Author: Senator Heather Gustafson

Prepared by: Chris Turner, Fiscal Analyst (651/296-4350)

Date: February 6, 2023

Section 1 makes a conforming change.

Section 2 establishes a new crime for recording or broadcasting images of a person’s intimate parts if the person is in a home or other place where a reasonable person would have an expectation of privacy and the image is captured without the person’s consent. Violation is a gross misdemeanor. Establishes a new crime for recording images of a person’s intimate parts or the clothing covering those parts that are taken under or around the person’s outer clothing with the intent to interfere with a person’s privacy. A first violation against an adult is a misdemeanor. A second violation, or recording images of a minor, is a gross misdemeanor. A third or subsequent violation is a felony.

Section 3 makes a conforming change.

Section 4 provides that violations of the crime of surreptitious intrusion may be charged within the later of three years after the commission of the offense or three years after the offense was reported to law enforcement.
