To the Honorable Eric G. Hoyer,
Mayor and Chief Executive of the City of Minneapolis:

We, the undersigned Board of Fifteen Freeholders, heretofore appointed and reappointed by the Honorable Judges of the District Court in and for the County of Hennepin, State of Minnesota, Fourth Judicial District, to draft a proposed Charter and amendments thereto for the City of Minneapolis pursuant to Section 36 of Article 4 of the Constitution of Minnesota and the laws of the State of Minnesota enacted in pursuance thereof, do hereby respectfully return, submit and deliver to you as the Chief Magistrate of the City of Minneapolis, the following proposed Amendment No. 14 to the Charter of the City of Minneapolis, which Charter was duly adopted by the qualified voters of the City of Minneapolis on November 2, 1920, said proposed amendment being as follows, to-wit:

CITY CHARTER AMENDMENT
NO. 14

The Charter of the City of Minneapolis is hereby amended by striking from Chapter 4, Section 5, second paragraph, the following language:

"Provided, that all licenses, except for exhibitions, caravans, menageries, circuses, concerts and theatrical performances shall extend to and terminate upon the first Monday in May next after the same shall be issued, unless sooner revoked", and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Provided that no license shall be issued for any longer time than one year, and the City Council shall by ordinance determine the date of expiration of all licenses."

And we do hereby respectfully propose and submit for adoption by the qualified voters of the City of Minneapolis the foregoing proposed amendment to said City Charter as returned and proposed by us, the undersigned Board of Freeholders, constituting the Charter Commission of the said City, this 9th day of February, 1956.
