A Proclamation for "National Vegetable Week in Minnesota"

- WHEREAS, the year-round production of an abundant supply of vegetables is essential for the health and welfare of the American people; and
 - WHEREAS, the vegetable growers of America have joined in a cooperative effort to produce a finer quality and greater variety of this necessary food; and
 - WHEREAS, the Vegetable Grower's Association of America, during the past forty-two years, has given able leadership in the improvement and increased production of vegetables; and
 - WHEREAS, the State of Minnesota has established a reputation for the high quality of her vegetables and has many citizens who are active members in the National Vegetable Grower's Association; and
 - WHEREAS, it is fitting that we recognize the contributions made by our Minnesota vegetable growers;
- BEFORE ME, LUTHER W. SPRINGDALE, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week beginning August 7 as to call attention to the great value of the efforts of the Vegetable Grower's Association of America to the health and economy of our state and nation and urge that continued research be carried out in the production and marketing of vegetables and vegetable products.

"NATIONAL VEGETABLE WEEK IN MINNESOTA"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine and of the state the ninety-second.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "National Vegetable Week in Minnesota"

WHEREAS, the national health and welfare is in great measure dependent upon the year-round production of an abundance of vegetables; and

WHEREAS, the vegetable growers of America are engaged in a cooperative effort to produce a finer quality and greater variety of this staple and necessary food; and

WHEREAS, during its 41 years the Vegetable Growers Association of America has taken the leadership in the effort to improve these products and to increase production of vegetables; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this effort in the national interest be recognized;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LUTHER S. JOHNSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week beginning August 7 as to call attention to the great value of the efforts of the Vegetable Growers Association of America to the health and economy of the nation and urge that continued research be carried out in the production and marketing of vegetables and vegetable products.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-second day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine and of the state the ninety-second.
