1.18

Sec. 2. [300.71] DECLARATION OF WRONGFUL FILING.

1.19

Subdivision 1. Form and contents of declaration. (a) A complainant may deliver a declaration of wrongful filing to the office if the complainant believes that a document filed

1.20

1.21

under chapters 301 to 323A:

2.1 (1) was not authorized to be filed; and

2.2 (2) was filed with the intent to: (i) modify the ownership, registered agent, business
2.3 address, contact information, or other information of a business on record; or (ii) register a
2.4 business using another person's name, address, or identity.

2.5 (b) A declaration of wrongful filing must include:

2.6 (1) the file number of the allegedly wrongful filing;

2.7 (2) the complainant's name, mailing address, and email address;

2.8 (3) whether the complainant is employed by or has an ownership interest in the business
2.9 that is the subject of the filing;

2.10 (4) any information or evidence supporting the complainant's allegations under this
2.11 section;

2.12 (5) a statement verifying the complainant believes in good faith that the facts stated in
2.13 the declaration are true; and

2.14 (6) any other information the office deems necessary.

2.15 (c) The office must provide a form for declarations filed under this section. A complainant
2.16 must use the provided form when submitting a declaration of wrongful filing.

2.17 (d) A false material statement of fact in a declaration of wrongful filing or any other
2.18 document submitted under sections 300.70 to 300.78 is a violation of section 609.48.

2.19 Subd. 2. Review of declaration. (a) The office must promptly accept or reject a
2.20 declaration of wrongful filing.

2.21 (b) The office may reject a declaration of wrongful filing that is incomplete, does not
2.22 use the provided form, or the office reasonably believes was delivered with the intent to
2.23 harass or defraud the filer. The office may reject a declaration of wrongful filing if the office
2.24 has already issued a final order on the filing identified in the declaration.

2.25 Sec. 3. [300.72] NOTICE.

2.26 (a) When the office accepts a declaration of wrongful filing, the office must provide
2.27 notice of the declaration to the complainant and the filer. The notice must describe the
2.28 allegations made in the declaration and the process used to resolve the allegations. The
2.29 notice must prominently state the response timeline in section 300.73 and the consequences
2.30 if the filer does not respond. The notice must prominently state that a false statement of

3.1 material fact in any documents submitted under sections 300.70 to 300.78 is a violation of
3.2 section 609.48.

3.3 (b) The office must send the notice by first class mail, postage prepaid, to:

3.4 (1) the complainant at the mailing address provided in the declaration; and

3.5 (2) to the filer at:

3.6 (i) the most recent registered business address associated with the filing named in the
3.7 declaration; or

3.8 (ii) if a mailing address for the filer cannot be identified, the notice may be served on
3.9 the filer as provided under section 5.25, subdivision 6.

3.10 (c) Notice is deemed received by the complainant and the filer upon mailing.

3.11 (d) If the notice to the filer is returned as undeliverable, the office may deem the filing
3.12 fraudulent and immediately issue a final order as provided under section 300.76,
3.13 notwithstanding the time period under section 300.73.

3.14 Sec. 4. [300.73] RESPONSE.

3.15 (a) After notice is received, the filer must respond in writing to the allegations in the
3.16 declaration. The response must be received by the office within 21 calendar days of receipt
3.17 of the notice.

3.18 (b) The filer's response under this section must include any information refuting the
3.19 allegations contained in the complainant's declaration.

3.20 Sec. 5. [300.74] PROCEDURE WHEN NO RESPONSE RECEIVED.

3.21 If the filer does not respond within the time period under section 300.73, the office must
3.22 deem the filing fraudulent and issue a final order as provided under section 300.76.

3.23 Sec. 6. [300.75] PROCEDURE WHEN RESPONSE RECEIVED.

3.24 Subdivision 1. Preliminary determination. (a) If the filer responds within the period
3.25 under section 300.73, the office must further investigate the allegations in the declaration
3.26 and information in the response and make a preliminary determination regarding whether
3.27 the filing named in the declaration is fraudulent.

3.28 (b) The office may request additional information from the complainant and the filer if
3.29 necessary to make the preliminary determination.

4.1 Subd. 2. Notice of preliminary determination. The office must send notice of the 4.2 preliminary determination to the complainant and the filer in the manner described under
4.3 section 300.72. Notice is deemed received in the manner described under section 300.72.

4.4 Subd. 3. Response. After notice is received, the nonprevailing party must respond to
4.5 the preliminary determination within ten calendar days with additional information or 4.6 evidence in support of the nonprevailing party's position. The prevailing party may send
4.7 additional information or evidence within the same time period. The response must be
4.8 received by the office within the time period provided under this subdivision.

4.9 Subd. 4. Procedure if no second response is received. If the nonprevailing party does
4.10 not respond as required under subdivision 3, the preliminary determination becomes final
4.11 and the office must issue a final order under section 300.76.

4.12 Subd. 5. Procedure if second response is received. If the nonprevailing party responds
4.13 as required under subdivision 3, the office must consider the additional information provided,
4.14 make a final determination regarding whether the filing named in the declaration is fraudulent,
4.15 and issue a final order under section 300.76.

4.16 Subd. 6. Factors. When making a preliminary or final determination under this section,
4.17 the office may consider various factors, including but not limited to:

4.18 (1) whether the office has previously received declarations of wrongful filing or issued
4.19 final orders relating to the business, the filer, or the complainant;

4.20 (2) the previous filing history relating to the business, the filer, or the complainant;

4.21 (3) whether the filer or complainant failed to respond to a request for additional 4.22 information; and

4.23 (4) whether the office is able to independently verify the information provided by the 4.24 filer or complainant using publicly available information.

4.25 Sec. 7. [300.76] FINAL ORDER.

4.26 Subdivision 1. Filings deemed fraudulent. (a) If the office deems a filing fraudulent
4.27 under section 300.74 or 300.75, the office must issue a final order under this subdivision.
4.28 The final order must provide the office's rationale for deeming the filing fraudulent.

4.29 (b) When a filing is deemed fraudulent pursuant to a final order under this subdivision,
4.30 the filing must be treated for legal purposes as if the filing never existed. In the case of a
4.31 business registered using a Minnesota resident's name, address, or identity without the 4.32 resident's authorization, the business is deemed dissolved.

(c) When a filing is deemed fraudulent pursuant to a final order, the office must:

(1) mark the unauthorized filing or the business record as unauthorized or fraudulent;

(2) redact names and addresses that were used without authorization; and

(3) retain a copy of the final order.

(d) In addition to the actions in paragraph (c), the office may:

(1) disable additional filing functionality on the business entity's record; or

(2) take other action the office deems necessary to prevent further unauthorized filings, protect private information, or prevent misuse of unauthorized information.

Subd. 2. Filings deemed not fraudulent or insufficient evidence. If the office determines that a filing is not fraudulent or that insufficient information is available to make a determination, the office must issue a final order stating that the office is not removing the filing from the database. The final order must provide the office's rationale for determining that the filing is not fraudulent or that insufficient information is available to make a determination.

Sec. 8. [300.77] JUDICIAL REVIEW.

(a) Any party who is aggrieved by a final order under section 300.76 may appeal the order to the district court of the Minnesota county where the business that is the subject of the final order is registered or was registered before the business's dissolution or, if the business is not registered in Minnesota, to the district court of Ramsey County.

(b) The aggrieved party must serve a written copy of a notice of appeal upon the office and any adverse party of record within 30 calendar days after the date the final order was issued and must also file the original notice and proof of service with the court administrator of the district court. Service may be made in person or by mail. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. The court administrator is prohibited from requiring a filing fee for appeals taken pursuant to this section.

(c) The office may elect to become a party to the proceedings in the district court.

(d) The court may order that the office furnish the court and all parties to the proceedings with a copy of the decision, the filing that is the subject of the decision, and any materials or information submitted to the office. Any materials provided under this section that are filed with the court must be done so under restricted access unless the court orders otherwise.

(e) A party may obtain a hearing at a special term of the district court by serving a written notice of the hearing's time and place at least ten days before the date of the hearing. The court may consider the matter in or out of chambers, and is prohibited from taking new or additional evidence unless the court determines that new or additional evidence is necessary for a more equitable disposition of the appeal.

(f) A party aggrieved by the order of the district court may appeal the order as in other civil cases. Costs or disbursements must not be taxed against a party. A filing fee or bond must not be required of a party.

Sec. 9. [300.78] CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.

(a) A document submitted by a complainant or filer under sections 300.70 to 300.78 is classified as nonpublic or private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02.

(b) A final order under section 300.76 is public data, but the complainant or filer's personal contact information is classified as private data on individuals and must be redacted if contained in the document.

(c) The unredacted version of a filing deemed fraudulent pursuant to a final order under section 300.76, subdivision 1, is classified as nonpublic or private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02. The version of the filing that has been redacted pursuant to section 300.76, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), is classified as public data.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), the office may communicate data submitted under sections 300.70 to 300.78:

(1) to a person or agency if the office determines that access aids a criminal or civil investigation; or

(2) if required or authorized by a court order or other state or federal law.
