Bill Description

HF1918 authorizes the Department of Commerce to assist 11 federally recognized tribes on energy related matters through a tribal advocacy council. Details as follows:

Section 1 outlines the requirement for the Department to provide technical support as well as criteria for the types of support. Criteria for support include, but are not limited to assessment of energy issues, policy development, educational opportunity awareness, implementation of successful energy-related practices, etc. The requests tribal councils can make of the Department are limited to the areas of existing expertise.

Assumptions

The Department assumes its existing technical support functions will address the initial requests for technical assistance, so is assuming no fiscal impact.
