The COVID-19 pandemic continues to present an unprecedented and rapidly evolving challenge to our State. Minnesota has taken extraordinary steps to prevent and respond to the pandemic. On March 13, 2020, I issued Executive Order 20-01 and declared a peacetime emergency because this pandemic, an act of nature, threatens the lives of Minnesotans, and local resources are inadequate to address the threat. Since declaring the peacetime emergency, I have extended it every 30 days.

The past year has required difficult decisions and substantial collective action. During the late fall and early winter of 2020, Minnesota experienced a surge in COVID-19 cases. Hospitals reported dangerous capacity shortages, and average daily deaths due to the virus were far higher than we had previously experienced. To slow these devastating impacts, I called on Minnesotans to forego gatherings, sports leagues, and other social activities, and we temporarily closed businesses and gathering spaces that posed high risks of virus transmission. Minnesotans answered the call, made difficult personal sacrifices to change the pandemic’s trajectory, and helped save their neighbors’ lives.

Thankfully, our care and concern for our neighbors and community paid off, and Minnesota’s daily COVID-19 case numbers began to decrease. After a few weeks of measured progress, we issued Executive Orders 20-103 and 20-104, which eased restrictions on social gatherings, outdoor dining and entertainment, gyms, fitness centers, pools, and sports facilities. We also took a cautious approach to the return of organized sports, first allowing small, distanced outdoor workouts, and eventually resuming practices and games with increased precautions. This slow turn of the dial worked. As case numbers continued to trend downward, we responded with Executive Orders 21-01 and 21-07, easing restrictions even further and reopening businesses for indoor entertainment and dining.

As we pass the one-year mark since the first reported case of COVID-19 in Minnesota, we can see the finish line. Because of our adherence to emergency measures and our careful approach, many key metrics are below where they were at the most severe stages of the surge, and our children are returning to in-person learning. Over one million Minnesotans, including over 70 percent of those over the age of 65, have received at least one dose of vaccine.

Although there is reason for optimism, the pandemic is not over, and we cannot sacrifice the progress that we have made together. According to the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”), over 28.8 million people have been infected in the United States, resulting in over 527,000 deaths. The pandemic has brought enormous pain to Minnesota. We have seen over 490,000 positive COVID-19 cases and over 25,000 hospitalizations. We have now lost over 6,700 neighbors, friends, and family members to this disease. In addition, the risks posed by new COVID-19 variants reinforce the need to be vigilant and cautious in our continued approach to the pandemic.

As we ease restrictions, we must remember that the risk of transmission increases. As I have noted previously, some settings continue to pose more risks than others. Unpredictable settings are riskier than more predictable and controlled settings. Settings conducive to prolonged contact provide more opportunity for transmission than settings featuring more transitory interactions. Strenuous activities resulting in increased respiration pose higher risk than sedentary activities. Experience shows that indoor activities are riskier than outdoor activities. In addition, science, data, and experience also show that the late-night bar and restaurant hours are particularly risky for patrons. Recognizing the impact of these variables, this Executive Order continues to limit certain settings more than others due to the varying levels of risk and impact on public health.

We all play an integral role in preserving the recent gains that we have made. When Minnesotans leave their homes, they must continue to follow the science and adhere to public health guidance. The CDC estimates that wearing a face covering can reduce transmission risk by 70 to 80 percent. When face coverings are paired with consistent social distancing, we can dramatically reduce transmission. I continue to ask everyone in Minnesota to support these basic measures to allow our children to continue their return to in-person learning, keep our businesses open, preserve our hospital capacity, and protect our neighbors.

In Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.02, the Minnesota Legislature conferred upon the Governor emergency powers to “(1) ensure that preparations of this state will be adequate to deal with disasters, (2) generally protect the public peace, health, and safety, and (3) preserve the lives and property of the people of the state.” Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.21, subdivision 1, the Governor has general authority to control the State’s emergency management as well as to carry out the provisions of the Minnesota Emergency Management Act.

Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.21, subdivision 3(7), authorizes the Governor to cooperate with federal and state agencies in “matters pertaining to the emergency management of the state and nation.” This includes “the direction or control of . . . the conduct of persons in the state, including entrance or exit from any stricken or threatened public place, occupancy of facilities, and . . . public meetings or gatherings.” Pursuant to subdivision 3 of that same section, the Governor may “make, amend, and rescind the necessary orders and rules to carry out the provisions” of the Minnesota Emergency Management Act. When approved by the Executive Council and filed in the Office of the Secretary of State, such orders and rules have the force and effect of law during the peacetime emergency. Any inconsistent rules or ordinances of any agency or political subdivision are suspended during the pendency of the emergency.

For these reasons, I order as follows:

1. Executive Orders 21-01 and 21-07 are rescinded as of Monday, March 15, 2021 at 12:00 pm (noon).

2. Paragraphs 6 and 7 of this Executive Order are effective as of Monday, March 15,

d. Requirements for all businesses. Since June 29, 2020, all businesses in Minnesota (whether Critical or Non-Critical) have been required to have a COVID-19 Preparedness Plan (“Plan”) and implement that plan. All businesses must continue to follow the same requirements. Each Plan must provide for the business’s implementation of guidance for their specific industry or, if there is no specific guidance, general guidance for all businesses, as well as Minnesota OSHA Standards and MDH and CDC Guidelines in their workplaces. These requirements are set forth in guidance (“Plan Guidance”) available on the Stay Safe Minnesota website (https://staysafe.mn.gov).

i. Required Plan content. As set forth in the Plan Guidance, at a minimum, each Plan must adequately address the following areas:

   A. Ensure that sick workers stay home. All Plans must establish policies and procedures, including health screenings, that prevent sick workers from entering the workplace.

   B. Social distancing. All Plans must establish social distancing policies and procedures.

   C. Worker hygiene and source control. All Plans must establish hygiene and source control policies for workers.

   D. Cleaning, disinfection, and ventilation protocols. All Plans must establish cleaning, disinfection, and ventilation protocols for areas within the workplace.

ii. Customer facing businesses. All businesses that are customer facing (i.e., businesses that have in-person customer interactions) must include additional Plan provisions to keep the public and workers safe as set forth in the applicable guidance available on the Stay Safe Minnesota website (https://staysafe.mn.gov). This includes requirements that workers and customers must maintain physical distancing of six feet and that store occupancy must not exceed limits set forth in the guidance. In customer facing businesses that share common areas, such as malls, all Plans must similarly include a facility occupancy that must not exceed the limits set forth in the guidance and provide an enhanced sanitizing, cleaning, and disinfecting regimen consistent with Minnesota OSHA Standards and MDH and CDC Guidelines for those common areas. All Plans must also include signage in common areas to discourage congregating.

iii. Household services businesses. All businesses that provide household services (e.g., housecleaning, maid services, and piano tuners) must also develop Plan provisions intended to keep customers and workers safe as set forth in the applicable guidance available on the Stay Safe Minnesota website (https://staysafe.mn.gov).

iv. Optional template. A template COVID-19 Preparedness Plan, which covers the above requirements, is available as part of the Plan Guidance, available on the Stay Safe Minnesota website (https://staysafe.mn.gov).

v. Certification and signature. Senior management responsible for implementing the Plan must sign and certify the Plan, affirming their commitment to implement and follow the Plan.

vi. Dissemination and posting. Each business must provide its Plan, in writing, to all workers, and the Plan must be posted at all of the business’s workplaces in locations that will allow for the Plan to be readily reviewed by all workers. Where physical posting is impracticable, the Plan can be posted electronically, provided that the Plan is received by all workers and remains available for their review.

vii. Training. Each business must ensure that training is provided to workers on the contents of its Plan and required procedures, so that all workers understand and are able to perform the precautions necessary to protect themselves and their co-workers. This training should be easy to understand and available in the appropriate language and literacy level for all workers. Businesses should also take steps to supervise workers and ensure that workers understand and adhere to necessary precautions to prevent COVID-19 transmission. Documentation demonstrating compliance with this training requirement must be maintained and made available to regulatory authorities and public safety officers, including DLI, upon request.

viii. Compliance. Workers and management must work together to ensure compliance with the Plan, implement all protocols, policies, and procedures, and create a safe and healthy work environment.

ix. Exposure notification protocol. As set forth in the general industry guidance available on the Stay Safe Minnesota website.
(https://staysafe.mn.gov), businesses must establish a protocol for identifying and communicating with workers who may have been exposed to a person with COVID-19 symptoms or who has tested positive for COVID-19 while at work.

x. Availability to regulatory authorities and public safety officers. Businesses do not need to submit their Plans for preapproval. Upon request, businesses must make their Plans available to regulatory authorities and public safety officers, including DLI, MDH, the Minnesota Attorney General’s Office, and city and county attorneys.

xi. Complaints or disputes. In the event of a complaint or dispute related to a business’s Plan, DLI is authorized to determine whether the Plan adequately implements the applicable guidance, Minnesota OSHA Standards, and MDH and CDC Guidelines in its workplaces.

e. Child care. Licensed child care providers, including child care centers, certified child care centers, and family and group day care homes, as well as license exempt child care, may continue to operate and serve families.
