S.F. No. 74 – Repealing Dan Patch Commuter Rail Prohibitions

Author: Senator Lindsey Port

Prepared by: Alexis C. Stangl, Director (651/296-4397)

Date: January 30, 2023

S.F. 74 repeals two provisions that prohibit spending money on a passenger rail lines between the metro area and Rochester. Paragraph (a) repeals a statute that was enacted in 2017. This statute prohibits spending public funds on a passenger rail line between Rochester and the metro area. Paragraph (b) repeals a 2002 special law. The law prohibited spending on money for the Dan Patch commuter rail line, which would run between Northfield and Minneapolis.
