

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 34

Providing for assistance to Civil Authorities as result of flood disaster in Todd, Morrison and Crow Wing counties

I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and applicable statutes, hereby issue this Executive Order:

WHEREAS, severe flooding as a result of excessive rainfall, to such a degree as to be considered a disaster, has recently taken place in the counties of Todd, Morrison and Crow Wing, thereby endangering the lives of persons and the safety of personal property; and

WHEREAS, the capability of civil authorities to cope with a disaster of this magnitude are being taxed to the maximum extreme possible, thereby resulting in a potential loss of control;

NOW, THEREFORE, I order that:

1. The Adjutant General of Minnesota will order to active duty in service of the State such organizations, units and individuals as are necessary to protect lives and property during this period of unrest, and that
2. Cost of subsistence, transportation, pay and allowances of said individuals will be defrayed from the General Revenue of the State, as provided for by Minnesota Statutes, Section 192.49; Subdivision 1, Section 192.51; and Section 192.52.

This Order shall be effective on 21 July 1972.

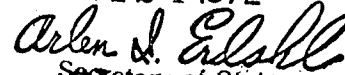

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand on this 24th day of July, 1972.

Wendell R. Anderson
