Bill Description

This bill creates a requirement that individuals applying for a cosmetologist, hair technician, manager or instructor license must complete training on specific hair properties, types and textures.

Assumptions

The bill will have immaterial fiscal impact.

The Board will notify schools that students are required to seek out this education for licensure.

The Board will need to complete minimal updates to appropriate applications for applicants to certify completion of this training.

The Board will have no ability to verify a manager receives this education as a manager does not go back to school.

Expenditure and/or Revenue Formula

Immaterial cost to the board.

Long-Term Fiscal Considerations

None.

Local Fiscal Impact

None.
