Rep. Ron Erhardt spoke in support of his bill and introduced Mrs. Delores Hagen, the person involved in this legislation. Ed Burek reviewed the staff memo on this bill.

Mrs. Hagen stated that she had made four payments after receiving four letters notifying her of the amount due but was not notified of the due date and amount of the fifth payment. Mrs. Hagen also noted that MTRFA had failed to compute the employer contribution for the 87-88 payment until March of 1991. Mrs. Hagen stated several additional points on this issue.

Morgan Fleming introduced Karen Killberg, the new Executive Secretary of MTRFA. Ms. Killberg called on the MTRFA attorney to respond to a question. Robert Butterbrodt, attorney for MTRFA, testified that one other person failed to receive notice and was allowed to pay. Ms. Killberg went on to note the concern MTRFA has regarding setting a precedent with this legislation and permitting a payment for a partial year.

Ed Burek responded to a question stating that this bill requires only the employee contribution plus interest. He also noted that this bill does not require Mrs. Hagen to pay the employer contribution. Mr. Burek offered several amendments to this bill depending on the desire of the Commission. Discussion followed.

Morgan Fleming noted that the MTRFA Board would be meeting March 20, 1991, and they would reconsider this issue.

Ed Burek reviewed the staff memo on this bill and noted the bill requires payment of a buyback amount based on the salary rate the teacher earned at the time of the unrequested leave plus 6% interest and not due until the teacher has resumed teaching for a third year. Mr. Burek also noted that this bill is retroactive to January 1, 1975. Sen. Leroy Stumpf asked how many teachers would this bill apply to. Elton Erdahl, TRA, responded by saying he did not have documented information but thought the number was relatively small. Discussion followed.

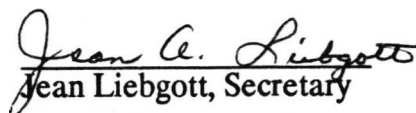

Leo Paley, a teacher at Richfield High School, provided background information and testified in support of this bill. Mr. Ray Saxton, another Richfield teacher, was also present. Discussion followed.
