Cultivation of Cannabis Plants

S.F. No. 73<sup>1</sup>	Amount	Current Law
Legal	Cultivation of up to eight plants with no more than four being mature within the primary residence of a person aged 21 years or older.	Does not distinguish (at this level) by number of plants except for first- and second-degree CSC (see below). So the penalty would depend on the weight of marijuana possessed (generally speaking, the weight of certain parts, such as the stalk, would not be considered) and presumably range from a petty misdemeanor to a third-degree CSC (20-year felony). Possession (as opposed to cultivation) of 100 or more (but fewer than 500) plants is a second-degree CSC (25-year felony). Possession of 500 or more is a first-degree CSC (30-year felony).
No criminal penalty.	Cultivation of more than eight up to 16 plants.	See above.
New offense of second-degree cannabis cultivation— gross misdemeanor .	Cultivation of more than 16 up to 23 plants.	See above.
New offense of first-degree cannabis cultivation— five-year felony .	Cultivation of more than 23 plants (no upper limit specified).	See above.

Sale of Cannabis

Giving for no remuneration to someone 21 years or older is legal.	Up to two ounces of flower.  Up to eight grams of concentrate.	Giving for no remuneration of up to 42.5 grams of nonresinous marijuana is a petty misdemeanor (repeat offense is a misdemeanor).

<sup>1</sup> The bill (see article 1, section 9) authorizes the Office of Cannabis Management to assess civil penalties of up to $500 per plant grown in excess of the legal limit. These penalties would be in addition to potential criminal charges, if applicable.

<sup>2</sup> In addition to potential criminal penalties, the bill (see article 1, section 9) authorizes the Office of Cannabis Management to assess civil penalties of between $1,000 and $1,000,000 for unauthorized sales (based on weight).

	Edibles infused with a combined total of up to 800 milligrams of THC.	Sale (including giving away) to a person under 18 years old is a third-degree CSC (20-year felony). Fifth-degree CSC (five-year felony) includes selling (for remuneration) nonresinous marijuana; giving or selling resinous marijuana; giving nonresinous marijuana above 42.5 grams; and giving or selling concentrate or infused edibles.
New offense of fourth-degree sale of cannabis— petty misdemeanor if the sale is for remuneration or to a person under 21 years old (regardless of remuneration).	Up to two ounces of flower. Up to eight grams of concentrate. Edibles infused with up to 800 milligrams of THC.	See above. Of note, selling any amount to a person under 18 years old or conspiring with or employing a person under 18 years old to sell any amount is a third-degree CSC (20-year felony).
New offense of third-degree sale of cannabis— misdemeanor . <sup>3</sup>	More than two ounces of flower. More than eight grams of concentrate. Edibles infused with more than 800 milligrams of THC.	See above. Of note, the current first-through fifth-degree CSC apply based on factors such as the amount of marijuana involved in the sale (including allowing for consolidating the amount sold in sales over the past 90 days) and the location of the sale (i.e., school zones, etc.). The maximum sale penalty below first-degree CSC is a 25-year felony under the second-degree CSC. Compare this to five years under the bill’s first-degree sale of cannabis crime.

<sup>3</sup> Under the bill, the criminal penalties for sales of any amount above what is legal to possess in public (potentially including large quantities) are specified in the new first- to third-degree sale of cannabis crimes. Thus, the cap is a five-year felony (and this applies only if there is an additional aggravating factor (sale to minor or repeat offense)) unless the amount sold is more than 25 kilograms (current first-degree CSC sale). Essentially, the bill removes all cannabis sales crimes that currently are within the second- to fifth-degree CSC (leaving only the current first-degree CSC and the bill’s new offenses). It’s possible that a possession of cannabis charge (involving a higher penalty) might be brought in these instances.

New offense of second-degree sale of cannabis—gross misdemeanor<sup>3</sup> if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the sale is to a minor (not just under 21 years old) and the seller is an adult but not more than 36 months older,</li> <li>• the sale occurs in a school, park, or public housing zone or a drug treatment facility, or</li> <li>• the sale is within ten years of a conviction for what would be a third-degree cannabis sale crime.</li> </ul>	Same limits for third-degree sale of cannabis (see above).	See above.
New offense of first-degree sale of cannabis—five-year felony<sup>3</sup> if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the sale is to a minor (not just under 21 years old) and the seller is an adult and more than 36 months older,</li> <li>• the sale occurs within ten years of two or more convictions for what would be a third-degree cannabis sale crime, or</li> <li>• the sale occurs within ten years of a prior first-degree sale of cannabis crime.</li> </ul>	Same limits for third-degree (and second-degree) sale of cannabis (see above).	See above.
New offense of sale of cannabis by a minor—petty misdemeanor if no prior petty misdemeanor disposition or prior adjudication under the new sale of cannabis section.	Sale of any amount of flower, concentrate, or THC infused edibles by someone under 18 years old.	See above. No distinction in controlled substance crimes for acts committed by minors.
