

Senators,

I am writing in opposition to Senate Bill 1827 Major Party definition modification. It is already too hard just to collect signatures to get on the ballot and becoming a major party is already overly difficult and causes unnecessary hardship just to be active in the political process. I have petitioned and the sacrifice to collect hundreds of signatures is undemocratic and creates an impossibility for smaller parties to be involved in our governmental processes. I urge you to vote no to Senate Bill 1827 and offer an amendment instead to make it easier for people to be involved in leadership roles.

Sincerely,

Gina Esrar
