1.4 "2.43 TIME LIMIT FOR CONSIDERATION. The Committee on Rules and Legislative 1.5 Administration may establish and shall announce time limits for floor consideration of a 1.6 bill, resolution, or other matter before the House. Upon completion of the time allotted to 1.7 a debate, a motion to extend debate is in order. A motion to extend debate must state a 1.8 specific amount of time for that extension. If a motion to extend debate is not made or if 1.9 the motion to extend debate does not prevail, the body must immediately vote without debate
1.10 on the pending amendment or amendment to an amendment or motion and then the bill
1.11 must be given its third reading and be placed upon its final passage without debate. If debate 1.12 is extended, half of the extended time period is reserved for the majority party and half for 1.13 the minority party, or in the event that there is more than one minority party, half divided
1.14 equally between the largest minority and other minority parties."

1.17 "3.10 PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS. While a question is under consideration, only 1.18 the following motions may be received:

1.19 (1) To fix the time of adjournment

1.20 (2) To adjourn

1.21 (3) To lay on the table

1.22 (4) For the previous question

1.23 (5) To extend debate after the time limit for consideration has been exceeded

2.1 ~~(5)~~ (6) To refer

2.2 ~~(6)~~ (7) To postpone to a day certain

2.3 ~~(7)~~ (8) To amend

2.4 ~~(8)~~ (9) To postpone indefinitely

2.5 ~~(9)~~ (10) To pass

2.6 The first ~~four~~ five motions must be decided without debate.

2.7 The motions have precedence in the order listed, except that if the motion for the previous 2.8 question has been properly made, and properly supported, and the main question ordered,
2.9 the motion to lay on the table is not in order. A motion to extend debate is not amendable."
