Hon. Mike Holm
Secretary of State
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Sir:

On August 24, 1949, the Hibbing Village Council was served with a petition from residents of the E $\frac{1}{2}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 24-57-21, St. Louis County, Minnesota, requesting that an election be held as provided for in Section 412.041, Subdivision 5, Minnesota Statutes Annotated, the same being Chapter 119, Section 7, Laws of 1949, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not such territory should be annexed as a part of the Village of Hibbing, Minnesota.

The petition, having been properly examined and found to be in order and in conformance with law, the Village Council caused a Special Election to be held within the area in question on the 20th day of September, 1949, with the result that there were 87 votes cast, all voting in favor of such annexation.

Our Village Attorney has advised me that I must file a certified copy of the certificate of election with you, and in compliance with such instructions you will please find such certificate of election attached.

If there is anything further you require in this matter please advise, also kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Gene J. Grady
Village Clerk
