STATE OF MINNESOTA

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

A DECLARATION FOR "Newspaper Day"

- WHEREAS, the Newspaper Carrier Workers of this country and the State of Minnesota have earned the respect and admiration of every American citizen by their faithful service; and
- WHEREAS, it has been clearly demonstrated that our newspaper Carrier Workers receive valuable training in the American way of doing business; and
- WHEREAS, Carrier Workers prove to be thrifty, courteous, dependable and self-reliant as a direct result of their newspaper training; and
- WHEREAS, these Newspaper Carrier Workers deserve public recognition for the vital role they play in community life; and
- WHEREAS, Saturday, October 9, 1961, has been officially designated as

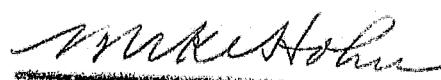

"Newspaper Day"

Now, therefore, I, C. Elmer Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 9, 1961, as "Newspaper Day" in Minnesota and respectfully urge all citizens to join in a day of special tribute and recognition for our conscientious, capable and loyal Newspaper Carrier Workers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one and of the State, the thirty-fourth.

C. Elmer Anderson
