RE: SEIU Labor Contract Summary

Minnesota Management and Budget (MMB) and the Department of Human Services (DHS) have reached an agreement with the Service Employees International Union Healthcare Minnesota (SEIU) regarding the collective bargaining agreement for Direct Support Workers (also referred to as Individual Providers). This contract is for FY 24-25.

Background

The 2013 Legislature provided the right of individual providers of direct support services in covered programs to organize and bargain regarding the terms and conditions of their employment (Session Laws Chapter 128, Article 2). For purposes of collective bargaining, MMB is considered the employer. The individual provider is employed by the program participant, i.e. the individual with a disability or senior who is receiving the services. The program participant retains the right to hire, fire, and direct the employment of the individual provider.

The first contract with SEIU was reached in January 2015 and ratified during the 2015 session as part of the Health and Human Services appropriations bill. Successor contracts have been negotiated and ratified by the Legislature in the bienniums since.

Covered Individual Providers

Only individual providers providing services under the following programs are in the bargaining unit and covered by this contract.

- Personal Care Assistance (PCA) Choice: PCA is a state plan Medical Assistance service. PCA Choice is a model of PCA services that allows service participants to direct their own care, including hiring, supervision, and training of their individual providers.
- Consumer Support Grant (CSG): This program is a state-funded alternative to Medical Assistance that allows people to use a cash grant to purchase services and supports as an alternative to personal care assistance or home care nursing services.

- Consumer Directed Community Support (CDCS): This is a service option under the Medical Assistance disability waivers, Elderly Waiver, and Alternative Care programs that allows people to direct their own services.
- Extended Personal Care Assistance: Paid through waivers and Alternative Care. People using a disability waiver or Elderly Waiver may access additional PCA services through the waiver beyond what is available through state plan Medical Assistance.
- Community First Services and Supports (CFSS) when provided through the budget model: The Minnesota Department of Human Services is preparing to transition from personal care assistance (PCA) to community first services and supports (CFSS). Consumer Support Grant (CSG) will also transition to CFSS. People can receive CFSS through an agency model in which an agency provider employs staff who provide their services or through a budget model in which the person employs their own staff. In CFSS, only direct support workers employed by a person using the budget model are individual providers in the bargaining unit.

MMB and DHS estimate that there are around 29,000 individual providers of services in the covered programs.
