Dear Mr. Donovan:

I have the honor to inform you that the Swiss Federal Government has appointed me as Consul General to Chicago in succession of Mr. W. Schilling and that the President of the United States has favored me with an Exequatur, dated August 25th, 1955.

Should I, in the course of my functions, be in a position to be of any service to you or your Office, I hope you would not hesitate to approach me.

With the expression of my high esteem, I remain, Dear Mr. Donovan,

Yours sincerely,

(G. Schneider)
Consul General

The Honorable Joseph L. Donovan
Secretary of State of Minnesota
St. Paul, Minnesota
