

FILMNORTH

A permanent home at 2441 University Avenue West, Saint Paul, Minnesota.

~10,000 square feet including:

- A 54-seat digital screening room cinema
- State-of-the-art digital sound and video editing suites
- Classrooms
- Offices
- Home base for statewide film production workforce development project in partnership with Migizi

An additional ~14,000 square feet managed in an innovative partnership with D/O Architects including space leased to complimentary creative businesses.

- Sustainable, adaptive re-use of an historic building
- Historic and New Market Tax Credits provide 59% of $12 million cost
- D/O Architects design

CALL TO ACTION

Help FilmNorth secure $2 million in cash bonding to complete this $12 million capital project.

Give, volunteer, and learn more at:

www.filmnorth.org/capital-campaign/

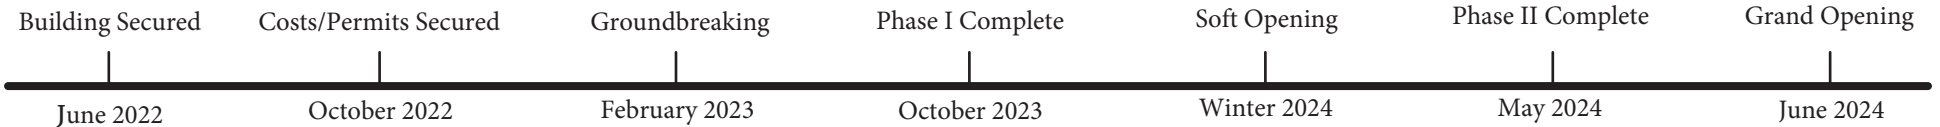

See more!

FILMNORTH

TIMELINE

MISSION CRITICAL IMPACT

- Expand youth programs
- Create a home for the nation’s leading or only film festivals by Native American, Hmong, and Arab filmmakers Establish at Sundance Film Festival location — one of only 30 sites nationwide

FILMNORTH CINEMA

- A 54-seat, state-of-the-art digital sound and video presentation space
- The only one of its kind in the area and the only cinema in this Saint Paul neighborhood
- The site is located on the Green Line nestled within the Creative Enterprise Zone, a lively business district

FILMNORTH OUTDOOR CINEMA - Phase II

- A creative, flexible outdoor screening area for warm-weather events

Give, volunteer, and learn more at:

www.filmnorth.org/capital-campaign/

