S.F. No. 258 – Plymouth lodging tax modification

Author: Senator Bonnie S. Westlin

Prepared by: Nora Pollock, Senate Counsel (651/297-8066)

Date: February 20, 2023

Under current law, the city of Plymouth is authorized to impose an up to three percent lodging tax in addition to the up to three percent lodging tax a city may impose under general statutory authority. Two-thirds of the revenue from the additional tax must be used for capital improvements to public recreational facilities and marketing and promotion of the community, and the remaining one-third must be used for tourism promotion in the city. The additional three percent tax is set to expire at the earlier of ten years after first imposed, or December 31, 2030. This bill strikes the expiration date of the tax. Effective upon filing of local approval with the secretary of state.
