

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation for "Home Fashion Time"

WHEREAS, pride in community, home and the furnishings in the home is a part of good citizenship; and

WHEREAS, the improvements made in the appearance, comfort and convenience of our homes is a stimulant to our entire outlook toward citizen participation in the community; and

WHEREAS, comfortable living through better home furnishings plays an important role in family harmony and happiness; and

WHEREAS, the furniture dealers of Minnesota are happy to cooperate with this desire on the part of Minnesota citizens and are supplied with the many furnishings designed to promote efficiency, comfort and happiness within the home;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Orville L. Freeman, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 20 - 29, 1956, as

and ask Minnesota citizens to recognize the desirability of furnishing needs of the home and the household that will lead to more comfort and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six and of the State, the ninety-ninth.
