WHEREAS, the Commissioner of Game and Fish has investigated and has presented me with the results of his investigation, and has recommended that additional protection be given bullheads in the above named counties to prevent their undue depletion,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Theodore Christianson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of and pursuant to authority vested in me by Section 134, Chapter 400, S. L. Minnesota 1919, (Sec. 5640 G.S. 1923), do hereby order that no bullheads taken from the waters of the counties of Ottertail and Becker, in the State of Minnesota, during the year 1930 and until the close of the 1931 regular session of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota, in any manner, may be taken for commercial purposes, or bought, sold or transported for such purposes except when deemed necessary and advisable by the Commissioner of Game and Fish, when, after investigation, he finds that any of the conditions set forth in Section 5605, G.S. 1923, exist; when such bullheads may be fished for commercial purposes under the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Game and Fish.

This order shall remain in force until the close of the 1931 regular session of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota unless sooner revoked or modified.

Governor, State of Minnesota

Attest:

Secretary of State

Dated this 19 day of May, 1930.
