

I am writing in support of SF 222

This is a common sense bill that works to provide safety alerts to both property owners and tenants.

As much as we all like to think otherwise, there are unsavory characters who work to find loopholes in our laws. This is a safety guideline that helps to provide a level of protection for tenants and property owners. Especially for the vulnerable among society.

Sara Bertschinger

-Sara Bertschinger-