

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "Temperance Sunday"

WHEREAS, the fundamental principles of human ethical behavior underlie the cultural heritage of our United States and are essential to the future development and progress of our nation; and

WHEREAS, the virtues of temperance and respect for law and authority are essential to our individual happiness and our community well-being; and

WHEREAS, the United Temperance Movement is doing a fine job of promulgating the ideals of temperance among young people and adults; and

WHEREAS, the United Temperance Movement of Minnesota, in cooperation with churches throughout the State is giving special attention to these ideals on Sunday, May 6th;

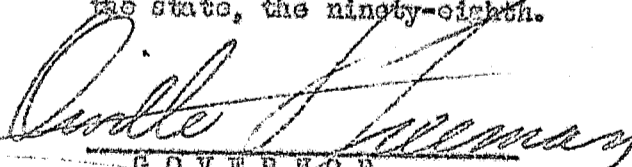

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 6th, 1956, as

and urge that all citizens give particular attention and support to programs to advance the moral qualities of temperance and responsibility which are so important to the future of civilization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-second day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six and of the state, the ninety-eighth.
