administrative law judge, the chief administrative law judge shall advise the agency and the revisor of statutes of actions which will correct the defects. The agency shall not adopt the rule until the chief administrative law judge determines that the defects have been corrected or, if applicable, that the agency has satisfied the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [NEED OR REASONABLENESS NOT ESTABLISHED.] If the chief administrative law judge determines that the need for or reasonableness of the rule has not been established pursuant to section 14.14, subdivision 2, and if the agency does not elect to follow the suggested actions of the chief administrative law judge to correct that defect, then the agency shall submit the proposed rule to the legislative commission to review administrative rules for the commission's advice and comment. The agency shall not adopt the rule until it has received and considered the advice of the commission. However, the agency is not required to ~~delay adoption longer~~ wait for the commission's advice for more than 30 60 days after the commission has received the agency's submission. Advice of the commission shall not be binding on the agency.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW OF MODIFICATIONS.] If the report of the administrative law judge finds no defects, the agency may proceed to adopt the rule. After receipt of the administrative law judge's report, if the agency makes any modifications to the rule other than those recommended by the administrative law judge, it must return the rule to the chief administrative law judge for a review on the issue of ~~substantial change~~ whether the rule as modified is substantially different, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from the rule as originally proposed. If the chief administrative law judge determines that the modified rule is substantially different from that which was originally proposed, the chief administrative law judge shall advise the agency of actions which will correct the defects. The agency shall not adopt the modified rule until the chief administrative law judge determines that the defects have been corrected or, if applicable, that the agency has satisfied the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule.

The agency shall give notice to all persons who requested to be informed that the rule has been adopted and filed with the secretary of state. This notice shall be given on the same day that the rule is filed.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] A rule is effective after it has been subjected to all requirements described in sections 14.131 to 14.20 and five working days after the notice of adoption is published in the State Register unless a later date is required by law or specified in the rule. If the rule adopted is the same as the proposed rule, publication may be made by publishing notice in the State Register that the rule has been adopted as proposed and by citing the prior publication. If the rule adopted differs from the proposed rule, the portions of the adopted rule which differ from the proposed rule shall be included in the notice of adoption together with a citation to the prior State Register publication of the remainder of the proposed rule. The nature of the modifications must be clear to a reasonable person when the notice of adoption is considered together with the State Register publication of the proposed rule, except that modifications may also be made which comply with the form requirements of section 14.07, subdivision 7.

If the agency omitted from the notice of proposed rule adoption the text of the proposed rule, as permitted by section 14.14, subdivision 1a, paragraph (b), the legislative commission to review administrative rules may provide that the notice of the adopted rule need not include the text of any changes from the proposed rule. However, the notice of adoption must state in detail the substance of the changes made from the proposed rule, and must state that a free copy of that portion of the adopted rule that was the subject of the rulemaking proceeding, not including any material adopted by reference as permitted by section 14.07, is available upon request to the agency.

14.19 [DEADLINE TO COMPLETE RULEMAKING.]

The agency shall, within 180 days after issuance of the administrative law judge's report, submit its notice of adoption, amendment, ~~suspension~~, or repeal to the State Register for publication. If the agency has not submitted its notice to the State Register within 180 days, the rule is automatically withdrawn. The agency shall not adopt the withdrawn rules without again following the procedures of sections 14.05 to 14.36. It shall report to the legislative commission to review administrative rules, other appropriate committees of the legislature, and the governor its failure to adopt rules and the reasons for that failure. The 180-day time limit of this section does not include any days used for review by the chief administrative law judge, ~~the attorney general~~, or the legislative commission to review administrative rules if the review is required by law.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS.] (a) Unless an agency proceeds directly to a public hearing on a proposed rule and gives the notice prescribed in section 14.14, subdivision 1a, the agency shall give notice of its intention to adopt a rule without public hearing. The notice shall be given by publication in the State Register and by United States mail to persons who have registered their names with the agency pursuant to section 14.14, subdivision 1a. The mailed notice shall include either a copy of the proposed rule or a description of the nature and effect of the proposed rule and an announcement that a free copy of the proposed rule is available on request from the agency. Each agency may, at its own discretion, also contact persons not on its list who may be affected by the rule being proposed. In addition, each agency shall make reasonable efforts to notify persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the rule by giving notice of its intention in newsletters, newspapers, or other publications, or through other means of communication. The notice in the State Register shall include the proposed rule or the amended rule in the form required by the revisor under section 14.07, ~~and~~ a citation to the most specific statutory authority for the proposed rule, a statement that persons may register with the agency for the purpose of receiving notice of rule proceedings and notice that a rule has been submitted to the chief administrative law judge, and other information as required by law or rule. When an entire rule is proposed to be repealed, the notice need only state that fact, giving the citation to the rule to be repealed in the notice. The notice shall include a statement advising the public:

(1) that they have 30 days in which to submit comment in support of or in opposition to the proposed rule and that comment is encouraged;

(2) that each comment should identify the portion of the proposed rule addressed, the reason for the comment, and any change proposed;

(3) that if 25 or more persons submit a written request for a public hearing within the 30-day comment period, a public hearing will be held;

(4) of the manner in which persons shall request a public hearing on the proposed rule;

~~(5) that the name and address of the person requesting a public hearing shall be stated of the requirements contained in section 14.25 relating to a written request for a public hearing, and that the requester is encouraged to identify the portion of the proposed rule addressed, the reason for the request, and propose any change proposed desired;~~

(6) that the proposed rule may be modified if the modifications are supported by the data and views submitted; and

~~(7) that if a hearing is not required, notice of the date of submission of the proposed rule to the attorney general chief administrative law judge for review will be mailed to any person requesting to receive the notice.~~

In connection with the statements required in clauses (1) and (3), the notice must also include the date on which the 30-day comment period ends.

(b) The legislative commission to review administrative rules may authorize an agency to omit from the notice of intent to adopt the text of any proposed rule, the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient if:

(1) knowledge of the rule is likely to be important to only a small class of persons;

(2) the notice of intent to adopt states that a free copy of the entire rule is available upon request to the agency; and

(3) the notice of intent to adopt states in detail the specific subject matter of the omitted rule, cites the statutory authority for the proposed rule, and details the proposed rule's purpose and motivation.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.23, is amended to read:

14.23 [STATEMENT OF NEED AND REASONABLENESS.]

Before the date of the section 14.22 notice, the agency shall prepare a statement of need and reasonableness which shall be available to the public. The statement of need and reasonableness must include the analysis required in section 14.131 and the comments and recommendations of the commissioner of finance, and must address any fiscal and policy concerns raised during the review process, as required by section 16A.1285. The statement must also describe the agency's efforts to provide additional notification to persons or classes of persons who may be affected by the proposed rules or must explain why these efforts were not made. For at least 30 days following the notice, the agency shall afford all interested persons the public an opportunity to request a public hearing and to submit data and views on the proposed rule in writing.

The agency shall send a copy of the statement of need and reasonableness to the legislative commission to review administrative rules when it becomes available to the public.

14.24 [MODIFICATIONS OF PROPOSED RULE.]

The proposed rule may be modified if the modifications are supported by the data and views submitted to the agency and do not result in a ~~substantial change~~ substantially different rule, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from the rule as originally proposed. An agency may adopt a substantially different rule after satisfying the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.25, is amended to read:

14.25 [PUBLIC HEARING ~~REQUIRED~~.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUESTS FOR HEARING.] If, during the 30-day period allowed for comment, 25 or more persons submit to the agency a written request for a public hearing of the proposed rule, the agency shall proceed under the provisions of sections 14.14 to 14.20. The written request must include: (1) the name and address of the person requesting the public hearing; and (2) the portion or portions of the rule to which the person objects or a statement that the person opposes the entire rule. A notice of the public hearing must be published in the State Register and mailed to those persons who submitted a written request for the public hearing. Unless the agency has modified the proposed rule, the notice need not include the text of the proposed rule but only a citation to the State Register pages where the text appears.

A written request for a public hearing that does not comply with the requirements of this section is invalid and must not be counted by the agency for purposes of determining whether a public hearing must be held.

Subd. 2. [WITHDRAWAL OF HEARING REQUESTS.] If a request for a public hearing has been withdrawn, the agency must give written notice of that fact to all persons who have requested the public hearing. The notice must explain why the request is being withdrawn, and must include a description of any action the agency has taken or will take that affected or may have affected the decision to withdraw the request. The notice must also invite persons to submit written comments to the agency relating to the withdrawal. The notice and any written comments received by the agency is part of the rulemaking record submitted to the administrative law judge under section 14.14 or 14.26. The administrative law judge shall review the notice and any comments received and determine whether the withdrawal is consistent with section 14.001, clauses (2), (4), and (5).

This subdivision applies only to a withdrawal of a hearing request that affects whether a public hearing must be held and only if the agency has taken any action to obtain the withdrawal of the hearing request.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 14.26, is amended to read:

14.26 [ADOPTION OF PROPOSED RULE; SUBMISSION TO ~~ATTORNEY GENERAL~~ ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBMISSION.] If no hearing is required, the agency shall submit to ~~the attorney general~~ an administrative law judge assigned by the chief administrative law judge the proposed rule and notice as published, the rule as proposed for adoption, any written comments received by the agency, and a statement of need and reasonableness for the rule. The agency shall give notice to all persons who requested to be informed that these materials have been submitted to the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge. This notice shall be given on the same day that the record is submitted. If the proposed rule has been modified, the notice shall state that fact, and shall state that a free copy of the proposed rule, as modified, is available upon request from the agency. The rule and these materials shall be submitted to the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge within 180 days of the day that the comment period for the rule is over or the rule is automatically withdrawn. The agency shall report its failure to adopt the rules and the reasons for that failure to the legislative commission to review administrative rules, other appropriate legislative committees, and the governor.

Subd. 2. [RESUBMISSION.] Even if the 180-day period expires while the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge reviews the rule, if the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge rejects the rule, the agency may resubmit it after taking corrective action. The resubmission must occur within 30 days of when the agency receives written notice of the disapproval. If the rule is again disapproved, the rule is withdrawn. An agency may resubmit at any time before the expiration of the 180-day period. If the agency withholds some of the proposed rule, it may not adopt the withheld portion without again following the procedures of sections 14.14 to 14.28, ~~or 14.29 to 14.36.~~

Subd. 3. [REVIEW.] (a) The ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge shall, within 14 days, approve or disapprove the rule as to its legality and its form to the extent the form relates to legality, including the ~~issue~~ issues of ~~substantial change~~ whether the rule if modified is substantially different, as determined under section 14.05, subdivision 2, from the rule as originally proposed, and ~~determine~~ whether the agency has the authority to adopt the rule, and whether the record demonstrates a rational basis for the need for and reasonableness of the proposed rule within 14 days. If the rule is approved, the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge shall promptly file two copies of it in the office of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall forward one copy of each rule to the revisor of statutes. If the rule is disapproved, the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge shall state in writing the reasons and make recommendations to overcome the ~~deficiencies, and~~ defects.

(b) The written disapproval must be submitted to the chief administrative law judge for approval. If the chief administrative law judge approves of the findings of the administrative law judge, the chief administrative law judge shall send the statement of the reasons for disapproval of the rule to the agency, the legislative commission to review administrative rules, and the revisor of statutes and advise the agency and the revisor of statutes of actions that will correct the defects. The rule shall not be filed in the office of the secretary of state, nor published until the ~~deficiencies~~ chief administrative law judge determines that the defects have been ~~overcome~~ corrected or, if applicable, that the agency has satisfied the rule requirements for the adoption of a substantially different rule. ~~The attorney general shall send a statement of reasons for disapproval of the rule to the agency, the chief administrative law judge, the legislative commission to review administrative rules, and to the revisor of statutes.~~

(c) If the chief administrative law judge determines that the need for or reasonableness of the rule has not been established, and if the agency does not elect to follow the suggested actions of the chief administrative law judge to correct that defect, then the agency shall submit the proposed rule to the legislative commission to review administrative rules for the commission's advice and comment. The agency shall not adopt the rule until it has received and considered the advice of the commission. However, the agency is not required to wait for the commission's advice for more than 60 days after the commission has received the agency's submission.

(d) The ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge shall disregard any error or defect in the proceeding due to the agency's failure to satisfy any procedural requirements imposed by law or rule if the ~~attorney general~~ administrative law judge finds:

(1) that the failure did not deprive any person or entity of an opportunity to participate meaningfully in the rulemaking process; or

(2) that the agency has taken corrective action to cure the error or defect so that the failure did not deprive any person or entity of an opportunity to participate meaningfully in the rulemaking process.

Subd. 4. [COSTS.] The ~~attorney-general~~ office of administrative hearings shall assess an agency for the actual cost of processing rules under this section. ~~The agency shall pay the attorney general's assessments using the procedures of section 8.15.~~ Each agency shall include in its budget money to pay the attorney general's assessment. Receipts from the assessment must be deposited in the ~~state treasury and credited to the general fund~~ administrative hearings account created in section 14.54.

failure did not deprive any person or entity of an opportunity to participate meaningfully in the rulemaking process.

The secretary of state shall forward one copy of each approved and filed emergency rule to the revisor of statutes. Failure of the attorney general to approve or disapprove a proposed emergency rule within ten working days is approval.

Sec. 46. [97A.0457] [PUBLICATION OF APPROVAL.]

As soon as practicable, notice of the attorney general's decision must be published in the State Register and the adopted rule must be published in the manner as provided for adopted rules in section 14.18.

The continuation is not effective until these notices have been mailed. No emergency rule may remain in effect on a date 361 days after its original effective date. The emergency rules may not be continued in effect after 360 days without following the procedure of sections 14.14 to 14.28.

(1) in fiscal years 1992 and 1993, the amount appropriated by the legislature from the air quality account in the environmental fund for the agency's air quality program;

(2) for fiscal year 1994 and thereafter, an amount not less than $25 per ton of each volatile organic compound; pollutant regulated under United States Code, title 42, section 7411 or 7412 (section 111 or 112 of the federal Clean Air Act); and each pollutant, except carbon monoxide, for which a national primary ambient air quality standard has been promulgated; and

(3) for fiscal year 1994 and thereafter, the agency fee rules may also result in the collection, in the aggregate, from the sources listed in paragraph (b), of an amount not less than $25 per ton of each pollutant not listed in clause (2) that is regulated under Minnesota Rules, chapter 7005, or for which a state primary ambient air quality standard has been adopted.

The agency must not include in the calculation of the aggregate amount to be collected under the fee rules any amount in excess of 4,000 tons per year of each air pollutant from a source.

(d) To cover the reasonable costs described in paragraph (b), the agency shall provide in the rules promulgated under paragraph (c) for an increase in the fee collected in each year beginning after fiscal year 1993 by the percentage, if any, by which the Consumer Price Index for the most recent calendar year ending before the beginning of the year the fee is collected exceeds the Consumer Price Index for the calendar year 1989. For purposes of this paragraph the Consumer Price Index for any calendar year is the average of the Consumer Price Index for all-urban consumers published by the United States Department of Labor, as of the close of the 12-month period ending on August 31 of each calendar year. The revision of the Consumer Price Index that is most consistent with the Consumer Price Index for calendar year 1989 shall be used.

(e) Any money collected under paragraphs (b) to (d) must be deposited in an air quality account in the environmental fund and must be used solely for the activities listed in paragraph (b).

(f) Persons who wish to construct or expand an air emission facility may offer to reimburse the agency for the costs of staff overtime or consultant services needed to expedite permit review. The reimbursement shall be in addition to fees imposed by paragraphs (a) to (d). When the agency determines that it needs additional resources to review the permit application in an expedited manner, and that expediting the review would not disrupt air permitting program priorities, the agency may accept the reimbursement. Reimbursements accepted by the agency are appropriated to the agency for the purpose of reviewing the permit application. Reimbursement by a permit applicant shall precede and not be contingent upon issuance of a permit and shall not affect the agency's decision on whether to issue or deny a permit, what conditions are included in a permit, or the application of state and federal statutes and rules governing permit determinations.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 144.98, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FEES.] (a) An application for certification under subdivision 1 must be accompanied by the annual fee specified in this subdivision. The fees are for:

(1) base certification fee, $250; and

(2) test category certification fees:

Test Category	Certification Fee
Bacteriology	$100
Inorganic chemistry, fewer than four constituents	$ 50

Inorganic chemistry, four or more constituents	$150
Chemistry metals, fewer than four constituents	$100
Chemistry metals, four or more constituents	$250
Volatile organic compounds	$300
Other organic compounds	$300

(b) The total annual certification fee is the base fee plus the applicable test category fees. The annual certification fee for a contract laboratory is 1.5 times the total certification fee.

(c) Laboratories located outside of this state that require an on-site survey will be assessed an additional $1,200 fee.

(d) The commissioner of health may adjust fees under section ~~16A.128, subdivision 2~~ 16A.1285 without rulemaking. Fees must be set so that the total fees support the laboratory certification program. Direct costs of the certification service include program administration, inspections, the agency's general support costs, and attorney general costs attributable to the fee function.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 221.0335, is amended to read:

The board shall require the payment of the fee at the time of the issuance of the license or franchise to the owner. The moneys so derived shall be collected by the board and paid to the state treasurer. The board shall have authority to license all boxers, managers, seconds, referees and judges and may require them to pay a license fee. C. that the permittee has failed to disclose fully all facts relevant to the facility or activity to be permitted, or that the permittee has submitted false or misleading information to the agency or to the commissioner;

D. that the permitted facility or activity endangers human health or the environment and that the danger cannot be removed by a modification of the conditions of the permit;

E. that all applicable requirements of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116D and the rules adopted under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116D have not been fulfilled;

F. that with respect to the facility or activity to be permitted, the proposed permittee has not complied with any requirement under parts 7002.0210 to 7002.0310, ~~7002.0410 to 7002.0490,~~ or chapter 7046 to pay fees; or

7001.0180 JUSTIFICATION TO COMMENCE REVOCATION WITHOUT REISSUANCE OF PERMIT.

The following constitute justification for the commissioner to commence proceedings to revoke a permit without reissuance:

S.F. No. 1076, which the committee recommends to pass, after the following motion:

Ms. Kiscaden moved to amend S.F. No. 1076 as follows:

116C.771 [ADDITIONAL CASK LIMITATIONS.]

(b) An additional four casks may be filled and used at Prairie Island if ~~the environmental quality board determines that~~, by December 31, 1996, the public utility operating the Prairie Island plant has filed a license application with the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission for a ~~spent nuclear fuel storage facility off of Prairie Island in Goodhue county, is continuing to make a good faith effort to implement the site, and has constructed, contracted for construction and operation, or purchased installed capacity of 100 megawatts of wind power in addition to wind power under construction or contract on the effective date of this section.~~

(c)(1) An additional eight casks may be filled and placed at Prairie Island if the legislature has not revoked the authorization under clause (2) or the public utility has satisfied the wind power and biomass mandate requirements in sections 216B.2423, subdivision 1, clause (1), and 216B.2424, clause (1), ~~and the alternative site in Goodhue county is operational or under construction.~~ (2) ~~If the site is not under construction or operational or the wind mandates are not satisfied,~~ the legislature may revoke the authorization for the additional eight casks by a law enacted prior to June 1, 1999.

(d) Except as provided under paragraph (e), dry cask storage capacity for high-level nuclear waste within the state may not be increased beyond the casks authorized by section 116C.77 or their equivalent storage capacity.

(e) This section does not prohibit a public utility from applying for or the public utilities commission from granting a certificate of need for dry cask storage to accommodate the decommissioning of a nuclear power plant within this state.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 216C.051, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RADIOACTIVE WASTE MANAGEMENT; FUTURE AND ECONOMIC ANALYSIS.] The legislative task force shall analyze the future of and the economic effects of the continued generation of electric power and radioactive waste at the Prairie Island nuclear power plant. The task force shall include in its report under subdivision 5, a specific discussion of:

(1) when radioactive waste will be removed from Prairie Island for permanent storage outside of the state, who will bear the costs of the future management of the radioactive waste generated by the Prairie Island nuclear generating plant; when that shift in responsibility is likely to occur; and to what extent utility ratepayers and shareholders and state taxpayers will be shielded from the costs to manage the waste in the future;

(2) the probability of an accident and the extent to which persons who may be at risk of personal injury or property damage due to foreseeable or unforeseeable catastrophic events that may allow the release of radioactivity from the nuclear power plant and associated activities could be fully compensated for the injuries or damage and by whom;

(3) a range of reasonable estimates of the costs to manage radioactive waste generated by the nuclear power plant under scenarios to be developed by the task force, ranging from monitoring the waste in the storage pool at Prairie Island to removal of waste from the state beginning in 1998 to permanent storage of the waste in the state; to the extent those costs will necessarily fall on present and future utility ratepayers and shareholders and state taxpayers, how to ensure they can be met without catastrophic disruption of the state's economy in the future; and whether funds should be set aside to ensure that present ratepayers pay the future costs of radioactive waste management based on volume of usage of electricity rather than on the rate structure of the utility;

(4) whether reprocessing and reuse of spent nuclear fuel generated by the Prairie Island nuclear generating plant is technically and economically feasible; if so, how to encourage development of reprocessing and reuse;

(5) whether emerging nuclear technologies, such as integral fast reactors, which can generate electricity without environmental damage while producing no or minimal radioactive waste, are economically feasible and practical electric energy alternatives in the foreseeable future and, if so, how to encourage and take advantage of such technologies;

(6) if the waste is likely to be removed from the state, whether technologies are likely to be economically feasible in the relatively near future for minimizing the handling of the waste and minimizing contamination of additional materials that will need special management prior to transport out of the state, including the availability of combination storage and transport containers; and

~~(7) if the waste is unlikely to be removed from the state or if waste will need to be indefinitely stored outside the power plants after decommissioning, whether sites for storage of the waste outside the structure of the Prairie Island power plant potentially can be found that minimize economic and social disruption, maximize environmental, health, and safety protection, minimize transportation distance, and place the burden of storage of the waste on those communities that enjoy the immediate economic benefits of the existence and operation of the power plants; if potential sites exist, what process should be used to identify and utilize them if necessary; the entity that is searching for an alternative site within the state for the disposal of spent nuclear fuel from the Prairie Island nuclear generating plant, is seeking permits for the site, or is constructing the site shall report progress on those activities every six months to the task force commencing January 1, 1995;~~

~~(8) factors to be used in siting a high-level radioactive waste management facility to include at least:~~

- ~~(i) the proximity of the site to residents and businesses;~~
 - ~~(ii) the proximity of the site to surface waters;~~
 - ~~(iii) the vulnerability of the site to tornadoes and other natural phenomena;~~
 - ~~(iv) the benefits received and the costs incurred by the host and adjacent communities due to operation of the nuclear generating facility that produced the high-level radioactive waste to be managed at the proposed facility;~~
 - ~~(v) the benefits received and costs incurred by the host and adjacent communities due to operation of the proposed waste management facility; and~~
 - ~~(vi) the availability of transportation routes between the nuclear generating plant and the proposed waste management facility; and~~
- ~~(9) federal law related to the interstate transportation of high-level radioactive waste and how that law may operate in relation to an independent spent fuel storage installation located in the state.~~

Sec. 10. [REPEALER.]

The notice must contain the full names of the parties to the proceeding, their social security account numbers, and their birth dates. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions of paragraph (i). In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom. The court may also order the obligor to pay child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions, or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

(b) The court shall derive a specific dollar amount for child support by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Net Income Per Month of Obligor	Number of Children
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7 or more

in effect under paragraph (k)

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income in excess of the income limit currently in effect under paragraph (k) shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income equal to the limit in effect.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less	* (i) Federal Income Tax
	* (ii) State Income Tax
	(iii) Social Security Deductions
	(iv) Reasonable Pension Deductions
*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended	(v) Union Dues
	(vi) Cost of Dependent Health Insurance Coverage
	(vii) Cost of Individual or Group Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Amount for Actual Medical Expenses

"Net income" does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor's spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor's living expenses; or

(2) compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:

(i) support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(ii) the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(A) the excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;

(B) the excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

(C) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(D) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and

(E) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.

The court shall review the work-related and education-related child care costs paid and shall allocate the costs to each parent in proportion to each parent's net income, as determined under this subdivision, after the transfer of child support and spousal maintenance, unless the allocation would be substantially unfair to either parent. There is a presumption of substantial unfairness if after the sum total of child support, spousal maintenance, and child care costs is subtracted from the noncustodial parent's income, the income is at or below 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines. The cost of child care for purposes of this paragraph is 75 percent of the actual cost paid for child care, to reflect the approximate value of state and federal tax credits available to the custodial parent. The actual cost paid for child care is the total amount received by the child care provider for the child or children from the obligee or any public agency. The amount allocated for child care expenses is considered child support but is not subject to a cost-of-living adjustment under section 518.641. The amount allocated for child care expenses terminates when the child care costs end.

(c) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support or in determining whether to deviate from the guidelines:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of paragraph (b), clause (2)(ii);

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it;

(5) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph (d); and

(6) the obligor's receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40.

(d) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

(e) Any schedule prepared under paragraph (d), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

(f) Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

(g) If payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(h) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(i) The guidelines in this subdivision are a rebuttable presumption and shall be used in all cases when establishing or modifying child support. If the court does not deviate from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings concerning the amount of the obligor's income used as the basis for the guidelines calculation and any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the determination of child support. If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings giving the amount of support calculated under the guidelines, the reasons for the deviation, and shall specifically address the criteria in paragraph (b) and how the deviation serves the best interest of the child. The provisions of this paragraph apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court shall review stipulations presented to it for conformity to the guidelines and the court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties shall provide the documentation of earnings required under subdivision 5b.

(j) Except as provided in paragraph (l), if the child support payments are assigned to the public agency under section 256.74, the court may not deviate downward from the child support guidelines unless the court specifically finds that the failure to deviate downward would impose an extreme hardship on the obligor.

(k) The dollar amount of the income limit for application of the guidelines must be adjusted on July 1 of every even-numbered year to reflect cost-of-living changes. The supreme court shall select the index for the adjustment from the indices listed in section 518.641. The state court administrator shall make the changes in the dollar amount required by this paragraph available to courts and the public on or before April 30 of the year in which the amount is to change.

(l) The court may deviate downward from the guidelines if:

(1) the child for whom child support is sought is more than five years old and the obligor discovered or was informed of the existence of the parent and child relationship within one year of commencement of the action seeking child support;

(2) the obligor is a custodian for or pays support for other children; and

(3) the obligor's family income is less than 175 percent of the federal poverty guidelines."

"Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. The notice must contain the full names of the parties to the proceeding, their social security account numbers, and their birth dates. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions of paragraph (i). In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom. The court may also order the obligor to pay child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions, or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

(b) The court shall derive a specific dollar amount for child support by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

or the amount

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income in excess of the income limit currently in effect under paragraph (k) shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income equal to the limit in effect.

Net Income defined as:

	* (ii) State Income Tax
	(iii) Social Security Deductions
	(iv) Reasonable Pension Deductions
*Standard Deductions apply- use of tax tables recommended	(v) Union Dues
	(vi) Cost of Dependent Health Insurance Coverage
	(vii) Cost of Individual or Group Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Amount for Actual Medical Expenses

"Net income" does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor's spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor's living expenses; or

(2) compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:

(i) support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(ii) the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(A) the excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;

(B) the excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

(C) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(D) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and

(E) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.

The court shall review the work-related and education-related child care costs paid and shall allocate the costs to each parent in proportion to each parent's net income, as determined under this subdivision, after the transfer of child support and spousal maintenance, unless the allocation would be substantially unfair to either parent. There is a presumption of substantial unfairness if after the sum total of child support, spousal maintenance, and child care costs is subtracted from the noncustodial parent's income, the income is at or below 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines. The cost of child care for purposes of this paragraph is 75 percent of the actual cost paid for child care, to reflect the approximate value of state and federal tax credits available to the custodial parent. The actual cost paid for child care is the total amount received by the child care provider for the child or children of the obligor from the obligee or any public agency. The court shall require verification of employment or school attendance and documentation of child care expenses from the obligee and the public agency, if applicable. If child care expenses fluctuate during the year because of seasonal employment or school attendance of the obligee or extended periods of visitation with the obligor, the court shall determine child care expenses based on an average monthly cost. The amount allocated for child care expenses is considered child support but is not subject to a cost-of-living adjustment under section 518.641. The amount allocated for child care expenses terminates automatically when the child care costs end without any action by the obligor to reduce, modify, or terminate the order. In other cases where there is a substantial increase or decrease in child care expenses, the parties may modify the order under section 518.64.

(c) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support or in determining whether to deviate from the guidelines:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of paragraph (b), clause (2)(ii);

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it;

(5) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph (d); and

(6) the obligor's receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40.

(d) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

(e) Any schedule prepared under paragraph (d), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

(f) Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

(g) If payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(h) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(i) The guidelines in this subdivision are a rebuttable presumption and shall be used in all cases when establishing or modifying child support. If the court does not deviate from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings concerning the amount of the obligor's income used as the basis for the guidelines calculation and any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the determination of child support. If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings giving the amount of support calculated under the guidelines, the reasons for the deviation, and shall specifically address the criteria in paragraph (b) and how the deviation serves the best interest of the child. The provisions of this paragraph apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court shall review stipulations presented to it for conformity to the guidelines and the court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties shall provide the documentation of earnings required under subdivision 5b.

(j) If the child support payments are assigned to the public agency under section 256.74, the court may not deviate downward from the child support guidelines unless the court specifically finds that the failure to deviate downward would impose an extreme hardship on the obligor.

(k) The dollar amount of the income limit for application of the guidelines must be adjusted on July 1 of every even-numbered year to reflect cost-of-living changes. The supreme court shall select the index for the adjustment from the indices listed in section 518.641. The state court administrator shall make the changes in the dollar amount required by this paragraph available to courts and the public on or before April 30 of the year in which the amount is to change."

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] (a) The terms of an order respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party or the child or children that are the subject of these proceedings; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40; (4) a change in the cost of living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair; (5) extraordinary medical expenses of the child not provided for under section 518.171; or (6) the addition of work-related or education-related child care expenses of the obligee or a substantial increase or decrease in existing work-related or education-related child care expenses.

It is presumed that there has been a substantial change in circumstances under clause (1), (2), or (4) and the terms of a current support order shall be rebuttably presumed to be unreasonable and unfair if the application of the child support guidelines in section 518.551, subdivision 5, to the current circumstances of the parties results in a calculated court order that is at least 20 percent and at least $50 per month higher or lower than the current support order.

(b) On a motion for modification of maintenance, including a motion for the extension of the duration of a maintenance award, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court:

(1) shall apply section 518.551, subdivision 5, and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any; and

(2) shall not consider compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

- (i) the excess employment began after entry of the existing support order;
- (ii) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;
- (iii) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time employment, or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fractions of an hour;
- (iv) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation;
- (v) in the case of an obligor, current child support payments are at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and
- (vi) in the case of an obligor who is in arrears in child support payments to the obligee, any net income from excess employment must be used to pay the arrearages until the arrearages are paid in full.

(c) A modification of support or maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the petitioning party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party and on the public authority if public assistance is being furnished or the county attorney is the attorney of record. However, modification may be applied to an earlier period if the court makes express findings that the party seeking modification was precluded from serving a motion by reason of a significant physical or mental disability, a material misrepresentation of another party, or fraud upon the court and that the party seeking modification, when no longer precluded, promptly served a motion. The court may provide that a reduction in the amount allocated for child care expenses based on a substantial decrease in the expenses is effective as of the date the expenses decreased.

(d) Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state, including motions under section 518.145, subdivision 2. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

(e) The court need not hold an evidentiary hearing on a motion for modification of maintenance or support.

(f) Section 518.14 shall govern the award of attorney fees for motions brought under this subdivision."

Mr. Lessard moved to amend S.F. No. 217 as follows:

"Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1994, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. The notice must contain the full names of the parties to the proceeding, their social security account numbers, and their birth dates. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions of paragraph (i). In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom. The court may also order the obligor to pay child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions, or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

(b) The court shall derive a specific dollar amount for child support by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Net Income Per Month of Obligor	Number of Children

$550 and Below	Order based on the ability of the obligor to provide support at these income levels, or at higher levels, if the obligor has the earning ability.

paragraph (k)

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income in excess of the income limit currently in effect under paragraph (k) shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income equal to the limit in effect.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly

*(i) Federal Income Tax

*(ii) State Income Tax

(iii) Social Security
Deductions

(iv) Reasonable
Pension Deductions

*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended

(v) Union Dues

(vi) Cost of Dependent Health
Insurance Coverage

(vii) Cost of Individual or Group
Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Amount for Actual Medical Expenses

(viii) A Child Support or Maintenance Order that is Currently Being Paid.

"Net income" does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor's spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor's living expenses; or

(2) compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:

(i) support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(ii) the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(A) the excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;

(B) the excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

(C) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(D) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and

(E) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.

The court shall review the work-related and education-related child care costs paid and shall allocate the costs to each parent in proportion to each parent's net income, as determined under this subdivision, after the transfer of child support and spousal maintenance, unless the allocation would be substantially unfair to either parent. There is a presumption of substantial unfairness if after the sum total of child support, spousal maintenance, and child care costs is subtracted from the noncustodial parent's income, the income is at or below 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines. The cost of child care for purposes of this paragraph is 75 percent of the actual cost paid for child care, to reflect the approximate value of state and federal tax credits available to the custodial parent. The actual cost paid for child care is the total amount received by the child care provider for the child or children from the obligee or any public agency. The amount allocated for child care expenses is considered child support but is not subject to a cost-of-living adjustment under section 518.641. The amount allocated for child care expenses terminates when the child care costs end.

(c) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support or in determining whether to deviate from the guidelines:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of paragraph (b), clause (2)(ii);

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it;

(5) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph (d); and

(6) the obligor's receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40.

(d) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

(e) Any schedule prepared under paragraph (d), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

(f) Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

(g) If payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(h) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(i) The guidelines in this subdivision are a rebuttable presumption and shall be used in all cases when establishing or modifying child support. If the court does not deviate from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings concerning the amount of the obligor's income used as the basis for the guidelines calculation and any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the determination of child support. If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings giving the amount of support calculated under the guidelines, the reasons for the deviation, and shall specifically address the criteria in paragraph (b) and how the deviation serves the best interest of the child. The court may deviate downward from the guidelines if both parties agree and the court finds that it is in the best interests of the child. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the court from deviating downward in other cases. The provisions of this paragraph apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court shall review stipulations presented to it for conformity to the guidelines and the court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties shall provide the documentation of earnings required under subdivision 5b.

(j) If the child support payments are assigned to the public agency under section 256.74, the court may not deviate downward from the child support guidelines unless the court specifically finds that the failure to deviate downward would impose an extreme hardship on the obligor.

(k) The dollar amount of the income limit for application of the guidelines must be adjusted on July 1 of every even-numbered year to reflect cost-of-living changes. The supreme court shall select the index for the adjustment from the indices listed in section 518.641. The state court administrator shall make the changes in the dollar amount required by this paragraph available to courts and the public on or before April 30 of the year in which the amount is to change."
