STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "Apple Week"

WHEREAS, the apple has long been a delicious and healthy fruit, of great benefit and enjoyment to man all over the world; and

WHEREAS, the apple-growing industry is an important phase of agriculture in our nation and states; and

WHEREAS, apple growers in this state have devoted much time and effort toward producing apples that can grow in Minnesota and which can match and surpass the qualities of apples grown in other areas of our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, G. Elmer Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota do proclaim the week of October 23 to November 2, 1951 as

"APPLE WEEK"

and do urge the people of Minnesota to note the efforts of the apple-growing industry in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capital this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and of the State, the ninety-fourth.

G. Elmer Anderson
Governor
