The other house shall appoint a similar committee.

The manner of procedure shall be as follows: The house of origin passes a bill and transmits it to the other body. If the other body adopts an amendment to the bill and passes it as amended, it shall return the bill with a record of its actions to the house of origin. If the house of origin refuses to concur in the amendment, it shall ask for a conference committee, appoint such a committee on its part, and transmit the bill with a record of its action to the other house. If the other house adheres to its amendment, it shall appoint a like committee and return the bill to the house of origin.

At an agreed upon hour the conference committee shall meet. The members from each house shall state to the members from the other house, orally or in writing, the reason for their respective positions. The members shall confer thereon and shall report to their respective houses the agreement they have reached, or, if none, the fact of a disagreement.

If an agreement is reported, the house of origin shall act first upon the report. A conference committee report must be limited to provisions that are germane to the bill and amendment that were referred to the conference committee. A provision is not germane if it relates to a substantially different subject or is intended to accomplish a substantially different purpose from that of the bill and amendment that were referred to the conference committee. If the report is adopted and repassed as amended by the conference committee by the house of origin, the report, the bill and a record of its action shall be transmitted to the other house.

All conference committees shall be open to the public. Meetings of conference committees shall be announced as far in advance as practical.

All proceedings of a conference committee must be recorded on magnetic tape or similar device. Two copies of each tape shall be delivered to the director of the legislative reference library and there maintained on file for use by any member of the public in accordance with the rules of the legislative reference library.

Discussion preserved under this rule is not intended to be admissible in any court or administrative proceeding on an issue of legislative intent.

Except after the last Thursday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session in odd-numbered years (May 16, 1985 May 14, 1987), and after the last Thursday on which the Legislature intended, when it adopted the concurrent resolution required by Rule 2.03, paragraph (b), to meet in regular session in even-numbered years, a written copy of a report of a conference committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of a house twelve hours before action on the report by that house. If the report has been reprinted in the Journal of either house for a preceding day and is available to the members, the Journal copy shall serve as the written report. The member presenting the conference committee report to the body shall disclose, either in writing or orally, the substantial changes from the bill or the amendment as they were last before the body.
