Bill Description

As it relates to E12 education, this bill would require a district or charter school that issues identification cards (IDs) to students in grades 6-12 to provide contact information for suicide prevention resources on the ID cards. The information must also be included in the school's handbook and district provided planners for students in grades 6-12.

Assumptions

There are no costs to MDE for this bill.

Expenditure and/or Revenue Formula

N/A

Long-Term Fiscal Considerations

N/A

Local Fiscal Impact

Districts and charter schools may incur some minimal costs for including this information on their student IDs and in their school handbooks and district provided planners.

Bill Description

The bill requests the University of Minnesota to provide contact information for the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (988), the Crisis Text line, and the county Mobile Crisis Services on student identification cards. The contact information must also be included in the institution's student handbook.

Assumptions

This contact information can be printed on the student identification cards when the current prepaid stock inventory is used (estimated summer 2023) at no additional charge to the University.

Assumes the phone numbers do not change over time.

The University of Minnesota intends to include this information on student identification cards regardless of the passage of this legislation.

The University of Minnesota does not publish a student handbook.

Expenditure and/or Revenue Formula

$150 one-time artwork fee x 5 campuses = $750 one-time absorbed by the University

Long-Term Fiscal Considerations

None.

Local Fiscal Impact

None.
