Q-202111#

Harry S. Truman
President of the United States of America.

To all whom it may concern:

Satisfactory evidence having been exhibited to me
that George Kapsambelis has been appointed Consul General of Greece at Chicago, Illinois.

I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges as are allowed to the Consuls General of the most favored Nations in the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be therunto affixed.

Done, at the City of Washington this — sixth — day of — March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and — fifty — and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and seventy-fourth.

By the President:

Dean Rusk

Secretary of State.
