

MN Counties with AWD programs

Counties with names have at least one school district that offers Adults with Disabilities activities through Community Education.

*Counties with an X have not had a district with state funding for AWD; however they had a district with AWD activities before COVID but have no activities currently.

