

Request for Funding for Phase II

“Liu Ming Yuan” | St. Paul-Changsha China Friendship Garden of Whispering Willows & Flowing Waters, Phalen Regional Park

Overview

- Liu Ming Yuan is the first Sister-City China Garden in Minnesota
- MN China Friendship Garden Society Board is 50% Asian
- Recognizes ethnic diversity of St. Paul and reflects Asian community in St. Paul
- Visible public space reflecting cultural identity
- Liu Ming Yuan is an Art Form that can touch the human spirit regardless of background
- Collaboration of Chinese and Hmong communities in design and use
- Reflects Hmong ancestral connection to Changsha, sister-city - unique in the world
- 5-year Sister-Park relationship with Yanghu Wetlands parks and 35-year Sister-City relationship with Changsha (1988-Mayor Latimer)

Phase I – Completed in 2019

- Xiang Jiang Pavilion - replica of 1 of 4 famous pavilions in China & Granite Entrance Archway
- Hmong Heritage Wall - pink granite sculpture with MN Hmong & Changsha Hmong cultural symbols
- Features and poetic inscriptions have deep cultural symbolic meaning
- Cultural & performance venue - Chinese dance, Qeej and Hmong Dance, Chinese painting exhibition, poetry contests, 5K run, & more
- All-volunteer MCFGS Board raised $1.5M – 400 supporters

Phase II

- Community input on Phase II design
- Adding culturally significant performance and gathering spaces
- Hmong Plaza design complete; construction will begin Spring 2023; to be completed for September 2023 Grand Opening
- Other features: Lakeside Moon Gate Entrance, Chinese Moon Bridge, Xiang Jiang Mountain Stream and Bridge, Donor Wall, Moon Viewing Platform, Chess Table sitting area
- Garden is drawing increasing partners and members of all communities to connect and learn

Funding Needs

- Budget: $4.6M. Have $1M in hand.
- Have sufficient funds in hand to construct Hmong Plaza in Spring 2023; seeking private funds for Hmong art sculptures
- Seeking $1,400,000 Legacy and $2,200,000 Bonding for Phase II construction
- MCFGS is conducting the Building Bridges Capital Campaign
- MCFGS is seeking other partners for fundraising and cultural programming

Email: mcfgs@mnchinagarden.org

Website: www.MNChinaGarden.org

Moon Gate Entrance

Phase II Features 2023-2025

Hmong Plaza- construction to begin 4/2023

Moon Viewing Platform

Chess Table Area

Xiang Jiang Mountain Stream with Bridge

Donor Wall near Archway

Chinese Moon Bridge (connecting Picnic Island)