EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 61

I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and applicable statutes, hereby issue this Executive Order in regard to the establishment of a policy and review board for a statewide criminal justice information system:

WHEREAS, the Board shall be temporarily composed of the existing membership of the MINCIS Steering Committee and the REJIS Supervisory Board and no later than September 15, 1973, shall be established as a permanent board composed mainly of users from throughout the state representative of court, corrections, and law enforcement segments of the statewide criminal justice system. The new board shall contain a priority of representation from regional, county, and city governments, and organizations representative thereof. Each such representative will be appointed by the jurisdiction which he represents, subject to the approval of the Governor; and

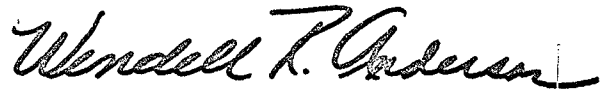

WHEREAS, for purposes of obtaining Federal and State funds, and for purposes of personnel administration and contractual relationships, the State Department of Administration will act as the sponsoring agency of the Board;

NOW THEREFORE, I order the Board, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Administration, shall:

1. Establish objectives, plans, and specific programs to attain a comprehensive, integrated information system to serve all criminal justice agencies in the State of Minnesota;
2. Develop an integrated budget for the maintenance and operation of the statewide criminal justice system, including state and federal funds. This includes authority over proposed expenditures of any state or federal funds for computerization related to the statewide criminal justice system;

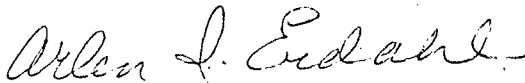

3. Establish security and privacy requirements for the statewide system;
4. Establish and keep current a plan for long range financing of the statewide system, including service charges where necessary;
5. As initial responsibilities of the temporary Board, recommend composition of the permanent board, organize a staff from the personnel presently responsible for development and operation of the MINCIS and REJIS programs to function as a separate section in the Department of Administration, and recommend appointment of an Executive Director for such staff.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand on this twentieth day of July, 1973.

Wendell R. Anderson
