A proclamation for "World Day of Prayer in Minnesota"

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Council of Church Women, acting with similar groups across America and throughout the world, will sponsor a special day of prayer; and

WHEREAS, this day has been set aside in recognition of the universal need of mankind for the guidance and blessing of God in maintaining peace and good will; and

WHEREAS, earnest and united prayer can dissolve the strains of selfishness, tensions and social conflict which beset humanity; and

WHEREAS, the observance of this solemn occasion for prayer will provide a source of spiritual strength to all who partake of this world-wide fellowship by all denominations, nationalities and races;

I, FREDERICK I. LUTHER, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 3, as and urge all citizens to give fervent attention to the purpose of this observance, to offer their own prayers to their Heavenly Father, and, if possible, to attend worship at some religious service during the day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in Saint Paul this first day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine and of the state, the ninety-first.
