S.F. No. 2044 – Human rights; closed-captioned television

Author: Senator Jim Abeler

Prepared by: Priyanka Premo, Senate Counsel (651/296-3914)

Date: March 13, 2023

S.F. 2044 requires places of public accommodation to provide deaf or hard-of-hearing individuals with closed-captioned television when television services are provided to other individuals.

Section 1 states that it is a discriminatory practice to not provide closed-captioned television to deaf or hard-of-hearing individuals when television services are provided to others and section 2 requires all places of public accommodation to implement this change by August 1, 2024.
