Senate Subcommittee on Ethical Conduct

May 11, 2004

The Senate Subcommittee on Ethical Conduct met in executive session today to consider a complaint filed by Senator John C. Hottinger against Senator Michael J. Jungbauer alleging improper conduct in violation of Senate policies against using Senate equipment for campaign activity. After hearing from the two senators, the Subcommittee found probable cause to believe a violation has occurred. The Subcommittee will attempt to schedule a hearing on the complaint for the week of June 14. Under Senate Rule 55.5, further proceedings on the complaint will be open to the public.
