We are a Sovereign State and Nation. When people come here via legal and proper means they have the documentation necessary for obtaining a Driver's license. So why are we incentivizing unlawful entry into this country? This does nothing to help individuals and everything to capitulate to corporations breaking the law. When some one is here unlawfully they can very easily be taken advantage of by unscrupulous individuals and employers. Undocumented workers do not fall under work place or wage standards. So why are we as a state giving credence to this practice? Why are we legitimizing this status?
