S.F. No. 2318 – Name change by marriage; individuals with a felony conviction

Author: Senator Michael E. Kreun

Prepared by: Priyanka Premo, Senate Counsel (651/296-3914)

Date: March 13, 2023

S.F. 2318 prohibits a person with a felony conviction from changing their name through the county marriage application process. Instead, the person must use the process for changing their name specific to individuals with felony convictions under section 259.13, which requires service on the prosecuting authority with jurisdiction over the conviction and proof of service to be filed with the court.
