DISPOSITION OF BILLS

Rule 23. Adjournment of the regular session in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year shall be equivalent to daily adjournment, except that upon adjournment in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year:

(a) any bill on the Calendar in either house shall be returned to General Orders in that house;

(b) any bill being considered by a conference committee shall be returned to the house of origin and laid on the table, and the conference committee shall be discharged;

(c) any bill referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House pursuant to Rule 20 shall be returned to the standing committee to which it was last previously referred;

(d) any bill returned by the Governor to the house of origin with his objections following such adjournment shall be laid on the table.

RECESS BILL INTRODUCTIONS

Rule 24. During the period between the last day of the session in any odd-numbered year and the first day of the session in the following year, any bill filed with the President of the Senate for introduction shall be given a file number and may be unofficially referred by the Committee on Rules and Administration to an appropriate standing committee of the Senate, and any bill filed with the Speaker of the House of Representatives for introduction shall be given a file number and may be unofficially referred to an appropriate standing committee of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Coleman moved the adoption of the amendment. Which motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.
