

WHEREAS it is provided by Law 1947, Chapter 529, that, when an executive office aide arrives at the age of 70 years and has served the State of Minnesota for 42 years or more, under 12 or more governors, or becomes incapacitated for the performance of his official duties to the extent that the public service suffers therefrom, and makes written application to the governor for his retirement, the governor, if he determines that such executive office aide has arrived at such age and has served the state at least 42 years, or that such disability exists, shall direct his retirement by written order, which shall effect a vacancy in the office to be filled by law; and

WHEREAS George Lafayette Hedge is an executive office aide in the office of the governor, has arrived at the age of 70 years, and has served the State of Minnesota for more than 42 years, under 12 or more governors, and has made written application to the undersigned for his retirement; and

WHEREAS I have determined that said George Lafayette Hedge has arrived at such age and has served the state at least 42 years;

I, LEWIS W. YOUNGBLAD, GOVERNOR of the State of Minnesota, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of said Chapter 529, do order and direct that said George Lafayette Hedge do, and he hereby do, retire from the service of the State of Minnesota; he to receive all the benefits provided for by Section 2 of said Chapter 529, Law of 1947.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the Capitol in the City of St. Paul, this 30th day of April in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Forty-seven and of the State the Eighty-Ninth.
