2.13 disciplines, as described in clause (1), items (i) to (v), to identify community and enforcement
2.14 needs and challenges related to the crime of animal cruelty; establish effective enforcement
2.15 practices and initiatives based on these needs; and, if needed, seek changes to laws or
2.16 administrative rules;

2.17 (3) build capacity to assist local, state, Tribal, and federal authorities and other criminal
2.18 justice partners in the investigation and prosecution of animal cruelty, including providing
2.19 information, education, advice, services, and resources and engaging communities in the
2.20 prevention of animal cruelty;

2.21 (4) provide standards, training, and certification for authorities and criminal justice
2.22 partners in the enforcement of animal cruelty laws;

2.23 (5) educate, train, and build public awareness of the importance of the humane treatment
2.24 of animals with the goals of demonstrating why animal cruelty is harmful to society, including
2.25 the link to human violence, and increasing knowledge about how to recognize and report
2.26 suspected animal cruelty;

2.27 (6) support the advisory committee established in section 299P.03 and coordinate the
2.28 office's mission with the committee's guidance;

2.29 (7) conduct case reviews involving the investigation, prosecution, and sentencing of
2.30 selected closed animal cruelty cases and provide feedback to the entities involved;

2.31 (8) collect, maintain, analyze, and report on data relating to animal cruelty cases;

(9) conduct and compile research into animal cruelty and publicize the results of the research; and

(10) award grants as provided in section 299P.06.

Subd. 4. Annual performance report. On or before January 15 of each year, the director shall submit an annual report to the chairs and ranking minority members of the legislative committees having jurisdiction over public safety finance and policy on the office's operations and any recommendations for changes in law relating to animal protection.

Sec. 3. [299P.03] ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Subdivision 1. Advisory committee. The commissioner shall establish and appoint the members of an advisory committee pursuant to section 15.059. The committee shall adopt procedures to govern the committee's conduct as necessary and select a chair from among its members. The committee shall act in an advisory capacity, providing assistance and advice to the office in the development and execution of its duties, including outreach to communities and stakeholders.

Subd. 2. Committee members. Committee members shall possess knowledge, skills, or experiences in the prevention, investigation, or prosecution of animal cruelty and the care of animals, reflecting the five disciplines described in section 299P.02, subdivision 3, clause (1), items (i) to (v). The committee shall also include members of the public with knowledge of animal law and animal cruelty or experiences with animal cruelty as a victim, including trauma of victims.

Subd. 3. Subcommittees. The committee may establish subcommittees to identify, discuss, and make recommendations on specific topics related to animal cruelty and effective enforcement efforts of animal cruelty statutes, including but not limited to animal cruelty reporting, victim services, crime data collection, cross-reporting, courtroom advocates, and crime prevention.

Sec. 4. [299P.04] DIRECTOR; OTHER STAFF.

(a) The commissioner shall appoint a director for the office. The director shall have qualifications that include or are similar to the following:

(1) experience or knowledge in criminal law;

(2) experience or knowledge in the many facets of animal cruelty and the five disciplines described in section 299P.02, subdivision 3, clause (1), items (i) to (v), that contribute to the protection of animals and humans and successful outcomes; and

(3) expertise in leadership with planning and communication skills to foster change management techniques and define, develop, and implement office priorities, policies, and operations.

(b) The director may hire additional staff to assist in performing the duties of the office. Office staff shall be in the classified service of the state and their compensation shall be established pursuant to chapter 43A.

Sec. 5. [299P.05] AGREEMENTS AND CONTRACTS; LOCAL AUTHORITY.

Subdivision 1. Agreements and contracts. The director may enter into contracts with parties to assist with fulfilling the office's powers and duties under this chapter.

Subd. 2. Authority of local governing bodies. This chapter shall not be construed to limit or preempt additional requirements imposed on or possessed by any city, town, or county.

Sec. 6. [299P.06] ANIMAL PROTECTION ACCOUNT; GRANTS.

Subdivision 1. Money received from other sources. The director may accept money received as gifts, grants, or contributions from any source to support the purposes of the office under this chapter. The director may apply for and accept grants of money from the federal government, the state, any foundation, or any person to support the purposes of the office.

Subd. 2. Animal protection account. An animal protection account is created in the special revenue fund. All money received under subdivision 1 shall be deposited into the account. Money in the account, including interest, is annually appropriated to the commissioner to administer this chapter.

Subd. 3. Grants authorized. The commissioner may use money in the animal protection account to make grants to state and local units of government and nonprofit organizations to promote animal protection efforts as described in this chapter.
