

1.1 Senator ..... moves to amend the SCS2319A14 amendment to S.F. No. 2319
1.2 as follows:

1.3 Page 1, after line 2, insert:

1.4 "Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 65B.472, is amended by adding a subdivision
1.5 to read:

1.6 Subd. 7. Occupational accident insurance. (a) For purposes of this subdivision, a 1.7 transportation network company driver is engaged on a network company's application or 1.8 platform starting when the transportation network company driver accepts a rideshare request
1.9 to when the transportation network company driver completes that rideshare request.

1.10 (b) Network companies, within 240 days of the effective date of this act, shall purchase
1.11 occupational accident insurance, as described in paragraph (d), for all transportation network
1.12 company drivers who are engaged on a network company's platform within the state.

1.13 (c) Network companies shall file with the commissioner, no later than 30 days after the 1.14 commencement of a new policy year, a copy of the policy it has purchased for transportation
1.15 network company drivers. The commissioner shall be treated by the insurer as a certificate 1.16 holder for purposes of receiving notice of cancellation of the policy.

1.17 (d) The occupational accident insurance policy required under paragraph (b) shall cover
1.18 medical expenses and lost earnings resulting from injuries suffered while the transportation
1.19 network company driver is engaged on the network company's online-enabled application
1.20 or platform. Policies shall at a minimum include an aggregate limit of $1,000,000 per 1.21 accident and provide for payment of benefits to a covered individual as follows:

1.22 (1) coverage for medical expenses incurred, up to at least $250,000;

1.23 (2) continuous weekly compensation of total disability payments, temporary total 1.24 disability payments, and/or partial disability payments equal to 66 percent of the 1.25 transportation network company driver's average weekly earnings, as defined in subdivision 1.26 5, paragraph (a), clause (3), from all network companies as of the date of injury not to exceed 1.27 the maximum weekly compensation rate, unless the transportation network company driver's 1.28 average weekly earnings are less than the minimum weekly compensation rate, in which 1.29 case the weekly compensation amount shall be equal to the transportation network company
1.30 driver's average weekly wage. Weekly payments under this paragraph shall be made for up 1.31 to the first 156 weeks following the injury; and

1.32 (3) for the benefit of spouses, children, or other dependents of a transportation network
1.33 company driver, accidental death insurance for injuries suffered by a transportation network

2.1 company driver while engaged on the network company's online-enabled application or 2.2 platform that result in death. Accidental death insurance shall be in an amount equal to 66
2.3 percent of the transportation network company driver's average weekly earnings from all
2.4 network companies as of the date of injury not to exceed the maximum weekly compensation
2.5 rate, unless the transportation network company driver's average weekly earnings are less 2.6 than the minimum weekly compensation rate, in which case the weekly compensation
2.7 amount shall be equal to the transportation network company driver's average weekly wage,
2.8 times 156 weeks.

2.9 (e) If a transportation network company driver engaged on a network company's 2.10 application or platform is injured in an accident covered by occupational accident insurance 2.11 maintained by more than one network company, the insurer of the network company against 2.12 whom a claim is filed is entitled to contribution for the pro rata share of coverage attributable
2.13 to one or more other network companies up to the coverages and limits in paragraph (d).

2.14 (f) Any benefits provided to a transportation network company driver under this 2.15 subdivision shall be considered amounts payable under applicable workers' compensation 2.16 law or disability insurance benefit for the purpose of determining amounts payable under 2.17 any insurance provided under section 65B.49, subdivision 3a, or under any personal injury
2.18 protection coverage, as provided in sections 65B.41 to 65B.71."
