

S.F. No. 559 – No recording fees required for discharge of restrictive discriminatory covenants

Author: Senator Eric Lucero

Prepared by: Priyanka Premo, Senate Counsel (priyanka.premo@mnsenate.gov)

Date: January 28, 2025

A 2019 law permitted real property owners to record a statutory form with the county to discharge a restrictive covenant related to a protected class from the title. S.F. 559 provides that the owner may record the statutory form without payment of any recording fees. This bill is effective the day following final enactment.

