Declaration of "Soybean Day"

- WHEREAS, the Minnesota Junior Chamber of Commerce and its many sister organizations are making many worthwhile contributions to the welfare and progress of the state; and
- WHEREAS, the Junior Chamber of Commerce provides youth of the state with the opportunity to train for executive leadership in community activities; and
- WHEREAS, the Junior Chamber of Commerce has done much on behalf of character-building and the growth of youth in its broad program of activities; and
- WHEREAS, the Junior Chamber of Commerce is doing much to encourage citizenship participation and an interest in our government;

BEFORE ME, J. JAMES W. KILPATRICK, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the following, October 15, 1947 as in the State of Minnesota and urge all its citizens to consider the many contributions of the Minnesota Junior Chamber of Commerce towards the welfare of our state and to cooperate fully in carrying out their civic obligations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in St. Paul this seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and of the state the sixtieth.
