

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "Newspaperboy Day"

WHEREAS, the Newspaper Carrier Salesmen of this country and the State of Minnesota have earned the respect and admiration of every American citizen by their faithful service and their help in preserving the ideal "Truth to a Free People"; and

WHEREAS, it has been clearly demonstrated that our Newspaper Carrier Salesmen receive valuable training in the American way of doing business; and

WHEREAS, the Carrier Salesmen learn to be thrifty, courteous, dependable and self-reliant as a direct result of their newspaper training; and

WHEREAS, these Carrier Salesmen deserve public recognition for the vital role they play in community life; and

WHEREAS, Saturday, October 7, 1950, has been nationally designated as

"NEWSPAPERBOY DAY"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LUTHER W. YOUNGBLAD, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 7, 1950, as "Newspaperboy Day" in Minnesota and respectfully urge all citizens to join in a day of special tribute and recognition for our conscientious, capable and loyal Newspaper Carrier Salesmen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty and of the State, the ninety-third.
