Bill Description

This bill modifies a variety of the sections of the Minnesota Code of Military Justice. As a part of these modifications, the BCA is directed to investigate military offenses or any other act or omission under this code within the jurisdiction of the military courts and tribunals, if the investigation is referred to the BCA by the governor or the adjutant general.

Assumptions

BCA:

1. It is assumed that, at maximum, a couple of cases per annum will be referred to the BCA by the governor or the adjutant general.
2. It is assumed that none of the cases taken on will be more complex or require more work than any other BCA-handled case.
3. It is assumed that the BCA will have access to all the necessary evidence and information needed to complete referred investigations in a timely manner.
4. If the the first three assumptions are accurate, the BCA can handle the investigations as a part of its' normal duties.
5. In spite of the first assumption, neither the BCA nor the adjutant general can guarantee that two or fewer cases will be referred per annum.
6. If the first three assumptions are innacurate, the expenses associated with these investigations will be unable to be absorbed.

MSP:

No fiscal impact to State Patrol.

AGED:

No fiscal impact to AGED. No proposed language which would intersect with AGED.

Expenditure and/or Revenue Formula

BCA:

If the first three assumptions are inaccurate, the expenses associated with these investigations will be unable to be absorbed.

If the first three assumptions are accurate, the BCA can handle the investigations as a part of its' normal duties, at no cost.

Bill Description

SF724 amends a number of provisions in and related to Minn. Stat. ch. 192A, the Code of Military Justice. The bill amends section 192.67, Transfer to civil authorities, to state that when any criminal offense, rather than just any felony, is committed by any officer or enlisted member of the military forces while on duty status other than federal, rather than active state, duty, the officer or enlisted member shall be turned over by superior officers to the proper civil authorities. The bill also amends section 192A.371, Review by State Appellate Authority, to provide that decisions of a special or general courts-martial may be appealed by writ of certiorari to the supreme court, rather than to the court of appeals.

Assumptions

It is assumed that the provisions of this bill could increase the number of criminal cases filed in the district courts as a result of the expansion of the offenses required to be turned over to civil authorities. It is unknown how many cases could be filed as a result of those provisions. The judicial branch has no data to indicate there has ever been an appeal filed under the provisions of section 192A.371. Therefore it is assumed that the transfer of jurisdiction from the court of appeals to the supreme court will have no measurable fiscal impact on either court.

Expenditure and/or Revenue Formula

This bill is not anticipated to have a significant fiscal impact on the judicial branch.
