EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "American Education Week"

- WHEREAS, this year marks the thirty-first annual observance of American Education Week; and
- WHEREAS, the nation-wide observance of this program serves to call attention to the vital role which the schools play in preparing our children for the responsibilities of citizenship; and
- WHEREAS, it is recognized that to help youth learn the principles of democracy and develop democratic attitudes, habits, and practices, the school and community must work closely together; and
- WHEREAS, the school itself is a community, living in which leads to living in the larger community of the city, nation, and the world; and
- WHEREAS, the theme of the 1951 American Education Week is "Unite for Freedom";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, G. LEMMON ANDERSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim November 11 to 17, 1951 as

"AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK" and urge all citizens to participate in appropriate ceremonies and to cooperate in strengthening our schools, the foundations of our freedom.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and of the State, the twenty-fourth.

G. Lemmon Anderson
GOVERNOR
