

To Members of the Minnesota Senate Education Policy Committee:

Please allow me to lend my voice to the chorus of supporters of the SF 2019 service-learning bill. Numerous studies have shown the value of linking community service with students' learning experiences. The best part: our communities benefit as well as the students!

- Steve Murphy, Minneapolis parent and grandparent